Q Now, did -- and Mr Williams was on the donor list during the campaign for Governor?

A So he was on -- so Brandon, who worked on the campaign, he had the list during the campaign He was kind of responsible for getting the planes during the campaign And then he sent me his list, which was just like names and phone numbers of people

Q And Brandon is Brandon DeGraff?

A DeGraff, yes

Q Okay So he was the -- was he the Governor's schedule before you took it over?

A No No No He was the Governor's like body guy

Q Okay Body guy?

A So the guy who was always traveling with him, yeah

Q Okay And did -- who -- after Mr DeGraff, who became the Governor's body guy?

A After Brandon, it was Adam Zubowsky

Q Adam Zubowsky Okay After Mr McDonnell won his election for Governor, did you continue to use Mr Williams' jet or ask for the use?

A Yes

Q And have you ever personally met Mr Williams?

A No

Q Never seen him anywhere?

A Never -- well, I mean, I've seen his picture

Q Okay

A But I've never like been in the same room with him

Q And who would you interact with to request Mr Williams' jet? Did you call him up?

A No I would call his assistant, Jerri Fulkerson

Q Okay

MR DRY: Can we bring up Government's Exhibit 50, please?

BY MR DRY:

Q And you've seen this document before, and it's an e-mail from Ms Fulkerson to you, correct?

A Yes

MR DRY: The government would ask to move Government's Exhibit 50 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR DRY: Can we go to the -- let's go to the fourth page of the exhibit and start there Okay And at the bottom of that, if you could just blow the bottom up for Ms Block

BY MR DRY:

Q Ms Block, I'm going to -- this is -- I'm going to paraphrase this because it's late in the afternoon

A Sure

Q But just make sure I'm -- I'm characterizing this correctly Is it fair to say that you're e-mailing Ms Fulkerson to talk about a plane request for a Friday flight for the Governor?

A Yes

MR DRY: And if we could go to the fifth page at the top

BY MR DRY:

Q And was this going to be for a December 4th, 2009, trip up to -- up to New York City?

A Yes

Q Okay And this is the specifics Would you typically need to get the specifics to Ms Fulkerson?

A (Nodding head)

Q And did that often include who was attending -- or who was flying?

A Who was flying, yes

Q And why was that, was your understanding?

A Usually they want it for the manifest for the flight so the pilots are aware

Q Okay

MR DRY: And let's go to the first page of the document And in the middle from Ms Fulkerson -- well, that's good right there.

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recall receiving this request from Ms Fulkerson for a meeting with the governor on December 3rd?

A Yes

Q And did you confirm with the Governor that, you know, hey, Jonnie wants a meeting and he's going to come up to New York?

A I don't know how I did it, but probably just putting it on the schedule

Q Okay

A I'm not sure exactly how I told him

Q Fair enough At this point had you scheduled, as of December 2009 -- I think you said that you were responsible for scheduling pretty much everything to do with the Governor's life, right?

A As best I could, yeah

Q Okay Do you remember ever scheduling any kind of meetings, events or anything for the Governor and Mr Williams before this meeting?

A For the Governor and Mr Williams?

Q Yeah

A No, not that I remember

Q Okay And from your perspective, at this time how would you characterize Mr Williams? What is he?

A A donor, a guy with a plane

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 63, which is already into evidence Okay I want to go --

BY MR DRY:

Q You've seen this document before? I've shown it to you?

A Yes Yes

Q A couple times And at the bottom, that's from Ms Fulkerson to you; is that right?

A Yes

Q And the subject is "CigRx Launch " And the next page, this is Ms Fulkerson saying that Jonnie wanted this to be followed Do you recall that?

A Yes

Q All right

MR DRY: Let's go to the first page

BY MR DRY:

Q And at this point you asked for Phil Cox's input and DJ Eckert's input Who is DJ Eckert?

A He's the -- or at the time was the political director for the Governor's PAC

Q Okay And then Mr Cox at the top, "I don't see a problem with that Go ahead DJ "

Do you recall that?

A Yes

Q What did you do with this document after you received it?

A After Phil's e-mail?

Q Yes

A I don't think I did anything, I think Because DJ would have been the one to tell whoever controlled that account to have them follow it

Q But did you give the document to the Governor?

A I don't remember doing that

Q Okay I am going -- I'll let you see something to see if it refreshes your recollection

I'd like you to look at the bottom of page 2 to the first paragraph at the top of page 3, the highlighted portion of the last sentence

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

A Okay I think -- I guess I'm confused Because I think -- I remember putting another document in his read folder about -- but I don't know if this was this same document or if it was a different document

There was another e-mail where I said I would put it in his read folder That's the one I'm thinking of

BY MR DRY:

Q Can I see that document back? Thank you

Well, let's talk about what the read file was. Can you explain that, the read file?

A Sure So we had -- or the Governor always had this folder system There was four folders, and they were color coded So there was the read folder, which was things that were just kind of like FYI, eventually he'll read and get to this folder Like if he's sitting in the car for two hours, he can read through things

There was a write folder for thank you notes or notes that he needed to write There was a hot folder, which were items that were important, urgent, that sort of thing And then there was a draft folder maybe I don't remember what the fourth folder was

MR DRY: Can we bring up 63-1 again?

BY MR DRY:

Q As you sit here today, you don't recall specifically printing this out and placing this in the Governor's read file, after your recollection has been refreshed?

MR BROWNLEE: Objection, Your Honor Asked and answered

MR DRY: It hasn't been answered

THE COURT: No She can answer if she can

A No I don't think -- I know which document you're talking about, the one where she sent me a press release or some release, and I remember putting that for the Governor's read file I don't remember putting this

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 70, which is a press release

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recognize this e-mail?

A Yes

Q Okay What is it?

A It's an e-mail from Jerri forwarding a press release to me about the Roskamp Institute

Q Okay

MR DRY: This has already been admitted, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

BY MR DRY:

Q And what's the top line of the e-mail?

A "Got it Thank you, Jerri I will print this for the Governor "

Q Okay Was it unusual for the Governor's Office to receive announcements from constituents?

A No, I don't think so

Q Okay And did you act as like a filter for a lot of information coming in?

A I not so much But I think a lot of us did I think we all kind of -- anybody who had a contact in the Governor's Office would send, whoever their contact was, various things

Q Okay And -- but do you recall what you did with this --

A Yeah This, printed and put in the read folder

Q Okay

A Yeah

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 626 This has not been admitted yet, Your Honor

BY MR DRY:

Q Is that an e-mail from you to Adam Zubowsky?

A Yes

Q And that's on October 14th, 2010?

A Yes

MR DRY: The government seeks to admit Government's Exhibit 626 in evidence, please?

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q All right Going to the bottom e-mail, is that an e-mail from Cailin McDonnell to you?

A Yes

Q And can you please read what Cailin wrote to you?

A "Monica and Adam Dad had informed me to talk to each of you about some ideas and options for our wedding He told me a few different things to check out" -- "check with you about

He said someone had offered their limos for our wedding He didn't remember who Do you all know?

Number 2, he said tons of people have offered their restaurants, hotels, houses, etc to dad to host different events He told me to follow up with you about these offers We are trying to decide where we are going to have our rehearsal dinner We would like to have it somewhere in downtown Richmond So that way it is close to the church, the hotel, and the Mansion Do you all know of anyone around the area that offered their restaurant/hotel/house to dad? There is no rush to get back to us with these answers Thank you both so much for your help Cailin "

Q And were you involved in assisting with the wedding, Cailin McDonnell's wedding?

A Not that much This and maybe like a few other things, but not that much

Q Okay

MR DRY: And can we go up?

BY MR DRY:

Q What do you write in response?

A I forward it to Adam and I say, "I knew this would happen I quit "

Q And why did you do that? Why did you know that would happen?

A I don't know how we knew it would happen I think we just assumed that we would be asked to help or something I don't really know why I said that

Q You -- did you get a lot of requests from Cailin McDonnell to assist with various things?

A No, I don't think so

Q Okay Going up, Mr Zubowsky writes, what?

A "What are we going to do? I don't recall these huge favors, especially in downtown Richmond Easier to find a plane "

Q And what did you write in response?

A "I don't know, dot, dot, dot We can figure this out We always do "

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 74, please

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recognize this document?

A Yes

Q And this is between -- it's a string of e-mails between Elaina Schramm and Monica Block; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR DRY: Government seeks to ask to move Government's 74 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: Are you saying 74?

MR DRY: 74, Your honor I'm sorry

THE COURT: All right It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q Who is Elaina Schramm?

A She was Secretary Hazel's assistant

MR DRY: And can you go to the third page of the document? Oh, second page Sorry Bottom of that

BY MR DRY:

Q That's from you to Ms Fulkerson?

A Yes

Q And what were you doing there?

A I was confirming a meeting for Jonnie Williams and Secretary Hazel

Q And the day of the meeting was going to be on what date?

A Thursday, November 4th at 9 a m

Q Okay And where was that going to be held at?

A The Patrick Henry Building, our office

MR DRY: Let's bring up Government's Exhibit

87, please

BY MR DRY:

Q This is an e-mail again from you and -- between you and Mr Zubowsky?

A Uh-huh

Q It's February 3rd of 2011?

A Yes

MR DRY: Government moves Government Exhibit 87 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR DRY: Okay Can we go to the bottom? Actually, I think I need the bottom of page 2, the very bottom That's -- I just want to make sure she sees at the very bottom where it says from Adam Zubowsky There Right there And then the actual e-mail goes on to the next page

BY MR DRY:

Q Mr Zubowsky is asking you for what there?

A For Jonnie Williams' cell phone

Q And at this time did you have Mr Williams' cell phone?

A No

Q Why not?

A I don't know I didn't talk to him I usually went through Jerri So --

Q Okay And do you know why -- why Adam Zubowsky is asking you for the phone number?

A I think this is the day that they were stopping by an event --

Q Okay

A -- and needed --

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to the first page

BY MR DRY:

Q And what event did you think they were stopping by?

A I don't remember the name, but this was the event that they added to the schedule It was like the day of added to the schedule

Q Do you remember a CigRx or Star Scientific event?

A Yeah That's -- I don't know what the title of it was, but it was one of those

Q Okay And do you remember where that was going to be at?

A I think it was somewhere in downtown Richmond

Q Okay And at this time, in February of 2011, what's going on? Is it a busy time in the Governor's schedule?

A Oh, yeah, very busy

Q Well, kind of what was --

A I'm sorry So the legislative session was going on and so anytime the legislator was in town, it was just busy And there was tons of events going on every night He probably got requested to go to six different places just in one night

Q Just in one night?

A Yeah

Q And do those requests -- are those typically done at the last minute or were they typically the week before? How did that work?

If I wanted to get the Governor to come to my thing, what do I have to do?

A I lot of them would come in the week before Usually before session started, a lot of the firms and everything would send their things, their calendars or whatever events they were having that they wanted the Governor at

Q And was it -- is it easier to get the Governor to come by an event if you tell him more than the day of the event?

A I guess it just depends But yeah, probably

Q Okay Let's -- let's go to the bottom e-mail What are you asking Mr Zubowsky there?

A If they're stopping by the event

MR DRY: Can we scroll up?

BY MR DRY:

Q And then Mr Zubowsky writes what?

A "Yes 102 loves Jonnie "

Q And then what's your response?

MR DRY: Go up

A "Why does 102 like him? Because he's loaded?"

BY MR DRY:

Q And why are you writing that there? You've known Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell for a while there Why are you assuming that it's about Mr Williams' money?

A I guess that's why I thought that -- that Ms McDonnell liked him or why -- that's why the event was being added to the schedule

Q Well, were there any observations of Ms McDonnell that had formed your opinion at this point?

A I know I had that opinion I don't know if I could necessarily tell you what made me form it But I just kind of had that opinion

Q But were there events or things that happened where you observed Ms McDonnell asking people for things before this?

MS MARTIN: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled

A So I answer it?

BY MR DRY:

Q Yeah Ms Block, I know this is difficult I know you don't want to say these things, but --

MR BROWNLEE: Objection

THE COURT: Ask a question

BY MR DRY:

Q Were there events that you observed before this that led you to the assumption that the reason that Ms McDonnell liked Jonnie Williams was because he was rich?

A I had that opinion That was my opinion, yes But I couldn't tell you how I formed it or what I never seen her ask somebody for something I was typically in my office all the time I didn't see much outside of that

Q All right Let's see what Mr Zubowsky's response was? What does he write there?

A "Yep He wanted to make the gown for the inauguration "

Q Had you heard about this idea of Mr Williams buying the gown for the inauguration?

A Yes

Q How did you hear about it?

A I don't remember It was one of those stories I think was told many times, many different ways It was -- I've heard it at some point I don't remember who told me

Q Okay And just to be clear, who is 102?

A Ms McDonnell

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 89, please

BY MR DRY:

Q This is an e-mail to you from Sara Machir, I believe?

A Yes

Q And the date is February 9th of 2011 Do you remember that?

A Yes

MR DRY: Government moves Government's Exhibit 89 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q Going to the bottom e-mail, the one from Sara Machir, what is the subject of that?

A "Event photos - Star Scientific "

Q And going to the next page at the top, what does she write to you?

A "Monica, thank you again for returning my call this afternoon The two photos shown below are the subject of our request to publish These photos will be posted on the following social media engines: Facebook (CigRx page) and Twitter Thanks again for your help in getting these to the Governor's counsel for review Best regards, Sara "

Q Okay And you write back on the first page What do you write to her?

A "Sara, thank you for running these by us I checked with counsel and the only concern is regarding the text that will be associated with these pictures Can you send me what it would say? As you probably know, the Governor, as Governor, does not officially endorse products If you can keep it relatively vague: Quote, Governor McDonnell stopped by to say hello at our recent meeting/dinner" and not explicitly promotional, it should be fine Just send me text to go along with it, and I'll do one last check and should be good to go Thank you again, Monica "

Q Did you, in fact, check with anybody in the Governor's Office about this?

A I don't -- I can't like remember, but I wouldn't have said I checked unless I checked So I'm sure I did

Q And who was counsel at the time to the Governor?

A Jason Eige

Q Okay

MR DRY: Can we go up, higher?

BY MR DRY:

Q Sara Machir writes you back, basically giving you what they want to say, right?

A Yes

MR DRY: And then go higher

BY MR DRY:

Q So after speaking to Mr Eige, you informed them that this was fine, right?

A Yes

Q Okay Were you typically aware of the types of events that the Governor would attend?

A Was I typically -- yeah Yes

Q Okay And were you surprised that the Governor attended the Star Scientific event for the CigRx?

A I think the surprising part for me was that it was added to the schedule at the last minute, like a stop by on an already busy day That was the surprising part

Q Okay How many events were there on that day? Do you remember?

A I don't remember There was a few

Q Okay And do you remember any other last-minute events on that day, possibly like this one?

A I don't remember

Q Okay

A But I probably wouldn't remember this one unless, you know, we were talking about it

Q Can you ever recall scheduling a similar event on the Governor's calendar that involved a particular product for a particular company?

A Oh, I -- I think a lot of the events we did through -- like with Economic Development Partnership and through Secretary Cheng's office were all about businesses And like I remember doing the big hummus announcement, that was for Sabra Hummus

Q But putting aside the companies, I'm talking about a product launch event for a specific type of product Can you recall ever putting something like that on the Governor's schedule?

A I don't know if I would remember if I did or not All the events start to blur together

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 97, please

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recall this e-mail, ma'am?

A Yes

MR DRY: Government --

BY MR DRY:

Q And this is an April 11th, 2011, e-mail The bottom one is from you to Ms McDonnell and Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A Yes

MR DRY: Government moves Government's Exhibit 97 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q What was the Union League Club event?

A It was a -- like a fundraising reception that the Governor's PAC was doing

Q And can you read your e-mail to Ms McDonnell?

A Sure "Maureen, per our conversation, I've attached a copy of the invitation to the Union League Club Reception on Wednesday night in case you would like to pass it along to Jonnie Williams This invitation is only for the reception because the dinner isn't being hosted by us It is hosted by the Union League Club We have added his name to the list for dinner in case he would like to attend that immediately following the reception Let me know if you need anything else Monica "

Q And what -- did you have a conversation with Ms McDonnell about this?

A I think she had called me and asked for the invitation

Q And did you know who the invitation was for?

A I think she must have told me, because I say if you want to pass along So I assume she told me

Q And who was it?

A Jonnie Williams

Q Okay And the date of the event --

MR DRY: I guess let's go to the second page

BY MR DRY:

Q The date of the event was what?

A April 13th

Q And the date of this e-mail is April 11th?

A Yes

Q And is to fair to say that Mr Williams was a last-minute add-on?

A Yes and no I mean, with events like this, last-minute add-ons is kind of the norm Like you're usually printing name tags up to an hour before the reception So --

Q But do you know if Mr Williams was invited to attend this event before this --

A I don't think he was, no, before the 11th

Q And why do you -- what do you base that on?

A Well, if she was asking for the invite, I assume he didn't already have it

Q Okay Do you recall that Ms McDonnell sent you an e-mail or told you that she wanted Mr Williams seated next to her and the Governor?

A I -- I don't remember how I got that information, but I -- I think I told Paige or told someone that that's what -- to do that But I don't remember how she told me

Q And that would be at the Governor's table?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 99

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recognize this?

A Yes

Q And this is the April 12th e-mail between you and Adam Zubowsky; is that right?

A Yep

Q Okay

MR DRY: And let's go to the -- the government moves Government's Exhibit 99 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q Moving to the bottom e-mail, who is that from and to?

A It's from me to Ms McDonnell and Mary-Shea Sutherland

Q Okay And can you read to the jury just the first -- let's just go with the first line?

A "I just spoke with Jonnie and firmed up your schedule for tomorrow morning Here is what he would like to do "

Q And why were you contacting Mr Williams? Was that your idea?

A I don't remember how, if I was supposed to call him or he was supposed to -- I don't remember how that happened We just talked

Q But did you know that you needed to talk to him?

A I really don't remember up to that point

Q How many times have you spoken to Mr Williams?

A I'm pretty sure this was the only time

Q And before sending this e-mail, did you know that Mr Williams and Ms McDonnell were going to go shopping?

A No

Q Okay But after this e-mail, what was your understanding of what was going to happen?

A That he was going to take her around to all these places in New York

Q And did you know who was going to be paying?

A No

Q Okay From your observations, did Ms McDonnell typically dress in Louis Vuitton and Oscar de la Renta and shop in these kinds of places?

A I don't think I would know what it looked like if she did, but I didn't think she did, no

Q And why did you think she didn't?

A I -- I don't know I just -- I didn't -- I don't know I just didn't think she wore those things

Q Okay Going up, can you read what you wrote -- or what Ms McDonnell wrote back?

A "Thanks, Monica Mary-Shea is checking to see how close our 10 a m appointment is to the Four Seasons so we can meet up with Jonnie as early as possible We may even see if we can change our first appointment time till after we meet w/Jonnie If we can do that, do you know if Jonnie would want to start as early as 10 a m ?"

Q Okay And then what do you write back?

A "I just heard back from Jonnie He said he is available anytime tomorrow morning Just text or call him when you are ready "

Q And then the top e-mail Who do you send that to?

A Adam

Q And what's his role at the time?

A He was the Governor's body guy

Q Okay And how often is Adam with the Governor?

A Most of the time, if not all the time

Q And at any point were you instructed by Ms McDonnell to not -- to hide the shopping trip from anyone?

A No

Q And at any time did you have any conversations with Ms -- Mary-Shea Sutherland about hiding it?

A No, not that I remember

Q Okay Why are you e-mailing Adam Zubowsky about this?

A We would often send e-mails back and forth that just said "loop " Like keeping him in the loop of what we were doing, like -- so he knew what the First Lady was doing that day

Q How many e-mails a day would you get in your job as scheduler?

A In my job?

Q Yeah

A I don't know That's a very good question A lot

Q Okay And was it -- why would you -- did you loop every e-mail to Adam Zubowsky?

A No I think because they were up with the Governor So he would know that they weren't going to be with the Governor all day

Q Okay So the -- the Governor was up there at this -- up in New York City at the same time Ms McDonnell was?

A I think so, yeah

Q And were they staying at the same hotel? Do you remember?

A I assume so, yeah

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 114 This has already been admitted into evidence And then let's go to the third page of the bottom

BY MR DRY:

Q And is it fair to say you're asking for the use of Mr Williams' plane for a trip to Chicago for the Governor at this point?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR DRY: And then going back to the first page, on the bottom of the chain

BY MR DRY:

Q And the date of that is May 4th, 2011?

A Yes

Q And --

MR DRY: Oh, I think I messed up I think I need to go to the second page at the top Do this easier

BY MR DRY:

Q So at the very bottom of the first page -- I'm going to just give you this one Okay?

A Okay

Q Can you read the very bottom of the e-mail where it goes up to the second?

A From Jerri to me?

Q Yeah

A "Just talked to JW He will do trip on 7th and he told me gov is going to Florida on the 1st "

Q Okay And then going back to the first page, and then go to the bottom where Ms Block responds to Jerri You write back what?

A "Great Thank you so much I'm not aware of a trip to Florida until December Hm, question mark "

Q Okay And what does Ms Fulkerson write back?

A "Jonnie said the gov is going to Sarasota to Roskamp

Institute on the 1st and we are providing the institution Roskamp is the company working with Jonnie on Anatabloc, etc "

Q What did you do as a result of receiving this e-mail from Jerri Fulkerson?

A Well, I wrote back to confirm that she was talking about the 1st of June And then I tried to get to the bottom of this It was rare that someone would tell me what the Governor was doing that I didn't already know about, and I was kind of territorial of the schedule, I guess

Q Okay

A So I probably went around, trying to figure out if anyone knew about this event or what this was or why we didn't know about it

Q Was it unusual that less than a month before an event, that you wouldn't know about an out-of-state event the Governor was going to attend?

A Very unusual

BY MR DRY:

Q And going up in the e-mail, after you -- after you -- well, first of all, who did you go and ask about the trip?

A I don't remember who specifically I mean, I would probably start with Adam, just because he would have known if there was a conversation, but -- my assumption was is that Jerri was confused

Q Okay Did anyone that you know about -- did anyone that you speak with know about the trip?

A I don't believe so, no

Q Did you talk to the Governor about the trip?

A Eventually, yes

Q And what did he say?

A I don't remember exactly, but I don't think, in his opinion, he had confirmed to go It was something that Jonnie wanted him to do

Q Did he act surprised, like what is he talking about or did he say -- what?

A I don't remember I don't remember the exact conversation

Q Okay But it was clear to you that he knew that Jonnie wanted him to go down to Roskamp?

A I think he was aware of the event, but it -- he didn't think that he was going

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 117 Well, hold on

BY MR DRY:

Q Before we do that, do you recall whether the Governor told you to -- after your conversation, told you to go check with somebody?

A I think I sent an e-mail to Bill Hazel about Roskamp

Q And do you recall the Governor telling you, "Hey, you should talk to Bill Hazel to see if this is something I should do"?

A It was probably something like that That was a typical response with him with events if -- like check with whoever the secretary might be to see what they think about it

Q So as you sit there today, do you think that the Governor told you, "Go check with Bill Hazel"?

A I don't think I would have done it on my own So he probably said, "Check with Hazel," yes

MR DRY: Okay Let's go to Government's Exhibit 117, please

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you remember this document, ma'am?

A Yes

Q And it's a May 9th e-mail from you to Bill Hazel?

A Yes

MR DRY: Government moves Government Exhibit 117 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q On the bottom of the first page, who is that e-mail to?

A It's from me to Bill Hazel, with Elaina Schramm and Katherine Harris copied

Q And what is -- what do you write there?

A "Bill, the Governor said that he sent you some material on the Roskamp Institute" -- and their web address -- "and that you were going to get back with him regarding your thoughts on the organization Have you had a chance to look at that yet? If so, could you let me know your thoughts? We're currently evaluating having the Governor go down to Florida to speak to this group and wanted to get your feedback prior to moving forward on this Thank you, Monica "

Q And would you have sent that if you hadn't had a conversation with the Governor?

A I don't think so

Q Okay

MR DRY: Go up, up in the e-mail chain, please

BY MR DRY:

Q Can you read starting with, "He mentioned this to me"?

A "He mentioned to this to me on Thursday so I have not gotten to it yet How soon do you need to make a decision?"

Q Then let's go to your response?

A "The person inviting the Governor is a good friend so

I would like to be as responsive as possible "
Q When you say "a good friend" there, what is that?
A Good friend was typically how I would refer to a donor in an e-mail like this
Q Okay Did you think at this time that Mr McDonnell and Mr Williams were personal friends?
A I don't think I knew
Q Okay Had the Governor ever asked you, "Hey, can you schedule some personal time" -- at this time -- "personal time for me and Jonnie"?
A No, I don't think so
Q Okay What time did you send this to Mr Hazel?
A What time of day?
Q Yeah, on the e-mail
A 2:29 on May 9th
Q Okay
MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 118, please
BY MR DRY:
Q Do you recognize this document, ma'am?
A Yes
Q And this is from you to Jerri Fulkerson on May 9th?
A Yep
MR DRY: Government moves Government Exhibit 118 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q On the middle part right there, can you read what you wrote?

A "Jerri, I spoke with the Governor regarding flying down to speak to the Roskamp Institute on June 1st Unfortunately, after checking with his daughter (she is getting married that Saturday) he doesn't believe he will be able to attend due to some dad commitments that day I'm so sorry this won't work out What else can we do to fix this? The Governor is planning on being in Florida in December Could we tie something in then? When is their next event? Thank you, Monica "

Q Okay And can -- I know you read a lot faster than I do

A Oh, sorry

Q But I think the court reporter is -- is --

A I'll read slower

Q -- giving me dirty looks, not you

Okay Do you remember speaking with the Governor about not going to Roskamp?

A Yes I mean, I must have, if I wrote this I don't remember the conversation

Q You don't remember the conversation?

A No

Q At the time that you wrote that e-mail, had Dr Hazel gotten back to you yet about going to Roskamp?

A I think the e-mails were sent almost like simultaneously Right

Q Do you recall the specifics -- I just want to make sure I understand You don't recall any specifics of the conversation that you had with the Governor about Roskamp and not going to Roskamp?

A Not -- I don't remember the specifics, no

Q At some point did you become aware that Ms McDonnell was going to go down to Roskamp?

A I -- I did, but I don't remember when

Q Okay

MR DRY: Can we bring up Government's Exhibit 130, please

BY MR DRY:

Q This is an e-mail from you to -- I'm sorry, from Jerri -- at the top it's from Jerri Fulkerson to you, correct?

A Yes

MR DRY: Government moves Government Exhibit 130 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR DRY: Can we go to the middle part, the part that's from --

BY MR DRY:

Q Well, first of all, what's the date on the top?

A Tuesday, May 24th

Q And can we go to -- that's 2011?

A Yes Sorry

Q What did Ms Block write to Jerri?

A This one?

Q Yes, ma'am

A Okay "Can you check and see if the SML house would be available from Thursday, July 28th through Sunday July 31st? Assuming that Jonnie is still interested in letting the Governor and his family use it Could you also send me the address if you have it? Thank you, Monica "

MR DRY: And then scroll all the way to the bottom, please

BY MR DRY:

Q In the first e-mail in this chain, that's from you to Jerri Fulkerson, right?

A Yes

MR DRY: And then we go to the next -- I'll just -- yeah

THE COURT: I didn't hear you

MR DRY: I'm just going to ask her to read one sentence out of this

BY MR DRY:

Q Can you read the first full sentence?

A "The Governor mentioned to Jonnie that the McDonnell family was going to spend the weekend at Smith Mountain Lake in July, and Jonnie offered the Governor the option of staying in his place down there "

Q And how did you -- how did you learn about this?

A I assume the Governor told me

Q And do you remember any specifics of that conversation?

A No It might have been an e-mail or he might have told me in person I don't remember

Q And, in fact, did the Governor spend the weekend at Smith Mountain Lake?

A Yes, I think so

Q Okay I'm going to now hand you up what's Government's Exhibit 105, 115, 136, 623, and 624 Have you had an opportunity to review these before your testimony today?

A Yes

Q And are those schedules that were the Governor's schedule, various schedules at different times during the time you were the Governor's scheduler?

A Yes

Q Were these schedules typically kept in the ordinary course of business?

A I'm sorry?

Q Did you typically keep schedules like this in your job?

A Oh, yeah I sent them out every day

Q Okay

MR DRY: The government moves Government's Exhibit 105, 115, 136, 623, and 624 into evidence

THE COURT: They will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q When did you leave the Governor's Office?

A It was June of 2011

Q And where did you go work after that?

A The Republican Governors Association

Q And what you do at the Republican Governors Association?

A I am the governors' liaison

Q What does that mean?

A So my job is to help coordinate all the activities that the Republican governors do with our organization

Q And is it fair to say that as a liaison, you're trying to facilitate the relationship between donors and governors and the Republican Party?

A Yeah I guess like having the governors travel to our events where we have our members there and go on trips for us and do fundraising calls for us, that sort of thing

Q And does it make it easier to raise money if the governors will come to your events, for the donors to come as well?

A Sure

Q With their checkbooks, right?

A Well, our events are typically fulfillment events So they have already given us money

Q They have already written the check? All right

MR DRY: Let's bring up Government's Exhibit 308 into evidence

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recall this e-mail, ma'am?

A Yes

Q And this is an e-mail from you to Adam Zubowsky on February 8th of 2012?

A Yes

MR DRY: Government moves Government's Exhibit 308 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR DRY· Judge, I only have about five or ten more minutes

THE COURT: All right

BY MR DRY:

Q Ma'am, can you read -- do you recall that there was going to be a healthcare reception at the Governor's Mansion in February of 2012? Do you remember learning about that?

A Yes, because I've seen this e-mail I don't think I otherwise would remember, but yes

Q Okay And can you read what you wrote at the top there?

A To Adam "Here is who the RGA would like to invite to the Healthcare Reception We would prefer to send out the invites from the RGA so we can do the appropriate follow-up Could you give me an invitation we could send out?"

MR DRY: And could we just scroll down?

BY MR DRY:

Q And when it says "Membership Level, Board," what does that mean?

A That's a membership level with one of our corporate programs

Q Okay And who are these people?

A All people in the healthcare industry

Q Okay And why did you want to send out --

MR DRY: You can stop there

BY MR DRY:

Q Why did you want the RGA to be the one to send out the invitations?

A Just so they would know who it was coming from Our membership directors interact with them on daily bases So if they saw an e-mail from a familiar name, they would know who it was coming from

Q And did Ms McDonnell -- do you remember Ms McDonnell wanting to send out the invitations herself, or have them come from the Mansion directly?

A I think that's what wound up happening

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit -- well, hold on one second Let's go to Government's Exhibit 311

BY MR DRY:

Q When you're sending that list that we just spoke about to Adam Zubowsky, why does the RGA want its donors to go to this Healthcare Reception?

A I don't remember what the logic was But assuming that they would want to go to an event with one of our governors that's in their industry

Q And it would have allowed them to do what?

A Mix and mingle with the Governor and their peers

Q And was that -- did you perceive that as a benefit to your donors?

A I guess

Q On this Government's Exhibit 311, at the very top, that's an e-mail from you to Adam Zubowsky?

A Yep

MR DRY: Move Government's Exhibit 311 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q And what is the subject line of this e-mail?

A "Please Print for FLOVA."

Q I'm sorry. No No

A The attachment?

Q At the top The attachment, you're right

A "Healthcare Companies with Virginia Presence Invites "

Q Do you know why Adam Zubowsky was writing -- or the subject line was "Please Print for FLOVA"?

A I would have to scroll down I don't know what the original e-mail was

Q Here we go I can give you --

A Oh, okay

Q Got lots of paper

A Thanks So it looks like Adam sent it to Kristen to print for the First Lady

Q Okay Do you recall whether any of the RGA donors actually got to attend the event?

A I don't remember

Q Okay Moving on to the last topic At the time that you left the Governor's Office, were you aware that Williams had paid for the reception cost for Cailin's wedding?

A I don't think so

Q You hadn't heard anything like that?

A I do think so, no

Q Okay When did you first become aware of that?

A I think when it was just in the news

Q Okay At the time that you left the Governor's Office, were you aware that Williams had provided a $50,000 loan to the McDonnells?

A No

Q When did you first become aware of that?

A When it was in the news

Q As the Governor's scheduler, it was your job to kind of be aware of what he was doing pretty much all the time?

A As best I could, yeah

Q And you were the Governor's scheduler from when to when?

A So I started, I think it was in August of 2009 on the campaign and then until June of 2011

Q During that time, did the Governor ever mention Williams in a way that suggested to you that the two of them were personal friends?

A Not that I remember

Q Did you review -- did you view Mr Williams as a personal friend or a dónor?

A I looked at him as a donor with a plane

Q When the Governor mentioned Mr Williams, did he mention him in the same context or the same ways that he referred to other donors?

A I don't really remember talking about him ever with the Governor So I don't -- when we talked, it was usually about the schedule It wasn't about things like that, I guess

MR DRY: One moment, please

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR DRY: The government will tender the witness, Your Honor

Thank you, Ms Block

THE COURT: All right We'll go ahead and stop for the evening We'll get started tomorrow, 9:30 tomorrow

Ladies and gentlemen, let me give you that admonition again Please don't allow anybody to discuss the case with you, and if they do, bring it to my attention And continue staying away from the newspapers, the TV, and any media items relating to this case We'll get started at

9:30 sharp You all, again, be careful and have a great evening We will see you tomorrow morning

Good morning Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Good morning, Ms Block

A Good morning

Q My name is John Brownlee and I'm an attorney for Bob McDonnell And I just have a few questions for you this morning Okay?

A Okay

Q Thank you In your time working with Mr McDonnell, did he routinely share the details of his private finances with you?

A No

Q How about information about personal loans or the amount of his mortgage?

A No.

Q How about the details of his marriage?

A No

Q Okay Mr Dry asked you several questions about things that you knew or didn't know Did you ever believe at any time Governor McDonnell was trying to deceive you?

A No

Q Okay Can we pull up RM-0709? If you could focus on the bottom of that page Okay, Ms Block, you had testified yesterday about this e-mail This was from July of 2010 in which they were going to try to set up a meeting between Mr Williams and Governor McDonnell at the airport for a few minutes before the Governor used his aircraft to fly somewhere Were these kinds of meetings normal that you would set up for people who were offering their plane?

A Sure.

Q Okay And Governor McDonnell is not on this e-mail; is that correct?

A No.

Q Okay Could we see 0720, please? Is there a Page 2 to that? If we could blow up the bottom part of that Okay, this is another e-mail that Mr Dry asked you about This is from Ms Fulkerson to you It is also to Noah Rogers Who is Noah Rogers?

A At the time he was the Attorney General's scheduler

Q Mr Cuccinelli's scheduler?

A Yes

Q This e-mail was sent to both the representative of Mr Governor McDonnell as well as the representative for Attorney General Cuccinelli?

A Yup

Q If you could scroll up, please I believe this is a part where you wrote where it says, "See the below request from Jonnie Williams As you know he is an awesome supporter and saved our butts for numerous times when it comes to flights " You remember writing that; is that correct?

A Yes

Q When you say "awesome supporter," it's fair to say that's because he has allowed you to schedule his airplane numerous times

A He saved our butts numerous times

Q Okay, let me go to the next page, please I think you need to scroll down just a bit This was about a request to have Governor McDonnell's twitter account follow this CigRx; is that correct?

A Yes

Q That was ultimately approved; is that right?

A Yes

Q By the staff, correct?

A Yes

Q Governor McDonnell wasn't involved in that?

A No

THE COURT: Is this document admitted?

MR BROWNLEE: Yes, sir

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q And he is not on this e-mail; is that correct?

A No

Q Thank you. RM-0744 Okay, this is, if you will blow up the top there, please

MR. BROWNLEE: Your Honor, these are all e-mails introduced yesterday through the government.

THE COURT: All right

MR. BROWNLEE: Thank you.

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q It says, Ms Fulkerson sent you an e-mail about a press release to go to Governor McDonnell and Attorney General Cuccinelli; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Eventually you did get this; is that right?

A Yes

Q I think you testified that this was put into his read file

A Yes

Q There is another file called a hot file

A Yeah

Q I guess I'll go to the obvious The hot one is the more important?

A Yup

Q The read file is the less important?

A Get to it eventually, yeah

Q All right And he would, is it your understanding that the Governor would then read all that stuff and assign it to the relevant individual?

A Yes

Q I think you testified if it had to do something with agriculture, it might go to the Secretary of Agriculture, Todd Haymore?

A Yup

Q Did he throw away a lot of stuff or always try to keep stuff?

A I don't think he threw away, I think every piece of paper wound up going to somebody, whether back to the person that originally gave it to him, it always went back to somebody

Q Thank you. 0756 Now, this is an e-mail you had talked about yesterday in which Ms Fulkerson was trying to get a meeting scheduled between Mr Williams and Mr Hazel; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And is it fair to say that from your vantage point as his scheduler, that you would see this kind of traffic from time to time about trying to set up meetings between constituents, donors, and members of the Cabinet?

A Yes

Q Very routine?

A Yes

THE COURT: Mr Brownlee, I think if you would say the number and previously admitted, it will pop up for everybody to see As long as you just say the number, she doesn't know whether it has been admitted or not

MR BROWNLEE: I'm sorry, I didn't notice that My apologies I've got it This is Government Exhibit 74 Thank you, Your Honor My apologies

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Okay So setting up these kinds of meetings is routine?

A Yes

Q Okay Let me see RM 0818, please This is Government Exhibit 89 If you could go to the second page If you could blow up those photographs It is my understanding from this e-mail, this was forwarded, eventually it came to you and the request was that these pictures, that Star would be allowed to post these pictures on their website; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And you then forwarded it to the attorney; is that right?

A I don't know if I forwarded it or printed it out, but at some point I brought it to Jasen, yes

Q You spoke to Mr Eige, and Mr Eige was Governor McDonnell's attorney at the time?

A Yes

Q Okay And if you go to your part of the e-mail, right down at the bottom there, "Thank you." Now, this is you writing back to Sarah. Now, the substance of this e-mail, I understand you may have typed it, but did you write it or did this come from the lawyer through your conversation with him?

A It would have come through my conversation with him. Otherwise, I wouldn't have known to say that

Q Okay So what he was telling you is that the pictures were fine to run but he was concerned about how the caption described it

A Yes.

Q Is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay If you go up, I think they eventually were satisfied on the caption, "Virginia Governor Bob McDonnell making brief remarks at our recent dinner for healthcare providers in Richmond "

With that, it was approved and it was allowed to be posted, whatever they wanted to do with it?

A Yup

Q Okay And Governor McDonnell wasn't on this e-mail; is that correct?

A No

Q Okay 0853 Actually, if you will go to, I'm sorry, 0848 RM 0848 This is --

MR. BROWNLEE: I'm sorry, Your Honor, this is Government Exhibit 97

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q This is an e-mail from you to Ms McDonnell with sending the invitation to the Union League reception; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And this was a dinner for the Governor's PAC with other donors up in New York; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, Governor McDonnell didn't have anything to do with assigned seating, did he?

A No.

Q Okay And if you know, at the time, was Mr Williams considered a pretty big donor to the campaign through his plane?

A I think, there was a lot of big donors, but I think so.

Q And Governor McDonnell is not on this e-mail, either?

A No.

Q You can take that down. Now, one of the things I think you talked about was keeping track of gifts that were received by the Governor; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And I think you said that you created or tried to maintain some sort of gift log?

A Yes

Q Okay And was it one of your duties that if you were to accept a gift, to contact the giver of that to try to get the value of it so it can be logged?

A Yes

Q Okay Would you also use the calendar, his calendar, to also confirm these kinds of things?

A Yes I basically looked at anything at the end of every month, anything in the last month on the calendar that I would have touched that might have been a gift, like a flight or something like that

Q Okay It is your experience Governor McDonnell himself didn't follow up on these things It was a staff responsibility.

A That was our job, yeah.

Q Okay Thank you 0514 This is Government Exhibit 114, Your Honor Actually, if you just go to the next page Next one, please Other way There you go Just in the top there, this is Ms Fulkerson sending you an e-mail saying, "Jonnie said the Gov is going to Sarasota to Roskamp Institute on the 1st and we are providing the transportation."

I think Mr Dry asked you about this, and you said that you didn't have any recollection, you didn't know that, it wasn't on your calendar

A No, it wasn't

Q I believe Mr Dry asked you if it was unusual that you didn't know about a trip. And you said yes Is that right?

A Yes

Q It is fair to say that you didn't know about this trip because in fact it wasn't calendared.

A Because it wasn't happening, yeah.

Q Governor McDonnell is not on this e-mail, either, right?

A No

Q 0887, RM-0887 Government Exhibit 117, Your Honor This is another e-mail that Mr Dry asked you about This is you writing an e-mail to Bill Hazel, and I believe this was the Secretary of Health and Human Resources?

A Yes

Q And this is following up on him to get some feedback, and I think he is specifically asking, "Have you had a chance to look at that yet? Let me know your thoughts "

Based upon your job there for almost two years, is it common for Governor McDonnell to seek the advice, perhaps the thoughts of his staff and Cabinet on various issues?

A Oh, yeah, all the time

Q And Governor McDonnell is not on this e-mail, either, right?

A No.

Q 0888, please If we could just have the middle portion there, please This is an e-mail from you back to Ms Fulkerson basically telling her that he is not going

A Yeah.

Q Then you have the last little paragraph: "What can we do to fix this, planning on being in Florida in December, could we tie it into something then " Is this an example of what you said, saying no with a smile?

A Yes

Q That's what Governor McDonnell expected you to do with all the people you interacted with?

A With every request.

Q Now, with regard to Roskamp, you understand that Ms McDonnell went to Florida on the 1st; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And Mr Dry asked you some questions about a surrogate Now, when anyone, whether it be the First Lady or anybody else, acted as his surrogate, you would know about it?

A If it came to us and we were trying to decline it with a surrogate, yeah

Q I think you said that that would typically go through the planning meeting and then from there it would get placed on the calendar?

A Yes

Q That didn't happen in this case, did it?

A No.

Q Okay And you had no discussions with Governor McDonnell about her going

A No

Q And Governor McDonnell wasn't on that e-mail, either

A No

Q RM-0901 Government Exhibit 130 Let me go back to the first page I think there is a page before that Blow up the top part This is an e-mail that you sent to Ms Fulkerson. This has to do with the Smith Mountain Lake trip And this is what you wrote: "I just want to make sure, it says the Governor mentioned to Jonnie that the McDonnell family was going to spend the weekend at Smith Mountain Lake in July "

Had the family gone to Smith Mountain Lake before?

A Yes, they had gone the year before

Q Okay Had they, did they stay at Mr Williams' home or somewhere else?

A Somewhere else

Q Then it goes on, " and Jonnie offered the Governor the option of staying in his place down there " Is that correct?

A Yes

Q Let's go to the next page And then blow up that middle piece Then this is your follow-up, and if you look at the second line, beginning with the word "Assuming," it says, "Assuming that Jonnie is still interested in letting the Governor and his family use it "

So this was, from your perspective, Mr Williams was offering this and you were still checking to see if that offer was open

A Yes

Q Okay And Governor McDonnell is not on any of these e-mails?

A No

Q Last thing When you were the scheduler, you prepared the Governor's calendar; is that correct?

A Yes

Q You maintained that

A Yes

Q So beginning, I believe, beginning in '09?

A Yup

Q All the way through, I think, June of 2011, that was your calendar

A Yup.

Q And you maintained it; is that right?

A Yes

Q Let me show you RM-0178-0001 through RM-0178-0638

(Documents proffered to witness)

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Ms Block, is this the calendar that you prepared and maintained during your time working with Governor McDonnell?

A Yes

Q You have had a chance to review this?

A Yes

Q Is it in the condition as you prepared it?

A Yes Looks great

Q Did you keep it in the normal course of business?

A Yes

MR. BROWNLEE: We would move this into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR. BROWNLEE: That's all I have, Your Honor Thank you.

THE COURT: All right

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS MARTIN:

Q Good morning, Ms Block.

A Hi

Q My name is Heather Martin, and I represent Ms McDonnell I'll try to keep this very brief for you

A Okay

Q I'd like to start by showing you a couple documents that the government showed you yesterday

A Okay

Q Victoria, if we could pull up Government Exhibit 87, please And just to orient ourselves in time, the date of this e-mail is February 3rd, 2011, correct?

A Yes

Q And at the time of this e-mail, you knew Jonnie Williams as a guy with a plane

A Yes

Q And so if we scroll down in the e-mail, you were being asked for his cell phone number, correct?

A Yes

Q Actually, if we could go to the second page And just below that, where you couldn't find it, Adam Zubowsky asks, "PAC database?"

A Yes

Q You understood him to be asking you to check the PAC database for Jonnie Williams' telephone number because you couldn't find it, correct?

A Yes

Q The reason he was asking you to look there was because Jonnie Williams was a donor, correct?

A Yes

Q He had donated airplane time and this is how you had understood him.

A Yes

Q If we go to back to the first page, and, yes, right in there, scroll up a little bit, and we go to the line that says, "Yes 102 loves Jonnie " That's Adam speaking to you?

A Yes

Q That's his statement?

A Yes

Q We understand in the context of that statement, "102" is Ms McDonnell? Correct?

A Yes

Q You respond with two questions, correct?

A Yes

Q You say, "Why does 102 like him? Because he is loaded?"

A Yes

Q So that was a question on your part, more so than an assertion, correct?

A Yes It was a question.

Q And you have stated before that the reason that you thought that she perhaps loved Jonnie Williams was because everybody loves friends who are loaded, correct?

A I mean, yeah, who doesn't like a friend with a lot of money?

Q All right We can take that down. If we could pull up Government Exhibit 99, please If we could go to the bottom section. All right, now, this is an e-mail that you drafted, correct?

A Yes

Q It is an e-mail that you drafted after getting off the telephone with Jonnie Williams; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And I think you testified yesterday that until you sent this e-mail, you didn't know that Ms McDonnell was supposed to go shopping But just to be a little clearer, I think it would be that you didn't know she was supposed to go shopping with Jonnie Williams until you got off the phone with Jonnie Williams, correct?

A Yes I don't know when I knew that the trip or shopping was happening, but I don't think it was until I talked to Jonnie

Q He told you the things that are in this e-mail, correct?

A Yes

Q You wouldn't have had any reason to write this e-mail unless he had told you these things?

A No.

Q Let's walk through it a little more slowly than the government did with you yesterday

A Okay

Q I just want to go to the end of that first line where it says, "Here is what he would like to do " What that represents is Jonnie Williams was setting the agenda on this shopping trip, correct?

A Yes

Q If I could go back up to the subject line where it says, "NYC!" The mark is meant to convey enthusiasm, right?

A Usually

Q It is exciting, going on a shopping trip to New York City, getting the VIP treatment

A Yes

Q Now, first bullet point, it says, "Meet Jonnie in the lobby of the Four Seasons." You understood that the Four Seasons is where Jonnie Williams was staying in New York, correct?

A I think I would have assumed that I don't really remember

Q This is after your 10 a.m. appointment Ms McDonnell had other appointments scheduled in New York that day already, correct?

A Right, yes.

Q All right It says from there that they were going to walk to Bergdorf Goodman for lunch Was that something Jonnie Williams told you they should do?

A Yes

Q Was it something you suggested?

A No

Q "Jonnie has a friend, Ping, who works at the Bergdorf Chanel counter " Is that a makeup counter?

A I think so, yes

Q Jonnie was the one who told you that he has this friend Ping, correct?

A Yes

Q You didn't ask Jonnie Williams if he had a friend who worked at the Chanel counter?

A No

Q Then he offered that his friend, Ping, is going to make a reservation to have lunch and then take you around to see all the dresses there at Bergdorf Correct?

A Yes

Q Those are all things that Jonnie Williams offered without being asked, correct?

A Yes

Q The third bullet point: "Jonnie said to not eat a big breakfast because they have the best lunch in NYC " Correct?

A Yes

Q That's something that Jonnie offered?

A Yes

Q The fourth bullet point says, "After you are finished at Bergdorf, he said he is going to take you to Oscar de la Renta's store " Right?

A Yes

Q Then he said, "He isn't sure if Oscar is in town, but if he is, he will meet you all there " He said that, correct?

A Yes

Q This conveyed to you while you were on the telephone with him that he knew Oscar de la Renta?

A Yes

Q He wasn't saying he knew a friend of a friend who had a grand niece or something like that

A No

Q He conveyed he had personal knowledge of Oscar de la Renta, the human being

A Yes

Q And while you were on this telephone conversation with Jonnie Williams, he never did or said anything that indicated to you that he thought that fulfilling this agenda would be awkward, did he?

A No.

Q All right We can take that down Now, during the time that Robert McDonnell was the Governor of Virginia and you were his scheduler, you have described his schedule as crazy Right?

A Yes

Q And you have stated that he was always doing too much

A Yes

Q That's something you believe

A Yes

Q And you know that he has been in public service for 20 years?

A Uh-huh

Q You know he is dedicated to the people of Virginia?

A Uh-huh

Q And the time that you saw him spend with Ms McDonnell was lunch once a week, right?

A Yeah, we tried to do it once a week. I don't think it ever happened once a week as far as that consistently

Q It was difficult to even get in lunch with his wife once a week as far as on his schedule

A Yes

Q And you recall scheduling maybe one or two dinners between them during the entire one-and-a-half years you were his scheduler?

A Yes, usually on birthdays

Q And during his time as Governor, Ms McDonnell did not have the ability to add or remove appointments from his calendar, correct?

A No, she didn't

Q And she previously had access to it during the campaign, correct?

A She did.

Q That access was taken away after the election, wasn't it?

A I don't remember exactly when it was taken away, but it was taken away

Q The reason it was taken away is because her priorities on his time sometimes conflicted with what the staff considered to be his priorities on his time, correct?

A Yes

Q And you observed that as a result, she could get frustrated

A Yes

Q She could be emotional about it

A Yes

Q She could act out from time to time?

A Yes

Q And this is because you observed that she felt abandoned.

A I don't really --

MR. DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MS MARTIN:

Q Now, you observed that Jonnie Williams spent time with Maureen McDonnell, correct?

A Yes

Q And he indulged her passion for nutraceuticals?

A I don't think I knew that

Q You have described Jonnie Williams and Maureen

McDonnell as being close?

A Yes

Q You believe they were?

A Yes

Q And you have described the Williamses and the McDonnells as friends, correct?

A Yes

Q And at the time at least, you believed they were?

A I think so, yes

MR. DRY: Objection. What time?

MS MARTIN: 2011 --

THE WITNESS: I don't remember when I did

BY MS MARTIN:

Q During the time you were Mr McDonnell's scheduler, or Governor McDonnell's scheduler?

A If I described them as friends?

Q Uh-huh

A I think so, yes

Q And you have described Jonnie Williams' personality as over the top?

A Yes

Q This is because he displays his wealth?

A Yes

Q And he displays his connectedness to people like Oscar de la Renta?

A Yes

Q And you have also described Jonnie Williams as Maureen McDonnell's blind spot, correct?

A I don't remember, but I may have said that, yes

Q Is that something you observed Jonnie Williams to be, Maureen McDonnell's blind spot?

A I don't know what I would have said it in reference to, but maybe, yes

Q Have you ever said that Maureen McDonnell did not know the difference between donors and friends?

A I did say that, yes

Q And could that be one of the reasons that you might have described Jonnie Williams as Maureen McDonnell's blind spot?

A Yes

Q Maureen McDonnell, she had a person who was supposed to protect her from blind spots, correct?

A Right

Q And that person was Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A Yes

Q And but you observed that Mary-Shea Sutherland was also perhaps blinded by Jonnie Williams' charms?

A I don't know how much I saw of their interaction.

Q Do you believe that -- you don't believe that Ma[illegible] Shea Sutherland protected Maureen McDonnell --

MR. DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MS MARTIN:

Q Have you ever referred to Mary-Shea Sutherland as Maureen McDonnell's last line of defense?

A Yes

Q Do you believe she fulfilled that role when it comes to Jonnie Williams?

MR DRY: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained. What she believes is not relevant

THE WITNESS: Does that mean I answer it?

THE COURT: No, don't answer the question. Ask another one if you have one

BY MS MARTIN:

Q Did you observe whether or not Mary-Shea Sutherland was able to protect Maureen McDonnell from Jonnie Williams?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor, she is asking her to characterize it

THE COURT: She can say what she observed, if she did

THE WITNESS: I don't really know how to answer that

MS MARTIN: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR DRY:

Q Ms Block, Mr Brownlee introduced himself to you. Had you ever met Mr Brownlee before?

A Yes

Q And had you ever met Mr Brownlee before you testified here today regarding your testimony?

A Yes

Q How many times did you meet with Mr Brownlee or any of Mr McDonnell's defense counsel?

A Just twice

Q Twice? And did you meet with Ms McDonnell's defense counsel?

A No

Q Okay You were asked about -- well, let me ask you this: Did you know Mr Brownlee before you met him to prepare for your testimony?

A Yes

Q And how long have you known him?

A I met him back in 2009 2008, 2009, somewhere in there.

Q Let's talk about, Mr Brownlee asked you about the use of calendars to track gifts, I believe

A Yes

Q I don't know if I asked you about that So what was the purpose of using the calendars to track gifts?

A So it was kind of everyone had their own sphere of who tracked what gifts, like if somebody handed the Governor a gift at an event, Adam would be the one to track it down because he was with the Governor But anything that was on the schedule, that was my job, to track down if it was on the schedule and there was a gift involved

Q Can we pull up Government Exhibit 136, please And can we blow up the bottom part? So you would have seen this entry, correct?

A Yes

Q And would you know who was paying when the Governor was playing golf at Kinloch; would you have known that?

A I don't think so, no

Q Okay So would you typically ask?

A I didn't, and I probably should have

Q Okay And ultimately, what are these gift logs being used for?

A So whether it was being reported into like his Statement of Economic Interests, which was gifts he receives, for me, the most I did with the gifts was with flights, so depending on where the flight was going or what he was doing on it, where it would be reported.

Q I'm sorry, maybe I misunderstood your earlier testimony So when you are reviewing the calendars, are you primarily looking for what flights he has gone on?

MR. BROWNLEE: Objection, leading

THE COURT: Overruled.

BY MR. DRY:

Q Are you looking on the calendars, are you looking for flights that need to be reported?

A My job was to look for anything on the calendar that might have involved a gift, which were typically flights.

Q Which were typically flights And then these were used for the SOEIs, is that right, what kind of product are you delivering?

A We just had an in-kind form and we had one that was going to the PAC or one that was going to, I think, the state, and then there was another form, I think, for a gift I honestly don't remember it all now

Q Okay Are you responsible for the accuracy of the Governor's SOEI?

MR. BROWNLEE: Objection.

THE COURT: No, you can answer the question.

THE WITNESS: No, I don't think so A lot of people put stuff into it I think everything went to Pam and she was the one who originally compiled it

BY MR. DRY:

Q Do you sign the Governor's SOEI?

A No

Q Let's go to Government Exhibit 117, please Then let's go to the middle of that I think Mr Brownlee showed you this Would you have sent this e-mail to Dr Hazel had you not spoken to the Governor and him asking you to do so?

A No, I don't think so

Q Let's pull up Government Exhibit 130 And this is the Smith Mountain Lake itinerary Correct?

A I wouldn't call it an itinerary, but yes, it is about Smith Mountain Lake, yes

Q Mr Brownlee asked you did the Governor typically go to Smith Mountain Lake on vacation or had he previously gone

A Yes

Q You said he had

A Yes

Q Do you know, did he pay for those vacations at Smith Mountain Lake?

A The year before when he went?

Q Yeah.

A No, I don't think they paid for use of the house

Q Whose house did they stay at?

A I don't know who specifically owned it It was through Wendy Tepper, I think

Q Was that another donor?

A Yes

Q Let's go to Government Exhibit 99 again. You were asked a series of questions about this Why do you write "Maureen" and then in parenthesis "(and Mary-Shea)"?

A I guess because they were both going I don't know

Q Who had asked you to speak to Mr Williams?

A I don't remember if anyone asked me to speak with him or he just called me or Jerri told me he was calling I don't remember how that happened

Q Let's go up on the e-mail Who is the one that responds to you about the itinerary?

A Ms McDonnell

Q Okay And in fact, she is trying to figure out whether they can move the schedule around so to meet for shopping earlier, right?

A Yes

Q I believe you testified that you tried to schedule dinners between Mr and Ms McDonnell but it was difficult

A Dinners? Is that your question?

Q Yes

A Yes, family dinners were sometimes hard to get on the schedule

Q But if something was on the schedule, then typically the Governor was there, right?

A Yes, I mean sometimes things were on the schedule and they got kind of bulldozed over when things came up

Q How certain are you regarding the amount of time? I believe you said that you thought you only could schedule one or two scheduled dinners during the time you were there How certain are you of that?

A I would have to look, but I know it wasn't, for the two of them just to have dinner? That was -- they did it on birthdays, but I don't think there were many other times

Q How about family dinners?

A Family dinners there were more of

Q Typically, family dinners, who is at the family dinners? Who is it scheduled for?

A If like one of the kids was in town.

Q Would that be with Mr and Ms McDonnell?

A I think so, yeah.

Q Okay I believe that you talked about how you interacted with the Governor on a daily basis Did you also interact with Ms McDonnell frequently?

A Yes

Q Did you observe a lot of times whether Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell were together?

A I mean, I was always in my office so I never really saw them together

Q Okay Did Mr McDonnell oftentimes -- well, maybe you don't know this At the end of your tenure there, had you ever observed Mr Williams and Ms McDonnell showing any types of affection, physical affection towards each other?

A I mean, I never saw them together I was always in my office I didn't go to events

Q In your interactions with Ms McDonnell, did she ever talk about Jonnie Williams in a way that you thought they were having some kind of romantic relationship?

A I don't think so I don't know

Q Would that be something that you would remember?

A I believe I would remember that, yeah.

Q As far as you know, there was no indication from Ms McDonnell that she had any romantic relationship with Jonnie Williams?

A No, but I don't think she would tell me even if there was one

Q Okay I'm sorry, one last question on Government Exhibit 136 and I'll be done Did Mr McDonnell tell you who was paying for golf at Kinloch?

A No. Not that I remember

Q Okay And if he had, then that would have been annotated on what you produced for his SOEI?

A It should have been if it was

MR. DRY: Thank you very much

MR. ASBILL: May I approach Mr Dry for a second?

THE COURT: Sure

(At Bench.)

MR ASBILL: A cautionary note: A lot of these witnesses are under government subpoena and our subpoena, and sometimes we may not, because of the scope of direct issue, we may need them back And maybe there ought to be an admonition to these witnesses that if they are still under subpoena, I don't want them to think they are through necessarily

THE COURT: Sure Let me know which ones to tell that

MR. ASBILL: I think this is one we may recall I just wanted to raise that

THE COURT: All right

(In Open Court)

Ms Block, before you stand down, I understand there is a possibility you may be recalled by the defense, so you are still under subpoena And don't discuss your testimony with anyone. Thank you. You may stand down.

(Witness stood aside)

Call your next witness, please

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor The government calls Molly Huffstetler

MOLLY HUFFSTETLER,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Good morning, Ms Huffstetler

A Good morning

Q Could you please state your name and spell your last name for the reporter?

A Sure It is Mary Huffstetler I go by Molly The last name is H-U-F-F-S-T-E-T-L-E-R.

Q What do you to for a living?

A I currently am the Director of Development for a non-profit Medicaid-only health plan

Q Where do you work? I don't mean what company, but what state do you work in?

A I work out of North Carolina

Q Tell us about your educational background, please

A In 2004 I graduated with a Bachelor's in Religion and Psychology from Meredith College in Raleigh, North Carolina, moved on, and in 2007 graduated from Virginia

Commonwealth University with a Masters in Social Work, Planning and Public Policy

Q During your career, have you worked in Virginia government?

A Yes, I have

Q In what capacity?

A In 2007, I began with the state in a program planning role with the State Aging Department Quickly moved it over to the State Medicaid Agency and worked as a senior policy analyst At which time I was pulled over under the former Governor Kaine Administration to coordinate legislative activities during the transition between the Kaine and McDonnell Administrations. A couple months later, following that legislative session, federal health reform was passed. I stayed on in a borrowed capacity for a couple months and then was formally hired under the former McDonnell Administration to support state agencies and Health and Human Resources and then also to help with health reform for the Commonwealth I then took --

Q Excuse me for interrupting What was your title in that last job?

A In that last job I was Deputy Director of the Virginia Health Reform Initiative

Q In what state department did you work?

A I worked for the Cabinet Secretary of Health and Human Resources

Q Who was who at the time?

A Bill Hazel

Q Was this the last job you held, the most recent job you held in Virginia government?

A Yes

Q You held it until when, ma'am?

A I separated from the state in September of 2013

Q Okay So focusing on the last job that you had, you ended in September of 2013 When did you start that job?

A I began my time at that office in 2010 My specific role with health reform began in 2011

Q What were your duties in that last job that you held?

A The last job, I was specifically tasked with helping coordinate the development and shaping the development of health reform and making sure Virginia was complying with federal law where we needed to, exercising our options where we had options, and working with the Bureau of Insurance and the other Health and Human Resources agencies, coordinating those processes

Q Where physically was your office located in that position?

A In that position I was in the Patrick Henry Building

Q During the time that you were working in the Health and Human Services Department, do you recall having a meeting with the former First Lady, Ms Maureen McDonnell, and a gentleman named Jonnie Williams?

A Yes

Q Do you recall how you learned that that meeting was going to occur?

A I was sent an e-mail that morning

Q Can we take a look for identification, please, at Government's 191 Just blow up the top half for the witness, please, so she can identify it

A Okay

Q Is this the e-mail exchange that we are talking about where you learned about this meeting?

A Yes, earlier in the e-mail Yes, sir

Q Thank you.

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government 191

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Could we start at Page 2, please, which is the first e-mail chronologically in the chain Just the one at the bottom there, and we will scroll up This earliest e-mail in the chain is from whom, ma'am?

A It is from former Governor McDonnell to my direct supervisor, Secretary Bill Hazel

Q What's the date and time of this one?

A July 31st, 2011, time, 11:29 p.m.

Q If we could scroll up a little bit Forgive me, we will need to go back to the first page, the very bottom, just to see who sent this next e-mail Who is that, ma'am?

A Bill Hazel was my direct report, Secretary of Health and Human Resources

Q Then this e-mail that bleeds onto the second page of Government's 191 is sent to whom?

A This was sent to the deputies in the office, Matt Cobb and Keith Hare.

Q When you say the deputies in the office, what do you mean?

A They would have been essentially second in the chain of command to Secretary Hazel

Q Were they supervisors of yours as well?

A More co-workers than supervisors We were all direct reports

Q Okay Back to the first page now, the next e-mail in the chain is the first one that you appear on. It is from Mr Cobb to you, a little bit later on the morning of what date?

A Monday, August 1st, 2011

Q And who is Keith there?

A Keith would be the corresponding deputy

Q Okay If we could scroll up a little bit to see what your response was to that request You say, "Um-hum, tic-tac man " And this is at what time?

A That was at 9:46 a.m.

Q So about an hour-and-a-half later Before we get to who Tic-Tac Man is, do you recall having any conversations in the intervening hour-and-a-half with any of your colleagues about this issue?

A I do not

Q Okay So now tell us what your reference to Tic-Tac Man means

A Sure Following a previous meeting that Mr Williams had with my boss, Secretary Hazel, sample products as a custom were left behind that resembled Tic-Tacs and we therefore referenced Mr Williams as the Tic-Tac Man.

Q Okay But before we move on, I neglected to ask you a question about the preceding e-mail I apologize This one where Mr Cobb is asking if you can cover The last sentence on that e-mail says, "It is a Governor request," My question for you is, what did that communicate to you?

A It communicated that it was a direct request from the Governor Sometimes meetings originated directly from the Secretary, sometimes from the Governor He was just pretty much describing where it was coming from.

Q Was that important to you?

A Of course

Q If we could scroll up a little bit, please Briefly pause on Mr Cobb's response He tells you "Have a good time " Then the next e-mail from you, fair to say this is tongue-in-cheek?

A Yes, sir

Q Let's keep going More joking from Mr Cobb in the reply?

A Yes

Q All right Then finally, if we could blow up so we can see the header on this, too, Mr Starnes This last one is sent by you at what time on the 1st?

A 10:22 a.m.

Q Okay And it says: "On a more serious note, I am not planning to commit to anything but will just stick with we will do what we can to carry out the desires of the Governor and First Lady " Then you sign it My first question is, why did you say that you were not planning on committing to anything?

A I didn't believe it was my role to I was there to listen to information and take that back for further action if requested

Q Okay Then the end of the sentence says, "We will do what we can to carry out the desires of the Governor and First Lady "

Did you mean specific to this particular issue or just in general?

A I believe specific to this issue as written in context

Q What did you understand the desires of the Governor and the First Lady to be specific to this issue?

A At the time of the note, nothing more than attending the meeting

Q Thank you, ma'am. You can take that exhibit down. Now, did you in fact meet with Ms. McDonnell and Mr Williams that morning, August 1st?

A Yes

Q Tell us about that How did you physically get from the Patrick Henry Building to wherever the meeting took place?

A I simply walked out of my office over to the Mansion property

Q Is that where the meeting was, in the Mansion?

A Yes, sir

Q Could we take a look at what's in evidence as Government's 186, please Just blow up the middle of the page The jury is familiar with this document You have seen this document in meetings before you came in here, right?

A Yes, sir

Q It is a Mansion log Is that right?

A Yes, sir

Q And just briefly, tell us, what time it indicates you arrived at the Mansion

A It indicates that I arrived at 9:55

Q And says you left at approximately when?

A 11:05

Q Okay, thank you. You can take that one down When you got to the Mansion, you check in with the security guy, what happens next?

A I was escorted into the Mansion by the First Lady's Chief of Staff

Q Who is that?

A At the time it was Mary-Shea Sutherland

Q What happened after you got escorted in?

A I was seated in the foyer of the Mansion and Mr Williams was there.

Q Kind of a waiting area?

A Yes

Q Did you have any discussion or conversation with Mr Williams while you were waiting?

A Yes

Q Tell us briefly what you all talked about

A My memory recalls him talking about his wife, about the product which I would later learn that he was there to talk about, Anatabloc, and the success in treating a thyroid condition of hers

Q Okay How long would you say you were sitting there with Mr Williams chatting?

A Ten minutes roughly

Q What happened next?

A At that time, the First Lady's Chief of Staff came and took us down to the office, the First Lady's office that was in the Mansion for the meeting

Q Okay When you got there, who participated in the meeting besides yourself?

A I recall the First Lady and Mr Williams being there as well

Q Just the three of you?

A That's my recollection.

Q All right Now, we are going to get to details in a minute But before we do that, could you tell us just generally what the meeting was about?

A The meeting was about Mr Williams talking about the product, Anatabloc, that he was involved in from a company standpoint, talking about the successes and the trials that were going on, scientific trials, if you will

Q How long would you say the meeting lasted all told?

A I would imagine we were together maybe an hour

Q Okay And indeed, the Mansion log indicated you left about an hour and ten minutes after you showed up Now, did you take notes during this meeting?

A I did.

Q Was that kind of standard practice for you?

A Yes, sir

Q Could we show the witness for identification Government's 187, please. Do you recognize these, ma'am?

A I do

Q Are these -- you have reviewed this document before you testified here today, I take it?

A Yes, sir

Q All right Are these the notes you took from that meeting?

A They are

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 187

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Okay Now, before we get to the details of the notes, tell us, who is doing most of the talking during the meeting?

A Mr Williams

Q And what was your perception when you were sitting in that meeting, what was your perception of who the audience was for Mr Williams?

A I believe the audience was me

Q Now, let's take a look at the first page of your notes I don't intend to go through all of these, Your Honor, but we are going to focus on a few of them. Okay, Ms Huffstetler?

A Sure

Q So near the top there, there is a line that appears to say, "Hopkins brought in UVA/MCV " Do you see that there?

A Yes

Q Do you recall what that was about?

A I believe it was Mr Williams speaking to what was going on saying that Johns Hopkins had brought in UVA-MCV dealing with the clinical trials

Q Underneath UVA there, can you blow that up, Mr Starnes, that chunk before that wavy line? There you go. Thank you Underneath "UVA" there, does that say "head of research"?

A Yes

Q And underneath that, can you read what that says? It looks like "shop" something?

A I cannot read what that says, no

Q Okay. And then a little bit further to the right under "MCV" there is a line and it looks like "K-L-O-H-E-R"; is that right?

A I'm not sure

Q Did you write this?

A I wrote it, yes, sir

Q So you can't read your own handwriting on that one?

A No.

Q Okay What about underneath it, can you read what that says underneath, the word that starts with a K?

A The word that starts with a K?

Q I'm sorry, underneath that word that starts with a K, can you read what it says?

A "Endocrinologist/diabetes "

Q Let's just scroll down a little bit, leave that blown up, Mr Starnes. We see a reference on the left there to Anatabloc; is that right?

A Yes

Q And then on the right-hand side of the screen now, we are still on the first page of Government's 187, underneath that circle, the word "Roskamp" appears to be written Do you see that?

A Yes

Q At the time, did you know what Roskamp was before Mr Williams told you about it?

A Prior to, no

Q Okay On the left it says, "UVA/MCV-clinicals running animal models " Any recollection what that's about?

A No

Q A little further down it says, "Johns Hopkins School of Public Health to do healthcare costs for Va-post trials " How about that one, does that ring any bells?

A Nothing more than Johns Hopkins University involved in research prior to trials being held. No

Q Toward the bottom of the page, it looks like the word "Michigan" appears, and then in parenthesis, "Flint Mic " Do you know what that was a reference to?

A I do not

Q Did I read that correctly?

A That's the way I read that as well

Q Is that Flint, Michigan in the parenthesis?

A That's what I would assume.

Q To the far right-hand side, it says "double blind " Did I read that one right?

A That's what it says

Q Do you know what that was about?

A I do not I was writing just as he was talking

Q In the middle of the bottom of the first page of 187, does it say "thyroid disease in women"?

A That is how I read that, yes, sir

Q Thank you. Let's take a look at Page 2 of your notes Can you read what the first two lines of this page say?

A Yes Would you like me to read?

Q Yes, please.

A "Model for Virginia template, economic burden to the health system."

Q Do you recall what Mr Williams was talking about in relation to these notes here?

A Specifically, diabetes, chronic conditions being expensive in the health system.

Q The health system in Virginia?

A Overall, yes, sir

Q And then how about that next small paragraph there, can you read that one to the jury, please?

A Sure "If clinicals are right blocking autoimmune-significant financial impact on Virginia "

Q Somewhat self-explanatory, but any more light you can shed on this?

A No

Q Okay The next paragraph, could you read that one for us, please?

A Sure. "Low income-present to ER/Wal-Mart if model can show through trials, there will be support "

Q That says, "will be support"?

A That is how I read it

Q Okay Do you recall what that refers to?

A Going into the cost of chronic conditions on the state If the models and if the trials produced a product that would help, that it would be low cost for the low income to use and it would help offset the cost of healthcare

Q When you say the "low income," you mean low income families and people?

A I don't think it is fair to surmise what he was saying at the time

Q I'm asking, when you explained it just now, when you said "low income," did you mean low income families?

A I was just reading from what he would be saying

Q Understood. Let's keep going The next paragraph says, "MCV-planning grant two-three months, three months IRB." Did I read those two lines correctly?

A Yes

Q What is an IRB?

A IRB stands for Institutional Review Board. It is a research committee at most universities that researchers must go through to ensure that the trials do not in any way, shape, or form possibly pose risk to the control group.

Q As you sit here today, do you recall what the "two to three months" or "three months IRB" was in reference to?

A No No, sir

Q Okay Then the next thing says, "By end August-MCV /VCU submit test protocol-small planning grant/large grant " Did I read that one right?

A Yes, sir

Q Any recollection of what this little blurb was about in terms of what Mr Williams said about it?

A No more than what's written.

Q Very good Then the next paragraph, this one has a star by it And it says: "Tobacco Fund in Virginia is paying for this-by request of Gov Kilgore working with VFHY-Jerry-law firm." To the outside it says "3 million." For the record, this is the bottom of Page 2 of Government's 187 Did I read that correctly?

A That is how I read it as well

Q Okay First question: Do you remember, same question I've been asking you, do you have a memory what Mr Williams was talking about beyond what's written here?

A No. As written, just taking the note

Q Okay And by the way, is Ms McDonnell participating in the meeting? Is she talking during this meeting, to your recollection?

A I would say Mr Williams did the vast majority of the talking during the meeting

Q Do you remember Ms McDonnell saying anything at all other than greeting you?

A I have no memory, no

Q Okay Let's go to Page 3, please Almost finished This one at the top, does it say, "MCV-project-expensive in who involved MCV employees," is that "citizen, etc "?

A Yes

Q "Two-three months-glucose control across board." Did I read that right is the first question?

A That's how I read it

Q Any recollection of what was said by Mr Williams besides what's written here?

A No, sir

Q Finally the last little piece, this one says, "Control group-PHB? Diabetes/pre-diabetes " Did I read that one correctly?

A That is how I read it as well

Q What's PHB?

A PHB is in reference to the Patrick Henry Building

Q That's the physical building where you worked?

A Yes, sir

Q I bet you can guess what my next question is going to be Any recollection beyond what's written here of what Mr Williams said about this issue?

A No

Q Okay And then "affordability, autoimmune," and then the very last note, what's that?

A Ankylosing Spondylitis

Q What was the significance of you writing that?

A That's an autoimmune disease my father suffers from.

Q Did you mention that during the meeting?

A I have no memory of mentioning it during the meeting, no, sir

Q That's it for the notes Thank you, ma'am.

Prior to this meeting that you had with Ms McDonnell and Mr. Williams, had you ever had a meeting, a work meeting with Ms McDonnell before?

A Not that I recall

Q How about since then, did you have any others after that?

A No

Q Prior to this meeting, had you ever attended a meeting, a work meeting at the Executive Mansion?

A No

Q Now, let's take a look at Government's 193 for identification, please Could you just blow up the bottom half for her so she can see it? Ms Huffstetler, do you recognize this e-mail?

A I do

Q What is it generally?

A It is a typical e-mail that we would send following meetings with individuals that met with us

Q Did you send this one?

A I did.

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 193

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q We have blown up your e-mail on this one Who are you writing to?

A I'm writing to Mr Williams.

Q On what date?

A Date, August 1st, 2011

Q At what time?

A 12:40 p.m.

Q Same day of the meeting?

A Yes, sir

Q A little bit later that afternoon?

A Uh-huh.

Q I'm sorry, as made obvious by the subject line Let's go on The first sentence says: "I enjoyed meeting with you this morning and look forward to receiving the information from you regarding the clinical trials and other advancements of Anatabloc "

My first question is, do you recall where you got the idea that information on clinical trials was forthcoming?

A Other than talking about them in the meeting, no

Q So it would be from Mr Williams?

A Yes

Q Okay Then a little bit further down the e-mail, you say: "As you know, it is necessary for us to make policy recommendations and decisions off of sound data I am grateful that you are making strides to validate the incredible anecdotes and stories that result from your work At times I found myself drifting to excitement thinking about my father, who suffers greatly from Ankylosing Spondylitis (severe form of arthritis)"

Now, earlier today we saw an e-mail where you mentioned Tic-Tac Man and you were joking a little bit with your staff members and your colleagues about this meeting My question for you is, did the meeting you had with Mr Williams change your view about the product?

A No, sir

Q Was it true that you found yourself drifting to excitement thinking about your father during the meeting?

A Can you reask that question?

Q I was just asking was it true that in fact you found yourself drifting to excitement thinking about your father during the meeting with Mr Williams?

A Sure

Q Was that related to the product?

A I would say the anecdotes

Q Okay Then toward the end, you say: "It thrills me to think that within his lifetime there is a possible method to alleviating his significant pain without costly side effects "

Did you believe that? Did you believe that Anatabloc might actually do that?

A I don't think that's a fair statement

Q Okay Generally, just tell us why you wrote this e-mail, ma'am.

A Protocol in the office

Q Being polite?

A Being polite

Q Okay Now, you close the e-mail by saying: "I will continue to work alongside of the First Lady as we identify how best to move forward "

When you wrote this e-mail, what did you understand your job to be going forward as far as this issue was concerned?

A Nothing at the time of the written e-mail

Q Okay And we can just see very briefly how you close the e-mail on Page 2 You just say, "Thank you for your time today "

You can take the exhibit down. Thank you, Mr Starnes

Following this e-mail, ma'am, did you receive any further direction, to your recollection, from any of Mr McDonnell, Ms McDonnell, or Dr Hazel about this Anatabloc issue?

A No, sir

Q Last question: Would you have attended the meeting with Mr Williams if the Governor had not requested it?

A Can you ask that another way?

Q I can try If you had not learned via that e-mail that the Governor had requested that a member of Dr Hazel's staff attend the meeting, would you have attended it?

A No

MR HARBACH: Nothing further for this witness, Your Honor Thank you.

THE COURT: Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. ASBILL:

Q Good morning, Ms Huffstetler How are you?

A Good morning I'm well, thank you.

Q Do you and I know each other?

A We have met before

Q How many times?

A Once

Q When was that?

A The middle of last month

Q Okay Do you know the folks over at this table, any of them?

A Yes, sir

Q And how many times have you met with them?

A Collectively, three

Q All right You said right in closing here, you were asked by Mr Harbach whether you would have met with Mr Williams if the Governor hadn't requested it; is that correct?

A That was the question he asked.

Q Would you have known about the meeting if the Governor had not requested it?

A No, sir

Q Would you have met with Mr Williams if Mr Hazel or one of his deputies asked you to meet with Mr Williams?

A Yes, sir

Q Now, during this meeting with Mr Williams, I want to get back to the beginning of that. You were a block away or less than a block away, 500 feet away from the Mansion where you work?

A Yes, sir

Q When you came over in the morning to take this meeting, did you notice a Ferrari in the driveway?

A I did.

Q When you waited outside of the First Lady's office for a few minutes before you actually commenced the meeting, did you hear, overhear any discussion about any Rolex watch of any kind?

A No, sir

Q Okay Now, with respect to the meeting, you knew that you were asked to go to this at approximately 8:12 in the morning; is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q All right So no notice before that morning that later in the morning you were going to have a meeting with Mr Williams, correct?

A Correct

Q All right Now, I believe you testified through an e-mail chain that Dr Hazel asked you to attend the meeting?

A No, sir, he had initially asked the deputies, who then asked me because they weren't there

Q So he asked the deputies and then the deputies pushed it down to you essentially because they were not available?

A That's true

Q All right So you were not specifically asked by Dr Hazel to attend the meeting; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q All right And there was no problem as far as you understood, either from Dr Hazel or from his immediate deputies, that you rather than they attended the meeting; is that right?

A Not at all That's correct

Q Okay Within the hierarchy of Dr Hazel's office, where would you rank among his deputies and policy people, et cetera? Where would you rank in that hierarchy?

A Hierarchically, it would have been Secretary Hazel, Matt Cobb and Keith Hare, who were the deputies, and then me But organizationally, we are each other's peers and co-workers

Q All right With respect to how the meeting was set up, you saw an e-mail where my client writes to Dr Hazel late at night the night before and asks him to send someone to the meeting; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q And I take it you have no idea from any source why my client did that; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q What his reason or reasons were for asking Dr. Hazel to send someone to meet with Mr Williams; is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q All right Just it was a request from the Governor and you all tried to honor that request; is that right?

A Yes, sir

Q And were similar requests made by the Governor to Dr Hazel for meetings with folks on a regular basis?

A I would say yes.

Q How frequently would that occur?

A I would say often as a function of the office

Q When you say a function of the office, what do you mean by that?

A As the Governor, I would imagine, I know he was approached often by folks interested in marketing whatever it was that they had to share that they thought would better the Commonwealth As the Governor, he would farm that out to his respective Cabinets to be taken care of

Q Would he farm that out to people who were experts in the field?

A I would say the closest he could get, yes

Q All right To your knowledge, was my client an expert in the field of the kinds of issues that Jonnie Williams wanted to discuss?

A I would imagine no

Q All right Were you an expert in the field that Jonnie Williams wanted to discuss?

A I would say closer than the Governor, but no

Q When Mr Williams was talking to you during the meeting, and let me back up for a minute, this meeting lasted roughly an hour; is that correct?

A Yes

Q All right And during that meeting, would it be fair to say that 59 minutes were spent by Mr Williams talking?

A I would say the vast majority, yes.

Q Okay You don't recall Ms. McDonnell saying anything during the meeting, do you?

A I cannot recall that, no

Q Do you recall yourself saying anything or interjecting or trying to question Mr Williams or get more information from him?

A No

Q Okay Were the things that Mr Williams was talking about all things that you understood in terms of science or whatever it was that he was talking about?

A No

Q You just took notes basically and listened to what he said and wrote it down; is that right?

A Yes

Q Historically, you have been through school, through your work, through your employment, you consider yourself to be an accurate note taker, do you not?

A Yes

Q And you are good at doing that; is that correct?

A I would say yes

Q It is also easier, correct me if I'm mistaken, is it easier for you to take notes when you are just listening than when you are simultaneously trying to talk and then combine the two?

A That's fair

Q So you believe that your notes of what Mr. Williams said are accurate; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay So what you wrote is what he said

A Yes

Q All right Now, you can pull up the last exhibit, please Can we go to the part where it talks about the Virginia Tobacco Commission? Can you blow that up, please? At the bottom of the page, the star The little asterisk there, what is that? This little circled thing there What is that?

A I'm sure in my notetaking process that would have just alerted me to something to pay attention to

Q This is something that you thought was important essentially during the conversation -- not conversation, during the download?

A The asterisk would indicate that, yes

Q It indicated it to you, that's why you put it there, is that right?

A My notes, yes, sir

Q And your note reads, and correct me if I misstate it: "Tobacco Fund in Virginia is paying for this-by request of Gov "

A That's how I read that, yes

Q And that's what Mr Williams said to you; is that correct?

A I believe the notes were in dialogue and I wrote what he said, yes

Q And at any time after this meeting, did you ever verify whether or not what Mr. Williams said to you was in fact true?

A No

Q Where there is a notation for $3 million, do you know what that's about or what that relates to?

A It is in direct relation to the note that I had been taking due to placement

Q And does it reference the Tobacco Fund or does it reference something else?

A Due to placement, I would believe it would be related to the Tobacco Fund note

Q Okay So your recollection is that Mr Williams tells you the Tobacco Fund is paying $3 million for this, whatever he is talking about, by request of the Governor Is that correct?

A I believe that's what the note reads, yes, sir

Q All right You can take that down. Let me talk to you a little bit about your last correspondence or your e-mail with Mr Williams at the end after the meeting That's, I believe, Government Exhibit 193 Would you put that up, please? But wait Before I ask you a question about this, I am going to ask you about it, whatever Mr Williams told you, did you ever verify or figure out or try to corroborate whether any of the things that he told you were true?

A No, sir

Q You just basically wrote down what he said and that's it.

A Yes, sir.

Q Never tried to go back and double-check or corroborate or figure out whether what he said was true or false or misleading in any way; is that correct?

A No

Q All right So how long after the meeting, roughly, do you write this e-mail back to Mr Williams?

A I believe the time stamp would indicate about an hour and 40 minutes later

Q Okay And you left, so you left basically the meeting and you go back to your office and an hour and 40 minutes later you write this e-mail; is that correct?

A That's what the time would indicate, yes, sir

Q In between the time you leave the meeting and you go back to your office to write this e-mail, do you touch base with anybody else in your office about how if at all you are going to respond to Mr Williams?

A No, sir

Q So you make this decision on your own an hour and 40 minutes later to write this e-mail to Mr Williams, correct?

A Yes, sir

Q And you had no doubt in your mind that you were authorized or empowered to make the decision to write this e-mail and whatever you say in it Is that correct?

A That's correct

Q So you clearly had that authority?

A Yes, sir

Q You were empowered to do that, were you not?

A Yes, sir

Q All right So you were empowered to make your own decision about what to do going forward if at all here with Mr Williams, correct?

A That would be fair

Q All right And would I be accurate in characterizing this e-mail to Mr Williams as basically a blow-off e-mail?

A That's probably fair, yes

Q "No" with a smile?

A Yes

Q When you say, "I will continue to work alongside of the First Lady as we identify how best to move forward," did you have any plans to move forward on anything?

A I personally did not

Q Okay Do you know whether anyone else in your office had any plans to move forward?

A No

Q In fact, did anyone in your office move forward with anything?

A No

Q Now, with respect, you told us a little bit about the back channel story here before you went to the meeting and you are talking about Mr Williams as the Tic-Tac Man That was sort of office scuttlebutt, gossip, whatever?

A Yes

Q And that had been based on a prior meeting between your boss, Dr Hazel, and Mr Williams that you heard about, essentially?

A Yes, sir

Q Is that correct? Okay, going over to the meeting, I mean, you had a sense of Mr Williams before you even came to the meeting?

A A sense, yes

Q And in the meeting, were you impressed by him particularly?

A I would say no, not impressed.

Q Okay And Dr Hazel had previously asked you to attend a lot of meetings of this type; is that fair to say?

A Yes

Q Whether or not they occurred at the Mansion or at some other location?

A Correct

Q All right So if somebody had an idea that related to health, was it your understanding that was the job of Dr Hazel's office, to listen to these folks and hear them out?

A One of the functions, yes

Q I don't know whether you can put a number on it, but maybe 1 out of 10, 1 out of a hundred folks might have a really good idea, others may not be so great, but it is the job of your office to listen to them, evaluate them, look at the science, and make a decision; is that right?

A That's fair, yes

Q And with respect to that process of hearing people out, listening to what they have to say, make a decision, that's something that you all did independently, correct?

A Yes

Q And in your experience, did my client, Governor McDonnell, ever interfere with that decision-making process by you or your colleagues in your office?

A Interfere, no

Q Okay And if he thought that you were -- you were entitled, you all were entitled to make those kind of decisions in your subject matter area; is that right?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, with respect to afterwards, was it at the meeting or afterwards that Mr Williams left some samples of Anatabloc?

A Which meeting are you referencing?

Q Did he leave any or give any to you or send any to you after the meeting or did you already have some samples from Mr Williams' meeting with Dr Hazel that had occurred earlier?

A Both.

Q Both?

A Yes, sir

Q So he sent you some Anatabloc after the meeting?

A He did

Q Okay And with respect to folks sending you sample products, was that unusual?

A No

Q It had occurred with other people on other types of -- on other occasions?

A Sure

Q Okay Did you view this meeting as a big deal or just doing your job?

A Just doing my job

Q Now, go back to the e-mail, please, where it talks about the desires of the Governor and the First Lady Could you blow that up, please, where it talks about that?

A It is at the top, sir

Q I'm sorry, I missed it Okay All right, in this e-mail, you write to Matt Cobb and Keith Hare, correct?

A That's correct

Q Those are folks that are deputies to Dr Hazel?

A Yes, sir

Q You write, "On a more serious note I am not planning to commit to anything but will just stick with what we will to do what we can to carry out the desires of the Governor and the First Lady " Right?

A Yes, sir

Q This was an e-mail that was sent before the meeting; is that right?

A Yes, it appears that way

Q So they asked initially, Matt Cobb, Dr Hazel asked Matt Cobb to go, he is busy, he can't go, he asked you to go, and before you go you send this e-mail back, right?

A Yes

Q So when you talk about the, quote, desires of the Governor, what you meant by that was to go to the meeting That's what they desired Right?

A At the time that would be fair, yes

Q All right Nothing more, just go to the meeting is what my client desired from your understanding.

A At the time of the e-mail, yes

Q Okay Pull that down

Now, you talked a little bit in the meeting with Mr Williams about the Virginia Foundation for Healthy Youth. Is that correct? VFHY?

A That would be what that stands for, yes, sir

Q What did you understand that to be?

A Virginia Foundation for Healthy Youth was established in Virginia out of tobacco settlement money and they help administer grants

Q To try to stop kids from smoking?

A That's their primary function, yes

Q When Mr Williams as talking to you about this organization, VFHY, did you understand how they could possibly be involved with Mr Williams and his company?

A I don't recall any more than my note reads, sir

Q Do you recall thinking that it would be odd for that organization to be involved with Anatabloc? I mean, did you understand Anatabloc to be some sort of product that would keep kids from smoking?

A No.

Q Okay And with respect to grants from that organization, the VFHY, did you have any sense of whether or not whatever Mr Williams was doing would be appropriate for a grant from that organization?

MR HARBACH: Objection.

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Now, you say that, I believe, and your notes say, and if you need to refer back to your notes to refresh your recollection in any way, please do, but Mr Williams was talking about PHB, Patrick Henry Building employees possibly being involved in some sort of a mini-trial of some sort? That's what he wanted to do? Is that correct, or you tell me if I'm wrong

A Can I have the notes, please?

Q Sure.

A It would be the next page, I believe

Q There it is

A Actually, maybe the next page There it is Could you ask the question again, sir?

Q Yes What do you recall Mr Williams saying about Patrick Henry Building employees who were diabetic or pre-diabetic?

A Nothing more than what's written here

Q Okay Do you recall Mr Williams making an ask to you to have this occur?

A No, sir

Q All right Was there, during the meeting, anything that you construed to be an ask to your office by Mr Williams?

A No

Q Did you perceive there to be anything either in the e-mail from my client to Dr Hazel or from anything that was done by Ms McDonnell at the meeting to be pressure on you to do anything other than have the meeting?

A No

Q Do you think that your e-mail to Mr Williams an hour and a half or hour and 40 minutes after the meeting was in any way designed or helped to try to move forward some scheme by Mr Williams?

A No, sir

MR HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled

BY MR. ASBILL:

Q Now, let me ask you about from the date of the meeting, which is August 1st, 2011, correct? When do you leave? When do you leave your job?

A I left my job in September

Q Your job in state government

A September of 2013

Q All right

Q Between August 1, 2011, and September 2013, to your knowledge, within your cabinet, was there any work in progress relating to Jonnie Williams or Star, any work in progress at all in terms of a going-forward plan that involved your office?

A No, sir

MR ASBILL: I don't think I have any more questions

THE COURT: All right Ms McDonnell

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR HAUSS:

Q Good morning, Ms Huffstetler

A Good morning

Q How are you?

A I'm well Thank you

Q My name is Steve Hauss I represent Ms McDonnell
You and I have never met; is that right?

A That's correct

Q So for this August 1st, 2011, meeting with Ms McDonnell and Jonnie Williams, you were basically asked to fill in at the last minute; is that right?

A Attend the meeting, yes

Q And you were asked to attend just a couple hours before it started?

A That's correct

Q So you were not involved at all in initially setting up the meeting; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay So you don't know if Ms McDonnell or Maureen -- Mary-Shea Sutherland or someone else entirely who set up the meeting; is that right?

A That's correct

Q Now, when you arrived at the Mansion, you said it was Mary-Shea Sutherland who escorted you into the foyer; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And it was also Ms Sutherland who escorted you in to the meeting?

A That's correct

Q And you said that the people who attended the meeting were yourself, Mr Williams, and Ms McDonnell?

A That's who I remember at the meeting Yes

Q Do you recall, is it possible that Ms Sutherland also was there for a portion of the meeting?

A That's not what I recall

Q Is it possible?

A Sure

MR HAUSS: Now, if we could bring up Government Exhibit 191, which is in evidence And if we could focus on the very top e-mail

BY MR HAUSS:

Q And you've been asked about this a couple of times, but you -- going into this meeting, you had decided you were not going to commit to anything with Mr Williams, correct?

A That's correct

Q And then where you say "the desires of the Governor and the First Lady," did you speak with Ms McDonnell prior to the meeting at all?

A No

Q And you testified that between getting the e-mail asking you to attend and the meeting itself, you did not speak to any of your colleagues, is that correct, about the meeting?

A Other than the e-mails, no

Q And, in fact, prior to this meeting, you had never spoken with Ms McDonnell about Jonnie Williams; is that right?

A That's correct

Q You had never spoken to her about Star Scientific?

A Correct

Q Okay So going into this meeting, you had no idea what Ms McDonnell's desires were, if any, with respect to Mr Williams or Star Scientific Is that fair?

A That's fair

Q You did know at the time of the meeting, is it fair to say, that Ms McDonnell was generally interested in nutraceuticals?

A That's fair

Q And you knew that as First Lady, she had initiatives in health and nutraceuticals Is that fair?

A Initiatives in, no

Q Okay But you knew she was interested in nutraceuticals?

A Yes

Q And during the meeting, did it appear to you that Ms McDonnell was attentive and was listening?

A Sure

Q But you testified that your best recollection is she basically didn't say anything during the meeting?

A That's what I recall

Q So after this meeting that lasted about an hour where Ms McDonnell didn't say anything, you still had no idea what her desires, if any, were with respect to Mr Williams and Star Is that fair?

A Shy of attending the meeting, no

Q And then you indicated just now with Mr Asbill that there was no ask during the meeting; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And so since there was no ask, is it fair to say that by the end of the meeting, you still did not commit to anything with Mr Williams?

A That's accurate

MR HAUSS: And if we could have Government Exhibit 193, which is in evidence The bottom e-mail

BY MR HAUSS:

Q And down here at the bottom of this e-mail where you say, "I will continue to work alongside the First Lady as we identify how best to move forward," prior to this meeting, had you ever worked with the First Lady?

A No

Q After this meeting, did you ever work with the First Lady?

A No

Q You basically said that -- you testified earlier this is basically a polite blow-off?

A Yes

Q Did Ms McDonnell ever follow up with you in any way after this meeting?

A She did not

Q Did you ever follow up with her?

A I did not

MR HAUSS: If we could bring up Government Exhibit 187, Ms Huffstetler's notes If we could go to the second page, and then the portion down at the bottom about the Tobacco Fund

BY MR HAUSS:

Q You indicated that, based on your notes during the meeting, Mr Williams mentioned Kilgore and then you see Jerry Law Firm Do you recall if Mr Williams referred to Marty Kilgore, his wife?

A I have no recollection of that

Q Do you remember if he referred to his brother, Terry Kilgore?

A I have no recollection of that as well

MR HAUSS: You can take that down

If we could bring up, just for the witness for identification, RM-1124 If you could blow up the top portion

BY MR HAUSS:

Q And Ms Huffstetler, is this an e-mail from you to Elaina Schramm?

A That's what it states, yes

Q And Ms Schramm was Mr Hazel's assistant; is that right?

A Yes, sir

Q And it's dated Monday, August 22nd, 2011, at 9:48 a m ?

A It is

MR HAUSS: And, Your Honor, we'd offer this for evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HAUSS:

Q And you indicate here, "Mary-Shea just called requesting Dr Hazel for a meeting and lunch with the First Lady regarding Anatabloc"; is that right?

A That's how it reads, yes, sir

Q And it indicates that the proposed date is August 30th?

A Yes

Q And to the best of your recollection, it was Mary-Shea Sutherland who called you; is that right?

A That's what the e-mail says, yes

Q Do you recall whether -- or do you know whether any meeting or lunch ever took place?

A I do not know

Q And then finally, you indicated that when you arrived at the Mansion, you saw a Ferrari out front; is that right?

A Yes

Q And do you recall the color?

A Yes

Q What color was it?

A White

Q And was the Ferrari already there when you arrived?

A Yes

Q Was it just parked right out front where basically anyone could see it?

A In front of the Mansion, yes

Q Great

MR HAUSS: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR. HAUSS: Nothing further, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Any redirect?

MR HARBACH: Yes, Your Honor Thank you.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Ms Huffstetler --

A Yes

Q -- hi

About that Ferrari When you saw it in the driveway, do you have any idea that the Governor and Ms McDonnell had driven it down the night before?

A No, sir

Q You were asked some questions by Mr Asbill about your notes?

A Yes

Q And the -- the young lady sitting there with the earphones on, do you know what she's doing today?

A I would imagine she's taking notes

Q Okay And you understand those to be exactly what people are saying in the courtroom --

A Yes

Q -- is that right?

Is that what you were doing with Mr Williams, retaking down everything he was saying verbatim?

A I don't know that that's fair, no Not verbatim

Q I take it your notes would have been a lot longer if you were doing that?

A That's a fair statement

Q You were doing what we all do when we take notes; your impressions based on what he was saying?

A I believe my notes recollect the dialogue that was going on at the time, yes

Q And he was the one doing the talking?

A That's right

Q Okay Now, one of the questions Mr Asbill asked you was about whether Mr McDonnell ever -- I believe the word he used was "interfered" with the work that you and your colleagues were doing in your department And I believe your answer was, correct me if I'm wrong, I believe your answer was "interfere, no "

Was that your answer?

A Yes

Q Okay Was there anything else that Mr McDonnell did that affected your work over there besides interfering?

A Generally? Is that what you're asking?

Q Sure

A My job, I believe, was to inform the Governor so that he could govern So he was a part of decision-making But I don't believe he interfered with the process of research and analysis in bringing those ideas to him

Q If the Governor set certain priorities for his administration that involved your department, would you consider that to affect your work?

A Prioritization purposes, yes

Q What about directing members of the cabinet to do certain things? Would that -- would you call that affecting part of your work?

A Affecting, yes

Q Okay Relatedly, we saw the e-mail earlier, the one that set up the meeting, the one where you -- where you first mentioned Mr Williams as Tic Tac man?

A Yes

Q First question Did -- to your recollection, did either Mr or Ms McDonnell, as far as you're aware, ever express the same skepticism that you and your colleagues apparently shared that you were aware of?

A There was never a discussion with them to express that

Q Okay You never heard it?

A No, sir

Q So -- this is a question I probably should have asked you earlier When you get this request to go have the meeting --

A Uh-huh

Q -- you make the observation to your colleague that, you know, Tic Tac man, you make the hamster wheel comment, why didn't you say, "Hey, Matt" or "Hey, Keith, you know I'm not meeting this guy He's a nut I'm not going to do that"? Why didn't you say that?

A I wouldn't have considered it an option

Q Why?

A Because we took the meetings that were requested of us

Q Okay Is it because you were directed to take the meeting by your direct supervisor, Mr Hazel?

A Yes

Q Who was, as you understood it from the e-mail, directed to do so by his supervisor, Mr McDonnell?

A Yes

Q You were asked -- finally, you were asked some questions by Mr Hauss about whether it was possible that Mary-Shea Sutherland attended this meeting that you had Do you recall that?

A I recall the question

Q Yes And do you recall your answer being that it was possible that she was there?

A It's possible I don't personally remember her being there

Q Okay Do you remember her saying anything at the meeting?

A No

Q Is there anything in your notes about her being there?

A No

Q Do you have any independent recollection of her being there?

A No

Q Final -- I said finally I shouldn't have said that

You were asked several questions about the portion of your notes concerning the Tobacco Commission, the one where you put the star in the margin

A Yes

Q Do you recall talking about that?

My question for you about that is -- is your testimony about what Mr Williams said, is that a -- a -- something you're deducing from what your notes say or do you have an independent recollection as you sit here of exactly what Mr Williams said? Is it -- is it box one or box two?

MR ASBILL: Or neither

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Excuse me Or neither?

THE COURT: Or a combination

MR HARBACH: Sure Thank you, Judge

A I'm going to have to go with the judge on this one

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Combination?

A Combination

Q Wise choice

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor I have nothing further

THE COURT: All right Thank you, ma'am You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: We are going to take our 15-minute morning break You all follow the marshal

A I'm a Professor of Medicine and Associate Vice President for Clinical Research

Q What sort of educational background do you have?

A My medical -- I got my medical degree at MCV, following a bachelor's degree and a master's degree And then I did my internship, residency, and fellowship there

Q So altogether, have you been at VCU about 30 years or so?

A Correct

Q What are your day-to-day duties at VCU in terms of how it breaks down in your job?

A So about 50 percent of my time is in research, basically directing the Center for Clinical and Translational Research Thirty percent of my time is in clinical practice, and the rest is teaching

Q And could you tell the jury whether VCU is a state school or a private school?

A VCU is a state institution

Q So as a VCU employee, are you a state employee?

A I am

Q As a state employee, do you receive certain e-mails that are addressed to all state employees on occasion?

A I do

Q And do those include e-mails from whoever is Governor at the time?

A They did

Q And did that include Mr McDonnell when he was

Governor?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, I'd like to show the witness for identification what's been marked as Exhibit 271

THE COURT: All right

MR FAULCONER: If we could just zoom in on the upper portion there

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Dr Clore, is this one of those types of e-mails that would go out to all state employees?

A It looks familiar, yeah

Q And December 19th, 2011, were you employed by VCU at that time?

A I was

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 271 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Clore, could you tell us what the subject at the very top of this document, what the subject of this e-mail is?

A It says "2012-2014 Proposed Budget to All State Employees "

Q And the introduction there where it says, "Dear," what does it say there?

A "Dear Fellow State Employees "

MR FAULCONER: And if we could go to the second page

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And at the bottom there, what's the name at the bottom of the e-mail?

A It's signed by the Governor

MR FAULCONER: We can take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Clore, I think you said that one of your roles is Vice President of VCU Clinical Research Did I get that right?

A Correct

Q As the Vice President of VCU Clinical Research, do you have to worry about funding and infrastructure, and things like that?

A Sure My job, actually, is to make sure that there's adequate infrastructure to do clinical research at VCU

Q And does that infrastructure, does that include things that are funded by the State?

A Some of those funds are state funds as a state institution, yes

Q Now, I'd like to transition to the case that brings us here today Before the summer of 2011, had you heard of the company Star Scientific?

A I had not

Q Before the summer of 2011, had you heard of Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals?

A I had not

Q Before the summer of 2011, had you heard of the product Anatabloc?

A I had not

Q In early July 2011, did you receive a phone call in which you learned about Anatabloc for the first time?

A I did

Q And who was it that called you?

A I was called by a Dr Ladenson from Johns Hopkins University to tell me about a compound of potential research

Q And had you ever met Dr Ladenson in person before?

A I had not

Q Now, after that call, did you report what had happened to some of your superiors within VCU?

A I did

Q Essentially, were you keeping them apprised of what was going on?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd like to pull up for identification Exhibit 167

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, may we approach?

THE COURT: Come up

(At Bench)

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, this is an e-mail, and there's another one we believe the Government is going to introduce These are the e-mails here These are packed full of hearsay that Dr. Clore talked with another physician, and now he's reporting what this other physician said

We think in order for that to come in, they should have to call the other physician This is an out-of-court statement and we believe offering for its truth We object to the hearsay

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor --

THE COURT: The objection is overruled

(In Open Court)

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Clore, the document that we're looking at here, this is an e-mail from you to three other individuals at VCU, right?

A Correct

Q And this is dated July 1st of 2011?

A Right

Q And is this essentially the e-mail we were just referring to, summarizing what had -- what had just gone on in that call?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer this exhibit into evidence

THE COURT: What's the number again?

MR FAULCONER: 167

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Clore, could you start by telling us who the three names are that are referenced there: Strauss, Macrina, and Retchin?

A Yes In my role as Associate Vice President for Clinical Research, the three people, these are senior leaders at my institution, and we work closely together in building and implementing infrastructure

So Dr Strauss is the Dean of the School of Medicine Dr Macrina is Vice President for Research And Dr Retchin is Vice President for Health Sciences at MCV/VCU

Q Now, looking at this e-mail, do you see about halfway down where it starts, "And Mr Williams specifically"?

A Correct

Q Could you read the end of that sentence and then the next sentence that starts with "Mr Williams"? If you could read that out loud

A It says, "Mr Williams specifically wants to fund projects in Virginia to test the compound Mr Williams is a very good friend with the Governor and the Governor would like to sponsor these trials as evidence of Virginia's commitment to research and entrepreneurship "

Q Now, when you send this e-mail to Dr Retchin, do you -- why did you include Dr Retchin on this e-mail?

A Again, he's one of the three senior leaders that I report to Dr Retchin is Vice President for Health Sciences, but he is one of three, yeah.

Q And does Dr Retchin interact, to your knowledge, with government officials in his day-to-day job?

A Yeah In his role as Vice President -- Vice President for Health Sciences, he has numerous interactions with the legislature, every year when the legislature comes to town, to talk about potential funding for the institution So he advocates for the institution

Q And is this e-mail essentially a summary of the conversation that you had with Dr Ladenson?

A It is

Q Now, in that conversation, I think you mentioned study or research Did Dr Ladenson mention the possibility of trials or research into this product Anatabloc?

A He said there was some interest in performing research with anatabine, yeah

Q Now, coming out of the call, what was sort of the next step or the next thing you understood was going to happen in the process?

A My understanding was that there was going to be a scientific session to discuss anatabine and to discuss potential research

MR FAULCONER: We can take that exhibit down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, did you understand where that meeting was going to be?

A Yes I had been told it was going to be on Gibson Island, which was in Maryland

Q And did you agree to go to that?

A I did

Q How did you get there?

A I flew

Q And was it a private jet or a commercial flight?

A It was a private jet

Q And who flew with you up to Gibson Island?

A So my counterpart at UVA, Dr Shupnik, was on the plane, and Mary-Shea Sutherland was on the plane

Q And, Dr Shupnik, could you explain exactly who she is?

A She is my counterpart at UVA So a similar person directing the research enterprise at UVA

Q And when you met Ms Sutherland, I think -- is that what you said?

A Yeah

Q Who did you understand her to be?

A I didn't actually know who she was for quite some time, but she introduced herself as a member of the staff of the First Lady

Q And could you describe what happened on the plane flight up to Gibson Island, what the conversation was like?

A We flew from Richmond to Charlottesville to pick up Dr Shupnik, and then flew to BWI, Baltimore And during that conversation, it was fairly -- we talked about nutraceuticals and potential medications for the treatment of disease, that kind of thing

Q And Ms Sutherland, you said that she had mentioned that she worked for the First Lady, Maureen McDonnell?

A Right

Q Did she mention Ms McDonnell's name in the course of that conversation?

A I guess only to the -- I don't recall exactly, but only to the extent that I understood that she was the First Lady's assistant

Q And when you got to BWI, how did you get to the actual event itself?

A We were met with an SUV, and we met Mr Williams there I met Mr Williams for the first time, and we drove to Gibson Island

Q And could you describe the conversation in the car on the way to the actual event?

A Sure It was a discussion about anatabine and its potential as a -- an anti-inflammatory drug to treat -- hopefully prevent and treat disease

MR FAULCONER: If we could pull up for identification Exhibit 170

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And, Dr Clore, do you recognize what this document appears to be?

A Yes It's the agenda of the meeting that I attended

MR FAULCONER: And if we could go to the second page

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Does that appear to be a list of the participants that attended the meeting?

A It does

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 170 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, if we could go back to the first page, Dr Clore, and down at the bottom where we have -- in the 3 to 4:00 range, do you see there where it has your name and Medical College of Virginia?

A Correct

Q Do you recall speaking at the meeting?

A I did

Q And could you describe for the jury what it was that you said at the meeting?

A Yeah Dr Shupnik and I were asked to present the resources that our respective institutions had that might be suitable to conduct clinical research

Q And do you recall, at the end of this meeting, being given actually a packet of information?

A I was

MR FAULCONER: If we could pull up for identification Exhibit 171

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Dr Clore, do you recognize this document here?

A I do

Q And was this one of the materials or one of the documents that you received at that meeting?

A It was

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 171 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Dr Clore, this says "Request for Applications " Is that a common lingo in the research community?

A It is Anytime that a potential sponsor is interested in doing research, they issue an RFA, or Request for Applications, and they are letting potential researchers know that there might be funding opportunities for a particular area

Q And could you read what it says under the -- after "Purpose" at the top of this document?

A The whole paragraph?

Q Yeah If you could read it out loud

A Okay "This RFA issued by Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals solicits Clinical Trial Planning Grant Applications from investigators/institutions that propose development of studies that will answer research questions essential for the design of phase II and/or III clinical trials related to the potential anti-inflammatory and immunomodulatory effects of anatabine The resulting clinical trial proposals would then be submitted for consideration of funding by the Virginia Tobacco Settlement Trust, wherein the anticipated allotment will be $2 5 million for single- or multi-site applications The application cycle begins on or before December 1, 2011 "

Q And then lower below where it says, "Budget and Project Period," what's the dollar amount in the -- in that section?

A $25,000 for planning grants

Q And so based off of this and the conversation that was at the meeting, could you describe what your understanding was of what you were being asked to consider doing?

A I was being informed that there -- that planning grants would be available so money for us -- for any interested investigator to prepare an application for a complete grant funding for studies using anatabine

Q And just to break that down a little bit, when you say initial planning grants, which dollar amount are we talking about for the initial planning grants?

A The $25,000

Q Okay And then when you say ultimately some sort of application, where would that application go to?

A That application would go to the sponsor, which in this case would be Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals

Q Right And then the funding itself would come from -- does it say the Virginia Tobacco Settlement Trust?

A That's what we were informed of, yeah

Q Now --

MR FAULCONER: We can go ahead and take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, when you got back from this event, did you again report to others at VCU what had happened at the event?

A I did

MR FAULCONER: If we could show Exhibit 173 for identification

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And is this an e-mail to the same three people that we referenced earlier: Dr Strauss, Retchin and Macrina?

A It is

Q And is it dated July 23rd, 2011?

A It is

Q Did you write it?

A I did

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 173 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Clore, is this e-mail the same date as the symposium at Gibson Island, July 23rd?

A It is

Q And does it appear to be later that night at 8:44 p m ?

A That's after I got home

Q So you got right to it?

A I did

Q Now, if you could read for us the sentence that starts with "the Governor" on the second line out loud?

A "The Governor would like to use tobacco funds to support Virginia research demonstrating the State's commitment to support research to reduce healthcare costs in the Commonwealth "

Q And was that consistent with what had happened at the meeting?

A That's what I was -- that's what I was told, yes

Q And do you recall if you actually told other researchers at VCU, in addition to Drs Strauss, Macrina, and Retchin, about this potential RFA?

A Yeah Once I had communicated to my senior leadership and essentially gotten a go-ahead to pursue this, I contacted other investigators at VCU that were engaged in research that dealt with anti-inflammatory medications to treat diseases that are associated with inflammation

MR FAULCONER: If we could pull up for identification Exhibit 174

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And, Dr Clore, is this an e-mail from you two days later on July 25th, 2011?

A It is

Q And is this an e-mail to those other researchers you were just referencing?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 174 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And just one name I wanted to ask about on this list Who is George Vetrovec?

A George Vetrovec, at this time, was the Chair of Cardiology at the MCV And so he's, for many years, been interested in inflammation and the role of inflammation in cardiovascular disease

Q And when you say "RFA" on the first line of this e-mail, are you referring to that document that we saw earlier, the Request for Applications?

A I am

Q At this point in time, Dr Clore, were you legitimately interested in doing these studies?

A I was I -- and I think I stated in one of those e-mails that I've had a long -- I had had a long-standing interest in compounds that had anti-inflammatory effects In my area of diabetes, there's a lot of interest in diabetes and agents that decrease inflammation might actually have a salutary effect

Q Now, after the Gibson Island event, do you recall a meeting at the Governor's Mansion in Ms McDonnell's office on or about August 1st of 2011?

A I do

Q Now, we'll get to that meeting in just a second But at some point between those two events, so between Gibson Island and the meeting at the Mansion, did you actually receive a phone call from Mr Williams?

A I did

Q And without getting into the specifics of it, did Mr McDonnell's name come up in that phone call?

A It did

Q And did Mr Williams ask you for a referral for another doctor in reference to Mr McDonnell?

A He did

Q Now, going to the meeting on August 1st, 2011 --

MR FAULCONER: If we could pull up Exhibit 186, which has already been admitted Zoom in on the highlighted lines there

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Clore, do you see there at 10:34 to 11:31 where it has what looks like your name there?

A I do

Q Is that misspelled, I guess? It has a --

A Yes, it is

Q Does that happen a lot?

A All the time

Q There where you say to see Mary-Shea, do you recall being greeted there by Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A She opened the door for me, yeah

Q Now, looking up earlier, do you see there where it says 9:45 to 12:14? What name is listed there?

A J Williams and M Huffstetler

Q And M Huffstetler is 9:55 --

A Oh, I'm sorry

Q -- to 11:05, right?

A Yes I'm sorry

Q But at least according to this, it looks like you stayed longer than whatever Ms Huffstetler was there to do, right?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: Now, if we could pull up Exhibit 187, which has already been admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And, Dr Clore, this is a document that you haven't seen before, I don't think

MR FAULCONER: If we could turn to the second page -- or sorry Back on the first page And if we could zoom in where it says UVA/MCV and then the writing underneath it

MR BROWNLEE: I'm going to object These are not anything that he's seen or his notes So I don't know why we're showing him somebody else's notes

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, I'm simply asking him, there was reference during the earlier testimony to a name that was written and a profession and the location I'm simply going to ask him if that's where he works, in his profession, to clarify that his name may have come up

THE COURT: You can ask him that without the document

MR FAULCONER: We can go ahead and take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Clore, are you a -- just to make sure we have it clear, are you an endocrinologist?

A I am

Q And do you work at MCV?

A I do

Q And does your name often get misspelled?

A It does

Q Now, when you got to this meeting on August 1st of 2011, where did you go?

A So Ms Sutherland greeted me at the front door We went into the Mansion, immediately turned left and down the stairs to a very small office in the bottom of the -- in the basement or the -- I guess the basement

Q And who were you there to meet?

A The First Lady

Q So was this a meeting with Ms Sutherland or with the First Lady?

A It was with the First Lady

Q And earlier we saw Mr Williams' name on that log around the same time frame Do you specifically recall whether Mr Williams was there?

A I really do not remember

Q Is it possible that he was?

A It is

Q Now, do you remember anything about that day being a particularly hot day or anything like that?

A That's the only thing I really remember about that day is it was very hot and I was given a bottle of water and was very grateful

Q Now, Dr Clore, during that meeting, do you recall Ms McDonnell talking about some of her interests as it relates to the sort of medical or nutraceutical business?

A The conversation was fairly broad, and the conversation really seemed to be about health and wellness in the Commonwealth of Virginia I don't remember any specifics about particular compounds or anything It was really just about that

My sense of the meeting was that she was exploring the possibility that MCV might be interested in participating in projects for health and wellness in the Commonwealth of Virginia So that's -- that's -- that's what I felt the meeting was about

Q And did you talk a little bit about what you do at MCV during that conversation?

A Exactly I talked about my role as a diabetologist and my interest in health and wellness in Virginia for that very reason

Q And whether Mr Williams was there or not or whether you specifically recall it, can you tell us whether you've ever been around Mr Williams and not heard him talking about Anatabloc?

A I can say never

Q Now, as of this date, Dr Clore, did you know that Ms McDonnell had been vacationing at Mr Williams' house in Smith Mountain Lake earlier that week?

A No knowledge of that

Q Now, as of that time, August 1st of 2011, had you ever met Mr McDonnell?

A I had not

Q And before the meeting we just discussed, had you ever met Ms McDonnell?

A I had not

Q Had you ever been to the Governor's Mansion?

A I had not

Q Now, later in 2011, do you recall getting an invitation for an event at the Mansion related to Star Scientific?

A I do

MR FAULCONER: If we could show what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 228

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Dr Clore, do you recognize this document?

A I do

Q What is it?

A It's an invitation to a luncheon on Tuesday, August 30th, 2011

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 228 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And, Dr Clore, do you remember receiving this invitation?

A I do

Q Do you recall having a seal, like it does here at the top, for the State of Virginia?

A It looks like the invitation I received, yes

Q And could you read the first three lines of this invitation?

A Sure "Governor and Ms Robert F McDonnell request the pleasure of your company at a luncheon "

Q And what's the name in a lot smaller font there down at the bottom with an e-mail address?

A It says, "Kindly RSVP to Mary-Shea Sutherland at" -- a phone number

Q Now, based on having received this with the invitation, the Governor's name on it, everything like that, did it seem to you like this was an official government event?

A It did

Q When you went to this as the representative for VCU, did you take leave or vacation time to go?

A No

Q So let's talk a little bit about the event itself When you arrived, what was the first thing that happened?

A We were all escorted in, and the First Lady actually showed us around the -- the atrium, I guess, if you will, the main part of the room

There were a number of paintings on the wall, and she described some of those paintings So I was able to see the first -- the Governor's Mansion for the first time, and then spent time talking to some of the guests

Q And about how many people were there?

A I would say 20 I'm not sure

Q Was Mr Williams there?

A He was

Q And after Ms McDonnell showed you around and you sort of mingled for a little while, where did you go next?

A We went into the dining room -- I assume it's the dining room -- and sat down for the lunch

Q And who was the first person who spoke once you sat down?

A The First Lady

Q And what exactly do you recall her saying?

A I recall her welcoming us all and asking all of us to go around the table and introduce ourselves to each other

Q And do you remember there being representatives from -- or at least a representative from UVA there?

A There was a representative from UVA

Q And at some point do you recall Mr McDonnell arriving?

A He did After -- my recollection, it's a little lazy, but my recollection was after the introductions and all of that, the Governor came in

Q And during the event, do you recall Mr Williams speaking?

A I do

Q And do you recall Mr McDonnell being present when Mr Williams spoke?

A Yes

Q During the presentation, did it seem like Mr McDonnell was paying attention?

A Yes

Q And based on what Mr Williams and everyone else was saying, what did it seem to you like the relationship between this event and the product Anatabloc was?

MR BURCK: Objection

THE COURT: Ask the question again.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Based on what Mr Williams and everyone was saying, what did it seem to you like the relationship between this event and the product Anatabloc was?

THE COURT: Objection is sustained

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Was there any -- did anybody say anything during the event about the rollout of the product into the stores?

A Yes Mr Williams described the fact that the compound Anatabloc was about to be released in drug stores in the Greater Richmond area

Q And have you previously described this as the sort of thing that was designed to make a big splash?

A That's what it seemed to me

Q And after the presenters spoke, do you recall other people other than Mr Williams speaking? Sorry That was a terrible question, Dr Clore

After Mr Williams spoke, do you remember other people speaking at the event?

A After Mr Williams spoke, I believe the Governor did have some remarks

Q And do you recall him engaging with the people who were there?

A I do

Q And were the comments that he made, were they topical? Were they on point?

A They were topical

Q Could you describe what you recall about them?

A I actually recall very little about those comments, honestly I just remember that the comments had to do with Anatabloc and -- and health and wellness in the Commonwealth I don't remember them being terribly specific, and so I really can't say

Q And do you recall, during the course of the conversation, the various people who spoke, the issue of the product having a relationship to tobacco coming out at all?

A Yes That was the conversation that Mr Williams really gave the whole history Prior to the Governor speaking, he basically described the history of anatabine and the discovery of anatabine and its anti-inflammatory effects

Q And at the end of the event, can you tell us whether you were given anything?

A I was

Q What were you given?

A I was given a check for $25,000

MR FAULCONER: If we could show what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 233

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And, Dr Clore, do you recognize this?

A I do

Q What is it?

A It's a $25,000 check made out to VCU Medical Center

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 233 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And, Dr Clore, does this look like the check that you received on that day?

A It does

Q Now, Dr Clore, at any time during this event, did anyone tell you who was paying for the event?

A No

Q At any time during this event, did anyone tell you this wasn't an official government event?

A No

Q Now, after the event, did you mention what had happened to other people at VCU?

A I'm sorry Say that again

Q After the event, when you went back to work in the weeks or months that followed, did you mention what had happened to other people at VCU?

A Basically what I mentioned was that the RFA was available, the planning grants were being awarded, and people -- those people that I had talked to about doing -- possibly doing the research should begin to work on creating grants

Q And did you actually put together your own grant proposal?

A I did

Q Did it ever actually go through to the Tobacco Commission?

A It did not

Q But if we fast-forward, as of February of 2012, a couple months later, was it still something you were considering?

A It was

Q Were you actually considering it through much of 2012?

A At least for the first half of 2012

MR FAULCONER: If we could show what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 402

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And, Dr Clore, is this a letter from you to Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals?

A Yes

Q And is it dated August 9th, 2012?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 402 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And, Dr Clore, could you describe for us, in general terms, what this letter is?

A This is a letter to Ryan Lanier, who is Chief Clinical Research Scientist at Rock Creek

I had received that $25,000 check Had not spent any of it Had deposited it at the university, but had not spent it because a lot of the information that I needed to be able to really put together a grant with information that was scientific I had not been able to get So this is a no-cost extension I'm basically asking to continue the process

Q But as of August 9th of 2012, was doing a study still a possibility in your mind?

A Still a possibility

Q Now, Dr Clore, since the event in late August of 2011 --

MR FAULCONER: We can take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q -- have you ever been back to the Governor's Mansion?

A I have not

Q Did you ever meet Mr McDonnell again?

A I did not

Q And at the time of the event, were you aware of any payments from Mr Williams to the McDonnells?

A I was not

Q And after the event in 2012, were you aware of any subsequent payments from Mr Williams to Mr McDonnell?

A No

MR FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR FAULCONER: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Mr Brownlee, any questions?

MR BROWNLEE: Yes, Your Honor Thank you

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Good afternoon, Dr Clore

A Good afternoon

Q My name is John Brownlee, and I'm an attorney for Bob McDonnell I just have a few questions for you this afternoon

A Okay

Q Mr Faulconer showed you Government's Exhibit -- let me start back

This whole thing with regard to Anatabloc, is it true, started with a phone call from Dr Ladenson to you; is that correct?

A That is correct

Q Okay And I think you've described that as a cold call?

A It was

Q Okay And Dr Ladenson, I believe you've testified, was the Chair of Endocrinology at Johns Hopkins University in Maryland; is that correct?

A That's right

Q Fair to say, that's a -- that is a very prestigious position to have for a physician?

A Yes

Q Could you speak up just a little bit? I'm having a little --

A Sure No Yes, that's right

Q All right Thank you

And when you spoke -- when Dr Ladenson called you, he invited you to this -- he told you about Anatabloc Is that true?

A Right

Q Okay And he told you about some of the things that he wanted to try to potentially accomplish with this product; is that right?

A Yes Right

Q And he told you that there was an event at Gibson Island?

A He did

Q Okay And he invited you to come to that event?

A He did

Q Okay And the event was to discuss some of the merits of potential testing of Anatabloc; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And based upon that conversation, you decided to attend the Gibson Island event; is that correct?

A I did

Q Okay Now, he also said -- well, you then prepared an e-mail, and that's Government's Exhibit 167

MR BROWNLEE: If we could see that Blow that up a little bit

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right If you look in the middle of that e-mail, sir, we'll highlight where it starts, "Mr Williams is a very good friend with the Governor "

A Right

Q I'll read it to you "Mr Williams is a very good friend with the Governor and the Governor would like to sponsor these trials as evidence of Virginia's commitment to research and entrepreneurship "

A Yes

Q Now, sir, when you wrote this e-mail on July 1st of 2011, you wrote that because that's what Dr Ladenson told you, right?

A Correct

Q Okay You had never talked with Bob McDonnell about that, had you?

A No

MR BROWNLEE: Okay You can take that down Thank you

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, at the time that you got this call from Dr Ladenson, were you aware that Dr Ladenson was actually being paid by Star Scientific?

A I did not know that

Q You did not know that Okay And part of his pitch to you was that there was potential funding involved in this; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And is that, for someone in your position, important?

A Yes

Q Okay And so based upon that call, you decided that you would, in fact, attend Gibson Island?

A Yes

Q Now, did you seek permission from your superiors to attend?

A And I think that's what that e-mail addresses is it was a little irregular, not the unusual process that I'm familiar with, and so I wanted to make sure it was okay to go

Q Okay And folks said that it was okay to go?

A They did

Q Okay And I believe you testified that they -- that you went up there on Mr Williams' plane?

A I did

Q And seated in the plane with you was Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A Correct

Q Okay And Ms Sutherland introduced herself as a staff member, Chief of Staff for the First Lady; is that correct?

A She did

Q Now, at that time, were you aware that Ms Sutherland had been negotiating a job with Mr Williams?

A I was not

Q Okay She didn't tell you that?

A No

Q Okay Now, at the event itself, I believe you talked about that there was a discussion of these $25,000 planning grants; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And there was also a discussion that Mr Williams, at some point, would put in two and a half to four million dollars; is that correct?

A That's what the brochure that we received stated

Q Okay Now, then when you got back that evening --

MR BROWNLEE: If we could look at Government's Exhibit 173 If we could blow that up

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right When you got back that evening, this is the e-mail that you wrote, and you sent it to some of your colleagues; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay Let's take a look at this First of all, you started out, "It was an interesting meeting "

Okay What did you mean by that?

A Well, it -- actually, what I meant by that. it can be interpreted lots of ways, but actually, the science was actually very interesting science So I found the preliminary research that had been done, mostly animal type research, but I found the research actually compelling; that there really was a possibility that the compound had potential anti-inflammatory effects So that's really what I meant by "interesting "

Q Okay And I think Mr Faulconer had showed you, and we won't go through it, but a list of all the people who attended And these were really experienced physicians, is that fair to say, and scientists?

A Yes -- or correct

Q Okay And so then you go on, "Jonnie Williams has a nutraceutical, anatabine, which appears to have potent anti-inflammatory effects "

A Right

Q And you wrote that because at Gibson Island, that's what Mr Williams and the folks who were there told you?

A That's what the scientists told me, yes

Q Okay And then you say, "The Governor would like to use tobacco funds to support Virginia research demonstrating the State's commitment to support research to reduce healthcare costs in the Commonwealth "

Now, again, you wrote this to your colleagues because this is what folks at Gibson Island told you?

A Correct

Q Now, at this point, had you ever talked to Bob McDonnell about this?

A No

Q Okay You never had a one-on-one meeting with him and he told you he wanted to do all this?

A No

Q Okay This is what the folks at Gibson Island said?

A Yes

Q Okay Then it says, "$25,000 planning grants are proposed towards submission of demonstration grants, which have a very high likelihood of funding " And then, "Jonnie would supplement this to the tune of two and a half to four million dollars "

So just two things here These $25,000 planning grants would be that Star gives them to the university; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And then the second would be -- it says "Jonnie " After this weekend, were you kind of on a first-name basis with Mr Williams? He likes folks to call him Jonnie?

A Yes

Q Okay And he was going to give two and a half to four million, according to what he said; is that right?

A No, I didn't say that Really -- and maybe that's a slight misstatement But the source of the money really came from what was in the brochure that was handed to us, and that specifically talked about tobacco settlement money

Q Okay So you wrote, "Jonnie would supplement," but what you really meant was that this was through some tobacco?

A Correct

Q Okay And then you said, "I'm happy to discuss the possibilities " And then it says, "I proposed a study to pursue the effect of anatabine on progression of diabetes based on similar studies," and then, "which was enthusiastically received "

So is it fair to say at Gibson Island, based on everything you heard at that point, you were proposing to go forward with the study?

A I thought it had potential, yes

Q Okay Let me just ask, were you -- were you empowered to make that decision at that time as someone at VCU?

A Well, this would not be a decision -- I think the answer is yes

Q Okay

A As an individual investigator, if I see a funding opportunity for something that really has scientific merit, I'm empowered to pursue it, sure

Q Okay And you had made that judgment at that time to go ahead and do that?

A My observation coming out of that meeting was that there was a lot of potential

Q Okay Great And just to -- at Gibson Island, Bob McDonnell wasn't there, correct?

A Correct

Q Now, let me talk --

MR BROWNLEE: You can take that down Thank you

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Mr Faulconer asked you about a phone call you received from Mr Williams

A Right

Q The first time you had ever -- well, was this after Gibson Island?

A It was

Q So he -- you had met him You knew him at that point?

A Correct

Q And he called you -- tell the ladies and gentlemen of the jury what he asked you about

A I'm not sure -- I will just say, and it was already addressed, I was asked about a medical condition and whether there was somebody at MCV that might be able to help with that particular -- address that particular condition

Q Okay. And I just need you to answer the question I know you might not want to, but can you tell us what exactly Mr Williams was asking a referral for?

A I'm not sure that -- if I should do that This is a personal medical condition, and I'm not sure that's appropriate

Q Okay Let me see if I can do it this way This was a personal medical condition of Bob McDonnell?

A Correct

Q Okay And Mr Williams was calling you to see if you could give a referral for a medical condition that Mr Williams thought he might have?

A Correct

Q Okay And did you give him anyone?

A I did

Q Any follow-up on that?

A I never followed up And I don't know what became of it

Q Okay Did Bob McDonnell ever talk to you about it?

A No

Q Okay Okay And then I want to move to August 1st You discussed this short meeting where you received a call and you came over and you met briefly with Ms McDonnell; is that correct?

A Correct

MR BROWNLEE: Could we bring up Government's Exhibit 186, please

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And these are the logs from the Governor's Mansion for that day, sir Now, do you remember who called you and asked you to come over?

A I do not I have tried very hard to remember, but I do not remember who called

Q That's fine That's fine But when you got to the gate, is it fair to say you asked to see Ms Sutherland?

A I was actually greeted -- well, no I got to the gate, and my name was already there at the gate They recognized that I was supposed to come in, yeah

Q Okay And it was Ms Sutherland who met you?

A Correct

Q Okay And you went and you had a conversation Governor McDonnell was not there; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And you never spoke to him?

A I did not

Q All right Let's --

MR BROWNLEE: You can take that down Thank you

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Let's move to August 30th This was the event at the -- at the Governor's Mansion, the larger lunch And you received an invitation When you received the invitation, did you contact Ms Sutherland and tell her that you would be coming?

A I suppose I did I actually don't remember

Q Okay Now, at this time, as we previously discussed, you had already kind of made a decision to pursue this; is that correct?

A The research Yes

Q Okay Good And at this lunch, Mr Williams spoke about his company and Anatabloc; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And do you recall, he had like a tobacco leaf or something? Do you remember that?

A That may be true I don't actually remember that

Q Okay And then I think you testified that Mr McDonnell came in at some point --

A He did

Q -- during the event?

A He did

Q Okay And I think you have -- well, let me just ask, you've met with government prosecutors and the FBI before coming in here today; is that correct?

A I have

Q Okay And I think you told them -- you tell me if it's right -- that Governor McDonnell spoke, as you described, on a high level?

A I don't remember specifics Yes Correct That's a fair statement

Q Okay And I think you told the FBI that you were not sure that the Governor was sold on the benefits of the product; is that correct?

A I actually don't remember exactly what I told them But the gist of the conversation was the Governor spoke at a high level about health and wellness in Virginia and the compound, I suppose

Q Okay Did he ever have any specific conversations with you that day, just one-on-one?

A No

Q Okay And then towards the end of the event, I understand that Mr Williams came up to you and actually handed you a check; is that correct?

A He did

Q And you were surprised by that?

A It's never happened before in my life

Q And just so we understand, you were surprised because you had never received a check, a funding grant like that before, correct?

A Generally, the way it works is you apply for funding The funding goes through the university or institution, and that funding -- that money then gets deposited to an account that you can then draw on

Q Right And I understand you immediately went back and gave the check to somebody else?

A As fast as possible

Q As fast as possible Okay All right Now, you were asked about your appearance at this, as to whether it was a -- well, let me ask you this When you went to Gibson Island, did you take leave to go?

A I did not I considered it university business

Q Okay And Mr Faulconer asked you about who paid for this You don't know who paid for the event?

A I do not

Q Now, after the event, sir, I understand that then there was some back and forth between you and Star about trying to kind of get this -- the ball going Is that fair?

A Correct

Q Okay Because you were sold on it, based upon your conversations with Dr Ladenson and these other doctors at Gibson Island?

A I was interested in doing the research, yes

Q Okay And -- but is it fair to say that at some point the ball kind of went into Star's court and it just never came back?

A Yeah I've sent a number of e-mails to Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals, and I never really got any response So it just sort of died, yeah

Q Okay Now, Mr Faulconer showed you a letter I think it's Government's Exhibit 402 And this is a letter you wrote in August of 2012, correct?

A Correct

Q And is it fair to say that when you wrote this letter, had you received anything from Star that would spark this or were you just sending them a letter hoping that this might kind of --

A No This is almost perfunctory because the planning grant was supposed to be in a year, and we were coming up on a year since the money had first been awarded And institutional policy would be if you've not spent the money or if you have not spent all the money, you have to request from the sponsor a no-cost extension

Q Okay Did you hear anything back from them on this?

A I don't recall hearing anything

Q Okay And there was never an application to the Tobacco Commission?

A Not that I'm aware of

Q Okay And no money from them ever came to your institution?

A It did not

Q Okay And you were never able to do this research that you had considered, at least through this process?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, after the event at the Mansion, did you ever talk to Bob McDonnell?

A I did not

Q Okay In fact, is it fair to say you've never had a one-on-one meeting with him ever?

A Ever

Q Okay Now, I'm going to ask you a question Do you recall telling the FBI, when you were initially interviewed, that you would not normally touch this type of product with a ten-foot pole, but because of Johns Hopkins' involvement, you thought it was legitimate research?

A I may have said something to that extent The gist of that is that there are lots of nutraceuticals There are lots of compounds that have potential benefit And as a researcher and as a clinician myself, I tend to have a fairly high level of skepticism about novel compounds unless they are actually tested And so yes

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you, Your Honor

Thank you very much, Dr Clore

THE COURT: All right, Mr Burck

MR BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor Very briefly

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BURCK:

Q Good afternoon, Dr Clore

A Good afternoon

Q My name is Bill Burck I represent Maureen McDonnell Just a few questions

You testified about the flight that you took on Jonnie Williams' plane to Gibson Island in July of 2011?

A Yes

Q And Mary-Shea Sutherland was present on that flight?

A She was

Q And you said that the only time that Maureen McDonnell's name came up was in the context of Ms Sutherland saying that she was the Chief of Staff to Maureen McDonnell?

A She introduced herself I had no idea who she was, and so I inquired and she told me

Q Okay And you just -- you testified there was discussion about nutraceuticals on that plane ride?

A Yeah There was some discussion about the fact that the First Lady was interested in those kinds of things, yes

Q Okay And this is what Mary-Shea Sutherland told you?

A Correct

Q Now, the --

MR BURCK: Could you please pull up Government Exhibit 186

BY MR BURCK:

Q This is a document you've testified a bit about today This is showing the date that you came to the Mansion to meet with Ms McDonnell and Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A Yes

Q August 1st, 2011?

A Yes

Q And you testified at that meeting, Mary-Shea Sutherland and Maureen McDonnell were present?

A Right

Q You know that for sure?

A I know that

Q Okay You recall them being there?

A Yes

Q But you don't remember Jonnie Williams being there?

A I do not remember him, whether he was there or not

Q Okay And I think as the prosecutor mentioned, he's somebody you would probably remember being there, right?

A He's pretty memorable

Q Okay And you knew him before this?

A I did. At Gibson Island

Q Okay And I think you testified that you don't recall who invited you over to the Mansion that morning?

A I do not

Q Did you tell the investigators in this case that Mary-Shea Sutherland had initiated the idea?

A I'm not sure I told who did it, because I honestly don't remember who did it

Q Okay And do you recall saying that Mary-Shea Sutherland may have invited you to the --

A She may have I mean --

Q Okay And the -- you testified that Ms McDonnell did not pitch you on anatabine or Anatabloc, is that right, at this meeting?

A That is a true statement

Q And as far as you recall, she never even mentioned the words anatabine or Anatabloc?

A Not that I recall

Q It was about wellness, obesity, general health issues?

A That is my recollection of the meeting

MR BURCK: That's it, Your Honor Thank you

THE COURT: All right Redirect?

MR FAULCONER: Yes, Your Honor, briefly

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Dr Clore, I'd like to ask you real quick Mr Brownlee asked you about whether you met with the government before your testimony here today Did you actually meet with the defense attorneys too?

A I have Yes

Q And were you told by the government, when you met with the government, that you were free to do that if you wanted to?

A I was

Q Now, you were also asked by Mr Brownlee about the e-mails that happened before you went to the launch event and the fact that you hadn't spoken to Mr McDonnell before that Do you remember that?

A Say that again I'm sorry

Q You were asked by Mr Brownlee about some of the e-mails you wrote --

A Oh

Q -- before you went to the launch and the references to the Governor and the fact that you hadn't actually spoken to him before Do you remember that?

A Correct

Q Was there anything that happened at the launch, at the event at the Mansion, that was inconsistent with what you had been told before?

A No

Q Now, Mr Brownlee also asked you about whether or not you were interested in doing the research already when you went to the event Do you recall that?

A Yes

Q Had VCU actually made the final decision to apply to the Tobacco Fund at the time that you went to the event?

A That wasn't a decision that VCU could make All we could do was apply to Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals The source of the money was not something that we knew

Q And as of that time, had you even done the planning process that would go --

A No

Q -- before applying to the Tobacco Commission?

A No

MR FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR FAULCONER: No further questions, Your

All right, call your next witness, please

MR. HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor The government calls Jasen Eige

JASEN EIGE,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Eige

A Good afternoon.

Q Could you please state your name and then spell your first and last name for the court reporter, please?

A Jacob Jasen Eige J-A-S-E-N is the one that usually has the trouble spelling, J-A-C-O-B, Eige is E-I-G-E

Q What are you currently doing for a living?

A I've started my own government relations consulting practice

Q Tell us about your educational background.

A I have a Bachelor's in Arts in Political Science and History I have a JD or a law degree, and also a Masters in Public Policy

Q During your career, have you worked for the defendant, Mr Robert McDonnell?

A Yes

Q When did you start working for him?

A I started working for him at the Attorney General's Office

Q Approximately what year?

A 2006 when he took office

Q What did you do for him at the AG's office?

A When I first started working for him, I was in the Financial, Law, and Government Services Section, and then subsequently moved up to his administrative side of his office and oversaw kind of the -- I was Chief of Staff and Counsel, which oversaw kind of the administrative side of the office such as HR, Finance, the technology side, also oversaw a division of attorneys, the one I had left

Q Did there come a time when you left your work at the AG's office to work on Mr. McDonnell's gubernatorial campaign?

A Yes Approximately August-September of 2009 I left the Attorney General's Office to join the campaign full time

Q What about after the election, after Mr McDonnell won the election for Governor, did you serve in his Administration in any capacity?

A I did I was on his transition team, which is kind of the entity that forms after the campaign is over And a couple of months subsequent to the campaign and before the Governor takes office, you have basically what's called a transition team, transition office I was his counsel on that transition team.

Q What about after he was inaugurated, did you serve in his Administration?

A I did.

Q In what capacity?

A I was counsel and senior advisor, and then in 2011 I took over also duties supervising the Policy Office, so I was counselor and senior policy advisor at that time

Q Would you tell us briefly what your duties were as senior policy advisor?

A It was basically to oversee the Policy Office and manage the Governor's legislative agenda, so any legislation that he had during his term in office, we would help develop that legislation and then lobby for its passage during session We also reviewed regulations and also dealt with other policy matters in the Administration in between the legislative sessions

Q During your time working for Mr McDonnell and in your most recent role, and incidentally, did you continue to work in the capacity you just described until the end of his term as Governor?

A I did To the last day

Q So focusing on that most recent role, how would you characterize your professional relationship with the then-Governor?

A It was good. I have had a good working relationship with him, even when I was an intern in law school with him. I would probably interact with him if he was in the office on a weekly basis, probably several times a week, probably more daily when he was actually in the office and wasn't traveling for his duties as Governor

Q Do you recall the circumstances in which you first learned of any connection at all between the McDonnells and a gentleman named Jonnie Williams?

A Yes

Q What was the circumstance that brought that to your attention?

A There was an issue of an inaugural dress for the First Lady when I was on the transition team. Phil Cox, the director for the transition, asked me to talk to them about a potential dress being donated First, I believe I thought it was from the designer himself, and then it turned out, I at least found out that it was actually from Jonnie Williams, who was wanting to purchase an inaugural dress for the First Lady

Q Let's take a look for identification, please, at Government Exhibit 52 Can you see that all right, sir?

A Yes

Q Is this an e-mail exchange involving you concerning this inaugural dress issue?

A Yes, it is

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 52

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q What's the date of the e-mail at the bottom, Mr Eige?

A Friday, December 18th, 2009

Q Who is the person you are sending this to, Crystal Cameron?

A Crystal Cameron was one of the staff members who was on the campaign and also in the transition Her primary duties on the transition was being kind of the staffer to the First Lady

Q Okay Then in the e-mail you say, "To close the loop on this issue, Phil asked that I call Jonnie Williams and respectfully decline the offer for the dress " Is that Phil Cox?

A Yes

Q The last sentence says: "He did want me to convey to Maureen that after the Governor-elect's term is up, he wants to still fly her up to get a dress Thanks "

The question for you is, who is the "he" in that sentence?

A Jonnie Williams

Q So it was he who wanted you to convey to Maureen? Is that right?

A Correct

Q It was he who wanted to still fly up to get a dress?

A Correct

Q Was that based on a conversation you had with Mr Williams?

A Based on the phone conversation I had with him, yes

Q Let's take a look now at what's in evidence as Government's 53 This e-mail exchange is the same day as the one we were just looking at, Government's 52, December 18th of 2009 You are e-mailing Phil Cox and Mike Reynold, and it is self-explanatory You in fact had spoken with Mr Williams?

A Yes

Q Does what you write here accurately convey the conversation you had with Mr Williams to your recollection?

A To my recollection, yes

Q Speaking for yourself, did you have an opinion about whether it was wise or advisable for Mr Williams to purchase Ms McDonnell a dress for the inauguration?

A Yes

Q What was your view at the time?

A Well, when Phil approached me about this, this dress matter, he explained, you know, he had some concerns about just the optics of having this type of dress, this expensive designer dress at the inauguration. I agreed with that assessment This was 2009 We were still in a recession. Part of the campaign pledge was to help bring jobs to Virginia and help the economy So we didn't think it was appropriate to have an expensive designer dress being used for the Governor's inauguration

Q How would anybody in the public know that it was an expensive designer dress?

A There was a couple of ways One, it could easily just be somebody asking her at the inauguration, whether it be the press corps or somebody else, and that becoming just public knowledge at that point "Where did you get that dress?" and the explanation would come where we would get the call, the transition office or the Governor's Office by that point, we would get a call of where that dress came from. The other concern we had was whether it needed to be expressed in the public financial disclosure form, which is called the Statement of Economic Interests that the Governor as an elected official had to file upon taking office and then subsequently every year along with other state officials have to file this form. So we had a concern that this dress was really being given for the Governor's inauguration, therefore, one analysis of that would mean that that dress was really a gift to the Governor And gifts on the Statement of Economic Interests are displayed, so you have to complete that form and show gifts given to the person, the declarant, the person filing that form.

So our concern was that we would have to report that in the Statement of Economic Interests even if nobody asked while she was at the inauguration

Q With respect to that second piece relating to the SOEI, did you share that view that you had with the Governor?

A Yes, we had that conversation

Q Let's take a look at the next exhibit, which is for identification only at the moment, Government's 54, please. Do you recognize this e-mail exchange, Mr Eige?

A Yes

Q Is this an e-mail exchange you had with Ms McDonnell on the subject of the dress, among other things?

A It is

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 54

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Can we start at the bottom, please, with the very first e-mail chronologically at the bottom of Page 1 Is this e-mail from Ms McDonnell to you?

A Yes

Q What's the date of this one, sir?

A Monday, December 21st, 2009

Q Now, incidentally, the e-mail address to which she sent this e-mail, was that a personal e-mail address for you at the time?

A It was

Q And was it unusual or routine for Ms. McDonnell to e-mail you there or somewhere in between?

A Probably somewhere in between. We had a campaign e-mail address, and I had that e-mail address So it wasn't necessarily unusual to get it sent, you know, to one of my e-mail addresses at the time

Q Okay Let's talk about the text of the e-mail now It says: "I need to talk to you about inaugural clothing budget I need answers and Bob is screaming about the thousands I'm charging up in credit card debt We are broke, have an unconscionable amount in credit card debt already, and this inaugural is killing us I need answers and I need help and I need to get this done How do I reach you?" Did I read that correctly, sir?

A Yes

Q First question is, before you received this e-mail from Ms McDonnell, did you have any idea that the McDonnells were having financial problems?

A No

Q Second question: She concludes the e-mail by saying, "I need to get this done " What did you understand that to mean?

A I understood that to mean finding some solution to having the proper attire for the inauguration. After we declined the dress from Jonnie Williams, we looked into other opportunities or options for the First Lady to have appropriate attire for the inauguration that wasn't a designer dress from Jonnie Williams

Q Okay Let's just roll through the remainder of these e-mails quickly so the jury can see them. Is this your response to her?

A Yes

Q Apologizing for not resolving this And her response to you, reiterating that she wants to talk to you; is that right?

A That's correct

Q And then you say that you will call right now Did you eventually talk to Ms McDonnell following this e-mail exchange to your recollection?

A To my recollection, I did have a conversation with her, yes

Q Do you recall any of the details about that call?

A I don't remember specifically the details or what we actually discussed other than my impression was she wasn't happy with us regarding the dress situation and wanted it resolved quickly and find something for her to use

Q Okay One last question about the e-mail we just saw, and you don't need to put it back up there The subject line had in all capital letters "CONFIDENTIAL." Did Ms McDonnell in your conversation with her around this time, do you recall whether she said to you why this was confidential in her view?

A I don't recall

Q Do you recall around the time of this e-mail exchange when this issue of the inaugural dress is still brewing, do you recall participating in any discussions with your colleagues about possible alternatives to Mr Williams buying Ms McDonnell a dress for the inauguration?

A Yes

Q Tell us about those

A Phil Cox and I again talked about this situation, tried to figure out whether this is something maybe the PAC, which is the political action committee, the campaign committee that was there, then you also have a new entity that's the transition committee that raises money and pays for the costs of the inauguration, whether either one of those two entities could actually purchase a dress or obtain a dress for the First Lady to use

Q And was there any option discussed concerning a charity?

A Yes We talked about what legally could be done, whether she could keep the dress or not Under the law, there is --

Q Let me interrupt you I really don't want to ask you to opine on the law Okay? For present purposes, let me just ask you, were you involved in communicating any of these alternatives to Ms McDonnell?

A Correct I did an analysis of what alternatives were available, and one alternative was that the inauguration committee could purchase a dress, let her use it, and then it would be donated to charity afterwards

Q I see In that option, for example, would she have been able to keep the dress?

A No.

Q Did you say that you related these possibilities to Ms McDonnell; do you have a recollection of doing that?

A I don't have a specific recollection whether I related it directly to her, Phil, or Crystal or somebody on our team when we were all working on this issue

Q Okay Do you have a recollection of Ms McDonnell's reaction to these alternatives where she would not be able to keep the dress?

A My impression from that whole scenario was just that she was not happy about the Oscar de la Renta dress and was, you know, wanting something But I don't remember any specific conversation with her about that afterwards

Q Okay Let's take a look at the next exhibit, which is in evidence as Government's 56 Blow up the text, please Thank you. Let's start at the bottom, Mr Eige This one is dated December 27th of 2009 First question in that e-mail at the bottom from Mr McDonnell: Who is Lee?

A Lee is Lee Goodman He was an attorney at the time that did election law work, so we had him as outside counsel so if we had any further questions about election law matters, we would ask him.

Q Do you recall whether after this e-mail exchange the call that Mr. McDonnell was requesting actually occurred?

A Yes, it did.

Q Do you remember any of the details of that conversation?

A Just again going through the scenarios that I had researched in determining what were permissible scenarios and essentially confirming that we had already kind of come to the conclusion of

Q Okay Take the exhibit down, please Do you recall ever, yourself, discussing with Mr McDonnell the fact that Ms McDonnell was upset or angry?

A No, I never discussed that with the Governor.

Q Okay. Next subject: We are fast forwarding to February of 2011 My question is, do you recall learning anything around that time about the Governor attending an event at the Jefferson Hotel for a product called CigRx?

A Not prior to the event, no.

Q Not prior to?

A Not prior to that event, no

Q Okay Do you recall any discussions among the staff in the aftermath of that event concerning a request from the CigRx manufacturer, Star, to post something on a Twitter account?

A Yes

Q Could we take a look at -- actually, before we do that, let's just take that down. What is your view -- withdrawn I apologize Tell us about those discussions that you recall concerning the Twitter issue

A I believe the Governor's scheduler asked whether it was okay or permissible for the Governor's picture at that event which had, I believe, a CigRx logo behind him at this event when he was talking, whether it was okay if they posted that on Facebook or Twitter or some type of social media outlet

Q Speaking for yourself, would that raise any concerns for you?

A Not in that context, no, not in a vacuum with those things, absolutely not. The Governor goes to a lot of events and goes to a lot of companies and ribbon cuttings and tours factories and things of that nature, and we never have had a problem with them posting that after the fact

Q Let's take a look at Government's 89 now, please This is in evidence This is an e-mail exchange Actually, just blow up that one at the bottom, please Now, you are not a party to this e-mail, Mr Eige But there is a line on here that Ms Block writes where she says, "As you probably know, the Governor as Governor does not official endorse products " Did you see that sentence there?

A Yes

Q Do you share that view, sir?

A Yes

Q Okay Could you explain what you mean by that, what you understand that view to be, and if you could, distinguish the concerns you had versus the Governor's generalized mission to promote Virginia business?

A There is no bright-line rule in Virginia on promoting companies, promoting products, frankly, or industries The Governor's duties, as everybody well knows, is in part to promote Virginia jobs, develop economic opportunities in Virginia, and promote those industries that are in Virginia So, again, it is part of one of the Governor's primary duties is to go around the state, around the country, and frankly, around the world, and promote Virginia industries, companies, and products as a whole Obviously, for our own purposes in our Administration, we didn't think it was appropriate to necessarily promote or sell a product as a, you know, as a spokesperson for a particular product People have used the -- described picking winners and losers, and I think that's probably a good way of describing it But again, there is no bright-line rule It is kind of one of those things where we feel like the optics of it is okay to promote these industries, go to a company, promote this company as a Virginia company But, you know, it is kind of a sliding scale at some point, you know We obviously don't want somebody taking the Governor's likeness and putting it on a product and selling it on a store shelf That's too far the other way

Q Of course If I understand you correctly, and do correct me if I am wrong, please, that to the extent that you or your colleagues had any concerns about the other side of this line, you know, becoming too close to advertising a specific product, you are talking about optics and political concerns, not legal ones

A Right There is nothing in Virginia law that I can point to that says you can't do this as Governor

Q Understood Now, at the time, and by that, I mean in April of 2011, were you aware that during a shopping trip to New York City, Mr Jonnie Williams purchased some $19,000 in designer clothes for Ms. McDonnell?

A Not until after this matter became public last year

Q So you were not aware at the time?

A At the time, no.

Q Were you aware at the time of a private dinner on April 29th of 2011 between the McDonnells and the Williamses?

A No

Q Were you aware at the time in May of 2011 that Mr Williams cut a check for $50,000 to Ms McDonnell as a loan to the McDonnells?

A No

Q Do you recall when you learned about that for the first time?

A After this matter became public last year

Q Moving to late August of 2011 now, specifically, August 30th, do you recall becoming aware around that time, sometime before then in the summer of 2011, that Star was planning an event at the Mansion?

A Yes

Q How did you find out about it, if you recall?

A My recollection is it came from the Mansion. I believe from Mary-Shea Sutherland, who was the First Lady's Chief of Staff She informed us that there was going to be an event at the Mansion It was actually originally proposed to our office as two events, one which is a luncheon where grant money from Star Scientific was going to be given to two of the state research universities, and then another event where there would be some type of a public launch of the Anatabloc product on the Mansion grounds or somewhere outside of the Mansion after the lunch, I believe, is the way it was described to us So basically two events

Q When you learned about that, did you have any concerns?

A Yes

Q What were they?

A Particularly myself and Martin Kent, Chief of Staff, we were concerned about this public launch event Not the grant luncheon where, again, private sector is giving two universities grant money for research, but this public launch of a product at the Mansion. We didn't think that was an appropriate use of state property or the Mansion, particularly, and having the Governor's Office involved in that in any way, whether it was just the fact it was at the Mansion or not

Q And so what did you do after you learned this information?

A Again, talked to the Chief of Staff and I discussed this, I knew that Jerry Kilgore represented Star Scientific or did some work for them in some capacity

Q Let me interrupt you and just ask you to tell us who Jerry Kilgore is

A Jerry Kilgore is a partner at McGuireWoods, former Attorney General I actually worked in his Administration prior to when the Governor was Attorney General He ran for Governor in 2005

Q So you knew Mr Jerry Kilgore prior to learning about this event at the Mansion?

A Correct

Q All right So did you have any contact with him following this?

A I did. We decided that let's go ahead and call Jerry and see if he can help us change the expectations from Star Scientific

Q If you have already said this, forgive me Were you aware at the time that Mr Kilgore was a consultant for Star?

A I was

Q Okay So go ahead.

A So we thought the best course of action is this seems to be coming from Star Scientific, so let's just see if we can't stop it at the source Martin and I were in my office, and actually, I remember picking up my cell phone, I had Jerry's number programmed in my phone, and called Jerry We explained the situation to him, said, "We don't have a problem with the luncheon necessarily with the grants going to the universities, but it is not appropriate to have this public launch at the Mansion as well "

Q Did you make any requests to Mr Kilgore during this conversation?

A Yes We asked Mr Kilgore if he could change those expectations from Star and explain to them that doing a public launch at the Mansion was not appropriate

Q Okay Do you recall the exact date of that phone conversation with Mr Kilgore, sir?

A I don't It was sometime in August, fairly close in time to when the luncheon occurred, which I believe was August 30th, 2011

Q Do you recall in late August of 2011 an issue surfacing concerning a press release related to the event at the Mansion?

A Yes

Q What was the issue generally to your recollection?

A We received an e-mail from Mary-Shea Sutherland, again, Chief of Staff to the First Lady, asking, I think Tucker Martin, the Communications Director, to take a look at a press release that had been drafted and sent over from Star Scientific regarding the luncheon that was going to occur the next day, August 30th

Q Time out Let me ask you this before we go any further: So we are clear, the press release we are talking about here, is that one that Star put together or was that one that -- and was going to release, or was this a press release that Star was seeking the Governor's Office to release?

A This was a press release, to my knowledge, that Star not only drafted but was going to release

Q On its own?

A On its own

Q Then they were running it by the Mansion?

A Yes

Q Let's take a look at Government's 224, please This is not yet in evidence Take a look at this, sir, and let me ask you: Is this one of the e-mail trains that you were just describing concerning this press release issue?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 224

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Let's start at Page 2, please That first e-mail from Sarah Machir You are not on this e-mail yet, we will get to your part in the chain Before we move on, let me ask you, do you know who the cc there is, David Dean? Do you know him?

A No

Q And then let's just roll through this until it gets in your in-box The next e-mail is Ms Sutherland responding to Ms Machir Then if we could go to Page 1, Ms Machir indicates that there has been some revisions to the draft Scrolling up, please, Ms Sutherland e-mailing Tucker Martin. Did you say he is the communications person?

A Correct Communications Director

Q And then finally, now you are in the loop at six p.m. on the 29th. This is the night before the event?

A Correct

Q It says, from Mr. Martin, copying you: "Jasen and Martin and Matt should go through this thoroughly. Are we sure we can do something like this?"

Move up to the top, the last e-mail on the chain. It is an e-mail from Mr Kent to Ms Sutherland. My question for you about this is, that last question where it says, "Is the Governor aware of his inclusion in this release?"

Did you know the answer to that question at the time, whether he was aware?

A I didn't know

Q And next question is, Mr Kent says: "We need to discuss first " Do you recall in fact discussing this issue with Mr Kent and your colleagues?

A Yes

Q Tell us what you remember about that conversation briefly

A Regarding the press release itself, after looking at it, it had multiple references to the Governor and the First Lady "We are here at the Mansion to learn more about Star Scientific and Anatabloc and the research." It probably mentioned the Governor and First Lady two, three, maybe more, at least two or three times in the e-mail regarding their interest in Star and thanking them for their interest in Star Scientific and this product

Q What was your view of the appropriateness of that?

A That started looking like it was going into that area on that spectrum or on that scale of promoting this product Again, there is no fine line, but it started seeming too close for comfort, that they weren't just hosting an event for some state universities to receive grant research funding, but were somehow being brought in to look like they are, you know, more interested or promoting this specific product

Q Okay Do you recall whether during the process of dealing with this press release issue, it got edited and changed?

A Yes, it did

Q Let's take a look at what's been marked for identification as Government's 235, please Is this an e-mail exchange between you and Ms Sutherland on this press release issue?

A It is

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 235

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Let's start with the e-mail at the bottom here, which is the first e-mail in the chain. This one is dated August 30th of 2011 at 11:32 in the morning Do you happen to recall at what time the event actually started on the 30th?

A I don't I know it was a lunch event, so assuming noon, but I can't say for sure that it was actually noon

Q Okay And she, meaning Ms Mello, apparently, do you know who she is?

A No.

Q She says, "Please find attached the the Anatabloc press release for today, August 30th. Please feel free to contact me directly with any questions " Ms Sutherland forwards it to you almost two hours later That's at 1:30 on the 30th Do you have a recollection one way or the other of whether that was before, during, or after the event?

A I believe that was after the event

Q Ms Sutherland makes reference in her e-mail to "This is what I showed you on m phone " Do you have a recollection of her showing you something on her phone?

A I do remember Mary-Shea showing me the revised draft on her phone I think I ran into her outside of the Mansion or, excuse me, walking over back to the office

Q If we could take a look at Page 2 of this exhibit, which is the attachment Just blow up the text there for the witness, please Are you able to read that okay or is that too small for you?

A Maybe a little bit more My eyes aren't as good as they used to be

Q Maybe blow up the first half My only question for you, we will scroll down for this for you, I believe you testified this was the revised version?

A This appears to be, yes

Q Okay. And what we can see on the screen here is are the Governor or the First Lady mentioned anywhere?

A No, if maybe you could scroll down Because it is the next paragraph It mentions the Governor's Mansion.

Q So the Mansion is mentioned, but is either the Governor or the First Lady mentioned?

A No, not in this version.

Q Were you satisfied that your concerns had been taken care of with this version of the release?

A Yes And I told Mary-Shea that

Q Okay In general, based on your dealings with Ms Sutherland during the course of this press release issue, what did it appear to you that she was trying to do?

A It appeared that she was trying to get this event kind of off the ground or going to make sure it happened in a timely fashion. I mean, this press release obviously came in the day before, so it seemed like she was trying to just facilitate this event going forward

Q With respect to the press release in particular, did Ms Sutherland resist any of the changes that you suggested?

A No. Not to my recollection.

Q Indeed, if we can go back to Government's 224, Page 2, just for a moment, this is in evidence, blow up that top portion here It appears that she herself resisted Star's initial press release saying there was no way it can go as written.

A Appears so in that e-mail.

Q Thank you You can take that down. During this back and forth that we have been talking about concerning the press release, did you discuss any of the issues surrounding the press release with Mr McDonnell?

A No

Q Did you yourself attend the August 30th event at the Mansion?

A Yes

Q Tell us how that came about

A Well, after, you know -- two issues One was the two different events, the one that we shut down regarding the public launch of the product, and then this kind of last-minute press release that had the Governor and First Lady's name throughout the press release, particularly that one paragraph, you know, we had some concerns about how this lunch may proceed. Martin Kent, again, Chief of Staff, and myself had a discussion about this We weren't originally scheduled to be at the lunch, but we decided that maybe one of us should attend just to make sure it stayed within the bounds of what the event was explained to us, which was, again, giving grant money to these two universities So we discussed who was going to go I told Martin, "Look, let me go, you are busy, I'll be glad to go sit in on it " That's how I ended up at the luncheon

MR. HARBACH: May I please have one moment, Judge?

THE COURT: Go ahead.

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q So tell us your memory of what happened at the event When you walked in, first of all, what room were you walking into?

A It was the main dining room, so it is kind of in the back of the first floor, which is kind of the public area That's where the public can come in and do their tours, that's where receptions are typically held, at least where the food is served. Then obviously when the Governor has dinners or meals served for various reasons like this luncheon, that's where that's taking place It is kind of a large oval room.

Q Dining room?

A It is a dining room. There is a large dining room table That's about it

Q About how many people were there, sir?

A Easily over 20 The table seemed full The table can kind of contract and take leaves out and so forth, but it was a large group There was at least -- it seemed like at least 20 people. But I didn't do a head count

Q Were all the attendees sitting around the same table?

A They were, yes

Q Tell us what you recall about what happened after everyone came in and got seated

A At some point the Governor came in I think everybody was already seated. The Governor sits, always sits at the southern end of the dining room table and the First Lady always sits at the northern end of the table

Q Was the First Lady there?

A She was there Yes

Q Go ahead.

A The Governor came in, kind of made his usual greetings He really loves showing the Mansion to the citizens He loves explaining the history behind the Mansion, particularly for those who have never had the opportunity to go through the house So like he usually does, he gives an explanation of kind of the house and maybe some of the restoration aspects that have gone on both during this Administration and in prior Administrations There is usually some unique artwork, painting on the wall, and he usually makes a comment about that So I believe he did it at that time.

Q When you say, you have used the word "usually" a couple of times in describing the Governor's remarks Had you attended other events, other luncheons, where the Governor had made similar remarks during your time at the Mansion?

A Virtually every event we held.

Q So lots of events?

A Lots of events, yes

Q What about the First Lady? Do you recall whether she made any remarks at the beginning of the luncheon on August 30th?

A My recollection, she did do some type of greeting as well She usually follows up after the Governor and usually has a few remarks, just again welcoming them to the Mansion, and usually maybe something related to the topic or subject matter of the event

Q Let me ask you just in light of how you have answered those questions: As you sit here today, do you have a specific recollection of on this occasion in particular the Governor talking about the history of the Mansion and the First Lady doing a little bit of that, or are you making assumptions based on the number of these events you have attended? And only you can tell us, sir

A I remember them having those conversations Specifically what things they said, no, I don't have that recollection anymore. But I do remember them discussing those things at that particular lunch.

Q Do you recall whether Mr Williams was present at this event?

A He was

Q Did he speak to the group?

A He did

Q What do you recall about that?

A I recall him obviously talking about the product and talking about the research behind Anatabloc He particularly spent a lot of time talking about his own wife's health conditions and exploring options for her and how this product has been helping her He talked some about the research that went into where they were at that point with the product and what they had already done I think he, my recollection was, I think, he introduced some of the researchers that were around the table There was somebody from Johns Hopkins that was there that I remember striking me --

Q Do you recall whether during any of the remarks you have discussed to this point there was any mention or discussion of the Tobacco Commission at the event?

A I don't recall any discussion regarding the Tobacco Commission

Q Were there any presentations or remarks by any of the doctors or scientists who were in attendance?

A There was some discussions from those researchers or doctors that were there.

Q And do you recall at the time what your reaction was to what you saw and learned about Anatabloc?

A Frankly, I was a little surprised. I really didn't think there was much to Anatabloc or that it was really a viable product or that it did what it was being claimed to do. But I was taken aback by the type of doctors and researchers and institutions that were represented at that luncheon

Q Do you recall whether there was any of the actual product at the event, Anatabloc?

A I don't recall

Q Did you receive any of the product on the day of the luncheon?

A I did receive some from the First Lady, actually I don't recall whether it was handed out by, you know, the group or not But she gave me some on the way out

Q Okay Do you have any recollection of how this event was paid for?

A I don't

Q Do you recall any discussions with any of your colleagues about who should pay for it?

A No

Q Okay Next subject: For this one, I need to show the witness, please, for identification Government's 245 Do you recognize this to be an e-mail exchange among you and some of your colleagues concerning a dinner and the possibility of the Governor attending it?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 245

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Let's start at the bottom, please This is an e-mail from Katherine Harris to Mary-Shea Sutherland in September of 2011 Who is Katherine Harris?

A Governor's scheduler at the time

Q Did she follow --

A Monica Block

Q Ms Block?

A Yes

Q And if we could see what the question she is asking there is Let's go to the response e-mail from Ms Sutherland. Read what Ms Sutherland says to Ms Harris

A "It is Jonnie Williams Anatabloc dinner to tell docs about the product He wants both Gov and FL to attend Jasen and Martin should discuss "

Q And that indeed, if we scroll up to see Mr Kent's reaction to this, he says, "Yes, we should discuss " That's my question for you. Do you recall having any discussions with either Mary-Shea Sutherland, Mr Kent, or any of your other colleagues about this dinner?

A I don't have any recollection regarding discussing that

Q As you sit here today -- withdrawn. Did you know at the time whether Mr or Ms McDonnell actually attended the event?

A No

Q Did you attend the event?

A I did not

Q The next exhibit is for identification Government's 252, please Now, this e-mail is dated October 19th of 2011, which is the day after the event that was described in the prior e-mail Do you recall that?

A Yes This e-mail, yes

Q Okay Are you involved in this e-mail exchange, sir?

A I am.

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 252.

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Let's start at the bottom. Mr Tucker Martin says to you: "First Lady would like you and I to talk to Jonnie Williams today about what she is doing with them. I think that will be good. Any time available?"

At the time, what did you understand the First Lady to be doing with Jonnie Williams?

A I wasn't really sure at that time

Q Okay Let's go to the next e-mail, well, the whole series of e-mails is just you all trying to work out a time to meet; is that right?

A Correct

Q Do you recall whether you in fact had an in-person conversation with Mr Martin about this?

A I think I may have talked to him about the purpose, like I have in this e-mail, about the purpose of the call with Jonnie Williams, but I have no memory of us actually making that phone call I don't recall ever being on the phone with Jonnie Williams

Q Okay Could we keep that exhibit up for a second? I want to make sure you understand my question. If you will blow that up. I'm not asking you about whether you had any conversations with Jonnie Williams. My question to you is whether you recall discussing this issue with Mr Martin

A Like I said, I think we may have discussed it briefly, but my recollection is neither one of us knew what it was about, and I don't remember us ever going to one of our offices and talking to Jonnie So I'm still not sure I can speculate, but I have no idea what this e-mail exactly is referring to.

Q All right I don't want you to do that You can take the witness down -- you can take the exhibit down

A You can take me down, too

Q Paying attention. That's good Do you recall when you first noticed Mr McDonnell wearing a Rolex watch?

A Yes It was right after we got back from the Christmas holidays

Q Do you recall what year?

A I guess, I think it was actually 2013, but it was the 2012 Christmas But I don't think we were back in the office until probably January after Christmas

Q Okay Tell us what you recall happening on that occasion

A I remember Tucker Martin, Communications Director, and I were in the office that morning meeting with the Governor I don't remember what the reason for the meeting was, but we were sitting around in the chairs He has a couch and a couple chairs We were sitting around talking about something And I noticed he had a new watch on At the moment, I didn't realize it was a Rolex And then I think Tucker, if I'm not mistaken, was the first person to actually say something about it

Q What did he say?

A He asked the Governor, "Is that a Rolex?" And something to that effect

Q What did the Governor say?

A He said, "Yeah, it is," you know "The First Lady gave it to me for Christmas " And I believe Tucker and I both were thinking this, I think Tucker probably was the one that said it, "Well, you probably don't need to be wearing this " And then the Governor said to him something to the effect, "Well, I don't even think it is real " I then spoke up and said, "That's not any better Really, we shouldn't be wearing that regardless " And that was pretty much the end of the conversation.

Q Okay Now, do you recall this investigation becoming public in early 2013?

A The investigation, no. The first I heard of this, I guess, was through media accounts Probably March, I think

Q Of 2013?

A Of 2013, yes

Q I'm only offering that to you as a guidepost to see about your recollection of the year in which you had this visit with Mr McDonnell about the Rolex that you described. Is it your recollection that this exchange that you and Mr Martin had was only a couple of months before the investigation hit the papers, or was it the prior year? Or do you recall?

A I guess it could have been the prior year

Q All I can do is ask for your best memory, sir

A I'm not sure, maybe -- that's a good question I guess my recollection is, it is either one of the last two Christmases that we had. It would have either been the 2011 Christmas and then 2012 when we returned in January, or --

Q Or the next one

A Or Christmas 2012 and then we came back January 13th

Q All right Speaking of newspapers, do you recall around the time that you and Mr Martin had this exchange with Mr McDonnell seeing any photos in the Richmond Times Dispatch of Mr McDonnell wearing that watch?

A I do recall seeing that in their press clips

Q Okay Could we take a look for identification only, please, at Government's 281 Let's try that one Do you recognize this photo, sir?

A Yes, it looks similar to the one that I saw in the Richmond Times

MR. HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 281

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Okay Do you recall noticing at the time that there was a photo of the Governor in the paper wearing a Rolex?

A Yes, I think I did

Q Do you recall where in relation to the meeting you had with the Governor time-wise it was that you saw this photo in the paper?

A I want to say we actually met with the Governor the first morning we were back in the office, and I think he had a press interview that afternoon, sometime later that same day So the clip would have been the following day or sometime shortly thereafter Sometimes they will do an interview and then run something like on a weekend special, a longer piece So I can't tell you whether it was the next day or a couple of days, but a very short period of time

Q Other than seeing this photo in the newspaper, do you recall ever seeing Mr McDonnell wearing the Rolex again after the conversation you and Mr Martin had with him?

A Just that one day

Q Meaning the paper?

A Yes I mean, literally the day we saw and talked to him that morning, he had it on that day and I don't recall ever seeing him come back to the office on another day with the watch.

Q Okay Incidentally, when you were there talking to him about it, did he take it off and show it to you?

A No.

Q He did not?

A No

Q At the time of this conversation that you just described, based on the information that you had, did you think that the McDonnells could afford a Rolex?

A No, I didn't really think that was something they probably could afford

Q Did you investigate any further where the watch came from at the time?

A I didn't

Q Why not?

A Because the Governor followed it up by saying, he said, "Well, I think it is not real anyway It is a fake " So that seemed to ring true to me, so I figured there was no reason to investigate further

Q Okay You can take the exhibit down, please Okay, new subject: Were part of your duties in working for Governor McDonnell and his administration to assist him in preparing a form that you have referenced already called the Statement of Economic Interests?

A Yes

Q During the course of your career, have you had experience with the form and have you become familiar with it generally?

A Yes

Q Generally, tell us, what is an SOEI and what is its purpose?

A SOEI, Statement of Economic Interests, is a form that certain public officials complete every year They are due January 15th for the prior calendar year So it is a document that you list certain items, basically your financial records such as owning securities, having loans, debts, gifts that people have given you, any interest in businesses, things of that nature that you set forth in this document The purpose of this document is essentially so the public can have a good understanding of what the financial interests are of the public officials, whether elected offici[illegible] whether appointed, whether employees under certai[illegible]rcumstances, to give them just a view of what, where their finances stand, where their interests stand, and for the public to make their own judgment as to whether there could be or may be any type of influences on that particular public official

Q I take it from your answer that the information once filed is publicly available?

A It is Yup

Q And is the Governor among the officials who files these things?

A Yes

Q You said annually?

A Annually, every January 15th

Q If we could take a look for identification, please, at Government Exhibit 5

MR HARBACH: Mr Starnes, just so the witness can identify it, can you leaf through a few pages for him to take a look at this, please?

(Document displayed as requested.)

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Mr Eige, do you recognize this to be a blank Statement of Economic Interests form?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 5

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Okay Now, a little bit, Mr Eige, a little bit later we are going to talk about the Governor's specific SOEI's But I have a question for you about this blank one first Prior to coming to court today, have you had an opportunity to review the instructions for this form that appear on Government Exhibit 5 and compare them to the instructions that appeared on the Governor's filed Statement of Economic Interests form for 2011 that he filed in 2012? Have you done that comparison of the instructions?

A Yes

Q And based on your review, are they the same or how do they differ?

A They are essentially the same The only difference is, between 2011 and this one is actually labeled 2012, so it is a newer form, and the only difference is there used to be a Notary requirement You used to have to sign with a Notary stamping it So in the 2011 form, there is actually one line in these instructions that indicate you have to have it notarized In this form, the Notary is no longer required. It is now filed electronically And so that one line requiring the notarization is no longer on the form.

Q Any other differences that you discerned between the instructions?

A I didn't discern any others

Q Okay If we could, Page 1 of Government's 5 is up now If we could just blow up the table of contents briefly and let the jury take a look at that Then let's zoom back out and go to Page 2 Is this part of the instructions, sir?

A Yes

Q And then Page 3, more instructions

A More instructions

Q All right, now we are on to Page 4 Could you tell us generally about the structure of the form?

A The form starts off asking a series of questions, again, regarding any securities you own, any debts you own, any gifts, things of that nature It is a check, yes or no. If you check "Yes" under those series of questions, then you move on to what they call schedules The schedules basically just ask for more information. So if you say you have certain types of debts or liabilities, you put that If you have certain gifts and you checked yes, then you go to that particular corresponding schedule and then fill in the information.

Q Okay I'd like to focus on three schedules in particular, please The first one is Schedule B that appears at Page 7 of the exhibit If we could go there, Mr Starnes Just blow up the top portion. Schedule B is for what, Mr Eige?

A It says liabilities Those are debts, basically Loans Things of that nature

Q What kind of liabilities?

A Again, bank loans, certain things like that

Q What I am going for is it says "Personal Liabilities," doesn't it?

A Schedule B says "Personal Liabilities," yes

Q According to the instructions there, what's the monetary threshold that triggers the reporting obligation?

A More than $10,000

Q So next is Page 8 This is Schedule C This one concerns securities; is that right?

A Correct

Q And according to the form, if you look on the left there where it says, "Securities includes " Do you see that?

A Yes

Q What does it say that securities includes for purposes of this form?

A It includes stocks, bonds, mutual funds, limited partnerships, and commodity futures contracts

Q And then there is a small paragraph right below that double line that begins "Identify each business " Could you read that first sentence for us, please?

A "Identify each business or Virginia governmental entity in which you or a member of your immediate family, directly or indirectly, separately or together, own securities valued in excess of $10,000 "

Q Now, is the term "immediate family" defined in the instructions?

A It is

Q Could we go back to Page 2 of the exhibit, please, and blow up that for us Could you read to us the definition of immediate family according to the form, please?

A "Immediate family means (i), a spouse, and (ii), any other person residing in the same household as the officer or employee, who is a dependent of the officer or employee or of whom the officer or employee is a dependent "

Q Okay Thank you. If you could zoom out and let's go back to Page 8, please, what we were just looking at a minute ago. Blow up those instructions again for us Next question: The sentence you just read, for this particular schedule, is the relevant question whether the filer or member of the filer's family owns securities as of the time of filing?

A Yes

Q In other words, the question is not whether they have owned at any time during the year securities; is that right?

A It is a snapshot at the time you file the form.

Q Okay Next one I'd like to look at is Page 10, please This is Schedule E This one is called "Gifts " According to the instructions, sir, the filer is supposed to report single gifts in excess of what value?

A $50

Q And the filer is supposed to report any combination of gifts from a single source where the value exceeds how much?

A $100

Q Is there an exception on the form for gifts from relatives or personal friends?

A Yes

Q And in particular, there is a sentence three lines up from the bottom, look to the right, it begins "Do not list gifts " Do you see that there?

A Yes

Q Read that to us, please

A "Do not list gifts or other things of value given by a relative or personal friend for reasons clearly unrelated to your public position "

Q Okay You can take the exhibit down, please Do you recall during the course of your job ever being called upon to make a determination about whether Ms McDonnell was required to file an SOEI?

A Yes Either the end of -- kind of the tail end of the transition or maybe the beginning of the actual Administration after inauguration, I think the question first was posed to me

Q Excuse me. And what determination did you make about that?

A I determined that she was not required to file the Statement of Economic Interests

Q And despite that, did you institute any efforts to try and keep track of gifts that she received?

A Yes I had discussions early on with Mary-Shea Sutherland, again, the First Lady's Chief of Staff, to keep track of any gifts that they felt were really more gifts, although they may have been given to the First Lady, were really gifts to the Governor so we can track that, look at them, and determine whether they needed to be on his Statement of Economic Interests

Q Let's take a look at Government's 284, please, for identification. Mr Eige, do you recognize this to be an e-mail exchange on this issue of whether the First Lady needed to file and so forth?

A Yes This was another follow-up question, same issue, in January, 2012, just confirming that she was not required to file a Statement of Economic Interests

284

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Just briefly, let's look at the e-mail that you see at the bottom there that you wrote. Read what you wrote there to Ms Harris and Mr. Conrad

A Yes I said: "No, she does not need to complete one But if there are any gifts that were directly given to her but were really gifts to the Governor, we need the info for those by Monday Thanks "

Q Is the reason you needed them what you just explained a moment ago?

A Yes, to determine whether they needed to go on his form for the January 15th filing deadline

Q Who is Matt Conrad?

A Matt Conrad, at that time, was Deputy Chief of Staff and one of my deputy counsels

Q Take down 284, please Let's go back to Mr McDonnell now Could you tell us generally speaking in your experience what the process was for putting together information and drafting the Governor's annual SOEI?

A Yes. The information regarding gifts, regarding flights, travel expenses, those were also things that needed to be posted on the Statement of Economic Interests depending upon the context, were gathered primarily by the scheduler and the Governor's traveling assistant because oftentimes he would go to an event or a trade mission, they would hand him some type of item, for instance So those individuals were primarily responsible for making a log of all these type of gifts, travel expenses, et cetera Then that information was given to the Governor's confidential assistant, his executive assistant, his secretary

Q What's her name?

A Pam Watts They would give her that information, and I think, I wasn't involved in this at the Attorney General's Office, but I think she has been helping the Governor for years doing this, but she would take that information and put it into the Statement of Economic Interests and start that first draft of what we would ultimately file

Q What role did you have in the process?

A So typically when she finished that, she would hand it off to me, let me review it I would look it over, see if there was anything that needed to be changed, see if it seemed to be in order Usually at that point in time there's still a lot of blanks, like what was the value of this gift or what was the value of this travel and things of that nature So I would try to see if we had that information yet But sometimes getting that information from the donors usually took, you know, sometimes up until the day before they were due So we'd just kind of go through it, make sure it looked good and presentable for the Governor's first pass at it Then I would give my edits back to Pam Watts and she would make those edits and I would look at it again and determine is this in enough of a form to meet with the Governor

Q Tell us about that next step when you meet with him.

A The next step after we get it into that initial draft phase is usually we would have a meeting with Pam and myself and the Governor would sit down and go through it And he would make corrections or ask questions about it, and we would go through that, make some handwritten notes, he would make some handwritten notes, and we would just kind of do our first pass of this statement Then we would go back, Pam would make those changes, and sometimes we did that a couple of times There was instances where we made those changes and then Pam would give the Governor the draft and he would make more handwritten notes and give it back to us, and we just kind of continued the cycle of making those edits and also gathering the additional information we needed to complete the form.

Q And when that process is complete, what happens?

A When that process is complete and the Governor feels satisfied with his Statement of Economic Interests, he obviously signs it And through 2011, you signed it and had it notarized and then you filed it with the Secretary of the Commonwealth's office That's who keeps those forms and that's where the public and media and press can go to get the form if they want to review it after it is filed.

Q In your experience during the Governor's Administration working with him on these forms, how closely would you say Mr McDonnell reviewed and edited his SOEIs?

A He made extensive edits He was meticulous with it like he is with speeches, with press releases I think that's one of his qualities, frankly But he did spend a lot of time looking at the forms himself and making his own edits just like I did and Pam and so forth

Q Ultimately, you mentioned at least three people who were involved in this process: you, Ms Watts, and the Governor himself

A Yes That last part of the process Yes

Q Sure Whose call was it ultimately whether a particular item should be included or edited or deleted; who had the last word on that?

A The Governor in that case Everybody has the responsibility, I guess, for their own form ultimately

Q Let's take a look at what's been marked for identification as Government's 277, please. Before you came to Court today, have you had an opportunity to review a couple of drafts of the Governor's SOEI for calendar year 2011?

A Yes

Q Does this appear to be one of those, sir?

A It does.

MR HARBACH: The government offers Government's 277

THE COURT: It will be be admitted.

BY MR HARBACH:

Q The first page I'd like to go to is Page 4, please And in this particular draft, what box is marked? Scroll down a little bit, please, Mr Starnes, for Question 3 there, the one that says "Securities " What box appears to be checked here?

A "No "

Q Then could we look at Page 8 This is Schedule C for securities Is there anything on -- well, zoom out again for a minute, Mr Starnes, please Is there anything filled in on this chart here, sir?

A It doesn't appear to be other than it says, "No reportable securities, check here." And there is an X there There doesn't seem to be anything else on the form.

Q Let's take a look at Page 9 now, please This is Schedule E for gifts And Mr Starnes, if you could just blow up, say, a third of the chart there and we will just scroll down Again, for the record, we are looking at Page 9 of Government's 277 If you could scroll down a little bit further, please Mr Eige, do you recognize the handwriting that appears on the screen now?

A This looks like the Governor's handwriting

Q You have familiarity with the Governor's handwriting from working with him?

A Yes

Q Okay Let's take a look at Page 10 of this exhibit, please Now, this e-mail is interspersed in this draft that we are looking at; is that right?

MR. ASBILL: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Overruled.

BY MR HARBACH:

Q This e-mail that we are looking at on the screen is interspersed among the exhibit that we are discussing, correct?

A It appears to be

Q Okay And the first question is, do you recognize the handwriting on the top right here?

A Yes That's Martin Kent, the Governor's Chief of Staff

Q Could you blow that up for us, Mr Starnes? Thank you. Can you read what that says, Mr Eige?

A It says, "August 16th, 2011 Governor: FYI As you can see, I have asked for written guidance on this and other issues Thanks MLK."

Q Mr Kent's initials?

A Yes

Q Scroll down a little bit. There is a P S What does that say?

A "P S Issued by Mary Sue Terry as AG "

Q Let's zoom out and take a look at the bottom e-mail there just from the line down. Thank you. This is from someone named Jeff Palmore Do you know who that is?

A He was my deputy counsel and deputy policy director

Q It is addressed on August 15th of 2011 to Mr Kent And then at the top, the first paragraph there refers to a 1988 OAG opinion. Who is OAG?

A Office of Attorney General

Q And then it goes on to talk about the opinion giving some guidance on the definition of personal friend; is that right?

A Correct

Q Okay And then the opinion appears to be quoted.

MR. ASBILL: I object to that. There is a legal opinion contained in this document

MR. HARBACH: It is part of the exhibit, Judge, as it was produced to us

THE COURT: Well, come up here a second.

(At Bench.)

THE COURT: Where are you going with this?

MR. HARBACH: All we intend to do, Your Honor, is inquire whether any guidance that Mr Eige gave Mr McDonnell was consistent with this paragraph. That's it As this document is --

THE COURT: The objection is sustained You all spent a whole day trying to keep this kind of stuff out of here

MR DRY: It goes to the effect on the listener, Your Honor

THE COURT: You can ask him what advice he gave, not whether it is consistent with this legal opinion

MR HARBACH: Understood, Your Honor I understand.

(In Open Court)

BY MR HARBACH:

Q We can take the exhibit down. Mr Eige, during your time working for Mr McDonnell, was this issue of the scope of the definition of personal friend something that came up from time to time?

A Yes I think we first discussed it during the transition when preparing his, the Governor's first Statement of Economic Interests so he could take office I remember doing some research on that matter and we had some discussions about it, and we probably talked about it just about every time, I think, we filled out the statement

Q Okay Do you recall generally what guidance you gave the Governor on what that meant?

A Yes Unfortunately, which is true of a lot of aspects of the Statement of Economic Interests, there's not a lot of guidance on it Personal friend, there is really no legal definition for personal friend in the context of the Statement of Economic Interests So it was one of those things where if we think we could defend somebody if we were ever questioned of why a personal friend was, you know, listed on there or not listed, so factors of did you know the person prior to becoming Governor, what was the context of the gift in relation to the filer in this case, the Governor's, position And just kind of the context On gifts, had gifts like this been given prior to him being Governor So there's a lot of those things But again, no real bright-line determination as to what a personal friend is

Q The factors that you just enumerated, did you pass those along to the Governor in your discussions with him?

A We discussed those, yes

Q If we could go back to Page 9 of Government's 277 for a minute Let's blow up that paragraph at the top, the instructions paragraph. Again, the instructions on the form themselves say, "Do not list gifts or other things of value given by a relative or personal friend for reasons clearly unrelated to your public position." Did I read that right?

A Yes

Q I think those are all my questions on the initial draft If we could pull up the next exhibit, which is Government's 288 for identification, please Mr Eige, do you recognize this to be another draft of the SOEI for calendar year 2011 for Governor McDonnell?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: The government offers Government's 288

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q The handwriting that appears on the first page here belongs to whom, sir?

A It belongs to me except for the "Draft 2011 " So that's right below the circle I'm not sure who wrote that But the date circled is mine and then the note to Pam Watts is my handwriting.

Q Could you read your note to Ms Watts?

A Yes "Please make these edits before 9 a.m. meeting Thanks P S Please keep this copy for me after edits are made JE "

Q Okay And the next page in this exhibit that I would like to focus on, please, is Page 9 This is Schedule D. All I'm asking you to do on this one is identify the handwriting on this page, sir

A That's my handwriting

Q These are your edits?

A Yes

Q Okay And then Page 10

A That's mine again

Q Same question

A My handwriting

Q All right Now, at the time that you edited this particular draft, which apparently was in mid-January of 2012; is that right? The date on the first page, that was 1-16 Do you recall that?

A Correct

Q As of that date, were you aware that in May of 2011, Mr Williams had provided the McDonnells with a $15,000 check to cover their daughter's wedding?

A No

Q Mr McDonnell never told you that during your meetings with him about this form?

A No

Q Were you aware at the time that you edited this draft that Mr McDonnell had golfed on Mr Williams' tab at a private golf course twice in 2011 to the tune of some $3,000?

A No

Q Mr. McDonnell never told you that during your meetings with him about this draft?

A No

Q Let's take a look at Page 13 of that same exhibit, please This is a continuation of Schedule E; is that right?

A Yes Gifts

Q Just like you said Gifts Can you identify the handwriting on this page, sir? Can you blow up the top part for him, Mr Starnes?

A It is a combination of my handwriting and the Governor's

Q Which is which?

A The "Complimentary" in several sections or several places is the Governor's The "To" circle with a question mark are my edits

Q If we could scroll down to the bottom of this one, please Just as an example There are a couple of entries near the bottom where there is a $50 figure that's X'd out on the right

A Yes

Q What's that all about?

A Those are edits because it is in excess of $50, so if a gift is $50 or less they are not required to be on the form.

Q Okay Last page on this exhibit is Page 22, please Can you identify the handwriting that appears on this page, sir?

A Yes

Q Whose is it?

A This is the Governor's

Q All right. Can you read this for us?

A Can any of the flights or hotels go on Opp Va for political trips or there personal or official " That was Number 1 This is Number 2: "How do these gift numbers compare with Warner/Kaine."

Q What's Opportunity Virginia?

A That was the Governor's political PAC.

Q Do you recall with respect to Number 2 there, pardon me, do you recall Mr McDonnell being concerned with the gift numbers for other governors during your time working with him?

A He did ask us to make that comparison

Q Did he say why he asked you to do that?

A We didn't really talk about why

Q Finally, could we take a look at Government's 289 for identification, please? Mr Eige, do you recognize this document, and Mr Starnes, can you show him Page 2? Do you recognize this to be the final filed version of Governor McDonnell's 2011 SOEI?

A Yes.

MR HARBACH: The government offers Government's 289

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q First question: On this, back on the first page, Question 3, "Securities " We saw earlier in the first draft that the "No" box was checked What happened on the final filed version?

A It is a "Yes "

Q For securities?

A Sorry, it is a "No "

Q Still a "No "

A Yes

THE COURT: We are going to take a break All right, jurors, if you would follow the Marshal

We will make it 15 minutes

(Recess taken from 3:07 p.m. to 3:19 p.m.)

THE COURT: All right Let's bring them in

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, could we have one moment? I think the restroom was closed here

MR ASBILL: Our client is in the restroom It was closed

THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry

MR ASBILL: That's all right

THE COURT: Sure Sure Hold them up,

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you, Your Honor

(The jury entered the courtroom)

THE COURT: All right Go ahead

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Mr Eige, before we leave the final filed SOEI, I have one more question for you about it This is Government's 289, Page 8, please This is Schedule E gifts, and I'm asking Mr Starnes to blow up the bottom third or so of that chart

I notice on there there's an entry for "Jonnie R Williams " Do you see that there?

A Yes

Q And it indicates lodging and entertainment in the amount of $2,268 Do you recall what this item was?

A Yes That was vacation that the Governor and his family took at Jonnie Williams' lake house

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, can we please publish this for the jury?

THE COURT: Sure

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Okay And so it's that third line up from the bottom?

A Correct

Q Okay And this appeared on the schedule, despite the personal friend exception; is that right?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Okay You can take that exhibit down, Mr Starnes

I apologize Page 11 of 289, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q At the top this one says "Amended Schedule E " During your preparation for testifying here, have you been able to discern what was amended on this schedule, sir?

A Yes It's about quarter to a third of the way down It's the "ITT Defense & Info Solutions, McLean, Virginia, Monocular Night Vision Goggles "

Q So there's the note down at the bottom?

A Correct The stars indicated a footnote at the bottom The night vision goggles were donated to the State police for law enforcement purposes That wasn't on the original statement

Q Any other amendments that you were able to discern?

A No

Q Okay Next subject Do you recall whether you were involved in preparing the next year's SOEI, the one for calendar year 2012?

A I was not That was finalized and filed, obviously, January 2013 That was our last legislative session for the Governor's term, and obviously, I, again, oversaw the policy office and we had a lot of big-ticket items that -- that session So I asked my deputy counsel, Matt Conrad, to assist with that -- that SOEI

Q Do you recall a conversation at any time with Ms McDonnell about the possibility of her serving on the corporate board of Star Scientific?

A Yes She -- she did bring that up to me at one time

Q Do you recall when that was?

A I believe it was 2012

Q What do you recall about that conversation?

A I -- I -- my recollection is we were at the Mansion I don't remember what event or why we were there, for what purpose But she had pulled me aside and started asking me some questions about whether she could serve on the board, things of that nature

Q Did you have any questions for her during that conversation?

A Yes First and foremost, I wanted to know whether she was talking about serving on the actual corporate board or was this some type of foundation charitable board that many companies have as well

Q Did she know the answer to that?

A She didn't seem to -- to know the answer to -- to that question or whether she would be compensated, things of those -- of that nature that I asked her, which was -- which was my primary focus when she asked me about serving on the board.

Q Did she make any suggestions to you about how you might find out the answers to those questions?

A I think after, you know, several questions of not being real sure whether it was corporate board, foundation board, whether it was paid, unpaid, those kind of things, she said I should talk to Jonnie Williams about it

Q Did you, in fact, speak to Mr Williams after that?

A I did

Q In person or over the phone?

A Over the phone

Q Do you remember the circumstances?

A Yeah I remember being over at the Capitol I'm not sure why this sticks in my mind, but in the downstairs floor of the Capitol, there's kind of these white-and-black tile floors And I was outside in one the caucus meeting rooms, doing my job, working the Governor's legislation and those things, and I got the call from him I decided I probably wasn't going to initiate a call with Jonnie Williams, but he ended up calling me

Q Okay Do you recall how soon after your conversation with Ms McDonnell it was that you received the call from Mr. Williams?

A I think it was in close proximity, but how close, how many days apart, I'm -- I couldn't tell you at this point in time

Q Okay Tell us what you remember about the conversation

A I just remember asking him, again, kind of the same questions I asked the First Lady, whether this was a corporate board, foundation board, whether she was being paid, unpaid Obviously, I had significant concerns if this was the corporate board paid

Q Why? What were your concerns?

A Well, first and foremost, there was a previous governor, his -- his wife served on at least one corporate board, and it -- it created some bad publicity for the Governor, things of that nature

So that was, again, kind of the PR optics of the whole issue There's nothing that -- you know, it doesn't say in the law that you can't do that, but those were some of my concerns, and particularly, you know, Star Scientific at that point

Q So on the optics concern spectrum, would it have been better, in your judgment, optically, if it was the actual corporate board or a foundation?

A It would have been better foundation An unpaid foundation would have been preferable

Q Unpaid as opposed to paid?

A Correct

Q Do you recall -- well, did you express any of these concerns to Mr Williams?

A I did briefly It was a brief conversation, but I did Like I said, I was busy doing legislative work at the time

Q Do you recall Mr Williams' reaction when you did so?

A Any recollection is he seemed to understand I don't remember him pushing back or arguing with me or anything of that nature

Q Okay Thank you I'd like to show you the next exhibit, which is marked for identification, which I believe it's in It's Government's 312

MR HARBACH: And could we just blow up maybe the top half of this, please The jury has seen this document before

BY MR HARBACH:

Q This is an e-mail exchange from Jonnie Williams, Jr to Ms McDonnell, which she, in turn, forwards to Bob McDonnell and you --

A Yes

Q -- is that right?

A Correct

Q Do you recall -- and she says in the e-mail, "Here's the info from Jonnie He has calls in to VCU and UVA and no one will return his calls "

Do you recall whether you discussed this issue here; namely, VCU and UVA, not being responsive to Mr Williams with Ms McDonnell prior to receiving this e-mail?

A Yes

Q Okay Do you recall any of the details of that conversation?

A I remember her calling me about this and indicating that Jonnie Williams is having trouble getting any type of response back from UVA or VCU They were the recipients of the grants that we had at the Mansion luncheon, and if -- if there was something we can do to get some type of response back from -- from these two universities

Q Okay And let's note, before we proceed, the date and time of this e-mail is February 9th at 3:13 in the afternoon; is that right?

A Correct 2012, yes

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: And now let's take a look at what I believe -- I believe this is for identification only, Government's 314 If you could blow up maybe the top half, the first two e-mails there Actually, keep going There you go Thank you, sir.

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Now, Mr Eige, you recognize this to be a continuation of the e-mail exchange we were just looking at a moment ago?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 314

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Now, at the very bottom of the screen is the e-mail that I just read to you that Ms McDonnell sent you on the 9th, and then later that evening you replied to her And why don't you read to us what you say?

A "Thanks Sorry for the delayed response It has been a very busy" -- "it has been very busy with session Let's talk next week when you return Jasen "

Q Okay And then the following day, Ms McDonnell replies to you and asks you to call Jonnie?

A Correct

Q And she also points out that the Governor wants to know why nothing has developed with studies after Jonnie gave $200,000 What did you understand that monetary amount to be a reference to?

A The grants given to those two universities

Q On August 30th?

A At the luncheon, yes, at the Mansion

Q Okay And then it says, "I'm just trying to talk with Jonnie Gov wants to get this going with VCU/MCV Please let us know what you find out after we return."

A Correct

Q When you received these e-mails from Ms McDonnell, what did you think she wanted you to do?

A Somehow reach out and see if there -- if we couldn't elicit some type of response from these two universities

Q Did you do that?

A No

Q What did you think about that idea?

A I didn't think that was an appropriate activity for the Governor's Office, for the Governor to be involved with for the staff This was really a matter between the donor -- in this case, Star Scientific -- and the donees, which were the two research universities It really wasn't our role, our place, to get in the middle of that discussion Frankly, we -- you know, we -- we really can't tell the universities what to do anyway in a matter like this and it just wasn't an appropriate thing for us to be involved with That was a matter for, like I said, the companies and the universities to deal with

Q What you just said, did you express that to Ms McDonnell?

A I'm not sure at the time I expressed that I think I took in the information originally Honestly, at that time -- again, this was during session I was busy doing what I thought was my actual job, which was working our legislative agenda I, frankly, wasn't sure, at the time, whether this was something that, you know, Jonnie Williams and the First Lady were talking about, whether the Governor was actually involved with this, if this was something he was actually interested in and, frankly, was just kind of hoping it would go away

Q Did you do anything after receiving this e-mail? Did you call anybody or talk to anyone?

A Yes

Q Tell us about that

A Similar strategy we employed in dealing with the second event that was planned by Star Scientific at the Mansion I called Jerry Kilgore up Thought if I can just ask him to go to the source of this, which was Jonnie Williams and Star Scientific, and change the expectations again of his client, then -- then he wouldn't be asking the First Lady to ping me on this issue So I thought that was the most appropriate way to kind of shut this request down, from our perspective

Q Did you, in fact, make that request to Mr Kilgore?

A I did. I called --

Q What did he -- how did he react?

A He seemed to completely understand He agreed with my assessment; that this is something we can't help out and that he would talk to Jonnie and explain that this isn't something the Governor's Office can do

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: You can take that exhibit down, please Let's take a look at, for identification, please, Government's Exhibit 320

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Do you recognize this to be an e-mail exchange between you and Governor McDonnell about this Anatabloc, slash, VCU issue?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 320

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Publishing 320 to the jury, Mr Eige, is this the first exchange you recall between yourself and the Governor himself about this issue of studies at either of these universities?

A Yes

Q Okay And what's the date and time that Mr McDonnell e-mails you?

A February 17th, 2012, 12:02 a m

Q And what does he say to you, sir?

A "Please see me about Anatabloc issues at VCU and UVA Thanks "

Q And you reply how, four minutes later?

A "Will do We need to be careful with this issue "

Q Okay First question is a moment ago you said you weren't even sure whether the Governor himself was interested in this issue when you got the e-mails from Maureen McDonnell Now, this is the governor himself e-mailing you about this Did that change your view at all about whether it was appropriate for the Governor's Office to be involved in this?

A No I mean, frankly, I thought the First Lady was now pushing on the Governor a little bit to send this, you know, reach out to me on this

Q Okay Did she ever tell you that that happened?

A No

Q Did Mr McDonnell ever tell you that she was pushing him to send this?

A No

Q Why, in your view, did "we need to be careful with this issue"?

A Well, as I mentioned before, this was just not something the Governor's Office should be involved with. This wasn't an appropriate use of our time or resources It wasn't something that we really had, frankly, the authority to do, and it just was not a matter that -- that we should be involved with as far as trying to broker some type of an understanding or compliance with the universities who had received this grant money and a company That was a matter between them and not something that I felt like was an appropriate use of our time or our -- our authority

Q Did you meet with Mr McDonnell following this e-mail exchange?

A I was planning to I have every reason to believe I popped in the next morning and kind of explained that it was taken care of, we didn't need to bother with this

But today, sitting here, I can't say that I remember specifically having a particular conversation or meeting

Q What were you planning on telling him?

A Just that, again, this was something that really needed to be worked out between the company and the universities, that we didn't need to get involved with it

I believe by that point in time, I had called Jerry Kilgore, and I think had -- had changed -- you know, hoped that that would change the expectations, and so that request of us would have been withdrawn by Star

Q Did you -- do you recall whether -- one way or the other, whether you shared with Mr McDonnell that you called Mr Kilgore?

A I don't recall at this point

Q Do you recall anything about Mr McDonnell's reaction during this conversation that you think took place?

A I don't The only -- you know, I have a recollection that he never followed back up with me or never pushed back or never directed me to actually go forward and try to make something happen with the universities

Q Okay Let me ask you the same question with respect to Ms McDonnell Do you recall any follow-up or additional requests or pushback from her?

A I don't have any recollection of her doing that either

Q The last exhibit I will identify with you is Government's 319, please I neglected to ask you about this

Is this you forwarding the Governor's e-mail to your

Chief of Staff, Mr Kent?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers exhibit Government's 319

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR HARBACH: Publish it briefly for the jury

BY MR HARBACH:

Q You're just saying for his information?

A Yes I think I had informed him of the First Lady's request that I assist in this matter, and so I think he knew already So I just wanted him to know that it was still percolating

Q And now that the Governor himself is asking about it?

A Yeah

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: You can take that down, Mr Starnes

BY MR HARBACH:

Q While you were working for Mr McDonnell, did you know that he owned two vacation homes at Virginia Beach?

A Yes

Q Did you know that he created a company to administer those homes with his sister?

A Yes

Q Do you remember what it was called?

A MoBo

Q Did you know at the time, in the spring of 2012, that Mr Williams, Jonnie Williams, and Mr McDonnell had had conversations about Mr Williams conveying stock to Mr McDonnell for the McDonnells to borrow against? Did you know anything about that?

A Not at the time, no

Q Were you aware, in 2012, that Mr Williams ended up conveying approximately $70,000 in loan proceeds to MoBo?

A No, not at the time

Q What about the fact that either Ms McDonnell or Mr McDonnell owned any Star stock during the time you worked for Mr McDonnell? Did you know that at the time?

A Not at the time, no

MR HARBACH: May I please have a moment, Judge?

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor I have no further questions

THE COURT: Cross

MR BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor May I proceed, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Go ahead

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BURCK:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Eige

A Good afternoon.

Q My name is Bill Burck, and I respect Maureen McDonnell

Have you and I ever met before?

A Not that I -- no

Q Have we ever spoken on the phone before?

A No

Q Okay Now, you testified that your job was to provide legal and political advice to the governor; is that right?

A And policy advice

Q Policy advice?

A Yes

Q Legal, political, and policy advice?

A Yes

Q Okay Was there a lawyer dedicated to Ms McDonnell as the First Lady to give her advice while you were there?

A No

Q Okay And that's because she doesn't work for the Commonwealth?

A Correct

Q She's not a public official, right?

A Correct

Q But she would occasionally ask you for advice about a variety of things, right?

A She or her staff, yeah

Q Okay And you testified about the difference between legal problems and sort of political problems or image problems?

A Yeah Optics PR-type problems, yeah

Q Right And you advised on both types of problems, right?

A Right. I mean, everybody in our office was a little bit of everything, I guess

Q Right That's how it works in a political environment --

A Yes

Q -- for an elected official, right?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, just turning to December '09 You testified about this inaugural dress?

A Yes

Q And you explained that your concern with Jonnie Williams potentially purchasing the dress was a political or public relations standpoint principally, right?

A That's what initiated the discussion about the inaugural dress from Jonnie Williams, yes

Q You were not concerned that there was a legal issue that Jonnie Williams could not buy Maureen McDonnell a dress, right?

A Correct There's nothing in Virginia law that said he couldn't do it Just the question was whether it had to be reported or not if he did

Q Right And that's because it's an -- the reporting issue, as you testified, was because it's a -- it was inauguration and so that was for the Governor?

A Correct

Q And so there's potentially an issue there?

A Correct Correct We took a conservative view of that law

Q Right

A Somebody could make a good-faith argument that, well, it was really a dress to her You don't have to do it

So -- but we took the vantage of let's be more cautious than anything and let's -- you know, it's really -- it wasn't as if she was just given clothing separate and apart from the Governor's inauguration So because of the inauguration and the aspect that it's actually the Governor's, that's why we felt that more information would be better, and that would include that dress, if it was given to her

Q Okay So it's fair so that had Mr Williams bought the dress for the inauguration, you would have advised the Governor to put it on the SOEI?

A Correct

Q Okay And you testified that -- that Maureen McDonnell, your conclusion was, over those -- the course of your analysis, that the First Lady of Virginia does not have a requirement to file an SOEI?

A Correct Both I couldn't find anything in the law that said she was required to, and then we also went back and -- so often the case in these situations is just loc at precedent, what have other administrations, and we couldn't find any indication, at least in the most recent administrations, that the First Lady ever filed an SOEI

Q Okay And that would be consistent with your view at the time that she was not a public official?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, you testified that the -- the inaugural dress, because it was the inauguration of the Governor, that was something different than a dress that was given to her for a different purpose, a non-government -- Governor-related purpose, right?

A Possibly, yes

Q Okay Now, the SOEI, you testified that the Governor would have to put gifts to him or gifts that were meant for him on the SOEI, right?

A Right, unless they were excluded, like the family or a friendship exclusion

Q Okay And if gifts were given to Ms McDonnell, those would not have to be put on the SOEI, from your perspective?

A Typically, yes I mean, the reason I caveat it is there may be some fact pattern that would say, well, it really is something for the Governor; again, like the inaugural type situation But generally, just run-of-the-mill here's some clothes, no, it wouldn't be reportable on the Governor's SOEI

Q Okay So a wedding and a -- and a -- a marriage anniversary, those would be considered personal events or would they be considered like the inauguration?

A Probably more personal, I would say

Q Okay And do you know if the Governor enjoyed wearing women's clothing?

A I have no knowledge of that

Q Okay So would it be fair to say that if women's clothing was purchased for the First Lady, from your perspective, that would be for the First Lady, for Maureen McDonnell, not for the Governor?

MR HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: You can answer that

A Generally speaking, yes Again, the inaugural -- it was a dress for the First Lady, but it was for the Governor's inauguration But generally, clothes given to the First Lady, dresses in that nature, would be hers, not his

BY MR BURCK:

Q Okay So from your perspective, was there any -- would have there have been any legal restriction on the First Lady receiving clothing from a friend?

A No, not at all

Q Now, we were talking about the New York shopping trip You've probably heard a little bit about that, and you were actually asked about that by Mr Harbach that you did not know about it at the time, right?

A At the time, correct

Q Mary-Shea Sutherland, you knew she was Chief of Staff to Maureen McDonnell, right?

A Yes

Q And as the Chief of Staff -- although it's the Chief of Staff to the First Lady, she's actually employed by the Office of the Governor, correct?

A Correct

Q And she is a State official?

A She is, yes

Q Because she's paid by the State?

A Yes

Q Did you know that Maureen -- sorry -- that Mary-Shea Sutherland was with Ms McDonnell during the New York shopping trip with Jonnie Williams?

A No

Q Did Mary-Shea Sutherland tell you that she had observed Jonnie Williams purchase dresses and other clothing for Maureen McDonnell?

A I don't recall her saying that, no

Q Did Mary-Shea Sutherland ever tell you that Maureen McDonnell, actually, and Mary-Shea Sutherland had purchased stock in Star Scientific?

A I believe Mary-Shea, at one point, did tell me that

Q Did tell you which part?

A Told me that she had purchased stock She was --

Q "She" Mary-Shea had purchased stock?

A Yes She was singing the praises of Star Scientific one day while we were -- I think it was actually a scheduling meeting And before we sat down to actually -- we were waiting on, I don't know who, to show up, and I seem to recall her saying that she -- she spoke highly of the product, and I believe she said something about purchasing stock And, again, it was just kind of in passing

Q Right

A And, you know, it wasn't the focus of the meeting or anything like that She wasn't telling just me

Q Did she tell you that Maureen McDonnell had bought stock?

A I don't recall her saying that, no

Q Okay Now, you testified at the Mansion event that Mary-Shea Sutherland was the person you principally dealt with leading up to the event, right?

A Yes

Q And you testified that there was a press conference or a public launch that was supposed to be on the -- in the Mansion?

A There was a suggestion that there would be two events when we were first informed of what was going to happen on August 30th One was going to be that luncheon regarding the grant to the universities, and then there would be some other type of public launch

The way I recall it, it was -- you know, it sounded like they wanted to like do the lunch, come outside and maybe do it in front of the Mansion or something out -- you know, again, it was going to be a press conference So they'd have press there and so forth

Q But you said no -- you and Martin Kent said no way to the public launch or the press conference at the Mansion?

A Correct

Q So it was only lunch?

A Do what?

Q You were only allowing the lunch to go forward?

A The lunch, yes

Q Lunch, not launch?

A Yeah, launch I know That's why I was making sure I understood you -- or heard you

Q It can happen

And the press release itself, you testified that you went back and forth -- or maybe not back and forth But you looked at the press release You had some comments You gave them to Mary-Shea, and then there was a final press release that was provided --

A Correct

Q -- by Star Scientific?

A Correct

Q And that press release was okay, from your perspective?

A It was, because they removed the references to the Governor and the First Lady

Q Fair to say -- and you also attended the event, right?

A Yes

Q Fair to say that you would not have allowed a product launch -- launch, not lunch -- launch to occur at the Mansion under your watch?

A Correct That was the primary reason why I sat in on that lunch

Q So you don't think it was a product launch?

A No I did not -- we did not view it as such We felt like they were going to do that at a separate event sometime that day, presumably

Q Did Maureen McDonnell complain to you when the public launch, slash, press conference was canceled or you said no way to that?

A I don't remember having any conversations with her until we were just at the lunch itself It was just talking to Mary-Shea, I believe So --

Q But you don't recall Maureen McDonnell --

A No

Q -- never said, "Hey, I'm upset about that" --

A No

Q -- or, you know -- nothing like that?

A She never did, no

Q Okay And the press release Did you ever hear anything from Maureen McDonnell complaining about changes to the press release?

A No

Q Nothing at all?

A Nothing at all

Q In fact, you didn't discuss the press release with her at all?

A I don't recall ever having a conversation with her about the press release Just Mary-Shea Sutherland

Q Just Mary-Shea Okay Now, your concern with this Mansion event was really about whether or not the Governor would appear to be endorsing a product That's why you were taking the steps you were taking?

A Correct

Q Were you -- well, let me ask you this Were you aware of any law preventing Maureen McDonnell from promoting a product if she wanted to?

A No I was not aware of any -- any law that prevented that

Q So she could have put her face up on a billboard for some product? It might have been a PR nightmare, but a legal issue, would that have been a problem, from a legal perspective?

A I think in a vacuum, no Like you indicated, we would have concerns, a multitude of concerns, regarding that But I don't know of a provision in Virginia law that says she couldn't promote products

Q Okay Now, we talked a little about Mary-Shea Sutherland and her role in this event You did not know at the time that you were speaking to Mary-Shea Sutherland about the event that she was in discussions with Jonnie Williams about a job?

A Correct I didn't know about that

Q And you didn't know that she was -- she, in fact, shortly after the event, received a -- or sent a contract to Mr Williams via Mr Williams' secretary? You didn't know that either?

A Not at the time, no

Q And you didn't know that Mary-Shea Sutherland had been on this shopping trip with Maureen McDonnell and actually had a dress purchased for her?

A No, I didn't know at the time

Q And she didn't tell you, of course, about Maureen McDonnell's shopping trip either, right?

A I don't have any recollection of her ever discussing that with me

Q Now, the Rolex that you testified about -- well, that you found out about, you saw it on the Governor's wrist?

A Right

Q And then you learned subsequently its origins Now, the -- as I understand it from your testimony, again, the Governor would have to know that a gift was meant for him in order to put it on his SOEI, right?

A Yes

Q He couldn't -- if somebody didn't give him a -- for example, if somebody didn't give him a gift but he intended it for the Governor but never gave it to him, he wouldn't know about it, right?

A Presumably, yes

Q So it wouldn't go on the SOEI?

A Right

Q So if someone got a gift for him, then transferred it to him but didn't tell him that it was from -- from -- well, let me -- withdrawn That was a terrible question

If his wife gave him a watch and didn't tell him that it was from Jonnie Williams, would he -- in your view, would have to disclose that in the SOEI?

A Based on just those facts, I would say no

Q You testified about a discussion you had with Maureen McDonnell about being on the board of either a foundation or the company of Star Scientific?

A Yes

Q And you also testified about a conversation you had with Jonnie Williams after that?

A Yes

Q Now, it was Ms McDonnell who said, "Go talk to Jonnie Williams," right?

A Correct

Q And it was Ms McDonnell who came to you and said something to effect of, "I'm thinking about going on the board of Star Scientific What do you think"?

A Yes

Q And you said that she was confused about it I think that's what you told the FBI?

A She seemed to be confused about what type of board it was, whether there was compensation, exactly what the board was Again, whether it was a foundation, a corporate board and whether there would be any type of compensation associated with it

Q Okay And are you aware of any law that would have prevented her -- I think you testified you were not aware of anything that prevented her from going on the board legally?

A No

Q Okay And were you aware of any law that would have prevented her from being hired by Jonnie Williams as an employee of Star Scientific?

A Again, while we would have other concerns, I'm not sure of any -- any law that would prohibit that

Q Terrible optics, bad PR, but law?

A Yeah There could be exceptions with the Conflict of Interest Act if it looked like she was -- you know, there would definitely be some concerns --

Q Right

A -- if that company was doing business with the Commonwealth and things of that nature But generally speaking, in a vacuum with those fact patterns, no

Q Now, you mentioned conflicts of interest As a -- as the First Lady of Virginia, did -- did Maureen McDonnell have any power to instruct anyone to do anything in the State government?

MR. HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled

A I mean, she had staff that worked for her So instructing them on what to do, even though they were State employees and she wasn't a State official But as far as having some type of legal authority over agencies, over the budget or anything like that, no No, not at all

BY MR BURCK:

Q And you testified earlier that Mary-Shea Sutherland was actually an employee of the Office of the Governor, right?

A Sure

Q So fair to say that her job description, Mary-Shea Sutherland's job description, as handed down by the Office of the Governor, was to assist Maureen McDonnell, right?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, turning to the VCU/UVA --

MR BURCK: Please publish Government Exhibit 314

BY MR BURCK:

Q You testified about this e-mail exchange This is --

MR BURCK: Start scrolling from -- start from the bottom, please Stop right there Thank you

BY MR BURCK:

Q This is an e-mail from Jonnie Williams, Jr to Maureen McDonnell Attached is a bunch of information that I think you testified about?

A Right

MR BURCK: Scroll up please

BY MR BURCK:

Q And here this is a -- well, in between there's an e-mail from Maureen McDonnell saying, "Here's the info from Jonnie He has calls in to VCU and UVA and no one will return his calls "

A Correct

MR BURCK: Actually, if you show Government Exhibit 312, I think it will be easier Thank you Please go to the top Just blow that up

BY MR BURCK:

Q Now, that's -- as we talked, the e-mail, "Here's the info from Jonnie He has calls in to VCU and UVA and no one will return his calls " That's from Maureen McDonnell and Bob McDonnell and to you, right?

A Yes I'm cc'd

Q Now, Ms McDonnell knew you were the lawyer for the Office of the Governor, right?

A Yes

Q And you were cc'd on the very first e-mail that she sends to the Governor about this request from Jonnie Williams, Jr , right?

A Right

MR BURCK: Please show Government Exhibit 314 Publish, please

BY MR BURCK:

Q And in the bottom e-mail, you reply to her -- you don't cc the Governor Any idea why?

A I don't remember

Q Just hit reply?

A Probably just hit reply, frankly

Q Okay And then you have a response from Ms McDonnell, right, above that?

A Correct

Q And, again, she's discussing with the lawyer for the Office of the Governor this request from Jonnie Williams, Jr and Jonnie Williams, Sr , right?

A Yes

Q So is it fair to say that Maureen McDonnell went to you, the lawyer, and her husband, the Governor, when she was asked about what was happening with these clinical studies? Right?

A I can't tell you why she went to me, whether it was because of the lawyer or I was at the lunch It could have easily been the Chief of Staff Her and I were both talking about going there I went So I can't tell you whether I was because I was the lawyer or because I was already doing some of these other things, like being at the Mansion lunch

Q But she came to you?

A She did, yes

Q She didn't reach out to them herself, as far as you know?

A I have no knowledge either way of that

Q Is it fair to say that you would want the First Lady of Virginia to come to you whenever somebody is asking her to do something with respect to a -- an official act?

A It would be helpful, yes

Q That's what you would expect, being the lawyer for the Office of the Governor, right?

A I would hope she would, yes

Q Okay And you testified that you shut down this request from Jonnie Williams to check in or intercede with the universities, right?

A Yes

Q And I think you testified that you didn't get any pushback or complaint from Maureen McDonnell, right?

A Correct

Q You did testify that you saw an e-mail -- or in response to a question from the government, that there was an e-mail that the Governor sent to you, and you thought it might be Maureen McDonnell asking him to send that?

A Yes

Q But that was just based on your speculation?

A That was based on the phone call I had with her and the e-mails that she had sent prior to that, which I just looked at But I didn't know for sure

Q You didn't know for sure But you never actually heard from Maureen McDonnell saying, "Hey, following up on any of this"?

A My recollection is a phone call with her, then this e-mail that she sent to the Governor and cc'd me I don't recall having any other conversations with her about this matter

Q I think you told the prosecutors that she didn't bug you, bug you any longer about this Do you remember that?

A Correct

Q And just one last question -- or couple of questions

You learned subsequently -- or subsequent to the investigation becoming public that Maureen McDonnell had received a $5,000 loan from Jonnie Williams, right?

A Yes

Q But you didn't know about it at the time, right?

A I did not

Q And, again, Maureen McDonnell does not have to file an SOEI or anything like that, right?

A Correct

Q And does she -- does she have a requirement to review the Governor's SOEIs?

A There's no requirement for her to, no

Q Do you have any idea if she did review his SOEIs?

A To my knowledge, she didn't But I -- you know, there was sometimes the Governor took a draft home I don't know what happened at that point But I had no -- I have no knowledge of her ever reviewing his statements

Q And the $50,000 loan, based on the information you've learned, that was reported by the Governor on his SOEI as one of his liabilities, right?

A Of immediate family member's liability

Q Okay

MR BURCK: Your Honor, one moment

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor That's it

THE COURT: All right

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Eige

A How you doing?

Q Eight years you worked with my client?

A Yes, sir

Q To your knowledge, did my client ever scream at anyone?

A No

Q Was that how he governed or dealt with people?

MR HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled

A He was always very cordial with everybody that he worked with He treated everybody with respect regardless of who they were, what position they were taking on maybe his piece of legislation or a decision he made

BY MR ASBILL:

Q You were there until the very end in January of 2014?

A I was the last staffer to leave the office at the end of the administration

Q Was that nine months after the press started reporting about this investigation?

A I think so Yes, sir

Q On the last day, was there a cabinet meeting, a final cabinet meeting?

A We did have a final cabinet meeting

Q What happened there?

A It was an emotional time We met at the Capitol, in the Governor's office on the third floor, which we typically did not meet there It really wasn't big enough to hold a cabinet meeting But we started the administration meeting there at the -- at the historical, you know, cabinet room, and so we thought it would be a good fitting in I think it may have been even been Martin's idea or the Governor's idea to kind of end it the same way we started

So very emotional People went around the room and kind of told their stories and their appreciation for being able to have the opportunity to work for the Governor and the accomplishments that the administration, the Governor had achieved during that time period

Q And what was your personal emotional state at that meeting?

A I was --

MR HARBACH: Objection Relevance

A I was --

THE COURT: Sustained We've had enough of that

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Would you work for my client again?

MR HARBACH: Objection Same objection

THE COURT: Sustained

Do you have anything else?

MR ASBILL: No, sir

THE COURT: Okay

You can answer that question I don't think anybody would be surprised at his answer

BY THE COURT:

Q Would you work for the Governor again?

A I would

THE COURT: All right

MR ASBILL: Thank you I have no further questions

THE COURT: Redirect?

MR HARBACH: Yes, please, Your Honor

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Hello again, Mr Eige

A Hi

Q You mentioned on cross-examination by Mr Burck that Ms McDonnell had a staff?

A Yes

Q About how many people were on her staff?

A She had -- I guess if you count the Mansion Director, I think three I'm hoping I don't leave somebody out, and they'll be mad at me for not -- but I think approximately three people

Q Were they paid?

A Yes, they were paid And, again, that's not -- there was other staff that worked the Mansion There was a Mansion Director, a Chief of Staff, and then somebody that was more or less like a Deputy Chief of Staff type administrative type person

Q And did the three, or so, staff members you just mentioned, did they report to Ms McDonnell?

A They did

Q You mentioned, in one of your answers to Mr Burck, when you were talking about the inaugural dress issue, I believe you said that you took the conservative and cautious approach with regard to whether it would have to be disclosed on the Governor's SOEI

Do you recall that answer?

A Correct

Q And did you make clear to Mr McDonnell that you all were going to take the conservative, cautious approach?

A Yes We talked about what we felt the law required and what was the best approach under our interpretation

Q Turning to the launch -- excuse me, the Mansion event

A It wasn't a launch

Q I'm not going to get into a launch/lunch debate Okay The August 30th event at the Mansion?

A Yes

Q Do you recall whether Mr McDonnell appeared surprised when he walked in the room and Jonnie Williams and other Star personnel were in there?

A I don't -- I don't recall him being surprised

Q Okay You were asked some questions about Mary-Shea Sutherland and whether you were aware about her possibly looking for a job with Mr Williams Do you remember those questions?

A Correct Yes

Q Were you aware at the time that you were working for the Governor, when Ms Sutherland was also there, that she was unhappy at her job? Did you know anything about that one way or the other?

A I think at some point I knew that there were some issues with the staff at the Mansion I never had a specific or direct conversation with Mary-Shea about her own experience But I had the impression that there were issues at the Mansion as far as staff and kind of morale issues

Q But no specific recollection of any conversations with Ms Sutherland herself about her own job satisfaction?

A Yeah I don't recall having a discussion directly with her about that

Q Mr Burck asked you, in particular, about some phrasing concerning Ms McDonnell's e-mails to you in

February of 2012 on this issue of the universities not being responsive to Mr Williams, and in particular, he asked you whether you ever stated that she didn't bug you anymore

Do you recall that phrasing?

A Yes

Q And I believe you testified on direct examination, when you were talking about that subject, that you hoped that the issue would just go away?

A Correct

Q Do you recall that testimony?

A Correct

Q Why did you feel that way?

A Well, two things One, I was really busy, again, with the legislative session I guess I can't emphasize that enough During that time period, we're extremely busy in the Governor's Office And two, again, I didn't think it was something that was appropriate for us to be involved with And it was coming from the First Lady so I hoped that it would just kind of go away, we didn't have to deal with it It would be an issue that would just kind of resolve it itself and we would move forward

Q Focusing on that same time frame, you recall that following that, there was the e-mail exchange you had with the Governor --

A Yes

Q -- on this issue, and I believe you said that there was no follow-up from either of them after that?

A Correct

Q Do you recall whether around that time Mr McDonnell ever said to you, "Hey, Jasen, you know, we really can't be doing anything with Star over at UVA and VCU because I'm in discussion with Mr Williams about a $50,000 loan"?

Did he ever say anything like that to you?

MR BURCK: Objection

MR ASBILL: Objection He said there was no follow-up

THE COURT: Overruled

A No, didn't have a conversation like that

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Can we take a look at Government's 320, which I believe I asked you about during direct examination? And this is the e-mail exchange you had with Governor McDonnell, and we noted that the time was at 12:02 a m on February 17th?

A Yes

Q Is that right?

MR ASBILL: Outside the scope of cross-examination

MR BURCK: Same objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: For Mr Burck, it's a good objection The objection is sustained

MR HARBACH: All right

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Let's take a look at Government's 318, please This is in evidence I haven't shown it to you yet

Looking at the e-mail at the bottom from Mr McDonnell, sir, my question to you is were you aware, when you received Government's Exhibit 320, that six minutes before Mr McDonnell had sent this e-mail to Mr Williams, did you have any knowledge of that, sir?

MR BURCK: Same objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: No He can answer it

A Not at the time, no

MR HARBACH: Okay Can I have just a moment, Judge?

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor, for your patience

Can we please pull up Government's Exhibit 289, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q This is the -- just to refresh your memory, Mr Eige, this is the final filed SOEI for calendar year '11 Okay?

A Okay

Q Could we take a look at -- do you recall on --

MR ASBILL: I object This is outside the scope

MR HARBACH: I'm trying to get there, Judge

THE COURT: No, I don't think so. Go ahead

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Do you recall on cross-examination by Mr Burck, him asking you some questions about whether the -- there was a $50,000 loan disclosed on the SOEI?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Could we take a look at Page 4 of Government's 289, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q And down there under -- actually, in either case, the box on number 2, let's start there, where it says, "The personal debts of members of my immediate family are as follows:" "Individual creditors," is that box checked in the $10,001 to $50,000 column?

A Yes

Q And what's the entry there under "Individual Creditors"?

A "Medical Services "

Q Is there anything on this page that indicates that Mr Jonnie Williams loaned the McDonnells $50,000, sir?

MR BURCK: Objection, Your Honor The document doesn't ask for that

THE COURT: Overruled

A Nothing indicates it's from Jonnie Williams

BY MR HARBACH:

Q And were you aware of the $50,000 loan to the McDonnells when this SOEI was filed, sir?

A No

Q Do you recall yourself now whether -- what you interpreted "Medical Services" to mean there on Page 4?

A At the time, I just figured it was some type of, you know, healthcare bill Medical service bill from some type of doctor or hospital, something of that nature

Q All right And I'm not suggesting, necessarily, that you would, but I have to ask, were you aware, at the time, whether Mr or Ms McDonnell or any member of their family had any serious medical problems during calendar year '11?

A I wasn't aware of any that year, no

MR HARBACH: Okay Thank you

Nothing further, Your Honor Thank you

THE COURT: All right Thank you, sir You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: Call your next witness, please

MS ABER: Dr John Faessel

JOHN FAESSEL,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

A Yes

Q I think I referred to you as a doctor In another time in your life --

A Yes I was --

Q -- were you --

A I was a dentist

Q Now, how long have you been writing these financials articles of interest to you?

A Twenty-two years

Q Have you ever written about a company called Star Scientific?

A Yes.

Q I'd like to turn your attention back to June of 2011 Did you attend a Star Scientific event at the Roskamp Institute in Florida?

A Yes

Q Where, precisely, was it held?

A At the Roskamp Institute in Florida In Sarasota, Florida

Q Tell the jury generally what kind of event it was

A It was basically a scientific meeting It lasted about four hours 125 people, I would say Mostly --

Q What kinds of folks are in the audience?

A Medical related, science related, investor related, a few other individual investors that were interested in the -- what was going on there too as far as the science

A Star Scientific was

Q Okay Were there scientists speaking to the crowd?

A Yes

A Approximately four hours, as I recollect

Q Now, at some point during the meeting, did a gentleman named Jonnie Williams speak to the audience?

A Yes

Q Did he introduce Maureen McDonnell, the First Lady of Virginia?

A Yes, as I recollect

Q Okay Did Ms McDonnell make any comments to the audience?

A Yes

Q Okay In general terms, what did she tell the audience?

A Very briefly, she said that the Governor's Mansion would be offered to the Star Scientific to launch a new product, which was to be Anatabloc

Q How long did she speak?

A Couple of minutes It was very brief

Q And is it fair to say she sort of broke the ice?

A Yes Yeah Very much so

Q Now, after the meeting, did you write one of your financial articles about the event?

A Yes

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 154, please, for identification

BY MS ABER:

Q Dr Faessel, did you have an opportunity to look at this before coming to court today?

A Yes, I did

Q And is this an e-mail from you to some folks recapping your experiences at Roskamp?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd like to move Government Exhibit 154 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Okay Starting at the bottom there -- thank you, Ms Taylor -- you are John Faessel, right?

A Yes

Q And to whom are you sending this particular commentary?

A Well, it -- first of all, to a -- a list of names that I've accumulated over the years that have either followed my interest in the market or interest in particular companies or they follow on -- follow me from some -- they know that I'm writing about a particular company So --

Q Okay So is it --

A And then it goes to a couple of blogs too, which have their own audience

Q Okay So even though -- if I've got -- is it fair to say --

A Yeah

Q -- this e-mail is to three folks, Robert Scannell, Scott Peters, and then speters@tradewinds?

This actual article went to a much broader distribution?

A Yes, it did

Q And who are the kinds of folks who would get this more broadly?

A For the most part, investor types Mutual fund analysts, scientists, doctors, and investors of all stripes

Q How broad -- how wide is your distribution list, how many folks?

A About 4000 And on the blogs it can get a lot higher, depending on the particular company I might be writing about or issue

Q Okay So the subject of this e-mail, if you'll follow along with me, is "Dr Faessel - Report from the Roskamp meeting in Sarasota, Florida - 6/2/2011"; is that right?

A Right

Q And how soon after the Roskamp event did you write this e-mail?

A I wrote it, I think it was that night It was early morning I got up early and pretty much wrote it, and I think it went out the next day

Q Okay

MS ABER: Let's turn to Page 3 of the exhibit, please

BY MS ABER:

Q I'd like to direct your attention to the second full paragraph starting with, "Another communiqué " Could you please read that to the jury?

A "Another communiqué" -- "another communiqué that wowed the attendees Star Scientific CEO Jonnie Williams introduced the First Lady of Virginia, Virginia Governor Bob McDonnell's wife Maureen, and in a brief talk, she offered the Governor's Mansion for the launch of Anatabloc that Star is now packaging and readying to go to market, period Likely by the end of the month, I hear Williams called the coming event an historic occasion Star Scientific's home base is in Glen Allen, Virginia "

Q Thank you, sir Is that consistent with your recollection of what Ms McDonnell told the crowd?

A Yes

MS ABER: Okay If I could have one moment, please

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MS ABER: Thank you, Your Honor I have no further questions

THE COURT: All right Any questions?

MR HAUSS: Yes Thank you, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR HAUSS:

Q Good afternoon How are you today?

A Good

Q My name is Steve Hauss I'm a lawyer for Maureen McDonnell You and I have never met; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q So for this Roskamp meeting, you heard about it, and so you called someone at Star Scientific to see if you could reserve a space; is that right?

A I believe so

Q And when you called, you were informed that the event was a show-and-tell; is that right?

A Something like that I wouldn't -- I can't recollect, but certainly --

Q Well, do you --

A -- certainly I was told who was going to be there and as far as the scientific speakers, et cetera

Q Do you recall being told that the attendees would be invited to take a tour?

A Yes

Q And did you, in fact, take a tour?

A I did not take a tour I got there a little bit late, and the tour went on a bit earlier

Q Now, you testified that during the event, Ms McDonnell gave some brief remarks?

A Yes

Q And Ms McDonnell spoke about how excited she was about the product Anatabloc; is that right?

A Yes I think so

Q She expressed enthusiasm about the product?

A Yes

Q Okay And she said that she would do what she could to promote this Virginia company; is that right?

A I didn't say that But I -- she was exuberant about, you know, the science, I think, from what we had just heard

Q Is it fair to say that you shared the enthusiasm for the science?

A I was just getting into the science, and at this point I'm becoming more interested because that's why I'm there, really, to report on what I heard

Q Do you remember telling the prosecutors in this case that everyone was taken aback by the science at the meeting?

A I would say so, yes

Q Do you remember saying that it was an incredible meeting, how the science evolved?

A Yes I can't remember if I said that in that particular piece or not, but I probably said it subsequently.

Q And do you recall telling the prosecutors it was a very powerful meeting?

A Very, yes

Q Now, you said that you're a doctor You were a practicing dentist at some point?

A Yes, uh-huh

Q So you had, I assume, medical training?

A Yes

Q Now, there were other speakers at the Roskamp event other than Ms McDonnell, correct?

A Yes

Q And was one of those speakers Michael J Mullan, M D , Ph D ?

A Yes

Q Okay And he spoke about Alzheimer's research; is that right?

A That was the basic theme, yes I would say it would be -- it would be research pertaining to what could be Alzheimer's, yeah

Q And you found his speech very exciting; is that correct?

A Yes

MR HAUSS: And could we show -- bring up Government Exhibit 154?

MS ABER: Mr Taylor can bring it up

MR HAUSS: Great Thank you And if we go to the fourth paragraph If you could just blow that up A little bit more There Perfect

BY MR HAUSS:

Q And you actually wrote in your article, "First and foremost was the explanation from John Mullan, M D , Ph D That was worth the cost of the trip as far as I was concerned " Is that fair?

A Yes

Q Now, one of -- there were two other prominent scientists who spoke from Johns Hopkins University; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q And those were Dr Paul Ladenson and Dr Patrizio Caturegli?

A That's correct

Q And in your article, you described Dr Ladenson as widely known and acclaimed endocrinologist; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q And you described Dr Caturegli as an internationally known scientist Is that fair?

A That's true Yes

Q Now, is it fair to say that both Dr Ladenson and Dr Caturegli spoke very highly of the science of Anatabloc?

A Yes

Q And, in fact, Dr Ladenson referred to it as astonishing?

A Yes

Q Would it be fair to say that when you said that everyone was taken aback by the science of Anatabloc and that it was very powerful, you were referring to the presentations of these preeminent scientists?

A Yes

Q About their data, their anecdotes?

A And videos, et cetera

Q Great Now, do you recall Ms McDonnell saying something to the effect that she would drive around Virginia to contact every single doctor to tell them about Anatabloc?

A I don't -- I didn't -- I was asked that I can't recollect that I saw that written also afterwards, but I -- I -- I don't -- I can't remember that exactly

Q Do you remember something -- if not the exact words, something to that effect?

A Maybe to that effect Because she was -- she was, in a way, exuberant, almost comic relief after all this very detailed science, you know, chemist -- biochemistry, molecular biology, et cetera, and then finally there was a -- you know, the Governor's wife was --

Q Some levity Is that fair?

A Yeah, levity And I said she wowed the crowd, I think I wrote in there

Q And when you said "wowed the crowd," is that because of the, as you said, comic relief?

A Yes And the fact she was exuberant Just the fact that there was the Governor's wife in this meeting was sort of out of the -- came out of the -- I didn't realize it was -- out of the blue, so to speak

Q Now, after hearing about all this powerful, astonishing science, you yourself purchased shares in Star Scientific; is that right?

A Yes I purchased them before, and after -- after that, I purchased some more

Q And you were very excited about the stock?

A About the science especially

Q Okay And you actually described it as a stock for the ages?

A Yes Could be I -- with a question mark after it, I think

Q Okay

MR HAUSS: One moment, Your Honor

Nothing further Thank you

THE COURT: All right Anything over here?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BURNHAM:

Q Good afternoon, Doctor My name is James Burnham I'm here for Mr McDonnell Just two quick questions for you

Governor McDonnell wasn't at the Roskamp meeting, was he?

A No, he was not.

Q Okay And so you've never spoken with Governor McDonnell about Star's products, product launches or anything else?

A No

MR BURNHAM: All right Thank you, Doctor

THE COURT: All right Anything else?

MS ABER: Yes, Your Honor One question

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Dr Faessel, you said that everyone was taken aback at this meeting by the science How many people were in the audience at this meeting?

A I think 125, roughly

MS ABER: Okay

Thank you, Your Honor I have no further questions

THE COURT: All right Thank you, sir You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: Call your next witness

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor The government calls Pam Watts

PAMELIA WATTS,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government,
having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

MR HARBACH: May I, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Go ahead

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Good afternoon, Ms Watts

A Hi

Q Could you please state your name and spell your first and last name for the record?

A Pamelia Watts P-A-M-E-L-I-A, W-A-T-T-S

Q How are you currently employed, ma'am?

A I'm unemployed right now

Q Was there a time in your career when you worked for

Mr McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Tell us about your educational background

A I've a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Michigan So --

Q Okay When was it -- what year, approximately -- that you started working for Mr McDonnell?

A 1992, I believe

Q What was he doing at that time?

A He was an associate with Huff, Poole & Mahoney in Virginia Beach, Virginia

Q Did you continue to work with him throughout his political career?

A Yes

Q In what capacity have you served him, generally?

A His legal assistant at the law firm, executive assistant with the Attorney General's Office, and his confidential assistant at the Governor's Office

Q What does "confidential assistant" mean? What is that title?

A It's the title that's given to the assistant to the Governor of Virginia

Q I see And did you hold that job through the end of his term as Governor?

A Yes

Q How would you describe your professional relationship with Mr McDonnell, in terms of working for him?

A He was a great boss for the last 22 years I had a great relationship with him professionally

Q Did you consider him a friend?

A Yes

Q Based on your lengthy history working for Mr McDonnell, would you consider him a -- in the main, a detail-oriented guy?

A Yes

Q Focusing on the time when Mr McDonnell was Governor, in your capacity as the confidential assistant, you said? --

A Yes

Q Okay. -- could you tell us what your job duties were in that position?

A I did a little bit of everything for the Governor I handled his schedule for getting his secretaries downstairs if they needed to see him He had a scheduler, of course She did a lot of that work

But I did correspondence for him I greeted guests I helped out with the morale of the office, planning events for the office in the Patrick Henry Building

Q When you say you handled correspondence for him, is that incoming and outgoing?

A Yes

Q Let's talk about the incoming for a minute Did you have any kind of system in place to get documents to the Governor and process them?

A Yes, we did The Governor had a system of file folders, different colors

Q Tell us about that

A His red was for immediate, his hot folder Yellow was read Green was his draft, anything that needed -- he needed to see to get out And his signature file was his blue file

Q Okay And can you explain to us, apart from the obvious, the difference between the yellow read folder and the red hot folder? How would those be handled differently?

A They weren't handled really differently If there was something that needed his immediate assistance, it went into a red hot folder and it would be left for him to review

Now, if he didn't get to that for a couple of days, I would take that, hand deliver it into his office or he would come to my space, and we would go through that file folder together

Q And how is that different from the yellow one?

A That's mail, incoming mail for him Anything that a secretary wanted him to see I would put in that folder for him, anyone in the office

Q Okay And in your experience, generally speaking -- I know it may not be this way all the time -- but generally speaking, was the Governor pretty good about getting through the stuff in his folders?

A Yes

Q Okay Let's take a look at the first exhibit I want to show you, which is Government Exhibit 71 This is for identification only

MR HARBACH: Can we just blow up the top couple e-mails for Ms Watts?

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Can you see them okay, ma'am?

A Yes

Q Is this an e-mail exchange between you and Monica Block and someone named Bill Hazel?

A Yes

Q That you handled during your job?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 71

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR HARBACH: Focusing -- if we could scroll down a little bit and see how this all got started

BY MR HARBACH:

Q This is somebody forwarding a press release Do you see that there?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: And now scroll up

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Ms. Block asks you to print the attachment for the Governor's read folder And then you send an e-mail to Mr Hazel And incidentally, what's the date of your e-mail to Mr Hazel?

A October 12th, 2010

Q Okay And if Ms Block asked you to print the attachment for the Governor's read folder, is that something that you typically would have done?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, the e-mail to Mr Hazel, he was the Secretary of Health, right?

A Yes

Q It says, "Bill, the Governor would like you to review the attached I'm sending the original note up to you today "

My question for you is would you have written that first sentence about what the Governor would like if he hadn't, in fact, asked you to do so?

A No, I would not have

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Can we take a look just briefly at the attachment, which is Page 2 of this exhibit?

BY MR HARBACH:

Q This is an article about the Roskamp Institute; is that right?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Okay We can take that down

Next exhibit is Government's 70 -- Government's 72 for identification, please Let's blow up the top half of this one for the witness, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Ms Watts, is this another e-mail like the one we saw before involving printing something out for the Governor?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's Exhibit 72

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Looking at the e-mail in the middle from Ms Block to you, same instructions as the last one?

A Yes

Q Any reason to think you didn't do it?

A No

Q Okay And then the top e-mail is from you to Mr Hazel It says, "More on Roskamp Sending original up to you today "

A Yes

Q Now, was that common practice for you, to send originals along to cabinet members and the like?

Why would you have done that?

A If the Governor had something -- something handwritten on it, I would have sent the original up to the secretary

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Can we take a look briefly at the attachment to this e-mail, which is -- which starts at Page 3 It's an article about Star Scientific And we can take that one down

The next exhibit in this trio is Government's 73 for identification, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q And is this another one like the ones we've been looking at where you printed something for the Governor?

A Yes

Q Okay Actually, it's my mistake, Ms Watts

A I think it's the --

Q I'm sorry It's a continuation --

A Yes

Q -- of the e-mail chain we were just looking at --

A Yes

Q -- right?

A Yes

Q I'm sorry about that

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 73

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q And the last piece is the one at the top here where Mr Hazel responds to you and says, "Got it Is there something specific that I need to do or is this FYI only?"

Do you recall -- do you happen to recall what the answer was, whether it was something specific or whether it was just FYI or do you remember?

A I don't remember

Q Okay Over the years that you've worked for Mr McDonnell, have you become familiar with his handwriting, ma'am?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: If we can take a look at Government's Exhibit 116 for identification, please Let's blow this one up

BY MR HARBACH:

Q This is -- is this an e-mail exchange between you and Dr Hazel involving another attachment from the Governor?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 116

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q This one looks a little different, Ms Watts. The e-mail at the bottom is from someplace called "No Reply " Do you recall what was different about this one?

A It looks like it's just another scanned -- machine that I scanned the document into

Q Okay And then you forward it to Mr Hazel and say, "Please see attached from Governor "

Again, is this something that you would have said if the Governor hadn't asked you to send it to him?

A I'm sorry What was the question again? I'm sorry

Q Would you have said to Mr Hazel, "Please see attached from Governor" if the Governor had not, in fact, asked you to send it to him?

A Yes I've sent stuff to him before If it's something that I know that goes to the secretary and the Governor is not in the office, I would send it up to that secretary

Q Okay And would you have said, "Please see attached from Governor" in that circumstance?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Let's take a look at the attachment on this particular one, starting at Page 2

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Top right-hand corner, do you recognize the handwriting that appears there?

A Yes It's the Governor's

Q It's the Governor's handwriting So in this one -- I believe you said you scanned this document?

A Yes

Q Okay

A It looks like I scanned it I mean, from the previous e-mail, it looks like I scanned it and sent it to him

Q And e-mailed it to Dr Hazel?

A Yes

Q Okay While we're on the subject of handwriting, if I could bring up Government Exhibit 2 for identification, please

And my only question for you on the various pages of this document, ma'am, is going to be --

MR HARBACH: Yeah, if we could leave this for identification, please, Kathy, just for the moment One page of this is in evidence but not the others

Let's look at Page 1, Mr Starnes

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Ms Watts, I'm just going to ask my colleague to leaf through these papers, and then I'm just going to ask you to help identify the handwriting Okay?

And so the question is do you recognize the handwriting that appears here?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the --

BY MR HARBACH:

Q And whose is it?

A The Governor's

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 2, the remaining pages that are not yet in evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Okay And so just so the record is clear, Page 1 on Government's that appears on the screen there, is that the government's handwriting, ma'am?

A It's the Governor's handwriting, yes

Q Okay

MR. HARBACH: Could we look at Page 2 of

Government's 2

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Same question

A The Governor's

MR HARBACH: Page 3.

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Now, with the exception of the material that's between the two horizontal lines, apart from that, whose handwriting is it?

A Governor's

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Next page, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Is Page 4 the Governor's handwriting?

A Yes

Q What about page 5?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Is that the last one? Oh, no Page 6

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Is that the Governor's handwriting?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Is that the last page, Mr Starnes

MR STARNES: It is

MR HARBACH: Okay Thank you You can take that down

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Ma'am, were you personally involved in helping Mr McDonnell prepare his Statements of Economic Interest?

A Yes

Q What was your role in that process?

A I was the keeper of the gifts I would get the list together Any gifts that came in from January to December, a log was kept Gifts came in from community relations Anytime that the Governor was out and about, his aide would bring me -- if he received a gift at an event, that was -- those gifts were given to me

And then in December, first of January we would get the statement, putting the gifts together to meet with the Governor on the Statement of Economic Interest for the year

Q Okay Let's focus on the first part of that for the moment, which is gathering information

A Uh-huh

Q What would be your sources of information for information about gifts? You mentioned the staff

A Scheduler

Q Okay

A Any letters that would come in, people who had, you know, given the Governor gifts, they would send -- some groups would send letters stating that, you know, how much the gift was --

Q Uh-huh

A -- for their reporting purposes

Q Would you sometimes get information from the Governor directly?

A Yes He -- yes, he would bring a gift in If he was at an event the night before and he would say, "Make sure that got on the list "

Q Okay Let's talk about the second half of your answer a moment ago Once all that information is gathered, what would you do with it?

A I would go through it, take out any gifts that were under $50 They would not make the Statement of Economic Interest at all, and then anything that was 50 and above would And so that would -- I would start getting -- entering that information for the Governor's review

Q Okay You know who Mr Jasen Eige is?

A Yes

Q W s he involved in the process of putting together the reports as well?

A Yes, somewhat He was at the meetings, yes

Q Okay Who was it who would propose the initial draft of the SOEI? Whose job was that?

A Mine

Q Let's take a look at -- actually, before we look at these drafts quickly, what do you recall happened at the meetings you just mentioned? Who were the meetings among?

A Myself, the Governor, Jasen Eige, Matt Cobb -- I'm sorry, Matt Conrad

Q Okay And what was -- generally speaking, what went on at these meetings that you all would have?

A We would just make sure that everything was reported that we knew about We would go through -- before we got to the meetings, Jasen would get a copy of it, of the Statement of Economic Interest The Governor would have a copy, and they would look at it before we met and make sure everything was reported as -- as it should have been

Q Was -- in your experience, was the Governor interested and engaged at these meetings?

A Yes

Q Did he participate in the mark-up and editing of these drafts?

A Yes

Q Let's take a look at what's in evidence as Government's 277, which I'll represent to you is a draft of the SOEI for calendar year 2011 And the first question is do you recognize the handwriting on the first page of this one?

A That's mine

Q Where it says "Draft 2011"?

A Yes

Q Okay Next question is page 7 of Government's 277

MR. HARBACH: I'm going to have to ask Mr. Starnes to please blow that top part up for her

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Are you able to discern, at the bottom of the screen there, underneath that squiggle line where it says "Medical Services" and it's been scratched out? Do you recognize that handwriting, ma'am?

A The Governor's

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: And then if we could scroll down the page a little bit

BY MR HARBACH:

Q What about where it says "Medical Services" at the bottom of this page?

A The Governor's

Q If you could look, just briefly, at page 9

MR HARBACH: Blow up the bottom half for me, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Are the words that are written in here, is that the Governor's handwriting too, as best you can tell, or can you tell?

A No It's the Governor's

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Page 13, please There you go That one Could you blow up the top piece?

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Is this a continuation of the gifts schedule, Ms Watts?

A It is

Q And whose handwriting is this?

A The Governor's

Q Are you able to read that?

A It looks like, "I think on these put heading above there saying" -- "above these saying following received on economic development overseas trips "

Q Thank you, ma'am

MR HARBACH: That's it for that exhibit Thank you, Mr Starnes

BY MR HARBACH:

Q The next exhibit I'd like to show you for identification only is Government's Exhibit 282

MR HARBACH: Could you blow up the top part of this to help her see it, please Actually, could you back out and show her a little bit more of the exchange,

Mr Starnes? Thank you

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Are you able to read that okay, Ms Watts?

A Yes

Q Do you recognize this as an example of an e-mail you received from the staff concerning a gift for the Governor?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 282

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Now, what's the date of this e-mail, ma'am, from Mr Zubowsky?

A January 3rd, 2012

Q Is that around the time that you all are gathering data for the SOEI?

A Yes

Q Who is Adam Zubowsky, by the way?

A He was the Governor's aide

Q Did he travel with him?

A Yes

Q And it says, "Please put the items below on the Governor's Statement of Economic Interest per his request " And it looks like a couple pairs of shoes and a jacket; is that right?

A Yes

Q Is the shoes are -- well, the prices are right there

MR HARBACH: Okay You can take that one down

BY MR HARBACH:

Q The next exhibit is in evidence as Government's 288 This is -- I'll represent to you this is another draft of the 2011 SOEI Okay?

A Yes

Q Where it says "Draft 2011" on the first page, whose handwriting is that?

A That's mine

Q And then on this one, the only other page I'm interested in is the very last page, which is page 22 This is the government's handwriting as well?

A It's the Governor's

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Thank you

BY MR HARBACH:

Q The next exhibit is in evidence It's Government's 289

MR HARBACH: Can we show the witness the second page, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Is this -- is this the final filed version of the 2011 statement, ma'am?

A Yes

Q Okay How do you know that?

A It's notarized --

Q Okay

A -- and signed by the Governor It's signed by the Governor and notarized by Kim Steinhoff

Q Okay I'd like to focus you on page 11 of this exhibit This appears to be an Amended Schedule E for gifts. Do you see that there?

A Yes

Q My question to you is really just about process here What do you recall the process was for if the Governor had part of his SOEI that needed to be amended, how would that get fixed?

A We would make the correction, put amended on it and send it up to the Secretary of the Commonwealth

Q Okay

A And they would file it with the original

Q I see Thank you, ma'am

Are you able to tell -- withdrawn

The next exhibit is in evidence -- no, it's not in evidence Excuse me Identification only as Government's 456

Do you recognize this document, ma'am, as a draft of the Governor's SOEI for calendar year 2012?

A Yes

Q All right Now, have you had an opportunity to review this document before you came to court today?

A Yes

Q All right

MR HARBACH: And with His Honor's permission, I'll ask a leading question to try and short-circuit some of this.

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Is this, in fact -- despite being marked "Second Draft," in fact, a first draft of the 2012 SOEI?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor.

BY MR HARBACH:

Q And thank you, ma'am

Next question I believe you said earlier that there was -- Mr Eige was involved in the process With respect to this SOEI, the one for calendar year 2012, the one that was filed in January of '13, do you recall whether Mr Eige was involved with that one or was it someone else?

A I believe it was Matt Conrad at that time

Q Okay Who is that?

A Jasen was involved as well

Matt was the Deputy Chief of Staff

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Excuse me one second

My colleagues reminded me that I haven't offered this yet So, Your Honor, the government offers 456

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Now, on this one, Page 1, whose handwriting is that at the top there?

A It's mine

MR HARBACH: And let's go to page 6 Can we blow up the bottom half?

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Now, on this one, "Medical Services" has been crossed out, and the words "Healthcare" have been written in

Do you recognize that handwriting?

A It's the Governor's

Q Now let's take a look at Page 8, please

MR HARBACH: And let's blow up as much of that as you can, Mr Starnes Thank you

MR ASBILL: Judge -- excuse me May we -- I want to object Can we approach on this one?

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench)

MR ASBILL: I just want to preserve my objection to 404(b) evidence relating to Mr Goodwin I think that's what's on this page

MR HARBACH: The Court has already ruled --

THE COURT: The objection is noted but overruled

MR ASBILL: Okay Thank you

(In open court)

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Ms Watts, I think the easiest way to do this may be to ask you this question Is there any handwriting on this page that is not the Governor's?

A Yes

Q Okay What is the handwriting that is not the Governor's?

A The total here reading "1,894 57, Bill Goodwin," and the figure "7,383 14 " And at the bottom of the page, "Keswick Retreat " Those are my handwriting

Q Okay And as far as you can tell, all the other handwriting on this Page 8 of Government's 456, is that the Governor's?

A Yes

Q Do you know who Bill Goodwin is?

A Not personally, no

Q Okay Do you remember hearing about a Mr Goodwin while you worked for Governor McDonnell?

A I've seen his name and heard it, yes

Q Do you have any recollection, from your personal observation, of Mr McDonnell socializing with Mr Goodwin?

A No

Q Okay Finally, on Government's 456, if we could look at Page 12 Let's start with what is this chart that we're looking at here, ma'am? Do you recognize what this is?

A It looks like a log of gifts from his scheduler, Katherine Harris

Q Was this standard operating procedure, to prepare a log like this in connection with the SOEI?

A Yes

Q If you could identify for us the handwriting that appears on the third line there, on the left where it says "Bill Goodwin, purse, friend," whose handwriting is that?

A The Governor's

Q And then on the far right, whose handwriting is that?

A The Governor's

Q And am I reading this right? Does it say, "Check to see if personal or reportable"?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: The next exhibit is Government's 460 for identification only

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Do you recognize this to be a later draft of the Governor's 2012 SOEI, ma'am?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 460

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q And let me ask you the same question on this one Based on your review of these documents before coming to court, in your judgment, is this, despite being marked "First Draft," in fact, a later draft than the one we saw before?

A Yes

Q Okay And on this one, is that your handwriting on the first page where it says "First Draft 2012"?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Can we publish -- excuse me The government offers Government's Exhibit 460, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor

Can we go to Page 8, please Can we blow up the chart for the witness, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Okay On this one, ma'am, the third line down on the chart, it is squiggled through there It says "Bill Goodwin, Kiawah Island, South Carolina, lodging" and so forth, and there's an amount listed there And out in the margin it says "Personal " Whose handwriting is that?

A The Governor's

Q And can you read what the margin note further down that page is?

A No

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: That's it for that one Thank you, Mr Starnes

Next one is for identification, Government's 459

Could you show the witness the second page, please, and blow up the signature block for her?

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Ms Watts, do you recognize this document to be the Governor's filed final Statement of Economic Interest for calendar year 2012?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 459

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR HARBACH: Could we take a look --

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Oh, incidentally -- you can leave it right here -- what's -- what's different about the filing protocol for this one?

A It was electronically signed

Q Was this the first year that that occurred?

A Yes

Q What's the procedure for that? How would something be electronically filed? In other words, once the thing is all ready to go, what happens?

A I would hit the send button Simple as that

Q Simple as that

MR HARBACH: Can we go look at Page 1, please?

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Actually, just so the record is clear, would you -- before you would hit the send button, would you get a final approval from the Governor before you actually filed it?

A Oh, yes Certainly

Q Of course

MR HARBACH: First page Could w look at question 3?

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Just note for the record, what's the answer to the securities question here, ma'am? Is it marked yes or no on question 3?

A It looks like it's marked yes

Q Which of the two answers is bolded and bracketed?

A Oh, the no

Q Okay Thank you, ma'am

MR HARBACH: And then on Page 5 -- actually, if we could go back to Page 4 so we can see what schedule this is, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Down at the bottom it says "Schedule E Gifts"?

A Uh-huh

Q And then the actual chart is on Page 5 of the exhibit Do you see that Kiawah Island trip anywhere on this chart, ma'am?

A No

MR HARBACH: Can I have just a moment, Judge?

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

THE COURT: Sure

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor I have no further questions

THE COURT: Cross

MR ASBILL: Briefly

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Good afternoon, Ms Watts How are you?

A Fine

Q Do you see any entries on that page for Star Scientific?

A I'm sorry What was your question?

Q Do you see on any entries on this page for Star Scientific?

A Yes

Q One, two, three --

A It looks like there are two

Q Two entries about five and six lines down?

A Yes

Q Okay This process that you've described --

MR ASBILL: You can take that down Thank you

BY MR ASBILL:

Q This process you described of the SOEI forms and how that all works, a number of people involved in that process"

A Yes

Q And you are collecting information that has accrued over an entire year?

A Yes, sir

Q Is that correct?

A Yes

Q And when in the year, generally, or in 2011 and 2012, did you all try to sit down and collect all the data and enter it and evaluate it or do whatever you're going to do?

A It's usually after the holidays

Q So between Christmas and the time it needs to be filed?

A Yes That's when we meet

Q For the entire year; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And how many pages are these forms?

A Of the statements?

Q Yeah Roughly

A Fifteen

Q Okay

A I mean, but not every page is completed

Q Right I'm talking about the list of things

A Oh, the gifts?

Q Yes

A Oh, oh Wow That could be 50, 60 pages of stuff, depending on -- I mean, because you're talking about gifts that come in from community relations, you know, little trinkets that the Governor receives And all of that's put on the list, and you're talking about lists from Katherine, a list that the Governor -- all the gifts that he receives from any -- plaques, a brush, anything, those gifts are listed But they don't make the Statement of

Economic Interest if they are, you know, little trinkets

Q All right I mean, but you evaluate the value of those and then make a decision about whether --

A Yes

Q -- whether they need to be on it?

A Yes

Q This time frame, the sort of post Christmas or the holiday time frame and the end of the year and beginning of January, are those, to your knowledge, particularly busy times for the Governor in terms of his day job?

A Yes

Q And why is that?

A We're getting ready for the General Assembly Session will start in January He's out and about, around the Commonwealth So the busy thing is getting ready for session

Q Okay And was that particularly true in 2011 and 2012 or either of those two years? Do you recall one being particularly busy or both being particularly busy during that time frame?

A Yes It's busy

Q Okay And would I be accurate in saying that as you all go over these forms and go over the entries, if mistakes are made, you all try to correct them?

A Yes

MR ASBILL: Thank you very much No further questions

THE COURT: All right Anything?

MS MARTIN: No questions for Ms McDonnell

THE COURT: All right Anything else?

MR HARBACH: Just one question, Judge

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Ms Watts, during those busy times between the holidays and when the SOEI was filed for the Governor, do you have any recollection, with respect to either the 2011 SOEI or the 2012 SOEI, of the Governor saying to you, "Hey, I'm too busy for that I don't have time You all just take of care of it"?

Did he ever say anything like that?

A Not "just take care of it " He could be too busy, and if we had a meeting set up to discuss it, he would push it back or change it to another day, yes

Q Did you, in fact, have meetings with respect to both of those SOEIs with the Governor?

A Yes

Q And did you discuss the draft SOEIs and allow him to make comments and make edits with respect to both filings?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor No further questions

THE COURT: All right Thank you, ma'am You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: Call your next witness

MR FAULKNER: Your Honor, the United States calls Special Agent Tim Huff

TIMOTHY HUFF,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

MR FAULKNER: May I proceed, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Go ahead

MR FAULKNER: And, Your Honor, we may be able to get through his direct examination today, but obviously, if there's any -- any point where you want me to stop, just let me know

THE COURT: All right

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULKNER:

Q Could you please state your name and spell your last for the court reporter?

A My full name is Timothy Leslie Huff Last name is spelled H-U-F-F

Q And where are you currently employed?

A At the Richmond office of the FBI

Q How long have you been with the FBI?

A Since September of 1996

Q How long have you been in the Richmond office specifically?

A September of 2007

Q And what is your current title and role?

A My primary duties at the Richmond office is a computer forensic examiner

Q And are you a special agent?

A Yes, I am.

Q Now, as a computer forensic examiner, are you able to extract what's called metadata from electronic files like a Microsoft Word document or an Outlook file?

A Yes, I can

Q And you briefly, it's late in the day, but can you briefly tell the members of the jury what metadata is?

A Metadata is -- a strict definition is data about data It's the stuff inside a file that tells a file what it is, where it came from, what it's supposed to do under certain conditions

Q And how do you extract that sort of information, metadata, from a Word document or an Outlook file?

A I use a forensic suite of tools This one called AccessData Lab But most of the metadata is available within any Windows system if you know where to call up the -- the options

Q   Now, just so we're clear for anyone who's not a computer person, Microsoft Word, that's a word processing program, right?

A   Yes, it is.

Q   And Microsoft Outlook, could you explain briefly what that is?

A   That is a scheduling program that incorporates contact lists, e-mail, and calendar entries

Q   And so does any person using Microsoft Outlook have what's called an Outlook account?

A   In order to use it, you have to establish an account, correct

Q   And can that be associated with an e-mail address?

A   Yes   It's usually directly associated with a contact list

Q   Now, within Microsoft Outlook, are you able to set a calendar event and then actually send it to someone else?

A   Yes, you can

Q   And are you able to set it up so that other people can put events on your calendar for you?

A   Yes   If you set your permissions to do that, yes

Q   And did you say "permissions"?

A   Permissions

Q And using AccessData Lab, are you able to see that information about which account set an event on which calendar?

A Yes, I can

Q And how does it typically show up if it's that situation you just talked about where other people have permission to set up an event on your calendar?

A Typically, it shows up on a normal user's system as an organizer

Q Will it show up in the metadata as representing?

A Yes, representing -- the person sending it representing another, yes

Q And so just so we're up-front for the members of the jury, when you pull out the metadata and it shows these accounts, is it telling you for certain that the actual person set the event or just that the account with that name set the event?

A Correct I can't put the fingers on the keyboard

Q Now, using AccessData Lab to look at a file, are you also able to see when a particular calendar event is set for someone else?

A Yes, I can

Q Now, Special Agent Huff, I'd like to start with a document that we just need you to recognize and talk about, but we won't be necessarily offering it in evidence right now, Your Honor

And that's Exhibit 502 for identification

MR FAULKNER: If we could zoom -- or just leave it how it is

BY MR FAULKNER:

Q Looking at Exhibit 502, Agent Huff, is this a Word document that you analyzed in this case?

A Yes, it is

Q And was this a document produced to the FBI by an individual named Dan Cook?

A Yes.

Q Is this document, Exhibit 502, how the document looks when you just pull it up in Word?

A That is correct

MR FAULKNER: Now, if we could pull up for identification Exhibit 503

BY MR FAULKNER:

Q Looking at this again just for identification at this point, is this a document showing metadata that you pulled from this document?

A That's correct

Q And the last two rows of text there, without saying anything that's written, do those show the creation and save date of that document?

A Yes, it does

MR FAULKNER: All right We can take that down

BY MR FAULKNER:

Q All right So now I'd like to go to some documents that we will be offering in evidence

Did you also review a number of Outlook files or calendar events in this case?

A Yes, I did

Q And did those come from what are called pst files?

A Yes Outlook accounts are stored in pst files

Q And were they produced to the FBI by VITA, the Virginia Information Technologies Agency?

A Yes

Q And I'm going to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 104 Is this an Outlook event that you analyzed in this case?

A Yes, it is

Q And did this come from a pst file from VITA called FLOVA pst?

A Yes, it did

Q And is this the version as it would appear within Outlook?

A Yes

Q And does it have a Word document attached to it?

A Yes, it does

MR FAULKNER: Your Honor, we've offered Exhibit 104 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULKNER:

Q Now, could you tell us what the subject of this event is, just that first line?

A "Dinner with Jonnie and Celeste Williams."

Q And the start date and end date and time, April 29th, 2011, from 7:30 to 9:30 p m ?

A Yes, it is

Q And turning to the second page briefly, is that the Word document that was attached to that calendar entry?

A Yes, it is

Q I'd like to show you Exhibit 102 for identification And is this a document showing the metadata that you extracted from this file?

A Yes, it is

Q Now, the subject on this, is this the same as the subject we were just looking at?

A Yes, it is

MR FAULKNER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 102 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULKNER:

Q Now, Special Agent Huff, it looks here on the time, we earlier said that the event itself was 7:30 to 9:30, and here at the very top in the blue text it says 11:30 to 1:30, four hours later

Can you explain what the reason is for the distinction there?

A Well, the plus zero on the end of it tells you that it's Zulu Time So since it's daylight savings time at the time this was made, you'd be at a minus four time zone

Q And would that same distinction, in this blue text area, apply to all the other documents that you -- or all the other Outlook entries you reviewed in this case?

A Yes

Q Now, looking at the bottom, can you tell us who is listed in the "from" field as the account who set this event on the calendar?

A That would be Block, comma, Monica

Q What about representing?

A That would be representing McDonnell, comma, Bob

MR FAULKNER: All right We can go ahead and take that one down

BY MR FAULKNER:

Q Showing you for identification Exhibit 113 Is this another Outlook calendar event that you analyzed in this case?

A Yes, it is

Q And did this one also come from the FLOVA pst account?

A Yes, it did

MR FAULKNER: We'd offer Exhibit 113 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULKNER:

Q And what is the subject of this event?

A "Meeting with Jonnie Williams "

Q Is that May 2nd, 2011, from 9:30 to 10 a m ?

A Correct

MR FAULKNER: Now, if we could turn to Exhibit 112 for identification

BY MR FAULKNER:

Q Is this the metadata that you pulled from that Outlook calendar entry?

A It is

MR FAULKNER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 112 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULKNER:

Q Now, Special Agent Huff, what account does it show as setting this calendar entry?

A That would be from Mary-Shea Sutherland

Q Who does it show Mary-Shea Sutherland representing on this particular calendar entry?

A That would be FLOVA McDonnell

Q And looking at this one earlier, the event itself said 9:30 to, I believe, 10 a m.

What time is this one set on the calendar?

A Do you want me to the show the Zulu Time?

Q Sorry No In the "sent" and "delivered" --

A Oh, okay

Q -- what time is it that this was actually sent and put on the calendar?

A That was sent and delivered on May 2nd, 2011

A JUROR: Your Honor, sorry to interrupt I need to be excused

THE COURT: Okay Let's -- we're going to stop right here

THE COURT: Okay We will gather again tomorrow at 9:30 Again, you all take care of yourselves this evening and don't allow anybody to discuss it with you, this case, and stay away from the media, as I've said before We'll see you all in the morning

THE COURT: Okay We will be in adjournment until 9:30 in this matter, 9:00 generally

(The trial adjourned at 5:19 p m)

JEFFREY B. KULL
OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

P-R-O-C-E-E-D-I-N-G-S

THE CLERK: Day eight, Case Number 3:14CR12: United States of America versus Robert F McDonnell and Maureen G. McDonnell The United States is represented by Michael Dry, David Harbach, Jessica Aber, and Ryan Faulconer. Robert F. McDonnell is represented by John Brownlee, Henry Asbill, Daniel Small, James Burnham, and Christopher Iaquinto Maureen G. McDonnell is represented by Heather Martin, William Burck, and Stephen Hauss Are counsel ready to proceed?

MR. DRY: The United States is ready to proceed.

MR. BROWNLEE: Mr McDonnell is ready to proceed

MR. HAUSS: Ms McDonnell is ready to proceed

THE COURT: We are still missing one juror, but I came out because I wanted to go ahead and deal with this exhibit issue that you all have indicated is a problem.

MR. BROWNLEE: Just very briefly, I believe it is Government Exhibit 277 The government introduced the document, at least the first page of it that we saw on the screen. I do believe it was admitted. We saw the second page and we asked for a bench conference and objected to that portion of the document which referenced the Attorney General's opinion from 1988 It was our understanding that was sustained at the time, and we just wanted to confirm that that portion of the document is not in evidence Thank you, sir

MR. HARBACH: Could I be heard briefly, Judge? Or do we need to?

THE COURT: Go ahead if you have something you want to say on it Go ahead.

MR. HARBACH: Two things we wanted to say, Your Honor The first is that it is actually Page 10 of the exhibit, and this document in its entirety was produced to the government by Mr McDonnell The page that's in question was interspersed among the draft SOEI as we received it That's precisely how it was produced to the government

The government's understanding of Your Honor's ruling was that the Court sustained an objection to a question the government was going to put to Mr Eige about whether his advice to Mr McDonnell was consistent with what's reflected on the page I believe Your Honor made the point at the Bench that we could inquire what advice he gave Mr McDonnell, but not whether it was consistent with the opinion, which leads to the reason that the page containing the opinion is relevant You can look at the face of it and discern from the note from Mr Kent that it was plainly intended to be communicated to the Governor There is a note on the page to the Governor from Mr Kent, and so that's why it is relevant, because it was in the Governor's mind at the time that the draft was completed Thank you, Judge

THE COURT: Page 10 will be redacted. All right I'll have to go back down. We will come back as soon as this juror gets in here And we are trying to locate him.

(Recess taken from 9:47 a.m. to 9:58 a.m.)

THE COURT: All right, bring in the jury, please

(The jury entered the courtroom.)

All right, go ahead.

MR. FAULCONER: Thank you, Your Honor

DIRECT EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Good morning, Agent Huff

A Good morning

Q All right Yesterday we picked up -- or I'd like to pick up where we left off yesterday Do you remember talking about time zones a little bit during your testimony yesterday?

A Yes

Q Do you remember referencing Zulu time?

A Yes Zulu time Unfortunately, I should have said Greenwich Mean Time Zulu time is a military term.

Greenwich Mean Time, GMT, is a little more civilian.

Q I would like to pick up with some more of these Outlook entries we were talking about yesterday If I could show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 150 Special Agent Huff, is this another calendar event that you analyzed in this case?

A Yes, it is

Q And like some of the others we have talked about, did this come from the FLOVA.pst account?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: 113 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

Q Could you read what the subject is for this particular entry?

THE COURT: Did you say 113?

MR FAULCONER: 113, yes

MR. FAULCONER: I meant 150, Your Honor

THE COURT: Go ahead

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Agent Huff, could you read the subject for Exhibit 150?

A Roskamp Breakthrough Technology Conference (Highlighting HDL)

Q Is the date on this June 1st, 2011 from 8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.?

A Yes, it is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 119 into evidence.

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

A FLOVA McDonnell

Q And which account is it being sent on?

A Representing FLOVA McDonnell as well

Q Is there anything about Mary-Shea Sutherland on the metadata for this calendar entry?

A No, not that I see

Q What's the date that this was set on the calendar?

A It was set on May 17th, 2011

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked now for identification as Exhibit 190 Agent Huff, is this another Outlook entry that you analyzed from the FLOVA.pst account?

A Yes, it is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 190 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Could you read the subject of this calendar entry?

A "Meeting with Jonnie Williams "

Q Is the date and time there August 1st, 2011 from 10 to 11:30 a.m.?

A Yes, it is

Q Now, if we could show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 179. Agent Huff, is this the metadata you pulled from that entry we were just looking at?

A Yes, it is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 179 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, this particular entry here, Agent Huff, who does it show in the From line as setting this calendar entry?

A That would be Mary-Shea Sutherland.

Q But who does it show her representing in this particular calendar entry?

A FLOVA McDonnell

Q Special Agent Huff, what is the date and time at which this was sent?

A July 28th, 2011

Q Agent Huff, is there anything in the metadata from this document that shows the name Molly Huffstetler?

A No, not that I see.

A Less than 15 minutes afterward.

MR. FAULCONER: If we could show the witness what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 325

BY MR. FAULCONER:

A Yes

Q Is there anything in the metadata when you pulled it that talks about stock transactions?

A No

MR. FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR. FAULCONER: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. CONROY:

Q Good morning, Agent Huff My name is Owen Conroy, and I'm one of Bob McDonnell's attorneys You are an expert in metadata; is that right?

A I wasn't qualified as one for Court.

Q But out in the world?

A I know more than most, yes

Q Okay So I just have a couple of questions about the limitations of the To and From fields we were just talking about So you testified that these Outlook calendar entries have metadata that shows a From field; is that right?

A Yes

Q Can we pull up Government Exhibit 102? And this is in evidence, Your Honor So your testimony was that the From field shows that a particular person's account created this calendar entry; is that right?

A That's correct

Q So here, we see that it was from Monica Block, correct?

A Yes

Q But you can't tell whether Monica Block, the person, created this entry; is that right?

A No. Like I said before, I can't put people's fingers on the keyboards

Q Correct Okay So in other words, if someone else had access to Monica Block's Outlook password or computer, that other person could have created this entry under her account?

A It is very poor security, but yes, it can happen

Q Similarly, you testified that the To field shows that the calendar entry is delivered to the named person's account; is that right?

A Yes

Q But you are not, sir, in looking at this data, sure whether the person named there ever looked at or accessed this entry?

A Not from this document, no

Q Okay And one other question about the field at the bottom that says Representing Tell me, just summarize, what does that mean?

A That means permissions have been sent through Bob McDonnell's account to allow people to make appointments for him.

Q So in this instance, it would be Monica Block's account making an appointment for Bob McDonnell's account?

A Correct

Q But so you can't tell looking at this, or this doesn't say anything one way or the other about whether Bob McDonnell's account had anything to do with creating this entry?

A No

Q And you can't say one way or the other whether Bob McDonnell, the person, had anything to do with creating this entry?

A Correct

Q Okay

MR. CONROY: Thank you.

THE COURT: Any cross from Ms. McDonnell?

MR. HAUSS: No questions, Your Honor Thank you.

THE COURT: All right Anything else?

MR. FAULCONER: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir You may stand down.

(Witness stood aside)

A "Dear Fellow State Employees "

Q If we could turn to the second page down at the bottom. What is the name at the bottom of this e-mail?

A "Governor Bob McDonnell "

Q If we could show the witness what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 525 Dr Lazo, is this another one of those e-mails?

A Yes, it is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 525 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Dr Lazo, what's the subject of this particular e-mail?

A "State employee pay increase."

Q Did some of these e-mails that you got have this seal like we see here?

A Yes

Q We can take that down Now, Dr Lazo, as the Associate Dean for Basic Research when you were in that role, did you attend events where other state government employees were present?

A Well, yes I mean, for example, any university employee would be a state employee I obviously went to a lot of those events. But also, I was at events that would include individuals, representatives from state government

Q Now, within UVA, do you also interact with UVA officials who have responsibility for interacting with state government officials that aren't at the University but are, for example, in something like the Governor's Office?

A Yes

Q And generally speaking, would you prefer to have good relationships or bad relationships with those government officials?

A I think it is always good to have good relationships with anybody, but yes, government officials

Q Dr Lazo, I'd like to focus your attention now on what sort of brings us here today Before the summer of 2011, had you heard of the company Star Scientific?

A No

Q Before the summer of 2011, had you heard of the product Anatabloc?

A No

Q Before the summer of 2011, had you heard of the compound anatabine?

A No

Q Before the summer of 2011, had you met former Governor Robert McDonnell?

A No

Q Had you ever met Ms McDonnell?

A No

Q Had you ever been to the Governor's Mansion?

A No

Q Now, in late August of 2011, did you actually get an invitation to an event at the Governor's Mansion?

A I did

MR. FAULCONER: I'd like to show the witness what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 213

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

MR. FAULCONER: Sorry, Your Honor?

THE COURT: I thought you were moving it in.

MR. FAULCONER: I was just showing it to the witness

THE COURT: Okay

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Is this an e-mail exchange between you and another individual at UVA?

A It is

Q Is it dated August 25th, 2011?

A That is correct

Q Is this part of the e-mail exchange in which you learned about this event that was at the Governor's Mansion?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: Now we would offer Exhibit 213 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, on this e-mail, Dr Lazo, is you and someone named Ronald Turner Could you tell us who Ronald Turner is?

A Ron Turner is the Associate Dean for Clinical Research. It would be my counterpart in the Research Dean's group of people

Q If we could turn to Page 2, and the e-mail at the top there that says, it is to John and then it is signed by Ron. Could you read the e-mail that's between the two names there?

A It says: "You free to go to Richmond on Tuesday next week? There is a lunch related to Star Scientific slash Tobacco Commission studies with anatabine. Peggy is out of town and I am on service They would like to have a representative from UVA."

Q And when the name "Peggy" is there, who does that refer to?

A That's Peggy or Margaret Shupnik. She is the Senior Associate Dean in the School of Medicine

Q Is this e-mail where Dr Turner is describing it consistent with what your understanding of the event was before you went?

A That's the information that I had, yes

MR. FAULCONER: I'd like to show the witness what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 216

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Dr Lazo, is this an e-mail that you received from an individual named Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A That is correct

Q Is it dated August 25th, 2011?

A That is correct

Q Is this actually the invitation that you received to the event?

A Well, this is -- the invitation, I think, was actually formally on an attachment But this was the e-mail that said "Find an attached invitation" which was attached to that particular e-mail

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 216 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q If we could zoom back out, and then if we could go to the second page of this exhibit If we could zoom in on the portion where there is actually some text Dr Lazo, is this the invitation that you received attached to that e-mail?

A It is

Q And when you got it, do you remember it having a seal like it does there at the top?

A Yes

Q Could you read the first three lines of that document?

A "Governor and Mrs Robert F McDonnell request the pleasure of your company at a luncheon

Q We can go and take that down Dr Lazo, based on this invitation, did it seem to you like this was an official Commonwealth event?

A I mean, I'm not quite sure It seemed as though it was an event I was a relatively new person in Virginia, only being here for six months So it looked like it was something that was official

Q When you went, I assume you drove over from Charlottesville to Richmond, right?

A I did.

Q Did you take any leave or time off to attend the event?

A No. It was part of my regular job as Associate Dean, I thought, so I did not take any official time off

Q Let's talk a little bit then about the event itself The invitation that we just looked at said 11:30 a.m., I think, was when it started. Do you know about what time you got there?

A It was only the second time I had ever been in Richmond, so I sort of came a little bit early because I didn't know exactly where to park I probably got here around 11, 11 o'clock or so

Q What was the first thing that happened when you got to the Governor's Mansion?

A I walked up to the gate I asked a guard -- I walked up to the gate and there was a guard in front of the gate, so we stood around I stood around with a number of other individuals waiting to enter into the Governor's Mansion.

Q Who else do you remember being there when you got there?

A I didn't really know anybody else that was there, so there were a variety of people that introduced themselves But I didn't know any of them. Actually, I've never talked to any of them since, so --

Q Do you recall a researcher from VCU being there?

A Yes, there was an individual I don't know actually whether I talked to him before we entered or once we entered. But John Clore was there from VCU

Q What was the name?

A Clore, I think.

Q Now, after you got there, did you eventually go inside the Mansion?

A Oh, yes I would say probably around, I don't know, twenty after 11 or something like that, we were allowed to go into the Governor's Mansion, so we walked up into the Mansion.

Q What happened when you got inside?

A So there is sort of a foyer area, and we were standing in the foyer area and people were talking

Q And did you eventually leave that foyer area and go somewhere else within the Mansion?

A I don't know quite how long, but it wasn't very long, we were there for maybe ten minutes or so, 15 minutes

There is a set of doors The doors opened up and we went into the area where the luncheon was

Q Where was that?

A It was an adjacent room. It is in the Executive Mansion I'm not quite sure what the room would be called Q Did it look like a dining room?

A It was It had a large table

Q Now, once you were seated, could you tell us where Ms McDonnell was? Was she there?

A Ms McDonnell was there She was at the northernmost end of this kind of elliptical table that had everybody sitting down. I was about midway I was sort in the middle of the table

Q Was Mr Jonnie Williams there?

A Yes, he was

Q Where was he seated?

A He was on the other end of the table in the sort of southern part of the table.

Q Now, when you sat down at the table, do you remember whether there was anything on the table in front of you?

A Yes There were several boxes of Anatabloc that were sitting in front of us, as well as plates and silverware and napkins

Q Those boxes of Anatabloc, were they just one box or two boxes in the middle or were they at each individual place setting?

A As I recall, they were at each place setting I'm not sure if they were at every place setting, but they were certainly on either side of me and the ones I could see across

Q Had you ever seen a bottle of Anatabloc before?

A No.

Q Once you sat down and everybody was seated, who spoke first?

A As I recall, I believe that Ms McDonnell stood up and welcomed us and briefly thanked us for coming And then there was a request to introduce ourselves

Q After everybody introduced themselves, did Ms McDonnell make other comments?

A Yes, I think she made some comments about the purpose of why we were here and her enthusiasm for the meeting

Q And do you recall her saying that she actually takes Anatabloc?

A I think she said that, yes I believe she said that

Q Now, at some point after Ms McDonnell spoke, did Mr Williams speak as well?

A Yes, he did.

Q And do you recall when Mr Williams spoke, was he holding anything?

A There was in front of him a stalk of tobacco, at least what he said was a tobacco stalk I've actually never seen one But yes, that was in front of him and he did pick it up and show it to all of us

Q What did Mr Williams talk about when he started speaking?

A Well, he talked about the Anatabloc and how exciting it was and that it was something that he thought had major potential benefits to health and also to the economy

Q Did he talk about studies of the product at all?

A He did mention, yes, he talked a little bit about -- he spoke at length about I guess what we would professionally say are anecdotal results of taking it But he also talked about pre-clinical studies -- that would be studies that are not in humans -- as well as, as I recall, a plan to have some studies that would be done, clinical studies that would be done in Michigan, as I recall, Michigan or Minnesota

Q Now, did other individuals who were at the table speak as well after Mr Williams spoke?

A There was a group of investigators from Roskamp, which is an institution in Florida They did talk briefly about some of their scientific studies

Q Now, at some point during the presentations and the discussions, did Mr McDonnell arrive?

A Yes He was not there in the beginning He arrived sometime during the luncheon I'm not exactly sure when, but it was at least halfway through, maybe a little bit later than that

Q After he arrived, was at least some of what Mr Williams was talking about after Mr McDonnell arrived?

A I think so But again, it was three years ago, so I'm not really positive if he was there during the formal presentation or afterwards

Q Now, when Mr McDonnell arrived, what happened?

A I actually don't know if we stood up or we remained seated. But he did sit down to join us

Q Do you remember, you said Ms McDonnell was at the northern end of the table Do you remember where Mr McDonnell sat?

A He sat at the southernmost part of the table

Q And who was sitting next to him, do you recall?

A Mr Williams was to his right

Q Now, when Mr McDonnell came in and sat down, did he appear to be paying attention to what was being said?

A Yes, I think so.

Q And during all of the conversation and exchanges, did anyone say anything about the relationship of the event to the product being rolled out into stores?

A So I'm not quite sure who mentioned that, but I know that when I left, I recognized that this was the day that the product was being launched. So it was mentioned there, but I'm just not sure who said it, whether it was Mr Williams, whether it was somebody else at the table. But I do remember it being mentioned.

Q Now, when the researchers were talking, did you say earlier that they were talking some about studies of Anatabloc?

A Yes

Q Now, at the end, did Mr McDonnell engage with the people who were present?

A So I'm not sure it was at the very end, but somewhere toward the end of the luncheon he did ask us some questions as a group about our thoughts on Anatabloc

Q What do you recall him talking about?

A So I think the one question he asked us was, did we think that there was some scientific validity to the conversation and some of the pre-clinical studies that were discussed, or at least alluded to He also, I think, asked us whether or not there was any reason to explore this further; would it help to have additional information And also, he asked us about could this be something good for the Commonwealth, particularly as it relates to economy or job creation

Q And do you recall there being discussion about the relationship of the product Anatabloc to tobacco?

A Oh, yes As I mentioned earlier, Mr Williams had the tobacco stalk there And I think the point he was trying to make was that this anatabine, which is the major active component in Anatabloc, is a minor alkaloid that's found in tobacco By minor, I mean it is a small fraction of the alkaloids, nicotine being the largest And that this, if indeed this compound was useful, then we would be able to say that something good came out of tobacco I think that was the point that was being made

Q Based on what Mr McDonnell said, did it seem like he knew Mr Williams?

A You know, I don't know that I can say that I mean, I don't know whether he knew him or didn't know him based on my observations at the luncheon.

Q Let me ask it this way: When Mr McDonnell walked in, did he say, "What's going on? I don't understand what this is "

A No, he walked in and was cheerful and greeted people But I thought he was aware of what was going on.

Q And based on the tenor of the conversation, was it generally a positive conversation about Anatabloc or was it all negative about Anatabloc?

A Well, I don't think the tenor was negative I think it was, the conversation of Mr Williams was, I would characterize as positive I think the Governor's position was more of an interrogative type of a sort of questioning rather than "Isn't this great?" or "Isn't it this awful?" if that's what you are asking me

Q Did the Governor say anything negative about the product?

A No, he didn't say anything negative about the product

Q Now, I'd like to show you what's been marked as Exhibit 232 for identification Dr Lazo, do you recognize this document?

A Yes, I do

Q What is it?

A It is a check.

Q Is this a check that you received at the end of this event?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: I would offer Exhibit 232 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

THE WITNESS: It is a photocopy of the check.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Got it Is this made out to University of Virginia Medical School?

A Yes, it is

Q Does this look like a copy of the check you received on that day?

A It does

Q Could you tell us what you remember about receiving the check?

A Well, as I was leaving, after the luncheon was over, we stood up and I walked around to the southern part of the table and Mr Williams shook my hand, introduced himself to me, and gave me the check at that time

Q Before you left the event, do you recall any one-on-one conversations with Ms McDonnell?

A Ms McDonnell did come over and talk to me briefly as I was leaving Again, thanked me for coming and shook my hand

Q What do you recall about the conversation with Ms McDonnell?

A The only thing that specifically I remember was that she asked me to watch over her boys, her children Which actually, I'm embarrassed to say, I didn't realize she had two sons at UVA. That's why I remember it, because I was a little bit surprised and later on found out that her sons were students at UVA.

Q Dr Lazo, at any time during this event before you left, did anyone tell you that it wasn't an official government event?

A No No

Q Did anyone tell you who was paying for the event?

A No Nobody told me it was, either, but nobody told me it wasn't. I was just told to go.

Q You attended as the UVA representative, right?

A Absolutely

Q Walking away from the event, what was your overall general impression of it?

A Well, first of all, as I said earlier, I had only been in Virginia for six months So I was pretty impressed with the Executive Mansion. So I was wide-eyed, I guess, because of that I just, I thought it was an interesting event, and I had not expected to get the check, so I was a little bit surprised to have the check. But I decided I had better get back to UVA and give it to the right person quickly

Q Now, after you left the event, Dr Lazo, do you recall informing others at UVA about what you had experienced?

A Yes I had, in driving back, I made a phone call to Sharon Krueger, who is in the Vice-president for Research's office, Tom Skalak's office, just to give her a follow-up, partly because, as I said earlier, I had a responsibility to be sort of a liaison with the

Vice-president of Research's office That was, by the way, hands-free phone And then when I got back I also reported back to the Dean of the School of Medicine, Dean DeKosky, Stephen DeKosky And also, I reported back to, I don't know if it was that afternoon, because I got back around 3:00 or 3:30, and if it wasn't that afternoon it was the next day, to Peggy Shupnik, Margaret Shupnik, about what was going on Those are the first two people, because they are my direct reports

Q I'd like to just break that down just a little bit to make sure we understand who those people are. You said the person you called on the drive back was an individual named Sharon Krueger; is that right?

A That's correct

Q Is that K-R-U-E-G-E-R?

A That's correct.

Q I'm not quite sure what her official title is, but she works for the Vice-president for Research That's Tom Skalak. And she is sort of the liaison, at least in my mind, she is the liaison for a variety of interactions between the Vice-president of Research and the Dean of the School of Medicine and the School of Medicine's activities

Q Now, when you talked to Ms Krueger, did you mention where the event had taken place?

A Oh, yeah, I'm sure I did.

Q Why is that?

A Well, because it was the first time I had ever been to the Governor's Mansion, so I was pretty excited about that

Q Did you mention that Governor McDonnell had attended?

A I suspect that I mentioned both that the Governor and the Governor's wife were there.

Q Why did you mention that the Governor had attended?

A I mean, it is the Governor I thought it was appropriate to mention that he was there It was the invitation from him, too, so in a sense I was just completing the story that I was invited or we were invited, UVA was invited by the Governor and his wife and both were there

Q If this had just been an event at the Westin Hotel or somewhere, would you have mentioned where the event had occurred?

A I probably would not have mentioned that the event occurred in the Westin, unless the Westin is really opulent, but I probably would have said that the Governor and the Governor's wife was there

Q Now, after Ms Krueger, I think you said that you actually gave an update to a whole group of people at some later time Do you recall that?

A Yes. We have a regular Research Dean's meeting, so we have already discussed Peggy Shupnik, we mentioned Ron Turner, myself, and there are two or three other people who are what wee call research [redacted] in the School of Medicine We have weekly meetings every Wednesday, Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock. And I would have certainly, I don't remember the details Your Honor but I would have certainly debriefed them on the event, just pro forma That would be my responsibility, to tell them what happened, give them a background.

Q Would you have mentioned again that it was at the Governor's Mansion?

A I'm sure I would have.

Q Would you have mentioned Governor McDonnell's presence?

A I'm sure I would have mentioned that

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 175 Is this an e-mail from Dr Peggy Shupnik to you?

A It is

Q It is also to those other individuals you were referencing that participate in this regular Wednesday meeting?

A As I mentioned, there are five of us total, so with her name, those are all the e-mails of those people, yes

Q Is this dated Monday, July 25th, 2011?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 175 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Dr Lazo, this is July 25th, 2011 So this is actually about a little over a month before the event. Do you actually recall reading this e-mail at the time it was sent to you?

A So, I don't recall reading it. I didn't attend this particular Wednesday meeting I mentioned there were weekly meetings So I don't recall -- I certainly don't recall reading it and I don't recall seeing the attachment at the time it was sent

Q If we could turn to the second page of the attachment

MR. BROWNLEE: I object. He said he hasn't read it I'm not sure why he is asking about it

THE COURT: Sustained. What can he do with this?

MR FAULCONER: I was simply going to ask the witness about whether the attachment was consistent with something that occurred at the event

MR. BROWNLEE: We would object He hadn't seen this document

THE COURT: He can answer that

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you

THE COURT: Go ahead.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Turning to the attachment, if we could zoom in on where it says "Budget and Project Period" in the very middle? What is the dollar amount that's listed there by "Budget and Project Period"?

A So this says, "Budget and Project Period: The total project period for an application submitted in response to this funding opportunity may not exceed six months Direct costs are limited to $25,000 over this period "

MR. BROWNLEE: I object. That wasn't the question he asked.

THE COURT: Objection is overruled

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Is that the dollar amount of the check you received?

A It is

Q We can go ahead and take that down. Now, in addition to talking about it at your weekly meeting, did you also say that you talked to the Dean of the School of Medicine, Stephen DeKosky, about it?

A That is correct

Q You talked to Dr Peggy Shupnik about the event at the Mansion?

A That is correct

Q Now, later on in November of 2011, did you actually have a subsequent conversation with Sharon Krueger again about this event?

A I did

Q And do you recall why you were having a subsequent conversation with her about this event again?

A I think she initiated it So, as I mentioned, I had this phone call, kind of a brief phone call conversation in my car about what the meeting was about And then she had contacted me to say, "I just wanted to follow up and get your point of view on what happened at that event "

Q During that conversation, do you recall discussing the issue of transparency?

A Yes I think we were talking globally about how the University of Virginia, or in my view, any university that's a research university, should act One of my cardinal principles is you need to be transparent about everything that you do.

Q Do you recall discussing whether the Governor wanted to get something good out of tobacco in that conversation?

A Well, you know, I thought that the tenor of the meeting was that it would be great, particularly for Virginia, which is a tobacco -- again, as a northerner coming to Virginia -- the tenor of the meeting was that it would be great if we could show that tobacco was a useful product And I think the Governor and Ms McDonnell both were extolling that as something that would be a good thing for the Commonwealth.

Q Did you discuss that with Ms Krueger more than two months after the event in November of 2011?

A Yes I think that that was certainly something that we brought up.

Q Why is that?

A Well, I mean, the issue is what's special about Anatabloc, for example, as opposed to Vitamin C or something like that And, you know, I think the fact that it has a relationship to tobacco and the Commonwealth is associated with tobacco was something that, to me, sounded reasonable.

Q Why were you talking about the Governor again in that conversation?

A Well, the luncheon was in the Executive Mansion. The Governor and the Governor's wife was here So I think it made sense Again, I may have even had the impression that the Commonwealth would like to be able to say there is something good about tobacco.

Q Now, Dr Lazo, since the event, have you ever been back to the Governor's Mansion?

A No, I have not

Q Have you ever met Mr McDonnell in person again?

A No, I have not

Q At the time of the event, were you aware that Mr Williams had given Mr and Ms McDonnell $50,000 in May of 2011?

A No I didn't know that.

Q At the time of the event, were you aware that Mr Williams had given $15,000 for the McDonnells' child's wedding in May of 2011?

A No. I did not know that

Q At the time of the event, were you aware that Mr McDonnell had vacationed at Mr Williams' home in Smith Mountain Lake in late July, 2011?

A No, I did not know that

Q Last one on this subject: At the time of the event, were you aware that Mr Williams had paid for multiple rounds of golf for Mr McDonnell and his children in 2011?

A No, did I not know that

MR. FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR FAULCONER: Thank you, Your Honor No further questions

THE COURT: All right Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Good morning, sir My name is John Brownlee I'm an attorney for Bob McDonnell and I just have a few questions for you this morning

Now, you indicated that when you received the invitation to come to this lunch, that you had been at UVA about six months; is that correct?

A That is correct

Q Okay And you were essentially a fill-in, is that right? There was somebody else, I believe her name was Peggy Shupnik, who was perhaps supposed to attend and she had another meeting or something and so they asked you to go kind of in her place; is that right?

A As I understood it, actually, Ron Turner, who is the Associate Dean for Clinical Research, was the number one person. He was on service He is a clinician who was on service Peggy Shupnik also was unavailable So they sent me

Q Okay And now, were you aware that Ms Shupnik had gone a week or so prior, a few weeks prior to an event at Gibson Island with Star Scientific?

A I did not know that at the time I subsequently found out, but I did not know that at the time

Q You didn't go to that, did you?

A No, sir

Q I think as Mr Faulconer said, before you got this you had never heard of Star Scientific

A That is correct

Q Okay So once you got this invitation, I think you said you looked up the anatabine on the Internet and did some, a little basic research or something?

A So I'm a pharmacologist, so I study drugs and substances I thought it might be a good idea if I knew a little bit about what we were -- what the product was So I did do a quick, what we call a MEDLINE search to look up the peer literature on it

Q I think you said after that review that Star sounded to you like a scientific company; is that fair?

A Well, I don't know if I thought it was a scientific company So I'm not sure, I looked up, I didn't actually look up Star Scientific, I looked up the composition of their product I'm not sure I made a judgment on what Star Scientific was other than "scientific" was in its name

Q Fair enough So you then agreed to attend, and I believe you received an invitation, and we have seen the invitation Did the actual e-mail with this invitation at some point come from Ms Sutherland?

A Yes. I believe that it came directly from her There was a little bit of confusion when I originally responded that I would attend. Apparently, my e-mail wasn't properly received, so there were a couple of e-mails coming from Dr Turner and other people that said, "Are you going?" And I said, "Yes " So I believe, it is certainly on the e-mail, it said her name And that's who I thought it came from.

Q Okay Did you remember meeting Ms Sutherland?

A No, I don't believe I met her. But she may have been at the luncheon. I just don't remember meeting her

Q You weren't aware at that time that she was negotiating for a job with Mr Williams at Star?

A No

Q Okay And you mentioned that once you got to the event, at some point you sat down at the lunch table, and I believe you said that some folks, some scientists or doctors, spoke. Do you remember one of them being Paul Ladenson?

A I think so I think that's correct

Q And he was the doctor from Johns Hopkins?

A Yes That is correct

Q Okay And he seemed legitimate to you at the meeting? Being from --

A Well, seems legitimate? I guess he is a peer professor So he is at Hopkins So I thought that he was certainly an individual who was worth listening to

Q Fair to say Johns Hopkins is a world-renowned medical institution?

A Yes As an alum, I have to say yes

Q Very well Now, did you know at that time that Dr Ladenson was being paid by Star to be at that event?

A No, I did not know that

Q Now, at some point, you said that Mr McDonnell came in. And when he spoke, I think you said that he asked for some of the thoughts from the audience; is that correct?

A That is correct

Q Then he asked some questions regarding the validity of this product, I think is what you said; is that right?

A I think, again I'm not quite sure I have the exact phraseology, but my impression was that he asked, you know, did this sound like it was something that was exciting and something that would be worth investigating further

A I'm not sure he would have said "validity " That wouldn't be a word that would ring true to what I think somebody would say

Q Okay Did his questions seem to be pretty good questions and thoughtful questions?

A Yes I actually thought they were appropriate for a Governor, and were thoughtful I was actually pretty impressed by the fact that the Governor cared what I thought

Q Okay Now, Governor McDonnell, was the only time you spoke to him when he, or listened to him, when he was at the lunch table?

A Yes And if I spoke with him at all as I left, it was a very brief handshake and just to say hello So that's the only time I've ever heard him speak.

Q He didn't come up to you and grab your arm, pull you to the corner, and say, "Listen, I really want you to go research this stuff"?

A No

Q Okay And I think you have testified you have never spoken to Bob McDonnell again; is that correct?

A No.

Q I believe you spoke very briefly about what you called research, the principles about the integrity of research; is that correct? You mentioned that in your prior testimony?

A I think the question was asked of me about transparency, and I said that, you know, one of the core principles, I think all of us at research institutions need to maintain is to be sure that we are transparent As you are saying, obviously, I think there has to be integrity with respect to what we do.

Q And nothing Bob McDonnell said, in your opinion, would violate any of those research principles, correct?

MR. FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: No, he can answer that Go ahead

THE WITNESS: Could you repeat the question?

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Nothing Bob McDonnell said would have violated any of those research principles, correct?

A No

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Mr Starnes, if I could impose Could you pull up Government's Exhibit 213?

213, Your Honor This has been admitted by the government If you would go to the prior page, sir, and if you could blow up that bottom part

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Sir, this is the e-mail that is kind of getting the invitation to UVA that you ultimately responded to And down at the bottom it says "Mary-Shea Sutherland," correct?

A That is correct

Q All right And then above that it says "Jerri Fulkerson "

Were you aware that Ms Fulkerson worked for Star?

A No, I didn't know that I was looking over this the other day, and I still didn't -- I didn't know that No

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: And if you scroll down -- or up, sir, a little bit If you stop there

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q It says, "Ron, Attached is the official invitation Mr Williams said he would be most appreciative "

So the invitation appears to be coming from Mr Williams? Yes?

A I'm sorry?

Q This is from Mr Williams forwarding this, or he's involved with this with Ms Fulkerson?

A I'm sorry I'm -- I don't quite understand your question

Q Bad question I withdraw it My apologies

A I mean, this is -- I said earlier I thought Ron was the primary person, in part This said that --

Q Exactly

A -- Mr Williams would like Ron to try to be there

Q Okay And then last lastly, obviously, Governor -- you've never had a conversation with Governor McDonnell about his finances or his mortgage, his loans, anything like that; is that correct?

A That is correct

MR BROWNLEE: Okay Thank you very much for your time

THE COURT: Ms McDonnell

MR HAUSS: Very briefly, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR HAUSS:

Q Good morning How are you?

A I'll be good in a little while

Q This will be very quick

I just wanted to go over very briefly Ms McDonnell's remarks at the event You indicated that she basically stood up and welcomed you and thanked you for coming; is that correct?

A That is correct

Q And then after everyone went around and introduced themselves, she made a few brief remarks; is that right?

A That is correct At least that's my recollection The -- it could be that she made the brief remarks and then we introduced ourselves So I'm not positive of the timing But both of those things happened

Q Great And as to those brief remarks, do you recall her explaining that she believed in natural products and believed that society was not using enough of them?

A Yeah I -- I -- I remember her standing up I'm not quite sure whether she used the word "natural products," which is a word I would use, or if she was talking about things from nature or nutritional material But I do remember her standing up and extolling the virtues of using materials that come from nature

Q Would you say that the gist of her remarks was less about a product needing a supplier and more about a philosophy or a way of life?

A Yeah I mean, I thought it -- it -- the introductory remarks were really a philosophical statement of this is a good way to live And that was the impression I got

Q So was the general impression that we all should be joyful? We're going back to mother nature

A Well, I'm not sure I'd phrase it that way But I think that the gist of it was that there are good things in nature, and we should try to take advantage of those I'm not quite sure how to phrase it, but that was the gist of it

MR HAUSS: Great Thank you

Nothing further, Your Honor

THE COURT: Anything else from the government?

MR FAULCONER: Yes, Your Honor

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Just briefly, Dr Lazo You were asked a little bit about the conversations that you had with Ms Krueger afterwards

Do you remember political involvement coming up in your conversation with Ms Krueger?

A I think when we were talking about the fact that the Governor and the Governor's wife were there, I think, again, at this sort of high level -- and in my conversations with her, this is now the November conversation, not the conversation in the car

Again, transparency is a very important thing And I think another important thing for a university is to be apolitical and to try not to have any influence or -- you know, that you should be -- the science should drive the science

Q And was that something you spent time discussing with Ms Krueger?

A Well, I think we -- we -- we did talk a little bit about the -- the -- the fact that the luncheon was in the Governor's Mansion

MR FAULCONER: And if we could briefly just pull up Exhibit 216, Page 2, which has been admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Dr Lazo, do you see Jonnie Williams' name on this invitation anywhere?

A No, I do not

Q Do you see Jerri Fulkerson's name on this invitation?

A No, I do not

MR FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

Thank you, Doctor You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: Call your next witness

MS ABER: The United States calls Mary-Shea Sutherland

MARY-SHEA SUTHERLAND,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government,

having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Good morning, Ms Sutherland

A Good morning

Q Please state your name, and spell it for the court reporter

A Mary-Shea Sutherland Mary, M-A-R-Y Shea, S-H-E-A Sutherland, S-U-T-H-E-R-L-A-N-D

Q Is there a hyphen between Mary and Shea?

A I put it in there now It's not on my birth certificate.

Q Okay In what city and state do you reside?

A Richmond, Virginia

Q And tell the jury how you're currently employed

A I am -- I'm self-employed I have contracts doing event work

Q Did you previously work in the administration of Robert McDonnell?

A I did

Q Okay Can you tell the jury about the capacity in which you worked there?

A I served in his personal staff as Chief of Staff to the First Lady

Q Tell us a little bit about how you ended up getting that job What led you to that point?

A The company I had previously worked for had done fundraising during the Governor's campaign when he ran for Attorney General And when he won, I planned the inaugural events and got to know the First Lady, the Governor, and the family at that point

I was not involved in his campaign for Governor And when he was elected, I assisted with the soon-to-be First Lady in inaugural plans, what she would wear, that type of thing

Q We'll get to that

Prior to all this, did you work in any other gubinatorial administrations?

A I worked for Governor George Allen, Governor Jim Gilmore

Q When were you officially hired to be Ms McDonnell's Chief of Staff?

A My start date was January -- it was the Monday after he was sworn in

Q Okay Fair to say you're right there at the beginning --

A Yes

Q -- of the administration?

Can you tell the jury what a Chief of Staff to the

First Lady does? What were your job duties?

A It's a position that evolves Different First Ladies had different needs So this one was more running her office, doing scheduling At the time, it didn't include speech writing, but it developed into some speech writing, coordinating with the Governor's staff, working with the Mansion staff, traveling with her It was a variety of things

Q Is it fair to say that as the Chief of Staff to the First Lady, you are a -- an employee of the Commonwealth of Virginia?

A Correct

Q And when you worked in the Governor's Mansion, to whom did you report?

A Officially report? That would be to the Governor's Chief of Staff

Q And what was his name?

A Martin Kent

Q Okay So you took direction from Ms McDonnell, but technically your boss was Martin Kent?

A Correct Well, technically, I guess the boss would be the Governor, but --

Q Okay Now, were you the only staff member in the Governor's Mansion?

A No

Q Tell the jury a little bit about how many folks worked there and what, generally, their jobs were

A Well, you had staff that had been there for a while The butler had been there through, I believe, eight governors You had a full-time housekeeper She had been there for several governors

And then we had a staff We had a Mansion director and an -- kind of an executive assistant in the early days, and then that staff expanded

Q Okay So were there other staff members who took direction from Ms McDonnell? Were there other assistants?

A At the time I was there?

Q Yes, ma'am

A There were -- it was myself, Sarah and Alex So there were really just three of us in the staff position The others were Department of General Services

Q And "Sarah," do you mean Sarah Scarbrough?

A Yeah, Sarah Scarbrough

Q And what was her title?

A Mansion director

Q And Alex Who is Alex?

A Alex Stanley She was our second administrative assistant We had one that was only there a few months

Q Okay Now, I'd like to turn your attention back to the end of 2009 Even though you were not formally Ms McDonnell's Chief of Staff, did you assist in the planning for the inauguration?

A Some I was not on the Inaugural Committee, but -- so in an unofficial -- I had planned inaugurals before I had done George Allen's inaugural So I had experience

Q So what were you doing in this time period for the McDonnells?

A We were talking about, you know, how to shape her events, what the First Lady's lunch would look like, schedules, what she would need to wear to the variety of events

Q And for those of us who haven't been to an inauguration, is this a singular event or are there several events?

A No There are multiple They are spread out usually over the course of the week Typically, you would do something in Southwest Virginia, something in the Tidewater area The swearing in is in Richmond, although Governor Kaine was sworn in in Williamsburg due to construction of the Capitol

There are lunches There are sponsor dinners And then there's usually the big ball, and that's usually the night of the swearing in

Q Is it fair to say that -- that a lot of clothes are needed for all these various events?

A Yes

Q And was Ms McDonnell, at the time, concerned about her apparel for these events?

A Well, she wanted to look appropriate for all of the events So yes

Q Did there come a point in time when you heard that Jonnie Williams was going to purchase Ms McDonnell an inauguration dress?

A I heard about a dress I don't remember at what point his name was brought into it But there was going to be a designer dress purchased for her later on into -- multiple conversations about the ball gown At one point during one of those conversations, I was told who the donor was

Q So you were not around when Mr Williams agreed to pay for the dress --

A No

Q -- or made any offers?

A No

Q Was it your understanding that at some point in time Ms McDonnell was told, "No This won't work Mr Williams cannot buy you a dress"?

A Yes

Q What did Ms McDonnell tell you was the reason why

Mr Williams couldn't do that?

A Because she wouldn't be allowed to keep the dress

Q She could only --

A If it were brought for her for the inaugural, she would have to donate it or give it away

Q What was Ms McDonnell's reaction to this information?

A She didn't like it She was unhappy She wanted to be able to keep the dress and wasn't pleased with the staffer who told her that

Q And who was the staffer who told her that?

A I believe it was Jasen Eige

Q Was this a singular event at which Ms McDonnell expressed her unhappiness or did you hear about it more than once?

A We talked a lot about the dress

Q Were you, nevertheless, involved in Ms McDonnell's subsequent purchase of a gown for the inaugural ball?

A Yes I took her We went to Tiffany's Bridal and found a beautiful dress

Q Okay

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up for identification Government Exhibit 58, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, Ms Sutherland, fair to say we're going to go through a lot of documents Have you had an opportunity to look at all of these before you came to court today?

A Yes

Q Okay Do you recognize this as an e-mail chain between you and Phil Cox in January of 2010?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd like to move Government Exhibit 58 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q All right Let's start at the bottom of Page 1, please I'm going to -- for the sake of speeding this along, Ms Sutherland, I'm going to read some of this to you and ask you if it's accurate. Mr Cox writes, "Mary-Shea, The Governor-elect called this morning to ask for reimbursement on dresses Per our conversation from two weeks ago, I need you to let me know the total so I can cut a check today and police up the receipts for our records "

Is it fair to say that you were dealing with Mr Cox -- well, first of all, did I read that right?

A Yes

Q Okay Is it fair to say you were dealing with Mr Cox in reference to getting reimbursement on all of the gubinatorial inauguration outfits?

A Yeah I had kept ahold of all the receipts so they wouldn't get lost

Q All right

MS ABER: And scrolling up

BY MS ABER:

Q You respond, in part, on the first paragraph, that "These are on my card"; that being the shoes to replace a pair that was lost last weekend "Do you need original receipts or just a total and faxed copies?"

Did I read that right?

A Yes

Q Okay Why -- why are you putting things on your card for the inauguration?

A The -- Maureen's card, one of the cards that she was using, was maxed out

Q We're talking about credit cards?

A Credit -- sorry Yes, credit cards

Q Okay

MS ABER: And scrolling up one more, please, Ms Taylor

BY MS ABER:

Q Mr Cox indicates that "you are balancing a lot right now and spending a lot of time with Maureen in addition to Vegas "

Did I read that right?

A Yes

Q What things were you balancing, specifically?

A I work every January for the Consumer Electronics Association and do their VIP events So that was at the time I was out there working on all of that

Q Okay

MS ABER: You can take that down

A I was not on vacation

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, when did you actually begin formally working as Ms McDonnell's Chief of Staff? What date did you give?

A I think it was January 18th. It was the Monday after all of the inaugural activities

Q And who actually offered you the job?

A I dealt mostly with Martin Kent

Q Did Mr McDonnell at all call you during the hiring process?

A Yes

Q And what did he say to you?

A I had been a little concerned about not being a part of his original team and coming in as an outsider And he called me one evening, close to Christmas, to assure me that he wanted me in that position and that Maureen wanted me It was a very friendly call

Q Did he say anything to you about his expectations for you in this position as Ms McDonnell's Chief of Staff?

A We had -- we had gone over what the job might entail, and I asked him, as I've done in other interviews, "How would you define success?"

And he said, "When I come home to a happy wife "

Q As a side note here, have you ever heard Ms McDonnell referred to as FLOVA?

A Yes

Q What does that stand for?

A First Lady of Virginia

Q Okay Changing subjects once again I think we talked about Mr Williams once in reference to the inaugural gown Was that the first time in that process, was that the first time that you had ever heard of Jonnie Williams?

A No The fundraising company I had worked for, his company had, at times, sponsored, you know, a table at an event or a golf foursome for a fundraiser So I was familiar with the name

Q Is it fair to say, in your prior experience, you had known him as sort of a Republican donor?

A Correct

Q Now, when did you first meet Mr Williams in person?

A That I can be sure of, it was on the shopping trip in the spring of 2011 There's a possibility I would have met him at a Republican event at some point, but I don't really recall that

Q Now, the spring of 2011 Is it accurate that that's the second year of Mr McDonnell's administration?

A Yes

Q And did you take a trip to New York City with Ms McDonnell in April of 2011?

A Yes

Q How did you travel to there?

A Private plane

Q And who was on the plane with you?

A The First Lady, the Governor, one of the members from the security detail I was on; Adam, the Governor's travel aide There were probably one or two other people on the plane

Q Was Mr Williams on the plane?

A No

Q Why was Ms -- excuse me Why was Mr McDonnell going to New York?

A Official business

Q Tell the jury exactly what was going on that week

A It had something to do with economic development I don't -- I wasn't participating in the meetings So I couldn't tell you who he was meeting with up there But it was an official trip

Q So he had a trip planned Why was Ms McDonnell tagging along?

A Because at -- we were going to do some shopping, looking for a mother-of-the-bride dress Her daughter was getting married And there was an event that night that was a Political Action Committee event, and she was going to be attending that as well

Q Before we start talking about Mr Williams and the shopping, was the plan always, before Mr Williams entered the picture, to have Ms McDonnell go shopping in New York to look for outfits for the wedding, or was that precipitated by Mr Williams making whatever offers we're going to discuss?

A We had -- we were desperately looking for a mother-of-the-bride dress, and going to New York made the most sense

Q Okay

A So --

Q So did you join Ms McDonnell on any shopping that occurred during New York City --

A Yes

Q -- while in New York City?

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up what has been admitted as Government Exhibit 99, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Is it fair to say that this is an e-mail exchange between you, Ms Monica Block, and the First Lady?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: Let's go down to the bottom, please, Ms Taylor

BY MS ABER:

Q Is it accurate that this bottom e-mail of 99 sort of summarizes the plans for your New York City trip?

A It's close It doesn't happen exactly that way

Q Okay Did you, in fact, meet Mr Williams on April 13th, the day following this e-mail?

A I believe so

Q And --

A I mean, I know we met him As for the date, I --

Q Okay Let's start with where did you meet him?

A In the entrance to Bergdorf Goodman This says that he was suggesting we meet at his hotel But we did not We met him at the department store

Q And what happened once you got there?

A We did some shopping We had lunch

Q Okay So it's you, Mr Williams, and Ms McDonnell?

A Correct

Q Anyone else?

A The security detail was comfortable with me being with her, so they stayed in the car

Q And when you say you did some shopping, is Mr Williams present for the shopping?

A Yes

Q And did Mr Williams pay for whatever was purchased at Bergdorf Goodman?

A Yes

Q What was Ms McDonnell's demeanor during the shopping trip?

A She was having a great time

Q Did you all have lunch together?

A We did

Q And who was at the lunch?

A The three of us: Ms McDonnell, Jonnie Williams, and myself

Q Did Ms McDonnell say anything about her opinions on this shopping trip to Mr Williams?

A She went into what she was looking for, you know the occasions, and -- I'm sorry Can you repeat the question?

Q Sure Terrible question

Did Ms McDonnell, at this lunch, say anything about her -- her opinion -- well, did Ms -- excuse me, Your Honor

Did Ms McDonnell say anything to Mr Williams about whether she could keep the dresses?

A Yes

Q What did she say?

A It's paraphrasing It's been a couple years But this was actually better than getting the inaugural dress because she could keep these

Q Did you do any shopping after lunch?

A Yes

Q And where did you all go?

A We shopped all day

Q Okay What other stores did you go to?

A Louis Vuitton We went to Oscar de la Renta Earlier in the day, we had gone to a bridal salon to see if they had things He was not with us at that part

Q So day one, what was your reaction to Mr Williams purchasing these items for Ms McDonnell?

A That he was very generous

Q Were you surprised?

A A little But, you know, if he was going to buy an Oscar de la Renta original as an inaugural gown, you know, buying other dresses wasn't out of line

Q Did you know, on your way to New York, that Mr Williams was going to foot the bill for all the shopping?

A No

Q And when did you first figure that out?

A When he was talking about buying a dress for her

Q Okay

MS ABER: You can take that down, Ms Taylor

BY MS ABER:

Q Okay After that first day of shopping, did you go to anything that night?

A Yes It was the PAC event

MS ABER: Let's bring up Government Exhibit 97, please

And that's already been admitted, Your Honor

BY MS ABER:

Q Is it accurate that this is an e-mail between you, Ms McDonnell, and Ms Block in reference to that PAC event?

A Yes

MS ABER: Let's turn to Page 2, please

BY MS ABER:

Q So with whom did you go to the Union League Club event?

A I would have traveled with the official party: The Governor, First Lady, EPU Whatever staff was there

Q Did you bring anyone with you?

A I had a friend meet me there

Q Who was that?

A Jim Abel He's a gentleman that I've worked with for years and decorates for my big events

Q Is that his line of work? He's an event --

A Yeah His company is James Abel Events

Q Now, when you were at the event; that is, the Union League event, did you and Mr Abel speak to anyone?

A Yes

Q To whom did you speak?

A Well, he said hello to the First Lady They had met before And we were standing there talking, and I introduced him to Mr Williams I mean, it would have been awkward not to

Q Okay So Mr Williams was at the Union League event?

A Yes

Q And so were Mr and Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q And you brought Mr Abel?

A Well, he met me there

Q Okay

MS ABER: Let's bring up Government Exhibit 101, Your Honor I think the defense version of this has been admitted, but I will move 101 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MS ABER: Thank you

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, Ms Sutherland, this e-mail makes reference, on the bottom there, to -- well, let me back up

This is an e-mail from Mr Abel to Mr Williams, carbon copying you; is that right?

A Correct

Q Okay And it says there that you and Mr Abel had a wonderful dinner brainstorming about your launch event

First question How long did you and Mr Abel stick around the Union League event?

A We stayed until the cocktail part ended And then I got the First Lady and Mr Williams up to where the dinner was going to be held, made sure they got in okay, and then Jim and I left

Q And how long, approximately, were you speaking with Mr Williams before you and Mr Abel left?

A Not long You know, 15 minutes or so

Q Okay So fair to say that you and Mr Abel proceed on to a separate dinner?

A Yes

Q Okay When you're saying you're talking about "your launch event," what launch event were you talking about?

A The -- Jim, Mr Abel, had talked with Mr Williams about, you know, when you first meet someone, what do you do, what do you do Jim had told him what he did He said, "Well, I'm getting ready to do a series of product launches Send me your information " They exchanged cards

Q Did Mr Williams or you or Mr Abel raise the idea of having an Anatabloc launch at the Governor's Mansion?

A No

Q What kinds of launches were we talking about?

A The kind you do in a hotel ballroom or private event space

Q And, in fact, at that point, that is, April of 2011, did you even know that there would ever be a Mansion -- an event at the Governor's Mansion --

A No

Q -- for Anatabloc?

A No

Q Not even in your mind?

A No

Q Okay So day two in New York Did you and Ms McDonnell continue shopping?

A Yes

Q Was Mr Williams with you?

A No, he was not

Q What stores did you go to?

A We went, very early, to a store called Century 21

Q Uh-huh

A It's a discount department store And then we went back to Oscar de la Renta, and we might have gone to Lord & Taylor, but that could have been on a different trip

Q Did Ms McDonnell make any comments about what had been purchased by Mr Williams?

A Well, we had found the mother-of-the-bride dress So she was pleased about that

And then we went back to Oscar de la Renta She had seen a dress the day before that wasn't in her size, and so they had to get it from another store So she went back there to try it on

Q Was Ms McDonnell also looking for a dress for her 35th wedding anniversary party?

A That was the dress we want back to look at at Oscar de la Renta

Q Now, during the shopping trip, did Mr Williams buy anything for you?

A He did

Q Tell the jury how that came about

A We were -- I was helping the First Lady, as I did with most of her shopping trips, in and out of the dressing room, bringing different things in and out and different sizes and zipping and unzipping And Mr Williams, at some point during all of this, said, you know, "We should get you a dress too "

And I said, "No No No " Argued with him a couple times And he brought a couple things back that he thought I'd like, and they really weren't my style

And he kept insisting, and he brought a dress back and he said, "Just, you know, placate me Try it on " And he told me, he said, you know, "I'm a father of two daughters When I buy for one, I like to buy something for the other "

It was starting to become a scene, and it was easier to accept the dress than to continue fighting about it

MS ABER: Your Honor, I -- if I may have a moment Your Honor, I'd like to show the witness what has been marked as Government Exhibit 633, please

THE COURT: All right

BY MS ABER:

Q Ms Sutherland, take a look at that, please, and tell the jury if that's the dress that Mr Williams purchased for you in New York City?

A It is

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd like to move 633 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, Ms Sutherland, can you tell the jury, are the tags still on it?

A They are

Q What does the tag say the price was for that dress?

A I'd have to dig it out It's --

Q I think it's on the far --

A -- 16 and change

Q When you say "16 and change," do you mean $1,600 --

A Yes

Q -- and change?

Have you ever worn that dress?

A No It's never come out of the packaging

Q Is it accurate that you voluntarily produced that to the government yesterday?

A I offered it to the FBI the first time I met with them

Q All right

MS ABER: Let's look at Government Exhibit 30-A, please, which has not been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this a photograph of two dresses and a blue jacket purchased in New York City?

A Yes

MS ABER: All right Your Honor, I'd move 30-A into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q So, Ms Sutherland, these are items that Mr Williams purchased for Ms McDonnell while on the shopping trip?

A To be very clear, one dress and the jacket were purchased When we got back to Richmond, the First Lady was uncomfortable with the sizing of one dress and asked for the second one in a different size

Q Is it your understanding that Mr Williams also paid for the second identical dress?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: Government Exhibit 521, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, Ms Sutherland, have you had an opportunity to look at this picture and, actually, this full magazine prior to coming to court?

A Yes

Q And does that depict a picture of Mr and Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd like to move in 521, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Ms Sutherland, do you recognize what dress Ms McDonnell is wearing in that picture?

A It's the dress she wore as mother-of-the-bride that

Mr Williams purchased at Bergdorf Goodman

Q And is it fair to say, prior to coming to court, you saw this was the full magazine? This is the front page of a magazine?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: Government Exhibit 29-A, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Do you recognize this picture?

A I do

Q And what is it?

A It's the coat purchased from Oscar de la Renta

Q By Mr Williams?

A Yes

MS ABER: I'd like to move 29-A into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Do you remember where this dress was purchased? If you don't, that's okay

A It's the coat still

Q Oh, excuse me Do you remember where this coat was purchased?

A At Oscar de la Renta

Q Okay

MS ABER: 28-A, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this another dress that Mr Williams purchased for Ms McDonnell?

A No It's a raincoat

Q Raincoat Gotcha

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd move 28-A into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q And turning to Page 2, the close-up Where was this coat purchased?

A At Louis Vuitton

MS ABER: 36-A, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this a pair of shoes that Mr McDonnell purchased for Ms McDonnell -- Mr Williams purchased for Ms McDonnell?

A Yes, to go with the mother-of-the-bride dress

MS ABER: I'd like to move 36-A into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q And where were these shoes purchased?

A At the Louis Vuitton store

MS ABER: 37-A, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Another pair of shoes from Louis Vuitton?

A Correct

MS ABER: I'd like to move 37-A into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MS ABER: And now 32-A, please

BY MS ABER:

Q What is this?

A It's the purse that Mr Williams bought for the First Lady at the Louis Vuitton store

MS ABER: I'll move 32-A into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Did you ever see Ms McDonnell wear this purse, carry it?

A Yes

Q How often?

A Frequently

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up 31-A, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Do you recognize this dress?

A I do

Q What is it?

A It's a metallic threaded knit dress from Oscar de la Renta

MS ABER: I'd like to move 31-A into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MS ABER: Excuse me One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MS ABER: And finally, 8-A please, Your Honor

BY MS ABER:

Q Do you recognize this picture?

A It's a sweater that was purchased at Oscar de la Renta

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd move 8-A into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS. ABER:

Q Now, to be clear, Ms Sutherland, we've looked at a lot of pictures Did Mr Williams purchase all of these items for Ms McDonnell in April of 2011 in New York, aside from the blue dress that came later?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, when you all returned from New York to Richmond, how did you travel back?

A By private plane

Q And who was on the plane?

A Governor, First Lady, me, Adam, whoever from EPU was traveling, and whoever else was on the plane I just don't recall the other passengers

Q Okay But both Mr and Ms McDonnell were on the plane?

A Yes

Q All right When you get back to Richmond, did you tell anyone about Mr Williams' purchases for Ms McDonnell?

A I believe I shared with Sarah Scarbrough --

Q Okay

A -- that we had found the mother-of-the-bride dress

Q Did you tell anyone else, "Gosh, Mr " -- "Mr Williams bought Ms McDonnell all this" -- "all these clothes"?

A I told my husband. He wasn't -- he didn't understand the significance of the boutiques we had been in So -- for anyone who is interested in fashion, to walk in to Oscar de la Renta is very -- very special

MR BURCK: Objection, Your Honor Just on the prior question, I think that the witness did not answer that she knew -- she had informed Ms Scarbrough that Jonnie Williams had purchased the dress And then the question that was asked by Ms Aber assumed that; that she had informed the -- Ms Scarbrough of that So I just would ask that the question be clarified

THE COURT: All right You want to --

MS ABER: I will clarify

BY MS ABER:

Q Who did you tell Jonnie Williams bought clothes for Ms McDonnell, if anyone? And if you didn't, tell them that too

A I don't recall if I told who paid for it I do recall saying we found the mother-of-the-bride dress

Q Why didn't you tell anyone that Mr Williams had paid for these items?

A Because she liked to keep things private

Q And who is "she"?

A Oh The First Lady, Maureen

Q And why do you say that?

A She didn't want other people knowing her business

Q Did you have an understanding at this time about whether you were supposed to be keeping track of Ms McDonnell's gifts?

A I kept track of things that would be considered gifts for the Governor An example is we had gone to The Nutcracker And the tickets, I made sure, got -- the value given to his secretary So that type of gift log

Q Okay Now, at this point -- and I mean spring of '11 -- you have been Ms McDonnell's Chief of Staff for approximately 16 months; is that right?

A January -- 12 -- 14 months or so

Q Okay How was it going thus far?

A It was stressful

Q Why was that?

A The First Lady was a little difficult to -- to work for

Q Did Ms McDonnell often, in your experience, speak to you in a raised voice?

A Frequently

Q Did there ever come a time when the protection unit came to check in on you because of the yelling?

A Yes A couple times

Q Tell the jury about that

A There were instances where I was in her office and the yelling and screaming had gotten loud enough that it went through to the next room where the protection detail had their offices And at least two occasions, they came out to see if I was all right

Q Did you observe Ms McDonnell behaving in the same manner in front of other staff members?

A Yes

Q So it wasn't just to you?

A No

Q How often did Ms McDonnell text you?

A Constantly

Q How often did she call you?

A All the time

Q So even when you're not at work at the Mansion, was she trying to contact you?

A It was not unusual that I would get home and would have talked to her on my drive home and then once home, preparing dinner, get a call Get a call an hour later or get a call before -- I mean, I go to bed early So I finally told her, I said, "At 10:00, I can't respond to you I've turned my phone off I'm going to bed "

Q Were there times when you woke up in the morning and found that she had tried to contact you overnight?

A There would be some text messages

Q Are you aware of whether she tried to contact other staff members in the same fashion?

A Yes

Q Okay What do you know about that?

A They would, you know, be upset about the amount and sometimes what was said on them And I told them the same thing I did, "Turn your phone off It's 10:00 at night Turn it back on in the morning There's nothing we can't handle the next day "

Q Did you ever tell anyone about these issues with Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Okay Who did you tell?

A Mostly Martin Kent

Q And did you ever speak to the Governor about your -- the issues in the Mansion?

A One time

Q Tell the jury about that

A It had been a particularly ugly day at the Mansion, and most of the First Lady's anger was directed at Sarah Scarbrough It had to deal with reimbursement receipts And I had called Martin and said, "I need to see you " And Martin and I had an understanding that if I said I needed to see him, he made time for me

And I went over there and was waiting to go into his office And the Governor came out and saw me sitting there, and I think he could see that I was visibly upset And he asked me to come in and sit with him in his office and asked what was going on And I -- I caged it -- you know, I didn't go into all of the details, but I let him know that there had been a lot of screaming and yelling and she was very angry and it was very difficult for us staff people

And he was very kind and sat there with me and reassured me that we were doing a good job and asked that we try and understand that the First Lady had had a difficult year and was trying to get used to her job and that her father had recently died

And I pushed back a little on him on that, and I told him that my mother had recently been killed in a car accident and my father had died five months later and I never treated anybody the way she treated us

Q So at this time, had you started seeking employment elsewhere?

A Yes I was letting a variety of contacts know that I would not be staying there

Q Is it fair is to say you were sort of sending out feelers, but not anything formal?

A Correct

Q And when would you say that started?

A I let the woman that I had been employed by just before taking the job, I let her know within a couple months of taking the job that I had made a big mistake

Q But nevertheless, you remained at the Mansion working for Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, during your time working for Ms McDonnell -- let me ask you, how -- how close were you and Ms McDonnell? I mean, were you just -- was she just the boss or were you friends or how would you characterize your relationship?

A We were close I mean, she shared a lot with me When you spend a lot of time together, you develop a relationship And we had had, you know, the startings of a relationship prior to taking the job We were, you know, close in age

Q Now, during your time working in the Mansion, did Ms McDonnell ever discuss their personal finances with you?

A Yes

Q And what, if anything, did she say about their finances?

A That they were buried in debt

Q Did the McDonnells keep their personal home out in Glen Allen when they moved to the Mansion?

A Yes The First Lady was insistent She did not want her house sold

Q Did Ms --

A She wanted to move home there

Q Did Ms McDonnell ever talk about the mortgages on that house?

A A little

Q And what did she say?

A That, you know, they -- they would never be able to sell it for what they owed on it, but she wanted to keep the house She loved that house

Q Did Ms McDonnell ever mention beach houses?

A Yes

Q What did she say?

A That they had two beach properties in the -- down in Sandbrige, a small house on the beach side, and then a bigger one that they had recently done some renovations to on the opposite side of the road

Q Did she say anything about how the rental income compared to the expenses related to the homes?

A That they weren't matching up They weren't getting enough renters

Q Now, going forward So after April of '11, moving forward in time, how often did you see Mr Williams at the Mansion?

A Through the course of the summer Without -- maybe -- maybe once a week or every other week I'd have to check the visitor logs, but he was a frequent visitor

Q Did you have access to Ms McDonnell's calendar?

A Yes

Q And was her calendar kept electronically in Microsoft Outlook?

A Yes On both my computer and hers

Q Could you add events to Ms McDonnell's calendar?

A Yes

Q Did you ever put an event on Ms McDonnell's calendar without her consent?

A No I mean, I might have put something on there and then told her, "I was asked to add this by the Governor's Office " And we had color coding for different events, if it was something she was going to with the Governor or if it was something she was doing alone or if it was a speech event There were different color codes

Q Now, in reference to Mr Williams coming to the Mansion, were those the kinds of events that you'd put on the Outlook calendar or were they more spontaneous?

A Depending on if it was planned ahead I mean, if somebody, you know, called and said, "I'm coming down," you know, I would alert the guardhouse But it wouldn't necessarily just get on the calendar

Q Now, did -- did Ms McDonnell ever say anything to you indicating that she was interested in Mr Williams romantically?

A No

Q Did you ever see anything, did you ever observe anything between Mr Williams and Ms McDonnell --

A No

Q -- to suggest -- let me finish my question -- to suggest there was anything romantic going on?

A No

MS ABER: Let's bring up Government Exhibit 34-A, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Do you recognize this dress?

A It's a yellow dress

Q And do you know anything else about it other than its color?

A It was sent to the First Lady It was not part of the shopping trip She had told Mr Williams that she was looking for a yellow dress

Q Let me stop you there

MS ABER: I'd like to move 34-A into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Why did Ms McDonnell tell Mr Williams that she was specifically looking for a yellow dress?

A It went back to when she and the Governor were first a couple, and she said that he had fallen in love with her in yellow

Q Was there -- was Ms McDonnell on a search to find a yellow dress?

A We had -- on a number of our shopping trips, we had looked at yellow dresses

Q In this time period -- and by "this time period" I mean 2011 -- did Ms McDonnell ever say anything about -- well, actually, let me back up

In your observations of Mr and Ms McDonnell, did they appear to be romantically interested in one another?

A To my eye, yes

Q Did Ms McDonnell ever say anything about a poem that Mr McDonnell had written to her?

A She told me that he had written her a poem, and let me read it

Q Without being too crass, is it fair to say it was romantic in nature?

A It was lovely

Q And when, roughly, do you think that was?

A I don't remember whether it was Valentine's Day or her birth -- it was an occasion

Q In 2011?

A Yes

Q Did you ever observe the frequency with which Mr and Ms McDonnell had meals together at the Mansion?

A We tried -- the scheduling team tried to put them together for lunch at least once a week, tried to put the -- make sure that he was home for dinner, even if he had to go back to work It was something we made a concerted effort to do It didn't always work, but, you know, we tried to schedule those times

Q Was that your idea or was that something that came from Ms McDonnell?

A It might have been a group effort, trying to make sure that they had time together But, you know, she had expressed wanting to see him more

Q Now, turning your attention to the month after the New York City shopping, so the end of May 2011, did you accompany Ms McDonnell on a trip to Sarasota, Florida?

A Yes

Q And what was the purpose of that trip?

A To go down to see and meet with the researchers who were doing all of the work on Mr Williams' Anatabloc product

Q Was it your idea to go to Sarasota?

A No

Q Whose idea was it?

A Mr Williams invited -- I believe he invited both the Governor and First Lady But it was his invitation

Q And why did you go along?

A She -- well, I usually accompanied her on most trips, and it was, you know, part of the job

Q How did you get to the Roskamp Institute?

A Mr Williams' plane

Q So who's on the plane with you?

A The First Lady, me, a member of our protective detail, Mr Williams' son, and I believe his son had a friend with him, but -- or a colleague, who was a doctor

Q Once you arrived in Sarasota, did you have dinner that evening?

A We did

Q And tell the jury about that

A It was a dinner for people who were in from out of town to hear the research And the dinner was in the hotel that we stayed, and the table was done in a -- kind of a conference style, closed -- closed -- I call it a closed U

Mr Williams, the First Lady and his wife and one of the doctors sat at kind of the head, and then people were seated around He had not done a very good count, and we were adding chairs at the last minute And I kind of went into event mode and was working with the hotel staff He didn't have anyone there managing the event, and it's kind of instinct in me to take over So I got the staff to add some extra chairs, and we actually ended up bringing in an extra table for --

Q So Mr Williams had not planned it adequately in advance?

A Yes

Q And you sort of stepped in to get it together?

A Yes

Q Okay The following day, what happened?

A We went to the Roskamp Institute We had a tour, got to meet some of the scientists, saw the facilities And then there was a lunch with presentations from the researchers

Q During the lunch, were you and Ms McDonnell seated at the same table?

A No

Q Did there come a point in time in which Ms McDonnell made some remarks?

A Yes During the lunch

Q What did she say?

A She was excited to be there and said she thought the product was wonderful and that she would get in a car with Mr Williams and drive all over Virginia promoting the product It was very -- very friendly

Q And I'm sorry What did Ms McDonnell say, if anything, about -- about using the Mansion for any sort of event?

A That she would invite everyone to come there to kind of have a kickoff party

Q Prior to that moment when Ms McDonnell stands up, did you know that she was going to make that kind of offer?

A No She wasn't even scheduled to speak

Q What was your reaction to Ms McDonnell offering the Mansion?

A That I thought it would be risky We -- you know, you don't launch a -- you don't do a product launch from the Mansion You can have receptions and dinners and lunches and things like that, but --

Q Were you surprised at this offer?

A A little

Q Had you ever heard Ms McDonnell talk about this before?

A In terms of doing a product launch?

Q From the Mansion

A No

Q And just to be clear for the jury, did you tell Ms McDonnell to make this offer?

A No

Q How long were you in Sarasota?

A A day and a half

Q Okay So you leave the next day And how did you get back to Richmond?

A The -- Mr Williams' plane

Q Okay

MS ABER: I'm going to change topics

THE COURT: Let's stop before you change topics We'll take our morning break We'll make it 15 minutes

(Recess taken from 11:47 a m until 12:10 p m)

THE COURT: Bring in the jury

(The jury entered the courtroom)

THE COURT: All right

MS ABER: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MS ABER:

Q Ms Sutherland, I'm going to bring up Government Exhibit 34-A that has been admitted, please

MS ABER: Thank you

BY MS ABER:

Q Another question about this yellow dress From whom did it come and to where did it go? What do you know about this dress?

A It came from Mr Williams to the First Lady, and it was shipped to the Mansion

Q To your knowledge, did Mr Williams pay for this dress?

A I didn't see a receipt for it I would assume if he sent it, he paid for it, but that's --

Q You don't have to assume It's okay

And how did you know that it came to the Governor's Mansion?

A There was a big box delivered to the First Lady's office, and I was there when she opened it

Q And what was her reaction when she opened it?

A She was excited about the dress But after trying it on, she didn't like it And I never saw her wear it

Q Okay Thank you Now, let us change topics, please

MS ABER: You can take that down, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Around June of 2011, did Ms McDonnell ask to borrow some money from you?

A Yes

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 152, please

BY MS ABER:

Q This is the check that you wrote to Ms McDonnell?

A Yes It was a loan

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd like to move in 152, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q What is the date on this check?

A June 2nd, 2011

Q And why did Ms McDonnell say she needed a loan?

A To cover a stock purchase she had made

Q And did she provide the amount, the $6,000 figure?

A Yes

Q Did Ms McDonnell say anything about her children in relation to this stock purchase?

A She was going to give some of it to each of them

Q In approximately this time period of June 2011, did you observe Ms McDonnell calling her stockbroker?

A When we were in Florida, I walked -- I went into her hotel room, and she was on the phone with him at that time

Q With the stockbroker?

A Correct

Q Did Ms McDonnell ever tell you not to tell the Governor about her stock purchase?

A Not that I recall

Q Now, did Ms McDonnell ever pay you back?

A Yes

MS ABER: Let me bring up Government Exhibit 205, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this the repayment from Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd move 205 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q What's the date when Ms McDonnell paid you back?

A August 16, 2011

Q So that's roughly two and a half months later?

A About

MS ABER: You can take that down, Ms Taylor

BY MS ABER:

Q Ms Sutherland, did you buy stock in Star Scientific?

A Yes

Q Did you keep that a secret?

A No

Q Who, in the Mansion or in the Governor's Office, did you talk about that with?

A I know I talked with Sarah Scarbrough

Q Did you ever talk to Tucker Martin about it?

A I talked to Tucker I mean, it could have -- maybe one or two other people It wasn't -- it didn't seem like it was a big deal to me

I had been using the product, and I had -- it made my back much better, and I thought if it makes my back better, you know, maybe it's a good thing to put money into

Q Now, when we looked at Government Exhibit 152, you wrote Ms McDonnell the check on June 2nd of 2011

Is it fair to say that Cailin McDonnell got married around the time that you made this loan?

A It would have been within a couple days I don't remember the exact date of her wedding, but it was the weekend of the week we went to Florida

Q Okay So you go to Florida, and then the upcoming weekend is Cailin McDonnell's wedding?

A Correct

Q Did you ever talk about the wedding planning with Ms McDonnell?

A Some, yes

Q Were you involved in the wedding planning?

A Not as much as I've been on other weddings But somewhat, yes

Q Did Ms McDonnell seek your advice, given your experience with wedding planning?

A Yeah We talked a lot about, you know, order of events and who should toast when Those kinds of things

Q Now, based on your conversations with Ms McDonnell, who did you believe was paying for the reception?

A The reception, she and the Governor

Q And why do you say that?

A Because there had -- I had talked with Cailin about she was going to have a stock-the-bar party leading up to the wedding in order to use that for the bar at the wedding and that she was paying -- I believe she got her dress --

Q We don't -- that's okay Let's talk about conversations you had with Ms McDonnell

Did she say anything that led you to believe that Mr or Ms McDonnell were paying for the reception?

A Yes

Q What did she say?

A That she and her husband were going to be doing the -- the catering piece of the wedding

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up what's been admitted as Government Exhibit 121

BY MS ABER:

Q Do you recognize this?

A It's the check for -- that I was given from the First Lady to give to the catering company

Q Was it given to you with the words "Great Seasons Catering" in it?

A No She gave it to me and asked me to fill it in

Q Did Ms McDonnell tell you who this check came from?

A Yes

Q What did she say?

A She said that Mr Williams had given it to her to pay for the wedding

Q Were you around when Mr Williams gave Ms McDonnell the check?

A No

Q Did you, in fact, give this check to Great Seasons Catering?

A Yes

Q To whom did you give it?

A Ryan, who is the head -- head of the wedding He was the catering director

Q Is that Ryan Greer?

A Ryan, yes, Greer

Q Did Ms McDonnell say anything about whether the check should be cashed or whether it should be deposited?

A I don't recall her saying either

Q Based on your conversations with Ms McDonnell, did you believe that this check, plus any deposits that had been made to date, would result in an overpayment to the catering company?

A I would have told her, you know, it would come close, but until you ever get a final invoice, you don't know if you have to owe more or if you've going to get something back But it would have probably been close

Q Okay Let me back up Were you -- it was a terrible question

Were you aware that the McDonnells had made some deposits on the catering contract?

A Yes

Q Was Ms McDonnell expecting a refund check from Great Seasons Catering?

A She felt there would be one coming

Q Did Ms McDonnell ever express to you an opinion about the cost of the wedding reception?

A We discussed, post-wedding, the final invoice

Q Did you go through the invoice with Ms McDonnell?

A Yeah There were charges she didn't feel that she should have to pay for

Q Okay How did she feel about the quantity -- what did she say to you about her opinions on the amount of the overpayment, the refund check?

A I'm sorry Can you clarify?

Q Yeah Did Ms McDonnell say anything to you about the amount of the refund check she got back from Great Seasons Catering?

A That she -- she was putting it into her -- it was made out to her and to deposit it into her account

Q Did she express any opinion about whether it was the right amount, too much, not enough?

A She had hoped it would be more.

Q Now, did you tell anyone about that check from Mr Williams, the $15,000 check?

A I told Martin Kent about it

Q And why did you do that?

A It was a large amount from a donor, and I didn't want to be the only staff person with the knowledge of it

Q Do you remember where you were when you told Mr Kent this?

A Yes We were on the grounds of the Mansion And there was a staff event, and he was coming into the event, and I caught him before he got into the party

Q And did you know that around this same time, Mr Williams had loaned $50,000 to Ms McDonnell?

A No, I did not

Q Do you know what Ms McDonnell wore to her daughter Cailin's wedding?

A Yes

Q And what did she wear?

A She wore the dress and jacket that had been purchased at Bergdorf Goodman by Mr Williams

MS ABER: Let me bring up Government's Exhibit 30-A, please, that's been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Is that -- one of those dresses, plus the jacket, is that what she wore to Cailin's wedding?

A Yes

MS ABER: Let me bring up Government Exhibit 548, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Did you attend Cailin's wedding?

A I did I was the unofficial person in charge that day

Q Okay And is that Mr and Ms McDonnell in the back of that picture?

A Yes

Q At Cailin McDonnell's wedding?

A Correct

Q Okay Let me turn your attention back to mid-May of 2011, back a few weeks Did you have a meeting at Health Diagnostic Laboratories with Mr Williams?

A I set up a meeting

Q Okay Why did you set that up?

A When we were having lunch in New York, Mr Williams was discussing his product, and one of the things he said it did was reduce inflammation

The First Lady and I had been at Health Diagnostic Labs for a tour, and they had sent one of their nurse techs over to the Mansion to draw our blood so that they could do their testing and show us, you know, what our blood work said One of the things they tested for was inflammation

So she -- the First Lady had brought that into the conversation, and I was asked to set up a meeting for Mr Williams to go and explore more about what HDL could do

Q Who asked you to set up that meeting?

A I don't recall if it was the First Lady or it was Mr Williams, but it was during the lunch

Q Was Ms McDonnell aware that you were having a meeting with Mr Williams at HDL?

A That I was setting up a meeting Yes

Q Did you actually go to the meeting?

A I drove him over there and then went back to the -- parking is bad over there So he came to the Mansion I dropped him off, and then we came back

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 617, which has not been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Do you recognize this as an e-mail chain between you and Ms McDonnell in May 16, 2011?

A Yes

MS ABER: Your Honor, I move Exhibit 617 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Looking at the very last line of the e-mail from Ms McDonnell to you Ms McDonnell asks, "How was Jonnie's meeting with HDL last week"; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Did you talk about Mr Williams' meeting at HDL with Ms McDonnell?

A I told her that it had gone well and -- I mean, I didn't sit in on the meeting so I couldn't give her all the details But he seemed pleased

Q Mr Williams did?

A Yes

Q Did you keep it a secret from Ms McDonnell?

A No

Q Okay

MS ABER: We can take that down

BY MS ABER:

Q So moving forward in time, back to June '11 June 16, 2011

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 162, please It's already been -- this has not been admitted Excuse me

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this an e-mail from Ms Fulkerson to you that you forward to Ms McDonnell?

A Correct

MS ABER: I'd like to move Government Exhibit 162 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MS ABER: Now, let's go to Page 2, which the jury has seen in a different format

BY MS ABER:

Q Is it fair to say that this letter is about a Virginia study of Anatabloc?

MS ABER: Let's back out, if you don't mind Thank you

BY MS ABER:

Q Is it fair to say -- let's start here -- that it's a letter from Jonnie Williams to Governor McDonnell on Star Scientific letterhead?

A Yes

Q Have you had a chance to orient yourself with it?

A Yes

Q Is it fair to say that this is the letter about the Virginia study of Anatabloc?

A Yes

MS ABER: Now, turning back to the first page

BY MS ABER:

Q Looking at the bottom there, Ms Sutherland, when Ms Fulkerson sends this to you, had you requested it?

A No

Q Do you have any idea why Ms Fulkerson sent this letter to you?

A Mr Williams didn't do a lot of e-mailing, and he had told me that his secretary, Jerri, would send something over and could I print it and get it delivered

Q Did you ask Mr Williams to draft this letter so you could forward it on to the Governor?

A No

Q Why did you forward this e-mail to Ms McDonnell?

A It was from Mr Williams, and she was interested in anything that was going on with the product

Q Do you recall whether you printed this out and passed it along as well?

A My recollection is that I would have printed it out and put it in a folder

Q What kind of folder?

A A read folder

Q For Mr McDonnell or for Ms --

A For both

Q For both Was there some mechanism on which you put these documents on an elevator in the Mansion?

A If it was something that the Governor needed attention on, there was a little table in the elevator and we would put things on it Sometimes the staff would bring things over, and we would put it on for them. It wasn't like an official mailbox

Q Fair to say there's an elevator in the Executive Mansion?

A Yes It goes from the basement up to the private quarters

Q Private quarters are at the top?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, was this letter -- was this the first time you had ever heard that Mr Williams wanted to do a Virginia study of Anatabloc?

A No He had mentioned it before

MS ABER: We can take that down, Ms Taylor

BY MS ABER:

Q When had Mr Williams mentioned a Virginia study of Anatabloc?

A He had first mentioned doing it when we were at the lunch in New York

Q Okay And did he subsequently -- to be clear, at that lunch, who was present?

A Mr Williams, the First Lady, and myself

Q Did Mr Williams subsequently mention a Virginia study of Anatabloc?

A He talked about it frequently

Q Was Ms McDonnell around when he talked about it?

A Yes

Q What was Ms McDonnell's reaction to having a Virginia study of Anatabloc?

A She thought it was a great idea, it was a Virginia product and should be studied in Virginia

Q Did Mr Williams ever mention the idea of having UVA or VCU research Anatabloc?

A Yes

Q And generally, what was Mr Williams talking about?

A Well, they were the two premier health institutes in Virginia, and if you were going to have someone do a study, why not go to the best

Q Was Ms McDonnell around when Mr Williams was talking about studies at universities?

A Yes

Q And I don't mean to ask you for a precise number, but just so the jury can understand, is this a singular event or are there lots of times at which Mr --

A Multiple

Q I'm sorry?

A Multiple times

Q And did Ms McDonnell ever express an opinion, "No, can't do this Wouldn't be right Don't want to do it"?

A No She was very interested in this product

Q And was she interested in both -- not only the product, but was she also interested in the studies?

A The studies on the product? Yes

Q Was she also interested in having a Virginia study of Anatabloc?

A Yeah She thought it would be a good idea But as I said, you know, it was a Virginia-based product and a Virginia company, that Virginia should take the lead

Q Now, in early summer of 2011, were you aware of an event at The Homestead Resort in western Virginia?

A Yes

Q And what was the event for?

A It was a yearly event done by the Governor's PAC for donors that would bring the Governor's Cabinet together, and donors It was a yearly event.

Q And what is a PAC?

A Political Action Committee

Q And do you recall the name of Mr McDonnell's PAC?

A Opportunity Virginia

Q Did you talk to Ms McDonnell about -- about the PAC event at The Homestead?

A Well, we would have gone into what activities were going on and who was attending and what she should wear.

Q Did Ms McDonnell say anything about Mr Williams in relation to this event?

A That she wanted to see if he would fly her children, or some of the children, to the event and have them stay for the event

Q Did Ms McDonnell say anything about folks that Mr Williams could meet at the PAC event?

A Yes She said that if he brought the children up, she would make sure he sat at one of the tables -- there's a dinner at this event -- with Dr Hazel

Q Now, the letter we looked at in Exhibit 162 was dated --

MS ABER: If we can bring it up, Ms Taylor, so they don't have to take my word for it 162 Thank you

First page, please

BY MS ABER:

Q That e-mail is dated June 16th, right, on the bottom?

A Yes

Q Okay In the following month, July, did there come a point when Mr Williams invited you to an event in Maryland?

A Yes

Q And what was the event?

A It was another research-based presentation, bringing the -- the Florida researchers together with the Johns Hopkins team I don't recall if there were other doctors there from other universities But they brought a representative from MCV -- I guess it's now VCU -- and UVA to hear the presentations And I flew up with them

Q Okay

MS ABER: Let's look at already admitted Government Exhibit 170, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this the agenda for the Gibson Island, Maryland, event you were speaking of?

A Yes

Q Okay Do you remember very much of what happened at this symposium?

A It was a lot of repeating of what we had heard in Florida

Q Was it scientific information?

A Very

Q Did you say anything at this event?

A No

Q Now, during this time period of July 23, the weekend of that --

A You -- I mean, I talked to people there

Q Did you talk about science?

A No No I mean, I didn't speak officially

Q Okay You didn't make any remarks on behalf of the First Lady's Office?

A No

Q Was anything significant happening in this time period with the McDonnells?

A Their wedding anniversary was planned for that weekend

Q Was there going to be a party?

A A big one I was coordinating

Q And where was that going to be held?

A At Barboursville Winery

Q So in reference to that Gibson Island event, did you tell Ms McDonnell that you were going to go?

A I don't recall if I told her or if Mr Williams said he had told her

Q Did you try to hide your attendance from Ms McDonnell?

A No I brought her all the materials back

Q What did you do with the materials?

A I gave them to her They were in a tote bag

Q Ms Sutherland, did you go to this event in Maryland as a means of a job interview for Mr Williams?

A No

Q Was anything about a job with Mr Williams discussed at this Maryland meeting?

A No.

Q Now, when we talk about the Governor's and Ms McDonnell's 35th wedding anniversary party, do you recall when that was in reference to the July 23rd Gibson Island event?

A It was Sunday, the 24th The actual day of their anniversary

Q Do you know whether Mr Williams attended that?

A He did

Q Did you attend it?

A Yes

Q Did Ms McDonnell say anything to you about Mr Williams' attendance and where he would be seated?

A That was prior to the day of the event We sat down and did a seating chart for where everyone would sit, and she made the decisions on who would sit where

Q Did she want to place Mr Williams next to anyone in particular?

A She wanted her daughter Rachel seated with him

Q And why was that?

A She wanted to organize a second shopping trip and wanted Rachel to get to know Mr Williams because she planned to bring Rachel with her

Q Do you know what Ms McDonnell wore to her 35th wedding anniversary party?

A The dress and sweater that had been purchased at Oscar de la Renta

MS ABER: Let me bring up already admitted Government Exhibit 31-A

BY MS ABER:

Q Is that the dress you're speaking of?

A Yes

MS ABER: And let me bring up Government Exhibit 550, which has not been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Is Ms McDonnell wearing the dress in that picture?

A Yes

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd move 550 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q What about the sweater she's swearing, Ms Sutherland? Do you recognize that?

A Yes It also came from Oscar de la Renta

Q Both items that Mr Williams had purchased in April on the New York City shopping trip?

A Correct

Q Okay

MS ABER: You can take that down

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, are you generally aware that the McDonnell family went to Mr Williams' house at Smith Mountain Lake in July of 2011?

A For a family vacation Yes

Q Do you know whether Mr Williams provided any vehicles for the McDonnell family's use during the trip?

A Yes He told me to make sure they knew he was renting a boat for them, gave me the instructions on it

He had a boat there, but it was his personal boat and he didn't like lending it to people So he rented one for them to use

Q Did Mr Williams say anything about the Range Rover for the use of the family?

A Not directly to me

Q Okay

MS ABER: Let me bring up Government Exhibit 196, please And this has not been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this an e-mail chain between you and Ms Fulkerson, August 2nd of 2011?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: I'd like to move Government Exhibit 196 into evidence, please.

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, starting at the bottom, please, with an e-mail from you to Ms Fulkerson -- there you go -- at 8:58 a m , you are requesting, I believe, to return a vehicle to Jonnie, that is, Mr Williams; is that right?

A Yes That's when I was asked to get the car Rachel McDonnell drove That's the Range Rover It was driven back to the Mansion, and then I needed to -- I was asked to get it to Mr Williams' offices out in the Innsbrook area

Q Okay So taking that piece by piece You're aware that Rachel drove one of Mr Williams' vehicles, a Range Rover, back from Smith Mountain Lake; is that right?

A I believe she did a round trip

Q Both to Smith Mountain Lake and back?

A Correct

Q And who told you to return it to Mr Williams?

A My recollection is that he called and asked could I get it back

Q Meaning Mr Williams called?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: And scrolling up

BY MS ABER:

Q Did you, in fact, take the vehicle, the Range Rover, out to Mr Williams' office?

A Yes And Tutti followed me and drove me back

Q Okay Just for clarification, did you do anything to get a Ferrari back to Mr Williams?

A No

Q Do you know how the Ferrari got back to Mr Williams, if at all?

A I don't

Q Now, the day after the McDonnells came back from Smith Mountain Lake, August 1st of 2011, did Ms McDonnell have any meetings at the Mansion?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: Let's bring up Government's Exhibit 190, which has already been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Do you recall Mr Williams coming over to the Mansion on August 1st?

A Yes

Q Okay Do you remember how this particular meeting came about on the calendar?

A I don't

Q If you had put it on Ms McDonnell's calendar, would you have done that on your own, on your own volition? Would you have done that without --

A No

Q -- Ms McDonnell asking you to do so?

A No

MS ABER: Let me bring up Government Exhibit 186, please. And this is already in evidence, Your Honor Thank you

BY MS ABER:

Q Are you aware, generally, that a woman named Molly Huffstetler also came for a meeting that morning of August 1st?

A Yes

Q Were you around for that meeting?

A I greeted her

Q Okay Did you sit in on the meeting?

A I brought her in -- the First Lady wasn't ready to come down yet So I brought her in

When you go into the Governor's Mansion, there are two parlors on either side The left is called the old Governor's office The right is the lady's parlor

So I brought her in to the old Governor's office, introduced her to Mr Williams, and stayed until -- there's a phone in that room So if she's up in the personal quarters, she can call down and say "I'm coming" or "give me ten minutes" or whatever the instruction is

So I stayed until she came down

Q And do you know who was present at the meeting, specifically?

A The -- Molly, from Secretary Hazel's office, and Mr Williams and the First Lady

Q Okay After that meeting, are you aware that Mr -- excuse me, Dr John Clore came for a meeting as well?

A Yes That one took place down in the First Lady's private office

Q Had you met Dr Clore before?

A Yes At the Gibson Island event

Q Okay Who was present at the meeting with Dr Clore?

A Mr Williams, the First Lady, Dr Clore And I was in and out So -- a lot of times I would have to leave a meeting to deal with something

Q Do you recall generally what was discussed?

A The -- Dr Clore's research I remember him talking about how inflammation impacts diabetes and how the study -- there -- MCV/VCU could participate in a study, different groups that could be affected That type of thing

Q Okay

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up what has not been admitted as Government Exhibit 188, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Ms Sutherland, is that a set of notes that you took during the meeting with Dr Clore?

A Yes

Q And were you taking them at the time, like contemporaneously, at the meeting?

A Yes

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd like to move 188 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, I'm not going to go through this in total, Ms Sutherland, but I'd like to clarify some of your handwriting for the jury

A It's not very good I'm sorry

Q I wasn't judging Bottom half, under the line, can you read that to the jury, please

A "State government interest in economic impact Grants for organization separate for state dollars "

Q Okay Who is doing the talking at the meeting with Dr Clore?

A It was conversational It would have -- I don't remember one person just doing all the talking So conversational between the First Lady, Mr Williams, Dr Clore I probably offered, you know, insight as appropriate

Q And do you remember in particular who made the comments that are reflected here about "state government interest"?

A I don't

Q Did Ms McDonnell at all disagree with any of that?

A Not that I recall

Q Okay

MS ABER: Let's turn to Page 2, please

BY MS ABER:

Q And at the top there above the line, could you read that to the jury, please

A "UVA, resources for clinical trial, have human subject, slash, outpatient facility "

MS ABER: And scrolling down a little more, Ms Taylor, please Yep

BY MS ABER:

Q "Issue of" -- can you read that for the jury, please

A "Issue of UVA, slash, VCU, data share "

They had different systems That had something to do with how their computer systems were set up

Q Okay

A And they would have barriers to share research findings

Q Okay And turning to the third page, please, in the middle there where it says -- exactly Can you read that to the jury, please

A "Virginia Found" would be Virginia Foundation for Healthy Youth They get their money from the tobacco settlement Their mission includes youth obesity

Q Do you remember anything else about that particular topic at the meeting?

A About youth obesity?

Q About the Tobacco Settlement Commission or the Virginia Foundation for Healthy Youth

A That the foundation does -- they provide grants, and one of their areas of focus is youth obesity

BY MS ABER:

Q Okay

MS ABER: Thanks, Ms Taylor

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, in reference to Tobacco Commission funding, had you ever heard Mr Williams talk about Tobacco Commission funding?

A At some point, yes

Q Okay Did he ever speak generally about getting funding for studies?

A In general terms

Q Did he ever do that with Ms McDonnell in your presence?

A Yes Talking about the -- you know, how you get the opportunity to get grants and all that goes involved in grants

Q And did that relate somehow to the studies that he said he wanted?

A Yes In order to do a study, from what I understand, they are costly Mr Williams had said that he would provide funding to UVA and MCV, MCV/VCU, that would allow their teams to write the grant -- or write the proposal so that they could qualify to get grants

You don't just willy-nilly write a grant proposal It takes an effort So he was going to do the funding so that the grants could be solicited

Q And did Mr Williams have these conversations with Ms McDonnell present?

A Yes

Q How many conversations are we talking about? One or more than one?

A More than one, less than a dozen

Q Did Ms McDonnell ever express any opinions about Mr Williams' plans for funding?

A She thought it made sense

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 234, please And this has been previously admitted, Your Honor I apologize

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this an Outlook calendar invite for a lunch with Virginia researchers on August 30th?

A Yes

Q Do you recall how this August 30th event got on the Mansion calendar?

A We were in the First Lady's office looking at open dates to see when we could do the lunch

Q Let me stop you there When were you in the First Lady's office, and with whom were you in the office?

A It was after Dr Clore left, and we were sitting with Mr Williams

Q Okay So Dr Clore is out of the Mansion You're in Ms McDonnell's office?

A Yes

Q And it's you, Ms McDonnell, and Jonnie Williams?

A Correct

Q Okay And then what happened?

A We had the calendar open on her computer and found a date that was agreeable And I honestly can't tell you if I typed it in or she typed it in There were occasions where either was possible

Q And whose idea was it to have a lunch with Virginia researchers at the Mansion?

A The First Lady had volunteered the Mansion to Mr Williams

Q And is that in reference to the Roskamp event back in June?

A Down in Florida, yes

Q Now, stepping back, talking about this event generally, did you ever talk to Ms McDonnell about the purpose of having a lunch with Virginia researchers at the Mansion?

A We talked in general terms about it It would be an opportunity for them to hear what we had heard in Florida and that Mr Williams was going to present these grant planning checks

Q Did Ms McDonnell ever say anything about the -- I won't use the "launch" word, but the presentation of this product on the market in reference to that event?

A I'm sorry Can you clarify?

Q Yeah Did Ms McDonnell ever say anything about the correlation of the launch of the product in time to this event?

MR BURCK: Objection, Your Honor Leading

THE COURT: Overruled

A The -- the product was going to come onto the market within, if my recollection is correct, a few days to a week or so of the date for the lunch Mr Williams wanted to have the lunch prior to the release

BY MS ABER:

Q Okay

A So --

Q And was Ms McDonnell present for that conversation?

A Yes

Q And did she disagree with Mr Williams' plan?

A No

Q Now, were you involved in planning the event, the lunch with Virginia researchers?

A Yes

Q Were you more involved than you might normally have been?

A Sarah was on vacation So anytime she was -- Sarah Scarbrough was the Mansion director Anytime she was on vacation, I was much more involved

But at the same time, if it was an event that was important to the First Lady, then I was more involved

For instance, when she hosted the spouses of the legislators, I was much more involved in the planning of that So it depended on the event

Q So you believed that this event, in particular, was important to the First Lady?

A Yes

Q And why did you believe that?

A She told me

Q Can a member of the public just rent the Mansion if they want to?

A No

Q How -- do you have to be affiliated with state government in some way?

A Well, it has to be approved by the Governor's Office

BY MS ABER:

Q I'd like to bring back -- sorry, Ms Taylor -- 234 and talk to you about the attachments on this Outlook invitation

MS ABER: Turning to Page 2, please

BY MS ABER:

Q What is an Event Briefing Information form?

A One of these forms would have been done for any event that took place at the Mansion that involved the Governor

Q And looking at "Owner/Contact," there are four names listed there?

A Uh-huh

Q Talk us through once more who those folks are

A Sarah Scarbrough is -- was the Mansion director Myself Tutti was the Mansion butler And Todd would have been the chef

Q Now, even though you four are listed as the owner/contacts -- well, let me back up

Why are you listed as the owner/contacts?

A So that anybody on the Governor's staff would know who to call if they had questions

MS ABER: Turn to Page 3, please

BY MS ABER:

Q What is this?

A It's the guest list for the lunch

Q Who came up with the guest list?

A It was provided by Mr Williams' company

MS ABER: Let's look at Government's Exhibit 212, please That has not been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this an e-mail chain between you and Ms Fulkerson on August 24, 2011?

A Yes

MS ABER: Your Honor, I move 212 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Okay Looking at the bottom e-mail, is it accurate that Ms Fulkerson says that "their complete names, titles and affiliations can be found in the booklet that was given you at the Gibson Island symposium"?

A Yes

Q And then do you respond?

A That I didn't have that information anymore, I had given it to the First Lady when I returned

Q Okay Did you send out invitations for the lunch?

A There was a problem with the invitation When --

Q What was the problem?

A Right before Sarah went on vacation, she had, as she always did, printed the invitations It's not the easiest machine in the world to work And we have a standard invitation that's used for Mansion events

So she had them printed And I went to get them off of her desk and there was an error on the invitation I was not good at working the machine So the only thing I could do was correct the -- the computerized copy and send it by e-mail

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 217, which has been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Tell the jury what the bottom e-mail is there

A You want me to read it?

Q Sure

A "Hello everyone I hope you are all doing well Attached is the final list for the lunch on August 30th at the Governor's Mansion Thanks to everyone for your hard work in putting this together Caroline "

Q And is it fair to say that Mr Williams forwards this to you on the top e-mail?

A Yes

Q Okay Did you understand Caroline Birgmann to be affiliated somehow with Star Scientific?

A That -- yes

Q Okay Turning to Page 2 of this exhibit, please Is this the attachment?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, just for the jury's understanding, why is Mr Williams -- why are you the point of contact on this? Why isn't -- you know, does Ms McDonnell participate in the invitation process of events?

A The only time she would participate is if she wanted to -- if it was, you know, approving the wording of a specific invitation, although most of the invitations were standard, or if it was an event that, you know, she was hosting solely, we would talk more about it

And like I mentioned, some of events she planned, she was more involved in, if we were going to do entertainment So it really was kind of a -- she would never have taken the RSVPs I'll put it that way

Q Were you hiding this event from Ms McDonnell?

A No

Q Did you talk to Ms McDonnell about the event as it's being planned?

A Yes It was the -- I would have updated her on the guest list, as I would have with any event

MS ABER: Let me bring up Government Exhibit 214, please, which has not been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Is it fair to say this is an e-mail chain between you and Jerry Fulkerson on August 25th of 2011?

A Yes

MS ABER: Okay I'd like to move Government Exhibit 214 into evidence, please, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, turning to the middle, Ms Fulkerson Is it fair to say -- excuse me Ms Fulkerson Ms Sutherland

Is it fair to say that Ms Fulkerson would provide additional names as the planning process went on?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: And moving to the top Oh, could we -- Your Honor, if we could publish it to the jury I think I moved it in 214, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MS ABER: Thank you

BY MS ABER:

Q And on the top e-mail, Ms Sutherland, does that sort of, in summary, discuss the problem that you've described with the invitations --

A Yes

Q -- and the printing wrong?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: Take that down, please

Government Exhibit 221, which has not been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this an e-mail from you to Ms McDonnell on August 29th, 2011?

A Yes

MS ABER: I'd like to move 221 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, Ms Sutherland, what is the attachment on this e-mail?

A It would have been the -- an Excel file of who was coming to the lunch

MS ABER: Let me flip to the second page, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Is that the final list, to the best of your knowledge?

A To the best of my knowledge, yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: Turning back to the first page

BY MS ABER:

Q Why did you send this to Ms McDonnell?

A So that she would know who would be at the table with her

MS ABER: Let's look at Government Exhibit 216, please, that's already been admitted 216

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, Ms Sutherland, why are you sending Dr Lazo this invitation?

A He was probably added at the last minute

MS ABER: Turning to Page 2, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, Ms Sutherland, even though you are listed as the RSVP, are you -- is this your event?

A No

Q Okay

MS ABER: Moving along, please, to Government Exhibit 220 That has not been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this an e-mail chain between you and Ms Fulkerson on August 29th of 2011?

A Yes

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd move 220 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MS ABER: Okay Let's look at the second page, please, very bottom of the chain

BY MS ABER:

Q Can you read the first line of Ms Fulkerson's e-mail to you?

A "Hope you survived Irene ok And I also take the lunch is still on for tomorrow "

Q Do you remember what Irene references?

A I don't know if it was an official hurricane or tropical storm, but it was a weather event

Q Okay Was it a busy time, in your memory?

A Yes

MS ABER: Moving up a little bit, please, Ms Taylor, on the first page Scrolling up, please And if we could take the top half, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Was Ms Fulkerson helping you with the RSVPs?

A Yes Because it was a seated lunch at the dining room table, we couldn't have somebody showing up that we weren't prepared for So those who I had not gotten an RSVP from she was following up with

MS ABER: Thank you You can take that down

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, did Ms McDonnell say anything about having Mr McDonnell attend the lunch event?

A Yes

Q Okay What did she say?

A That she wanted to make sure he was there

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 204, please, which has not been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this an e-mail chain between you and Katherine Harris, and at some point Adam Zubowsky hops on and hops off?

A Yes

Q All right

MS ABER: I'd like to move Government's Exhibit 204 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, who is Katherine Harris?

A The Governor's scheduler

Q Is it fair to say she picked up after Monica Block left?

A Yes, she did

Q Okay Starting at the bottom of Page 2, please, can you read that to the jury, please?

A "Also, per the FL" -- First Lady -- "please put lunch on August 30th on the Governor's calendar The lunch is with a number of researchers and doctors that she is hosting that day She wants the Governor to attend the lunch Thanks "

Q Now, where did you get that information?

Did Ms McDonnell tell you this?

A Yes

Q Okay Did you come up with the idea to have the Governor attend the lunch?

A No

Q Okay

MS ABER: First page, please

BY MS ABER:

Q At the bottom, how did Ms Harris respond?

A "Hi, Mary-Shea The Governor will be in D C on this morning for WTOP and won't be able to attend this To make the most of going up there, we will be filling the day with other events/meetings, and he will come home later that evening for the Mansion reception Thanks, Katherine "

Q What is WTOP?

A It was a radio program that the Governor did

Q Sort of a standing commitment?

A It was pretty usual I don't remember if it was weekly or monthly, but --

Q Okay

MS ABER: Scrolling up, please

BY MS ABER:

Q How did you respond to Ms Harris?

A "The FL isn't going to be happy about it "

Q And what did you mean about that?

A That she -- if she wanted the Governor there, she wanted him there, and she would not be happy with the news that he couldn't attend That was -- that was not an unusual thing for me to tell the scheduler, that they were used to hearing things like that from me

Q Okay And in summary -- if we could scroll up, Ms Taylor -- fair to say that you indicate you will give Ms Harris a call to talk about this?

A Yes

Q What -- what is the history on this, to which you refer?

A So that she understood the event came out of meetings with Mr Williams He was a valuable donor You know, the scheduler didn't always know what the First Lady was, you know, doing

Q Okay And on what date do you say you will call -- excuse me -- "can you call me in a m "

What date is that that you write that?

A August 15th

Q Okay

MS ABER: Let's bring up Government Exhibit 207, please, which has not been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this an e-mail between you and Mr Zubowsky that next day, August 16th?

A Yes

MS ABER: Okay Your Honor, I'd move Government Exhibit 207 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Starting at the bottom -- just for everybody's sake, who is Adam Zubowsky?

A He was the Governor's aide We were -- probably of anybody on staff that was the closest to him

Q And what does Mr Zubowsky ask of you in that e-mail on 250?

A To explain the lunch so he can explain it to the Governor

Q Okay

MS ABER: And scrolling up

BY MS ABER:

Q How did you respond? Can you read that, please?

A "The lunch is with doctors and researchers from MCV, UVA, Johns Hopkins, and the Roskamp Institute, along with Jonnie Williams and a few others that are involved in the various research projects This would be an occasion to bring all of the medical professionals together as they begin to start the studies at UVA and MCV on Anatabloc and its uses for reducing public health costs Johns Hopkins has done the bulk of the research, and now UVA and MCV are going to further the studies The date for the lunch was selected due to the launch of the product Does that help?"

Q Okay

MS ABER: And scrolling up, please, Ms Taylor

BY MS ABER:

Q How does Mr Zubowsky respond?

A "Perfect Going to get an answer on this in a little Thanks a lot "

Q And at what time does he send that e-mail to you?

A 2:56 in the afternoon, August 16th

Q Okay Thank you

MS ABER: Let me bring up Government Exhibit 208 This has not been admitted If we could scroll down a little bit, Ms Taylor, just to show Ms Sutherland

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this a continuation of your original chain, sort of a branch off of the chain we just looked at in 207?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: Your Honor, I move 208 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MS ABER: And can we publish it to the jury, please Thank you

BY MS ABER:

Q All right So the e-mail there at 2:55 from you to Mr Zubowsky, is it fair to say that is your explanation that we previously saw in the -- in 207?

A Correct

Q Okay

MS ABER: Scrolling up, please

BY MS ABER:

Q How does Mr Zubowsky respond to you?

A "Governor wants to make it to the last part of this lunch, the last 30 minutes Says he can't be there the entire time but will come for 30 minutes Going to work

Katherine to get that going Thanks Adam "

Q Okay

MS ABER: You can take that down, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, August 30th, did you actually attend this lunch?

A I ended up not Originally, I was to be seated at the table, but that morning we got word that a -- an invitee was then going to be able to come, and so I gave my seat up.

Q Okay Were you -- fair to say you're sort of in and out throughout the process --

A Yes

Q -- of the lunch?

Did you have an opportunity to observe the place settings at the table?

A Yes

Q And what did you see?

A Well, you don't want me to describe the china?

Q Don't need china

Did you see anything out of the ordinary at the place settings?

A Well, at each place would have been a card saying who was sitting there and then a little sample pack of Mr Williams' product, Anatabloc

Q Did Mr McDonnell attend the lunch event?

A Yes He sat in his standard seat

Q Now, were you aware that Star Scientific planned to do a press release related to the event?

A I was, just prior to the event

MS ABER: Okay Let's bring up already admitted 224, please And I'd like to start at the second page, please, at the very bottom

BY MS ABER:

Q Okay Now, fair to say, Ms Sutherland, that Ms Machir sent you a draft press release at 4:49 p m the day before the event?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: Scrolling up, please

BY MS ABER:

Q And what is your response?

A "I just sent David" -- and that refers to David Dean -- "a message No way this can go as written You can call me at" -- my number -- "and I'll talk you through the issues "

Q Now, who is David Dean?

A David Dean was the -- either senior or standard Vice President -- I'm not sure of his specific title -- at Star Scientific

Q So when you're pushing back to Star about their press release, what is the issue that you see?

A They had, in the press release, talked about the Governor and First Lady launching the product And that was something that we had told them was not the case It was a lunch for researchers

Q Okay And going to the first page, so we can see how this continues, is it accurate that Star Scientific, Ms Machir, revised the press release in some way?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: And then moving up

BY MS ABER:

Q Did you forward this to Mr Martin?

A Yes

Q This revised version?

A Yes

Q Why did you send it to Mr Martin?

A Because any press release would be approved by his office

MS ABER: Let's scroll to the top so the jury can see the rest of this

BY MS ABER:

Q Is it fair to say there were subsequent discussions about the press release among the staff members?

A Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: Let's look at Government Exhibit 235, please That's already been admitted 235

THE COURT: Let me -- let me stop you there

All right Ladies and gentlemen, we're going to stop for lunch And I want you to be back at 2:15 And just by way of explanation, why you're getting an extra 15 minutes today, I've got a matter that I have to hear at 1:00 It will probably take about 15 minutes And so my staff can get an hour, you all are getting an hour and 15 minutes Just so you know that, you know, we're working here

All right We'll see you at 2:15.

(Luncheon recess taken from 1:01 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.)

THE COURT: All right, let's bring in the jury

(The jury entered the courtroom.)

BY MS ABER:

Q I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 235, which has already been admitted. Ms Sutherland, as you may recall, we were talking about the press releases related to the Anatabloc luncheon. Do you remember that?

A Yes

Q Okay Is it fair to say that this is sort of the final version of the press release that you received on August 30th?

A If I'm showing it to Jasen, yes

Q Let's go to Page 2 and then we will talk about why you showed it to Mr Eige I'd like to direct your attention to the fourth paragraph down, please Can you read the first few lines to the jury?

A "A group of Richmond area physicians and healthcare providers are gathering at the Virginia Governor's Mansion today to learn more about the state of the research on Anatabloc The lead researchers who have overseen pre-clinical studies will discuss the results of testing with this group at the private luncheon today They will be joined by researchers from the University of Virginia Medical School and the VCU Medical Center, who also are interested in studying further potentials for Anatabloc."

Q One more sentence

A "Rock Creek has solicited research proposals from these institutions, and expects to issue planning grants for the preparation of full research proposals "

Q Thank you If we could flip back to the first page Tell the jury why you were showing this to Mr Eige

A Jason was coming for the lunch, and there could have been conversation where he had not had a chance to see it

Q Were you concerned about the way the Mansion lunch event was reflected in Star Press?

A That's why I had stopped the initial press release

Q Okay We can take that down, please I'd like to change subjects entirely Assuming we are in the summer of 2011, your second year at the Mansion, right?

A Yes

Q Your second year of the McDonnell administration?

A Yes

Q Had things gotten any better with Ms McDonnell?

A They were getting more difficult

Q And toward the end of the summer, or in the summer generally of 2011, were you still looking around for other employment?

A I was seriously looking, having actual meetings and conversations And I had told Martin Kent that I was seriously looking

Q Okay Let's take this piece by piece Had Mr Williams mentioned the idea of you working for Star Scientific?

A Yes

Q When did he first --

A Well, to be clear, working for him.

Q Okay When did he first do that?

A In June I don't have the exact date, but I was, I had my niece shopping at Macy's and we were in the dressing room and my phone rang and it was him. And he was, he just launched off on that I had impressed him and I was the type of person he liked having around him and working for him. I stopped him and said I was in the dressing room with my niece, and he asked could we talk further

Q Okay You said June What year was that?

A 2011

Q And did Mr -- did you ultimately agree to work for Star Scientific or for Mr Williams at that time?

A No

Q Did Mr Williams later in the summer extend sort of another offer to you?

A We met once if not twice over breakfast, and then at a lunch meeting, he officialized his offer

Q And in general, what were going to be the arrangements; were you going to be a Star Scientific employee?

A No I was going back to my original consulting firm that I had worked for before taking the job with the McDonnells, and he was going to become a client of the firm.

Q Now, did you need Star Scientific or Mr Williams as a client in order for you to return to that firm?

A It would have helped, but it wasn't the only thing we were looking at

Q Okay For the record, what's the name of the firm?

A Benedetti & Farris

Q Can you spell that?

A Benedetti, B-E-N-E-D-E-T-T-I, and Farris, F-A-R-R-I-S

Q Is it fair to say that you had sort of an open invitation to return at any time?

A Yes

Q But also fair to say that you sort of ate what you killed at Benedetti & Farris in terms of --

A I'm sorry

Q That was probably a poor choice of words here Did you need clients from which to draw a salary at Benedetti & Farris?

A The whole business was dependent upon client business I had brought a number of clients over the years

Q Okay Had you told Ms McDonnell about your job search in the summer of 2011?

A No. I didn't want things to get any more difficult

Q Around the end of the summer of 2011, were you going to receive any adjustments in your salary at the Mansion?

A Yes Both Sarah Scarborough and I were scheduled to get raises

Q Okay While the conversation about Mr Williams contracting with Benedetti & Farris was pending, did Ms McDonnell call you into her office?

A Yes

Q And roughly, ballpark estimate, when was that?

A Around Labor Day

Q Of 2011?

A Yes

Q And what did Ms McDonnell say to you?

A She asked was I going after Jonnie Williams, and did I know that Benedetti & Farris was calling him soliciting business

Q What was the tone of Ms McDonnell's conversation with you?

A Her voice was ratcheting up

Q And after that, did you firmly decide to leave your employment at the Mansion?

A I had decided back earlier in the summer

Q To clarify for the jury, did you need a job from Mr. Williams in order to leave the Mansion?

A No, there were a number of contracts pending with Benedetti & Farris

Q So there was other work for you to do at Benedetti & Farris?

A Pending

Q Options on the table potentially Just for the jury's understanding, what was one of those big contracts that ultimately came to pass?

A Richmond 2015, the cycling contract to do the initial fundraising stages

Q If you had gone back or when you went back to Benedetti & Farris, that is one client for which you could do work?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, to your knowledge, were you involved in the nitty-gritty of the contract back and forth between Benedetti & Farris and Star Scientific or Jonnie Williams?

A No.

Q Did you draft a contract?

A No

Q To your knowledge, did that contract ever get off the ground?

A No It did not

Q So Star Scientific and Benedetti & Farris did not ultimately ink a contract to work with one another?

A They didn't even negotiate

Q I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 244, which has already been admitted. Is it fair to say this is an Outlook invitation for a September 16th meeting?

A Yes

Q Do you recall this meeting?

A Yes, I do

Q We can take that down. Do you recall what was discussed at the meeting?

A It was a meeting about asking would I continue on in my job as Chief of Staff

Q Who was asking you that?

A The meeting was with the Governor, his Chief of Staff, Martin Kent, and the First Lady

Q And did either the Governor or First Lady suggest that one of them or both of them wanted you to stay?

A The Governor did most of the talking

Q Okay And how did you respond to this conversation?

A I politely told him that my gas tank was empty

Q What did you mean by that?

A I was ready to leave

Q Okay Did you feel like Mr McDonnell wanted you to stay?

A I understood him to want that

Q So after this meeting, did you ultimately leave employment at the Mansion?

A I did, in October

Q Of 2011?

A Correct

Q Even without the contract with Mr Williams and Star, did you go back to Benedetti & Farris anyway?

A Yes

Q Is it fair to say you were upset with Mr Williams for not agreeing to hire Benedetti & Farris or not getting that done?

A I was upset for him mischaracterizing the situation

Q Did you express some of those sentiments in a letter?

A In a journal

Q In a journal But did you ever send that letter or communicate it to Mr Williams?

A No That's how I -- some people journal, some people diary, I write letters

Q Okay Changing subjects entirely: Before you left the Mansion, did you attend an American Cancer Society Cure By Design event on September 24th, 2011?

A Yes, I was staffing the First Lady

Q What does that mean, to say you are staffing the First Lady?

A You go with her to the event, you troubleshoot I mean, sometimes it would be holding my purse and her purse if she were speaking, carrying the speech box If somebody asks, you know, gives her a card to set up a meeting, you would take that It is staffing

Q Did Mr Williams attend this event?

A Yes, he did.

Q And did both the McDonnells attend?

A The Governor came late

Q Was there an auction portion of the evening before a dinner? Was the whole thing an auction?

A It was a reception with an auction

Q Were you present for the auction?

A Yes

Q Did you observe Mr Williams bid on an item?

A Several items

Q I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 246, Page 2, which has already been admitted Is this a picture of the auction portion of the Cure By Design?

A Yes

Q Okay And who is the gentleman with the microphone?

A He is a fashion designer, Alex Garfield.

Q Do you recall Mr Williams bidding on an item that involved a weekend in New York City?

A I don't know if I would characterize it as a weekend It was to, whoever would get the successful bid would go and spend a day with the designer, Mr Garfield. He would take them around the fashion district, have lunch or dinner, depending on the schedule of the day He, Mr Garfield, had offered the package in the past

Q And did there come a point in the bidding process in which Mr and Ms McDonnell somehow became looped into this prize package?

A Yes The whole thing kind of spun out of control

Q Tell the jury about sort of the beginning to end of the bidding on this item.

A Mr Garfield was serving as the auctioneer, and he is a very excitable gentleman, so he was having a lot of fun He was bouncing all over the stage And he brought up the weekend package And a couple other people in the audience were bidding And Mr Williams eventually got into the bidding, and at one point was actually bidding against himself He kept raising his bid All the money went to charity And he said that he would bring the First Lady and the Governor to New York with him, and Mr Garfield said, "Well, I'll host an event at my apartment It will be the first time I have had a

Republican in my apartment " It kept going on and on and as I said, Mr Williams kept bidding against himself And I finally went and found the Executive Director and told her she needed to cut this off, it was becoming uncomfortable to see the Governor and First Lady up there with all of this going on

Q To be clear, was there any point in this bidding process when a weekend at the Chatham Bars Inn in Cape Cod came up as a possible prize?

A No

Q You can take that down, Ms Taylor Later that evening, same night as the auction, did you have a separate conversation with Mr McDonnell?

A Yes He, the First Lady, Mr Williams and Mr Williams' guests had gone to dinner in the restaurant in the hotel And I had stopped to have a drink at the bar with two friends And I was coming back from the ladies' room and the Governor was going to the men's room, and we stopped and exchanged some nice words And he said, "I really don't want to do the next two years without you." I said, "I just can't do it anymore " And he gave me a hug and that was it

Q Now, approximately when did you leave your employment at the Mansion?

A October, 2011 Towards the end of the month

Q When did Mr. McDonnell finish his term as Governor?

A This past January

Q Now, before you were interviewed by law enforcement, did you know that after you left the Mansion, Mr Williams had given a $50,000 loan to the McDonnells in March of 2012?

A I did not

Q Before you were interviewed by law enforcement, did you know that after you left Mr Williams had loaned the McDonnells $20,000 in May of 2012?

A I did not

MS ABER: One moment, please, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MS ABER: I'm finished, Your Honor Thank you I pass the witness

THE COURT: All right Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Good afternoon, Ms Sutherland

A Good afternoon.

Q My name is Bill Burck I represent Maureen McDonnell Have we ever met before?

A I have not met you.

Q We haven't spoken on the phone, either, have we?

A No

Q You testified that you had a conversation with then Governor-elect McDonnell back in December of 2009 about potentially joining the staff, right?

A Uh-huh.

Q And would it be fair so to say he personally recruited you to that job?

A He did the closing pitch.

Q So he spoke to you directly and he asked you to join the team, right?

A Yes

Q And you testified that you were a state employee You worked for the Office of the Governor, right?

A Correct

Q There is no such thing as the Office of the First Lady of Virginia, right?

A No

Q And you actually officially reported to Martin Kent; is that right?

A That's correct

Q And he is the Chief of Staff or he was the Chief of Staff to Governor McDonnell?

A That's correct

Q Okay Now, you were brought in to help Maureen McDonnell, right? That was the purpose for bringing you in?

A Well, to serve as her Chief of Staff, yes

Q In that position, you would be there to help her, right?

A Correct

Q Okay And you were told at the time that she was having some difficulties with the campaign and also transitioning into becoming the First Lady, right?

A Not at that time

Q Not at that time You were aware of the inaugural dress issue?

A Yes

Q You knew she was upset about the inaugural dress?

A We talked a lot about clothes

Q You were aware of the fact that she had gone through a number of staff members; that's why they were coming to you at the time from the campaign?

A For the position of First Lady -- of Chief of Staff to the First Lady?

Q Well, actually, just she had staff that helped her during the campaign and that a lot of people had come and gone Were you aware of that?

A I was not on the campaign staff

Q I'm not asking if you were on it I'm asking if you were aware that there had been a number of staffers who had come and gone during the campaign who had worked for

Ms McDonnell

A I knew of at least one

Q She had come and left?

A I don't know if she left the campaign staff, but I know she had worked some for the First Lady at the time she wasn't First Lady, she was on the campaign, and then didn't stay in that position.

Q And I think you testified that when you spoke to then Governor-elect McDonnell, that he said that the most important requirement is that, for him, was that he come home at night to a happy wife, right?

A That was in response to me asking what would he consider success

Q Okay So you were chosen to help guide the First Lady through this process of become being the First Lady

A Yes

Q Okay And part of that job is to help protect her, not physically, of course, but to make sure she sees what is needed from her, what is appropriate for her as the First Lady, right?

A A lot of it was in helping her establish her office and develop an agenda and what would be appropriate to wear There were a lot of aspects to the job

Q Okay And you had significant experience before, right? You had worked in two prior administrations?

A But never for the First Lady

Q But two prior administrations, gubernatorial administrations?

A Under Governor Allen I worked in public safety, and under Governor Gilmore I was actually assigned to his office

Q To the office of the Governor?

A Correct

Q Prior to taking on the position of Chief of Staff to Maureen McDonnell you were employed as an event planner for Benedetti & Farris, right?

A Correct

Q You consider yourself, as do others, as being a very professional person, right?

A I try

Q And you were someone that the Governor-elect could trust, right? That's what you understood to be the situation?

A Yes

Q And also, you knew going in that it wasn't going to be easy with Maureen McDonnell, right? Isn't that what you understood at the time?

A No, my understanding was that they wanted me to work with her My experiences with her when we were working as -- when he was running for Attorney General and I was doing the event planning was, you know, the only thing I did with her was plan the events for the inaugural, and we went shopping for her inaugural outfits for the Attorney General's events

Q Didn't Martin Kent tell you something to the effect that Maureen McDonnell could be a handful around that time?

A He might have I don't specifically recall that

Q And didn't Jasen Eige tell you around that time that Maureen McDonnell threw a fit about the inaugural dress, something like that?

A This was in an e-mail

Q That is was back in '09, December '09-2010 time frame?

A The inaugural was January, 2010

Q So the answer is it was in that time frame

A Yes

Q Okay Now, you talked a bit about how difficult it was once you were on board as the Chief of Staff to work for Ms McDonnell, right?

A Not every day, but there were difficult moments There were some days that were very -- when we had a good time

Q Some good days, some bad days

A Correct.

Q I think you told the prosecutors on several occasions that most of the staff that were either working with her or around her were generally unhappy Not all the time, but often unhappy.

A There were times.

Q And I think you said that she was a quote/unquote screamer Did you say that?

A Many of us said she was a screamer

Q Right And you had multiple conversations with Mr Kent about the challenges of working with Ms McDonnell, right?

A Yes

Q And it was so difficult that by the summer of 2011, you testified that you were looking for a new job, right?

A I had started looking before then

Q You started to look earlier in 2011?

A Yes

Q It was about a year you had been there and you had had enough

A I believe my conversation with Martin was March of 2011

Q You told Martin Kent around that time that you were thinking about leaving, right?

A Yes

Q And I think you said to the prosecutors that you were very clear with Mr Kent that you were done being a babysitter in a nuthouse Isn't that what you said?

A I don't recall saying that

Q Do you recall saying that --

A I recall using the term "babysitter."

Q Do you recall telling prosecutors that you thought the First Lady was a nutbag?

A I used that before I don't recall when I said it with them.

Q But you did say that about the First Lady?

A Probably

Q Okay And you said she was constantly blaming and that she was never -- that nothing was ever good enough and that you did not want to be her babysitter

A Correct

Q Things to that effect You also witnessed Maureen McDonnell scream at the Governor, right?

A I would say raised voice

Q Raised voice By the time you left the office as Chief of Staff, you and Maureen McDonnell were barely speaking, right?

A I was maintaining contact as I needed to for my job The First Lady had stopped speaking to me

Q Okay But you said it wasn't all bad, right?

A No, there were times where we had a lovely day and we had, you know, laughs, some private moments

Q Right When Maureen was happy she could be sweet, right?

A Absolutely

Q And you became close to her You testified you were friends You were professionally close as well?

A You can't spend as much time as we did and not develop a close relationship

Q You shared personal information about each other?

A Yes

Q She treated you, I think you said, like a girlfriend.

A At times

Q And you also, I think, told the prosecutors that for a long time Maureen McDonnell didn't have any close friends other than you.

A She did not have close friends that I was aware of You know, like a girlfriend that would come and have lunch with you or go to a movie I did not see any of that.

Q You understood that Maureen thought of you as being her confidant, right?

A Yes

Q And she and the Governor allowed you to use the Executive Mansion for your own wedding, right?

A Yes I was one of two staffers that had the privilege

Q Okay. And I think you told the prosecutors that after you left your position and you were out back at Benedetti & Farris you saw Maureen McDonnell at some events and you actually went up to her and gave her a hug

A Yes, it was an event at The Jefferson.

Q And she was surprised?

A Seemed to be

Q That you hugged her Did you at all feel sorry for Maureen McDonnell and the position she found herself in with everyone really not liking her that much in the Mansion; is that something that occurred to you?

A I felt sorry for her that she didn't enjoy the experience more There was so much, you know, so many wonderful things that were going on

Q And Jonnie Williams, you got to know him a bit, too. Did you ever get a sense that he felt sorry for her?

A Not to my knowledge Not that I saw

Q Let's talk a bit about Mr Williams In particular, about Maureen McDonnell's relationship with him from your perspective You would agree with me that Maureen gravitated toward Jonnie pretty quickly

A Fairly quickly, yes

Q They had the shopping trip in April and then pretty soon thereafter she was inviting him and his wife to the Mansion for dinner and then he would see her quite frequently

A Yes

Q I think you testified that he came over to the Mansion once a week or so?

A It seemed like that, like I said, I would have to have the visitor log to be very specific on that But he was a friendly man. Very gregarious

Q Was it your sense, you testified that Maureen did not have many close friends that you were aware of Was it your sense that she was lonely?

A I don't know if I would use the term "lonely " I think there were lonely moments But, you know, she is a mother of five I don't know how lonely that can be

Q Her kids were around?

A Some

Q But they had moved out, most of them, right?

A The boys were at school, so they would be home during the summer as their youngest daughter was there during the summer, you know, in and out

Q And Jonnie Williams, you would agree with me, gave her a lot of attention, right?

A Yes Like I said, he was very friendly

Q And he bought expensive gifts for her, didn't he?

A Yes

Q And when you went on the shopping trip with Maureen and with Jonnie, I think you testified that Maureen was like absolutely giddy?

A She was enjoying it

Q Like a kid in a candy store?

A Yes Beautiful clothes It was a fun day No stress

Q And Maureen also, you knew, really cared a lot about nutraceuticals, right?

A Very much so

Q That was, of course, Jonnie Williams' business

A Yes

Q He talked about nutraceuticals all the time, didn't he?

A She was very excited to find someone who understood what she did about the product

Q She told you that, right?

A Yeah.

Q Did you believe her when she said that to you, that she was excited to find somebody who believed in nutraceuticals like she did?

A Oh, yes

Q I think you said that Maureen was all in on Anatabloc, right?

A Yes

Q And you said that she believed, this is what you told the prosecutors, that she believed in the product, she believed in the company, and she believed in Jonnie Williams

A Yes

Q And Jonnie Williams even got to know the family beyond the Governor-elect and Maureen. He got to know the kids, too, right?

A He spent some time with them.

Q Bobby, for example?

A Playing golf

Q Do you know that Bobby considered him to be a mentor?

A I did not know

Q And the $15,000 wedding gift for Cailin's wedding, you were aware of that, right?

A Yes

Q She didn't try to hide that from you?

A She gave me the check to give to the caterer

Q You delivered it to the caterer?

A Correct

Q Personally?

A Correct, yes

Q And Jonnie Williams went to the Governor-elect and Maureen's 35th anniversary, right?

A Yes, at Barboursville.

Q Would you say that over time, not even a very long time, they became fairly close, Jonnie and Maureen?

A Define close

Q He would visit her, they would spend time talking

A They would talk.

Q And he was a frequent visitor to the Mansion, as you said

A Yes

Q You told the prosecutors they usually met privately upstairs in the personal residence or in her basement office Do you remember telling them that?

A I know that when they would meet, it was usually in her office. Sometimes upstairs

Q But it was usually private

A Usually

Q So most of those --

A I think it depended on the meeting If there were someone else involved, sometimes others were there

Q They would often meet privately

A I don't know that I would say often, but they met privately

Q You were not present for those meetings?

A Correct

Q So you don't know what they said to each other

A I have no idea

Q You also told the prosecutors that many of the meetings between Maureen and Jonnie Williams were spontaneous Do you remember telling them that?

A Yes

Q You characterized Maureen's meetings with Mr Williams as play dates Do you remember telling the prosecutors that?

A She would enjoy his company

Q Do you remember saying that they were play dates?

A I don't recall using those words

Q Please put up just for the witness and just for identification -- to refresh her recollection, the FBI 302 dated June 28th, 2013 Please go to Page 5 Now, Ms Sutherland, this is a little strange, but here is what I need you to do Can you just read that paragraph to yourself, don't read it out loud, and all I'm asking you to do, and it is actually highlighted for you, what I am asking you to do is just read it to yourself and then put it aside or they will turn it off and I'll ask you some questions

(Witness perusing document)

A Okay

Q Now, I'm going to ask you a question again Do you recall telling prosecutors that Maureen's meetings with Williams were play dates?

A Yes, now having read it

Q And you told them also that the Governor wasn't there a lot, right?

A Correct

Q And you told them that Jonnie paid attention to Maureen and she had fun with him. Didn't you tell them that?

A Yes

Q And you also described Jonnie Williams as Maureen McDonnell's favorite playmate Do you remember telling them that?

A I'm not denying I did. I just don't recall that specifically

MR. BURCK: I'll just briefly, please, show the witness the 302 from September 24th, 2013, FBI 302, Page 7 Please publish it just to the witness

BY MR BURCK:

Q Ms Sutherland, when I show you this, the same drill Just read it, please, don't read it out loud, and then I'll ask you some questions

(Witness perusing document)

Just highlight the last paragraph Thank you. Just read that to yourself

A I'm done

Q Do you remember telling the FBI and the prosecutors that Jonnie Williams was Maureen McDonnell's favorite playmate?

A That's my testimony there I know, I just --

Q You don't recall saying that?

A I don't recall saying it I obviously did

Q That's fine. Put that aside. Do you remember telling the prosecutors that you had never experienced anything similar to the relationship and apparent access Williams had with Maureen at the Executive Mansion; do you remember telling them that?

A To be honest, no, I don't recall telling it, but I've just read it So --

Q Okay

A It was a while ago

Q That's fine Now, you also told the prosecutors about what's called annoying calls that Jonnie Williams told you he would get from Maureen in the summer of 2011 Do you remember that?

A Yes, I do.

Q And you told the prosecutors that Williams would call you and ask for your assistance in stopping Maureen from calling him constantly Do you remember telling them that?

A I remember referencing one conversation he had with me complaining about the late night calls

Q Okay And you told us a bit about a second shopping trip that Maureen McDonnell had thought about during the 35th anniversary?

A She wanted to arrange a second trip.

Q Right And you also had a conversation with Mr Williams about that, didn't you, that second trip?

A At some point, yes

Q And you recall that you said that, you told the prosecutors that Maureen was hounding Mr Williams to take her and her daughter, Rachel, to New York for another shopping trip, right?

A Yes

Q And you said that Maureen sat her daughter, Rachel, next to Jonnie Williams at the 35th anniversary?

A Correct

Q The purpose of that, as you understood it, was that so Rachel could somehow convince Jonnie Williams to take them shopping

A No, that's not correct To develop a rapport

Q Develop a rapport Between Rachel and Jonnie?

A Yes

Q Okay And you also said that Mr Williams didn't want to take her on the second shopping trip, right?

A From what he told me

Q Okay And he said no ultimately, didn't he?

A Ultimately, yes

Q So he told her no to the second shopping trip.

A Yes

Q Let's talk a little bit more about Jonnie himself from your perspective He was a very likeable, charming guy?

A Yes

Q Kind of larger than life, a funny guy?

A Funny

Q And also, he was generous, right, not just with Ms McDonnell but with other people, too

A Yes

Q And with you as well sometimes

A Yes.

Q He took you to lunch at the Kinloch Country Club, right?

A With Ms McDonnell

Q With Ms McDonnell

A Uh-huh.

Q On the Florida Roskamp trip, you flew down in his jet, right?

A Correct

Q You stayed at the Ritz-Carlton and he paid for that

A Correct

Q And you got a spa facial that he paid for

A Yes

Q Jonnie always paid for everything, right, as far as you know?

A Seemed to.

Q And you also became excited about Star Scientific and Anatabloc during that Roskamp visit, right?

A No, that's incorrect I had started back when we first met him in New York. He had given us each samples of the product and I was taking it Years ago I broke my coccyx, maybe this is more information than you need, I broke my coccyx bone and actually I felt the product was helping with that old injury So I was excited about how I was feeling

Q So you were excited about Anatabloc even before Roskamp

A Correct

Q But you bought the stock after Roskamp.

A I was taking the product, I guess at that point two or three months, so yes

Q It was June 2nd

A I know it was in June

Q It was in June Okay That's roughly the same time that Maureen McDonnell bought stock

A Correct

Q And it would be fair to say that Jonnie Williams, during that summer of 2011, that he was there for you during a difficult time professionally?

A Yes He lent a sympathetic shoulder

Q As you testified, you were very unhappy in your job, right?

A Yes That was not unknown to others in my circle

Q He took you to lunch and breakfast and he listened to you, didn't he?

A I recall two breakfasts, I recall two, and a lunch. That was it

Q He allowed you to vent a bit about your professional issues, right?

A I did some, not a lot

Q But he also admired your professional skills, didn't he?

A That's what he said

Q I'm going to show you, it is already admitted into evidence, it is the phone records of Mr Jonnie Williams And it is RM-0104, Page 02394 This is already in evidence This is a particular page from Jonnie Williams' phone records There we go You see that there are two highlighted phone calls

A Uh-huh.

Q And what are the last four digits of your cell phone at this time?

A 8927

Q And then Jonnie Williams', I don't know if you recall, but his was 5828

A I don't recall, but --

Q These are his records

A I'll take your word for it

Q So you see on January 20th, 2012 at 9:41 a.m., you received a phone call from Jonnie Williams that lasted about 42 seconds?

A Okay

Q Now, who knows if that was a missed call or if it was a voicemail or what have you, but right beneath that is a phone call the same day, 9:52 a.m., from you back to Mr Williams See that?

A I see it

Q That's a nine-minute phone call?

A Uh-huh

Q You testified about, on direct examination, about a letter or a journal that you wrote?

A Yes

Q And that was written by you?

A Right

Q And it was addressed to Mr Williams

A Uh-huh

Q But you said that it was not in fact sent to Mr Williams; is that right?

A Correct

Q I'm going to ask you to publish -- please take that down and just publish for the witness RM-0014 And, just looking at that first page, do you recognize that document?

A I do.

MR. BURCK: We offer RM-0014.

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Can you just blow up the date? The date of this letter is January 20th, 2012?

A Yes

Q That's the same day of the phone calls we just looked at?

A Uh-huh.

Q Can you also just blow up the first sentence of the letter? And it says, "Mr Jonnie Williams Dear Jonnie, thank you for taking the time to call today I made the decision to write to you because I have little confidence the a breakfast meeting with ever take place again." Do you see that?

A Yes

Q Did you write this letter just about the same time of the phone call?

A Yes It was after the call

Q Please take that down Thank you

Q Following the Roskamp event in June of 2011, Jonnie Williams called you to tell you that you were the type of person he wanted working for him.

A It was initially to do some after hours work for him which I told him I couldn't do I had enough on my hands

Q He actually told you that he would pay you outside of your job?

A Correct

Q This is outside of your state job that he offered

A Correct

Q But you said no.

A Correct

Q And you met with him for breakfast

A After that

Q Now, do you recall that you met with him sometime, one breakfast was in early July of 2011?

A I know it was post-shopping with my niece and prior to the Barboursville event

Q Do you recall it was at the Berkeley Hotel?

A That was a lunch in August

Q So you did not have a breakfast with him?

A Not at the Berkeley

Q Okay At one of these meetings or breakfasts or lunches, Mr Williams sort of zeroed in on your unhappiness, right?

A Yes

Q And he said to you something like "You can't fool an old southern boy," right?

A Correct

Q And you explained to Mr Williams that you were looking to leave your job as Chief of Staff for Maureen McDonnell, right?

A Correct

Q But you also told him that you needed an anchor client to take back to Benedetti & Farris in order to cover your salary, right?

A I told him I was looking for one

Q And at the time, Mr Williams was not interested in that plan, right, himself He was not interested in being your anchor client

A No, what he wanted was for me to go and work for his law firm.

Q Did you ask him to be your anchor client?

A At that time, no

Q And Mr Williams suggested that you should talk to Jerry Kilgore about having McGuireWoods put you on staff?

A That was his idea

Q Okay McGuireWoods is the law firm that Jerry Kilgore works for?

A That's correct

Q That was Mr Williams' law firm?

A That's what he told me

Q He told you that McGuireWoods or Jerry Kilgore would just charge him extra for your time, your pay

A That was his plan.

Q And he reiterated to you that you were just the type of person he wanted working for him, right?

A Correct

Q Not just on Anatabloc, but for him personally

A For other things

Q He said he wanted you -- I'm sorry, he said he didn't have time to organize his own life, right?

A That's right

Q And that with work going on at his home in Richmond, all his travel, he saw you as the kind of person to manage all of that for him.

A Correct

Q And he also told you that his secretary, Jerri Fulkerson, was not going to be around with him much longer, right?

A That's what he told me

Q And even then she didn't handle everything he needed done

A Some of it also would have been to do some of the events as he was bringing out his product

Q Okay I ask to publish, it has been previously admitted, RM-618 Can you turn to Page 23, please, of that exhibit? Can you blow up the highlighted part as much as possible? It is a little hard to read. I'll tell you, this is an expense report that Jerri Fulkerson filled out for Jonnie Williams relating to lunches that he says you had with him. You see there is one on July 25th of 2011, it says, "Jefferson Hotel, lunch with Mary-Shea Sutherland, assistant to the First Lady, concerning Anatabloc"?

A I can see it is there, but I did not have lunch with him on the 25th

Q That would be untrue?

A That is incorrect It is my birthday I know what I was doing on my birthday for that day

Q What about on the 26th?

A I never had lunch with him at The Jefferson We had one lunch, and it was at the Berkeley And we had a breakfast meeting, and I think it was the second breakfast meeting And the breakfast meetings were at The Jefferson. So this is incorrect

Q And the August 17th, 2011, do you see that, Jefferson Hotel?

A Yes

Q "Lunch with Mary-Shea Sutherland, assistant to the First Lady, concerning Anatabloc"?

A The only lunch I ever had with him was at the Berkeley

Q All of that is untrue

A It could have been the date's right and he wrote The Jefferson instead of the Berkeley, but you would have to ask him.

Q Now, I'm sorry, you had lunch at the Berkeley

A Correct, with Jerry Kilgore

Q And that was on August 1st, wasn't it?

A No, it was in August I don't remember the exact date

Q You don't remember the exact date Do you have any reason to believe it wasn't on August 1st?

A I don't I know it was in August

Q Okay And Jerry Kilgore, he was a former Attorney General of Virginia, right?

A Correct

Q And were you aware that he was assisting Mr Williams in his efforts to get funding from the Tobacco Commission?

A I was not

Q Were you aware that Mr Kilgore's brother and wife were affiliated with the Tobacco Commission?

A Yes, I know both of them well

Q You knew that at the time that you met Mr Kilgore

A Yes.

Q And Mr Williams didn't mention that to you?

A When we had lunch we talked about what I could do for him in terms of my skillset and what an employment or a consulting contract would look like

Q Okay The topic of this meeting was a potential job for you, right?

A It was how a consulting contract could be shaped.

Q Consulting contract with whom?

A For Mr Williams and Benedetti & Farris
Mr Williams' only experience with Benedetti & Farris was as Republican fundraisers. He didn't understand the breadth of services they offered

Q You were going to explain that to him?

A And Jerry did

Q So you and Jerry and Mr Williams are at this lunch together talking about a job for you in some capacity

A Right And Jerry was very clear that Mr Williams' plan about McGuireWoods would not happen.

Q Okay Because it was decided that McGuireWoods could not hire you?

A Correct

Q And it was decided that it made sense for you to return to Benedetti & Farris with Mr Williams as your anchor client; isn't that right?

A Right My plan for months had been to go back to Benedetti & Farris and I had met with a number of former clients and contacts about that

Q And did you agree at that lunch with Mr Williams and Mr Kilgore that you would return to Benedetti & Farris with Mr Williams as your anchor client?

A Mr Williams asked Jerry Kilgore to contact Benedetti & Farris on his behalf and work on a deal

Q For him to be your anchor client

A To be a client At that point I was not using that word.

Q Okay And you and Mr Williams shook hands on this, didn't you?

A Yes

Q And when you asked Mr Williams about compensation -- you did ask him about how much you would get paid, right?

A And he said he didn't want to talk numbers

Q You asked and he said he didn't want to talk numbers

A He said he would put everything in Jerry's hands

Q And he said "Just send everything to Jerry, send the paperwork to Jerry and we will get it all taken care of," something like that?

A That's what he said to Jerry Kilgore I know there are a lot of Jerrys

Q Now, you had another breakfast or lunch, I'm not sure which, but something with Mr Williams after this meeting, right?

A I don't recall anything after that. I mean, I met with him, but not privately

Q Do you recall, maybe it is the same lunch with Mr Kilgore, but do you recall that Mr Williams confirmed with you that you would leave the First Lady's office and that he would be your anchor client?

A He said that he would put it in Jerry Kilgore's hands to put a deal together The deal never went through

Q Before we get to the deal not going through, I'm asking you about --

A I don't know that he used the word "anchor "

Q Was he insistent with you that you not tell the Governor's Office that you were leaving until after the luncheon at the Mansion with the doctors?

A Yes

Q Now, I think you testified that you had told Martin Kent about your job search

A Yes

Q Did you tell him you were talking to Jonnie Williams?

A No, I just told him I was searching

Q So you didn't tell him about Jonnie Williams?

A I didn't tell him about any of the meetings I had.

Q You told him you were looking generally for a job.

A That I was actively pursuing

Q Okay And Mr Williams said, "Trust me, me, Jonnie, and you should only give them two weeks' notice" instead of the month you had suggested

A Correct

Q And he asked you to stay until you got Anatabloc launched.

A Until he did

Q He said that until he got Anatabloc launched?

A Uh-huh

Q And you agreed with him that you would leave on October 1st, 2011

A I don't know if I agreed with him on that date or not But I left at the end of October

Q Okay Now, following the contract -- I'm sorry, following that breakfast, at some point Benedetti & Farris sent you a contract

A Sent Jerry Kilgore

Q Sent a contract to Jerry Kilgore with Mr Williams' instructions, right?

A Correct

Q And Mr Kilgore told you that he tried to reach Mr Williams a number of times to get the contract signed by Mr Williams?

A Correct

Q But he could not get hold of Mr Williams, and he sent the contract to Mr Williams' other attorneys Is that what he said?

A That's my recollection

Q This was in September This was after the launch.

A Right Well, actually, I don't know I don't remember the dates

Q I'll show you some documents soon. Mr Williams calls you at some point, roughly September time frame, to say that because of company policies, he could not sign a consulting agreement with you?

A And that he would pay for any invoices through his Marketing Department

Q Okay Let's break that down. He said that he could not sign a consulting agreement with you because of company policies?

A Correct

Q But that he would pay for you by invoicing Star Scientific each month for your services

A Can you repeat that?

Q Sure He told you that instead of signing you on as a consultant, that he would pay Benedetti & Farris or Benedetti & Farris should invoice Star Scientific each month for your services

A For whatever the company provided That's the advantage of having a consulting company, you get more than just one person So whatever the agreed-to consulting arrangement would have been, he suggested paying it through his marketing dollars

Q And when you say "his," you are talking about Star Scientific's

A Correct That's his company, Mr. Williams' company

Q And he also told you that his word was something that you could take to the bank, right?

A Correct

Q Now, Benedetti & Farris actually sent a contract to Mr Williams, right?

A That's my understanding

Q Please show to the witness only RM-0192 This has not been admitted. Can you read that okay or do you want me to blow it up?

A No, I can see it

Q Read it to yourself This is an e-mail or two e-mails, one from you to Ms Fulkerson and then one, a return e-mail from Ms Fulkerson to you dated September 2nd, 2011 We would offer this in evidence.

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

MR. BURCK: Publish it to the jury Thank you

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Now, the bottom e-mail, which is the first e-mail, it is at 1:23 p.m. on September 2nd. It is from you to Ms Fulkerson. And she is Jonnie Williams' assistant, right?

A Correct

Q "Hi Jerri Abby Farris will send you a new proposal today The confusion came in with Jonnie originally saying to send it to Jerry Kilgore - he has had it."

A Yes

Q The e-mail above that is from you -- Jerri Fulkerson back to you, is that correct?

A Correct

Q Please take that down and publish RM-0009, which is already admitted You are not on these e-mails, but this is a forward from Abigail Farris Rogers to Jerri Fulkerson on the bottom. And if you scroll up, it is forwarded from Ms Fulkerson to Mr Jonnie Williams and the subject line is "Contract for Benedetti & Farris "

A Uh-huh.

Q Who is Abby Farris?

A She is one of the co-owners of Benedetti & Farris

Q Can you take that down and show RM-1992? It is already admitted into evidence Now I'm going to read this to you. This is a letter dated August 23rd, 2011 It is to Jonnie Williams from Ms Farris "Dear Jonnie, we appreciate the opportunity to work with you and your company We believe our combined unique experiences and skills will be an asset to your efforts Mary-Shea Sutherland will be the lead consultant for Star Scientific "

Now, this is in contract form what you had been discussing with Jonnie Williams in August; is that right?

A When we would do things like this we considered it a proposal until it was signed. So it is a proposal for a contract

Q Proposal for a contract It is dated August 23rd, right?

A Yes

Q That's about a week before the Mansion event

A Yes

Q Now, you can take that down After this contract, this proposal came through, there wasn't actually any follow-through from Mr Williams He didn't actually hire you or hire Benedetti & Farris pursuant to that agreement, right?

A No

Q He reneged on his promise to you.

A Yes

Q And in fact, you learned that he told Maureen McDonnell that you were leaving and that you were soliciting him for a job

A She told me that he had told her that

Q And Maureen McDonnell was mad, right?

A Yes

Q She confronted you, she went through your desk?

A Uh-huh.

Q And she questioned you about this whole experience, right?

A She questioned me about a lot of things, but some of that, yes

Q I would ask that we go back to RM-0014 Please publish that That's already in evidence What I would ask you to do, this is a two-and-a-half page letter If we can blow it up so it is easier for her to read. Now, Ms Sutherland, I would ask that you read this letter to the jury

A Just the letter part or start with very top part?

Q Start with "Mr Jonnie Williams Dear Jonnie."

A "Dear Jonnie Thank you for taking the time to call today I made the decision to write to you because I have little confidence the a --" this was typing quickly -- "breakfast meeting with ever take place again. I do believe that you owe me an explanation on the events that occurred last September The following outlines the months leading up-to-date "

MS ABER: I object The letter is in evidence The jury can read it

THE COURT: The objection is sustained

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Let's start with, I'll just take pieces of it rather than have her read the entire thing The third paragraph, "In June, following the trip to Florida where I accompanied the First Lady, you called me to say that I was the type of person you wanted working for you and that you would pay me outside of my job with the state to help you I remember the day clearly I was in a dressing room with my niece when you called We arranged to meet for breakfast, the first of several " Right?

A Correct

Q Was that true?

A That's what I have testified to.

Q "And you said at breakfast we had a very honest conversation I explained that I was looking to leave but in order to do so needed an anchor client to take back to Benedetti & Farris in order to cover my salary "

I think you testified you did not use the word "anchor client "

A In discussions with him. My initial meeting with him was explaining what I wanted to do, go back to Tom and Abby, how the types of clients I had brought before, who I had been talking to It was a general conversation.

Q So the letter, when it says "anchor client," that's not what you actually said to Mr Williams?

A These are my summaries of something that occurred six months prior

Q Then you said that "At that time you were not interested in that plan," "you" being Mr Williams, "but suggested that we should talk to Jerry Kilgore about having McGuireWoods put me on staff and he would just charge you extra "

A I knew that Jerry Kilgore would be able to explain to Mr Williams that McGuireWoods would not go along with that plan.

Q Then you see the next paragraph down, it is a short paragraph. It says: "You went on to discuss that Jerry your secretary was not going to be with you much longer but that even she didn't handle all that you needed covered "

A This is a summary of a conversation.

Q Now, the next paragraph, you said, "It was decided at that time it would not work to have McGuireWoods hire me, and that it made more sense for me to return to Benedetti & Farris and you would be the anchor client "

A Again, this is all a summary of a multitude of conversations

MS ABER: I object.

THE COURT: The objection is sustained The letter is in evidence The jury can read it There is no point in you going through paragraph by paragraph Come on

MR. BURCK: I understood, I'm just pointing out some --

THE COURT: Get to something else

MR. BURCK: Your Honor, I will go to the end of the letter, which has not been testified to, Your Honor

THE COURT: What is the question? What is the question? She wrote the letter She admits she writes the letter It is in evidence What question do you have that can elucidate something?

MR. BURCK: Your Honor, my question to the witness would be did she conceal information from Ms McDonnell and the Governor

THE COURT: Perfectly fine question

THE WITNESS: I did not tell them I was looking for another job I told the Governor's Chief of Staff, Martin Kent

BY MR BURCK:

Q You told the Governor's Chief of Staff, Martin Kent?

A That I was looking for another job

Q But not --

A I didn't tell them about any of the conversations I had with any of the folks I was talking to

Q Okay And did you also keep all your conversations and sentiments about the First Lady, all the things that he had expressed to you and that you had expressed to him, silent?

A I started sharing them when the FBI was questioning me

Q Okay What about texts? Text messages? Did you have text messages with Mr Williams?

A Yes

Q And you printed out all those text messages?

A Some

Q And do you have those text messages any longer?

A No They would have been from, you know, the summer of 2011

Q And when you spoke to Mr Williams on January 20th of 2012, when you wrote this letter, he told you how badly the McDonnells had treated him; is that right?

A Yes

Q Did he explain to you what he meant by that?

A No We were talking about Richmond 2015 at the time

Q Okay And isn't it true that Mr Williams sought you out to work for him?

A Yes

Q Not vice versa?

A Correct

Q Okay

A I can put the letter in context for you That might help you understand more

Q Sure Go ahead

A Like I said, a lot of people journal, a lot of people use diaries I write letters It is a way of releasing what you've got in you and letting it go If I were going to be doing work with his company -- and at the time, Richmond 2015 thought Star Scientific would be a good fit for the cycling race that's coming next year If I were going to be doing any kind of ongoing work with them, I needed to let go of any anger I had from that episode, release it and get past it That letter came after the conversation where I knew there was a good chance I would be working with he or someone from his company on Richmond 2015 In fact, I was talking with him about an event that was going to be held in April to benefit 2015

Q Okay

A So when you keep saying a letter, I understand it is in letter form, but that's how I write

Q Understood But this is a diary

A Well, it is not a diary in that there is a book I would write something and let it go I never printed it

I don't have a copy of it You write things down, you release, and you are done

Q It was meant only for you.

A Correct

Q So as best you recollect, it is accurate

A Well, again, it was a summary of things that had happened six months before over a multitude of conversations

Q Okay Let's move on, or somewhat back in time, back to Roskamp Let's talk about that a little bit more Now, following the Roskamp event in June of 2011, this is when Mr Williams called you to say that he wanted someone like you working for him, right?

A Yes.

Q And Roskamp itself, you went down there with Ms McDonnell, right?

A Yes

Q And I think you testified that it was Mr Williams that invited you down, you and Ms McDonnell

A Correct

Q Do you recall whether or not Ms McDonnell was on the invitation for Roskamp?

A I don't remember ever seeing an invitation

Q You don't remember seeing one?

A No

Q So you would handle invitations, right, for her?
A Yes
Q So if her name was going to be officially appearing on something, that would be something you would typically know about
A Correct
Q Now, the speech that you mentioned, or the brief discussion that Ms McDonnell provided or gave at Roskamp --
A I would say off-the-cuff remarks
Q It was impromptu, right?
A Yes
Q Did you consider Ms McDonnell to be a good public speaker?
A There were times where she could hit it out of the park, and other times she was very nervous
Q Usually when she was impromptu or off the cuff, she was less good, right?
A It would depend on the situation.
Q That day, was she pretty good, not so good?
A She was excited. She stood up and was very gracious to the guests, talked about her excitement for the product and how impressed she was with the research.
Q Now, when you arrived at Roskamp, Mr Williams showed you and Ms McDonnell his knew Aston Martin?

A Not at the Roskamp event When we arrived at the hotel

Q When you arrived at the hotel in Florida

A Yes

Q And Ms McDonnell didn't know what an Aston Martin was, right?

A I remember we talked about James Bond cars

Q That's what Mr Williams told her, it was a James Bond car?

A I think so.

Q And Ms Williams gave him -- excuse me, Ms McDonnell gave him some cookies from the Mansion

A Yes It was a particular kind he liked that the chef made It had cranberries, I know

Q They went inside for lunch. Did you join them for lunch?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, when she was giving these impromptu remarks, you hadn't heard about this launch event before, had you?

A No

Q Can you please publish RM-0185, it has been previously admitted. And this is an e-mail that you talked about on direct examination.

A Yes, I'm familiar with it

Q This is about Mr Jim Abel, your friend, the event planner?

A Yes He does my decorations

Q And this e-mail, he tells Mr Williams, cc's you, that you and he had had a wonderful dinner brainstorming about your launch event

A This was not in reference to the Mansion event This was in reference to launching the product that Mr Williams described to Jim at the cocktail party across the country using ballrooms or private event spaces or whatever he would choose to use, bringing doctors together that he would introduce the product to

Q Okay Did you ever discuss with Ms McDonnell the fact that you had had this conversation with Mr Abel?

A No It is what party planners talk to each other about

Q Now, after Roskamp in early June, please show or publish Government Exhibit 162 Now, this is an e-mail and an attachment that you testified about earlier

A Uh-huh.

Q This is an e-mail from Ms Fulkerson to you that attaches -- if you could show the witness the attachment This is a letter from Mr Williams to Governor McDonnell

A Right

Q And if you go back to the first page, the e-mail, you will see that the e-mail from Ms Fulkerson to you is dated June 16th at 12:39

A Uh-huh.

Q And then you forward it on to Ms McDonnell on June 20th of 2011 Do you see that?

A Uh-huh.

Q Why did it take you four days to send it on?

A It could have been that I was off on Friday I would have to look at calendars to be able to explain that

Q Okay And I would ask that we publish, it is already in evidence, these are more phone records, RM-0104-01839 Now, just to speed this up, there are about ten pages of phone records here from Jonnie Williams' cell phone And from June 13th through June 18th, there are 25 phone calls and texts between yourself and Mr Williams going back and forth. Do you recall if during any of those phone calls or texts that you discussed with Mr Williams the letter that you had received from Ms Fulkerson?

A I don't recall what those conversations were about.

Q Okay We don't have those texts, right?

A Not that I am aware of

Q Going back just a couple months to just on phone records, on April 13th of 2011 when you went on the shopping trip, do you recall that that was during the day, right?

A Yes

Q And about when did it end, late afternoon, early evening?

A It would have been late afternoon because we would have had to have gotten back to the hotel to change for the event that night Refresh, all that lady stuff

Q RM-0104-1649, please publish that It is already in evidence. These are more phone records Again, just to speed up the process, I'll represent to you that there are 15 phone calls and texts between yourself and Mr Williams on that day, most of which occur after 5 o'clock

A Some of it was, the morning ones were settling what time we were going to meet him because we were shopping elsewhere And then the evening ones would have been getting him to wherever he needed to go where the event was He was not originally scheduled to attend that event

Q Okay Now, July 6th, this is RM-0104-09158, now, on that -- sorry 10409158 Now, on that date, that's July 6th, you have 13 texts with Mr Williams Do you recall that I asked you some questions about whether or not you might have had a breakfast with him on that day? Do you remember that?

A Like I said, without a calendar --

Q You are not sure

A No

Q Okay We will turn to that in a second. Let's go to RM-0523 Can you blow up the highlighted section? Now, this says, this is on July 26th, it says it is a charter flight This is an expense report that Ms. Fulkerson filled out for Mr Williams "Expense report, charter flight, doctors and First Lady McDonnell from Richmond to Baltimore for Anatabloc, John Hopkins symposium." Turn to, I think, the third-to-last page of that exhibit You see that that's a manifest or invoice that shows John Clore, Mary-Shea Sutherland, Margaret Shupnik, this is the trip to Gibson Island?

A Correct

Q This is in evidence Please publish this to the jury Now, I think you testified on direct that you did not go to this Gibson Island event in any way for a job opportunity with Mr Williams

A Correct I had nothing to do with setting it up or doing any of the arrangements

Q I'll ask the question As I understood it, she asked you did you go there for a job opportunity with Mr Williams

A No, I did not

Q Do you know someone by the name of Todd Haymore?

A Yes

Q And tell us, who is Todd Haymore?

A He is currently and was under Governor McDonnell the Secretary of Agriculture

Q He was and he currently is the Secretary of Agriculture?

A Yes, he stayed on with the current Administration

Q Do you recall telling Mr Haymore that you were going to Gibson Island on a private jet to meet with Jonnie Williams about a job opportunity?

A No I mean, I talked with Todd all the time, but I don't remember specifically saying that

Q Do you remember generally saying that?

A I could have told him I was going I don't recall

Q Sorry, you don't recall that you said it or you didn't say it?

A I don't recall saying it

Q Okay What I am going to do then is show you a document, and this is FBI report, 10-23-2013, of Todd Haymore This is the same drill we did earlier I don't want you to read it out loud. I just want you to read it to yourself

MR. DRY: Judge, can we approach just one second?

(At Bench.)

MR. DRY: Judge, it is bad enough that they are identifying they are refreshing with a 302 when it is the witness's own 302 Now they are doing it with other witnesses' 302's

THE COURT: If that's an objection, it is sustained. This is really getting old This is something that someone else said to the FBI

MR. BURCK: I'm only asking to see if it refreshes her recollection

THE COURT: But there is not something to refresh This is what somebody else said The objection is sustained

MR. DRY: For the record, they shouldn't be identifying what they are refreshing the recollection with

THE COURT: Yes Don't say that out loud

MR. BURCK: Okay, Your Honor

(In Open Court)

BY MR. BURCK:

Q You just testified that you do not recall saying to Mr Haymore that you were going down to Gibson Island for a job opportunity, right?

A That's correct

Q Okay And you don't recall telling Mr Haymore sometime thereafter that the job prospect was not going well?

A I'm sorry?

Q The job prospect was not going well

A I'm not sure what you are referring to.

Q You do not recall telling Mr Haymore sometime there after the Gibson Island event that your job prospect with Mr Williams was not going well?

A I don't recall that I talked to Todd a lot He knew I was unhappy We talked a lot about what I could do future-wise

Q Okay Now, let's go to August 1st, 2011, same month, beginning of the Mansion event month. Can you show Government Exhibit 190? It is already in evidence This is a meeting with -- this is something you have already testified about, meeting with Jonnie Williams, Mansion, 88-1-2011

A Yes

Q And can you also now show Government Exhibit 179? This is also in evidence Now, Ms Sutherland, you have heard of metadata?

A I've heard of it

Q It is the To and From lines, just basically tells you who actually sent -- it doesn't say who actually sent it, but what account it was sent from and what account it was received at This was a calendar event for Jonnie Williams between the First Lady and Jonnie Williams on

8-1-2011 And if you look in the bottom, it says, "Meeting with Jonnie Williams from Mary-Shea Sutherland."

A Uh-huh

Q Below that it says sent 7-28-2011, 2:04 p.m. That's something called either Zulu Time or some other -- it is not Eastern Standard.

A It is Greek.

Q It is Greek Do you recall that you are the one who actually put in the calendar invite for this meeting on August 1st, 2011?

A I entered a lot of calendar things I couldn't specifically speak to this one

Q Okay And you have testified that you are not on the 1st, on August 1st, you testified that that was the date that you may have entered a calendar invite for the August 30th event for the First Lady

A Right I don't know if it was me sitting at the First Lady's computer or if it was her sitting there typing in There were times when she would enter things and I would read them off to her Other times she would sit on the sofa and I would enter them. Sometimes they were entered from the computer in my own office

Q Okay Now, again, we talked a bit about this lunch you had with Mr Kilgore and Mr Williams at the Berkeley Hotel

A Correct

Q And you didn't recall if it was August 1st

A I don't recall the date

Q But it could be

A It could be

Q Okay That would be the same date that we just looked at for the meeting between Jonnie Williams and Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q That was also the meeting that Molly Huffstetler was present for?

A I believe so. The dates are starting to get a little jumbled.

Q I hear you. Now, can we show RM-01117? It is already in evidence? Blow up the bottom. I'm not going to spend much time on this because you already talked about this This is an e-mail from you to Adam Zubowsky on August 16th, and you are talking about the date for the lunch was selected due to the launch of the product

A Correct

Q The word "launch," that was based on what Jonnie Williams had told you?

A Yes That he was going to launch his product sometime in September

Q And you also testified that you had a breakfast or lunch, it is hard to remember exactly which, but with Mr Williams sometime in the latter half of August, right?

A No, I said I had breakfast with him in July

Q In July

A After the shopping trip with my niece It wasn't appropriate to have a conversation in a dressing room.

Q Understood. But you had a lunch with him where you talked about the job opportunity?

A One lunch It was at the Berkeley

Q And then we saw before, August 23rd, the contract, Benedetti & Farris, was dated August 23rd?

A Right

Q Now, between the 24th and 30th, you are spending most of your time helping get the lunch ready, right?

A Not most of my time

Q A lot of your time?

A No It doesn't take that much time to put a lunch together I mean, you send an invitation out, you take RSVP's, the chef comes up with a menu It doesn't take that much time

Q And how many people went to this lunch?

A It would have been somewhere in the neighborhood of 30 Maybe less The dining room table only seats so many

Q A lot of these people were from Star Scientific or affiliated with Jonnie Williams?

A They provided the guest list, so they were all affiliated somehow

Q At this event you were not present for the actual discussions or the talks that were given.

A No

Q You were sort of in and out?

A Uh-huh.

Q You didn't hear what Ms McDonnell said?

A No

Q Leading up to this event, you testified about press release changes that you had worked on

A I had looked at a press release, told the woman who sent it to me that it was unacceptable, she made changes, and I sent it over to the press office

Q Okay Do you recall that there was discussion about having some kind of press conference on the Mansion grounds?

A At some point there was talk about that, but that never happened.

Q That didn't happen because Jasen Eige and others had intervened to stop it?

A I don't recall I know at one point there was talk about it But that has been several years ago

Q And --

A And it never happened. So there were no details for me to remember

Q And the press release and this press conference that you have some recollection of, neither of those happened -- the original press release didn't come out in the form that you found uncomfortable

A No, they made corrections to it

Q Okay

A And we were not sending the press release out It was his company sending it out They sent it to us so that we could see it ahead of time, and I told them what they were saying was incorrect

Q Ms McDonnell didn't complain to you about that, did she?

A Not that I recall

Q Do you recall her complaining about the fact there was no press conference on the Mansion grounds?

A I don't recall that

Q It was right after this Mansion event that you had some further discussions about the Benedetti & Farris job, right?

A It was after the event I couldn't tell you a date

Q Let's talk a little bit about some of the things that you did with Jonnie Williams over the course of that summer You showed us the dress?

A Yes

Q That you got It was about $1,600?

A Yes

Q I understand you never wore it?

A Never came out of the packaging

Q Is there a reason why you kept it?

A I put it in the back of the closet and didn't think about it again until the FBI knocked on my door and I offered it to them.

Q So you had it for about roughly a year or so before they asked for it?

A I would have to see the date on when they came to my home

Q You testified that Mr Williams had said something to the effect that he does not buy one daughter something without buying the other daughter something, too?

A Something along those lines

Q And you also told the prosecutors that Mr Williams appeared to enjoy the shopping trip, right?

A He was, yeah, there were times, I think, he wandered off and got on his phone He seemed to enjoy the lunch part more

Q Okay And you also discussed the various iterations of the job opportunities potentially with Mr Williams

A During the shopping trip?

Q No, I'm sorry, during the rest of the summer

A We had conversations But I couldn't tell you the specifics on any day or repeat them verbatim.

Q Now, we talked about, you were a state official, right? You received a salary?

A Correct

Q And you didn't tell Mr Kent that you were looking for a job with Mr Williams, right?

A No I told him I was looking for a job with several -- I was talking with a variety of people

Q Did you tell Mr Eige?

A I don't recall talking to Jasen about that I talked to Jasen about a lot of things, but I don't recall telling him that

Q Did you tell anybody in the Office of the Governor that you were looking for a job with Mr Williams?

A I believe I talked with some of the Mansion staff

Q Some of the Mansion staff Who would that be?

A Sarah, at that time we had hired a new girl, Celine. I don't recall telling Celine specifics, but that I was not going to be there long

Q Why did you not tell Mr Eige or Mr Kent that you were talking to Mr Williams?

A I didn't tell them I was talking to any specific person. I didn't feel I needed to.

Q That was my question. I was wondering, why didn't you tell them about Mr Williams specifically?

A Because I didn't tell them about anyone I had talked with I can list you six names of people that I met with and talked to and I didn't tell them about any of them.

Q Were you at all concerned about the fact that you were talking to Mr Williams at the same time that you were assisting in setting up the Mansion event?

A I was doing my job Setting up the Mansion event was part of my job Sarah Scarborough, the Mansion director, was on vacation for two weeks.

Q So you were not concerned.

A No

Q Okay Going back to April and May, HDL, I think it is called --

A Health Diagnostic Labs

Q Health Diagnostic Labs

A Uh-huh

Q You testified you took Mr Williams to that --

A I dropped him off

Q You dropped him off personally You also said it was during the New York shopping trip that this first came up?

A Correct

Q Because you and Ms McDonnell both had blood work done there

A They did a series of testings that showed a variety of things

Q Who was Laura Strickler?

A Leslie Strickler

Q Excuse me Who is that?

A A distant cousin of mine, and at the time was I guess the marketing director for HDL

Q The marketing director for HDL. She is a distant cousin of yours?

A Yes We were also college friends

Q Did you contact her to help set up a meeting with HDL?

A Yes, it made sense, she was my contact

Q Now, after the Benedetti & Farris contract in August and early September after the proposal, you sent an e-mail to Ms Fulkerson about some documentaries that you were going to help Mr Williams with; do you remember that?

A Mr Williams asked a question I told him I wasn't familiar with documentaries, but that I could call the Virginia Film Office and get information on it I typed up the information that they provided and sent it

Q And I'm going to show you -- actually, that's all right. As you just said, it was a film --

A He was interested in how he could promote the fact that this inventive product came from the tobacco leaf

There had been a film documentary on Virginia wine that he was familiar with The First Lady had talked about it He asked me did I know how to make documentaries I said, "I'm not a filmmaker, but I would be happy to make a phone call and get you some information."

Q And did you talk to the Film Office as part of this?

A That's the Virginia Film Office

Q Is that a state office?

A Yes I've been friends with Rita McClenny, who was the head of it, for years

Q Did you consider this to be part of your official job?

A Yes

Q So this was not part of your attempt to get Star Scientific as a client for Benedetti & Farris?

A No

MR. BURCK: I want to show RM-0006 Publish this to the jury, please It is already in evidence, I believe Oh, it is not. Take it down. It is not in evidence yet

Look at the bottom of this e-mail You will see these are a series of e-mails, but there is one at the bottom from Mary-Shea Sutherland to Sarah Scarborough.

A Uh-huh

Q Then there's some other e-mails above that, some of which you are on, some of which you are not

A Okay

MR. BURCK: We would offer RM-0006

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Can you turn to the next page? Now, this is an e-mail on August 29th, Monday I'm not sure who it is from, actually, because it is on the prior page From Sarah Scarborough Who is Sarah Scarborough?

A She was the Mansion director

Q Can you go back to the second page of the e-mail? Blow up the top, please It is from Sarah Scarborough to Emily Rabbitt, and who is she?

A She was the assistant scheduler

Q It cc's you?

A Yes

Q This is dated August 29th It says, "I really do not know anything about tomorrow's lunch - that's Mary-Shea's deal - she is cc'd on it, so I will have her respond, or get the info from her and send your way shortly "

A Sarah had just returned from vacation.

Q So when she says it is your deal?

A I had been managing it for the weeks while she was gone

Q And so I understand your testimony, you were basically doing all of this at Maureen McDonnell's request?

A Doing all of what?

Q All of the Mansion event planning at her request?

A Sarah, if Sarah wasn't there, it fell to me There were many times where if Sarah was on vacation, I managed the event process

Q And during the course of the summer, the several months leading up to the Mansion event, all of the efforts you took to get the Mansion event up and running, that was all at Maureen McDonnell's request?

A Well, the First Lady wanted to host a luncheon. The staff had to put it together

Q So you put it together.

A Because Sarah was on vacation

Q Because Sarah was on vacation It had nothing to do with all the meetings you had with, or the several meetings that you had with Mr Williams?

A No

THE COURT: She said it five times

MR. BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR BURCK:

Q Now, you have spoken to prosecutors or law enforcement about 11 times before you came here to testify today?

A If you count all the times with the police and FBI, I don't know if it is 11 It was a number A number of times

Q But that doesn't sound crazy

A I don't remember exactly how many More than five, less than 15

Q And you have spoken to lawyers from McGuireWoods a couple times?

A I know once, maybe twice

Q That's the law firm that represents Mr Williams?

A Yes

Q And you have been following the trial in the papers?

A On the news more I don't get a newspaper at home

Q Okay Now, we have looked at some of the phone records that show various communications you had with Mr Williams over the years, right?

A Yes

Q You got rid of that phone in August of 2013?

A No. The phone that I had when I was at the Mansion, my personal BlackBerry, when I went back to Benedetti & Farris it was a very old one One of their staff people had left, so we got rid of that phone and they gave me the former staff person's phone I had that phone until August of this past year, when I -- when it was dying, you couldn't make calls on it, and I got a new phone.

Q I'm not sure which that phone is So you had a phone, the phone that we were looking at, the phone records we were looking at showed --

A The BlackBerry that I had when I was working for the First Lady was disposed of in either November or December of 2011

Q 2011 Okay And that's the phone that would have had the texts between yourself and Mr Williams?

A Yes The phone was very old.

Q Okay Now, you said, I think in your diary, you said that you had printed out all of the texts you had with Mr Williams Do you remember saying that in the diary?

A Yes

Q Then you testified you did most?

A There was no way I could have printed out all of them. I know at one point I had printed out a couple key texts to keep, and then when I left the office I got rid of them.

Q And you said that you had, in your letter, in your diary, you said you had maintained copies of all of them.

A Again, that was a summary of what had happened during the summer

Q So you did not keep copies of all of them?

A No

Q Okay And just a few last questions

MR BURCK: Your Honor, may I confer briefly?

THE COURT: Go ahead.

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR. BURCK: Your Honor, may we approach briefly?

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench.)

MR. BURCK: Your Honor, the letter is in evidence, but I think it is important that the jury actually read the letter out loud with the witness because the letter contradicts a lot of what she said.

THE COURT: Absolutely not Go ahead and finish up. If you've got some more questions, go ahead No They can read this at their leisure I have never let a jury read anything while testimony is going on And there is a reason for that We would have to sit here and go through it No

MR. BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor

(In Open Court)

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Just a few last questions You testified or you told Ms Aber that there were, that you had been hired by Benedetti & Farris regardless of whether or not you brought on Mr Williams or Star Scientific as a client, right?

A Right They were expecting a number of contracts to come through.

Q Isn't it true that you were paid less than you would have been paid by Benedetti & Farris because Mr Williams did not come through?

A Yes But it is not the first time I've left a job for a lower-paying job It is all about being happy in where you work

Q Understood It was about half the amount that you got paid, in fact, by Benedetti & Farris because Mr Williams did not come along?

A I would have to do the math, but that doesn't sound correct

Q Okay Now, you haven't been charged with anything in this case?

A Absolutely not

Q You don't have any kind of immunity deal or anything like that?

A No.

Q And you are -- you don't have any other deal with the government, right?

A No

Q And they haven't accused you of anything, right?

A No There is nothing to accuse me of

Q That's because you don't think you have done anything illegal

A That is correct

Q You haven't done any corruption of any sort, right?

A No

Q You are a state official -- you were a state official?

A I was a state employee

///

Q Okay And you agree with me that Ms McDonnell is not a state official?

A Because she was the First Lady It is not a paid position

Q And it's not a public official of --

A Well, she's not elected to that

Q And is she paid a salary?

A No

MR BURCK: Your Honor, that's it for us

THE COURT: Thank you

We're going to take the afternoon break It will be 15 minutes

(Recess taken from 4:03 p m until 4:25 p m)

(The jury entered the courtroom)

THE COURT: Mr Asbill

MR ASBILL: Thank you, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Good afternoon, Ms Sutherland My name is Hank Asbill, and I represent former Governor McDonnell

A Good afternoon

Q I want to go back to the beginning a little about when you got first hired

MR ASBILL: And I would like to pull up

RM-1224, please

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Do you recognize that document?

A Yes

Q That's a copy of your resume?

A Uh-huh

Q And it's a three-page copy of your resume, I believe?

A Uh-huh

Q Is that correct?

A Yeah

Q Is that a current version of your resume, or a relatively current version?

A It would be current as of the summer of 2011.

Q As of the time you started thinking -- or you started to actively look for a new job?

A Yes

Q Okay And is that -- is that resume accurate and that accurately describes your prior employment and your prior qualifications, those sorts of things?

A It -- I would assume so Without reading every line, it looks like it's correct

Q Okay

MR ASBILL: I'd move that into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: What's the number again?

MR ASBILL: It's RM-00 -- excuse me, it's RM-1224

THE COURT: 1224

MR ASBILL: Yes, sir

THE COURT: All right It will be admitted

MR ASBILL: Thank you

You can pull that down

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Now, please correct me if I'm mistaken, but you got hired in roughly -- in the end of 2009 right after the campaign ended; is that correct?

A After -- after the Governor was elected and before taking office

Q Okay

A That was when the job was offered I started once he was already sworn in

Q You started in January of --

A Correct

Q -- 2010; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And I believe you described the -- you had a prior relationship; essentially, you knew the Governor before he was elected; is that correct?

A Yes Because the company I worked for had done the fundraising when he was running for Attorney General

Q Okay Did you apply, affirmatively apply for that job or did my client reach out and ask you to interview for it or to take -- or consider it?

A He did not reach out to me initially A group of ladies did

Q Okay And then you met, I believe, with Martin Kent, his Chief of Staff; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And ultimately, you talked to the Governor about the job?

A Correct

Q And he was very enthusiastic about your qualifications and really wanted you to take on that job as the Chief of Staff for his wife; is that correct?

A Yes He was very nice

Q Okay And you obviously felt that you were very well qualified for that job; is that correct?

A I felt I could bring something to the table

Q Okay And you had worked for two -- in addition to the other things you had done, you had worked for two prior governors, correct?

A And a member of Congress

Q Right And so you had -- did you work in the Governor's Office for those governors or in the --

A No For Governor Allen, I worked in public safety

And for Governor Gilmore, I was on his staff, but I wasn't in his physical offices I was over in the 9th Street office building, and I managed the Governor's Safe and Drug-Free Schools It was, you know -- it was a division of Department of Education

Q Okay But in any event, I mean, you had experience and substantial experience in state government and actually in federal government too --

A Yes

Q -- is that correct?

A Uh-huh

Q Okay And when you took that job, I think you said you -- after you talked to my client and you asked him what are the expectations of the job, correct?

A Well, I --

Q Ultimately, what --

A Yeah What would you define as success

Q Okay And he said happy life, happy -- excuse me, happy wife, happy life?

A Coming home to a happy wife

Q Okay And you certainly did not interpret that to mean putting up with any kind of inappropriate behavior of any sort from anyone?

A No

Q Is that fair?

A That's fair

Q Okay And you started into that job And you were there for, what, about 18 months; is that correct?

A Maybe -- I'd have to do the math, but less than two years

Q January till September the following year; is that correct?

A October

Q October of the following year Okay So 20 months, approximately? Nineteen, 20 months?

A Like I said, less than two years So --

Q Okay And did the job more become more and more difficult as you went on or did it have fits and starts or how did that work?

A Like I said earlier, there were good days and bad days It became a little more difficult incrementally Towards the end, some of the -- it became increasingly more difficult towards the end

Q All right And ultimately, at the end -- or between the time you started and the time you left, in term of difficulties with the job, you only talked to my client one time; is that correct?

A One time that stands out in my mind, because it was very emotional

Q And that was one time before you ultimately left?

A Yes I mostly talked with the Governor's Chief of Staff That was the appropriate way to do it

Q Because you actually were hired by him and you reported to directly to him?

A I reported directly to Martin

Q Okay And how often would you talk to Martin Kent about difficulties with your job?

A There were a number of times I don't have a specific number

Q Over the 20 months, or whatever, can you give me a ballpark estimate?

A I would say easily once a month

Q Once a month you would --

A Maybe --

Q -- about some particular incident or an accumulation of incidents?

A Probably accumulation You know, I had to respect Martin's time as well

Q All right And he had to respect the Governor's time?

A I would assume so

Q Okay In the one time before you left that you talked to my client, would you tell me about that time again, please

A The time where I was in his office with him?

Q Yes, ma'am

A I had come over to meet with Martin It had been -- the First Lady had been very upset It had to do with reimbursements that Sarah Scarbrough would keep She would keep any of the expenses and mark what the family would need to reimburse the State for

The First Lady was very upset about what she didn't think she had to pay for, and there had been a lot of yelling and screaming, and Martin had called to find out what was going on

So I went over to meet with Martin And while I was sitting in the hallway, the Governor came out and could tell that I was upset And I had -- I don't cry a lot, but I had cried that day And he could tell I was upset

So I went into the office with him, and we talked And it was not sitting behind a desk It was very -- he was being very comforting and very kind, and we sat in his office There was a sofa and some chairs So we were sitting there instead of across the desk And he was -- he was generally concerned that I was upset And we talked about what was going on, and he asked me to try and understand what Maureen was going through I mean, I -- just what I said earlier

And, you know, he gave me -- he said that she had had a rough time and her father had died And I related that, you know, I had lost both of my parents and I didn't -- you know, I maintained a full-time job and I had a lot of stress as well and I had never treated people the way she was treating the staff

Q Okay So regardless of the death issue, that, in your view, was not an appropriate excuse for the behavior Is that fair?

A That's what I related to him

Q All right And did you focus that discussion specifically on whatever the reimbursement issues were?

A I don't recall that we went specifically into anything I was just -- I was very upset And, like I said, I was there to meet with Martin I did not go over to meet with him

Q Okay

A I was going through chain of command

Q But you did not expand on any issues you may have had with the First Lady?

A I don't recall Like I said, I was crying I was upset

Q And you talked to him again right before you left, is that correct, or right at the time you left?

A Yes

Q And at that time did you tell my client any more detail, give any more color to the accumulation of things that occurred -- had occurred over the preceding 20 months that led you to want to leave?

A Are you talking about when I passed him going to the lady's room?

Q No Not in the Hilton Hotel That's not what I'm talking about

A That was the last time we had talked So --

Q That's the last -- so the only other time you talked was at the Hilton Hotel?

A No No I thought you said the last time I talked with him

Q I didn't mean that I'm sorry I thought -- the Hilton Hotel was before you left, right?

A Just before, yes

Q Just before you left And at that time, he knew that you were leaving?

A Yes

Q Okay And that's when he hugged you in the hallway and said, "I really" -- "I can't go for the next two years without your help"; is that right?

A He didn't want to, yes

Q All right And he gave you a hug, et cetera, and you said, "My gas tank is empty"?

A Yes

Q All right

A He was always very, very kind

Q And right before that is when you all had the conversation -- you, my client, Ms McDonnell, and Tucker Martin --

A Martin Kent

Q -- excuse me, Martin Kent -- had that conversation as a group where your leaving was solidified, essentially --

A Yes

Q -- is that correct?

A Yes

Q All right Now, during that conversation, were you fully candid with my client about all the things that were on your mind and all the things that bothered you?

A No I had made a decision to leave, and I'm not going to sit there with the Governor of Virginia and go into bad behavior, enumerate bad behavior It was just -- I didn't feel it was appropriate to say to a Governor

Q Okay Would you tell us, please, and tell us -- tell us the types of issues that led ultimately, cumulatively to you wanting to leave

A It was a -- it was a combination of almost two years of emotional stress You know, like I said, there were days where the First Lady was a delight to be around, but they were fewer and farther between

Nothing could make her happy The yelling I felt like I couldn't protect the staff Everybody was in a constant state of tension and distress You know, driving to work in the morning, your stomach is in knots Your phone rings and you feel sick It just became intolerable

Q Was it only yelling or was it more than that?

A It was -- it was yelling It was accusations You know, nothing -- like I said nothing, ever was, you know, was ever right

Q Were the --

A It just led to stress

Q Okay Were the accusations, in your view, fair or --

A No

Q -- accurate?

A No

Q Were there exaggerations or false accusations about issues?

A At times I didn't keep a running log So -- you know, I've tried to put that all behind me

Q Well, were there accusations that you felt were untruthful?

A There were -- you know, yes You know, saying that -- I remember getting a text message during the holidays, you know, having to do with the chef serving her bad shrimp and he was doing it intentionally to ruin her holidays Those types of things

Q Well, when she yelled at you, was she yelling at you for good cause or not?

A No I don't believe you ever yell at a staff person

Q Did anyone else in that office yell at anyone?

A No

Q Your offices were in the Mansion itself; is that correct?

A We were on the grounds Not within the house

Q There was a carriage house outside the Mansion?

A Yes

Q Okay And then there's -- and the Governor's Office and the Governor's staff was where in relation to the Mansion?

A In the Patrick Henry Building

Q I'm sorry I didn't hear you

A In the Patrick Henry Building

Q And that was how far away?

A Less than a football field

Q Okay But if there was yelling in the Mansion, essentially, you can't hear it in the Patrick Henry Building; is that right?

A No

Q All right I believe you described to Mr Burck, and to use your words, like a nutbag, in describing to the police or to the investigators Ms McDonnell; is that right?

A Yes

Q And I know you said you didn't think it was appropriate to -- I mean, did you give them the full download of all the reasons why you were really concerned?

A Did I give the Governor?

Q No, not the Governor I know you said you didn't give my client that download

But did you give the agents, when you talked to them, the true reasons, all the true reasons that you had for leaving?

A No

Q Did you tell them about constant blaming others for something that wasn't their fault?

A Yes

Q And did you -- nothing ever being done well enough or good enough to her satisfaction; is that correct?

A Yes

Q All right And you didn't want to be a babysitter?

A Correct

Q Were there other -- other reasons as well, any others that you can think of?

A I was miserable

Q Any other kind of behavior that made you miserable?

A Like I said, I didn't keep a log of instances
Q I don't mean specific
A It was just -- you know, it was -- I didn't feel you could breathe It was just this intense -- I don't know what word to use It was -- it never stopped It's not like you went home at night and you got, you know, to breathe I'd leave the office and the phone calls would start and the text messages would start and -- you know, I was 50 years old I thought, I don't need to live this way
Q So it -- it -- it was incessant Is that a fair --
A Yes
Q -- characterization?
A Yes
Q And your only sanctuary was to go home to your house and turn off the phone?
A Yes
Q Now, with respect to -- I know you've talked about a lot of various events here, Roskamp and Gibson Island and the Mansion lunch and things of that nature
With respect to all those events, did you have any direct discussions with my client about any of them?
A Not that I recall
Q All right And just a miscellaneous thing The chef in the Mansion, that was Chef Todd; is that correct?

A Well, there have been several But yes

Q He was one of the chefs

A He came on a couple of months into the administration

Q All right And do you know when he left?

A I had already gone So I don't know the exact date

Q Do you know why he left?

MS ABER: Objection Relevance

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q The Virginia study letter, you talked a little bit about that That's Exhibit 617

MR ASBILL: Could you please pull that up for me?

BY MR ASBILL:

Q This is a document that you previously talked about This is the 16th of June 2011; is that correct?

A I'm looking at something from May

Q I'm sorry Take a look at it and just make sure we're talking about the same document

MR ASBILL: 6 -- excuse me 617 is the document, I believe Nope I may be wrong Let me see if I can just do it this way

BY MR ASBILL:

Q There was a Virginia study letter -- I may have the document exhibit wrong -- that you you said you forwarded to -- you forwarded it to Ms McDonnell; is that correct?

A Yes

Q To put in a read folder?

A I forwarded it to her My recollection is I printed it out as well and put it in a read folder

Q Okay This is the one -- I'm sorry

MR ASBILL: It, apparently, is 162 is the exhibit number; is that correct?

MR BURNHAM: It's in evidence

MR ASBILL: It's in evidence, yeah

BY MR ASBILL:

Q This is the one I'm talking about, June 16th, 2011 You get an e-mail from Fulkerson, from Jerri Fulkerson, and then you forward it to Ms McDonnell; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And this is something that you print out and put in a read folder and leave in an elevator of some sort?

A That's my recollection

Q Okay And do you know whether the Governor ever saw it, or if he did, what he did with it?

A I don't know

Q Okay The Homestead event that you talked about, the yearly event for donors, did you attend that?

A No
Q All right And did you ever talk to my client about it?
A Not that I recall
Q Okay And the 35th wedding anniversary and the Barboursville Vineyard wedding anniversary, you did attend that; is that right?
A Yes I was running the event
Q Okay And at that event, do you recall who sat with the McDonnells at their table?
A The owner of the winery and his -- actually, I don't recall if his wife was there The gentleman is Italian
Q Zonin? Is that the name?
A That sounds correct Justice Scalia, I believe, and his wife, because they were friends of the owner I don't recall who else was at the table
Q Okay You testified a lot about the lunch with the Virginia researchers on the 30th of August --
A Uh-huh
Q -- is that correct?
And you testified a lot this morning -- I don't want to go back over it -- about various talks or discussions that you had with Jonnie Williams and with the First Lady; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And with respect to that event, did you ever talk with my client?

A Leading up to it?

Q Yeah

A No, not that I recall

Q All right And you weren't able to attend it because there were only a certain number of seats, and at some point one of the invitees who had not accepted --

A Who had --

Q -- decided to --

A Show up Uh-huh

Q -- at the last minute, come So your seat got taken away?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, I believe you said, and please correct me if I'm mistaken, that -- that something like that had to be approved by the Governor's Office?

A Well, most events, there was a -- there was a way you did them People would request -- and when I say "people," Cabinet secretaries wanting to host a reception to, you know, honor transportation workers, or whatever the reception might be There was a process

And Sarah Scarbrough, the managing director, usually dealt with keeping track of the requests and then would, you know, work with Martin Kent on approval for the events If it came over from the Governor's Office, you know, then it was just a matter of making the event happen.

Q Okay And if it was an outside event or an event that the First Lady wanted to host, there's some process in place in the Governor's Office to do that?

A Usually we would talk about it in the scheduling meetings or I would -- it really kind of depended on the event

It was a common thing to dc, during the General Assembly, that she would host the legislative spouses That didn't need an approval process That was something that you did And we would put it on the calendar and talk about what we were going to do at the event We tried to make them creative and interesting and --

Q Is it fair to say that there were a lot of events at the Mansion?

A There were a lots of events

Q Okay Now, with respect to that particular event, I believe because Sarah Scarbrough was not present, you had something to do with the invitation?

A Sarah had done the invitations before she left on vacation, and there was an error in the invitation So when I went to get them -- when I had received the guest list to send them out, I couldn't send them by mail So I had to go into the computer to redo the -- to correct the error, and then I could send the invitations by e-mail

Q And in connection with sending out the invitations, did you ever ask my client to -- his approval for putting his name on the invitation?

A No

Q Now, are those invitations that were sent out, the invitation that you actually sent out via the computer that you've just described, is that different in some serious way or is it consistent with other types of invitations to Mansion events that you --

A There was a standard template for invitations Pretty much all you changed was the date and the time and whether it was a reception or a dinner

Q Okay And I believe you said that -- and I think you talked about it in an exhibit, an e-mail to Adam Zubowsky I believe it's Exhibit 204 We don't need to -- if you want to look at it to refresh your recollection, it's in evidence, we can do it

But you indicate to Adam Zubowsky, my client's body man, that a couple of days beforehand, that you wanted -- you want to see if Mr McDonnell can actually attend that event?

A Well, I had done what I normally would do If the

First Lady wanted the Governor to attend something, I'd send it to the scheduler When she came back that it wasn't going to work on his schedule, I responded that the First Lady wasn't going to be happy, which was something the scheduler's office had heard on other occasions And so they worked to correct it

Q Is it fair to say that she wanted him to come to a number of her events?

A Yeah Some of -- well, depending on the event

Q Well, I mean -- okay And so help me here Was the event set up before anyone figures out whether or not Governor McDonnell was available?

A We -- the First Lady had access to the Governor's calendar --

Q Right

A -- where she could look at it, but she couldn't change anything on it So she -- when we looked at the dates, if we were going to select something, it would have been that either the calendar -- that, when we were looking at it, was clear or it appeared to be clear

A the lot of times things weren't scheduled too terribly far in advance

Q All right And how far in advance was this particular event scheduled initially?

A I recall that we were -- the -- the date was selected post the meeting that we had in her office with Mr Williams

Q So that was August 1?

A Yes

Q And the event is August 30th, right?

A Yes

Q So sometime in between the two is when this was scheduled?

A Correct

Q All right And then a couple of days beforehand, the Governor basically initially says, "That doesn't work for me," right?

A Well, he didn't The scheduler said it would not work

Q All right The scheduler said it will not work for him?

A Correct

Q All right And then basically at the last minute, he was able to come for 30 minutes of the event?

A I -- I wasn't in the room so I don't know how long he was there I know he came in and took his seat at the table where he typically sits

Q Someone had told you that?

A I was in the kitchen So the word would have come down that, you know -- we all knew when he was moving

Q I'm sorry You all knew when who was moving?

A I'm sorry When the Governor would leave the Patrick Henry Building, usually someone would -- one of the EPU would let us know 101 is moving And 101 was the term for the Governor So that we knew he was coming into the house

Q Okay And to your knowledge, at that event were there any press folks there at the event?

A Not that I am aware of There were no press invited I don't know if there was someone you would consider press that worked for Star in their job capacity

Q But no press were invited?

A No

Q All right Now, the Cure By Design dinner, I think you've talked about that And let me get up to -- with respect to the issue of nutraceuticals, I believe you testified that Ms McDonnell was very passionate about nutraceuticals?

A Yes She believed that it was a better alternative than, you know, surgery or some prescriptions

Q And do you have any -- do you have any knowledge of whether the Governor shared her passion for nutraceuticals?

A I didn't talk to him about it

Q All right Did you ever get any sense that he did or he didn't or do you know at all?

A I don't know

Q Okay The letter that Mr Burck talked to you about, this is the Dear Diary letter?

A Uh-huh

Q And I believe that's RM-0014-001 If you -- I don't need to get into the weeds on it If you need to have it in front of you, because I want to just ask you a couple of questions

It was dated the 20th of January 2012 Is that an accurate date? Is that when you actually wrote it to yourself?

A I would assume so, but --

Q I mean, that would be your habitual practice, in terms of how you did this diary?

A Well, sometimes they were handwritten It depended I did a lot of Dear God letters when my mother died So --

Q Okay

A -- it depended on -- you know, if the computer was sitting in front of me, I just started doing it

Q All right But you don't have any reason to believe that the date on the letter is not actually when you composed it?

A I didn't even remember the letter until after it got brought up --

Q Okay

A -- during all of this

Q And in general, I mean, you're writing to Jonnie You're writing to Jonnie Williams; is that right?

A Yes

Q And --

A You know, like if you were writing to a boyfriend who wronged you You know, Dear Mark You hurt my heart

You know, people write letters

Q Okay And am I accurate in thinking that -- that you felt wronged by Jonnie Williams?

A Yes I didn't understand why he had -- you know, especially accusing Benedetti & Farris of coming after him for business that they didn't do

Q Okay And this -- this related, going back in time, to when the First Lady found out from Jonnie Williams that you were looking for a new job and possibly looking for one that --

A And I didn't know that he had initially told her

Q You didn't -- you didn't know it And how is it that you found out that he had told her?

A It was admitted later

Q Okay And she confronted you about it?

A Yes

Q And searched through your office and through your desk and through your e-mails and that sort of thing?

A Yes

Q And your communications with Jonnie Williams that were not job related, job Office of the Governor related were on a separate computer or on a separate cell phone; is that correct?

A I had two cell phones I had a state phone and a personal phone Depending on -- I mean, I carried them both at all times So depending on who -- different people used different phones

Q Well, did you communicate often via text or phone with Jonnie Williams on your personal phone?

A Probably

Q Okay

A I mean, I tended to use that one more often That was the number the First Lady used

Q You mean to reach you?

A Yeah

Q To reach you during the day or after hours?

A Oh, at any time

Q At any time Okay And with respect to -- I think you've told us that you don't have any of the texts that you may have exchanged with Jonnie Williams?

A No I mean, I offered the police to search my house if they wanted to I have nothing

Q No I'm talking about, you don't have the phone itself that had the texts on it?

A Right I don't I offered that I said -- the last time I got a -- I was subpoenaed to see if I had the phone, I said, "I don't have it You're welcome to come search I have nothing "

Q Okay And you reference in the letter that you've taken, what, screen shots of some texts and you've saved them in hard copy Is that what you're saying in the letter?

A I'd have to read -- I mean, I remember saying something about printing texts

Q I think it's the third paragraph from the bottom on the second page, 0002 The "She then forced me," that paragraph

A "Every communication you and I had was via text I do have copies of all of them but did not keep them at the office If I had kept those copies in my desk, she would have had quite an eyeful "

Those were referring to the phone calls and late-night texts That type of thing

Q Any other type of complaints that would have given her an eyeful?

A Those are the ones that stand out in my mind

Q You also tell him, I think at the conclusion of the letter, that you kept every confidence that he's ever shared with you; is that correct?

A Actually, the letter doesn't conclude It stops So --

Q Okay The second to the last paragraph on Page 3, last line of that paragraph?

A Yes I did not tell her that he was complaining about her texting him

Q And that's the only type of complaint that he made to you about Ms McDonnell?

A He -- he said something about the -- the First Lady wanted Mr Williams to take she and the Governor on a trip in -- to Bar Harbor, Maine, and at one point he called and he said, "You've got to get me out of this "

And I said, "Just say no "

Q And that's the extent of what you remember about the types of complaints --

A Those are the bases

Q -- complaints that he made?

A I mean, if I had known I was going to be here, I would have paid more attention

Q All right The last paragraph talks about "Even today when you called me" -- or "you called you told me how badly the McDonnells treated you and yet I know you continue to lend your plane "

What did Jonnie Williams tell you about my client treating him badly?

A He just felt used That's what he told me

Q Regardless of whatever issues you may have had -- oh, let me ask you this Just go back to -- to some of the behavior that you described

Would it be fair to say that you felt that Ms McDonnell was very secretive?

A There were times she didn't want other staff people or the public to know things She always used -- she didn't use a state-issued phone She didn't -- she had a state-issued computer but usually used the computer that belonged to the Political Action Committee

Q And regardless of what your issues were with Ms McDonnell, did the Governor ever mistreat you in any way?

A No

Q Did you ever witness him mistreat anyone else?

A No

MR ASBILL: I have no further questions

THE COURT: All right Redirect

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Ms Sutherland, turning your attention back to that day on which you went towards Martin Kent's office and was intercepted by the Governor In that conversation with Mr McDonnell, did he act surprised by your complaints?

A No

Q Did he ask for any clarification?

A Not that I recall

Q Did he indicate that in that time period he wasn't talking to Ms McDonnell?

A No

Q And did Mr McDonnell say he'd take care of it?

A I don't remember that we had any kind of resolution

Q Okay I'd like to now talk about the contract that was sent back and forth And for the jury, it's -- I won't pull it up, but it's RM-1992

Do you know what I'm talking about?

A The proposal from --

Q The proposal

A (Nodding head)

Q In that proposal, it shows a payment of $9,000 a month Is that the amount you would have been paid personally if Benedetti & Farris had contracted with Star Scientific?

A No And that was a starting point for them to have a discussion

Q Before going to work at the Mansion in 2010, you worked at Benedetti & Farris, right?

A Yes

Q Okay I don't want to talk about the specifics of what your salary was, but let's just say it's X before you went to work at the Mansion

When you came to the Mansion, was your salary as a government employee more than X or less than X?

A A little bit more

Q Okay

A Not by much

Q And when you went back to Benedetti & Farris, ultimately, at the end of 2011, how did your salary compare to what was your salary at the Mansion?

A It was a little less

Q And in percentage wise, can we ballpark it? I don't want to make you say your salary, but -- five to ten percent?

A I'm not good with math I was -- I was contracted with them as a consultant -- when I went back to Benedetti & Farris, I went on first as a consultant So I got a project fee And then starting with the new year, I went back to a salary that would have been about 12 to 15,000 less than I was making at the Governor's Office

Q Okay Now, when you went to tell Ms -- or when Ms McDonnell called you into her office in September of 2011 in reference to you seeking employment elsewhere, why had you not previously told Ms McDonnell that you were seeking employment elsewhere?

A Because I didn't want to deal with the hell that would come from it

Q And Mr Asbill made reference to Ms McDonnell searching through your office

Can you tell the jury a little bit more about what Ms McDonnell did that day when she found out you were looking for a job?

A She wanted to search my computer e-mails So I gave her -- she asked for my password So I gave her that And she went through -- I don't know if this was that time or if it had been leading up to that She had gone through my desk and Sarah Scarbrough's desk and taken business cards that we had in our desk drawers

Q Okay Now, coincidentally, do you know how many employees it took the Mansion to replace you, how many women they had to hire?

A I believe they increased the staff by three

Q Now, turning your attention to the diary letter in January of 2012 When you wrote that, how long had you been gone from the Mansion staff?

A Three -- three months

Q Okay And is it fair to say, for the jury's knowledge, that that letter was found on a server belonging to Benedetti & Farris? Do you know that?

A Yes

Q Okay Did you ever send that letter to anybody?

A No

Q And in that letter, there's a reference to text messages that we've been talking about

Why did you not keep copies of those text messages?

A I didn't think it was important

Q In reference to the number of times you've met with the FBI, were some of those meetings about another investigation?

A Yes. The first one was.

Q And fair to say that has to do with potential theft of food from the Mansion by the chef?

A Yes The first meeting was

Q The cell phone on which you were texting Mr Williams during the relative time -- the relevant time, when did you get rid of that phone?

A Prior -- it was when I went back to Benedetti & Farris And I don't remember whether it was November or December But a staff person had left They had -- I got that person's phone I got rid of my old one

Q So that was 2011?

A Late 2011

Q And do you recall the first time that law enforcement ever asked you about a cell phone? Was it after that time?

A Well after

Q Now, you told Mr Asbill, I believe, that you did not tell the FBI every reason why you left the Mansion

Why didn't you do that, and what were we missing?

A They were asking questions, and I was giving them answers So I wasn't going to go into -- it didn't seem to matter to them They weren't pushing for answers on what did she do to you So I didn't offer anything

Q And I want to be fair I don't want to put words in your mouth But we're talking -- the things you didn't tell the FBI were the nitty-gritty of some of the unkind things that happened in the Mansion Is that fair?

A Right It didn't seem pertinent

Q Now, turning your attention to the anniversary party, the McDonnells' anniversary party on July 24th, 2011 Do you know if Mr Williams' wife attended that?

A She did

Q Do you know who paid for that party?

A Originally, it was supposed to be split between the McDonnells and Barboursville And then when, post-event, I called Barboursville to get the invoice, I was told that the owner of the winery was going to pick up the entire tab

Q I'd like to show you Government Exhibit 190, please, that's already in evidence This meeting with Jonnie Williams on August 1st, did you contact Dr Bill Hazel and direct him to have someone come to this meeting?

A No

Q Did Ms McDonnell say anything to you about asking Mr Williams for a Rolex in relation to this meeting?

A No

MS ABER: Thank you, Ms. Taylor

BY MS ABER:

Q Did Jonnie Williams ever give you any cash?

A No

Q Did he ever give you any loans?

A No

Q Did you ever ask him for either of those things?

A Absolutely not

Q And finally, when, again, did you leave employment at the Mansion?

A October of 2011

MS ABER: Thank you I have no further questions

THE COURT: All right You may stand down, ma'am Thank you very much

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: I think we'll go ahead and stop there

All right We are going to adjourn for the day I've got two things on the schedule for tomorrow So let's -- let's make it 9:45 9:45 And please be on time All right

All right Don't let anybody discuss the case with you and continue, as you have been, not reviewing any media items, newspaper, radio, television All right We'll see you in the morning on time

THE COURT: All right We'll be back --

MR DRY: Judge, I have just one thing

THE COURT: Yes

MR DRY: Your Honor, the government noticed that at the break of Ms Sutherland's testimony, right after Mr Burck began -- or finished his cross-examination and Mr Asbill began his, Mr McDonnell went out in the hallway, gave Ms Sutherland a hug and had some kind of conversation with her We don't know what that was But obviously, he shouldn't be having contact with witnesses at all, much less while she's still on the stand

THE COURT: All right

Mr Asbill, please talk to your client If that happened, don't let it happen again

MR ASBILL: Yes, sir

THE COURT: All right Thank you

(The trial adjourned at 5:06 p m)

MR. DRY: The United States is ready to proceed.

MR. ASBILL: Your Honor, Mr McDonnell is ready to proceed, but I'd like to make one comment before the jury comes out

THE COURT: All right

MR. ASBILL: You asked me at the end of the day yesterday, I believe the jury had been excused, when Mr Dry made some representations about my client's conduct outside of the courtroom during the break. I've investigated that and I don't believe my client did anything at all improper, but I've addressed it and I want that to be clear on the record in this case

THE COURT: I appreciate your opinion, regarding whether it was improper or not But what I told you to do is speak with him and make sure that it doesn't happen again.

MR. ASBILL: I did.

THE COURT: Okay So we are clear

MR. BURCK: Maureen McDonnell is ready, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

THE COURT: All right, let's bring in the jury

(The jury entered the courtroom.)

All right, good morning Government, call your next witness, please?

MR. FAULCONER: The United States calls Sarah Scarbrough.

SARAH SCARBROUGH,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Good morning

A Good morning

Q Could you please state your name and spell your last name for the court reporter?

A Sure Sarah Scarbrough, S-C-A-R-B-R-O-U-G-H.

Q And what city do you currently live in?

A Chesterfield, Virginia.

Q What sort of educational background do you have?

A I have my Ph.D from VCU.

Q What about undergraduate?

A Undergraduate from UVA-Wise, and my Master's also from VCU.

Q You said you have your Ph.D Do you go by Dr Scarbrough?

A Sure

Q We have had some others

A Okay

Q Where are you currently employed?

A At the Richmond Sheriff's Office

Q Where did you work before that?

A At the Governor's Mansion.

Q And who was Governor while you worked at the Governor's Mansion?

A Bob McDonnell

Q About how long did you work there?

A Three-and-a-half years

Q Was that from the beginning of the term until sometime in August of 2013?

A Yes

Q Now, before you started working there, did you actually know the McDonnells?

A I did.

Q Did you know their daughter, Cailin McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Is Cailin McDonnell actually a personal friend of yours?

A Yes

Q Was she before you ever worked in the Administration?

A Yes

Q So is testifying here today a pleasant experience for you?

A Not at all

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, when you worked at the Mansion, were you a state employee?

A Yes, I was.

Q Did you get your salary from state funds?

A Yes

Q Now, as Mansion Director, could you describe for the members of the jury what your job responsibilities were?

A Sure The bulk of my job was actually event planning We had a number of events at the Mansion, every day and every week, actually, so that was the bulk of it But I was in charge of overseeing the budget, coordinating some things with the First Lady's schedule in her events, as well as overseeing and working with the Board that helps the Mansion in dealing with the history as well as being a spokesperson for the Mansion and the contents there

Q And who else worked at the Mansion while you were there?

A At the beginning, it was myself, the First Lady's Chief of Staff, Mary-Shea Sutherland. We had a butler, a housekeeper, and an assistant, and a chef as well And then that changed a little bit once Mary-Shea left and that position went into a senior aide position and the others remained the same

Q And when Mary-Shea Sutherland was there, who did you report to?

A To her directly

Q After she left, who did you report to?

A To Martin Kent, the Governor's Chief of Staff

Q Regardless of who you directly reported to, who was your ultimate boss?

A The Governor

Q So if Mr McDonnell told you to do something, would you do it?

A If it was legal, yes.

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, could you tell us how often you interacted with Ms Sutherland when she was Chief of Staff for the First Lady and you reported to her?

A Daily

Q What kind of person was she to work for?

A I enjoyed working for her and with her She was very personable, very professional She was always available to lend support or advice if I had a question, to help me out when I needed it

Q Did she ever ask you to hide anything?

A No.

Q Did she ever ask you to do anything deceitful?

A No.

Q Dr Scarbrough, as Mansion Director, could you tell us whether you saw the McDonnells, Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell, interact with each other quite a bit?

A I did.

Q Did you see them together at events that would be at the Mansion?

A Yes.

Q Did you see them together outside of events, formal events at the Mansion?

A Yes.

Q About how often would you say that they, for example, had dinner together?

A A couple times a month at least, I would say

Q Was there a decent amount of family time spent together amongst them?

A Certainly not as much as most people have. The Governor was gone a lot But he made time for his family and his wife.

Q Now, based on what you saw of Mr McDonnell's interactions with his wife, could you tell us how you would describe their interactions with each other?

A They seemed like a very happy, in-love couple

Q Do you recall having previously described them as Mr McDonnell worshipping the ground Maureen walked on?

A Yes

Q Dr Scarbrough, could you tell us whether you ever saw them be affectionate in public towards each other?

A I did.

Q Dr Scarbrough, I'd like to shift now to a little bit about more detail about what your job entailed on a day-to-day basis

A Okay

Q Based on your interactions with Mr McDonnell, as his Mansion Director, and what he told you to do, could you tell us where on his Administration's list of priorities the matter of Virginia business and economic development was?

A It was one of the most important priorities, I believe

Q How common was it for him to talk about business and economic development in Virginia?

A Very, very common.

Q You said earlier that one of your jobs as Mansion Director was to coordinate and plan events, right?

A Correct

Q How customary was it for those events to relate in some way to business and economic development in Virginia?

A Very common.

Q Now, how common was it for Mr McDonnell to attend events?

A Very common.

Q How about other government officials?

A Also very common.

Q Other businesspeople?

A Common as well

Q Now, so based on your experience, was hosting and attending events a customary part of the Governor's position?

A Yes.

Q And in fact, did you actually keep a list of events as part of your job of all the events that would happen at the Mansion?

A I did.

MR. FAULCONER: If we could pull up for identification what's been marked as Exhibit 511

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q If we could just blow up the e-mail at the top there Dr Scarbrough, is this a list of Mansion events from 2010 to 2013?

A Yes.

Q I guess it is an e-mail with you forwarding that along; is that right?

A Correct

Q Have you had a chance to review this before you came into Court to testify?

A I did.

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 511 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, if we could just flip to the first page of the attachment I guess it goes on for a number of pages; is that right?

A Yes, sir

Q But this lists the date, the event, the attendees, the payer Sorry, if we could just stick on the first page The date, the event, the attendees, who paid, and the number of attendees; is that right?

A That's correct

Q Now, if we show show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 512 Zoom in on the top there

Dr Scarbrough, is this an e-mail from you to Tucker Martin and Jeff Caldwell on April 11th, 2013?

A Yes, it is

Q Is this attaching a smaller subset list of Mansion events?

A Yes.

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 512 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Dr Scarbrough, this event list, if we could skip to the first page of the attachment Now, could you describe what sort of smaller subset this list is as compared to the full list of Mansion events we saw a moment ago?

A This is a list of the events we hosted that were for Virginia businesses or non-profits

Q We can take that down. Now, Dr Scarbrough, I'm assuming these events don't happen just sort of snap of the finger

A No

Q Could you describe what exactly the process is for you to get one of these off the ground and make it happen?

A Sure All of the events that we hosted at the Mansion actually had to be approved by the Governor and the Governor's Chief of Staff Once we got the approval, I would work with the Governor's scheduler to confirm a date that would work for the Mansion as well as the Governor's calendar and the First Lady's as well Then we would work on the invitation list, which often took some time to make sure we didn't leave anybody off Invitations would go out, we would manage all of the RSVP's and in the meantime work with the chef to develop a menu and order flowers or whatever else was needed for the event And then we would have the event

Q When you are doing all that, are you on official time?

A Yes

Q Now, can a private person just call you up, the Mansion Director, and say, "Hey, I want to have my event at the Mansion, give me a date"?

A No.

Q So there is a formal process

A Yes.

Q Now, you have said a little bit about events related to organizations and businesses being something that's common, right?

A Right

Q Now, can you tell us how typical it was for events to be about a single product rather than about business or industry more generally?

A It wasn't very common. It was generally about an industry

Q Now, I'd like to shift attention a little bit to Jonnie Williams

A Okay

Q Do you recall how you first heard about Mr Williams?

A I believe it was by either the First Lady or Ms Sutherland

Q And the first time that you heard the First Lady, Ms McDonnell, talk about Mr Williams, can you tell us how she described him?

A She just really described Anatabloc, his product, and not necessarily him as a person.

Q Do you ever recall at the time she first talked about Mr Williams Ms McDonnell describing Mr Williams as a longtime family friend?

A No, I don't

Q At any time, before the investigation broke at least, did you hear Ms McDonnell describe Mr Williams as a longtime family friend?

A No.

MR. BROWNLEE: Objection, Your Honor, asked and answered.

THE COURT: Overruled.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q At any time, not just the first conversation, but at any time after that, before the investigation broke, did you ever hear Ms McDonnell describe Mr Williams as a longtime family friend?

A No

Q Did you ever hear Mr McDonnell describe him that way?

A No.

Q Now, do you recall having previously told law enforcement that it seemed to you like there was an ulterior motive on Mr Williams' part?

A I do recall

Q Just to be clear, when you said that, did you mean ulterior romantic motive or business motive?

MR. BROWNLEE: Objection, leading

THE COURT: Overruled.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Sorry When you previously said ulterior motive on Mr Williams' part, did you mean ulterior romantic motive or business motive?

A Business motive

Q Now, you have said, I think earlier, that you have seen sort of affection in public between Mr and Ms McDonnell

A Correct.

Q Give us just a brief example of that

A Typically, when they were at events with one another, the Governor might give her a kiss on the cheek or put his arm around her, or if he was introducing her, say something very nice and sweet about her

Q Did anything about what he was doing in those circumstances seem fake or inauthentic to you?

A No

Q Compared to that, did you ever see Ms McDonnell and Mr Williams be affectionate to each other in public?

A No.

Q All right I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 104 Dr Scarbrough, do you recognize this as an Outlook entry?

A I do

Q What's the subject for this particular entry? This has already been admitted.

A "Dinner with Jonnie and Celeste Williams "

Q Does that appear to have a Word document attached to it?

A It does

Q If we could flip to the attachment, the second page. Could you tell us what type of document this is?

A This is a briefing document that was done before all events and functions at the Mansion.

Q And who typically puts these together?

A I did.

Q Now, do you see there where it says, "Owner/Contact: Sarah Scarbrough"?

A Yes

Q What does that mean?

A That means that I was the person to coordinate from the Mansion, and typically that I am the on-site contact if something comes up and somebody needs to be contacted.

Q Does that mean it was your idea to have this event?

A No.

Q Down below under "Additional Information" where it says, "Per FLOVA request," can you tell us why you wrote that there?

A Because it was Ms McDonnell who requested to have this dinner

Q All right Now, we can take that down. Earlier in the trial we have heard a little bit about a shopping trip to New York City in April of 2011 Did you know about that shopping trip with Ms McDonnell and Mr Williams when it happened?

A No.

Q Did you learn about it after it happened?

A Yes

Q Who did you learn about it from?

A Mary-Shea had mentioned it

Q What was the tone of Mary-Shea's voice when she described it to you?

A Kind of a shocking

Q Before the investigation became public, did Ms McDonnell ever mention anything about that shopping trip to you?

A No

Q Did Mr McDonnell?

A No.

Q We have also heard some testimony about what are called Statements of Economic Interests Do you know what that is?

A I do.

Q And when you were working at the Mansion, did the First Lady, Ms McDonnell, fill out a Statement of Economic Interests, to your knowledge?

A I don't believe so

Q But did you track gifts that came in for her at the Mansion?

A For about a year-and-a-half I did.

Q And if I could show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 272 Zooming in on the top here, is this an e-mail from you to Kristen Kaplan and Kathleen Scott?

A Yes, it is

Q Who are Kristen Kaplan and Kathleen Scott?

A Kristen Kaplan was the First Lady's senior aide and Kathy Scott was an assistant

Q Are these two of the people that helped replace Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A They are.

Q Is this dated December 19th, 2011?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: Your Honor, we would offer Exhibit 272 into evidence.

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, could you tell us what this e-mail and its attachments are?

A The e-mail is from Kristen asking if I would send her the gift log that I had been compiling, and so I responded and attached the gift logs

Q Now, if we could turn to the last page of this document If we could zoom in on the second row there Do you see there in what's sort of the far right column, is that the To column?

A Yes

Q Who is listed in who that gift is to?

A The Governor and First Lady

Q What does that mean when you would put it on a log?

A That is who the gift was intended to be for

Q We can take that down. Now, Dr Scarbrough, could you tell the jury a little bit about what Ms McDonnell's reaction was -- first off, did she know that you were tracking gifts when you were doing it?

A Yes

Q What was her reaction to that?

A She was not pleased.

Q Could you describe that a little bit?

A She did not think that she needed to report any gifts because she was not an official state employee, so she was not happy when it was discussed that I was tracking them.

Q Now, in the April to June time frame of 2011, were you aware that Cailin McDonnell was getting married?

A I was

Q And where was the wedding reception held?

A It was at the Mansion.

Q Do you know who did the catering for the reception?

A Yes

Q Who was that?

A Great Seasons Catering

Q Is that a catering company related to the chef that was working at the Mansion?

A Yes. He owned it

Q If I could show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 147 Dr Scarbrough, is this an e-mail that you sent from your state government account?

A Yes

Q It is an e-mail to Cailin McDonnell and her then fiance', Christopher Young?

A Yes

Q Is this a conversation about you tracking expenses as part of your job?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 147 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now. Dr Scarbrough, if we could go to the bottom e-mail in this chain The first e-mail that starts this chain, who sent that e-mail?

MR. BROWNLEE: Could we approach?

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench.)

MR. BROWNLEE: Lead counsel at this point is going to get into a bunch of stuff with the children and wedding gifts and things like that I don't see how this is relevant to anything to do with Jonnie Williams Now, what they are going to try to show is that young woman knew about the wedding There is a small piece of it that relates to Williams, and the rest of it just seems excessive

MR. FAULCONER: I plan to ask about one thing and one thing only: Who was going to pay for it

THE COURT: The objection is overruled.

(In Open Court)

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right Dr Scarbrough, if you could, could you just read the last paragraph of this e-mail that we are looking at that you wrote to Cailin McDonnell and Christopher Young?

MR. BROWNLEE: Objection The jury can read it

THE COURT: Overruled

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Go ahead and read the last paragraph.

A "The most important one, I think, will be your parents' check for the catering That's a huge chunk and it will eventually come out that it is Todd's company We are trying to keep it quiet and not release right now But if it comes up, then we think they will want to see proof of payment by family and not state "

Q Dr Scarbrough, why did you write "parents' check" there in that sentence?

A I was under the impression that Mr and Ms McDonnell would be paying for the catering

Q Was that based on conversations with Cailin McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Now, after the investigation broke, did you have a conversation -- that is, in the media -- did you have a subsequent conversation with Cailin McDonnell about the payment for the catering?

A A brief one, yes

Q What did she tell you after the investigation broke?

MR. BROWNLEE: Objection, hearsay

THE COURT: Overruled.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q What did she tell you after the investigation broke?

A She said that Jonnie was a friend who was giving them a wedding present

Q Had she ever said that before the investigation broke?

A No.

Q In response to this e-mail that you sent, did you ever get any sort of e-mail saying, "No, it is not my parents' check, it is my check"?

A No

Q We can take that down. Dr Scarbrough, before the investigation went public, but after the wedding itself, were you aware that Mr Williams had paid part of that money for the wedding?

A Yes

Q Who told you about it?

A Mary-Shea

Q And was this before or after the wedding?

A It was after the wedding

Q When she told you, could you describe sort of the tone or demeanor of what she was telling you?

A She was surprised that it had happened.

Q Before the investigation became public, did Ms. McDonnell ever tell you anything about that check coming from Mr Williams?

A No.

Q How about, sorry, I forget which one I asked, Ms or Mr , but did either of them say anything to you?

A No, neither of them did.

Q Now, at some point during the summer of 2011, do you recall whether Ms. McDonnell ever told you anything about Star Scientific's stock?

A No

Q Sorry, do you recall whether Maureen McDonnell ever mentioned anything to you about stock relating to her daughter, Cailin?

A Oh, yes, I'm sorry

Q Could you describe what you remember Ms McDonnell saying about stock to you?

A She had said that she had purchased some stock and was going to gift it to her daughter for her wedding

Q Did she ever say what type of stock that was?

A Star Scientific

Q Now, did she say that she herself had stock or that she was going to give it to her daughter, Cailin?

A She had said she bought it and was going to gift it to her daughter

Q Did she ever tell you she actually gave it to Cailin during that year at all?

A No, that was the first and last conversation about it

Q Did she ever tell you anything about selling it and repurchasing it, anything like that?

A No.

Q All right Now, just since we are sort of in this point in the timeline, in the summer of 2011, so May-June time frame, or at any time before the investigation went public, were you aware of Mr Williams writing a $50,000 check to the McDonnells in May of 2011?

A No.

Q Back in May of 2011, were you aware that Mr McDonnell and his sons played golf on Mr Williams' tab at Kinloch Golf Course shortly before Cailin McDonnell's wedding?

A No

Q Later that summer, were you aware that Mr and Ms McDonnell drove Mr Williams' Ferrari back from Smith Mountain Lake after a vacation?

A Yes

Q How did you become aware of that?

A People in the Mansion who had seen it were talking about it

Q Was the conversation "This seems totally normal" or "This is surprising"?

A Surprising

Q Could you describe why that was?

A Because typically the Governor, whoever it was, didn't drive anywhere during his term. He has a security detail who would drive him.

Q And during this time frame, were you ever aware of a Rolex being purchased by Mr Williams for either of the McDonnells?

A No.

Q All right I'd like to shift now to the end of August, 2011

A Okay

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 218 Dr Scarbrough, is this another Event Briefing Form for the Mansion?

A It is

Q Do you recognize what information this is for?

A Yes

Q Is this the lunch related to Star Scientific at the end of August?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 218 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Looking at this document, who is listed under Owner/Contact?

A Myself, Mary-Shea, Tutti, the butler, and Todd, the chef

Q Why are you listed there again?

A Because it was my job to coordinate events at the Mansion.

Q Does that mean it was your idea?

A No.

Q How about the butler? Was it his idea to have this event?

A No.

Q Now, could you read who is listed in the

"Participants" field of this document?

A Sure "Researchers and doctors to discuss the latest information on the anatabine, a by-product of the tobacco plant, and two studies that UVA and VCU Medical will conduct "

Q When an Event Briefing Form like this would be put together, would it be sent over to the Governor's staff?

A Yes. If he was involved.

Q And is his name listed there from 12:30 to 1:30 under "Event Time"?

A Yes

Q What was your understanding of what would happen after the form would go over to the Governor's staff?

A It would then be attached to his calendar, and then a copy of it would be printed for his briefing book.

Q Have you actually seen him carrying that briefing book around before?

A Yes

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, stepping away from what's on the form, can you tell us how you first learned about this event at the Mansion at the end of August, 2011?

A It was either Mary-Shea or Ms McDonnell who notified me of it happening

Q Did you actually, did you have personal in-person conversations with both Mary-Shea Sutherland and

Ms McDonnell about this event?

A I did.

Q Focusing on your conversations with Ms McDonnell, can you tell us what you remember her saying about the event when you talked about it with her?

A She had said that it was an event for Jonnie and for Anatabloc

Q And do you recall whether she ever said anything about the event being related to the launch of Anatabloc?

A Yes

Q What did she say?

A That it was to launch Anatabloc

Q Do you ever recall any conversation about whether the event had anything to do with encouraging universities to do research on the product?

A Not initially at the beginning, but when it got closer to the event, yes

Q Do you recall Ms McDonnell telling you that?

A Yes.

Q Now, can you tell us whether or not you were -- were you actually there in sort of the lead-up to when the event was actually held at the end of August?

A No

Q Why is that?

A Typically, it would have been pretty much me planning the whole thing But about a week-and-a-half prior to the event was my family vacation, so I was gone and so Mary-Shea pretty much took the reins and planned it in my absence

Q Now, had you not been on vacation, would you have participated in the planning of this event?

A Yes

Q Was it Mary-Shea that told you to take the vacation?

A No.

Q Now, if I could show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 630 Now, Dr Scarbrough, is this an e-mail exchange between you and someone named Katherine Harris?

A Yes

Q Who was Katherine Harris?

A She was the Governor's scheduler

Q Is this discussing that event at the Mansion related to Star Scientific?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 630 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Just focusing on the last e-mail, the third one down, actually, sorry, one up from that, could you read what you say in that e-mail, August 15th, 2011, to Katherine Harris?

A "That's the lunch MM is hosting for Jonnie Williams that Mary-Shea mentioned to you."

Q And who does "MM" refer to there?

A Maureen McDonnell

Q From looking at this e-mail, from your perspective, whose idea was the event in terms of who was actually hosting it?

A Ms McDonnell

Q I'd like to show you another exhibit that's been marked for identification.

MR. FAULCONER: I think this has already been admitted, Your Honor I apologize Exhibit 219 If we could publish that to the jury

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Dr Scarbrough, is this an e-mail exchange between you, an individual named Emily Rabbitt, and also at points in the e-mail, Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A It is

Q Is this the day before the event at the Mansion?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 219 into evidence.

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q If we could scroll down. All right Now, at the very bottom of this e-mail thread, this very bottom e-mail, it looks like it is from you, right?

A Correct

Q If we could go to the second page Do you see there the e-mail is to Emily Rabbitt and Mary-Shea Sutherland? Who is Emily Rabbitt?

A She was -- worked in scheduling for the Governor

Q Do you see there where you are talking about the event and you say, "That's Mary-Shea's deal"; do you see that there?

A I do.

Q Could you describe for us what you actually mean when you say that there?

A She was the one planning it from the side of the Mansion, so doing all coordination in my absence

Q Had you been the one doing the planning instead, would it have been accurate to say, "That's Sarah Scarbrough's deal"?

A Yes

Q When you wrote this, did you mean the event was Mary-Shea's idea or Mary-Shea's event of any kind?

A No, I just meant she was planning it from the Mansion angle

Q If we could take that down. Now, Dr Scarbrough, did you attend any portion of the event?
A I did.
Q Was it the whole thing or just part of it?
A Just part of it
Q Which part?
A The very beginning when people got there, I was at the door and greeted folks as they got in.
Q After that, what did you do during the remainder of it?
A Went downstairs to where my office was
Q Now, when the event was sort of starting, before people arrived, did you see how things were being set up?
A I did.
Q Could you describe how the table was set up for the event?
A The table is set up like how we have any -- how we had any formal sit-down event at the Mansion. Very nice, very elegant. There was a little bit of difference there in that there was Anatabloc placed in front of each place setting at the event
Q What do you mean when you say that was different?
A We hadn't placed any products in front of people's plates before like that Q Now, did you see who was actually putting the products in front of each place setting when it was being set up?

A Yes

Q Who was that?

A Ms McDonnell and Jonnie Williams

Q Was Ms Sutherland doing that?

A No.

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, from what you could see as it was being set up, did it seem like a product launch to you?

A Yes

Q Now. earlier we talked about all the events at the Mansion and we saw that long list, we sort of scrolled through it Based on your experience as the Mansion Director, comparing that list to this event, did this seem like a typical Mansion event to you?

A No.

Q Do you remember how this event was paid for?

A Ultimately, the Governor's PAC ended up paying for it

Q And PAC, that's the political action committee?

A Yes

Q Do you recall whether that decision was made before or after the event?

A I believe it was after the event

Q And who told you how the event should be paid for, to your recollection?

A I don't exactly recall It would have either been the First Lady, Mary-Shea, or Martin Kent, though.

Q Did you ever talk to Mr McDonnell or Ms. McDonnell about how that event was going to be paid for?

A I did not talk to Mr McDonnell about it But I don't recall Ms

Q Just to be clear, Dr Scarbrough, when the PAC pays for an event, does that mean that you get a check for the work you did from the PAC?

A No

Q Now, it may sound sort of obvious to ask, but are you aware of any steps that were taken in the planning process to inform anyone at the event that the PAC was paying for the event?

A No

Q And from what you could see at the event itself, I understand that the conversation wasn't until after, but from what you could see of the event itself, was there anything saying that isn't an official government event to any of the people who were attending?

A No

Q I'd like to shift topics to an event at the Mansion in February of 2012 Do you recall an event at the end of February, 2012, described as the Healthcare Leaders Reception?

A Yes

Q Could you tell us what that event was for the jury?

A Sure It was an event for Healthcare Leaders from around the state

Q Was this a regular event or something that only happened once?

A It was a regular event

Q Now, if I could show you what's been marked as Exhibit 344 Zooming in at the top there, is that an e-mail from Katherine Harris?

A Yes

Q Can you tell us what type of e-mail this is?

A This was the Governor's daily schedule

Q Did you typically receive a copy of this when it came out?

A Sometimes I did, sometimes I didn't

Q If there was an event at the Mansion on the schedule, would you typically receive it?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 344 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Dr Scarbrough, is this the schedule for February 29th, 2012?

A Yes

Q If we could zoom out for a moment and then focus in on the meeting from 1:30 to 1:55 p m. Do you see that meeting there with Jonnie Williams, PHB, Governor's conference room?

A Yes

Q Did you have any idea what this meeting was about?

A No

Q It says "Healthcare Group Leaders Reception." Who was planning the reception?

A I was

Q Did you attend this meeting?

A I did not

Q Is February 29th, is that consistent with your recollection of when the event was held?

A Yes

Q All right I'd like to back up and sort of walk the jury a little bit through the job that you did on this event and sort of how it got planned.

A Okay

Q Is it fair to say that it was a little complicated in terms of the number of lists that went back and forth?

A Yes

Q Have you reviewed a lot of lists before preparing for your testimony today?

A Yes

Q All right So I'd like to walk through those with the Judge's and the jurors' patience a little bit If I could show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 294 Dr Scarbrough, who is this an e-mail from?

A Elaina Schramm.

Q Who is it addressed to?

A To me

Q Is the date on it January 24th, 2012?

A It is

Q And does this pertain to the Healthcare Leaders Reception?

A Yes.

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 294 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, can you explain to us what this particular list was that was sent about a month plus a little more before the event?

A This is the list of people that Dr Hazel would like to invite to the Healthcare Leaders event

Q Is this, at least based on your review, sort of the first list that you got on the Mansion side?

A Yes

Q All right Now, if we could just turn to the first page of the attachment of that document briefly Is this sort of, we won't zoom in or look at any specific one, but are these the list of names that you recall getting?

A Yes

Q Have you had a chance to review this list and compare it to some of the other lists we are going to look at?

A I have.

Q If I could show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 300 Dr Scarbrough, is this an e-mail from you?

A Yes

Q And who is it addressed to?

A To Ms McDonnell

Q What is the date of it?

A It is Saturday, February 4th.

Q And is it attaching that same list that we were just looking at that you got from Elaina Schramm?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 300 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, can you explain to us why you sent that list of names that you had gotten from Elaina Schramm over at Dr Hazel's office to Maureen McDonnell on a Saturday afternoon?

A Most likely because she requested it

Q Now, if I could show you what's been marked for identification, actually, hang on one moment Can you tell us whether you recall discussing her potentially adding names to this list for this event with Ms McDonnell?

A We did.

Q Could you describe that conversation to the members of the jury?

A She simply said that she had some names she would like me to add and she would get those to me and ask if invitations would be sent out to those people

Q After having that conversation with her, did you receive some names from her via e-mail?

A I did.

Q Do you recall having any conversations with Mr McDonnell about adding names to the list for this event?

A Yes

Q Could you describe that to the members of the jury?

A He reviewed the list, as he typically does, and looked and asked me to add a few people that we had missed.

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, I'd like to show you what's been marked as Exhibit 304 Zooming in on this document, is this an e-mail from Maureen McDonnell to you?

A It is

Q What's the date on it?

A February 7th.

Q And is this attaching names to add to that particular event?

A Yes.

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 304 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, could you just read the one line of this e-mail?

A Sure "Please add these docs to the Healthcare Leaders event and mail invites today Thanks "

Q Now, if we could turn to the first page of the attachment, and if we could just zoom in on the first five rows there Dr Scarbrough, and actually, scroll down just one more row Dr Scarbrough, have you had a chance to compare this list to the original list that you got from Elaina Schramm?

A Yes

Q And was the name George Vetrovec on the original list that you received from Health and Human Services?

A I do not believe so.

Q How about Antonio Abbate?

A I don't think so.

Q If we could go to the second page Zoom in on the portion that sort of is out of the normal spreadsheet format Do you recall whether Dr Michael Mullan from the Roskamp Institute was on the original list that you got from Health and Human Resources?

A No, he was not

Q How about Dr Paul Ladenson from Johns Hopkins?

A No.

Q And how about Dr John Clore from VCU Medical Center?

A No.

Q All right Now, if we could pull up what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 299 Dr Scarbrough, is this an e-mail to Maureen McDonnell?

A It is

Q And have you had a chance to review it and its attachments and compare them to some of the other lists that you have looked at?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 299 into evidence. Its authenticity has been stipulated to

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Dr Scarbrough, this e-mail is February 3rd, 2012 Just to orient us in time, is that the day before Ms McDonnell forwarded you the list of names?

A Yes

Q And were you on this e-mail exchange with Caroline Birgmann?

A No

Q Do you even know who she is?

A No.

Q Now, if we could turn to the attachment on this list Just zoom in on the names and e-mail addresses there Dr Scarbrough, have you had an opportunity to compare this list of names to the list of names that Ms McDonnell forwarded to you?

A Yes.

Q Are some of these names on that list that she forwarded to you?

A Yes

Q About, ballpark, could you tell us about how many there are?

A Probably 15 to 20

Q Now, if I could show you what's been marked for identification --

MR. FAULCONER: Actually, it has already been admitted, Your Honor, Exhibit 217

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Dr Scarbrough, have you had a chance to review this e-mail and its attachment before coming in to testify?

A Yes.

Q If we could turn to the attachment page Have you had a chance to compare this attachment to the list of attendees that you had for the lunch event at the end of August, 2011?

A Yes

Q Does this appear to coincide at least roughly with who attended that event in August?

A Yes.

Q Are some of these names from this list on the list that Ms McDonnell forwarded to you in February of 2012 for the Healthcare Leaders Reception?

A Yes.

Q All right If we could take that down. Now, I'd like to show you -- we are almost through the list, Your Honor, I apologize -- what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 629 Dr Scarbrough, is this a list of about 30 pages or so of names of doctors and contact information?

A It appears so

Q Have you had a chance, if we could just flip through it a little bit, have you had a chance to review this list?

A I have

Q And is there some handwriting on this document that you recognize as belonging to either of the defendants?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 629 into evidence.

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q If we could turn, is this the second page of this document?

A Yes

Q Now, looking at this document, does this document match that e-mail we were just looking at that related to the reception at the end of August, 2011?

A Yes

Q And do you recognize any of the handwriting on this document?

A The handwriting at the bottom, the one that says "south river," it looks like Mary-Shea's handwriting

Q Zooming back out, are you actually able to recognize any of the other handwriting on this page?

A No

Q If we could flip forward just to the next page Do you see there the list of doctors, Mullan, Ladenson, Derco, Clore, and Beach?

A I do.

Q Does that appear to be in the same format as the same list of names that ended up on the list that was forwarded to you?

A Yes

Q If we could flip through the next couple of pages, and then if we could go to Page 21 Now, the whole subsequent list of pages, what's on the remaining 20 or so pages of that document?

A Doctors.

Q Are some of the names circled as you go through?

A Yes

Q Have you compared those circled names to the list you got from Ms McDonnell?

A There's similarities in them.

Q Are some of the circled names on the list that you got from Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Zooming in on the handwriting that we have here, could you tell us if you recognize the first word there that's written as "Chief"?

A Yes

Q Whose handwriting is that?

A Ms McDonnell's

Q Now, immediately below it, the next three lines, do you recognize whose handwriting that is?

A Yes

Q Whose handwriting is the next three lines below Ms McDonnell's handwriting?

A The Governor's

Q What about right below his, the next three where it says, "VCU, UVA, EVMS"?

A Ms McDonnell

Q What about right before that, the remaining four lines?

A Ms McDonnell, also.

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 306 Dr Scarbrough, is this an e-mail from you to Elaina Schramm again referring to this event?

A Yes.

Q I guess it is February 8th, 2012 We are still a couple weeks out, right?

A Uh-huh.

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer 306 into

evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Dr Scarbrough, could you read just the first two lines of this e-mail?

A "The First Lady and Governor were going over the list last night for the healthcare industry event The Governor wants to make sure the people below are included in the list "

Q Am I correct that the first bullet point there refers to VCU and UVA?

A Yes.

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, would you have said "The First Lady and Governor were going over the list last night" if somebody hadn't told you that?

A No

Q Who, do you recall specifically who told you that?

A It was either the Governor or First Lady

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 307 Zooming in on this e-mail, is this that same day, February 8th, 2012?

A It is

Q Is this you forwarding the list of names that Ms McDonnell had sent you to Elaina Schramm?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We offer Exhibit 307 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q If would he could just flip to the first page. Then to the second page Dr Scarbrough, I know that the orientation of the page is a little different, but does this match the list of doctors that Ms McDonnell had sent to you?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 309 Dr Scarbrough, is this an e-mail chain, the first one you are not on, but the second one down below, is that from Adam Zubowsky to Ms McDonnell and you?

A Yes.

Q I guess it is actually cc'd to you all and Kristen Kaplan is the addressee, right?

A Right

Q Is this that same day, February 8th, 2012?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 309 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, could you tell us what the subject line of this e-mail is?

A "Please print for FLOVA."

Q Scrolling down through this document, Dr Scarbrough, could you tell us what this list of names is?

A These are names of additional people associated with the medical industry

Q I see it says "RGA" there Do you know what the RGA is?

A Yes, Republican Governors' Association.

Q From looking at this e-mail, who was it that sent this list of names over to Ms McDonnell related to this event?

A I believe Paige Hahn sent it

Q Who is Paige Hahn?

A She worked for the Governor's political action committee and had some association with the RGA as well

Q Now, do you see there, if we could scroll up just a little bit, do you see there in the e-mail where it says, at the end of that first big paragraph, "Once invites are sent by them, they will work with your staff to give them all RSVP feedback for the Mansion event " Do you see that?

A Uh-huh.

Q What was your understanding of what at least the initial request was from the RGA of who would actually send out the invitations?

A That they would send them out and then touch base with us regarding who was able to come

Q If we could show you what's been admitted as Exhibit 311 Now, if we could go to Page 2 towards the bottom. Yes, those last two e-mails Dr Scarbrough, is this a later e-mail in that same thread?

A Yes, it is

Q Is this an e-mail exchange that you are on right there?

A Yes

Q Could you read to us what Kristen Kaplan says in that e-mail?

A "Heads up, she told me in the car she wants their mailing addresses so the office can mail out invites "

Q And do you know who Ms Kaplan is referring to when she says "she" there?

A Ms McDonnell

Q Now. Dr Scarbrough, if we could go to Page 11 of this document Is this a list of the names of the people that were forwarded to Ms McDonnell by the RGA?

A Yes

Q If you could turn to the next page briefly Now, Dr Scarbrough, have you had a chance to compare this list of names to the list of names that eventually actually got invited to the event?

A I have.

Q Are any of these names on the list that actually got invited?

A No.

Q Now, we can take that down. Now, that exchange was in the February 8th-9th time frame, right?

A Correct

Q Now, if I could show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 316 Is this an e-mail from Ms McDonnell to Jonnie Williams with you and Dr Ladenson copied?

A It is

Q Is it dated after that exchange, February 12th of 2012?

A Correct

Q And does it pertain to an invitation for that event at the end of February?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 316 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, could you first start by reading just the last three lines, those short lines at the bottom of this document?

A "Sarah, please also make sure you have mailed an invitation to Jonnie Williams, Star Scientific "

Q Based on this, did you add Jonnie Williams to the list?

A Yes

Q Now, up above there I see there is a Dr Frank Crantz mentioned. Have you had a chance to review the list that existed prior to you receiving this e-mail?

A Yes

Q Did any of them include Dr Frank Crantz?

A I believe so.

Q You believe they did or did not?

A I'm sorry, they did not

Q When you received this e-mail from Ms McDonnell, did you send an invitation to Dr Frank Crantz?

A Yes.

Q All right We can take that down. I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 322 Dr Scarbrough, is this you sending along an updated list a couple days later to Elaina Schramm, I guess it is, from Audrey Trussell, correct?

A Correct

Q Who was Ms Trussell?

A The Mansion assistant

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer 322 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q We can take that down. I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 329 Dr Scarbrough, is this the Event Briefing Form for the event on February 29th, 2012?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 329 into evidence.

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, is this that document that, as you described earlier, you would have sent over to Mr McDonnell's office?

A Yes

Q And could you read what it says just by "Participants" there?

A "Leaders in Virginia healthcare industry, personal doctors of McDonnells, doctors' friends. (Original list put together by HHR, then FLOVA office added some names)"

Q If we could zoom out Then just looking at the bottom of that page and then flipping to the next page, are those the attendees and who is coming and who is not?

A It is who is coming

Q Oh. Now, Dr Scarbrough, one last list, I think, on this one If I could show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 516 Is this an e-mail from you to Matt Conrad?

A Yes.

Q Who is Matt Conrad?

A He was the Deputy Chief of Staff

Q Is this dated April 29th of 2013?

A It is

Q Does this e-mail have an attachment?

A Yes

Q What's the attachment to this document?

A The people who attended the event, the Healthcare Leaders event

Q Now, is there sometimes a discrepancy between the final briefing form and the actual final list that you maintain?

A Sometimes

Q Why is that?

A Sometimes people don't RSVP, they just show up; or they may RSVP and not show up.

Q Is the document attached to this e-mail the final, final list?

A Final in the sense of it is updated with all of the RSVP's we received. That said, if somebody showed up to the event and hadn't responded, they weren't necessarily added in by me; or if somebody didn't show up, they weren't eliminated from the list

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 516 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q If we could turn to Page 2 Dr Scarbrough, do you see George Vetrovec listed there?

A No

Q Sorry, George --

A Betrovec I'm sorry

Q B turned into V Is that George Vetrovec?

A Yes.

Q Turning to Page 3, do you see Dr Paul Ladenson there a little ways down?

A I do

Q Turning to Page 4 at the bottom, do you see Jonnie Williams, Jr and Jonnie Williams, Sr ?

A Yes.

Q We can take that down. Now, to be clear, Dr Scarbrough, at any of the times that you were planning this event, was Marty Shea Sutherland working at the Mansion?

A No.

Q Did she have anything to do with this event, to your knowledge?

A No

Q I'd like to talk a little bit about the event itself, now we've gotten through all the lists

A Okay

Q Did you attend the event?

A Yes.

Q When you attended, did you do that as a government employee?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 340 Is this a picture of you and Mr Williams in the Mansion?

A It is

Q Does it appear to be from the Healthcare Leaders event?

A It does

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 340 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Dr Scarbrough, based on the other people who were at the event, did it seem to you like Mr Williams fit in?

A Primarily, people that were there were actual doctors and he wasn't So it was a little odd.

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked or what's already in evidence as Exhibit 338 Dr Scarbrough, do you recognize who is in this picture?

A The two people on the right I do.

Q Who are they?

A Governor and Ms McDonnell

Q Now, do you recall Mr and Ms McDonnell both being at the event that day?

A They were

Q Do you recall noticing any tension between the two of them at that event?

A Not at all

Q Do you recall Mr McDonnell making comments at the event?

A Yes.

Q What do you recall him saying?

A He welcomed everybody, thanked them for coming and thanked them for their work, as well as introduced somebody associated with Star Scientific to make some remarks as well

Q Do you remember that being somebody from Johns Hopkins?

A I think so, yes

Q Are you aware of where Johns Hopkins is located?

A Outside of Virginia

Q If we can take that down. Now, Dr Scarbrough, for an event at the Mansion, if you just have an event and you don't do anything, you don't invoice or bill anybody, where do the funds come from to pay for that event?

A The Mansion's budget

Q The Mansion budget, as Mansion Director, are you aware of whether or not those are state funds?

A They are state funds

Q In this case, do you recall whether you invoiced anyone for any part of this event?

A I did.

Q If I could show you what's been marked as Exhibit 364 Dr Scarbrough, do you recognize this e-mail?

A I do.

Q Who is the e-mail from and to?

A It is from me to Bill Hazel and copying Elaina Schramm.

Q I think we have heard, but who is Dr Bill Hazel?

A The Secretary of Health and Human Resources

Q And is this attaching a partial invoice for the event at the end of February?

A Yes.

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 364 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, could you read after the smiley face there, could you read the rest of the e-mail?

A "Attached is the healthcare event invoice I took off the cost for the 25 people who came because the First Lady invited them, which brings your guest count to 100 people "

Q If we could turn to the second page, the attachment Is this the invoice that you sent to Dr Hazel's office?

A It is

Q Just to be clear, when you send an invoice to Dr Hazel's office and he pays it, does that still come from state funds?

A Yes.

Q Now, if we could scroll down, could you tell us what the total amount of this invoice is?

A $2,750 46

Q Scrolling up just a little bit, can you tell us how the food cost is broken down there?

A By person.

Q How many people are listed there?

A 100

Q Was that all of the people who attended the event?

A No, it was not

Q What happened to the remaining people?

A The remaining people, Dr Hazel said that his budget was not able to cover them because he didn't invite them to the event, so it went back to the default, which was the Mansion's budget

Q Did that include Mr Williams and the individuals that were invited because the First Lady forwarded them to you?

A Yes Those are the 25 people

Q Now, keeping that up on the screen, 364, Page 2, now, zooming in there on the "Beverages, Staff, Table, Linens," just sort of a technical point, but are those costs associated by person or overall costs for the whole thing?

A They are pretty much overall for the whole event One person, two people, they are not going to make a huge difference, but we charge by the amount of beverages that were consumed. The same with wait staff We staffed the floor according to the number of people that were coming

Q All right We can take that down. So Dr Scarbrough, based on the invoicing that you did and the review of your documents, where did the funds come to pay for Jonnie Williams, Dr Ladenson, Dr Crantz, and those individuals to attend this event?

A From the Mansion budget

Q Are those state funds?

A They are.

Q Now, as of the date of this invoice, was it March 16th, 2012?

A I believe so

Q If we could pull it up just to make sure

A Yes, March 16th, 2012

Q Now, as of that date, Dr Scarbrough, were you aware that Mr Williams had provided the McDonnells a $50,000 payment that had been cashed four days before, on March 12th, 2012?

A No, I was not

Q Before the investigation, were you aware of a $20,000 payment by Mr Williams to the McDonnells in May of 2012?

A No

Q I'd like to transition now to February of 2013

A Okay

Q I'd like to start by showing you what's been marked as Exhibit 554 Dr Scarbrough, do you recognize this as a calendar?

MR. BROWNLEE: I object, Your Honor Oh, you are laying ground. My apologies Thank you.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Is this a calendar from February of 2013?

A It is

Q Have you had a chance to review it before coming in to testify?

A Yes.

Q Is it a calendar for Ms McDonnell for that month?

A I believe so

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 554 into evidence

MR. BURCK: no objection.

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q I'm assuming no one can read this, but zooming in on February 15th, do you see there what's listed on Ms McDonnell's calendar for 1 p.m. on February 15th?

A I do.

Q What is that?

A "Meet with Officers Kennedy and Hagan, FLOVA office "

Q We can take that down. Now, Dr Scarbrough, do you recall law enforcement coming to interview Ms McDonnell around that time frame?

A I do.

Q Who actually greeted the officers when they arrived?

A I did.

Q Where did you take them when they arrived?

A Back to Ms McDonnell's office.

Q Now, did you sit in on whatever conversation they had?

A No.

Q Now, the interview said 1 p.m. Later that day, do you recall, do you have any recollection of getting a call from Mr McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Could you tell us what you remember about this?

A He asked if the First Lady was out of her meeting

Q What did you say?

A I didn't believe she was.

Q Did you eventually relay that you had gotten a call from Mr McDonnell to Ms McDonnell?

A Yes, I let her know

Q Do you recall what Ms McDonnell's behavior was like after the interview?

A She was mad.

Q Could you describe a little bit more about what you mean?

A She made a comment to me that they came and interviewed her and were interrogating her and it wasn't fair and they were trying to set her up.

Q Now, do you recall ever talking to Ms McDonnell about Mr McDonnell's reaction to that interview?

A No

Q Did she ever describe anything about whether Mr McDonnell was upset by the interview?

A No.

MR. FAULCONER: Your Honor, if I could have one moment

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR. FAULCONER: I'm handing the witness a document to refresh her recollection.

(Document proffered to witness)

MR. BURCK: Your Honor, I'm not sure what is being refreshed, what recollection is being refreshed here

MR. FAULCONER: I asked the witness if she recalled Ms McDonnell saying anything about them. She said she couldn't recall

THE COURT: That's correct Go ahead.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q I'm handing the witness a document And Dr Scarbrough, if you could just read silently to yourself, don't read anything out loud, the last paragraph on that page and let us know when you have had a chance to read it

(Witness perusing document)

A I'm finished.

Q Dr Scarbrough, having read that document, does it refresh your memory at all about whether Ms McDonnell mentioned Mr McDonnell when she was talking about that interview with law enforcement?

A Yes

Q What do you recall Ms McDonnell saying?

A That she was just being interrogated and had been set up for failure, basically

Q Sorry, does the document refresh your recollection about whether Ms McDonnell mentioned Mr McDonnell?

A I'm sorry, yes

Q What do you recall her mentioning about Mr McDonnell?

A That he was upset by this

MR. FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor No further questions at this time, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Good morning, Ms Scarbrough

A Good morning

Q My name is a John Brownlee, and I represent Bob McDonnell, and I have a few questions for you today Okay?

A Okay

Q All right Thank you I'd like to start with the -- this event at the Mansion that we talked about in August of 2011 Okay?

A Okay

Q And I think you testified that you typically handle these events, but in this particular one, you had been on vacation, and so these duties fell to Ms Sutherland; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: And so if we could pull up

Government's Exhibit 219 Go back to the back page If you could pull up -- go up a little bit

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay I think you've looked at this This is August 29, 2011

A Uh-huh

Q And you write that -- it's to Emily and cc'ing Mary-Shea "I really don't know" -- "I really do not know anything about tomorrow's lunch That's Mary-Shea's deal She's cc'd on it "

And Mr Faulconer asked you this is what you wrote, correct?

A Yes

Q And it was your understanding that at that time Ms Sutherland was really taking the lead on this particular event; is that correct?

A On planning it, yes

Q Say again

A On planning it, yes

Q Right This is Mary-Shea's deal That's what you wrote?

A Right

Q Okay And just so I'm clear, now, were you aware at that time that Ms Sutherland had been negotiating a contract with Mr Williams to go work for him?

A No

Q Okay And you -- Ms Sutherland had never showed you a contract that had been prepared on her behalf and then forwarded to Mr Williams for his review and consideration?

A No

Q Okay And you didn't attend any lunches with Ms Sutherland and Mr Williams and Mr Kilgore in which they discussed these things; is that correct?

A I did not

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Now, if you'd go to the next page, if we can, and just pull up the bottom there

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay And then in this instance, Ms Sutherland sends you a quick e-mail and kind of describes -- since you didn't really know what it was about, she describes this for you?

A Uh-huh

Q And it says, "To bring researchers and doctors together to discuss the latest information on the anatabine and two studies that UVA and VCU Medical will conduct The First Lady is the hostess "

Ms McDonnell is typically the hostess; is that correct?

A Either her or the Governor

Q Right It's their house?

A Uh-huh

Q Okay So this is how she describes this event And then I understand you take this description, and that's kind of your understanding now of what it is?

A Correct

Q Okay And Mr McDonnell is not on that e-mail, but eventually this event is actually forwarded to him in some briefing book; is that correct?

A Yes

Q I think -- do you remember having a chance to sit down with some of the members here on the prosecution team and the FBI and some of the folks from the State Police?

A I do

Q Okay And you've talked to them on numerous occasions; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And do you recall telling the FBI that leading up to this event, that it was your belief that Governor McDonnell was not aware that the event was happening?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, they were asked -- you were asked about the payment, and I think you said that it was your understanding that the PAC paid for it; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And do you recall telling investigators in an interview that you advised that the Governor's PAC paid for this event, and she explained that the State could not pay for events such as this since it is not a government function?

Do you remember telling them that?

A I do

Q Okay Thank you

MR BROWNLEE: Now, Mr Faulconer had introduced Government's Exhibit 512 If we could pull that up

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, this is an e-mail, and it's a conversation with you and some others And I believe you've testified that at some point in April of 2013 you were asked to prepare a list of events that had occurred at the Mansion --

A Correct

Q -- is that correct?

A Uh-huh

Q And you did that?

A Right

Q And this e-mail reflects -- I know there's a lot of working up there, but it says "Attached "

A Uh-huh

Q So you have done your work, and now you're forwarding it to Tucker Martin and Mr Caldwell And this is your work product?

A Correct

Q Okay And there's an attachment

MR BROWNLEE: If we could look at the attachment

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, this is what -- now, did you put this together kind of in realtime or did you already have it done or was it a combination of both?

A It was pretty much done I think some of the 2013 events I had to add because it wasn't up-to-date to the minute, but I pretty much, every month, would update the list

Q Okay And so these are events that were at the Mansion, and so you put together this list and forwarded it on?

A Correct

Q All right I want to talk a little bit -- I think Mr Faulconer asked you about a couple things, but let me ask you --

MR BROWNLEE: Let's take a look at the top one, if we could, on March 8, 2010

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, this is described as a reception for Volkswagen executives Okay?

A Okay

Q Do you remember that event?

A Not particularly

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Let me -- if we could take that down and pull up, just for the witness, RM-0223-1.

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay Take a look at this This appears to be similar to what we've seen before from the Governor's working papers as a description of the meeting, this Volkswagen meeting Is that what it looks like?

A Yes

Q Okay And are these papers the type of papers that you would keep at the Governor's Mansion for events that they are having at the Mansion?

A Yes I did not put this one together, though

Q Okay Do you recall who did?

A Probably somebody from the Secretary of the -- or Secretary of Commerce and Trade's Office

Q Okay But they would forward it to you all at the Governor's Mansion?

A Uh-huh

Q And therefore -- and then you would use this to have this event; is that correct?

A Correct Yes

Q Okay And these are kept in the normal course of your business?

A Uh-huh

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, at this time we ask that RM-223-01 through 08 be admitted

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, this describes an event at the Governor's Mansion for Volkswagen; is that correct?

A Uh-huh

Q And these are some executives from Volkswagen I'm not going to go through the whole thing, but it's clear that the company participants or executive --

MR FAULCONER: Objection I don't have any problem with her -- she said she doesn't recognize the document, doesn't remember the event So admitting it as a business record is one thing, but having her talk about the event if she doesn't remember it, we object to that

MR BROWNLEE: This is a form that is routinely kept in their offices, Your Honor, and I'm just going to have her talk, just briefly, on the form

THE COURT: We can talk -- you can talk her through what she would normally do --

MR BROWNLEE: Yes, sir

THE COURT: -- with these kinds of documents

MR BROWNLEE: Okay Thank you

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And do these documents kind of normally include some of the participants who will be attending these functions?

A Yes

Q Okay And here it shows that there are company participants Those are folks from Volkswagen, I would presume, correct?

A That's what it appears to be

Q Okay And then from Virginia, it's got Bob McDonnell, and then his Secretary of Commerce --

A Uh-huh

Q -- and others; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay Down at the bottom, it just says, "Volkswagen would like to discuss the overall Virginia Volkswagen relationship "

Okay So that's the purpose of this meeting?

A Uh-huh

Q Okay All right And it's pretty clear that there are other types of cars other than Volkswagen, correct?

A Uh-huh

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: All right Thank you You can take that down

All right If we could go back to 512 And the attachment If we could go to the next page The next page

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q If we look at September 8th, 2011, New York Stock Exchange This is an event at the Governor's Mansion for the NYSE Do you remember this event?

A I do

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Okay If we could pull that down and pull up, just for her, RM-226-01 RM-0226 RM I think it's 0226 There we go

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, does this document look familiar, Ms Scarbrough?

A Yes

Q And, in fact, you are the owner/contact for this event, correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And is this document kept in the normal course of the Mansion's business?

A Yes

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, we'd move this into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BROWNLEE: Okay And if you would turn to the next page

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Is this the invitation that went out?

A Yes, it is

Q And Mr Niederauer is the CEO of the New York Stock Exchange; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And fair to say his name is actually on the invitation itself, along with Governor and Ms McDonnell?

A Correct

Q Okay If you turn to the next page, it's invitations of people who were invited Okay And there's another page And other page

Okay Do you recall if the NYSE had anything to do with submitting any names of folks who might want to attend?

A I don't believe so I think it was the Secretary of Commerce and Trade who put together a list of Virginia businesses that were on the New York Stock Exchange

Q Okay And do you know if the NYSE gave the Secretary of Commerce any names?

A That I don't know

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Okay Thank you You can take that down

Let's go right to the -- can you pull up, just for the witness, RM-0225 That's probably 225-0001 No That's wrong I'm sorry. It's RM-0225-0001 There you go Thank you

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right, Ms Scarbrough Is this an event for Forbes Magazine?

A Yes, it is

Q Okay And is this document similar to the others we looked at here with regard to being kept in the ordinary course of business --

A Yes

Q -- for the Mansion?

A Uh-huh

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, we move RM-225-01 through 11 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay All right And if you just look down at the end there, "the talking points included," and this is for -- "RFM" is who?

A Robert Francis McDonnell

Q Okay So that's the Governor?

A Yes

Q And part of his talking points is to thank Forbes for the partnership for the section; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And one of the people attending was Steve Forbes, the chairman and CEO of Forbes Media; is that correct?

A That is correct

MR BROWNLEE: And if you turn to Page 3

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And if you look at 6:45 p m , Mr Forbes actually got an opportunity to speak, did he not?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, let me ask you --

MR BROWNLEE: If you'll turn to the next page

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q This discusses a drop-in discussion with the CEO of Reynolds Packaging Group

Do you remember ever helping coordinate these kind of drop-ins at the Mansion during other events?

A From time to time

Q Okay And is this an instance in where another CEO, this one of Reynolds Packaging, had some issue regarding power supply issues that he wanted to have an opportunity to speak with the Governor about, and they set that up -- it looks like in the parlor -- in which he would come and have an opportunity to be heard?

A That's what it appears I wasn't the point of contact planning this other than he was arriving at the Mansion and showed him where the parlor was

Q Okay But these things happened from time to time?

A Uh-huh

Q Okay Now, if you look at Page 6, the bottom of Page 6 Down at the bottom This is the --

MR FAULCONER: At this point I would object on this event She said she wasn't there

THE COURT: I can't hear you

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd object She said she wasn't at the event

THE COURT: Go ahead and answer the question

MR BROWNLEE: I'm almost done Thank you

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q If you look at the bottom, you've got invitations, people from Forbes Magazine are invited; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And then if you go to the top of the next page, there are more people from Forbes?

A Uh-huh Can I clarify? I was at the Forbes event I was not in the meeting with the Reynolds person

Q Okay Great

A Just to clarify that

Q And so is it possible that The Forbes Company, the magazine, submitted these people's names so that they would be invited?

A I guess it's possible I didn't receive the list from them so I can't say

Q Thank you

MR BROWNLEE: Last one, Your Honor, and then I'll move along

RM-0224-0001

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And this is the last one I'm going to ask you about

A Okay

Q This is another document, similar to the ones we talked about, for an event with a company called Sabra and PepsiCo officials?

A Yes

Q Okay Do you remember that event?

A I do

Q Okay Did you attend that event?

A I did

Q Okay And is this document the ones normally kept in the ordinary course of business there at the Mansion?

A Yes

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, we move 224-01 through 04 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q And just looking at the guests We've got the CEO of Strauss, the parent of Sabra, and then other officials from the company, the CEO of PepsiCo; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And this was kind of a big event; is that right? It was a morning event? This is the hummus manufacturer that I think we may have heard a little bit about; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And then after this event, there were other events throughout the day in which the Governor participated; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And if you look at the last page -- well, I'll tell you what It's in evidence We'll deal with it

Thank you very much

Just one thing At Sabra -- and I may be mispronouncing it, but Sabra is an Israeli company who had built a facility in Virginia; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And do you recall at that event that Governor McDonnell wore a yarmulke out of respect for that company?

A No, he did not.

Q He did not?

A Not that I recall

Q Okay We'll get back to that Thank you

I want to talk just very briefly on this healthcare event that Mr Faulconer went in and talked to you about

This was an event for many healthcare leaders throughout Virginia; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay It's a lot of doctors and people related to the healthcare field; is that correct?

A Uh-huh

Q Okay And this was not an event for Star Scientific, right?

A No

Q Okay Only thing about Star Scientific is that a few members of the company were invited; is that correct?

A A few members of the company and some other medical folks that they wanted to be there

Q Okay But those were doctors?

A I think so

Q Dr Ladenson is a doctor, right?

A Yes

Q Dr Clore is a doctor?

A Right

Q Dr Caturegli is a doctor?

A Yes

Q Okay Let me talk a little bit about -- about Ms McDonnell Is it fair to say that Ms McDonnell was difficult at times?

A Yes

Q Okay And you've testified as to that; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And I believe you, on questioning by Mr Faulconer, discussed how you viewed the McDonnells' relationship; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And I believe that in interviews with the FBI, you testified that -- or stated that in your opinion, Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell's relationship in public as being so sweet and so in love; is that right?

A Yes

Q And that, in your view, Mr McDonnell worshiped the ground Ms McDonnell walked on; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay But did you not also say that you felt that Mr McDonnell was in denial about Ms McDonnell's mental capacity?

A Yes

Q What did you mean by that?

A There was difficult working days at the Mansion She stated several times she did not want to be the First Lady, and just seemed upset and sad and down often

Q Okay And did you tell them that you did not believe the relationship between Mr and Ms McDonnell was the healthiest in terms of communications?

A Yes

Q That Ms McDonnell did what she wanted?

A Yes

Q Okay And that their face-to-face time was limited because of his travels?

A It was

Q All right Now, did you also refer to Ms McDonnell as a spoiled brat?

A I don't recall using those exact words

Q Okay And that it was her way or no way?

A Yes

Q Okay And that she would scream and yell at people?

A She did

Q Okay Did you refer to her as sneaky?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, were there times where you felt like

Ms McDonnell would use the Governor's name without his permission to get things done?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor May we approach?

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench)

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, I believe Mr Brownlee is going to get into instances that this witness said, but it's only based on hearsay and based on what other people told her about Ms McDonnell using Mr McDonnell's name

THE COURT: The last question he asked was okay So if something with a problem comes up, but at this point, that's --

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, he should ask her first did that happen, did you observe that happen, and then ask whether or not she said it to law enforcement

THE COURT: No You can ask the question It's okay The objection is overruled

(In Open Court)

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, I asked were there times when you spoke to the investigators, did you tell them that there were times when Ms McDonnell would use Governor McDonnell's name to try to get things done?

A Yes

Q Okay And was there one particular instance when there was some bottles of Anatabloc that she wanted placed in some gift bags and that she said that the Governor wanted this done when you knew that wasn't the case?

A Yes

Q Okay You had mentioned that you were friends with Cailin McDonnell; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q And that's the McDonnells' daughter; is that correct?

A Uh-huh

Q And you were very close to her; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And is it fair that you all, when you started working there, kind of made a pact that you just wouldn't talk about your work, and that way you could try to maintain this friendship; is that right?

A Yes

Q Okay You talked about your observation of Mr Williams, and I believe you testified that you thought he had an ulterior motive; is that right?

A Uh-huh

Q Is it fair to say that those were observations from seeing him at the Mansion?

A Yes

Q Okay So you never saw him, perhaps, at like the Patrick Henry Building or some other place?

A No

Q Okay Now, just to give us a little bit of a sense of these You have all these events, and I know you planned them and there's a lot of them, but is it fair to say that Governor McDonnell's role in the planning of these events is either very limited or almost zero?

A That's correct

Q Okay So most of these events, he just kind of shows up Maybe somebody hands him a briefing book There's a little bit of a description, as we saw here, and then he's on? He comes in and does his thing?

A Pretty much Yes

Q Okay All right Now, did you ever discuss with Bob McDonnell his personal finances?

A No

Q Okay Did he talk to you about the nature of his mortgages?

A No

Q Okay Did you talk to him about the nature of any other loans he might have had?

A No

Q Okay Did you ever have a conversation with him about the personal nature of his marriage?

A No

Q Okay Did you ever share the personal nature of your marriage with him?

A No

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Court's indulgence for one moment, sir

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, that's all

Thank you very much

THE COURT: All right Thank you

We'll stop now for our morning break Fifteen minutes

(Recess taken from 11:36 a m until 11:56 a m)

(The jury entered the courtroom)

THE COURT: All right Mr Burck

MR BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BURCK:

Q Good afternoon

A Good afternoon

Q I'm Bill Burck I represent Maureen McDonnell

A Okay

Q You and I haven't met before, right?

A No

Q So, Dr Scarbrough, just a few questions You testified about the gift -- the list of gifts for the First Lady that you would maintain when you were working in her office?

A Yes

Q And that was an internal list that was used for internal purposes, right? It wasn't something that was supposed to be published to the public?

A No, not to the public

Q And you eventually came to understand that the First Lady did not have a filing requirement, an SOEI filing requirement; is that right?

A That's correct

Q But there was -- for some period of time, there was doubt on that score, right?

A Yes

Q And, in fact, there was so much doubt on that that there was a training course set up and Ms McDonnell attended; isn't that right?

A Yes

Q And that was roughly in December of 2011?

A I believe so

Q Okay And it was after that training course, sometime after that training course, that the determination was made that because she's not a public official, she doesn't have to file an SOEI at all; isn't that right?

A Correct

Q You were asked some questions about your observations on Ms McDonnell's interaction with her husband, and you answered those questions I have some questions about your observations on her interactions with Mr Jonnie Williams

A Okay

Q When you learned about the shopping trip from Mary-Shea Sutherland --

A Uh-huh

Q -- is that right?

A Yes

Q When you learned about it from her, did you think it was peculiar that Mr Williams had purchased these gifts for Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Did you think it was inappropriate for a married man to be purchasing a married women, who is not his wife, personal items like that?

A Yes

Q Did you think that their relationship was, in fact, inappropriate?

A Yes

Q Just a few more questions

You were asked about the events, the Mansion event and also the Healthcare -- the Virginia Healthcare Leaders event Do you remember that?

A Yes

Q And with the Healthcare Leaders event, I think on direct examination you were asked about Governor McDonnell introducing Dr Ladenson?

A Uh-huh

Q Was it unusual for the Governor to introduce people at events?

A No

Q Was it a standard practice for him to introduce guests, especially special guests?

A Yes

Q And he -- and Dr Ladenson was from out of state, right?

A I believe so Yes

Q You were asked about Johns Hopkins being from -- not headquartered here in Virginia, right?

A Right

Q Isn't Johns Hopkins -- or do you know if Johns Hopkins has facilities here in Virginia?

A That I'm not sure

Q Would it surprise you to learn that their emergency campus, or emergency room campus, is located in Arlington, Virginia?

A I did not know that

Q Okay And what about, do you think Johns Hopkins accepts patients from Virginia?

A I'm sure they do

Q And provides medical services and research for people from Virginia?

A I'm sure they do

Q And when Governor McDonnell introduced Dr Ladenson, did he say, "This is Dr Ladenson Please, everyone, speak to him about Anatabloc Jonnie Williams is in the crowd He's his friend"?

Did he say anything like that?

A No

Q Did he introduce him as Dr Ladenson from Johns Hopkins, one of the world's greatest medical universities?

A Yes

MR BURCK: Could you please pull up -- and this is already in evidence -- Government Exhibit 554 And please blow up February 15, please

BY MR BURCK:

Q Now, you testified about an interview by law enforcement of Ms McDonnell on February 15, 2013?

A Yes

Q And you'll see on the calendar there that there is a 1 p m meet with Officers Kennedy and Hagan, FLOVA Office?

A Uh-huh

Q Are those the gentlemen, as far as you know, who showed up that day?

A Yes

Q And did Ms McDonnell bring a lawyer with her into that meeting?

A Not that I'm aware of

Q Did she go into the meeting by herself with the agents?

A I believe so

Q You have no reason to believe she brought anyone else in there with her?

A No

Q She never said that she had anybody else with her?

A No, she didn't

Q Did you understand what the meeting was about?

A I had an assumption, but I wasn't for sure

Q What was your assumption?

A That it was [illegible]ut the chef case

MR FAU[illegible]NER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR BURCK:

Q And after the meeting when Ms McDonnell, you said, was mad --

A Uh-huh

Q -- and she said that they had tried to set her up and it wasn't fair, right?

A Uh-huh

Q Do you have any idea what she meant by that?

A Not really

Q She didn't tell you?

A No

MR BURCK: Your Honor, just one second

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR BURCK: That's it, Your Honor Thank you Thank you very much

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir

THE COURT: All right Redirect?

MR FAULCONER: Yes, Your Honor

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Dr Scarbrough, I noticed that, when he got up, Mr Brownlee introduced himself to you Had you actually met him before coming to court today?

A Yes

Q How many times were you interviewed by Mr Brownlee before coming to court today?

A Twice

Q And who were the first people to ever ask you about a potentially inappropriate relationship, romantically speaking, between Jonnie Williams --

MR BURCK: Objection, Your Honor

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q -- and Ms McDonnell?

MR BURCK: I never said romantically

THE COURT: He didn't say that You were the one He's asking who, if anybody, said this to her

MR FAULCONER: Sorry, Your Honor I'll make sure I'm clear

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q You said that you met Mr Brownlee before?

A Right

Q Who were the first people to ever ask you about whether there was a potential romantic relationship between Jonnie Williams and Ms McDonnell?

A The Governor's attorneys

Q Now, you said that you have been interviewed a number of times; is that right?

A Yes

Q And do you recall every specific date on which you've been interviewed?

A No

Q Could you list out for us everything you've said in every interview?

A No

Q You don't have immunity or anything like that, do you?

A No

Q Now, in those interviews, we saw the name Officer Hagan, right?

A Yes

Q And have you met Officer Hagan?

A I have

Q And has he sat in on a lot of your interviews?

A No.

Q Did you ever feel pressured by him?

A Not at all

Q Did you ever feel trapped by him?

A No

MR BURCK: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Scarbrough, there was some questioning of you on cross-examination about Mary-Shea Sutherland looking for outside employment?

A Uh-huh

Q Did Ms Sutherland ever hide from you that she was unhappy in her job?

A No
Q Did she ever hide that she was looking to potentially leave?
A No
Q And there was some questions about the difficulty that you had in working for Ms McDonnell?
A Uh-huh
Q Did you communicate those concerns to anybody on staff?
A Yes
Q Did that include Martin Kent?
A Yes
Q And what did Mr Kent say he was going to do?
A Speak to the Governor about it
Q There were also some questions about a training course for SOEIs, conflict of interest Can you tell us what you recall about why that happened?
A Because there was so many questions of whether the SOEI needed to be submitted or not as it pertained to the First Lady So Matt Conrad just went over everything and the importance of submitting the document
Q And did any of that have to do with Ms McDonnell not wanting her gifts tracked?
MR BURCK: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Overruled You brought it up

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Go ahead

A Yes

Q Now, there was also a couple of questions from Mr Brownlee about an event related to the NGA and gift bags Do you remember that?

A Yes

Q And there were some questions about whether or not Ms McDonnell might have used Mr McDonnell's name, and that may or may not have been true

Do you recall those questions?

A I do

Q Was any of that that Mr Brownlee asked about based on anything you personally observed or was it based on what other people told me?

A What other people told me

Q Now, by contrast, the Healthcare Leaders Reception that we talked about a little bit, in that one, did Ms McDonnell tell you that she had discussed it with Mr McDonnell?

A No

Q Well, in that one, did Mr McDonnell discuss it with you personally?

A Discuss? I'm sorry?

Q Sorry The invitations to the Healthcare Leaders Reception --

A Uh-huh

Q -- did he discuss those invitations with you personally?

A No

MR BROWNLEE: Objection Leading

THE COURT: Overruled

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And do you recall the document we looked at earlier where both of their handwriting was on the same page?

A Yes

Q And at the Healthcare Leaders Reception, do you recall how many other companies had a doctor there affiliated with their company recognized?

A I am not sure

Q Now, the launch event itself

MR FAULCONER: If we could pull up Exhibit 219, which is already in evidence

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, I'm going to object The evidence in this record, this was not a launch event This was a lunch event Thank you, Your Honor

THE COURT: You say lunch He says launch We all know what we're talking about So the jury will decide

MR FAULCONER: If we could turn to the second page And zooming in on those first two paragraphs

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Could you read for us what it says at the end of the first line of the second paragraph, starting with "Gov" and going to the word "Reception"?

A "Said Gov wanted to do a small reception "

Q And when it says "Martin" there, who do you understand that to refer to?

A Martin Kent

Q And, Dr Scarbrough, that event briefing form that we saw earlier for the event on August 30th, again, what was your understanding of what would happen with that form once it was sent over to the Governor's Office?

A It would then be placed in his briefing book for him to review

Q And, Dr Scarbrough, these events that we've been talking about, the August 30th event, the February 29th event, are you aware of whether Mr McDonnell attended those events?

A Yes

Q And when he attended, did he attend as Governor, in his official capacity?

A Yes

Q And when you -- you were asked some questions about something you had said to law enforcement about not being sure, not being totally firm, on whether it was an official government function Do you recall that?

A Yes

Q And could you explain, did you later clarify that for law enforcement?

A Yes

Q And could you explain that clarification as it relates to the intended beneficiary of the event?

A I'm sorry I'm not understanding your question

Q When you had said to law enforcement previously that you weren't sure whether the event on August 30th was an official government function --

A Right

Q -- did you later clarify that that was because you weren't sure whether it was intended to benefit the government or Mr Williams?

A Yes

Q And what was your impression from the event as to what it was intended to benefit?

A Jonnie Williams

Q And did you interpret any of Mary-Shea's actions in setting up that event, or any of your actions in helping with that event, as being in any way unofficial?

A No

Q And, lastly, Dr Scarbrough, on these other events, Forbes, Volkswagen, were there any of those products out at the place settings?

A No

Q And do you recall ever hearing anything about payments from those companies to Mr McDonnell's personal bank account?

A No, I don't

MR FAULCONER: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am You may stand down

THE WITNESS: Thank you

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: Call your next witness, please

A Yes

Q Is Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals affiliated with Star Scientific?

A Yes I think it's the same -- the same -- it was the same unit, the same company

Q And in general, what do you do as a consultant for them?

A I mainly interacted with Mr Williams to discuss the many ideas that he has, scientific ideas, about everything that he reads So I give my opinion on the scientific topics and -- basically, that's one aspect

And then I did a study, mice testing, Mr Williams' compound in my mice And then probably last contribution, I also help them in the clinical trials that they did for patients

A Or three times, I think

Q Okay Let's talk about that

A Okay

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up what's been admitted as Government Exhibit 250 If we could publish that to the jury, please I think it's been admitted

It's been admitted Okay

BY MS ABER:

Q Dr Caturegli, do you recall attending an event in Richmond, Virginia, on October 18th of 2011?

A Yes I remember

Q Now, where was that event held?

A It was in a hotel in Richmond, Virginia I don't remember the name, but it's written there So probably that place

Q Okay What was the purpose of this conference?

A We understand it -- understood it was to promote or to publicize, to advertise the product, anatabine, to local physician or local -- members of the local community

And I went there to show what I was doing with my mice using this compound

Q And is it fair to say you were excited about the research you were doing on your mice with anatabine?

A Yes Yes, I was I am still I think it's interesting

Q Who was in the audience at this Richmond event?

A I don't remember I don't -- I didn't -- I don't know any one of them Mainly, they were physician I didn't know from where Like the people that were there, I didn't know them But I think -- I was told that they were local, either local physician or member of the community in the area

Q And what did you do particularly at the Richmond event?

A I presented the stage of my work that I was doing with mice, and I had some slides, which I show and discuss a little bit about the mouse model, what does that entail and where I was at that time with the experiments

Q I note on this Exhibit 250 that the First Lady of Virginia, Ms Maureen McDonnell, is listed as a featured guest?

A Yes I remember

Q Did you meet her that night?

A Yes I was introduced to her briefly before the talk, the presentation And I knew I -- I heard her speaking Yes, I saw it I remember vaguely

Q Was that the first time you had met Ms McDonnell

A Yes

Q Have you ever met Mr McDonnell?

A No I never met him

Q Did Ms McDonnell make any remarks at this Richmond event?

A Yes She opened the event with a few remarks, with just a few, a couple minutes words

Q And I know you probably don't remember precisely what she said Is that fair?

A Yes

Q Do you remember in general terms what she was talking about?

A Yeah, I remember The -- the -- I think the purpose was that she was happy to promote a product that was made by a Virginia company, and she was proud to participate I think that was the gist

Q Okay Now, did you travel to any other similar events for Rock Creek?

A Yes I traveled to two additional events One is -- one was in Michigan, and the other one in California. In this same period, the fall of 2011

Q Okay

MS ABER: I'm going to bring up, please, 254, Government's 254, that has already been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this a flyer for the Michigan event?

A Yes

Q And what was the date of that?

A The date of that, I can read it here, was October 22nd

Q Okay How did you get out to Michigan?

A I went, on both occasions, in Mr Williams' airplane I was taken by Mr Williams' pilots

Q Do you remember who else was on the plane with you out to Michigan?

A Yes Usually it was Dr Mullan, Dr Ladenson, and Mr Williams

Q Do you recall whether Ms McDonnell was also present at this Michigan event?

A Yes Yes

Q And did she make any remarks?

A She talk I mean, they talk When Mr Williams is there, he always -- he talks So yes, probably many remarks, but I don't remember It was nothing to me that stuck in my mind

Q Okay When Ms McDonnell spoke, is it fair to say it was similar to what she said --

A Yeah I would say almost identical Yes

Q Okay So similar, Michigan and Richmond, same speech?

A Yes Very similar principle

Q Okay And on your -- when you left Michigan --

A Yes

Q -- came back to Baltimore -- is that right" --

A Yeah

Q -- how did you travel?

A I also was taken by Mr Williams' airplane

Q Was Ms McDonnell on that plane?

A Yes, she was there

Q Can you tell the jury, in case they don't travel by private plane, what -- how the folks are seated in a private plane?

A Yes I remember the plane is a nice plane, but not many seats So there are four -- there's the pilot, of course And then there was four -- one is one seat for someone And then there are the main area -- there's the main area with four seats, like this And then there is a seat --

Q Like a circle?

A Yes Like four individual chairs And then there was a -- like a little combined chair in the back for two people, or three people like me probably could fit

Q And were you seated near Ms McDonnell on the plane ride back?

A Yeah The second -- on the plane back, I was seated in one of the main seats I think it was in front of Ms McDonnell, or just across So very close, yes

Q Was Mr Jonnie Williams also seated near you?

A Yes Yeah, he was

Q And did you and Mr Williams and Ms McDonnell speak to one another on the way back to Baltimore?

A Yeah Definitely I mean, yes

Q Do you remember what was discussed during this conversation?

A I mainly participate just little words, few words

But in this occasion, I said a little bit more because Mr Williams was discussing about this famous Virginia study, possibility of doing this study that for me, at the time, was just as another topic of discussion I didn't know it was -- become so important after the fact

So -- and I said a little bit more because Mr Williams ask me how is -- how could this study be done, how -- the type of clinical studies There are several types of clinical studies So he asked me what do you think of this type, how it can be done or what -- is that useful to do a study like this

So I put my -- because through my MPH degrees, I knew a little bit So I contribute to discussion in that fashion

Q Okay As a clinical researcher, did you explain to Ms McDonnell why a study like a Virginia study would be helpful on Anatabloc?

A Yes I say it on the plane And then during the -- either just right there or a few hours after, Mr Williams ask me, "Can you summarize it in writing, what you said?"

And so when I went back home, I did summarize, and I wrote Ms McDonnell an e-mail that you have

Q Well, let's all look at it

MS ABER: Let's bring up Government Exhibit -- oh, thank you -- 255, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Dr Caturegli, is this your e-mail to Ms McDonnell on October 23rd, 2011?

A Yes As you can tell, it has some English accent -- or English mistakes So it's me

Q Okay

A Yeah, I wrote it

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd like to move in 255, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Okay, sir So scrolling down to your e-mail, could you read the first two lines to the jury after, "Dear Maureen"?

A "At Jonnie's request, we I sending you" -- I meant I'm sending you -- "a short summary of our discussion yesterday "

Q Okay And is it fair to say the rest of the e-mail summarizes precisely what was discussed on the plane?

A More or less Yes

Q Okay And to the fourth paragraph, starting with, "Consequently," can you read the first two sentences of that, please?

A "Consequently, it would be of value to perform a study of Virginia government employees of to determine the prevalences of autoimmune and inflammatory conditions "

Q Go ahead

A "This information could be derived from their medical histories and blood tests, such as the C reactive protein marker that was discussed yesterday "

Q Okay

MS ABER: And then scrolling down just so the jury can see To the next page, please

BY MS ABER:

Q That you signed it as well?

A Yes I wrote it, yeah

Q Okay

MS ABER: Going back to the first page, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Do you see, at the very top there, sir, to whom Ms McDonnell forwarded this e-mail?

A To Jonnie Williams

Q Okay

MS ABER: And now I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 256, please, for identification

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this a response e-mail that you got back from Ms McDonnell?

A Yes She wrote me back that time The only time she wrote Yes

Q Okay

MS ABER: I'd like to move Government's Exhibit 256 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Can you read to the jury how Ms McDonnell responded to you?

A She said, "Thanks, Mario Thanks for your e-mail and I printed out" -- "I printed your it out and shared it with my husband He said he'd like to talk to some people to look into it and discern what the best approach for Virginia would be See you in California Maureen McDonnell "

Q Okay And she wrote that on what date?

A October 24th, 2011

Q When Ms McDonnell wrote "see you in California," what was she referring to?

A She was referring to the third and last of these events that you indicated before

Q Okay

MS ABER: You can take that down, Ms Taylor

BY MS ABER:

Q How did you travel to the event in California?

A I went to that meeting as before, with Mr Williams' airplane

Q And was Ms McDonnell on the flight as well?

A Yes

Q Tell the jury what kind of event that is

A It was a similar type of event, advertised event There were many local doctors in California, in that place, and there was a reception with -- in this case, it was a bit more elaborate because it was like cocktail and meeting And it was a lunch, and while people were eating, we were presenting our research

And, again, Ms McDonnell did the same introduction, speaking about Virginia company, something similar

MS ABER: If I could have one moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

BY MS ABER:

Q Dr Caturegli, in the times in which you spoke with Ms McDonnell, did she express enthusiasm for the possibility of studying Anatabloc?

A The only time that we discuss were the second time, and she seemed, to me, was genuinely interested in doing -- promoting the public health or the people of Virginia So that's the only time

The other time I don't think we spoke about it The third time, I don't think we spoke about it

MS ABER: Okay Thank you, Your Honor I have no further questions

THE COURT: Any questions?

MR KOFFMANN: Yes, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR KOFFMANN:

Q Good afternoon, Dr Caturegli

A Good afternoon to you

Q My name is Dan Koffmann, and I represent Maureen McDonnell

A Okay

Q Dr Caturegli, you testified on direct that you have met Ms McDonnell four times; is that right?

A I think so Yes

Q And the first time was here in Richmond?

A Yes

Q And you were speaking at -- there was an event at the Westin Hotel?

A Yes Yeah

Q And you testified that Ms McDonnell made some introductory remarks; is that right?

A Yes

Q And you testified, I believe, that her purpose was she said she was happy to promote a Virginia business?

A She didn't say happy That's my -- but the meaning was -- at least the way I understood was that she was proud of introducing a company from Virginia, something like that?

Q Some local --

A Yes

Q -- Virginia pride?

A That was my interpretation of her words

Q And I believe you testified that when she spoke in Michigan, it was the same -- the gist was the same?

A I think so Yes

Q And Ms Aber asked you some questions about the e-mail that you sent to --

A Yes

Q -- Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

MR KOFFMANN: And can we pull up Government's 255, please

BY MR KOFFMANN:

Q And you testified that this e-mail was sent at whose request?

A Mr Williams request me to summarize, as I said before, what I expressed my opinions on the plane So he --

Q So it was Mr Williams who asked you to send this?

A He said, "Can you summarize it for her?" Yes

Q And, Dr Caturegli, to your knowledge, has any -- has this study that was discussed on the plane ride or discussed in this e-mail, has this study ever occurred?

A I never had -- so the answer -- short answer is no

And I never had -- after this meeting, I never heard anything back, either informally or formally. So for me, that's -- I could have never imagined -- if you ask me if this would be such a thing, it would become such a big thing, I could never imagine that my involvement was important like this because I never hear anything back after that

Q Okay And Ms Aber also showed you some of the invitations or the public -- the flyers for these events

MR KOFFMANN: And can we pull up, just for example, Government's Exhibit 254

BY MR KOFFMANN:

Q And she pointed out, I believe, that Ms McDonnell was listed as a featured guest?

A Yes I never seen this except for -- I think last month I think Ms Aber, she show it I just went I didn't actually receive -- this I didn't receive, but evidently

Q So you have no idea, then, whether or not putting Ms McDonnell's name on this event was approved by Ms McDonnell or the Governor's Office or anyone else?

A No I mean, this was beyond my -- no I don't know

MR KOFFMANN: May I have a moment, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Sure

MR KOFFMANN: No further questions Thank you

THE COURT: Anything?

MR BURNHAM: Just a few

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BURNHAM:

Q Good afternoon, Dr Caturegli My name is James Burnham I'm here for Mr McDonnell

A Okay

Q So you've never met Mr. McDonnell before, right?

A No

Q He's the one in the gray suit

A Yes Good-looking man

Q You've never spoken to him before?

A No I was supposed to see him, to go to his place, but I actually went to Philadelphia to help my daughter move in her apartment So --

Q I bet that was less fun

You've never corresponded with him, e-mailed him?

A No

Q And you have no idea whether he actually saw the e-mail you sent to Ms McDonnell?

A No, I don't

Q Okay Just a couple more questions

Dr Ladenson is your colleague at Johns Hopkins, right?

A Yes

Q And he's also a consultant for Rock Creek?

A Yes At least he was Yes

Q Okay And the two of you, Dr. Ladenson and you, perform research on anatabine?

A Yes

Q Okay And you've heard him discuss Anatabloc and its potential, correct?

A Who is "him"?

Q Dr Ladenson I'm sorry

A Yeah When we went to this meeting, he was speaking as well So of course Yes

Q Have you ever heard Dr Ladenson say that Anatabloc is the most significant medical discovery since antibiotics?

A That -- so I don't know you were the one that asked me about this yesterday

Q Yeah

A No So I wrote to you No, I never heard him say

Q You never heard him say that Okay

A No

Q And based on what you know about Anatabloc, would that be an exaggeration?

A Exaggeration is a subjective word, as I wrote you

The state of the knowledge now would be an exaggeration because it's not -- this statement is not substantiated by experimental results So yes, it would be something that is not proven

Q Okay And would you agree that Mr Williams is a very enthusiastic person?

A In a good way

Q Right Right In a good way

A Yeah I think he's a very dynamic person He's always -- seems that he cares about what he's doing He always come up with some ideas that -- for a known scientist, to me, he's always remarkable And he does it, in the way I interpret it, in a good way

Q Right But he's a very excitable --

A Very excitable, yes Very energetic, yes

MR BURNHAM: Thank you, Dr Caturegli

THE COURT: Anything else based on that?

MS ABER: Yes, Your Honor

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Dr Caturegli, did you say that you wrote to Mr Burnham?

A Sorry?

Q Did you say that you wrote to Mr Burnham?

A Somebody -- I forgot Somebody -- I can find out But my lawyer, through an e-mail, that they asked me the same questions

Q Okay

A And I replied to them Because they wrote at 6 I was driving And when I got to the hotel, I saw the e-mail and I replied to them

They asked me -- he asked me three questions, and two of them were identical to this So I am assuming it's him I just don't know the name or remember the name

Q Sure

You had said that you were supposed to meet the Governor Can you tell us what event that was?

A Yes It was -- I was invited to go with other colleagues to the -- his house, his home, the -- the State of Virginia home for a -- I'll say celebration or it was like manifestation or a sponsoring of Anatabloc

Q Oh, okay Was that in August of 2011?

A It was, yes It was -- I don't recall the date, but it was in that period, yes And I didn't go, but I was invited to go

MS ABER: Okay Thank you I have no further questions

THE COURT: Thank you, sir You may stand down

A No

Q Before early 2012, had you heard of the product anatabine?

A No

Q In late January 2012, or sometime in that time frame, did you receive a call that sort of put Anatabloc on your radar for the first time?

A I got an e-mail from one of my colleagues about a clinical study that he was organizing using Anatabloc

Q And who was that colleague?

A Paul Ladenson

Q And how did you know Dr Ladenson?

A Dr Ladenson and I were fellows in Boston at about the same time He was at Massachusetts General Hospital I was at Brigham and Women's Hospital Those are two of the Harvard hospitals

MR FAULCONER: Now, if we could scroll down to the e-mail from you to Dr Ladenson

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Dr Crantz, could you tell us who's cc'd on that e-mail, in addition to you and Dr Ladenson? An "smtanen"?

A Dr Tanen, who is one of my associates Yeah, that's who's cc'd

A "Dear Frank Thanks for your message and interest in the trial Before we move ahead with further discussions, I wondered if your office would be able to carry out the study based on its approval by Essex IRB, a highly reputation commercial IRB with a 25 year history of reliability performance - or whether the study would have to be approved by your hospital/health system as well I look forward to hearinq from you Paul "

Q Now, Dr Crantz, when "the study" is referenced here, I guess in two separate parts of that e-mail, can you tell us what type of study that was potentially going to be?

A My understanding was that a preliminary study had been done with a rodent model using Anatabloc and looking at whether there was some alteration in the immune system in a -- a rodent model for autoimmune thyroid disease

And there seemed to be the possibility that there, in fact, was a positive effect of this supplement in the rodent model, and that the next step would be to -- since it was a supplement already approved, to do a similar trial in human subjects

Q And when we say "human subjects," would that, at least in the idea stage here, have been patients of yours?

A It would have been patients of mine

Q Now, in the conversation --

MR FAULCONER: And we can take that one down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q In that conversation with Dr. Ladenson, did he mention what company he was affiliated with?

A I don't recall if he referred to Star Scientific at the time or not, but -- at that time, I'm not sure

Subsequently, he did mention that the product was a product of Star Scientific

Q And in the course of these initial conversations with Dr Ladenson, did he mention the company's connection, if any, to Virginia?

A He did mention that the company was headquartered in Virginia and that they were interested particularly in having a physician practicing in Virginia as part of the study because the company was a Virginia company

Q Now, after that e-mail, did you actually do some legwork in figuring out what would be required for a study?

A I did

Q If I could show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 302 Dr Crantz, is this an e-mail exchange between yourself and Dr Ladenson about some of that legwork that you were doing?

MR FAULCONER: If we could scroll down just a little bit

A Yeah, I see that

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q I guess first off, is this an e-mail from you to Dr Ladenson -- or actually -- sorry It's to somebody with Rock Creek?

A This is -- the thing I'm looking at right now was something that came from Amy Cohen at Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals

MR FAULCONER: I guess if we could scroll up just one more line

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Do you see there in that "From" line, is this an e-mail from you?

A Yes

Q And it's to Amy Cohen at Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals?

A Right With a cc to Paul and to my colleague, Dr Tanen

Q Got it And it's dated February 7th, 2012?

A Yes February 7, 2012

MR FAULCONER: And, Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 302 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Crantz, you say here, "I've had the chance to review the information you forwarded to me I don't think we would have any problem completing the protocol in our office "

Did I read that correctly?

A Correct

Q At this time were you seriously considering the possibility of doing a study?

A Yes, I was We -- I've never done a clinical study utilizing my patients, and I've always, and continue to be, of the opinion that I want to look at my patients and do what's best for them I don't want to look at them and say, "That would be a great person for a study "

On the other hand, it looked possibly, based on the rodent studies, that this supplement might possibly be helpful in some patients with autoimmune thyroid disease, which is the most common cause of an underactive thyroid, and actually effects maybe 15 percent of women by the age of 65 And that the risk was minimal because the product had been on the supplement market for a period of time with no apparent adverse effect So it seemed like something that might be worth offering to my patients

MR FAULCONER: Now, if we could scroll up to the e-mail response from Dr Ladenson

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Do you see there where Dr Ladenson says, "Please look at your calendar for the evening of February 29th"? Do you see that?

A I do

MR FAULCONER: If we could take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Do you recall Dr Ladenson referring to a potential event on February 29th?

A He said there was going to be a -- potentially a reception in Richmond at the Governor's Mansion and that maybe, you know, if I could make it, that would be lovely We'd have a chance, Paul and I, to go down together and to talk and to go over things at more leisure

Q And do you recall what you would talk about if you came down to this event?

A It was going to be about the study, as far as I was concerned

Q Now, before you were invited to this event, had you ever been to the Governor's Mansion?

A No

Q Did you decide to go?

A Yes

Q Did you actually receive a formal invitation?

A I did

Q I'd like to show you what's been offered into evidence already as Exhibit 216, Page 2 Now, Dr Crantz, have you had an opportunity to review this document before coming into court?

A You showed me this document before we came into court and asked if I had seen -- if the invitation I received was similar to this, and I said, "Yes "

Q Got it And so the invitation you received, this one is attached to an e-mail But the one that you got, was it an e-mail or a hard copy?

A It was a hard copy

Q And you don't still have it, do you?

A No

Q Now, the one that you got in hard copy, did it look like this one? Have a seal at the top?

A Yes, it did

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: We can take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, when you were invited to this event and you received this one in the mail, was there anything saying who was paying for the event?

A No

Q Anything saying it wasn't an official government event?

A No

Q So how did you ultimately get to the event?

A Paul Ladenson was flown down from Baltimore I was picked up at Dulles And we were flown to Richmond and then driven to the event

Q And on what kind of plane did you get down there on?

A It was a Learjet from Mr Williams

Q And when you got down to Richmond, how did you get over to the Mansion?

A There was a car -- I think it was an SUV, actually -- and driver that -- Mr Williams' driver

Q And was Mr Williams there?

A Yes

Q And when you got to the Mansion, where did you park?

A Very close Right up front

Q And can you recall where -- if you could see where other folks were parking?

A I didn't see where other folks were parking, but it was a drizzly kind of night So people were walking in with their umbrellas

Q And when you got inside, how many people do you remember being there?

A It was difficult to say because it was in several different rooms But if you said 50 or -- people, that would be close, as far as I could say If you say no, no, there were really 100 people there, I couldn't refute that

Q But there were plenty of people there?

A There were a good number of people Yes

Q Now, at some point during the evening, did you actually meet Mr McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Who introduced you to him?

A Mr Williams introduced me

Q And I'd like to show you what's been marked as Exhibit 333 Dr Crantz, is this a photo of events at the reception that you attended?

A I can only say that that is a photo of Governor McDonnell his wife, and Bill Hazel, whom I know as a colleague from Northern Virginia where he practiced orthopaedics --

Q Now, is this --

A -- before coming here

Q Oh, sorry, Dr Crantz

Is this consistent with what you recall occurring at the event?

A Yeah In other words, he was there All three people were there I don't remember if that was the tie that Dr Hazel was wearing, but --

MR BROWNLEE: We have no objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

MR FAULCONER: We'd offer 333 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, just to make sure that everybody is clear here Who's -- could you go through, left to right, who the individuals are?

A Left would be Ms McDonnell Center would be Governor McDonnell Right would be Dr Hazel

Q Now, during this event, do you recall Mr McDonnell making remarks to the individuals who were there?

A Only in a hazy fashion

Q Do you recall anything that he talked about or anything that he said?

A I -- what I recall the gist of things being predominately was just about medicine in Virginia and moving forward and having, at this reception, a number of people that were involved with efforts to improve medical care in Virginia

Q And do you recall him referencing Dr Ladenson specifically?

A He did introduce Dr Ladenson and said that Dr Ladenson was here from Johns Hopkins University, yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked as Exhibit 334 And, Dr Crantz, the furthest to the right in this photograph, who is that?

A That's I

MR FAULCONER: And this has already been offered into evidence, Your Honor

I'm correct on that right, right?

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And who's standing to your right, to the left as you look at the picture?

A Mr Williams

Q And do you recall talking to Mr Williams about the potential study at the event?

A I'm sure we did And he was very excited about Anatabloc and its potential So he -- we certainly did Or if I didn't discuss it, he did

Q And I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 339 Is this another photograph from the Healthcare Leaders Reception --

A Yes

Q -- that you attended?

A Right

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 339 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And, Dr Crantz, can you tell us, other than yourself here, whether you recognize anybody else in this photograph?

A That's Dr Ladenson who's beside me

Q And then one more photo Exhibit 337 for identification

A Right

Q And, Dr Crantz, is this another photo that appears to be from that event?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 337 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Ladenson (sic), do you see there, is that you that's sort of a little bit blurry in the background?

A Yeah I'm beside Dr Ladenson On the photo, I'm to his right

Q Okay So the face that's sort of partially obscured, that's actually Dr Ladenson?

A That's Dr Ladenson, yes

Q Now, Dr Crantz, I'd like to show you what's already been admitted as Exhibit 309 Now, before coming in to testify today, you've had an opportunity to review this document, right?

MR FAULCONER: Well, if we could zoom back out and zoom in on the list of names that's there

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, I'm going to object This e-mail isn't to him I'm not sure what -- I just object to the relevance This e-mail is not to him It's an internal e-mail from the Governor's Mansion

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, I'm going to ask him if he recognizes any of the companies that are listed

THE COURT: Go ahead

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Dr Crantz, can you tell the members of the jury whether you recognize any of the companies that are on this list?

A Yes

Q Could you tell us which ones?

A Well, Bristol-Myers Squibb is a pharma company, a major manufacturer of medication CIGNA is a healthcare insurance that insures a number of my patients Medtronic is a company that makes insulin pumps Merck is another pharmaceutical manufacturer

All of these I recognize Sanofi-Aventis is another pharmaceutical manufacturer Those are the ones immediately that I recognize

Q Dr Crantz, if Star Scientific had been on a list like this before you got that call from Dr Ladenson, would you have --

MR BROWNLEE: Objection, Your Honor That calls for speculation

MS MARTIN: Same objection

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Ladenson (sic) --

MR FAULCONER: We can go ahead and take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q -- at the event itself, were you told anything about who was paying for it?

A No

Q And after the event, did you go straight home?

A After the event, we went out to dinner

Q And when you say "we," who are you referring to?

A Dr Ladenson, Mr Williams, the Governor, and his wife

Q And when you went out to dinner, could you tell us whether Anatabloc came up at all during the dinner?

A Yes, it did

Q And can you recall who was talking about Anatabloc at the dinner?

A I recall Mr Williams and Ms McDonnell talking about it Ms McDonnell saying that she was -- had -- using it and it was helping her

Q And during the conversation, was Mr McDonnell engaged in the conversation at dinner?

A About Anatabloc or just in general was he engaged?

Q Well, in general, did he seem to be paying attention?

A Yeah Sure

Q And could you tell us, based off of the conversation that you had, what was your impression as far as why you were there at the dinner?

A I wasn't certain why I was there I -- from my -- my conception of the whole thing was a chance to spend a little time with Paul, to hear a little bit more about the study, and it was a very social kind of thing

Q Did it seem to you like you were being recruited --

MR BROWNLEE: Objection

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q -- to do the studies?

MR BROWNLEE: Calls for leading

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Crantz, this may sound a little strange, but at some point did Mr McDonnell's chef actually come up in the conversation?

A Briefly, it did

Q Can you tell us what that was?

A That was just a little banter back and forth about stealing somebody's chef

Q And who was that between?

A It was between the Governor and Mr Williams

Q Now, do you recall who paid for dinner?

A I do not recall who paid for dinner, although -- I don't recall for sure I was not paying careful attention to who paid for dinner

Q Did you pay for dinner?

A I did not pay for dinner

Q Was it a nice dinner?

A It was a very nice dinner

Q Now, after the dinner, did you fly straight back to Northern Virginia?

A Although I had been promised that I would be back at home by the end of this thing, it was late Mr Williams said his pilot didn't want to fly back that late, it would have been a very late night, so that we would stay over and fly back the next morning

Q And where did you actually stay that night?

A We stayed at the Governor's Mansion

Q And who invited you to stay at the Governor's Mansion?

A The Governor and Ms McDonnell

Q Now, after the event, did you actually end up doing the studies of Anatabloc?

A I did not

Q Now, since the event, have you been back to the Governor's Mansion?

A No

Q After the event, did you ever meet Mr McDonnell again?

A No

Q When you went to the event, were you aware of any payments from Jonnie Williams to the McDonnells?

A No

Q And at the time of the event, were you aware that Mr Williams and Mr McDonnell had a private meeting earlier that day?

A No

Q Did that come up at all at dinner or that night?

A No, it didn't

MR FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR FAULCONER: No further questions, Your

Honor

THE COURT: Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Hello, Dr Crantz My name is John Brownlee, and I represent Bob McDonnell, and I just have a couple of questions for you

Is it fair to say that this whole thing kind of started when you received a phone call from Dr Ladenson? Is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And he informed you that he had received some grants from Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals and he had been doing some testing and he wanted to talk to you about that Is that fair?

A That's fair

Q And you knew Dr Ladenson from many years ago, and he was at Hopkins And I believe you had, at one time, worked at Hopkins or went to school there, I think?

A As I said, the endocrine community is small I saw Dr Ladenson --

Q Okay And Dr Ladenson --

A -- a couple of times every year at meetings, and we shared patients from time to time So we had a -- you know, a nice collegial relationship

Q Okay And you have the utmost respect for Dr Ladenson as a person and as a physician Is that true?

A I do

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Could we see -- may I impose? -- Government's 302? Thank you very much If we could just look at the bottom part of that Thank you

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Sir, I believe this is an e-mail that you had sent And it's my understanding that you had had the conversation with Dr Ladenson Perhaps he had forwarded you some information or had someone forward you some information You looked at it And then this was your reply; is that correct, sir?

A Correct

Q Okay So just based on those things, your conversation with Dr Ladenson and your review of whatever they sent you, you made the decision, you say, "I don't think we would have any problem completing the protocol in our office We have the space and the personnel," and then you go on

So you were fairly supportive of it at that time of at least looking into this; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And at that time, had you ever met Bob McDonnell?

A No

Q Okay Now --

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you very much

MS TAYLOR: She did it

MR BROWNLEE: Oh, thank you too

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, then you talked about, at some point, Dr Ladenson informed you of this reception in Richmond, and you received an invitation And I think the government showed you Government's Exhibit 216

MR BROWNLEE: Could we pull that up? And, actually, if you look at the attachment Okay Could you blow that up?

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay And the government asked you if this was your invitation, and you said yes; is that correct?

A No

Q That is not your invitation, is it?

A No He asked me if I received an invitation that looked similar to this

Q Okay

A Because this --

Q All right This is not your invitation, correct? It's a different date --

A Yes

Q -- right, Doctor?

A It's not my invitation

Q You didn't go anywhere in August, did you, sir?

A I'm sure I went somewhere, but it wasn't to the Governor's Mansion

Q Very good You didn't go to Richmond to the Governor's Mansion on August 30th?

A No

Q No Okay Thank you

MR BROWNLEE: You can take that down Thank you

That's all I have Thank you

Thank you, Judge

THE COURT: All right Any questions, Ms McDonnell?

MS MARTIN: Yes, Your Honor

Thank you, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS MARTIN:

Q My name is Heather Martin, and I represent Ms McDonnell

Have you and I ever spoken before --

A No

Q -- Dr Crantz?

And have we ever spoken on the phone?

A No

Q And going back to your day-to-day practice, you are -- you're in patient care most of the time, correct?

A Yes

Q And you are in private practice?

A Yes

Q You don't work for the State of Virginia?

A No, I don't

Q Or the government in any other capacity --

A No

Q -- correct?

A Except for consulting

Q On a consulting basis only But --

A But I'm not an employee of the government

Q Thank you for the clarification

Now, when you were speaking about your potential interest in this study, I want to make sure I understood your testimony You stated that you were interested in potentially helping out with the study with Dr Ladenson because of the results of the rodent studies; is that correct?

A Because the results of the rodent studies suggested the possibility that there would be a salutary effect, a positive effect, for some of my patients It might be helpful for some of my patients

Q And a second reason that you stated was that the product had been used on the supplemental market with no adverse effects?

A In making a decision as to whether I would offer this product to my patients, the fact that it had been on the supplement market for a period of time without any adverse effects was certainly important

Q And without having to slow us down by pulling up documents, I think it was around early February 2012 that, as you testified in response to the government's questions, you were seriously considering participating in the study; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And at that time, had you ever met Maureen McDonnell?

A No

Q And did Maureen McDonnell have any influence in your -- on your interest in this study?

A No

Q Now, you testified that later in the month you attended a dinner at the -- or I'm sorry, at event at the Executive Mansion, correct?

A Correct

Q And that after that event, you went to dinner, correct?

A Right

Q And Jonnie Williams was present at that --

A Yes

Q -- dinner?

And the Governor and Ms McDonnell were both present at that dinner?

A Yes

Q All right Now, you've spoken with the government agents and prosecutors before, correct?

A Correct

Q And they asked you some questions about that dinner during the times that you've spoken with them before, correct?

A Yes

Q And in response to their questions about that dinner, you stated that Williams was treated like a member of the McDonnell family

Do you recall saying that to them?

A I don't recall saying that to them But he was treated as a very close friend

Q And is it your impression that he was treated like a family member?

A Yes

Q And the context in which the discussion about the chef came up is they were discussing it in sort of a joking manner, correct?

A It was banter, yes

Q And that they were joking about having stolen Mr Williams' chef, correct?

A Yes

MS MARTIN: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

Anything else based on that?

MR FAULCONER: No redirect

THE COURT: All right

Thank you, Doctor You may stand down

THE WITNESS: Thank you

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: All right We're going to stop for lunch I have the same deal as yesterday I've got a matter that I have to take up So you all will get an hour and 15 minutes Let's make it 2:20 for our return, and we'll see you then Have a good lunch

THE COURT: All right I'm going to go down briefly We'll be back for this 1:00 arraignment

(Luncheon recess taken from 1:04 p m. to 2:20 p m.)

THE COURT: All right, let's bring in the jury

(The jury entered the courtroom.)

All right, government, call your next witness

MR. DRY: The government calls Dr William Hazel to the stand.

DR. WILLIAM A. HAZEL, JR.,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. DRY:

Q Good afternoon, Dr Hazel.

A Good afternoon.

Q Would you please state your name for the record?

A I am William A. Hazel, Jr

Q What city and state do you currently live in?

A You have to have a life to do that But our home is in Oakton, Virginia

Q Very good. Briefly describe your educational background to the jury

A I went to high school at a place called Woodberry Forest in Orange, Virginia I got a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering at Princeton University I took some courses at Georgetown in pre-med, then I went to Duke

University School of Medicine, where I finished in 1983, and trained in orthopedic surgery at the Mayo Clinic between 1983 and 1988

Q After you completed your residency, what did you do from that period until you became a government employee?

A I had a practice in orthopedic surgery in Northern Virginia

Q Okay At some point, well, what's your current position, sir?

A I am currently the Secretary of Health and Human Resources for the Commonwealth.

Q When did you originally become the Secretary?

A January of 2010

Q Can you please describe to the members of the jury what duties you have in that role?

A As Secretary, I'm appointed. I'm a political appointee I am appointed by the Governor, confirmed by the General Assembly I oversee on behalf of the Governor's Office a number of state agencies, to include the Medicaid Agency, Health Professions, the Health Department, Social Services, Aging and Rehab Services, a group called the Comprehensive Services Act, which deals with at-risk children, the program for Department for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, Department for the Blind and Vision Impaired, Virginia Board for People with Disabilities And I was told by one of my predecessors never to try to list them because you will forget some, but I know I'm missing two

Q Okay Now, I think you said you were appointed by the Governor. Who exactly appointed you?

A Governor McDonnell

Q And is that a Cabinet-level position, sir?

A It is

Q And who did you -- who was your direct report?

A Chief of Staff, Martin Kent

Q Okay But ultimately, who could fire you?

A The Governor

Q Okay Now, when you came on board as the Secretary of Health and Human Resources in the McDonnell Administration, were you aware of -- what were the priorities as you understood them for the Administration right out of the game?

A That was pretty straightforward. The bumper sticker said "Bob's For Jobs "

Q Okay Did your work as Secretary of Health and Human Resources, did that also relate to promoting business and Virginia businesses in some ways?

A I think it did, because we looked at the agenda of the various departments, and obviously, one of the things that encourages people to come to a Commonwealth like ours is a good, healthy workforce Certainly we have all struggled with insurance costs going up in the private sector, so doing reforms in the healthcare system to lower the cost for government, the taxpayers, and for the private sector were very important to us We do a lot of work around vocational rehabilitation for individuals with disabilities. And so that contributed to that agenda as well So we touched in a number of areas

We also in the Health Department have some control over water quality or some regulation there, which is important Water is an important natural resource to us Our shellfish regulation contributes to that industry significantly in terms of being a mark of quality So I think we did fit into that agenda

Q Now, what percentage of the overall budget in rough terms was your department responsible for?

A Well, the agencies that I sit over spend about a third, at least it did when we started

Q A third of the overall budget?

A State budget, yes, sir

Q Now, when you were working for Mr McDonnell, was it unusual for him to send you information relating to health and medical issues?

A It was far from unusual It was pretty common

Q Okay How did Mr McDonnell typically correspond with you?

A We would get -- some papers would be dropped off, or his assistant would send us an e-mail basically that had a photocopy of a request, and it was pretty common And there was normally something up at the top that says, "Bill, please follow up," "Bill, what do you think," "Please handle," those types of things

Q To be clear, the assistant you were talking about, which one in particular typically would forward you the correspondence? Pam Watts?

A It would mostly be Pam. Occasionally Kim.

Q Let's show Government Exhibit 71, which is already in evidence, and the top of this one This e-mail is from Pam to you in October of 2010 Is this an example of how things would normally come to you from the Governor's Office?

A Yes

Q And prior to -- first of all, can you just tell us what the subject line on this one is?

A "FWD Roskamp Institute press release "

Q Now, prior to receiving this e-mail in October of 2010, had you ever heard of the Roskamp Institute?

A That was four years ago, almost five years ago now, so I'm -- I don't think so, but certainly I hadn't heard of the Roskamp Institute prior to meeting Jonnie Williams

Or if I did, it was in that time frame So if this was when that happened, that's when it was

Q Well, do you remember hearing anything about Star Scientific before meeting Jonnie Williams?

A No

Q Okay Let's go to Government Exhibit 73, please That's already in evidence Can we blow up the top, please? Sir, you write: "I got it Is there something specific that I need to do or is this an FYI only?"

Do you remember getting a response to this e-mail?

A No I mean, if you didn't show me the e-mail, I wouldn't remember it, either

Q Okay Well, let's go to -- do you recall around this time the idea of you meeting Jonnie Williams coming up?

A Yes

Q All right Let's go to Government Exhibit 75 And this is not in evidence At the top, sir, this is a calendar invite, and the organizer is you, correct? And the required attendees are Keith Hare and Matt Cobb; do you see that?

A It is a little hard to focus on from here, but yeah

Q It is dated November 4th, 2010?

A Probably my assistant, Elaina, sent that

MR. DRY: The government would move Government Exhibit 75 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. DRY:

Q What is the subject line on this calendar invite?

A "Meeting with Jonnie Williams, CEO, Star Scientific "

Q And who is Keith Hare?

A Keith was one of my deputies. I had two deputies.

Q The other one was?

A Matt Cobb

Q Okay Did you in fact meet with Mr Williams on November 4th of 2010?

A I met with him, and that was probably the date.

Q Okay Prior to this meeting, around this date, had you ever met Mr Williams before?

A No.

Q Okay Where was the meeting held at?

A In my office in the Patrick Henry Building

Q And who attended this meeting?

A Mr Williams and myself were the only two

Q So Mr Hare and Mr Cobb did not attend?

A That's correct

Q Why didn't they attend?

A As I recall the meeting, we had a lot of stuff going on that morning, and they had other things that just took higher priority and I just said, "I'll handle it myself "

Q Now, when you are going into this meeting, what's your understanding about why you are attending the meeting?

A Well, the Governor sent Jonnie Williams to me to talk to

Q And let's just -- what did -- what do you recall Mr Williams saying during the meeting?

A Well, you know, he talked a little bit about himself and his company, and he talked about having been in the tobacco industry and the devastation of the tobacco industry on Southside Virginia, and that he had had these tobacco barns, and along the way they had found this chemical that he was quoting some literature that smokers often didn't get other diseases, and that they had found the reason was this product that was in tobacco And that it was, if we could figure out a way to make this a marketable product, it would help the economy, and that by the way, he knows the stuff is good because, you know, family members were taking it and a lot of other people Then he actually took some of the pills while I was there That was the long and short of the conversation.

Q Was there any discussion about clinical trials?

A You know, I don't remember there being at that point in time

Q I'll try to refresh your recollection.

A I think sometimes my wife tries to refresh my recollection this way, too

Q I don't even know how to respond, so I'll leave it alone Discretion is the better part of valor

(Counsel conferring with Mr Asbill and Mr Burck)

(Document proffered to witness)

(Witness perusing document)

Okay, just put that to the side Did Mr Williams ever mention clinical trials of Anatabloc or scientific studying of Anatabloc?

A As I said, I don't recall at that meeting that he did, and I know there is a whole -- this was four-plus years ago now So I don't recall that

Q Do you ever remember him mentioning it?

A Yes, later we had a discussion. That was sometime after that, I think.

Q Okay Did Mr Williams bring anything with him to the meeting?

A Yes, he did. He brought a box of the stuff that he was selling, the Anatabloc.

Q Anatabloc And did Mr Williams ask you for anything at this meeting?

A He gave them to me and he told me how they made people feel better and everything, and offered that I should have some to try And I don't actually, other than that, I don't know, I missed the punch line of the meeting because I never got the ask at that point

Q Okay

A At least I don't remember

Q Was there a subsequent conversation about the idea of you going to Roskamp?

A There was, and I think there is plenty of e-mail evidence of that that you probably already have But there was a discussion, and I don't remember whether it was -- my recollection was always it had been at a different time But there was a discussion to ask me to come down to Roskamp. But again, I don't remember whether it was that meeting or a subsequent communication I just don't know

Q Putting the timing aside, you are sure there was an ask for you to go to Roskamp?

A There was, yes, definitely

Q Coming out of that meeting or around this time frame, let's just do it that way, what was your reaction to Mr Williams' claims regarding Anatabloc?

A Well, they were unbelievable to me Let's put it that way I'm an orthopedic surgeon, and in the hierarchy of medicine and medicines, we do surgery, and there's certain medicines we use, and the rest of the profession jokes at us because we use very few medicines But something that was too good to be true I probably would have heard of somewhere along the line And I think I knew at the time there was already some Federal Trade Commission advertising issues that this company had had, because in preparation for the meeting I had gotten that information So then you do worry about things in an unregulated manufacturer like the quality of the medications, the compositions, the dosages, all of these things And so to say I was skeptical was an understatement

Q Okay But Mr Williams had told you all these stories about his wife and gave you anecdotes That didn't sway you?

A An anecdote is an anecdote

Q What would you rely on as a doctor before having less skepticism; what would you want to see?

A Professionally, there is a process by which medications come to market And I think we all know that even medications that come to market have problems Side effects, you know I can think back to when statins were just coming out and getting real big for cholesterol and there was this theory that we should all take a statin for cholesterol because we will live longer, and set aside the liver issues and the muscle pains and things like that, and the fact that maybe it doesn't do all of these things So, you know, there is a body of literature, a body of evidence that's developed scientifically that's reviewed. The FDA, love them or hate them, they are slow as molasses, but if you do get their seal, you have probably got something that is likely to be safe So I tend to rely on those

Q The science?

A Correct

Q Did you ultimately go down to the Roskamp Institute?

A No

Q Okay Let's bring up Government Exhibit 116, please That's already in evidence This is an e-mail from Ms Watts to you, correct?

A Yes

Q That's May 5th of 2011 What day of the week is that?

A Thursday on this

Q Okay And let's go to the attachment Can you just read the title of this?

A "Seeking Alpha" and the symbol "Star Scientific has Home Run Potential by Dr John Faessel, April 29th, 2011 "

Q Had you ever heard of Dr John Faessel before this?

A Not that I recall

Q Do you recognize the handwriting on the upper right-hand portion?

A I have seen that many times, and it is generally in red

Q Okay From whom?

A I believe that would be the Governor He liked to play doctor sometimes, so that scratch is the McDonnell scratch

Q The handwriting is bad?

A Yes It is at times

Q Okay Do you recall talking to the Governor about Star Scientific on Thursday, May 5th, 2011?

A The Governor and I, as far as I know, only spoke about Star one time directly that I can think of Today sitting here, you may have something else. But he did ask me to talk to Jonnie

Q And do you think it was around this time frame or are you not certain?

A You know, when we went through all of our preparation, a timeline was generated. And absent that timeline, it is hard for me to put everything in order

Q Let's do it this way Let's go to Government Exhibit 117, please And the top e-mail is from Ms Block to you That's dated what date?

A This is Monday, May 9th, 2011

Q Okay And then if you look at what -- let's just scroll down to give some context to this Stop there, please Ms Block writes to you: "The Governor said he sent you some material on the Roskamp Institute and that you were going to get back with him regarding your thoughts on the organization "

Now go up. What do you write to her in return, sir?

A "He mentioned this to me on Thursday so I have not gotten to it yet How soon do you need to make a decision?"

Q Does that refresh your recollection, or are you still just --

A Whether it was in person or a phone call or something said at a meeting, I don't deny that it happened, but I just don't remember the conversation.

Q You don't remember the date, but when Mr McDonnell asked you to meet with Mr Williams, do you remember what he said other than that?

A At one point, he did say that Mr Williams was a very good friend of his wife, and that he wanted me to meet with him. And I believe that my response was, "I have met with him once, but I really don't know what he wanted from me "

Q So was this before -- so this conversation occurred after you met with Mr. Williams in November of 2010?

A It clearly did.

Q Was it before a subsequent meeting with Mr Williams at the Healthcare Leaders Reception?

A I wouldn't say that I had a meeting with him there I ran into him. But yeah, I assume so I don't know when that was because I think we were in a lobby or a hallway someplace, so there was just -- it was just a conversation.

Q Did you have an opportunity to provide the Governor your views regarding the idea of him going down to Roskamp?

A By the time -- I do remember that by the time that they jogged my memory and I got back to it, there had been a decision already made that they weren't going, so my input was not needed.

Q And who informed you of that?

A It might have been the scheduler, Monica, or might have been the Chief of Staff I just know that I was racing down to get the information to answer the question and it had already been decided

Q Do you recall saying that you had spoken to Martin Kent about the trip and learned that --

A That sounds right to me

Q Okay By May of 2011, how were you and your staff referring to Mr Williams?

A I think the jury has heard that he was known in our ring as the Tic-Tac Man.

Q And why were you referring to him as the Tic-Tac Man?

A Well, the day that he came he left me this box of stuff, which I will swear under oath I never declared as a gift because I had no thought that it had any value I mean, I just want you to know that But they were -- they looked like Tic-Tacs and they were in a Tic-Tac container

Q Is it fair to say that you were very skeptical of Mr Williams and his product?

A Well, yes One of my deputies, I think it was Keith, asked if I would take them, and I said no, I would not take them. And he asked if Matt would take them and Matt says, "If you pay me " Keith said, "I will give you a dollar a day to take them," and after two days Keith didn't pay and Matt didn't take them. That's my recollection

Q Did you attend a Governor's event at the Homestead Resort in June of 2011?

A Did I attend in June, 2011?

Q Yes

A I think I attended. I get my years mixed up, but I think I attended that year, yes 2010, I did not 2011, I think I did.

Q Before that event, were you asked to sit next to Mr Williams during the event?

A Yes

Q And who had asked you to sit there?

A Secretary Polarek.

Q And Secretary Polarek is who?

A Janet was our Secretary of the Commonwealth

Q Is she also known as Janet Kelly?

A Yes, she is now.

Q Okay

A Got married along the way

Q Did you agree to sit next to Mr Williams?

A No. I asked not to be seated next to Mr Williams.

Q Why didn't you want to sit next to Mr Williams?

A Frankly, I thought it would be a very long evening

Q Long how, sir?

A Well, I didn't need to get the Anatabloc sale again, the Anatabuse, whatever

Q Going to Government Exhibit 189, please Sir, do you remember receiving this e-mail on July 31st at the bottom?

A Yes, sir

Q And who is that from and who is that to?

A This was from the Governor to me asking that I have Keith or Matt attend a short briefing at the Mansion about ten with the First Lady

Q And it is sent at 11:29 p.m.?

A That's what it says here, yes, sir

MR. DRY: The government would move to admit Government Exhibit 189 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR DRY:

Q To be fair, sir, was it unusual for the Governor to e-mail you late at night?

A No

Q And --

A He had some very bad habits that way

Q He would often e-mail you late at night?

A I probably encouraged him because I was one of those who responded sometimes in the middle of the night

Q At the time that you received this e-mail, were you aware that Mr McDonnell had just returned from a vacation at Mr Williams' home?

A No

Q At the time that you received this e-mail, were you aware that Mr Williams had provided a $50,000 loan to the Governor's wife?

A No

Q At the time you received this e-mail, were you aware that Mr Williams had paid $15,000 for the Governor's daughter's wedding reception expenses?

A No

Q Sir, after your meeting with Mr Williams, did you have any intention on having additional meetings or sending your deputies to have additional meetings with Mr Williams?

A Nothing proactive on my part, no

Q Where did you think that the Mr Williams thing was at? Before this e-mail, was Mr Williams and his product even on your radar screen?

A Before this one?

Q Yes, sir As far as what you needed to do going forward.

A Again, because of the timetable and the discussion, I knew somewhere along there that he wanted scientific studies And I did speak to Mr Williams someplace, I think it might have been at the Mansion, and I basically said, "Jonnie, you don't need me to do this You go talk to -- there is a process for this that people go through when they want to bring drugs to market "

Q Did you know that before this e-mail?

A Without my cheat sheet of what happened chronologically, I don't know whether it was before this or after this, Mr Dry I just plain don't recall

Q Was it unusual for Mr McDonnell to ask you or your deputies to attend a meeting on less than eleven hours' notice?

A It was not uncommon for us to show up for meetings on very short notice.

Q Okay Can you remember any other time that that occurred?

A I would say that, truthfully, I would have to say that I don't recall any other -- I can only recall one other time where I was asked to go to the Mansion, but I can tell you that it would probably be easier to remember the times we had advance notice for meetings, which was almost never

Q What was the other --

A Things just popped up

Q What was the other time you went to the Mansion?

A Early on in the Administration, I was asked to go speak to the First Lady about her agenda as First Lady

Q Who asked you to?

A I don't recall, probably the Chief

Q You say the Chief?

A The Chief of Staff, probably Martin Kent

Q Did you go talk to her?

A We did, yes

Q And approximately when was this?

A I think Keith was already on board, so it would have been in February of 2010

Q And what was said during that meeting?

A That was a discussion about what the First Lady wanted her sort of role to be and agenda and so forth

Q What did you tell the First Lady?

A We explored a number of options at that point, about what -- and I don't think anything was really settled in her mind as to what she wanted to focus on.

Q Did the subject matter of nutraceuticals come up?

A It did.

Q What did you tell Ms McDonnell during the meeting?

A I did ask that we avoid nutraceuticals as being not evidence-based and sound and that the Health Department would be happy to provide things that would be on good solid footing for her to talk about

Q What do you mean provide things? I guess I don't understand

A If the interest was health, which I think the First Lady was clearly interested in health and health promotion, I think that there were things that would be considered more mainstream and less controversial, and I think would have been a much -- my advice was to steer clear of these things that really are unfounded.

Q Let's go back to the e-mail You say, "Will do " Correct? To the request from the Governor?

A Yes We we would get somebody there.

Q Did someone actually go to the meeting?

A Yes Molly Huffstetler went to the meeting

Q What was her job?

A Molly worked in our office as an advisor She worked a lot on health policy, Medicaid policy

Q And why did you direct one of your subordinates to go to this meeting?

A The Governor asked us to have someone there

Q All right Let's go forward to the Healthcare Leaders Reception. In January of 2012, were you planning a reception at the Mansion, or were you having your staff plan the meeting?

A We had wanted for a long time to recognize the folks that had worked with us on the Virginia Health Reform Initiative and other places and some of the stakeholders around healthcare I think it is pretty evident that healthcare and health reform have been critical issues during our time in Richmond. And at some point, somebody said, "Let's have an event at the Mansion." And I don't recall whether that was in response to us directly or just sometime it bubbled up to the top of the list But at a certain point, we said we were going to have a healthcare event at the Mansion. So we started to plan one

Q What was the purpose of this event?

A I think it is like a lot of the events, when you have been working with people on a variety of things, and it was Governor McDonnell would frequently invite groups in around topics where we had just worked closely, and some people agreed with us on the issues and some didn't, but it was just a chance to show appreciation that they were there and participating in the process

Q When you say appreciation, appreciation for doing what? You are going to invite somebody to a Healthcare Leaders Reception You are recognizing them for their contributions of doing what?

A I think for my perception when we set out was that these would be people who were involved in one way or another in sort of the improving healthcare in Virginia, improving in the public area, thought leaders in healthcare, political leaders, organizational leaders in the delivery system.

Q Was it your understanding as you were planning this event that you were going to invite businesses in?

A Well, if a hospital executive represents a healthcare business, the answer would be yes

Q But how about a pharma company?

A You know, a pharma representative of one of the major companies that has a plant in Virginia would probably have been on the list if they had been involved in the policy world or participated in some of the -- see, we had had a whole series of activities that we engaged people in This Virginia Health Reform Initiative had 22 or 24 individuals on it and we had six work groups So there were people who had contributed and shown up month in and month out to contribute and those are the ones that I was focused on

Q Was Mr Williams one of those people?

A No

Q Who was responsible for paying for the cost of the reception?

A My impression had been that our office as Secretariat was going to pay for that

Q When you say your office, that's Department of Health and Human Resources?

A The Secretariat There is a Secretariat budget It is roughly $700.000, may have been a little less than that, and we pay our employees out of that and that's what we have to work with

Q Let's talk a little bit, how do you put together the guest list?

A Have you ever planned a wedding?

Q Not yet I probably will have to

A Good luck You try to, you figure out how much money you have, how many people that the building will hold, how much it is going to cost per person to have them, and then you look at the list of people and you try to pick through who you feel, based on what we were trying to do, should get priority in being in the room.

Q And who on your staff were you working with on that process?

A My assistant, Elaina Schramm, did most of the coordination for us. But I lean heavily on my deputies, Keith and Matt who you mentioned, who helped us draw the list and helped me remember, we ran it by the Commissioner or the Director of the Medicaid program, and others, just to try to be sure we got the people who had been most helpful in terms of coming to working on our Health Reform Initiative

Q Did anyone else add names to the list that you came up with?

A Yes

Q Who?

A We sent the list over and it did come back with names added When I say we went sent it over, I think we sent it to the Governor, the First Lady, but somebody handled it and sent it back to us Mostly when you plan these events at the Mansion, which we didn't do very often, you present sort of the program and the agenda and then they amend it and send it back. So I'm not exactly sure who did it

Q At some point, did you understand that Ms McDonnell was adding names to your list?

A That was my impression, yes

Q And had you or had you requested that Ms McDonnell review the list and provide her names? Did you have any conversations with her saying, "Hey, please add who you want"?

A No

Q Did you review the people that Ms McDonnell had added to the list?

A I reviewed a list that had names added to it And yes

Q Did that include people from Star Scientific?

A It did.

Q Did that include people from the Roskamp Institute?

A I believe it did, yes

Q Well, bottom line, at this time did you view these people as Healthcare Leaders in Virginia?

A I did not

Q Did you become upset about this?

A I was frustrated, because I felt we had a limited number of spaces, and that it should be directed more to people that were mainstream involved in the systems in Virginia

Q You wanted it to be people that had actually made contributions to the policy of healthcare in Virginia

A That was the general idea

Q Did you express your frustration?

A Well, I basically determined that we could not pay for those other people If that's expressing your frustration, yeah, I was not excited to see these outsiders or people I would not consider leaders involved.

Q Let's go to Government Exhibit 343, please This is an e-mail from Elaina Schramm to you dated February 29th of 2012 Ms Schramm is your secretary or assistant?

A My assistant, yes.

MR. DRY: Government moves Government Exhibit 343 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR DRY:

Q You have had the opportunity to review this e-mail before your testimony today?

A I believe so, yes

Q All right And in general terms, what does she write to you right there?

A I'm sorry, could you repeat that?

Q I'm sorry What does Ms Schramm write to you there?

A It says, "Looks like there will be 125 guests tonight "

Q Can we go to the attachment? And the attachment to this is the people that are coming to your event?

A You really expect me to read this?

Q No, not that quick.

A It is not that it is moving, it is just that it is fuzzy Now you know why I'm not doing surgery anymore, I guess

Q Let's blow up some names Let's go to OGV-002444 The upper left-hand corner, can we blow up just the first three columns? And you see in Cell A-2, this is the list of people that would be attending?

A Yes, sir

Q Going down to the 26 block, do you see that name?

A Frank Crantz

Q And you knew Dr Crantz, right?

A I did know Dr Crantz His wife is a gerontologist in Northern Virginia and I had known Frank previously

Q Was Dr Crantz one of the people that you wanted to invite to your reception?

A No. I didn't put him on the list

Q Going down on Line 34, please

A By the way, I like Frank a lot He is a good guy But I just wasn't --

Q He seems to like you, too

A That's nice to know somebody does

Q Go to Cell 34, please Do you see that name there?

A David Dean.

Q And then can we go over, and what company is he associated with?

A It says here Star Scientific

Q Just to be clear, did you even know David Dean?

A No

Q You didn't add him to the list?

A No.

Q Going to the next page, on Line 72, do you see a name, Paul Ladenson?

A Uh-huh.

Q Did you know Mr Ladenson?

A No. I think I might have met him at the reception I'm not even sure The name now rings a bell, but I don't know him.

Q Did you subsequently learn that he was a consultant for Star?

A Could have been Slide over and see, does he have an association on this thing?

Q So you think you might have met him, but you are not certain?

A The name is ringing a bell now, but I --

Q Do you recall the Governor giving him a shout-out during the reception?

A No

Q Okay Fair to say that you wouldn't have identified Dr Ladenson as a healthcare leader of Virginia then?

A No

Q Going to the next page, 2446, Lines 117 and 118 Do you see Jonnie Williams, Jr and Jonnie Williams, Sr ?

A They were Star Scientific I can see that

Q Fair to say you are still referring to Mr Williams as the Tic-Tac Man?

A I think I did describe him otherwise, as you are aware of, at one point

Q All right We will talk about it But at this time, is one of the ways you are referring to him as the Tic-Tac Man?

A Yes

Q Fair to say you didn't want him at your event?

A That's correct

Q And are any of those people, are those people that you would consider -- let's take Dr Crantz out Are any of these other people, were they in your opinion Healthcare Leaders of Virginia?

A No

Q As far as you know, did they contribute in any way to the policies, public policy and healthcare in Virginia?

A Or even the economics of healthcare in Virginia No

Q Okay Let's go -- on this one, under the "Not Attending," can we go down to 139, please? You see a Michael Mullan from the Roskamp Institute?

A I see the name, yes

Q And same thing with Dr Mullan?

A The Roskamp is in Florida

Q Okay So you weren't inviting the Roskamp people to come to Virginia?

A No

Q Was that the same place that you were invited to attend?

A Yes

Q Fair to say he is not a healthcare leader of Virginia?

A Yes

Q Overall, were you happy that these individuals were being invited to your event?

A No I would like to clarify, I don't look at these events as my events. They are our events I think it would be wrong to say, you know, the goal here is to do the right things for the folks, and frankly, for the Governor to show appreciation to the people who have worked for Virginia

Q Let's talk about that It is "our event " What do you mean "our event"?

A I looked at it as sort of between the Governor's Office and the agencies of the Secretariat who had been working in healthcare policy

Q In fact, the invitations, were they sent by your office or sent by the Executive Mansion, do you know?

A You know, I don't know in this case I really don't remember

Q Okay

A It is kind of like that wedding we were talking about A lot of things happened I didn't know about

Q I think you said that you weren't willing to let your office pay Did you communicate that to anybody?

A I did definitely to my staff in the office, and I think they communicated that back. An agreement was reached that we would pay for the people we invited and they would pay for the people they invited.

Q At any point in this planning process, did you become aware that in fact Mr Williams was being allowed to provide names to invite to this event?

A I do believe I knew that, yes

Q How did you know that?

A It would have come back up through my assistant, whoever was doing the communication

Q You knew that not just that Ms McDonnell was providing names, but you knew that Mr Williams was providing those names to Ms McDonnell?

A That is my recollection, yes

Q Okay I think we have touched on this a couple times I want to just see if we can flesh out the timing While you are at the Healthcare Leaders Reception, did you talk to Mr Williams?

A I do believe I spoke to him.

Q And do you remember -- first of all, were you happy to see Mr Williams?

A Really want me to answer that again?

Q I'm sorry What did you say to Mr Williams and what did he say to you?

A You know, at this point, I'm sure you are about to show me what I told you last year, and I'll have to rely on that because I don't really remember that well But --

Q I want your best recollection as you sit here

A I think that this is when he talked about getting his product tested I think that's when it was And I think that, you know, we spoke and I just said, "Jonnie, what do you want from us?" I believe that was the conversation I get confused on the dates I really do But I think that was the conversation, you know, "Jonnie, what is it that you want?" He says, "I want help getting my product tested." I think that was when it was And that was probably when I told him that "There are ways to get that done "

Q But did you tell him that you would help him with it?

A No

Q What did you tell him?

A I told him he needed to speak to the people who do that directly, the universities and so forth, and see if what he had is worth studying I know at some point we also had a conversation, whether it was the same time or not, it is hard for me to imagine we had this whole conversation in the Mansion, but I said, "Look, Jonnie, there are ways to get products tested. People do it all the time " But he was reluctant to turn over his product or, you know, his patents, whatever, to a pharmaceutical company I think he wanted for some reason for us to do it I said, "But there is an established way you can get this done without us "

Q Let's talk about that for a second. When you say "us," who does he want to do the studies?

A I think he wanted us to contact and get MCV and UVA to do the studies That's what I told him he should do I said, "If you want to prove this stuff works, we don't just take a bunch of it and give it to our employees I won't even put the stuff in my mouth. You need to have it tested."

Q Did you know that Mr Williams had broached the idea of having studies involving government employees?

A I did know that I don't know when, though That's what I am telling you I did know that I did know that in the process It wasn't really my area The Secretary of Administration and Human Resource Management does the employee programs And it is not unusual for us to do trials to see if we can do better delivery, better services But I would not want to subject our people to something like this

Q Let's just be clear on this Are there -- do you have any other examples of products being medically tested on government employees?

A Not outside an IRB, a review board and a formal scientific study, no

Q Okay I just want to make sure I understand You mentioned having a conversation with the Governor about him asking you to meet his wife's friend When was that?

A Again, the dates, it was obviously between the time I met Jonnie Williams and it was between the time and the Mansion event or whenever it was I had that next conversation with him. I remember the conversations and I can vaguely remember settings, but the dates just don't come for me

Q Going back just real quickly to that Healthcare Leaders event, did you want to include political donors to that event?

A For me, political donors wasn't anything that was really on my horizon I was looking more for the people who were involved in the policy and things like that The fact is that some people donate and some don't Some voted for the Governor, some didn't That wasn't my concern, really, as much as getting the folks who were involved in the policy and having some time for us to socialize and express our appreciation

Q I'm not trying to say there is anything wrong --

A I'm just saying, I would not --

Q Was that part of your thought process when you were putting the list together, like, "Hey --"

MR BURCK: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: He has answered the question

BY MR. DRY:

Q When was the first time you learned that Mr Williams had given the $50,000 loan to Ms McDonnell?

A I would imagine that was sometime last year Probably read it in the paper with everybody else

Q As you sit there today, can you recall any other group other than Mr Williams that had -- that was unique for the level of support from the McDonnells?

A I can't recall that there was ever a situation quite like this one

Q Please explain that

A Well, you know, the Governor in doing his job would go out and meet with all kinds of people and would come back with all kinds of ideas Let me give you an example

If I had a dollar for everything that these technology firms were going to save us by using their product, we would be giving the taxpayers money back But our job was to sort through them and figure out whether it applied to Virginia or not But looking from sitting here now four years into this, there was never anything quite like this that I saw I don't think I was ever looking at a product like this I don't think that there was the involvement that we had in terms of just the repeated contacts The Mansion event was unique That was the only time that happened. Not that Mansion events were unique, but the whole arrangement thing that we just went through.

MR. DRY: Nothing further

THE COURT: All right Cross?

MR. ASBILL: I have no questions

THE COURT: Thank you

MR. BURCK: Just very briefly

Q Same hours all the time? Or fewer hours?

A We work the same hours

Q I'd like to direct your attention specifically to the end of July, 2011 Did you accompany the McDonnells on a vacation to Smith Mountain Lake, Virginia?

A Yes, I did

Q What was your role in the protecting of that trip?

A I was with the Governor We had some events earlier that day, and at the end of the events, we drove to Smith Mountain Lake, where we took his gear and carried it into the house, and I was there for that entire weekend

Q I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 628, actually What I would like to do, actually, 'I don't want to confuse you, let me hand you the paper version of this,

please

(Document proffered to witness)

Take a look at that, please

(Witness perusing document)

A Okay

Q Okay Is that Mr McDonnell's schedule for July 28th, 2011?

A Yes, it is

MS ABER: I would move Government Exhibit 628 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, turning to the last page of this exhibit, does that reflect what you just said, that you all, you took the Governor to the home of Jonnie Williams at Smith Mountain Lake to spend the night?

A Yes, ma'am.

Q Were you with the family at the time or not?

A I was -- I had been with the Governor all day long, and another co-worker of mine took him to the house

Q Okay Thank you Now, when you get to the house, were there any vehicles parked in the driveway other than EPU vehicles?

A Not that I can recall at that time

Q And do you as EPU stay in the home with the McDonnells?

A No Once we get him secured for the night, we had another residence we were staying at

Q The following day, did you come back to the house?

A Yes

Q Let me ask you: At that time, did you understand who owned the house in which the McDonnells were staying?

A I didn't know exactly who owned it. I just assumed who owned it

Q At the time you assumed who owned it?

A It was told to me it was Jonnie Williams' home

Q Day two you come back to the house. I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 180, please I think you have seen this before, but if you would feel more comfortable, I can hand you the paper version. Is this Mr McDonnell's schedule for the Smith Mountain Lake weekend? Take a look at the screen, sir If you are not comfortable with the screen, let me hand you the paper It is up to you.

A Yes, it looks like his schedule, yes

Q The schedule for July 29th through 31st, 2011?

A Yes

MS. ABER: I would move Government Exhibit 180 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MS ABER:

Q Day two, July 29th, you come back to the house where the McDonnells are staying Is something else there?

A There was another car in the driveway when we come back.

Q What kind of car was that?

A That was the tan or white Ferrari sitting in the driveway

Q How did you know it was a Ferrari?

A The words on the side helps a lot But I've seen those cars before It is kind of a dream car of mine

Q I'm not trying to joke with you, but did you and the other trooper take any pictures of the vehicle?

A The trooper that was with me wanted me to take a couple pictures so he could send back to his son, so I wound up taking several pictures of the car and sent it to his phone

Q Further along in the vacation during that weekend, did you see anyone driving that vehicle?

A Yes

Q The Ferrari

A Yes

Q Who was driving it?

A Governor Bob McDonnell was driving it

Q To where did he drive it?

A We had, my co-workers and I had went to the clubhouse for lunch. And we had just finished having lunch and we were coming out of the clubhouse And before we could get into our vehicles, Governor Bob McDonnell and the First Lady, Maureen McDonnell, was coming towards the clubhouse driving the vehicle with the top down.

Q Did you take any pictures of Mr McDonnell driving the vehicle?

A I was kind of fascinated seeing him drive a car I took a video off of my phone

Q For the jury's knowledge, do you have that phone anymore?

A No, ma'am, I do not

Q Was it surprising to you to see the Governor driving at all?

A I was just, it was nice to see him driving a nice car like that That's about it

Q I understand. Did you have any involvement in any return trip to Richmond from Smith Mountain Lake?

A No.

Q Okay

MS ABER: One moment, please, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MS ABER: I have no further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Any questions from anybody over here?

MR. BROWNLEE: No, Your Honor Thank you.

MR. KOFFMANN: No, Your Honor

THE COURT: Thank you, sir You may stand down.

(Witness stood aside)

Call your next witness, please

MS ABER: Todd Claiborne

TODD CLAIBORNE,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Good afternoon, sir

A Good afternoon.

Q Please state your name and spell it for the court reporter

A Todd Claiborne, T-O-D-D, C-L-A-I-B-O-R-N-E

Q And Mr Claiborne, how are you currently employed?

A I'm a trooper with the Virginia State Police

Q How long have you been with the State Police?

A Seventeen-and-a-half years

Q And during that time period, have you ever worked with the Executive Protection Unit?

A Yes, I have

Q What time period did you work there?

A Since January, 2008

Q So part of your time was with the McDonnell Administration?

A Correct Yes, ma'am.

Q Okay I would like to direct your attention to the end of July, 2011 Did you meet up with the Governor's -- with the McDonnells, did you meet up with the McDonnells while they were on vacation at Smith Mountain Lake?

A Yes, ma'am.

Q Okay What was your role in the EPU for that vacation?

A For that vacation, I was relieving the day shift units and I was assigned to bringing them home that day

Q So is it fair to say that you arrived at the tail end of the vacation?

A Correct, the last day

Q What was the plan to get Mr and Ms McDonnell and the family back to Richmond?

A It was to drive them back as assigned

Q Is that what you would normally do?

A Correct

Q I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 184, please. Is this an e-mail exchange between you and your bosses on July 31st, 2011?

A Yes

MS ABER: I would move 184 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MS. ABER:

Q So, sir, instead of you driving the McDonnells back, did other plans arise?

A Correct They did. Kind of last minute

Q What were those plans?

A That the Governor and the First Lady would be riding back in a separate vehicle, and the kids would be riding back in yet another separate vehicle So we would have four vehicles coming back.

Q One for Mr and Ms McDonnell, one for the kids, and two for EPU?

A Correct

Q In what vehicle were Mr and Ms McDonnell driving back to Richmond?

A In the property owner's vehicle It was a Ferrari, as noted in the e-mail

Q When the e-mail here makes reference to "101" and "102," is that Mr and Ms McDonnell?

A That's correct That was our shorthand designator for them.

Q Now, what time does this e-mail say you all were going to be leaving?

A It said we should be leaving here, being Smith Mountain Lake, by 7 p.m.

Q How long is the trip back from Smith Mountain Lake to Richmond?

A Approximately three hours

Q So Mr McDonnell actually drove the Ferrari back?

A Yes, ma'am.

Q How did EPU position themselves?

A In the front and the rear to control the trip back.

Q Was it typical for Mr McDonnell to be driving?

A It was not No, ma'am.

Q To date, how many times as of July of 2011 had he driven?

A To that date, I don't recall any, any times that he had driven to that time That's why I sent the e-mail

Q Okay And where was Ms. McDonnell seated, in which vehicle?

A She rode back with the Governor

Q Okay

MS ABER: One moment, please

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel.)

BY MS ABER:

Q Last question, sir: In reference to the other vehicle in which the children were driving, were you able to see what kind of vehicle that was?

A I think it was a Range Rover

Q Okay They caravanned back with you to Richmond?

A Yes, ma'am.

MS ABER: Thank you I don't have any other questions

THE COURT: Any questions?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Trooper Claiborne, my name is John Brownlee I represent Bob McDonnell I just have a couple questions for you, okay?

A Yes, sir

Q You stated you are a member of EPU, and that stands for Executive Protection Unit; is that correct?

A More specifically, Executive Protective Unit

Q Thank you And is that essentially kind of like the Secret Service, but for the Governor of Virginia?

A Yes, sir That's how we explain it We try to provide the same service, but with less people

Q So your duty is to protect the physical safety of the Governor; is that right?

A That's correct

Q So when Bob McDonnell was Governor, your duty was to protect his physical safety; is that right?

A Yes, sir

Q And today, we have a new Governor, Governor McAuliffe, and your duty is to protect his physical safety; is that right?

A Yes, sir

Q Is it fair to say in order for you to do that you have to be able to get physically close to them when you are out and about so you can protect them if something were to happen?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay Is it fair to say that in order to do that, the Governor, whoever is Governor, has to trust you?

A Yes, sir.

Q Okay Bob McDonnell trusted you?

A I felt he did, yes, sir

Q He trusted you with his life

A Yes, sir

MS ABER: Objection.

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Now, Trooper Claiborne, you were interviewed by the FBI as part of this investigation; is that correct?

A That's correct, sir

Q All right Do you recall telling them that you had heard that the cars were transported as a favor?

A I recall that, yes, sir

Q Okay And when Governor McDonnell drove back, there was a trooper vehicle in front and a trooper vehicle behind; is that correct?

A That's correct That's the way I set it up

Q Okay And he got back safely?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay

MR. BROWNLEE: Thank you, Your Honor

THE COURT: Thank you. Anything for Ms McDonnell?

MR. KOFFMANN: No, Your Honor

THE COURT: Anything else for this witness?

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Mr Claiborne, do you recall who told you that the Ferrari was being transported as a favor?

A I don't No, ma'am.

MS ABER: Thank you, Your Honor We have no further questions

THE COURT: Thank you, Trooper You may stand down.

(Witness stood aside)

Call your next witness

MS ABER: Tucker Martin.

TUCKER MARTIN,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Martin

A Good afternoon

Q Please state your name and spell it for the court reporter

A John Tucker Martin, but I go by Tucker T-U-C-K-E-R, M-A-R-T-I-N

Q Did you previously work in the McDonnell Administration?

A I did I worked for the Governor as Attorney General, for his campaign for Governor, and throughout the Administration.

Q So what year did you start working for him?

A January of '06

Q And in what capacity did you work in each of those jobs?

A I was always his Communications Director

Q And what does a Communications Director do?

A It depends on the day But essentially, manages the messaging and the narrative and the public interface of the elected official and the press corps, and the public, anything from speech writing if that's called for, serving as chief spokesman, putting together talking points, briefing him for events and essentially managing that interface between the Administration and the public

Q Is it fair to say you interact the media regularly?

A Yes

Q Did you interact with Mr McDonnell

A Yes

Q How often did you do that?

A Constantly Probably more than just about anybody in my life other than my wife

Q Was it that way just when he was Governor or also when he was Attorney General?

A Oh, yeah, from day one in January of '06

Q Now, when Mr McDonnell ran for Governor in 2009, did he have a complain slogan about jobs?

A Absolutely, Bob's For Jobs

Q Just so you might get credit or not, did you come up with that?

A No, I did not

Q Okay In reference to your time specifically as Communications Director for Governor McDonnell, just in those four years, were you aware of scheduling meetings?

A Yes

Q They existed, scheduling meetings?

A Right

Q Can you describe for the jury how scheduling meetings occurred?

A Sure Well, the ones that I was in, we do typically every week, maybe every two weeks, depending on when we could, there would be a number of individuals and sort of the scheduler at the time would have a list of all the events that the Governor would be invited to, sort of the details on it, and would get advice from press capacity or policy side or other individuals about should we do this event or not

Q Who was in these scheduling meetings?

A Always myself, always Janet Polarek, now Janet Kelly, Secretary of the Commonwealth, Mary-Shea Sutherland would be there during her time, if it involved the First Lady I don't know she was there for every meeting Martin Kent, the Chief of Staff, Jasen Eige would also be there, Matt Conrad would be there a number of times

Q What was his title?

A Matt Conrad, I believe his official title was Deputy Chief of Staff. He would be there, the scheduler obviously, be it Monica or Catherine, Adam Zubowsky would be there, and occasionally Emily Rabbitt would be there

And there could be others that would probably come in or out but those are the names I would think of.

Q Even though Governor not present for these meetings, I take it?

A Correct

Q Did he have any input on his schedule?

A Yeah. I mean, he was the time arbiter, I believe

Q So once the scheduling meeting produces some resolution, some calendar or some draft, is that presented, was that presented to Mr McDonnell for his review?

A Yes, but it is not like, I mean, not a firm resolution. Oftentimes that meeting would end up with some of us say you should do it, some of us say you shouldn't Some of us say if you've got the time, what the heck, go Some would say no That would then be carried to the Governor in a smaller meeting that would involve scheduling and the Governor

Q Okay Let's change topics a little bit and speak about things that happened generally

A Okay

Q During your time in the Administration, how customary was it for Mr McDonnell to talk about promoting Virginia business and economic development?

A Constant. That's why we got elected.

Q During your time in the Administration, how customary was it for your day-to-day work to relate to promoting Virginia business and economic development?

A Everything we possibly could do

Q Probably an obvious question, but I'm going to ask it: Based on your observations of Mr McDonnell's actions and what you were being asked to do, did it seem like promoting Virginia business and economic development was a priority for the Administration?

A It was the priority

Q We will move along How common was it for the Mansion to host events in your experience?

A Very

Q How common was it for those Mansion events to relate to promoting Virginia business and economic development?

A Yeah, that seemed very common

Q How common was it for Mr McDonnell to attend those events?

A Very

Q How common was it for other Virginia government officials to attend those events?

A Oh, yeah, very, depending on the event, who would attend.

Q In your experience, how common was it for Virginia businesspeople to attend those events at the Mansion?

A Very

Q Now I'm going to ask you a question that is probably going to make you pause How common was it for the Governor to have meetings on his schedule?

A Very

Q Lots of meetings?

A Lots of meetings

Q How common was it for you and other government employees to participate in planning those meetings? Setting them up?

A My participation would be meetings with the press, which you would obviously call interviews If you want to put it all under an umbrella of meetings, if he was doing anything with the press, that kind of meetings, I would be involved in setting it up Other people, depending on their Secretariat and area, would depend on something that fell within their area of expertise

Q Are you aware of if any of those meetings the Governor had related to promoting Virginia business and economic development?

A Lots of them.

Q Changing subjects, let's talk about something more concrete I'd like to take you back to April of 2011 Do you recall being on a trip to New York City with Mr McDonnell?

A Yes

Q What was that trip for, do you recall?

A We were going up there to do some media hits I believe we had several media appearances we were doing

Q A media hit?

A We were going up there to meet with, we may have done some TV interviews, may have done some print interviews We would go to New York periodically and when you are there you try to do as much in national press as you can.

Q Did you have an occasion during that trip to run across Mary-Shea Sutherland in a bar at the hotel at which you were staying?

A Yes

Q Did you talk to her?

A Yes It was, she had gone to a dinner, I had gone to a baseball game At the end of the night, typically the staff traveling, it was "Hey, let's all meet up and have a drink." That's when I saw her late that night in a bar

Q Did you talk about why Ms Sutherland was up in New York for that trip?

A She told me that she was --

MR. ASBILL: Objection

THE COURT: He can answer

THE WITNESS: She told me she was with the First Lady shopping

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, was the topic of Mr Williams raised during that dialogue?

A Yes She said she they were shopping with her friend, Jonnie Williams.

Q Now, this might seem a little embarrassing when I ask you this, but was there a time when you owned Star Scientific stock?

A Yeah, Absolutely

Q Were you aware that Ms Sutherland also owned Star Scientific stock?

A Yeah, it was that night, she either told me she owned it or was getting ready to buy some I liked buying stocks, small amounts of small companies, and it was a company from Petersburg which is near where I'm from so I thought it was great to buy a little stock from a Virginia company near my home

Q When did you actually first meet Mr Williams?

A I didn't meet him -- can I note one thing for purposes of my relationship with the press? Just so they know when this was all going on, I sold the stock before I ever spoke to them about it, so I do not have a conflict of interest That's important to me I didn't want to have a conflict

Q There is a court reporter

A Just wanted to note that It is important to me I met Jonnie in, would have been September of 2011, I believe, on a trip to New York and New Hampshire

Q Now, moving forward or backward as the case may be to June, 2011 Were you aware that Cailin McDonnell got married in that month?

A Yes

Q Did you have to answer press inquiries about the wedding?

A Yes, quite a few

Q What sorts of questions were the press asking of the Governor's Office?

A They were asking who is paying for it and they were also asking the historic questions, everybody wanted to know who else has been married here, what's the menu. Those sort of questions that you would expect from a wedding and a venue such as the Mansion.

Q Around the time of Ms Cailin McDonnell's wedding, did you talk to Mr McDonnell about how the wedding was being paid for?

A Yes

Q And what did Mr McDonnell say was the source of funds for Cailin McDonnell's reception?

A He said the family was paying

Q Did you communicate that to the media as a result?

A I did

Q I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 148, please This has not been admitted. This is an e-mail exchange between you and a reporter at the Times Dispatch in May of 2011

A Uh-huh

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd like to move 148 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q So Mr Martin, is it fair to say the reporter is asking the kinds of details you just mentioned?

A Yup

Q Colors?

A Yes

Q How many guests?

A A little bit beyond my skillset

Q Did there come a point in the 3:55 e-mail at which, excuse me, at the 7:58 p.m. e-mail on the top, where you are telling Ms Meola of the source of funds for the reception; is that accurate?

A Yes

Q Read the top e-mail to the jury

A My words in the e-mail?

Q Yes

A "Yes, MCDONNELLS are covering all costs of reception Stand by on others "

Q Okay I would also like to bring up now Government Exhibit 621, please Did you communicate this about the McDonnells' payments to other media sources?

MR ASBILL: I object A newspaper article?

THE COURT: Overruled

BY MS ABER:

Q In addition to the Times Dispatch, did you tell other media outlets that Mr McDonnell said the family was paying?

A Yes

Q Okay Is Government Exhibit 621 a Washington Post story about the Cailin McDonnell wedding?

A Yes

MR. ASBILL: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled.

MS ABER: I would move 621 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Sir, I'll move past the wedding colors and so forth and direct your attention to Page 3, please At the very top paragraph there Can you read the last sentence to the jury, please?

A Sure. "McDonnell's spokesman, Tucker Martin, said the family is picking up the tab for all wedding costs "

Q Did you ever hear Mr McDonnell saying that "You got it wrong, Mr Martin, actually, something else is up," or this was the consistent message you got from Mr McDonnell?

A No, this was the message

Q Okay Thank you. Did you know that Mr Williams had provided a $15,000 check to the McDonnells to cover the wedding catering?

A I did not

Q When did you find that out?

A I believe when the story broke while I was on my delayed honeymoon in South Africa

Q 2013?

A 2013

Q Did you know that around that same time in May of 2011 that Mr Williams had loaned $50,000 to Ms McDonnell?

A No.

Q When did you find that out?

A When that story broke in 2013, which it might have been summer Just as all those stories were happening

Q I'd like to change topics and move forward in time to an event at the Mansion on August 30th, 2011 Do you recall a lunch being held that day?

A I do

Q I'd like to talk about the week that led up to this lunch

A Right

Q Were there any things going on in the Commonwealth?

A Yeah, that was an incredible week for folks who do remember in Virginia, we had the Louisa earthquake, Governor declared a state of emergency That was then followed up by a hurricane. The Governor was working around the clock. I've never seen him work harder All of us were We were on no sleep, and he called it the week of earth, wind and fire, because there was an earthquake, a fire in the Dismal Swamp, and the hurricane It was probably the toughest week of the Administration It was Wednesday to Wednesday, look at it that way Heck of a series of events

Q Were any federal officials coming to Richmond during that time period as well?

A Yes, I believe on that same day, August 30th, I think Secretary Napolitano and Secretary Vilsack were coming to the Virginia Department of Emergency Management for a briefing with the Governor about recovery from the hurricane

Q Despite all that, did there come a point in time when you got a draft of a press release related to an Anatabloc luncheon at the Mansion?

A I did That Monday evening, I guess the event was a Tuesday, am I right in my chronology?

Q I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 224, which has already been admitted. I'd like to scroll down slightly There is an e-mail there, sir, from Mary-Shea Sutherland to you at 5:44 p.m. Do you see that?

A I do

Q Is that how you learned about the Anatabloc press release, Mansion press release?

A That is

Q I spoke over you Is that how you learned about it?

A That is, right.

Q How did you react to receiving this draft?

A Well, obviously the e-mail spells it out, but it was a surprise to me, and it was also coming through a channel that wasn't normal It is just -- I had never before received a press release that had gone from a company to Mansion staff to me saying, "Here you go " That's not the way things work. And so my initial decision was, I got a lot of questions here, I better put the lawyers on it When in doubt, put the lawyers on the e-mail That's why I cc'd the following individuals

Q For the jury's knowledge, who are the lawyers that you cc'd?

A Jasen Eige, Martin Kent, and Matt Conrad.

Q How would a press release normally be issued through the Governor's Office?

A Well, there's various routes by which one can occur The simplest is we write a press release We're the origin of it and we're the release point There could also be press releases that come through agencies, an agency of the state could say, "Hey, here is some good news we have, do you guys want to put this out?" Economic development such as this would be the Virginia Economic Development Partnership would sometimes send us things like job announcements or "This company gets millions of dollars or grants," and Commerce and Trade would send us something on economic development Those would be the normal avenues by which a press release would come to me, to look at, sign off on, and edit

Q So I'm clear, was your primary concern the manner in which this had come to you or the text of the press release itself?

A I really believe at the time and knowing how tired I was and what we were going through, that my concern was it was coming through an avenue that I had never seen a press release come to me by that manner and I thought when in doubt, put the the lawyers on this e-mail and find out what's going on

Q Do you remember any subsequent conversations with the lawyers or anybody else in the Governor's Office about the press release?

A I really don't.

Q Okay We can take that down, please Changing subjects entirely: Have you ever seen Mr McDonnell wear a Rolex watch?

A I have

///
///
///
///
///
///
///
///
///
///
///
///
///
///
///
///

Q And when did you see that?

A It would have been when Olympia Meola, a reporter for the Richmond Times-Dispatch, came to do -- typically, before a General Assembly session, the Governor will sit down with reporters and do interviews on "Here's my agenda for the year Here's what we're looking to accomplish "

She came to do that interview along, with a photographer And I would have noticed it -- then I noticed in that interview

And I believe Olympia came back to my office and specifically mentioned, "Is he wearing a Rolex watch?"

Q Do you recall roughly when that was? Like what year, what month?

A Yeah Well, I know now It was -- I think it was like January 2nd of 2012 is the article she wrote, or -- yeah That's --

Q I can't tell you

A Yeah No I'm trying to think I mean, I've seen her e-mail and I've seen the article

Yeah, that sounds right Right after we came back from Christmas break

Q Of 2012?

A Yeah 2011 into '12

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 281, which has already been admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Do you recognize that as a photo that was taken roughly at that meeting?

A Yeah I mean, I believe that would be a Bob Brown photo for the Richmond Times-Dispatch

Q Okay

MS ABER: Thank you

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, did you talk to Mr McDonnell after the issue of the Rolex was brought to your attention?

A I did

Q And what did you say, and then what did he say?

A I remember I went back down the hall after Olympia left Jasen was there I think I asked him, "Is that a Rolex?"

And the exchange, not verbatim He said, "Yeah Maureen got it for me for Christmas "

And I said, "I don't think it looks great for you to be wearing a Rolex "

And I think he sort of made a joke, "It's probably not even real "

And I think Jasen and I both said, "That doesn't matter if it's real or not It just doesn't look good "

That's my role is optics and how things look I just didn't think it looked great

Q When you say "Jasen," what is Mr -- Jasen's last name?

A Oh Eige

Q And did you ever see Mr McDonnell wear the Rolex ever again?

A I did not

Q Okay Moving forward in time a little bit January of 2012 Did you travel with Mr McDonnell to Greenville, South Carolina?

A I did

Q And why were you all going to there?

A For the endorsement of Governor Mitt Romney for president

Q How did you get to Greenville?

A We were in New York doing press interviews The Romney campaign sent us a plane We flew from New York City down to Charleston, South Carolina, for the first events, or North Charleston, South Carolina And then we flew on the Romney press plane from North Charleston to Greenville that night

Q And who was with you during the trip to Greenville?

A On the Romney press plane?

Q Yes, sir

A Myself, Phil Cox, Adam Zubowsky and the Governor and First Lady

Q When you got to Greenville, did you find Mr Williams there?

A Yes, he was there

Q And what was your reaction to seeing him?

A I don't know if I had a huge reaction to seeing him I mean, he was there with the First Lady

Q Did you subsequently meet up with Mr Romney and his wife, Ann Romney?

A We did, yeah Briefly that night We also -- if I remember right, it was raining We all hung out in this airport And then we took the RV back to the hotel for that night, before events in Greenville the next morning

Q So the next morning -- well, let me ask it this way

Was there a point in time in which you're on the Romney campaign RV with Ms McDonnell, Mr McDonnell, Mr Romney, Ann Romney?

A Yes

Q Was that that night or was it the next day?

A Well, no It would have been that night on the way to the hotel And literally, I felt like that was a five-, ten-minute drive Like we're going to the hotel for the night

I remember getting off the RV and going into the hotel with everybody Didn't see him again But then the next morning, we took the RV to a Romney for President event in Greenville, and we would have all been together

Q On one of those trips, did you see Ms McDonnell speaking with Ms Romney?

A I did

Q Which of the two trips?

A Oh, the one on the Saturday morning, the day of the primary

Q Was Mr Williams on the van at that time?

A No

Q And -- but was Mr McDonnell?

A Yeah

Q Okay What did you see or hear Ms McDonnell saying to Ms Romney?

A I mean, we were on the RV We were heading to an event I know I was staring at my BlackBerry, probably working, and everybody was having little conversations But I could tell that Ms McDonnell and Ann Romney were, it seemed like, in a deeper conversation towards another end of the RV

Q Was Phil Cox there as well?

A Yeah, Phil Cox was there

Q Okay So did you -- were you able to overhear any of the content of the conversation between Ms McDonnell and Ms Romney?

A Yeah We could overhear enough And we could tell that she had a bottle of Anatabloc out

And so Phil and I sort of stood there, "What are we going to do about this?" Phil, by virtue of seniority, got to break it up

Q Changing topics February 10th of 2012 You had previously mentioned that you had participated in meetings about Mr McDonnell's schedule, right, setting the schedule?

A Right

Q Okay And are you familiar with the daily schedules that would be circulated to the staff?

A Yeah I get those

Q Okay

MS ABER: Let us look at Government Exhibit 313, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, first question, Mr Martin Have you had an opportunity to look at this one before coming to court?

A I think so Yeah I think it was shown to me

Q Okay I can show you the paper version or we can flip through it

A That's okay If you just scroll down, that helps

Q Sure

A Okay Yeah

Q Okay So is this a schedule from February 10th of 2012?

A It looks like it

MS ABER: All right Your Honor, I'd move Government Exhibit 313 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, Mr Martin, recognizing -- recognizing that this isn't the only schedule -- or let me back up

Is there anything in particular about February 10th that you recall? Like do you remember this day in particular?

A I mean, it doesn't stand out If I remember, I think we went --

Q Before you speculate, let me show you the paper version of 313, please

A Yeah Thank you

Yeah I mean, there's one reason I remember this specifically

Q Why was that?

A Well, it was a particularly busy day I remember the W&L convention That was a neat event And I also remember that's the night we got back We had gone to a brewery to wrap up the day, Devils Backbone Brewing, which is a great Virginia company We were doing a great thing for a Virginia company

But we got back, and I think that's the night that Martin Kent had to go over to the Mansion to talk to the event chef I remember -- that's what stands out for that day

Q Okay Well, let's start sort of with the beginning of the day and walk through very briefly Is it fair to say you started with a reception in Reston, Virginia, at 7:35 in the morning?

A Yeah That sounds right Absolutely

Q Okay And then where did you all go from there at 8 a m ?

A Well, it looks like we stayed there It looks like we did a little pre-reception that you would do Shake hands The Governor would take photos The rest of us would look for breakfast

And then he did the presidential series with Governor Romney And then it looks like we went to D C We went to CPAC, which is a big event

Q And let me stop you there, sir

On the way to CPAC, who is with you?

MS ABER: Scroll up, please

A According to the manifest, the Governor, the First Lady, Adam, and Phil

BY MS ABER:

Q And would you all travel in the same vehicle together?

A If it was a small enough group I mean, we traveled in Suburbans So you just got to figure you got EPU, usually two members And so, you know, you could easily do four people in the back, maybe five people in the back And if it got bigger than that, you'd probably take two cars

Q And then who was present at the CPAC event?

A I've got to tell you, this day is not a clear line for me at all as far as standing out in our life But, I mean, it would have been the same people

The manifest usually nails who's there I mean, that's accurate

Q Okay

A Sorry

Q Is it fair to say, as you look at that schedule, that Ms McDonnell was with you all for the entirety of the day?

A Yeah That sounds right Yeah And I remember I remember her being at the brewery in particular and at W&L Yeah

Q Okay Thank you

MS ABER: You can take that down

BY MS ABER:

Q Now, were you aware that in the following month, in March of 2012, that Mr Williams had loaned $50,000 to the McDonnells?

A No

Q And were you aware, in May of 2012, that Mr Williams loaned $20,000 to the McDonnells?

A No

Q When did you find out about those items?

A Again, it would have been when Ros Helderman called me A year later Sorry

Q Now, are you familiar with an annual filing called a Statement of Economic Interest?

A I am

Q And tell the jury very briefly what that is

A It's just every year anybody in state office, from the Governor down to somebody like me, you have to fill out any gifts you've taken, any securities you hold over a certain amount, any loans you have

Basically, it's a snapshot of your financial picture every year that people can access

Q And what was your role in relation to Mr McDonnell's filing of the Statement of Economic Interest?

A Once it was done, I would get a copy I always asked for an advanced copy because I knew that the press found it very interesting They'd write a story every year on here are the gifts the governor may have gotten Here's how it compares to previous administrations

So I would just -- when the lawyers and everybody were done, I'd ask, "Can I please get a copy of that before" -- I guess they send it to the Secretary of Commonwealth's Office Once it's there, it's live so reporters would see it

So I would -- yeah I would definitely ask, "Can I get a copy before it's live," because then my phone rings

Q Aside from whatever was listed on a Statement of Economic interest, how much did you know about the McDonnells' personal finances?

A Nothing really Besides that

Q Besides what was listed on the form?

A Yeah

Q Did you know about an entity called MoBo?

A I don't believe I did at the time But I think it was -- it may have been on there It may have not

But I've got to get honest I looked at the gifts That was my interest, because that was the press' interest

Q Changing subjects Is it fair to say that you were employed with Mr McDonnell fairly much to the -- to the end of his term?

A Yeah To the last minute

Q And were you around when the media began to run stories about this investigation in 2013?

A Absolutely I was actually, again, on a delayed honeymoon when it broke and returned to it

Q And so did you have to field calls from media asking questions as this broke?

A Absolutely As soon as I got back

Q Did you go to Mr McDonnell in order to find answers to those questions?

A Initially, we did, before we established a different process And then after that, we tried to separate the questions to a different entity But initially, yes

Q And the different process, in a nutshell, was what?

A Well, in a nutshell -- I mean, when I got back, I was frustrated because I was gone The first story had happened And, you know, it's a bad story, but you survive bad stories That's part of this business

But then all that week, it felt like they were fielding more inquiries and there were more stories And then there were stories about contradictions coming out And so I got back and recognized that this may be a problem I thought then, you know, maybe it's a problem for a month I didn't think it would be a problem for longer than that

And so yes, I did try to step in as soon as I could shake my jetlag and say, "What is going on here? We've got to tighten this up," because I didn't like the way it was going

Q Specifically, did you receive any questions about the McDonnells' trip to Mr Williams' estate at Smith Mountain Lake?

A I did

Q And were any of those media questions related to Mr McDonnell's use of a Ferrari?

A They were

Q Did you go to Mr McDonnell to ask him about that?

A I believe I did Yes

Q And what did he say?

A They were moving a car from point A to point B I mean, helping somebody out

Q Did Mr. McDonnell say whether he had driven the Ferrari while at Smith Mountain Lake?

A I'm trying to think if that was in the article that he had I think Ros' article said that he had driven it

I won't rely on my memory there It's out there in The Washington Post But the issue --

Q Well, let me --

A I think that's right I think that's right If I recall from my memory, that yeah, the article was about he drove the Ferrari from Smith Mountain Lake to Richmond I believe that's right

Q And is your reliance on the article -- why do you say that?

A I'm sorry?

Q Do you believe that whatever was reported in the media as your statement was an accurate --

A Absolutely I may not have liked the coverage, but the coverage was fair

Q And would you contact the media to seek a correction if you read something that was inaccurate?

A I definitely would have

Q Okay

MS ABER: Let's bring up Government Exhibit 618, please

MR ASBILL: Same objection, Judge Same objection

THE COURT: Overruled

BY MS ABER:

Q Is this a story in The Washington Post on April 18th of 2013 about the Smith Mountain Lake vacation?

A It is

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd move 618 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q And what's the title of this article, sir?

A "Donor gave McDonnell and family a lake house vacation "

Q And what's the date on it?

A The date is April 18th, 2013

Q Okay And I'm going to direct you to Page 4, please And in the third paragraph there, there's a statement from you Can you please read that to the jury?

A Sure "There was no recreational use of vehicles, Martin said The family was simply helping Mr Williams get one car to his Smith Mountain Lake house and return another to Richmond "

Q And so from whom did you get that statement?

A That would have been me discussing it with the Governor

MS ABER: Thank you You can take that down

BY MS ABER:

Q Did you also receive questions from the media about a photograph of Mr McDonnell holding a bottle of Anatabloc?

A I don't know if the media asked me about that picture in particular, and I don't know when I first saw that picture

Q Okay

MS ABER: Well, let's bring up the picture, 7, please, for identification

BY MS ABER:

Q Is that the picture that we're referring to?
A That's the one, yeah, that you've shown me
Q Okay

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 7 -- or I'd like to move Government Exhibit 7 into evidence, please, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:
Q So as you sit here today, Mr Martin, when do you think you first saw this picture?
A You know, I've been around and around on that one, and -- maybe a reporter showed it to me I don't think that sounds right

I feel like I first saw it maybe with you all, or maybe I saw it on somebody's desk in scheduling I mean, really, this is one that, I'm sorry, I am foggy on that picture, which I've said before
Q That's okay I guess the more important question is did you ever talk to Mr McDonnell about this picture?
A No, not to my memory
Q Okay Hang on one second, please

Did you also help craft statements to the press in response to media questions?
A Absolutely
Q We've talked about that

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 620, please

BY MS ABER:

Q I'll let you take a look at that, please

Have you had an opportunity to read it?

A Yeah

Q Okay Is that an e-mail communication between you and Mr McDonnell, Mr Kent, a gentleman named Mr Flood, and a gentleman named Edward Gillespie?

A Yes

Q Okay And is that dated July 6th of 2013?

A It is

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'd like to move 620 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q What is the subject of this e-mail, sir?

A It was about our response to an article -- a profile of the First Lady that was going to run in The Washington Post

Q And looking at your e-mail at 10:33 p m , it says, "With his edits "

Who is the "his" in that statement?

A I believe it would be the Governor

Q And can you please read the statement below?

A Sure "I am deeply saddened that The Washington Post, relying almost entirely on anonymous sources, would print such a misleading and hurtful story about my wife, Maureen Maureen is a loving wife and a wonderful mother to our five children, and she has worked tirelessly as First Lady for her fellow Virginians She and her staff have traveled the state and held countless events to support veterans and their families, businesses and their employees and the tourism and agricultural industries After 37 years of marriage, we're blessed with a deep and abiding love, and I thank God for her love and her service to the people of Virginia "

Q Thank you

MS ABER: One moment, please, Your Honor

BY MS ABER:

Q Mr Martin, a little bit ago we talked about traveling in a Suburban I think you said it seated four to five folks?

A Right That sounds right

Q When the Governor and the First Lady traveled together, did they commonly travel in the same vehicle?

A Uh-huh Typically

Q Okay

MS ABER: Thank you I have no further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right We're going to take the afternoon break Fifteen minutes

(Recess taken from 4:10 p m until 4:29 p m)

(The jury entered the courtroom)

THE COURT: Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Good afternoon How are you?

A Hey Well

Q If I talk at normal speed, will you try to respond in kind?

A I will try I'm sorry I know I will try I apologize

Q I want to talk to you a little bit first about the post-investigation media issues?

A Yeah

Q And when were you first aware of the investigation?

A That's a good question as to when there was an investigation Because if you remember, I think the very first Washington Post story sort of alluded to "our people looking into this "

So as far as like when I knew there was an investigation, I couldn't truthfully tell you a date on that

Q A month?

A When this story hit, it sort of took on a life of its own, and there just started more and more and more stories And a lot of the stories would say, "People are looking into this There could be an investigation "

I don't know how to give you that answer because I couldn't pinpoint in my own mind when I knew there was an investigation

Q Roughly sometime in the first quarter of 2013?

A Well, the first story hit from The Washington Post on March -- on, what, Easter Sunday

Q Okay

A That would have been towards the end of the first quarter So I think you'd say end of that or start of second, I guess if you're ballparking

Q Okay And from that period, from April -- April through January '14, April '13 through January 2014, you were the person who had to deal basically with all media inquiries regarding the investigation?

A Yes, sir

Q And when is the first time that lawyers became involved with Mr McDonnell?

A It seemed to me it must have been at some point in April it began being the process that questions would have to go through a chain of command Different than we had done before It would go to the attorneys You know, I'd say, "Here's the question I'm getting," and I would await the answer that I could give

Q All right And before the investigation commenced, when you were talking about attorneys, you're talking about Jasen Eige and other people that worked for him?

A Correct That would be staff

Q Staff attorneys?

A Yes

Q Right And then when the investigation commences, then there are outside lawyers?

A Right The Governor, at some point, got a legal team And so they started saying, "Press inquiries need to go through us "

Q Okay And would it be fair to say that when outside lawyers come in, that there's really sort of a lot of tension or conflict between press folks that are in the Governor's Office and the outside lawyers about what to do with the media?

A I think the best way to put it is I remember being very frustrated early on because I thought it was a crisis that could be handled, and I thought we should just dump everything out and move on We typically would in crisis management And it became very clear that no, this is not that kind of situation There are now lawyers involved, and I will just give the answers that I'm told it's okay to give

Q Okay And Governor McDonnell, at that point, was right in the middle of his press people's instincts versus his outside lawyers' advice?

MS ABER: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q In any event, ultimately, with respect to responding to the media, after the investigation was made public, the outside lawyers controlled; is that correct?

A They would control responses And I was the mouthpiece, if somebody asked us

But we also split the responses too The Governor, at that time, had somebody else who would speak about matters related to this, and then I would speak only on matters related to state business

Q Okay And I believe you testified that for eight years you worked for the Governor in the capacity that you've described?

A Yes

Q All right And in the AG's Office for four years, and then in the Governor's Office for four years?

A Right AG's Office three years The gubernatorial campaign in the middle And then the Governor's Office for four It adds up to eight, but he left office early, remember, to run for Governor

Q Okay And would I be correct in saying that the pace and the demands of your job, in terms of time and travel, increased, essentially, each year?

A Oh, absolutely

Q All right And so would I be correct in saying that the -- whatever you had to do in your job in the AG's Office was magnified or was multiplied when you went to the Governor's Office?

A Yeah It's like going from the minors to the major leagues

Q Okay And how many hours a day would you work when you were in the Governor's Office?

A You know, it was -- I couldn't even put a number on it We worked all hours If something was happening, we were working You know, like that week with the hurricane and everything else, we were almost around the clock

But if an issue needed to be responded to at midnight, we respond at midnight If it's 8 a m , it's 8 a m So you're never off the clock You know, when you're in an office and when you're out of the office, there's no difference because you're working You're always on your phone, always on your BlackBerry

And the Governor was a workaholic I mean, he worked around the clock

Q And the Governor's top staff people versus the Governor, who worked harder?

A The Governor

Q Than anybody on his staff?

A Absolutely

Q Who traveled more?

A I mean, the Governor

Q Did it take a toll on your personal life, this pace?

MS ABER: Objection Relevance

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Did you have time to deal with family issues or personal issues?

MS ABER: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Now, in terms of -- and I don't want to -- I don't want to mischaracterize your job, but for ease of reference here, would Press Secretary, is that sort of essentially --

A No There would be a Press Secretary who was in the press office Communications Director sort of oversaw the press office, and then we'd have a Press Secretary, a Deputy Press Secretary, and a Deputy Communications

Director But people know it better as Press Secretary So if it helps, easy way to describe it

Q I mean, ultimately, whatever you do in communications, ultimately or generally feeds into the press one way or another; is that correct?

A Oh, absolutely

Q Now, in terms of that job, please help me understand this You have to have regular interaction with folks in the media in this job; is that correct?

A Right

Q And so you're talking to reporters, TV reporters, print reporters or whatever, magazine people all the time --

A Right

Q -- is that correct?

And often those calls would come in late in the day or on weekends or Friday nights or whatever?

A They'd come in whenever something had to be responded to or a reporter wanted to talk

Q All right And you may know the answer off the top of your head or you may have to go get help and find out from somebody what the facts are before you can respond; is that right?

A Oh, absolutely You know, I mean, 90 percent of this stuff is easy; what's he doing tomorrow, what's going on

You know, simple questions

But if it's a more complex answer, then yeah, I'd have to run the traps and sort of go through the right secretary or the Governor or whoever was the subject matter expert to then return with an answer

Q Okay And you tried to be totally truthful and honest and accurate with the media whenever you gave them any kind of a response; is that right?

A Yeah A hundred percent

Q All right And you never would purposely mislead or lie to the media about any inquiry --

A No

Q -- is that right?

A That's right

Q All right And you were relying on people, when you didn't know the answer yourself, to do the same with you? In other words, give you accurate information so you could accurately convey the answer to whatever question you were asked; is that right?

A Right We had a good team I trusted our team

Q All right And would it be -- would I be right in saying that if you were getting false information, purposely, intentionally false information from the Governor, that you would have walked away from that job?

A Yeah I've always trusted the Governor

Q All right Well, your reputation is at stake as well as his, correct?

A Correct

Q Now, at any time did my client ever ask you to lie for him about Jonnie Williams or Star Scientific?

A No

Q Did he ever ask you to lie -- lie for him about his feelings about his wife?

A No

Q Or about the wedding or the Rolex or anything else along those lines?

A No I don't think he would ever ask me to lie

Q Now, have you voluntarily cooperated with the government in this investigation?

A I have.

Q And you've met with them multiple times?

A Yeah I met with them twice

Q I'm sorry?

A I think twice

Q Okay Let me talk to you a little about the Smith Mountain Lake trip specifically That was in April of 2013 the press first started to report on the two-year prior, 2011, Smith Mountain Lake trip?

A Uh-huh

Q And was that something that, prior to the press reporting about it, that was a recent topic of discussion among you and the Governor or anyone else on the staff, to your knowledge?

A No

Q All right And the press was specifically interested in the issue about the Ferrari and driving the Ferrari, et cetera?

A Right

Q All right. And I think you told the press, and I think an article has been put up, introduced into evidence, that said the Governor drove it back as a favor to Jonnie Williams?

A I believe that was my response Yeah

Q All right And that is what the Governor told you?

A Yes

Q All right And that is what you understood him to believe at the time?

A Correct

Q All right You don't have any personal knowledge about -- yourself, about, you know, why the car was at Smith Mountain Lake or whatever the circumstances were about returning it, et cetera?

A No I mean, I do now from all the press coverage, but I didn't then

Q Okay And you don't know now whether the press coverage is 100 percent accurate or not, do you?

A I know what's been reported

Q All right And so it was your understanding, after talking to my client, that the purpose of returning -- or the purpose of bringing the car was not -- back to Richmond was not recreation, as opposed to transportation?

A Yeah It was a logistical thing is what I was told

Q Okay With respect to the wedding stories about who's paying for the wedding

A Uh-huh

Q Was your primary objective to make sure that the press understood that no taxpayer money was being used for the wedding?

A I mean, that would have been the press' main interest There was a prior wedding at the Mansion in which some taxpayer dollars were used for a tent, and a reporter here, a really good reporter, Tyler Whitley, I think, did the story But we were well aware of it when it happened

So when this wedding came up, obviously, on our radar was, "Hey, let's make sure no taxpayer dollars are being used here and, you know, that we get that straight with the press right out of the gate " And obviously, the press wants to know because it's a public building

Q Okay And based on your talking to various -- did you talk to just my client or did you talk to other folks about the issues relating to the wedding and the payment?

A I know I talked to the Governor And then my main interface, staff wise, I think was Sarah Scarbrough I think I would have been asking her questions, you know, how many people are coming, what are they wearing, what's the history, all that sort of -- because those are the kind of questions that I was getting

Q Okay And you didn't -- whenever you came back to the press with whatever you said, you didn't have any reason to believe that taxpayer dollars were being spent on the wedding?

A That's right Yeah

Q All right And with respect to the idea of the family paying for the wedding or family -- did your know that family and friends were doing anything or friends were giving gifts as part of the wedding?

A I don't think I got anywhere near that detailed I mean, the answer was "the family is paying "

Q Okay So if some friends contributed wine or anything like that, you wouldn't know about it?

A I don't think I knew about it My interest was what's the answer? Is the family paying? Who's paying?
The family is paying Okay

Q Okay

A Pretty easy answer to give

Q So if a family friend gave a gift of something towards the reception, that's what you would consider family?

MS ABER: Objection Asked and answered

A Me?

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Yeah

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR. ASBILL:

Q Let me talk to you about the Rolex The press also asked you about the Rolex watch when somebody in the press noticed the Governor wearing it?

A They didn't ask me in an official capacity It was after the interview, and the reporter walked down to my office, as they would typically do And I think she's the one who noticed it first, to be true, and said, "Is he wearing a Rolex?"

So it wasn't like an on-the-record thing It was the interview is over We're sort of shooting the breeze for a little bit

Q And when, in time, do you recall that conversation occurring?

A I mean, it would have been right after that interview, right after Christmas of '11 So early '12

I remember we walked down the hallway She pointed it out I went back down the hallway Jasen was there and said, "Are you wearing a Rolex?"

Q All right And you talked to my client about that, did you not, after you were --

A Yeah, I did

Q -- after you had this conversation that you just described?

A I did

Q And your understanding, from my client, was that it was a -- he said to you it was a Christmas gift from his wife?

A Yeah He goes, "Oh, this, you know, it's a Christmas gift from Maureen "

Q All right And he said he wasn't sure if it was real or not?

A Yeah And I said, "Well, I don't think you should be wearing it "

He goes, "I don't even know if it's real "

And then Jasen and I both were like, "That doesn't matter Don't wear a Rolex "

Q Okay You don't have any personal knowledge of any communications between Mr and Ms McDonnell about the watch; is that correct?

A No

Q Or any other knowledge, personal knowledge, about the source of the watch; is that correct?

A No

Q All right And you advised that from an optics point of view, that it was not a good thing for him to be wearing; is that right?

A That's right

Q And he took your advice and stopped wearing it?

A Right

Q Now, with respect to Governor McDonnell wearing a Rolex watch, is that -- is that something that was in character or out of character for him, in general, to have something like a Rolex watch?

A Oh, out of character

Q In what sense?

A I mean, we used to make fun of him because he always had holes in his shoes I mean, we'd give him ties sometimes for Christmas because I didn't like the way his ties looked when he was in the press He was just -- you know, he was thrifty

Q A material goods guy?

A No

Q In any way?

A No

Q Do you recall what kind of briefcase he used?

A Yeah He used a milk crate

Q Could he afford a briefcase?

A Yeah, I'm sure he could afford a briefcase But a milk crate worked best for him

Q The issues with respect to gifts, loans, SOEI forms, et cetera, et cetera Do you have any reason to believe that my client didn't try to follow the instructions on the form and list anything that was required appropriately?

MS ABER: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Government counsel asked you about loans to him Do you know whether those were loans to him or to a corporation that he was a part owner of?

A I think they detailed it for me Didn't they say some were the real estate company?

Q All right

A And then maybe -- I mean, now I've read so much and heard so much But yeah, wasn't there like one a marine and real estate company, and that's how they broke down? Yeah

Q Now, during the course of the entire time that you were in the Governor's Office, you -- you really -- I mean, if he wasn't away on a short vacation or something, you communicated with him, talked to him, saw him every day?

A Even on vacation, I talked to him

Q All right And in the entire time you were there, did you ever -- did you ever notice him or think that he was doing something inappropriate to try to benefit Star or Jonnie Williams?

A No

MS ABER: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Did he ever say anything to you or did you ever overhear any other conversations about him trying to get state funds to -- state dollars to help Star?

A No

Q How about trying to influence the Tobacco Commission?

A No

Q This question I'd like you to answer yes or no After the reports came out in the press, do you know whether or not, within the Governor's Office, there was an internal investigation about the reports?

MS ABER: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained

MR ASBILL: It was just a yes or no answer, Judge

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q With respect to the kind of things that were in your ballpark that you could help the Governor with, I mean, in terms of communications, et cetera, did you ever help the Governor take -- take any kind of action that promoted Virginia businesses?

A Oh, all the time

Q Press conferences at a company, et cetera? Is that --

A We'd do job announcements We'd do ribbon cuttings We'd welcome companies to the state I mean, we were Bob's For Jobs

Q All right But press conferences at the headquarters of the company?

A Yeah I think -- yeah That sounds right

Q All right Photo opportunities in the Governor's Office with the company's representatives?

A Definitely photo opportunities My memory is probably not good enough to lock down every location

Q Okay Did the Governor ever ask you to do any such things with respect to Star Scientific or Jonnie Williams?

A No

Q Now, with respect to the Mansion lunch event, that came across your radar screen when?

A It would have been the night before It looks like about 5:45 or 6 p m

Q And it came to you in sort of an odd way Is that what you testified to?

A Yeah It came as an e-mail from Mary-Shea Sutherland to me, saying something like, "Can you approve this press release" or "look over this press release" or something?

Q All right And it was odd because it came from Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A It was odd because it -- yeah It didn't come through the normal channel I'm not saying I thought it was an evil event or anything I just thought it didn't come through the normal channel

And, look, I'm not a lawyer So I wanted our staffers and people above me to look at it

Q Okay And you looked at it, and you reviewed it? And what did you think? Did you think it was appropriate or not?

A I didn't look at it very long, to be honest with you That's the thing I flagged it, put them on it, and honestly, I went back to working on the next day where we had Secretary Napolitano and Secretary Vilsack coming

Q Because this all coincided with earth, wind and fire --

A Correct

Q -- as you've described it?

A Yeah I mean, that was the focus of the press office

Q So you pushed this over to Jasen, and who else?

A Jasen Eige, Martin Kent, and Matt Conrad

Q Okay Two lawyers and the Chief of Staff of the Governor?

A Right

Q All right And they looked at it and did whatever they thought was appropriate and -- and made Star revise this release?

MS ABER: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled

A Yeah I -- to tell you the truth, I never thought about it again, really, until all this stuff happened I gave it to the proper people, and I went about what I was doing

BY MR ASBILL:

Q And your reason for pushing it to those people, essentially, was to make sure that everything was properly vetted and reviewed?

A Yeah I mean, if you get a press release that comes through a government agency or that comes through the Virginia Economic Development Partnership, or a similar entity, you know that they have lawyers and staff who have vetted everything and looked at everything And you're fine You don't have to think any more about it

But if I see a company send a press release to the First Lady's Chief of Staff and then I'm asked just to sign off on it, I don't think that's appropriate because I don't think -- at this point I didn't know if the right people had looked at it

Q Okay And this -- and this -- you know, this procedure that you've described where you get it and you push it to other people, et cetera, was that something -- that procedure, had that been set up within the Governor's Office, basically, to deal with issues like this?

A I mean, every press release would go through a certain list of people before it went out But, again, that's an important distinction That press release is from our office

This was not a press release going out from the Office of the Governor This was a company's press release So did we really have a process for that sort of situation? No I just thought that I trust our staff and our lawyers and I wanted them to see it so they knew what was going on and could make the right decisions

Q Well, I mean, was there -- was there a formal -- there was no formal process in place for sort of odd or oddball kind of things that might occur, you know, regularly?

A I mean, was there a regular process for irregular events? I mean, probably the fact that myself and Martin Kent and Jasen Eige and Matt Conrad and Jeff Palmer, people like that, we'd look it over and use our collective intelligence to figure out -- limited, though it may be, at times -- but what we thought it was

But that was just an irregular press release to receive, and it just felt odd to me, and so I wanted them to see it

Q All right And you all had no -- to your knowledge, none of you had any discussions with the Governor about it You just took care of it?

A No I mean, I --

Q Is that right

A Yeah Again, I put them on it, and I didn't think again about it

Q And did you expect the Governor to want you to do anything other than that?

A No I figured I was doing the right thing I had a question So I raised it with lawyers

MR ASBILL: Thank you I have no further questions, Judge

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR HAUSS:

Q Good afternoon My name is Steve Hauss I'm a lawyer for Maureen McDonnell I'll try to be brief

You testified on direct about a trip to New York in April of 2011?

A Right

Q And I believe you testified that you met up for a drink with Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A Uh-huh And there were other people there

Q Okay And I believe you testified that you asked her why she was in New York, and I believe your answer -- her answer was that they had gone shopping with their friend Jonnie Williams; is that right?

A Yeah

Q And when you -- and when she said "their friend," you understood that was Maureen McDonnell and Mary-Shea Sutherland's friend Jonnie Williams?

A Yeah I would not put specificity around the word "their." I mean, I'm trying to remember the conversation at a drink after a long day on the road I had been at a baseball game I mean, it was just, "We're shopping with Jonnie " "Our" friend Jonnie "Their" friend Jonnie I can't choose for you the right word there

Q Okay And did she tell you that Jonnie Williams had bought clothing for Ms McDonnell?

A No

Q Did she tell you that Jonnie Williams had bought clothing for her, for Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A No

Q Now, you said that during that conversation she talked to you about Star Scientific, the company and the stock?

A Uh-huh

Q And after that, did you do some research about the company yourself?

A Yeah I mean, the extent of my research was I liked buying stocks that I could afford I was single back then I was trying to get a portfolio of little companies that I could afford

And I went back and looked And she didn't pitch it or anything She just said, "Hey, he's a good guy He's a friend of ours," or theirs, whatever that word was, and, you know, "he supports the Governor and he supported us, nice guy and he's got this tobacco company They are doing neat stuff "

And, I mean, really, I went home and found out the company started in Petersburg And I'm from Hopewell, and I thought that was great And the stock was really up, and I was like, "Oh, I'll buy a little " And I felt really good about it because I thought I was investing in a Virginia business

Q And so you bought stock yourself?

A I did

Q And was it about a thousand shares?

A Yeah About $3,600

Q Now, you said that you sold the stock approximately March 2013?

A No It would have been April It was as soon as I got back from my honeymoon

The story had all broken I had gotten calls in South Africa about what was going on, and I decided that I thought I shouldn't own stock in a company that I was talking about And so before I talked to any reporters, I called my broker and sold it for a loss

Q So you had it for about two years?

A Uh-huh

Q Now, with respect to Ms Sutherland, did you think she was a professional person?

A Yeah

Q Did you think she was competent and good at her job?

A Yes

Q Did you think she had a tough job?

A Yeah

Q Why is that?

A I think the Mansion was a tough place to work

Q And did you think -- let me ask you this Did you understand that she was unhappy in her job?

A Yeah

Q And was that because of conversations you had had with her?

A I mean, that was just a known fact I'm sure she expressed her unhappiness with me and everyone

Q Did she tell you that she was, in the summer of 2011, looking for a new job?

A Not that I remember

Q Did she tell you that she was in negotiations with Jonnie Williams for a contract to provide services to Star Scientific and to him personally?

A No

Q Now, you first met Mr Williams in September 2011; is that right?

A That's right

Q And you said it was at a political event in New Hampshire?

A Well, we went to New York City first We did Education Nation, an NBC news panel with some other governors And then we flew to New Hampshire We did several events up there, political events, and then came back that night

Q And was Ms McDonnell on that trip?

A Yeah Yeah I think she -- I believe she was

Q And did you have an opportunity to see the interaction between Mr Williams and Ms McDonnell?

A I did Yeah, she was I remember her being in a Suburban

Q And did they seem familiar with each other?

A Yeah They seemed like buddies

Q Now, you also testified on direct about an event in South Carolina?

A Right

Q And you said -- I believe your testimony was he was there with the First Lady; is that right?

A Right

Q And what did you mean by that?

A I mean that we got there, and Jonnie Williams had come down with the First Lady

Q And, again, they seemed like they were friends?

A Yeah Seemed like buddies

Q You also testified about an incident where you saw Ms McDonnell talking to Ms Romney -- Ms Romney about Anatabloc?

A Right

Q And you were aware that Ann Romney has multiple sclerosis?

A Right

Q And based on what you saw and what you heard, was it your understanding that Ms McDonnell was suggesting that Anatabloc could help Ms Romney with her MS?

A I don't want to overestimate or overstate how much of their conversation I heard But, I mean, you could see what was happening I work in politics so I know the parameters of a conversation If I see it, I can guess what's going on there Yeah

Q And in terms of what your role was and your job, you deal with the press Is it fair to say that your main concern is an optics concern?

A Yeah My main concern is the reputation and brand of Bob McDonnell

Q And so your concern was how it would look and how it might reflect on the Governor?

A How anything would look and reflect on the Governor

Q Now, were you aware that Ms McDonnell was interested in nutraceuticals?

A Uh-huh

Q Is it fair to say that she was very passionate about nutraceuticals?

A Uh-huh

Q And that's something that you were aware of even before you ever met Jonnie Williams; is that right?

A Yeah

MR HAUSS: That's it

Thank you, Your Honor

THE COURT: Anything else from the government?

MS ABER: Yes, Your Honor

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Mr Martin, I believe Mr Asbill talked to you a little bit more about your response to the media once the investigation broke in second quarter-ish of 2013?

A Right

Q Did you get any questions about Cailin McDonnell's wedding dress?

A I did

MR ASBILL: Objection It's beyond the scope

THE COURT: Sustained

MS ABER: Your Honor, he inquired about whether there were questions about what Ms McDonnell wore

THE COURT: The objection is sustained

BY MS ABER:

Q Mr Martin, I believe you said that you were frustrated in this time period because you wanted to dump everything out

Could you explain to the jury what that meant?

A That just comes from the School of Crisis Management

I always believe it's best, if you're in a crisis, that you should just get everything out there You know, just handle it all at once Get your bad story and then live to fight another day

And so that is what I recommend when you're going through a bad situation is typically, it's best to get ahead of it and get everything out and just go from there

Q And is that what happened?

A No, it did not

Q I think we talked a little bit about -- you talked a little bit about Mr McDonnell being thrifty

Is that the right word?

A Yeah, absolutely

Q Do you know what Mr McDonnell earned as Governor?

A Yeah Didn't he make 175,000? I believe that's right

Q Do you know if --

A It's in the code

Q I'm sorry, sir?

A I'm sorry It's in the state code I think it's 175,000 I think

Q Do you know if he had to pay to reside in the Governor's Mansion?

A No I don't think you pay to live in the Governor's Mansion

Q Did you know that he accepted a $23,000 vacation to South Carolina for his family?

A That's where I have to question what I knew then and what I've learned through the press So as far as -- I mean, I knew he went to Kiawah But I wouldn't have known the price or anything like that

Q Okay

MS ABER: One moment please, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MS ABER: No further questions Thank you, sir

THE COURT: All right Thank you, sir You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: Call your next witness, please

MR DRY: May we approach, Your Honor?

(At Bench)

MR BROWNLEE: The government has been good about sending over a list the evening before so we can prepare They have run out We've run out So we'd ask that we'd be able to start this up tomorrow If not -- we're trying to be efficient, but it helps to prepare

MR DRY: We've underestimated some of the cross-examinations is why we've run out

THE COURT: Okay We'll do this I'll go ahead and stop now, but in the future, just have one in the hole just in case

MR DRY: We've got one right now The problem is that they -- we ran out So they are not prepared for the cross-examination

THE COURT: Right I gotcha

(In Open Court)

THE COURT: All right We're going to stop now They got through these witnesses quicker than they thought they would So we've kind of run out for today But we'll get started tomorrow Let me give you a time

Okay I've got a couple things tomorrow Let's make it 9:45 again All right If you all will come in tomorrow at 9:45

Remember, as I've said every day, please don't let anybody discuss this case with you, and you do not discuss it with anyone else And continue to stay away from any news reports, newspaper, radio, television, media items that relate to this case Thank you all for your patience Hang in there We're getting there We are doing the best we can We'll see you tomorrow, and be blessed

(The trial adjourned at 5:01 p m)

Are counsel ready to proceed?

MR. DRY: The United States is ready to proceed

MR ASBILL: Mr McDonnell is ready

MS. MARTIN: Ms McDonnell is ready to proceed

THE COURT: For those members of the media who made an application for cell phone or computers, I have resolved all but one or two of those And if you would like to know the result, contact Ms Hancock at a break and she will let you know so you can start bringing those things in. As I said, Kathy, is it one or two?

THE CLERK: Two

THE COURT: There are two we haven't completed our due diligence on, but we will get that done quickly All right Let's bring in the jury

(The jury entered the courtroom.)

All right, good morning once again. Good to see you Government, call your next witness, please

MR. HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor The government calls Matt Conrad.

MATTHEW A. CONRAD,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Good morning, Mr Conrad.

A Good morning, Mr Harbach

Q Could you please state your name and spell your last name for the reporter, sir?

A Matthew A. Conrad, C-O-N-R-A-D.

Q What do you do for a living, sir?

A I'm an attorney by training, but I'm currently an administrator at VCU

Q Tell us briefly about your education.

A Undergraduate at James Madison University, law school at George Mason University

Q During your career, have you worked for the defendant, Mr McDonnell, during his tenure as Governor?

A I did, yes, sir

Q What jobs did you do for him in his Administration?

A I first joined the Administration in May of 2010 as the Deputy Secretary of Agriculture and Forestry And then sometime in the summer of 2011, I believe it was July 1st or 15th, I became Deputy Chief of Staff and Deputy Counselor

Q Briefly, what were your duties as Deputy Chief of Staff?

A As Deputy Chief of Staff, I assisted Martin Kent with sort of the administration of state government That meant, you know, organization for Cabinet meetings, special projects as assigned, standing up and taking down state agencies, and also administering sort of the day-to-day processes of the Office of the Governor

Q And in your role as Deputy Counselor, who was your direct report? Who were you a deputy to?

A Jasen Eige

Q Did you serve in those two positions through the end of Governor McDonnell's term?

A I left shortly before the end of the term. I think it was, my last day was October 31st, 2013

Q In your role as Deputy Chief of Staff and Deputy Counselor, how frequently did you have personal contact with Mr McDonnell?

A I probably saw the Governor almost every day

Q And how frequently would you have, say, one-on-one meetings with him?

A One-on-one was far less frequent I would say infrequent

Q Do you recall when you first learned about a gentleman named Jonnie Williams, approximately?

A I don't recall specifically I remember hearing his name probably sometime in the summer of 2011

Q Did you ever meet Mr Williams yourself?

A I did not

Q Do you know who Mary-Shea Sutherland is?

A I do

Q What job did she have in the Administration?

A She was the First Lady's Chief of Staff

Q And how frequently would you have contact with her in your position?

A Fairly infrequently, and also, because I took on the role of Deputy Chief of Staff and Deputy Counselor only, I think, six months or so before she left the Administration.

Q Did you ever discuss with Ms Sutherland her reasons for leaving or the circumstances of her departure?

A Not in those terms, no, I don't think so

Q Well, in what terms do you had some hesitation about, sir?

A I think she had :ioned occasionally her sort of displeasure with the job. She seemed exhausted by the job

Q Generally speaking

A Generally speaking

Q But no discussions about her leaving or the specific reasons for her leaving?

A No, sir

Q Okay What about Ms McDonnell? How frequently would you have personal contact with her?

A Perhaps once or twice a month.

Q More or less frequent than your contact with the Governor?

A Less frequent for sure

Q Did you personally have any bad experiences with Ms McDonnell?

A Never one.

Q Turning your attention to approximately August of 2011, so I guess a month or two after you started, do you recall an issue arising involving a press release from a company called Star Scientific?

A I do

Q Could we take a look for identification, please, at Government's 225 Can you see that e-mail okay on the screen, Mr Conrad? We can blow it up for you a little bit

A Yes, sir, I can see it

Q Have you had an opportunity to review this e-mail before coming to court today?

A Yes, sir, you and I have discussed it

Q Okay Does this concern the press release issue you just mentioned?

A It does in fact

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 225

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Let's start at the bottom of the first page there with the e-mail from Ms Machir You are not on the e-mail chain yet, but this first e-mail is from Sarah Machir to Mary-Shea Sutherland involving a press release Let's scroll up a little bit Ms Sutherland e-mails Mr Martin And then you first become involved when Mr Martin e-mails and says, "Jason and Martin and Matt should go through this thoroughly Are we sure we can do something like this " My question for you is your response there at the top where you say, "I went straight to Kent on this one You were exactly right to be suspicious " And that e-mail is addressed to Mr Martin, right? That's who you are writing to?

A That's correct

Q And Mr Martin was the, for shorthand, the press guy?

A Communications Director That's right

Q When you say, "I went straight to Kent on this one," what did that mean?

A It means I contacted Martin Kent in response to this e-mail

Q Do you recall the substance of your discussion with Mr Kent on this issue?

A I actually don't recall whether I called him or e-mailed, but I just remember bringing it to his attention. You have to remember, in context, that this was shortly after the August 23rd earthquake and there were many other things going on.

Q What else was going on to your recollection besides the earthquake?

A There was an earthquake, the Dismal Swamp was on fire, there was a hurricane that had either come or was about to arrive, and there were issues at the North Anna Nuclear Plant

Q Busy time for the staff?

A Busy time

Q Busy time for the Governor?

A That's right

Q Your second sentence there where it says, "You were exactly right to be suspicious," what did you mean by that?

A I meant that I think that Tucker's instinct to bring that to the attention of the Chief of Staff was correct, that there was something that was definitely not normal about the origin of this press release

Q What do you mean?

A Well, in my very brief experience at that time as Deputy Chief of Staff, I had not seen a press release originate from a third party, or in particular, go through the First Lady's office

Q Now, was it your understanding that this was a press release that Star was seeking the Mansion to issue or was this a press release that Star wanted to issue itself, or do you recall?

A I don't recall I believe it was that the Governor's Office was to issue

Q Were you involved in editing the press release at all?

A I was not

Q Did you ever discuss the press release issue with Mr McDonnell?

A I did not

Q What about Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A Not to my recollection

Q Did you attend an event at the Mansion the day following this e-mail, August 30th of 2011?

A No, sir

Q You can take the exhibit down. Changing subjects with you: Do you know what a Statement of Economic Interests is?

A Yes, sir, I do

Q I'm quite confident the jury knows what it is by now Have you had some experience working with it in your career?

A I have had to fill one out pretty much every year of my state employment

Q Do you have a recollection of whether Ms McDonnell was required to fill out an SOEI?

A I remember some conversation around that topic, and the conclusion being that Ms McDonnell was not required to file a statement because she does not have an official role with the Commonwealth and is not a state employee

Q Despite that, do you recall an effort to keep track of gifts to the First Lady?

A I do

Q Can we take a look at what's in evidence as Government's 284, please Just maybe the top three e-mails for this witness This is an e-mail exchange between you and, among others, Mr Eige Have you seen this before, sir?

A Yes, sir, we have discussed this

Q Okay As you point out, on the bottom, Mr Eige advises that Ms McDonnell -- that's the "she," right?

A That's right

Q Does not need to complete one He explains about "If there were any gifts given directly to her but were really gifts for the Governor, we need the info for those by Monday " And then in your response, you point out that the staff were asked by you to help keep track of those gifts for your ultimate review Do you recall that?

A I do, yes, sir

Q Okay What was your understanding of the reason or reasons why you and Mr Eige decided it would be appropriate to keep track of those gifts?

A I believe there was a concern that they were gifts arriving directly to the Mansion; that we wanted to make sure they were intended for the First Lady or for the Governor, and if for the Governor, they could be included on his Statement of Economic Interests and they could be acknowledged with a thank you note or similar

Q Turning your attention to late 2012 and early 2013: Do you recall during your time working in Mr McDonnell's Administration being personally involved in the preparation of one of his SOEIs?

A I do, yes, sir

Q Was that the one for calendar year 2012?

A It was

Q Now, was that something that you did every year or was it unusual for you to be involved in it?

A It was unusual that year

Q Who normally did it?

A That was the responsibility of Jasen Eige along with Pam Watts

Q Do you recall why it was that you were involved in this year in particular as opposed to Mr Eige?

A I don't recall specifically, but I do know that Mr Eige was not available at that time It was right in the thick or the beginning of the General Assembly session where he was probably needed more And so as I recall, he and I were going to meet together with the Governor and Pam Watts to review the Statement of Economic Interests in draft form, but he was called away

Q From your experience working with the form in that one year, who was it who prepared the initial draft of the SOEI if you recall?

A I believe it was Pam Watts

Q What happened next after she prepared that draft, to your recollection?

A It was brought -- pam Watts and I walked in together to the Governor's office and provided it to him for review.

Q The draft?

A The draft, yes, sir

Q Could we take a look at Government's 456, please? Have you had a chance to review this document before you came to court today, sir?

A Yes, sir, with you.

Q And is this at least one of the early drafts that was prepared for Mr McDonnell's 2012 SOEI?

A I believe it is

Q All right Now, you mentioned a moment ago that you and Ms Watts took a draft to the Governor Could you please tell us about that? Where did that happen, and how did it unfold?

A As I recall, the Governor was in his office and Pam Watts and I walked in. I believe Pam gave him the draft, and he flipped to the schedule of gifts, I believe, just to look at how that turned out for the prior year

Q Do you recall whether he said anything or reacted in any way that was memorable when he saw the schedule of gifts?

A As I recall, I think either the total was written out for him or he quickly totaled up the number of gifts from the prior year and it was something approximating $80,000, I think, and -- in value And he was displeased with that amount

Q Would you take a look at Page 8 of Government Exhibit 456, please? Is this the draft Schedule E concerning gifts that's part of the form, sir?

A Yes, sir, it is

Q And you see up in the right-hand corner there, there is a figure that's in the neighborhood of $80,000 Is that what you think you may be referring to?

A I believe so

Q And --

THE COURT: Excuse me, I have a question I want to make sure I understood you Did you say he was "displeased" or he was "just pleased"?

THE WITNESS: Displeased with the total

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Why did you believe that he was displeased?

A I imagine it is just --

Q Let me withdraw that question and make sure I ask it the correct way What, based on what you observed, led you to believe that he was displeased?

A He asked if I could get copies of prior governors's statements of economic interests for purposes of comparison

Q Did you in fact do that for him?

A I did Later on that afternoon or perhaps the next morning I went into Jasen Eige's office, and I think I knew that he had them in a file on his credenza, and so I retrieved those and placed them on Pam Watts's desk for the Governor's review the next day

Q During the time that you and Ms Watts were in his office, do you recall the Governor asking you any questions?

A I do, yes, sir

Q What did he ask you about?

A He asked me if there was, what the definition of a personal friend was

Q Did you answer his question?

A I did, in fact

Q What did you say to him?

A I said, "Governor, I don't believe there is actually any law defining who a personal friend is, but Janet Polarek, now Kelly, had said that a good place to start is, those persons you knew prior to running for Attorney General are good candidates for personal friends At least your analysis should begin there "

Q Okay Apart from your recollection of what Ms Kelly said, did you do any independent research on that issue yourself?

A No, sir, I wasn't asked to.

Q Okay Do you recall any discussions with Mr Eige or Mr Kent on this subject of guidance for the Governor about what a personal friend is?

A No, sir, I do not

Q About how long would you say you were in the office with the Governor when you dropped this form off and had this exchange?

A It was less than ten minutes

Q Did you all actually sit down and go through the form page by page or not, or do you recall?

A No, our conversation ended there

Q And when you left, did Ms Watts also leave?

A I don't recall

Q Did you have any further follow-up meetings with the Governor about his draft SOEI for that year, to your recollection?

A No, sir

Q Were you involved any further with the preparation of subsequent drafts or finalizing the actual filed version for this form, sir?

A No, sir, I was not.

Q At the time you had the meeting with the Governor in his office, what did you understand your role to be; what was your purpose?

A As we discussed, I wore sort of two hats, reporting to Martin Kent as Deputy Chief of Staff, and I was very clearly there that day in my role as Deputy Counselor working for Jasen Eige

Q Could we take a look briefly at the same exhibit that's up, which is Government's 456, Page 6 If we could blow up -- can you read that there at the bottom where "Medical Services" is crossed out and it says, "Healthcare," sir?

A Yes, sir

Q My question for you is, were you aware at the time of any significant health problems of Mr McDonnell or any member of his family that took place in calendar year 2012?

A No, I was not But I would not be, generally

Q Understood. One last question about the SOEI, or this particular SOEI At the time that -- you can take the exhibit down At the time that you had this brief meeting in the Governor's Office concerning this draft, did you know anything about $70,000 in loans that Mr Jonnie Williams had made to MoBo Realty during calendar year 2012?

A No, sir

Q You mentioned a moment ago that you filled out the form yourself, the SOEI form. How many years would you say you have done that?

A Probably, not consecutive years, but probably seven or eight years

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Can I have just a moment, Judge?

THE COURT: Sure

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Ultimately, sir, what was your understanding of who had the final say on the accuracy and correctness of the form?

A Each filer is responsible for his or her own filing

MR. HARBACH: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Good morning, Mr Conrad. My name is John Brownlee I'm an attorney for Bob McDonnell I just have a few questions for you this morning

A Good morning Yes, sir

Q Let me begin with the press release that you discussed. I believe what your testimony was is that there was a press release that had been -- can we pull up 225, Government Exhibit 225? If we go down to the bottom. Mr Harbach showed this to you. Now, this is actually a press release or an e-mail that's being sent from Star Scientific, Sarah Machir, to Mary-Shea Sutherland; is that correct?

A It appears to be, although I don't know Ms Machir

Q But if you look at the e-mail address, it says "Star Scientific"; is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay What she says is, "Mary-Shea, I have revised the paragraph in question and have moved it further down in the release Hope this works better "

So, is it your understanding that this was a press release that was being prepared by Star to be released by Star?

A I actually don't know

Q Okay We will keep going then. Let's move up then And then, "Jasen and Martin should go through this," that's Mary-Shea to you all, and then you testified that you were somewhat suspicious by this Is it fair to say, I believe your testimony was you were suspicious because this was a private entity preparing a press release Correct?

A Not just that, but also the way that it came to the attention of the Communications Director, Tucker Martin

Q There were two issues The process was being circumvented, that was, at least the normal process, to have a press release released by the Office of the Governor Correct?

A That was my primary concern.

Q Could we pull up 235 Let's show this This is "Please find the Anatabloc press release for today " Again, this is coming from Star Scientific to Ms Sutherland Then Ms Sutherland is forwarding that to you. Then the attachment is the press release itself If you look at it, it says, "Star Scientific has announced. " So let me ask you again: Is it your understanding that this press release was being released by the company and not the Office of the Governor?

MR. HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained. He has indicated he doesn't know

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Let me ask you this way: In looking at the press release, you reviewed this that day, correct?

A I was not involved in the review of this press release The context, as I mentioned, we were responding to a wildfire, a hurricane The Chief of Staff himself was actually on vacation in North Carolina So I was helping the Secretary of Public Safety sort of coordinate the disaster response team.

Q Okay Let me ask you this: Do you recall, you were interviewed by the prosecutors and the FBI; is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q Do you recall telling them that you were initially suspicious of the reference in the attached press release because it originated from a private sector source?
A That's a possibility, correct
Q All right, thank you I believe you testified you did not attend the event?
A No, sir
Q Okay Now, let me talk to you, let's pull up, if we can, Government Exhibit 456 Mr Harbach showed you, this is the first draft of Mr McDonnell's 2012 Statement of Economic Interests; is that correct?
A That's what I have been told. It appears to be the first draft
Q It says "Second Draft," and I think everybody has looked at it, it is really the first draft
A Okay
Q Okay If we look at Page 3, Mr Harbach showed you this, and if you can blow this up, I think it is your testimony that when you met with Mr McDonnell and he saw this, that he was displeased, I think was your term, because of the total amount Is that correct?
A Yes, sir
Q You understood that what happens is once this is completed, it is handed over and then the press reports on it and they go through it and there is a political dynamic to this form; is that fair?

A That's absolutely correct As an observer, I know that the press corps tend to wait for these things to come out and be available in January of each calendar year, and then report on sort of the top three executive branch officers and their filings

Q Okay And did you also, I believe in your meetings with the FBI, you told them that one of the things he was concerned about were these Redskins tickets; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q And that is, I think it is about a quarter of the way from the bottom, and it was for $19,000 to a game; is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay And that was what he raised with you as kind of a big ticket item on his form.

A It was really a very passing reference to it He looked at the number, 19,000 for that particular football game, and said, you know, "Why is this?" I think maybe Pam explained that it was because the entire family or a large group had attended with him.

Q Okay Now, there is also, if you could pull up, please, two entries from Star Scientific Right in the middle there You see those, sir?

A Yes, sir

Q Do you have any recollection of him saying anything about these?

A I do not

Q Okay So he didn't raise these with you at that time?

A No, sir

Q Okay Let's take that down. Then I believe there was another draft, so if we could pull up Government's 460 and look at Page 8

A Okay

Q Now, on this form, the Redskins tickets are still there; is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay And is Star Scientific still on the form?

A It is

Q Okay And then let's look at Government Exhibit 459 I don't know if it is Page 8 or on this one -- let's go to Page 5, I think, for this version. This is actually the time that was submitted, and Washington Redskins tickets are still on there; is that correct?

A It is As I've testified, I was not involved in any subsequent discussions about this

Q This is in evidence And Star Scientific is still on there?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay Now, if we can pull up, if you will go to Page 1 on this, on Government Exhibit 459, Your Honor Actually, let's look at Page 4, the top of Page 4 You see at the very top there, this is actually a continuation from the other page, but these are a listing for "The personal debts of members of my immediate family are as follows " And there is a range there, and you can't see it because it is on the other page, but you see the X indicating that there is an amount?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay And you understand the ranges are between $10,001 up to $50,000, and then more than $50,000, correct?

A That's my recollection, yes, sir

Q You can't see this on this one, but this one is for the 10,001 and 50; correct?

A Yes, sir, it is

Q If we could go back to the other page Thank you. Very top. Now, Mr Harbach asked you if you were aware that Mr McDonnell had some sort of medical condition. Do you remember him asking you that?

A Yes, sir

Q You said you weren't aware of that And he asked you in the context of this This area doesn't require that the individual state the purpose of the loan, correct?

MR. HARBACH: I object to that question

THE COURT: If he knows

THE WITNESS: Could you repeat that question?

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Let's just look at the document It says, "Individual creditors: State principal business or occupation for each creditor State principal business or occupation for each creditor " That's the requirement for this section, correct?

A That's right

Q It doesn't say anything about what's the purpose of the loan

A No, sir, it does not

Q Okay So if an individual got a loan for a medical condition, you wouldn't put down here your medical condition, right?

MR. HARBACH: Objection.

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q It doesn't require that you put the name of the person that gave you the loan, correct?

A There is no place for that

Q Okay Now, if we could go to -- you can just take this down Mr Harbach asked you about this "personal friend." And it is fair to say that for this form, that the filer is not required to submit gifts from family members, correct?

A That is correct

Q Or personal friends And I believe the definition is, it says -- make sure this is right -- it says, "Do not list gifts or other things of value given by a relative or personal friend for reasons clearly unrelated to your public position."

Is that your understanding of what the form requires?

A Yes, sir

Q And you testified that with regard to "personal friend," that there is no definition of that in the Code

A There is no definition in the Code, and there is no case law At least -- I think it has been defined since that time

Q And do you recall telling the FBI that with regard to the "personal friend," that in your view there was no bright-line rule and that it was possible one could develop a close personal relationship with someone after being elected?

MR. HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: He can answer that

THE WITNESS: I think there is a potential for that It is certainly in each individual filer's discretion and best judgment

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q When a filer goes to file this, it is the person who prepares it has to make that judgment about an individual, whether or not they believe they are a personal friend; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q Okay And when you filled it out, you made a decision as to who your personal friends were?

A That's right

MR. HARBACH: Objection.

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Let me just add a couple things on these gifts Under Virginia law, there are no limits, on this form that Mr Harbach showed you, it doesn't have a limit on how much any individual can accept with regard to a gift; is that correct?

A That is correct

Q Okay Now, in working with Governor McDonnell, did he ever take the time to share with you the specifics of his personal finances?

A No, never once

Q How about all his loans and his mortgages and interest rates and all those things?

A No, sir

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, thank you very much.

THE COURT: All right Ms McDonnell?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS MARTIN:

Q Good morning, Mr Conrad. My name is Heather Martin. I represent Ms McDonnell

A Good morning.

Q Have you and I ever met before?

A No, we have not

Q Have we ever spoken on the phone?

A We have not

Q I want to turn your attention back to the SOEI's that the government asked you about And even though it was determined that the First Lady had no SOEI requirement, gifts were, you kept track of gifts to the First Lady internally, correct?

A The First Lady's staff did, that's correct

Q And the reason for doing that was that in case any of the gifts that made it to the First Lady were actually intended for the Governor, they could be disclosed on Governor McDonnell's SOEI and that a thank you card could be sent; is that correct?

A That is correct

Q And the purpose of the internal tracking was not to track gifts that were intended for the First Lady alone, correct?

A Correct

Q Since she had no requirement to report, right?

A That's right

Q But there was a period of uncertainty on whether or not Ms McDonnell needed to file an SOEI, correct?

A I don't recall there being uncertainty around that At least in my mind.

Q But you did give a training to Ms McDonnell and others on her staff about Mr McDonnell's filing requirements, correct?

A That's correct.

Q And one of the reasons that you gave that training is because there were concerns that she was not telling people about all of the gifts coming into the Mansion?

A We thought it best that she understand her husband's filing requirements, and also, give the staff the same training

Q Was there any concern that she was taking gifts and putting them in closets in the Mansion?

A Not by me, because I didn't have any direct interaction of that kind. But I had heard that

Q And it was almost like a concern that she was sort of hoarding gifts?

A I had heard that there were piles of gifts or things that were being put in closets that needed to be at least acknowledged and determined who they were intended for

Q But again, sometime, there did come a time that at least everybody came to the conclusion that she did not need to file an SOEI at all, correct?

A That's correct

Q Now, I think you testified earlier that you can't recall when you first heard of Jonnie Williams; is that right?

A That's right

Q But it is sometime after you became the Governor's Deputy Chief of Staff; is that fair to say?

A It was around about that time, probably 2011 at some point

Q And the context in which you heard about Jonnie Williams is that you heard Mary-Shea Sutherland mention something along the lines of "Can you believe what Ms McDonnell has done?" and mentioning her friendship with Jonnie Williams?

MR. HARBACH: Objection.

THE COURT: He can answer it He can go ahead and answer the question.

THE WITNESS: I don't recall those specific terms, but I do recall hearing from Mary-Shea that she was probably dismayed with kind of that relationship, and she mentioned specifically a shopping trip to New York.

BY MS MARTIN:

Q Do you recall speaking to the government a couple of times about this case?

A Yes, ma'am, I do

Q There were agents and prosecutors in the room?

A That's correct

Q And was there an agent taking notes?

A There was Yes, ma'am.

Q And can we bring up for Mr Conrad only the notes from August 27th, 2013? I'm going to direct your attention to Page 3, please Not the typewritten The handwritten notes If we could zoom in on the sort of top paragraphs And I'm going to direct your attention to that sort of third bullet point down. Have you had a chance to review that?

A Yes, ma'am.

Q We can take that down. And does reviewing that document refresh your recollection that you told the prosecutors and the FBI agents that in the context of learning about Jonnie Williams, you heard Mary-Shea Sutherland state something along the lines of "Can you believe what Ms McDonnell has done?" and her friendship with Jonnie Williams?

MR. HARBACH: Same objection, Judge, hearsay

THE COURT: Overruled.

THE WITNESS: I understand where you want me to go, and I don't recall using the word "friendship " It is possible that I characterized it in those terms

BY MS MARTIN:

Q Now, I think you stated that she did mention something about a shopping trip, correct?

A That's correct

Q And you were unaware of any shopping trip in August -- I'm sorry, not August, April of 2011; is that correct?

A That's correct At that time I was still serving as the Deputy Secretary of Agriculture and Forestry

Q And when talking about the shopping trip, Ms Sutherland didn't go into any significant detail about it, correct?

A No, she did not She may have mentioned that she tried on a very expensive dress or coat or handbag of some kind. I don't recall

Q And you recall observing that Ms Sutherland's comments about the shopping trip seemed kind of catty to you?

A That's an unfortunate characterization, but I would say it was definitely she didn't look favorably on that trip

Q And she didn't look favorably on Ms McDonnell's relationship with Jonnie Williams, either, did she?

A I don't recall discussing that relationship

Q Did Mary-Shea Sutherland tell you that Jonnie Williams had bought Ms McDonnell clothing?

A I don't recall that specifically I remember hearing about trying something on

Q And what about Jonnie Williams buying Mary-Shea Sutherland herself clothing?

A No, ma'am.

Q Did Mary-Shea Sutherland tell you that Ms McDonnell had given her a check from Jonnie Williams for Cailin's wedding?

A No, she did not

Q And did Mary-Shea Sutherland tell you that Ms McDonnell had bought stock in Star Scientific?

A No, she did not

Q And did Mary-Shea Sutherland tell you that she was seeking a job with Jonnie Williams in the summer of 2011?

A She did not

MS MARTIN: If I could have a moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

BY MS MARTIN:

Q Just one last question on that training regarding SOEI's that I mentioned earlier That was in December of 2011; is that correct?

A I don't recall the precise time That sounds about right

MS MARTIN: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: Redirect?

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Mr Conrad, were you a supervisor of Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A No, sir, I was not

Q Who was her supervisor? Who was her direct report, as you understood it?

A That would be to the Chief of Staff

Q Who was that at the time?

A Martin Kent

Q I believe Mr Brownlee asked you some questions about the SOEI form and some questions about this "personal friend" definition Do you recall those questions?

A Yes, sir, I do

Q Could you please reiterate for the jury, the one time that you actually gave the Governor guidance on that issue, what did you tell him?

A I said that Janet Kelly, then Polarek, had as a recommendation that he consider those persons who he was friends with prior to running for Attorney General as candidates for personal friend

Q Possibilities for that exemption?

A Correct The analysis should start there

Q Okay Finally, Mr Brownlee asked you some questions in which he referred to the SOEI as a political form. Do you recall those questions?

A Yes, sir, I do

Q Could we take a look at Page 2 of Government's 459, which is the final filed 2012 SOEI? Could you blow up the Affirmation for us, please, Mr Starnes? Mr Conrad, could you just read for us the single-line Affirmation that is above the signature block there, please?

A Part of it is missing, but I know it says, "Swear or affirm that the foregoing information is full, true, and correct to the best of my knowledge "

Q Thank you, sir

MR. HARBACH: That's all I have, Your Honor Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you, sir You may stand down.

(Witness stood aside)

Call your next witness, please

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor The government calls Paul Perito.

PAUL L. PERITO,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Mr Perito, could you scoot up to that microphone, please, sir? It moves around.

A Is this all right?

Q Yes, sir, that's just fine Would you please state your name and spell your last name for the court reporter, sir?

A Paul L. Perito, P-E-R-I-T-O

Q Are you currently working, sir, or are you retired?

A I'm quasi-retired and quasi-working

Q What are you quasi-working on?

A I remain a consultant to Rock Creek Pharmaceutical, and have formed a small group called The Perito Group on issues of which I purportedly have competence, and I'm working on those and getting to know my grandchildren

Q Okay Could you tell us briefly about your educational background, sir?

A I was born in Boston, Massachusetts right outside the city, reared there My parents were first-generation Americans

Q Where did you go to high school?

A Went to Medford High School

Q Did you go to college after that?

A Yes, sir, I did

Q Where did you go to college?

A Tufts University

Q Do you have any advanced degrees, sir?

A I do.

Q What advanced degree do you hold?

A An LLB and a JD from Harvard Law School

Q What's an LLB?

A Bachelor of Law It is the old degree that they used to award, and now they do the JD degree in lieu of the LLB.

Q After you graduated from law school, did you perform any government service?

A I did

Q Where did you do that?

A I became a federal prosecutor in the United States Attorney's Office in the Southern District of New York

Q What city is that in, sir?

A It is in Manhattan and New York.

Q How long did you serve in that role?

A Approximately four-and-a-half years

Q Did you ever perform any government service in the City of Washington?

A I did

Q What did you do in Washington?

A First position in Washington was Chief Counselor, and then Chief Counsel and Staff Director for the House of Representatives Select Committee on Crime

Q How long did you serve in that role?

A Approximately two years

Q All right Anything else in the nation's capital?

A Yes I got nominated by the President, President Nixon, to be the first Deputy Director of the White House Special Action Office on Drug Abuse Prevention, the office that the President dubbed the first Drug Czar's office

Q How long did you do that?

A Until late 1973, early 1974, when I returned to the private sector

Q And when you returned to the private sector, were you practicing law, sir?

A Yes, sir, I was

Q Okay Do you recall when it was when you first met Mr Jonnie Williams?

A Sometime in the early 1990's

Q And during your career, did you eventually come to work for a company called Star Scientific?

A I did.

Q About when was that?

A About 1999 Late 1998, early 1999

Q When you first started at Star, in what capacity were you hired, sir?

A I was hired in the capacity as Chief Counsel and Executive Vice President

Q And at the time that you started working at Star in the late 1990's, what sort of business was Star in at that time?

A Star was primarily in the leaf, the cigarette, and then ultimately the less harmful cigarette and the less harmful smokeless tobacco business

Q And could you tell us briefly why you decided to leave private practice to join Star?

A In short, the scientific work that Mr Williams was doing, which I had vetted out by my former boss at the White House, Dr Jerome Jaffe, caused me to believe that it was possible to substantially reduce harm associated with the inhalation of toxic tobacco smoke And that discovery, which had bedeviled the tobacco companies for 60 years, could in my opinion and Dr Jaffe's change the life-death equation of compulsive smoking However, we believed that if they moved from smoke tobacco to smokeless, and we were able to reduce the nitrosamines which are the most abundant serious carcinogens in tobacco and tobacco smoke, they could perhaps replicate the Swedish experience and have a dramatic drop in face and neck cancers and a dramatic drop in the mortality and morbidity long associated with tobacco use

Q Thank you, sir You told us what you did when you started at Star in the late 1990's I'd like to turn your attention now to about ten years later, which is to say in approximately the 2009 to 2012 time frame Okay?

A Yes, sir

Q Can you please tell us what your job title was in that time frame?

A I wore several hats My job title for the parent corporation was Chairman, President, and COO, Chief Operating Officer But the Board asked me to take on special responsibilities in 2007 to set up a subsidiary called Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals

Q Let me interrupt you there --

A That title was -- I'm sorry, sir

Q That's quite all right I interrupted you Please tell us what your title was

A My time was Chairman and CEO of the subsidiary

Q What was the function of the subsidiary, Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals?

A The primary function was to develop a nutraceutical from an alkaloid which Mr Williams focused on, which had very little epidemiological base No one had really studied that alkaloid. And that alkaloid, we believe, was an active alkaloid and was without nicotinic impact It would not cause dependence and so forth.

Q Is this alkaloid anatabine, sir?

A Yes, sir, it is

Q The jury has heard a little bit about that Let me ask you, this is just a housekeeping matter, within the last few months, did the parent company, Star, assume the name Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals, sir?

A Yes, sir, it did.

Q But from 2009 to 2012, was the parent company known as Star?

A Star Scientific

Q Star Scientific

A Yes, sir, it was

Q So just to avoid confusion for the remainder of your testimony today, when I say Star Scientific, I'm referring to that parent company, okay?

A Right

Q Do you understand?

A Yes, I do

Q Focusing on that same time frame, 2009 to 2012, how frequently would you say you had contact with Mr Jonnie Williams?

A Telephonically or physically?

Q All of the above

A Telephonically, ten, fifteen, 18 times a day or more

Q What about in person?

A We would try to get together every few weeks Sometimes we would travel together But essentially, we had this rule that if we didn't have to do it together, because it was important that he had my skills and his skills, it would be better if we did it separately I was in Washington. He was in Florida

Q Okay Again, during that time frame, 2009 to 2012, you have been at Star some ten-plus years?

A That's correct

Q You have known Mr Williams for some 20 years by that point

A That's correct

Q How would you characterize your professional relationship with him during that time frame? Did you have a good working relationship?

A Exceedingly good working relationship.

Q What about personally?

A We had a personal relationship We had a lot of parallel interests, and I think, also, Mr Williams in part regarded me as an older brother

Q Did you socialize with him?

A I did.

Q How frequently did you do that?

A Not that frequently, but a fair amount We would go to dinner together, I would have dinner at his home, and so forth.

Q How would you characterize your relationship with him as you sit here today, sir?

A It is not dramatically different, notwithstanding the events that have occurred since he has shown to me that he owned up to egregiously bad judgment

MR. ASBILL: Objection.

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR HARBACH:

Q We will get to that a little bit later Is your relationship, as you sit here today, with Mr Williams, would you still characterize it as a good relationship?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, let's focus on a couple of these products briefly Are you familiar with the product called CigRx?

A I am.

Q And approximately when was that product introduced by Star?

A August of 2010

Q And what is CigRx and what was it intended to do?

A CigRx is composed of anatabine, Yerbamate, Vitamin A and D. And it was designed to diminish the desire to smoke

Q What about products, a Star product called Anatabloc; do you know what that is?

A I do.

Q What is it, briefly?

A It has anatabine in it, Vitamin A and D It was designed to assist in lowering internal inflammation in the body

Q Do you recall when Anatabloc was introduced to the public market?

A On or about August 30th, 2011

Q We will talk more about that date a little bit later For the moment, let me ask you some other background questions These products that Star marketed, CigRx and Anatabloc, were those products distributed nationwide during the time period we are talking about?

A Yes, they were

Q And again, that same time period, from 2009 to approximately 2012, did Star have offices in various states?

A It did.

Q Tell us about that What states did Star have offices in?

A It had offices, scientific office in Gloucester, Massachusetts It had executive and regulatory and legal office in Washington.

Q Washington State or D C ?

A I'm sorry, D.C

Q Okay

A It had an executive/administrative office in Glen Allen It had a facility that was a leaf processing facility in Chase City, Virginia

Q The facility that you mentioned that was in Glen Allen, just for the record, what state is that in, sir?

A That's in Washington D C I'm sorry, Glen Allen is in Virginia, sir Yes

Q Okay What about manufacturing facilities, where were they located?

A In New Jersey

Q You mentioned the term "nutraceutical" already in your testimony so far Could you tell us briefly what the difference is between a nutraceutical and a pharmaceutical or a full-fledged drug, briefly, please?

A Very different categories under the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act A nutraceutical is a product that has fulfilled safety requirements, similar to foods There is no specific requirement for nutritional supplement to prove efficaciousness or effectiveness If you want to make a claim, and if that claim involves the treatment, mitigation, or prevention of a disease, then you have to go the drug route If you want to make a limited assertion or claim, function/structure under DSHEA, under the Act that set it up, then you could have a nutraceutical The difference is dramatic in that there are perhaps 65,000 nutritional supplements on sale at GNC and other places like that You have only a very small number of those that are truly effective And in the literature, it shows that many thoughtful people believe that a lot of nutraceuticals are placebos

Q Let me interrupt you there and ask you specifically with respect to Anatabloc, which you have testified about already, when that product was first introduced to the market in August of 2011, was it a nutraceutical or a pharmaceutical drug?

A Clearly a nutraceutical

Q Did the company have any strategic plans to attempt to shift it to the pharmaceutical column?

A Yes, sir, it did

Q Why was that?

A Well, a nutraceutical has only limited viability because of the inherent limitation on claims If you want to make serious claims about this helping to cure a disease or an ailment, you need to go the NDA drug route, and that's a longer route. But finally, from a business perspective, there is a dramatic difference between the potential for generating profit for your investors with an approved NDA as opposed to a nutritional supplement

Q Could you tell us, if you can, what are the steps that a company like Star would have to go through to get a product from the nutraceutical column to the pharmaceutical column?

A You would start with an IND

Q What's that?

A Investigatory New Drug And when you file your IND, you have to have a plethora of data to support safety So you go through, as we went through, long toxicological testing You go through bench-top testing You go through animal testing And you take that data collectively, go to the FDA, and request a review of that under the IND. FDA can either approve it, put a hold on it, have you do more, have you repeat tests, do tests on larger animals rather than smaller animals

Q Okay

A But let's say you make it through the next step

Q What's next?

A You go into a Phase 1 trial, clinical trial

Q What does that mean?

A Clinical trial in humans The FDA won't allow you to start a clinical trial unless there's no holds and they are satisfied with the clinical, the pre-clinical data So you start with a very small number, sometimes three or eight or 10 or 15 of subjects, of individuals

Q People

A People And you know you are putting a drug in men or women that is, quote, safe Now, you don't know whether that drug has the other arm of effectiveness, efficaciousness So after you go through Phase 1, say it is a limited study, eight or ten individuals, at one site, one hospital, one university, and so forth, then you take that data, you go back to the FDA, and there's long communications about moving to Phase 2

Q What's Phase 2?

A Phase 2 is a much larger single study, single It could be -- and there are stages within the phase.

Q When you say larger, you mean in terms of number of people?

A Number of human beings who are willing to be tested under that So that might be 250

Q Let's say you get through that phase Then what?

A Then you go into Phase 3, where you have multi sites, multi claims that you want to make, or you prove that you can make some and you can make others, but by that, at the end of that phase, you can either go onto the market through an NDA new drug approval, or you could do as the FDA often does, start it with limited distribution, have black block claims if there are concerns about some potential side effects You have seen on TV a commercial of a drug, and you will see all of the various side effects.

Q Sure

A That's developed in that So the FDA could require follow-up studies while you are marketing the drug and so forth

Q I see

A You have to remember that each of these phases is very expensive, and very time consuming

Q Okay Thank you for that We will talk about those phases in the context of Star in a little while Okay? Did you become aware at some point when you were working for Mr Williams of his, generally speaking, cultivating a relationship with the then Governor of Virginia and his wife, Mr and Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q How did you learn about it, and approximately when?

A Approximately four years ago

Q Sometime in 2010?

A I think it is either 2009 or 2010

Q How did you learn about it?

A Mr Williams told me that he was playing golf with the Governor or having dinner with the Governor and his wife

Q When you first learned from Mr Williams about his potential relationship with the McDonnells, what did you think of that in terms of how it could fit into the strategy?

A I was a little wary, and I shared that with Jonnie.

Q Why were you wary of it?

A Because I have always preached the gospel "Let the science lead the company " "Let the science lead the company " And I was concerned about the potential political ramifications; that we would not be taken seriously as a company if that relationship expanded and there was too much emphasis on that

Q Over time, did your wariness subside?

A Yes, it did, to a certain extent

Q Explain that generally

A As time progressed, and I gave it some considerable thought, I thought that a reasoned approach would be that there would not be a dwarfing of focus on science But there could be a halo, I describe it as a halo effect, if the Chief Executive of the Commonwealth of the state, which is the home state of the product, embraces the worthiness of the product It gives it a type of credibility

Q Okay Let me show you the first document I'm going to show you today, sir, and it is already in evidence as Government's 161 I'm going to ask the witness to look at Page 2 And blow that up for him, please

Mr Perito, is this a letter that you have reviewed before coming to court today?

A Yes Yes, it is

Q My question for you, sir, is whether at the time this letter was sent, which was in June of 2011, did you know anything about it at the time?

A I did not

Q Did you know that Mr Williams had sent it?

A I did not know he had sent it

Q Based on your experience working with Mr Williams and your respective roles, is this the type of letter you would expect to have seen or known about before it was sent?

A Absolutely

Q Why was that?

A Because one of my responsibilities was regulatory issues And one of my responsibilities was overseeing the science And before a letter like this would have gotten through the matrix that I had set up formally or informally, it would have been vetted by Dr Wright, who was formerly with the FDA. It would have been vetted perhaps by Dr Lanier, who is one of our senior scientists It would have been vetted by some of our consultants, if that was the case And ultimately, I would see it and I would spot things For example, if you look --

Q I don't think we need to do any examples on this one Suffice to say, you never saw this letter before it went out?

A I never saw it before it went out

Q What about the fact that it was addressed to a state's Chief Executive; would that have been of interest to you at the time?

A Of course

Q Why?

A Well, because, one, if we are writing to the Chief Executive of the state, just like if we were writing to the Secretary of HHS, I want to make certain that everything that's in there is absolutely accurate; that the science is accurate, and that we have gone through the proper steps I mean, I learned in years in government that you've got to do things in an organized fashion and move up the line You just don't go to the secretary of the department

Q Okay Thank you You can take the exhibit down, please Mr Perito, did you know in the spring of 2011 that Mr Williams had taken Ms Maureen McDonnell shopping in New York City and bought her thousands of dollars' worth of designer clothes?

A I had no knowledge of that whatsoever

Q Did you know at the time in the spring of 2011 about a private dinner that Mr Williams and his wife had with the McDonnells at the Governor's Mansion in April?

A I didn't know about that when it occurred.

Q Did you know at the time, namely, the summer of 2011, when this letter that we were just looking at was sent, did you know that Mr Williams had provided a $50,000 check to Maureen McDonnell as a loan?

A I had no idea that that activity took place

Q What about a $15,000 check that Mr Williams provided to the McDonnells for a catering bill for their daughter's wedding in May; did you know about that at the time?

A Absolutely no knowledge whatsoever

Q During the spring and summer of 2011, did you personally know anything about the McDonnells' financial situation?

A I did not, sir

Q Are you familiar with a company, excuse me, an entity called Roskamp?

A Yes, sir, I am.

Q What's that?

A It is a 501(c)(3), a not-for-profit entity involved in brain and related research, with a particular specialty in Alzheimer's disease And it was run by a very well-known philanthropist who made most of his gifts to fund neurological research Now, it has one arm of it, it is the small arm, SRQ Company, which is proprietary But 95 percent of it, as I understand it, is charitable

Q Okay Do you know what state it is located in?

A Yes

Q What state?

A Florida

Q Were you aware at the time whether there was any kind of formal relationship between Roskamp and Star Scientific?

A The relationship was formalized with a written agreement.

Q What was basically the nature of the agreement, sir?

A Essentially, it was that we would take the 30 or 40 scientists and researchers that they had, staff headed by Dr Mike Mullan, an M.D./Ph D., we would take a vaunted place in the research agenda for Roskamp In other words, we would get our projects done faster and at a better rate of cost And in return for which we would pay them five percent of the gross royalty on Anatabloc

Q Okay Are you aware of an event that took place at the Roskamp Institute on June 1st of 2011?

A I'm aware of it now, yes

Q Did you attend the event?

A No, sir, I did not

Q Do you know the event to which I'm referring, sir?

A Yes

Q Did you have any conversations with Mr Williams following that event about it?

A I did

Q What did Mr Williams say about the event to your recollection?

A Well, he said that he had been asked by Bob Roskamp if he would assist in a fundraising effort for Roskamp You know, it is an eleemosynary institution, and they need contributions And Mr Roskamp, according to Mr Williams, asked if some of Jonnie's high net worth friends would attend And Jonnie also agreed that he would make available two of the consultants that we had from -- who were affiliated with Johns Hopkins to come to that event, and that there would be a presentation of the data involving the research on anatabine that was being done there

Q Following the event, what was your impression of Mr Williams' take on how it went?

A Well, he was somewhat elated and, he told me, somewhat shocked He said he introduced the First Lady, and she said to the assembled group, my best recollection, in words or substance, "I'm going to invite everybody to the Governor's Mansion for the launch of this product I think it is a great product, and we are very excited about it and it is a home state company "

Q What did you think when Mr Williams shared this news with you, sir?

A I had some reservations about it at the -- when it was first shared with me.

Q What were those reservations?

A Again, science is, to me, the end point of what we were doing, which was the breakthroughs that we wanted to make, and we needed good science And I didn't want there to be any confusion, particularly since at the launch we were going to be having a lot of internal medicine people, professors and otherwise, about our interest in the science

Q And did your view on that subject, namely, the launch meeting at the Mansion, did your view on that subject change?

A Yes

Q How so?

A It softened in that I thought again of the halo effect I thought again of the worthiness of having the Chief Executive and his wife embrace the local company and embrace the product

Q What specifically did you see as the advantages of holding the event at the Mansion?

A I saw that it could create potentially better word of mouth, which is very important in the marketing of a nutraceutical I saw that potentially it could cause the attendees to think seriously about the science And clearly, at some point in time, I knew that among the attendees would be professors and researchers from UVA School of Medicine and from VCU Medical School

And they were key because we had started to focus, or were moving to focus, on attempting to get a grant from the Tobacco Commission

Q Let me ask you about that How did you learn about the possibility of pursuing a grant from the Tobacco Commission?

A I learned in a conversation that Mr Williams had, I think, shortly after he met with Governor McDonnell

Q Do you recall what Mr Williams said about it?

A In words or substance, I recall him saying that the Governor said the Tobacco Commission would be an ideal place for Star to make an effort to secure some of the grant funding

Q Now, to your mind, why would it have been advantageous to secure funding from an outside entity like the Tobacco Commission?

A If you secure a grant -- and there came a time -- let me answer your question

Research done by an independent entity is always more valued in the arena of particularly NDAs and new drugs than research done in-house And so I was focused on how we could get two highly reputable institutions to do research to test the hypothesis, which one of our consultants had so brilliantly articulated as to what we were about in this process

Q Earlier you mentioned that the process of going from a pharmaceutical to a -- excuse me -- from a nutraceutical to a full-fledged pharmaceutical drug, I believe you said it was time-consuming, and you also said it was quite expensive

Do you recall that testimony?

A Yes, sir, I do

Q My question for you is taking Anatabloc from, you know, phase one all the way through full-on drug status, is that a financial expenditure that, in your judgment at the time, Star could have supported on its own?

A There was no way Star could support that on its own at that point in time

Q Was that among the factors that was involved in pursuing a Tobacco Commission grant?

A Yes

Q So you mentioned the independence of the funding first, and then what you just described Anything else that you recall, or are those the two key ones?

A It was independent science It was doing it in a way that would prompt the other scientists in the university to get interested

One of the best things that can happen in the process of a research like this is that another scientist at another university will say, "I'd like to try to replicate your science " So those were all things that I took into consideration

Q Did Star, to your recollection, hire anyone to assist in its efforts pursuing the grant from the Tobacco Commission?

A Yes Two lawyers

Q Do you remember their names?

A Jerry Kilgore, former Attorney General, and Chris Nolen, who's a partner at McGuireWoods

Q Is Mr Kilgore at that same firm --

A Yes

Q -- to your recollection?

A Yes

Q You mentioned that you first learned about this possibility of pursuing -- excuse me -- the Tobacco Commission funding from Mr Williams?

A Yes, I did

Q Did he remain involved in the discussions with Mr Kilgore and your other consultants as the process moved forward?

A He would be kept up on things, generally, by me or by my general counsel

Q By -- based on your conversations with Mr Williams, did it appear to you that he, meaning Mr Williams, understood the importance of UVA and VCU to the strategy?

A Acutely

Q I'm sorry?

A Acutely He was totally turned in to that for business purposes

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Could we look, for a moment, for -- excuse me

Your Honor, may we approach for a moment please, sir

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench)

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, I'm sorry I'm feeling a little nauseous and lightheaded Can I please have five minutes?

THE COURT: We'll go ahead and take our break

MR HARBACH: Thank you, sir

THE COURT: All right

(In Open Court)

THE COURT: All right We are going to take the morning break now We'll make it 15 minutes

THE COURT: All right Mr Harbach, you let me know when you're ready to come back in

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor

(Recess taken from 11:15 a m until 11:33 a m)

THE COURT: All right

(The jury entered the courtroom)

THE COURT: All right Government

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Mr Perito, before we continue with the Tobacco Commission discussions, just a couple of loose end questions Okay?

Do you recall, in -- over the years in knowing Mr Williams, whether he has any difficulty reading?

A Very -- very much know that

Q Have you experienced that in your dealings with him?

A Absolutely I'm the person who alerted him to his disability -- potential disability, and I'm the person who had him tested for that

Q Okay And what is the reading difficulty that he has, to your understanding?

A Dyslexia and dysgraphia, ADD and ADHD The combination of those forces

Q What's dysgraphia?

A Inability to write clearly

Q Okay Second loose end If the approximate 2009 to 2012 time frame, do you recall, ballpark, about how many employees Star had in the State of Virginia?

A Approximately, FTEs, full-time employees, would be 39 or 40, and maybe 10 to 12 consultants

Q Thank you, sir

A You're welcome

Q Now, let's go back to our discussion about the Tobacco Commission

MR HARBACH: And to continue that, I'd like to bring up for identification Government's 168, please

A Could you kindly enlarge the print? Is that possible?

BY MR HARBACH:

Q We've just done that for you, sir

A Thank you

Q We've enlarged the header for you

MR HARBACH: And, Mr Starnes, if you could scroll down a little bit to what -- and zoom out just a tad to allow the witness to identify the document, please And scroll down a little bit for him

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Mr Perito, do you recognize this e-mail, sir?

A Yes, sir I authored it

Q Is it an exchange between you and someone called Bob

Pokusa?

A Yes He's our -- he was our general counsel

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 168

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q All right Starting with the header information at the top, sir What is the date that you sent this e-mail to Mr Pokusa?

A On July 5, 2011

Q All right

MR HARBACH: And then substance wise, I'd like to scroll down to the -- focus on the second paragraph, please If you would blow that up for the witness

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Can you see that okay, Mr Perito?

A Yes, sir, I can May I just read it for a second?

Q Please Read it to yourself, and let me know when you're ready

A Yes

Q Okay I want to ask you a few questions about some of what you wrote here My first question is in the first sentence you mentioned a Professor Ladenson, a Dr Caturegli, and a Dr Wright Now, the jury is acquainted with the first two gentlemen Who's Dr Wright?

A Dr Curtis Wright is a scientist researcher with an M D , Ph D degree, and an MPH degree

Q How is he connected to Star, if at all?

A He was the person that I recruited to be our senior medical advisor and senior medical officer

Q Okay

A And he used to work for several years, 11 years, for the Food & Drug Administration

Q All right Let's continue a little bit further on in the paragraph You write, "This is somewhat of a milestone meeting, since it entails two great research institutions that will be focusing on clinical trials relating to our nutraceutical RCP006 "

First question is what's nutraceutical RCP006?

A Anatabine

Q And what were the two great research institutions that you were referring to there?

A Medical College of Virginia, UVA, and the medical -- medical school at MCV

Q A little bit later in the paragraph --

A -- or VCU too VCU

Q Thank you, sir

A little later in the paragraph there's a sentence that reads, "Jonnie" -- I assume that's Mr Williams; is that right, sir?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay -- "anticipates from his discussions with the most senior officials in the Commonwealth that the studies at both MCV and Hopkins will be paid for out of the Tobacco Fund if everything falls into place "

First question is who did you understand, from Mr Williams, to be "the most senior officials in the Commonwealth" that you reference here?

A The Governor, and perhaps -- I'm not sure in the second official then It could have been Jasen Eige, the Governor's counsel, or Ms McDonnell

Q All right And then the conclusion of that sentence reads, "That these funds will be paid for out of the Tobacco Fund if everything falls into place "

Was that sentence that you wrote based on a conversation you had with Mr Williams?

A Yes Yes, it was And with Dr Wright

Q Okay

A But there were certain things that I didn't know about the Tobacco Fund on that date that I learned subsequently

Q I think we'll get there

A Okay

Q Let's take a look at the next document I'd like to show you for identification, please, which is Government's 169

MR HARBACH: And let's start by showing the witness the header information

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Do you recognize this to be another e-mail that you wrote, sir?

A Yes, sir

Q Also in the July '11 time frame?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Mr Starnes, could you scroll down and let the witness see some of the text?

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Do you recognize this e-mail, sir?

A I do

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 169

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q So let's start -- now that we've published it to the jury, let's start at the top, please You've addressed this one to Mr Wright?

A Dr Wright

Q Excuse me Dr Wright, Mr Pokusa, and Sara Machir

Now, the subject line says "VA Grant " And let me just ask you, both of these e-mails that we looked at were from July of 2011 Is that consistent with your memory of the time frame during which you all were formulating the strategy about pursuing the grant at the Tobacco Commission?

A Yes, it was

Q Okay So let's -- focusing on that, there's a large paragraph that we're going to have to go through a bit at a time so that we can blow it up for you

And my first is --

MR HARBACH: You can stop it there, Mr Starnes

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Mr Perito, the first sentence there mentions you following up with JRW regarding his conversations with senior officials in Virginia Who is JRW?

A Jonnie R Williams, Sr

Q And the sentence continues to reference his conversations with senior officials in Virginia Who did you understand those to be when you wrote this e-mail, sir?

A Based upon my conversations with Mr Williams, I understood that to be the Governor and the First Lady

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: If we could scroll down a little bit That's good

BY MR HARBACH:

Q If you look in the middle of the highlighted block there, a little bit to the right, there's a sentence that begins, "Jonnie plans to meet "

Do you see that sentence, sir?

A Yes

Q It says, "Jonnie plans to meet with those" -- excuse me -- "these two key senior officials on Wednesday of next week "

Same two senior officials here?

A That was my understanding from Mr Williams Yes, sir

Q Okay Do you know one way or the other whether that next Wednesday's meeting actually took place?

A That I don't know, sir

MR HARBACH: Scrolling down a little bit

BY MR HARBACH:

Q There's a sentence that begins, "The plan is to secure " Almost dead center of the screen

A Right

Q Do you see that, sir?

MR HARBACH: Can you highlight it for him, Mr Starnes?

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Do you see that highlighted in yellow, Mr Perito?

A Right

Q It says, "The plan is to secure an informal sign-off by the State officials on the budget and the outline, and then have these officials energize the key medical school department heads at MCV/VCU and UVA "

Was your explanation here of what the plan was, was that based on discussions with Mr Williams?

A Yes, it was, sir

MR HARBACH: Going down to the bottom of the paragraph You can stop there, Mr Starnes

BY MR HARBACH:

Q There's some discussion of the budget And then the very last sentence says, "If this budget is approved informally by the two senior officials, we will inform our consultant to proceed forward with this number "

Who's the consultants to whom you're referring in that last sentence, sir?

A It could be former Attorney General Kilgore or his partner --

Q Mr Nolen?

A Yes, Mr Nolen That's the two that I was referring to

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: You can take down the exhibit, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q New subject, Mr Perito Do you recall, later in July of 2011, attending an event in Gibson Island, Maryland?

A I do, sir

Q What was that event?

A That was a scientific symposia, which was crafted by our paid consultant

Q For what purpose?

A It was for the purpose of exciting the intellect of the scientists and researchers that we had invited to take a seed grant, which we planned to give to any serious researcher who would apply and fill out the requisite information, to hopefully be energized in their respective discipline to focus on a grant from UVA or VCU

And at that time, I was aware of the fact that we could not, our company could not be an applicant The applicant had to be a Virginia, not-for-profit entity So it had to be a school with illustrious credentials, as these two medical schools have

Q And when you say "an applicant," you're referring to an applicant to the Tobacco Commission?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay And so the researchers who were invited to this symposium at Gibson Island hailed from which institutions?

A VCU and MCV and -- Medical College of Virginia and VCU

Q All right It's a little confusing

A It is confusing I'm sorry

Q That's quite all right

Are you aware that Virginia Commonwealth University, VCU, and MCV are the same institution?

A Yes Yes, sir, I am

Q And so was that one of the institutions from whom --

A Right

Q -- researchers were invited?

What about the University of Virginia?

A Yes Dr Peggy Scholick

Q Shupnik?

A Shupnik, rather She was Vice Dean, and she was a very key player for us Vice Dean for Research at UVA

Q And on the -- on the other side of the equation, at the Gibson Island event, who were the presenters at that event? Who was presenting the science, to your recollection?

A There were eight or nine -- eight or nine presentations of the science, all from different disciplines We wanted to branch out from the -- the disciplines of Dr Patrizio Caturegli and Dr Ladenson to another areas

Dr Ladenson is an iconic figure in his area He's -- he was really Mr and Ms thyroid of the world

Q Did he make any remarks or presentations at Gibson Island?

A He did He did

Q And what about Dr Caturegli? Was he there?

A Yes, he did And he talked about the pathological research He had done both -- both the -- the so-called benchtop research that one does with test tubes, as well as animal research

Q Now --

A And then, for example, added was Dr. Haugh, who is a luminary in gastrointestinal disease, and we were interested in Crohn's disease Dr Pete Miller, I recall his -- I mean, we're talking about real hard science now Very esoteric stuff

Q Do you recall whether anyone from either the Governor's Office or the First Lady's Office attended this event at Gibson Island?

A I do

Q Who was that?

A Mary-Shea Sutherland

Q And I believe you mentioned you yourself attended How did it go, in your judgment?

A I think, for a scientific symposia, where we were trying to excite the participants to develop study designs which could test the hypothesis that anatabine was an effective anti-inflammatory and an immunological entity or compound, that word means, in the language of science, that we possibly -- possibly had a compound that could neutralize inflation by flipping the switch in the cells, called NF-kappa-B, off and on

Q Let me ask you this question

A And we wanted to test that proposition

Q Did you think that the symposium effectively communicated that to the attendees?

A I do

Q Do you recall what the reaction was, in terms of seed grant applications, following that event?

A We -- we ultimately had eight or nine seed grant applications

Q Did you view that as a successful number?

A We did, very much so

Q Earlier in your testimony, you mentioned that the product Anatabloc was introduced to the marketplace on August 30th of 2011 Did you attend an event at the Virginia Governor's Mansion on that date, sir?

A I did, sir

MR HARBACH: Can we take a look at Government's Exhibit 228 for identification, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Do you recognize this document, sir?

A I do

Q Does it appear to be -- to look like the invitation you received, sir?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 228

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR HARBACH: You can take down 228, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Mr. Perito, were you involved in planning this event at all?

A Partially

Q How so?

A In that my executive assistant, Elizabeth Pfeifer, was the adjunct support staff for Dr Ladenson But the intellectual framework of this --

Q Apart from Ms Pfeiffer, were you personally involved in any of the planning, sir?

A Only to the extent that I reviewed the list of attendees, A And B, that I reviewed the enormous package of data that we sent to the attendees, particularly to the scientists

Q   Okay

A   And they included a -- an investigator's brochure, which would give the scientists all of the knowledge about our preclinical work. You asked me questions before about preclinical toxicologic work

Q   Uh-huh

A   We had condensed that into maybe 80 or 90 pages   And Dr Curtis Wright had done that.

Q   Let me ask you this question   Going in to the event, what was your understanding of its purpose?

A   Going in to --

Q   The August 30th event at the Mansion, sir

A   The August 30th event, in my judgment, was a way to showcase the good science, say, from the presentations of Dr Caturegli and Dr Ladenson and Mike Mullan, who was then doing significant research for us   He's an M D , Ph D

Q   Okay   So showcasing the research?

A   Showcasing the research   Showcasing the tox work Getting the medical practitioners, particularly family practices -- practitioners or internists to be interested enough in the product being introduced that they would recommend the use of that to their patients

Q Okay When you --

A And -- and also, since I had a metamorphosis in my thinking regarding the impact of having it at the Governor's Mansion, I thought that it could be a potential halo effect that the Governor and the First Lady were supporting a local company on a worthy product

Q About how many people, would you say, attended, to your memory?

A Forty to 50 people

Q Were you all in the same room?

A Yes

Q Do you recall whether either -- well, first of all, did Ms McDonnell attend the event?

A She did

Q Did Mr McDonnell attend the event?

A The Governor was late But he was there, and he spoke also

Q Okay We'll get to that in a minute

What about Mr Williams? Was he present?

A Yes, sir, he was

Q Let's start with Ms McDonnell Do you recall whether she made any comments at the event?

A I do

Q Tell us what you remember about that

A Well, because the Governor was running late, the pre-luncheon discussions -- I'm talking about discussions with the various scientists and so forth, before formal presentations -- was prolonged And then we were shown into what was an elaborately scripted meeting, I thought, to the credit of the planners

And Ms McDonnell gave an effective and thoughtful presentation about the history of the Mansion I had never been to the Governor's Mansion before, and I was interested in the history And she also talked about her enthusiasm for the product and what Star and Rock Creek were doing

Q Do you recall whether there were presentations at the event by any of the doctors that you mentioned, Dr Ladenson, Dr Caturegli, and so forth?

A I do I do And each of them, in their disciplines, gave a brief discussion And then the work that Dr -- Dr Mullan was doing in his work at Roskamp was very well articulated by him

Q What about Mr Williams? Did he make any remarks?

A He did make some remarks

Q What do you recall him saying?

A Well, he was gracious in his praise of the scientists who were there

Q What -- go ahead

A And he also talked about the -- he hoped for the support of the Governor and his wife, for the grants to be -- to be made to the Tobacco Commission

Q By that time, was Mr McDonnell himself present?

A Yes The Governor arrived at that time

Q Okay And do you recall whether the Governor made any remarks around the time that Mr Williams made his comment about the Tobacco Commission?

A I think he made them after that

Q Go ahead Tell us what he said, if you recall

A I mean, the Governor was very gracious and thanked everybody for coming and talked about his interest in a Virginia company doing this, and his interest in the product

He did say, because Mr Williams suggested, that the support of the Tobacco Commission would be -- he hoped would come from the Governor And the Governor, I think very politely, said, "This is" -- "I have limited decision-making power in this area "

Q Did he make those remarks to the group or just to Mr Williams?

A No I remember him making those remarks to the group

Q Okay Who did you perceive to be the audience for these various presentations? What was the target audience, from your perspective?

A I think it was clear to me that there were two targets One was we gave small seed grants, small -- I mean, to me, it's a lot of money, but to the -- I mean, it was $20,000 20, $25,000 for the seed grants

But we wanted the seed grants to mature into a full grant application, which would hopefully involve the commitment of the institution So I wanted those institutions committed and so forth And I also wanted our target audience, which was the doctors who prescribe both pharmaceuticals and recommend nutraceuticals, I wanted them excited about a new product that could be helpful as an anti-inflammatory and provide anti-inflammatory support, which was the limited claim that we made, function structure claim, on the product

Q To your recollection, Mr Perito, were there any other events introducing the product to the market on that day?

A No, sir There were not

Q At the event, did you personally have any interactions with Mr and Ms McDonnell?

A It was the first time that I met the Governor and his wife

Q Let's start with Ms McDonnell What do you recall about your interaction with her?

A Mr Williams, after briefly introducing me to the Governor and so forth, brought me over to meet the First Lady And I thanked her for making the Mansion available, her and her husband I told her I very much appreciated her interest in the worthiness of our product and we -- and the hopes and aspirations we had for it

And she said she was anxious to be of assistance and planned to make herself available for meetings with various doctors within the Commonwealth who would be visited by people from Star and Rock Creek

Q Let's rewind a little bit, and let me ask you about your interaction with the Governor, which I understood to have happened first

A Right

Q Tell us about that

A Mr Williams took me over to meet with the Governor I thanked him for his gracious hospitality, thanked him for the support of the local company and for the support of the product Those were kind of perfunctory discussions And he asked me if I used the product, and I said I did And he said, "So do I " And that was it There were other people waiting to talk to the Governor It was the only time I met the Governor during this entire period I haven't seen him before or after

Q Following the event, did you have any conversations with Mr Williams about how it went?

A I did

Q What did Mr Williams say to you about how he thought it went?

A He was on cloud nine He thought it went swimmingly He thought it went -- he kind of chided me and said, "See, I do focus on science "

Q Now, speaking for yourself, what was your view on the importance of the Governor's attendance at the event?

A I think it gave a type of gravitas to the event that the Governor of the Commonwealth were supporting a local company, he and his wife, and that it might resonate with state officials -- other state officials and might resonate with Dr Clore and Dr Shupnik, since they were the keys to getting the other scientists involved

If -- if they thought that the Governor was behind it and the First Lady was behind it, and that we had all this good science, overwhelming science, vis-a-vis safety, I thought that that would be -- have a propitious impact on the future sales of the product in Virginia

Q Next subject

MR HARBACH: Let's take a look for identification at Government's 229, please. If we could just blow up the headline and maybe the first paragraph of this for the witness

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Do you recognize this document, sir?

A I do

Q Is this a press release that Star issued the same day as the event at the Mansion, August 30th, 2011?

A It is, sir

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Exhibit 229, if it's not in already

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR HARBACH: Let's take a look at this briefly

Okay You can take that down, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Mr Perito, do you know who Dr Bill Hazel is?

A He is the -- I believe Dr Hazel is the Secretary of Health and Human Services in the Commonwealth of Virginia, or was at that time

Q Did you know, at the time of the Mansion event that we've been talking about, did you know that a month before that, Mr Williams had met with a member of Dr Hazel's staff and the First Lady in her office?

A I did not

Q In your capacity and in your relationship with Mr Williams professionally, is that something you would have ordinarily expected Mr Williams to have told you?

A Absolutely

Q Did you know, at the time of the Mansion event, that approximately one month before it, Ms McDonnell asked Mr Williams to buy a Rolex for her husband?

A I did not know that, sir

Q Next subject Do you recall, in the fall of 2011, having a conference call with personnel from the University of Virginia to discuss the -- the effort to move the ball forward with the Tobacco Commission and so forth?

A Yes.

Q Did you participate in that call?

A I did

Q Was -- to your recollection, in the fall of 2011, was Star still in the business of pursuing a Tobacco Commission grant at that time?

A Until that conference Are you talking about the conference call in late November?

Q Yes, sir

A Yeah The conference call changed my view of the pursuit

Q Understood And we'll get there in just one second.

A Okay

Q But until the conference call, was Star still interested in pursuing those grants?

A Absolutely

Q What was the intended purpose of the call that we're about to talk about, from your perspective, this call with UVA personnel?

A It was supposedly to get the decision-makers at Health and Human Services and the decision-makers primarily at Medical College of Virginia and VCU to file a grant application I mean, we had a short window If a grant application was going to go in to make the cutoff, it would have to go in in September, and I was very worried

Q Okay I'm asking you to focus on a call that was in November with University of Virginia personnel

A Right Okay

Q And you mentioned a moment ago that -- please correct me if I'm wrong Did you say that when the late November call occurred --

A Right

Q -- that it changed your view of the pursuit of the Tobacco Commission grant?

A It did, sir

Q How so?

A Well, there was another window to apply in December, but there would be no way, except if you had an extraordinary effort, to make that But we -- we had lost support -- it seemed to me, from what was said, we had lost support from the real decision-makers at these two institutions, and we were dealing with some bureaucrats who were totally unprepared for the discussion They didn't know the facts They didn't know the background Petite functioniers, as I think I described them to -- to Dr Wright

Q Now, this call in -- in November 2011, you mentioned bureaucrats Were these people from the University of Virginia on the call?

A Yes

Q After the call occurred, this call where you described them as totally unprepared, did you inform Mr Williams about the call?

A Yes

Q And your reaction to it?

A I did

Q What was Mr Williams' reaction when you shared this with him?

A He was furious and said, "I can't understand it The Governor and his wife are so supportive of this and suddenly the administration has no interest "

Q In the months that followed this November of 2011 call, did you have further conversations with Mr Williams about this call and his general disappointment with it?

A It seemed to go off the radar screen, in my discussions with Mr Williams I -- in light of the fact of the way that Dr Wright felt and I felt, I think that Mr Williams did not continue discussions about that issue with us

Q Subject change Do you have any recollection of becoming aware, at one point, that Mr Williams and Ms Mary-Shea Sutherland, whom you've referred to in your testimony, had been in communications about her employment situation?

A I was totally unaware of that until that document arrived -- a document arrived on my desk

MR HARBACH: Can we take a look at what I believe is in evidence as Government's 210, please

THE CLERK: No, it's not

MR HARBACH: All right Well, then let's look at it for identification for the moment It may be in under a different number

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Do your recognize this document, Mr Perito?

A I do That's the document that arrived on my desk

MR HARBACH: Your Honor, the Government offers Government's 210

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR HARBACH: If we can scroll up so the witness can see the letterhead there It's on Benedetti & Farris letterhead

BY MR HARBACH:

Q So as you say, Mr Perito, when this document landed on your desk, that was the first you learned of these discussions with Ms Sutherland?

A That's correct, sir

Q Were you surprised to learn about it?

A Astounded

Q What did you do after this landed on your desk?

A I called Jonnie

Q Tell us about that conversation

A I will delete expletives

Q Please do

A But I explained to Mr Williams that it had to be painfully obvious that to even entertain the thought of a consultancy with a person who was still employed, as I understood, by the First Lady But more than that is there was nothing, in my judgment, in the areas that I was responsible for, that -- that she could do to assist the company in any meaningful way And I reminded Jonnie that consulting relationships had to be approved by the board, and I would not put this before the board It was a nonstarter

And I also said to him, in words or substance, there's some conflict here, and since you have a relationship with the First Lady, you should tell her that her Chief of Staff is looking for a job

Q Did Mr Williams -- how did Mr Williams react to your advice?

A He said that he would not pursue the matter any further and that I had tired him out on this issue

Q Did he indicate whether he intended to notify Ms McDonnell?

A He said he would notify her

Q Would or would not?

A He would

Q By the way, at the time that this letter landed on your desk, did you have any idea that Mr Williams had, in fact, purchased the Rolex that Ms McDonnell had requested?

A Absolutely no idea

Q Mr Williams never told you about that at the time?

A No, sir He did not

Q Next subject Moving forward to early 2012 Do you recall Mr Williams ever mentioning to you the possibility of Ms McDonnell's serving on Star's corporate board?

A I certainly do

Q Tell us what you remember about that conversation Was it in person or over the phone?

A Over the telephone

Q Go ahead

A Mr Williams called me up and said, "I've been talking at length to the First Lady, and she's been reading some of our filings on our website with the SEC and believes that we treat our consultants very well by monetary remuneration and that she would like to be considered for a board seat "

Q What did you think of that?

A I thought it was one of the worst ideas I ever heard

Q Did you tell Mr Williams that?

A I certainly did

Q Why did you think it was such a bad idea?

A Well, first of all, it's a thicket of potential conflicts Secondly, in all due respect to the First Lady, I didn't think she had any of the qualifications that would merit being on board And I didn't know of any public company that had the wife of the chief executive on their board

And thirdly, I said, "We had been actively pursuing one of the luminaries of science, who was at a major pharmaceutical company, about going on the board " And I should -- I won't say his name because he's still employed by that major company

But I said, "How would we ever, as a company, have the intellectual integrity to present to him that the Governor's wife is on the board?"

I thought it was a very, very bad idea, and it was not going to happen. I told him, "This is not happening on my watch."

Q What was his reaction to everything you said to him?

A He said, "What do I tell her?" I said, "You tell her the truth

And you can -- he said, "She's going to be very angry " I says, "Well, tell her to be angry at me "

And then there was a second conversation

Q There was a second conversation?

A I -- as I was thinking through these issues, I think there was a second conversation

Q Between you and Mr Williams?

A Between me and Mr Williams

Q On this subject?

A Yes

Q Tell us about it

A It was after he talked to Ms McDonnell

Q What do you remember about that?

A I remember him saying -- do you want it in haec verba or do you want --

Q I want, in substance, what you recall of the conversation, sir

A He said that she was really pissed

Q Okay And this was, according to him, after he had shared this with her?

A Yes

Q A little bit later in 2012 now, into the spring of 2012, did you have any idea at the time that in March of 2012 Mr Williams had a $50,000 check cut to a company called MoBo?

A I didn't know what MoBo was And I had no idea, no knowledge of that at all

Q What about Mr Williams having $20,000 wired to MoBo in May of 2012? Did you know about that at the time, sir?

A I did not know about that, sir

MR HARBACH: Can I have just one moment, please, Judge?

THE COURT: Sure

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Mr Perito, do you recall a conversation in January of 2013 in which Mr Williams told you about some of the things that he had given the McDonnells?

A Yes

Q Was this conversation in person or over the phone?

A Initially, over the phone

Q And when Mr Williams first was speaking to you about this, did he say what prompted his conversation with you?

A Yes

Q What did he say about that?

A He said that he had been served with a subpoena and he had been interviewed by an FBI agent and a state agent

Q Okay Now, tell us what else Mr Williams told you in that conversation

A He told me that he had written some checks to the Governor and to a company called MoBo He told me that he had made some purchases And I just -- I stopped him I was -- I was breathless

I said, "How could you possibly do this? How could you leave me out of the loop?" I said, "The impact of this on the company, our investors, third parties, third parties, the government It's one of the most egregious errors in judgment It's taking business risks to a new level "

Q Did Mr Williams say why he hadn't kept you in the loop or hadn't told you any of this?

A He did say that

Q What did he say?

A He said, "You know, we've had a long road today, but you're still a prosecutor at heart " And I said, "I take that as a compliment, because one of my duties has been to keep this company always within the lines, get the best lawyers possible, stay out of trouble " And I said, "I don't want you to talk to anybody about this I want you to get up here, and we'll go meet with some special lawyers who can" -- "who can assist in the process "

Q Okay I don't want to get into those details

A No I -- and I just stopped him at that point in time

Q Okay How would you describe Mr Williams' demeanor during this call?

A He was crushed He was crushed He was sobbing It was a very emotional conversation, and --

Q Did you ask Mr Williams whether he had used any of the company's money for any of these things?

A Absolutely That's the first question I asked him "Please tell me Don't" -- "did you use corporate funds?" And he said, "No " He said, "These were my funds " He says, "There might have been some reimbursements that Jerri had, but these were my funds "

I said, "That doesn't make it right, but at least" -- I said, "Jonnie, this is so serious "

Q Did you, in fact, follow up and determine whether Mr Williams had received some reimbursements for some of these items?

A Yes And I told him the Reagan Doctrine was going to apply in our relationship: Trust, but verify

Q If you had known about -- well, actually, before I get there First question All of the conversations before this one --

A Yes

Q -- that you have testified about today, were all of those conversations with Mr Williams prior to his being interviewed by law enforcement?

A Yes

Q Now, the things that Mr Williams told you about in this conversation that he had done, if you had known about any of those things at the time they were happening, what would you have done?

A We would never all be here today I would have put a stop to it I -- I would have done, I mean, our own internal investigation to make sure what he represented was accurate I would have made sure that what he did would never happen again in this company

MR HARBACH: Those are all the questions I have, Your Honor Thank you

THE COURT: All right Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Perito

A Good afternoon, Mr Asbill

Q You and I know each other?

A Yes, sir, we do

Q And how is that?

A Well, your brother was a partner of mine We've known each other professionally We've exchanged notes and telephone calls over the many years that we were both practicing

Q Our sons attended the same school?

A School, yes

Q We saw each other occasionally at school receptions?

A Absolutely And I think I once tried to refer a matter to you but then there was a conflict

Q I don't remember that, but thanks for trying

Now, we've never -- we've never played golf together or tennis together?

A No, sir, we haven't

Q We've never vacationed together?

A No, sir, we have not

Q Our families don't really know each other?

A No It's a professional acquaintance

Q And you and I have never discussed 1,000 or 1,200 -- or had 1,000 or 1,200 texts or e-mails in an 18-month period?

A We certainly have not

Q Okay Now, in connection with your testimony here in this court, you knew that I wanted to talk to you about it before you testified, didn't you?

A Yes

Q And you didn't agree to meet with me; is that correct?

A That's incorrect My lawyers were handling it, and I understood that you were going to work out something with them

Q All right You and I have never talked, though?

A No, we haven't

Q About your testimony here today; is that correct?

A That's right

Q Now, you have met often, obviously, with Star's lawyers?

A Yes, I have

Q In connection with your testimony?

A Yes, sir, I have

Q And do you have personal counsel in addition to that or just Star lawyers?

A Just Star lawyers

Q Okay And you've met often with the government representatives?

A Well, I don't know how you'd describe "often "

Q Well, you tell me how many times you've met with them

A I had one initial meeting during the grand jury phase with Mr Dry and Ms Aber, and I've had three meetings with Mr Harbach and Agent Kennedy.

Q Okay I want to go back and ask you about some parts of your testimony first right now Where you ended up, basically, was the discussion with Jonnie Williams at the end of January of 2013 after the agents had come to visit him?

A Yes

Q Okay And after you and he got off the phone, and he told you about the events that occurred at his house in Florida, with respect to that interview, it's fair to say, is it not, that you didn't trust him at all?

MR HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled

A It's fair to say that I was very skeptical about Mr Williams, and it took a while for trust to be restored

BY MR ASBILL:

Q All right You say you were basically astonished at that point, correct?

A Yes, sir, I was?

Q Apoplectic?

A Yes

Q Have a drink I'm sorry I don't mean to interrupt your having some water

A Thank you, Mr Asbill

Q Now, did Mr Williams tell you at that time that in addition to discussing issues relating to my client, Mr McDonnell, that the investigators talked to him extensively about potential securities fraud issues?

A He mentioned securities fraud.

Q And did he mention anything about tax issues with relation to various trusts that he might have owned?

A He did not

Q Never told you about that? No questioning about trusts and tax issues?

A We didn't discuss that

Q Did he tell you that they spoke to him about the loans that he had given or received from Mr McKeon? Ever talk about that with you?

A He mentioned that He mentioned John McKeon's name.

Q All right And were those issues ones that you were personally familiar with or not?

A I was not personally familiar with them

Q So whatever Jonnie Williams may have done that might have been improper with respect to tax or trust issues, you don't have any idea about that, right?

A I know that -- that Mr McKeon was involved in some transactions with Mr Williams that had been vetted by our lawyers, but --

Q But whether there's anything that got by the lawyers, you don't know?

A I don't know

Q You don't know And with respect to how he used Starwood Trust or other family trusts and whether his conduct with respect to those trusts was proper, you don't know?

A I have no knowledge of that, Mr Asbill

Q Now, with respect to the discussion you had -- as you started -- let me just go back to your most recent testimony here

You were not aware, you say, that Jonnie Williams had some sort of talks with Mary-Shea Sutherland about a job?

A Not until that document reached me

Q All right And you were not aware that he claimed to have had conversations with Ms McDonnell about a possible board position?

A I'm -- I'm not sure --

Q Prior -- I mean, you're not aware in advance?

A No No

Q All right And you talked about a lot of other things that you were not aware of that -- that apparently Mr Williams had been engaged in?

A That's correct

Q Would it be fair to say that from your perspective, Mr Williams was a corporate governance nightmare?

MR HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: He can answer the question

A I don't know if I'd use those words

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Well, a bad dream? Is that better?

A It's pejorative I mean, clearly -- clearly he was -- he was involved in conduct that was egregiously bad

Q Okay And you talked about some conversations with UVA and, I believe, VCU researchers?

A Yes, sir

Q And during that conversation, you thought that they were just bureaucrats who were really unaware of what was going on or what should have been going on?

A Well, they manifested the total lack of the substance of what we were about, total lack of the research that we had done beforehand

Q All right

A And so both Dr Wright and I concluded that the -- they did not have sufficient interest to do their homework And so it was highly unlikely that they could make any recommendations for us in a favorable context

Q And you say that Mr Williams was furious about that?

A He was furious

Q And that's -- that's your term or his term or both?

A No That's -- no I'm characterizing When I told him that Dr Wright and I had concluded that these state officials had no interest whatsoever in moving forward and were so poorly prepared for the meeting, I thought that we're just wasting time

Q Okay So would it -- in sum, there was a real disconnect here between you and these folks on the phone?

A There clearly was a disconnect between them and doing what the other folks said they were interested in exploring

Q Okay You talked a little bit about Dr Hazel, and you knew that he was the Secretary of HHS --

A Yes

Q -- in Virginia?

A Yes, sir, I do I've never met the gentleman

Q Never met him All right And were you aware, at the time of these conversations that you've described, that -- that HHS and Dr Hazel did not run the medical schools of Virginia?

A Sure

Q You were aware of that?

A Yes

Q That was a separate Cabinet Secretary --

A Yes

Q -- is that right?

A Yes

Q Okay

A And that's why Peggy Shupnik, as Vice Dean, and John Clore, and his responsibilities, were key people in the decision-making process

Q Okay With respect to meeting my client, you met him, you say, at the 8/30 lunch at the Mansion 8/30/11 lunch at the Mansion?

A Correct

Q August 30 --

A My --

Q August 30th, 2011?

A My only meeting with him, sir

Q That's the only time in life that you've ever met with my client?

A To the best of my knowledge

Q All right And you say you had some perfunctory, in your words, conversations with him at that time, right?

A Yes

Q Okay So that's all you know, in terms of personal knowledge, about my client and any relationship, discussions, e-mails, texts, anything else between my client and Jonnie W ams?

A That's correct

Q At that lunch, $200,000 of Star money were given out in grants --

A That's correct

Q -- isn't that correct?

A Well, to be more accurate -- may I -- may I clarify?

Q Sure Be more accurate about it

A Please. To be more accurate, there were only, I think, two checks given out at the actual lunch The couple were given before that, and the rest were given after that

Q Okay And your recollection is that Dr Caturegli was there at the lunch?

A That's my recollection

Q So if he said he wasn't under oath in court, he'd be mistaken?

A He could be mistaken

Q Because you're sure that he was there; is that right?

A My recollection is that he was there And he was certainly on the invitation list that I reviewed

Q And -- well, whether or not he was on the invitation list, my question was whether he was actually physically present?

A I thought that he was -- my best recollection was that he was there

Q All right And your recollection is that my client talked -- came to the lunch late, right?

You say he came to the lunch late --

A Yeah

Q -- is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay And when he got there, you're saying that he spoke And it was after Jonnie Williams had already spoken and held up the tobacco leaf and that sort of thing?

A I believe that's correct

Q So that couldn't be reversed in your mind, right?

A I'm sorry, sir?

Q Could that be reversed in your mind? Could you be wrong about that as well?

A Well, I -- you're mischaracterizing my answer

Q Well, if -- you said -- you testified that my client talked after Jonnie Williams talked

A That was my --

Q And my question is could you be wrong about that and could he have talked before my client arrived?

A It's -- it's -- it's possible that I could be confused as to that

Q Okay And you talked about this lunch in connection with involvement of VCU and UVA researchers, right?

A Right

Q But researchers from UVA and VCU were already on board after Gibson Island and well before this lunch, weren't they?

A I can't testify as to the accuracy of that representation you're making

Q Well, you talked about the Gibson Island event, right?

A Right.

Q Okay And by the way, my client wasn't at the Gibson Island event, was he?

A No, he was not.

Q And whatever package of materials or anything like that, you know, you don't have any knowledge that he ever saw any package of materials from --

A No

Q Okay You talked about the issues -- excuse me

MR ASBILL: Pull up Government 168

BY MR ASBILL:

Q This is the letter you talked about this morning in court; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And down in the second paragraph, could you blow up the line about the most senior officials?

A Right

Q And in your mind, that was my client and Jasen Eige and Ms McDonnell?

A I -- what I testified to, best on my recollection, is I was referring to the Governor, your client, and either Jasen Eige or Ms McDonnell But I'm not sure The -- subsequently, when I wrote the memo to Dr Wright, I spoke to Mr Williams, and he was referring to both the Governor and Ms McDonnell

Q And not -- not Mr Cuccinelli? He wouldn't be what's referring to there?

A Mr Cuccinelli?

Q Uh-huh

A Cuccinelli? Caturegli?

Q No Cuccinelli is what I asked

That's not what your recollection is? Okay

A Where is Mr --

Q I'm not -- I'm just asking you what that reference was to

A I don't know a Mr Cuccinelli

Q Okay

A Oh, you're talking about the former Attorney General?

Q Yes

A Oh, no He was not talking about the former He was talking about your client and your client's wife

Q And he was saying that my client's wife was a senior official in the Virginia government?

A Well, she's -- that's how Jonnie characterized her

Q Okay You say that -- and I know you've testified a little bit about Mr Williams had dyslexia and dysgraphia and ADHD and some other issues?

A ADD, right

Q Is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay And that affected his reading; is that correct?

A Yes, sir, it did

Q Ability to read quickly?

A Ability to read anything lengthy quickly

Q Okay

A And that's why I use PowerPoint with him and so forth

Q All right And would I be right in saying that Mr Williams had a very good memory?

A I think he has a pretty good memory

Q I mean, is he able to orally -- instead of reading, is he able to orally take in information and remember it well?

A Exceedingly He has a very high IQ

Q Okay

A He's a very bright man

Q And have you dealt with others who have had similar issues in terms of ADHD and dyslexia?

A Yeah My daughter One of the reasons I recognized what I saw in Mr Williams was he replicated the conduct that I saw in my eldest daughter, and it tore my heart out And people who have problems with reading are very embarrassed You live in a literate society, and very intelligent people have reading disabilities

Q And folks who often have those kinds of issues, obviously, develop ways to compensate for the problems with reading?

A Sometimes

Q In terms of memory, for example?

A Yes Yes

Q Okay All right You, obviously, did not know that -- that -- Jerri Fulkerson was an employee of Star; is that right?

A I'm aware of that, sir

Q And were you aware that at Jonnie Williams' direction, Ms Fulkerson was being asked to notarize documents in ways that were not quite proper?

A I was not

Q Would you have been upset if you had known that; that Jonnie Williams had put a Star employee in harm's way in that regard?

A Of course, I would be

Q When Jonnie Williams told you about the Tobacco

Commission and the Governor supposedly telling him to go to the Tobacco Commission, et cetera, these are all just Jonnie Williams telling you about conversations that you've got no personal knowledge about, right?

THE WITNESS: Could that -- Your Honor, respectfully, could that question be repeated, please

THE COURT: Sure

He wants the question If you want to read it back or --

MR ASBILL: Yeah Would you please read it back to the witness?

(Record read as requested)

A No My knowledge is derivative My knowledge of this is based upon the representations that Jonnie Williams made to me

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Okay That's what I mean by no personal knowledge Okay?

A It wasn't clear, Mr Asbill

Q All right Well, if I say "no personal knowledge," that means that you didn't hear it You didn't see it Okay?

Now, with respect to your lawyers, or Star's lawyers, Mr Kilgore and Mr Nolen, you talked about them; is that right?

A Yes

Q And you hired them, or Star hired them, to pursue grants to the -- from the Tobacco Commission, correct?

A To give us advice and aid in the pursuit process, right

Q All right And were you aware of Mr Kilgore's connections to folks on the Tobacco Commission?

A I learned at some point in time that one of his -- I guess his brother was a member of the commission

Q All right And did you know whether or not his wife had any position with the -- with another tobacco-related entity that could give grants?

A No, I did not know that

Q And when did you learn this after hiring Mr Kilgore? Was this like immediately or did this take a long while to figure out?

A I think a few months after hiring him or a month or two after hiring him, I learned that

Q So this didn't come up in terms of trying to figure out who to hire; is that right?

A That's correct

Q And after you hired him and he got the assignment, there was no discussion about, oh, that's a good one for me because I've really got some connections there?

A I certainly didn't have those discussions with him, sir

Q Do you know whether anyone else at Star did?

A To the best of my knowledge, I do not

Q Okay And did you know that the Governor doesn't control the Tobacco Commission in any way?

A I know that now

Q Did you know it then?

A No

Q Did you know that the Governor doesn't control the universities and what they do on research grants or anything else?

A That's correct

Q And you knew that then; is that correct?

A Yes May I give a complete answer?

Q Sure Please do

A Even though he doesn't directly control it, he could indirectly impact it if the project was one that he thought was meritorious for a Virginia company

Q That's your view of what he could do if he wanted to; is that correct?

A That's correct

THE COURT: You asked what he knew So what else can he give you?

MR ASBILL: Now I understand I'm just trying to make --

THE COURT: Just ask another question

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Mike Mullan you've talked about, right?

A I'm sorry

Q Mike Mullan you've talked about?

A Yes Dr Michael Mullan.

Q And what was Michael Mullan's original relationship to Star? Was he on the board?

A Never on our board

Q And what was -- well, what was his relationship?

A He was the CEO of the Roskamp Institute. And he was the person who helped design some additional tests for us and some clinical tests, and he did some benchtop research for us

Q Okay And Star has morphed into Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q Okay

A I don't know if I'd use the word morphed It changed its name to better reflect the purposes of what it's doing

Q And it moved out of the state?

A Yes, sir

Q It's not in Virginia anymore; is that right?

A No No No It did not -- it's moving to close down its Virginia office at some point in time, as I understand it

You understood, Mr Asbill, that since my formal departure on the 19th of May, I no longer can speak as a -- an office officer of the company

Q I'm sorry You can no longer speak as what?

A I'm not speaking as an officer of the company or an employee I'm a consultant at will

Q Okay And Mr Mullan presently --

A Dr. Mullan

Q -- Dr Mullan is the CEO of Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals, is he not?

A That's correct

Q Now, you talked a little bit about your personal background, and I want to get into that in a second But I want to understand, aside from the conversation with Jonnie Williams on roughly the 23rd of January of 2013 when the agents came to his home, is that the first time you learned that there were any investigations of him or Star?

A Yes, sir

MR HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled

BY MR ASBILL:

Q And is that the only way you learned about that fact that there was an investigation is through the call with Jonnie Williams?

A Yes

Q Now, we've talked about the subject matter of those before And you kicked in at that point, basically, and said, "We've got to get lawyers" or "Jonnie has got to get a lawyer"; is that right?

A Among other things

Q And Star also got lawyers?

A Yes

Q Did you think, at that point, that you had -- now that you were aware of that investigation and the fact that it related to securities transactions, that you had any reporting obligations to regulators, like the SEC?

A I did And we discussed -- without going into the substance of the discussions, I discussed that with the -- I discussed --

Q You discussed --

A -- the issues, the relevant issues with our corporate counsel

Q These are the people at Latham & Watkins in Washington?

A That's correct

Q And I'm not going to get into the discussions either But at the end of the first quarter of 2013, or around that time, did you make any public disclosures in SEC filings about the existence of the investigation?

A At a time appropriate, we made disclosures You'd have to recollect -- refresh my recollection as to the actual document we filed I think it was an 8-K or it was included in a filing

Q It was included in a public filing to the SEC; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Because you were required to do that; is that right?

A Yes

Q Now, you talked a little bit about your background, but you were in private practice You talked about being a former federal prosecutor and your various positions on the Hill

You also were in private practice roughly 25 years?

A That's right, sir

Q And in your private practice, your specialty was litigation and white-collar criminal defense?

A Litigation, white-collar criminal defense, and healthcare law

Q Okay And would I be accurate in saying that -- that based on that background, you understood -- when Jonnie Williams was interviewed and he told you about that in January of 2013, you basically understood the ramifications of that?

MR HARBACH: Objection

BY MR ASBILL:

Q -- is that correct?

Or the potential ramifications?

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Did you all start gathering documents within Star at that point?

A We relied upon our lawyers, the lawyers for Star, as to the internal investigation, as to what had to be gathered and what didn't have to be gathered

Q Well, I'm just asking you, did you all gather documents? I'm not asking you about your lawyer's advice to you Just did you do it?

A Yes

Q All right Did you gather e-mails?

A To the best of my knowledge, we did

Q Phone records?

A We turned over everything that was requested by the government

Q I'm asking you whether you gathered it or not

A I personally? No, sir, I did not

Q All right Did you direct anyone at Star to gather?

A Yes My general counsel and people who work with him and the lawyers from outside the office

Q All right And did you ask them to gather text messages?
A I asked that they follow to the letter the advice that we were getting from counsel, how and what be pulled And there was an enormous effort made to comply with the subpoena
Q The subpoenas that had been given to Mr Williams on the 23rd of January by the agents?
A Mr Williams had his own lawyers who were doing that And we were working -- we and the other law firm representing the company and the directors, Chadbourne & Parke And they are highly proficient at what they were doing and former prosecutors, and I have no doubt they followed the rules to the letter of the law
Q Do you know whether Mr Williams tried to preserve, either at your direction or otherwise, tried to preserve text messages from all phones that he had?
A I don't know that, sir
Q Okay Now, at this point in time, this is the first quarter of 2013, in the corporate structure, you were the highest ranking officer at Star; is that right?
A Yes
Q You were the chairman of the board, correct?
A Right

Q And the chief --

A I was not the CEO

Q No You were the chairman of the board, and you were the chief operating officer --

A Yes, sir

Q -- is that correct?

And did Jonnie Williams have any official position at that time in the corporate hierarchy?

A At the time of --

Q -- first quarter 2013

A No He resigned his positions on December 27th, 2013, but he remained as an employee of the company

Q You said December 27, 2013 I'm talking about January 2013

Did he have any official position in the company?

A No He was an employee

Q And what was his job?

A He was working on getting lined up potential companies that might have an interest in investing in Star or might have an interest in purchasing the company, among other things

Q Was he the single largest shareholder in Star at the time?

A No Certainly not

Q Who was?

A He was one of the largest shareholders, but he was -- I believe at that time Tradewinds was the largest shareholder in Star

Q But Mr Williams had roughly 11, 12, 13 percent of the stock at that point?

A I'd have to go back and check the records, but somewhere in the 10 percent range

Q And what about you? Do you have any shares of stock in Star?

A About 2,400,000 Something like that I'd have to check the records

Q And Mr Williams, at that time as an employee of Star, in terms of cash compensation and stock compensation, it was around 10 million bucks?

A No Mr Williams had voluntarily given up his salary in Star about -- almost two years ago

Q Two years ago You mean 2012?

A Twenty -- I think it was 2012 or early 2013 He stopped receiving any money Voluntarily decided, because of the cash situation, and he reduced his salary to zero or a dollar a year And I reduced my -- my salary 50 percent

Q And before you all reduced your salaries, what were your total comp benefits --

A Well --

Q -- you and Mr Williams?

A I'd have to look, but --

Q Give me a ballpark

A It's -- it's difficult because the options were underground The strike price was higher than the market price, and the company was -- had a very volatile situation with the price So I can't give you the specifics unless I see the records

Q Well, did you all make SEC filings in which you reported --

A Absolutely

Q -- the compensation of the major executives within Star?

A Yes

Q And what sort of ballpark figures did you report?

A I'd have to go back and check

Q Would you quarrel with me if I told you $7 million for you and $9 million for Jonnie Williams?

A Oh, I'd certainly quarrel with you on me

Q And that's something that --

A I think you were counting options and warrants

Q You count everything

A Pardon?

Q Counting everything

A Then I think your numbers are wrong

Q Now, you say that you left your job as a partner in a large law firm because you were, in essence, convinced about the -- the potential health benefits of whatever Star was doing?

A Yes

Q Did it have also -- your leaving, did that have also anything to do with the thought that you might be able to make a lot of money?

A You know, the money issue was really less important to me The law had been good to me And I had had the joy -- I testified to it -- of working with Dr Jaffe on an experiment in government that worked, what we did in Vietnam and what we did to build a treat -- treatment network And I had -- I had the thought that we could do this potentially in the -- in the tobacco area or in the area of making some breakthroughs with drugs

You know, I'm living the American dream, Mr Asbill. My parents spoke Italian before they spoke English And so being a prosecutor was one of the great experiences of my life, or being a senior official at the White House And I -- and I thought, I've done well, my family has done well, and I took a lesser salary than I was making at the law firm

And frankly, the last few years, when law firms were interested in my talent, I could have done much better if

I were back in practice, without the risk But I -- I believed in the dream and what we could do, and I had a lot of scientists who supported the worthiness of that dream

Q Are you telling us that the prospect of making a real lot of money through Star Scientific, stock options, whatever other compensations, was not an incentive for you to join that company?

A It wasn't the sole incentive, no

Q I'm not saying that

A No

Q I'm asking whether or not it was an incentive

A It was an incentive, but it was not the sole incentive And it was not the primary incentive

Q You represented, before you went to Star, Jonnie Williams in other matters when you were a lawyer; is that correct?

A I and Paul Hastings represented him in certain matters

Q All right Can you give us any idea of the amount of fees for your law firm that those representations generated?

MR HARBACH: Objection Relevance

THE COURT: Sustained

Q Can you give us an idea of how much money in stock or compensation you made total at Star during your tenure there?

MR HARBACH: Same objection

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Did Mr Williams tell you, after the interview on January 23rd, that the agents had asked him to wear a wire?

A He mentioned that Yes

Q Okay Were you aware that during the investigation, during the agent's investigation, that they interviewed a gentleman on the board of Star named Leo Tonkin?

A I found out only recently that Mr Tonkin was interviewed

Q And who is Mr Tonkin?

A He is former president of the Washington Workshops Foundation, of which I was chairman, and was a former board member and was a couple of years ahead of me at Harvard Law School So I've known him for 50-something years

Q He was -- he is and was a personal friend of yours?

A Yes

Q And you recruited him to Star's board?

A I did

Q Right And were you aware that he was interviewed by the agents too?

A I wasn't until recently

Q And recently when you became aware of that, did you become aware that he was asked to wear a wire against you?

A No, I wasn't

Q That he was asked to have lunch with you at Cafe Milano in Georgetown, in Washington, D C --

Q You say that you are still close friends with Jonnie Williams?

A Yes I've forgiven him, and he's showed appropriate redemption

Q Okay And Jonnie was -- was an inventor He was a good inventor --

A Yes

Q -- is that right?

And he was a great promoter?

A Yes

Q And a great salesman?

A He was a great salesman if he -- if he got interested in the issues and was -- and bought in to the worthiness of a project.

Q Okay. Well, I mean, if he believed in something, he was a great salesman --

A Right

Q -- is that right?

A Right

Q But he relied on you and you became his friend, his personal friend, in addition to being his business colleague, right?

A Yes

Q And he relied on you primarily, I know he had outside counsel as well, but he relied on you to keep him in bounds legally?

A Right

MR HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: No He can answer

BY MR ASBILL:

Q And would I be accurate in saying that other executives at Star or other board members also relied on you to keep him in bounds?

MR HARBACH: Relevance

BY MR ASBILL:

Q You talked about if -- if Jonnie Williams, if you had known all these things and you thought that Jonnie Williams was engaged in inappropriate behavior, that that could be really problematic on a whole host of fronts to a lot of people, correct?

A Correct

Q Financially? Criminally? Both?

A It would -- if -- if I had known about any of the things that I didn't know about, I sustain my -- I'm strong in my belief that none of us would be here today

Q Because if Jonnie had been honest with you, you would have stopped him from doing anything that jeopardized Star, you or anyone else?

A Absolutely

Q You are aware, I take it, that you personally, as we speak, are a defendant in various civil actions by shareholders?

MR HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q You talked a little bit about FDA and FDA approval Was there ever a formal or a real plan to try to get FDA approval for anatabine?

A No It was too premature The first step was to get all of the tox work done and have some studies where there's a statistically significant scientific advancement We had that in a thyroid study that was reported in November of 2012

But our plan was the Abbott plan Abbott did this with fish oil, and they went from a -- a nutraceutical to a pharmaceutical over the course of years, and that was one of the plans that we wanted to follow

Q Trying to get formal FDA is a lengthy and very expensive process?

A Yes But what has been confused is that FDA does not approve nutritional supplements FDA requires that you have sufficient toxicological data to support that

But insofar as efficacy is concerned, it is not needed But you cannot make any health or therapeutic claims You can make function and structure claims

Q Was there ever a plan to try to get big pharmaceutical companies interested in acquiring Star?

A There was

Q Okay And was that something that Mr Williams

wanted to do or was he not willing to give up --
A No No He was --
Q -- give up his patents, et cetera?
A He was very interested As you probably note with patents, those patents, the vast majority of those patents were directly assigned over to the company
Q Okay Was there a plan to generate buzz in the company or market hype to try to increase stock prices?
A To try and increase stock prices? Absolutely not Q Never?
A No
Q By the way, do you know a Mr John Faessel? F-A-E-S-S-E-L
A I've, I think, met him once or had one or two conversations with him
Q And you were aware that he wrote a blog basically talking about Star and particularly in connection with the Roskamp event?
A I was aware he wrote a blog I didn't -- I didn't direct -- direct it totally to the Roskamp event
Q And were you aware that his remarks were -- in these blogs about Star were very enthusiastic?
A I was And I conferred with Latham & Watkins on how to handle that, and I followed their advice
Q Did that include trying to get Mr Faessel to stop exaggerating about Star?

MR HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q In your role as COO and C -- excuse me, chairman of the board, did you have any authority over any press releases that Star issued after the investigation commenced?

A Yes

Q And did you authorize press statements by Star to the effect that company never sought or received any special benefits from anyone in the Virginia state government?

MR HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: He can answer that

THE WITNESS: Can the question be repeated, Your Honor?

THE COURT: All right We are going to have to stop What we'll do now is stop for lunch Once again, I have something scheduled for 1:00 Obviously, they have been sitting and waiting for this next hearing So what we'll do is give you the hour and 15 minutes, which would make it, what, 2:25 So if you all come back

And I know that one of the jurors just indicated they needed a break I was trying I was hoping that we could get through Mr Asbill's cross, but obviously, that didn't happen So we'll deal with what is

All right We will see you at 2:25

(Luncheon recess taken from 1:09 p.m. to 2:25 p.m.)

THE COURT: All right, let's bring in the jury, please

(The jury entered the courtroom.)

All right, Mr Asbill?

BY MR. ASBILL:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Perito.

A Good afternoon, sir

Q How are you? I pared things down and I think just another minute or two.

A I appreciate that

Q I think when I left off right before lunch we were talking about the press in the June, 2013 time frame And my question to you basically is whether or not you authorized a person at Star, and in particular, the person I'm talking about is Talhia Tuck, let me just focus on that for a minute, do you know who Talhia Tuck is?

A Talhia Tuck

Q Excuse me for mispronouncing that

A She was our Vice-president for Communications and Investor Relations

Q In 2013 that was her position at Star?

A That's correct She succeeded Ms Machir

Q Okay And she was somebody that you hired?

A Yes, she was

Q She was a Harvard law graduate as well?

A Harvard College, Harvard Law School

Q So my question to you is with respect to her, did you authorize her to make a statement on the company's behalf to the press, to the Washington Post, on or about June 5th, 2013?

A At that time, Mr Asbill, I had delegated review of all statements, either a statement or a press statement, to our General Counsel, Bob Pokusa, to then coordinate with lawyers and just keep me in the loop But that was the structure So if you are talking about a statement, press statement, it would have gone through that process

A Mr Pokusa, then to the lawyers, and then a release of the press statement

Q I'm talking in particular about just a particular comment or a quote to a Washington Post reporter that was printed in the press on the 5th of June, 2013

A And the quote was?

Q And the quote was --

MR HARBACH: Objection.

THE COURT: No, give it to him and let him read it

BY MR. ASBILL:

Q Would you prefer a hard copy or prefer on the screen or both?

A Hard copy would be fine if you have it

MR. ASBILL: Judge, I'm showing the witness RM-0107-0001 and 2

(Document proffered to witness)

(Witness perusing document)

THE WITNESS: I believe that this statement that she made went through the channels that it was supposed to go through, and I was not uncomfortable with the statement at that time on behalf of the company

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Okay And so on behalf of the company --

A On behalf of the company

Q Yes, I know I said on behalf of the company at that time, what was the statement?

A That we -- that Star is a company that neither sought nor received any special benefits from any public official

MR. ASBILL: Thank you, sir I have no further questions

THE COURT: All right Anything from you?

MR HAUSS: Yes, thank you, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR HAUSS:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Perito

A Good afternoon, sir
Q How are you today?
A I'm well, thank you.
Q My name is Steve Hauss I'm one of the lawyers for Maureen McDonnell. You and I don't know each other; is that correct?
A Never met you before, sir
Q Now, prior to going to work for Star, you worked at a law firm; is that correct?
A I did. Yes, sir.
Q Was that your own law firm, or was it a large law firm?
A It was 1,500-person law firm. Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker is the name of the firm.
Q Was leaving the law firm and private practice to go to Star a difficult decision for you?
A It was something that I gave an enormous amount of thought to, and I delayed making the decision for three or four years
Q Is the reason that you ultimately decided to go to Star because you thought that you would make history with what Jonnie Williams was working on?
A I thought we would save a lot of lives if what he was working on, if we could substantiate, if we could substantiate the hypothesis that I articulated on direct, namely, that anatabine or anatabine citrate is not only an anti-inflammatory, but an immunomodulatory agent, i e , if we found ways to control the switch, control the temperature within the body of an individual, we could make great headway But a lot of steps had to be made to reach that

Q Let me ask you this: Would it be fair to say that after meeting Mr Williams and hearing about his company and what he was doing, you believed in the potential of Star Scientific?

A We are talking about a multi-year process

Q I understand.

A My original verity for what Mr Williams was doing was helped by Jerome Jaffe, who was perhaps the most iconic and respected addiction psychiatrist in the world. And then I spent a lot of time talking to people like Dr Wright, talking to people like Dr Mendelsohn, who was a professor, then was a professor at Harvard Medical School And they believed there was the chance, if the hypothesis could be proven, that it could significantly impact medicine and the health of individuals And that concept was enormously exciting for me

On the other hand, before I left Paul, Hastings, I had several major matters that were important to clients, so I worked out a relationship that I would spend part of my time at Star and part of my time at Paul Hastings finishing my professional responsibilities And that gave me some additional flexibility of not having to make a definitive decision until the end of that process

Q Fair enough Now, you testified on direct about a number of gifts and loans and the fact that you did not know about any of that; that's correct?

A The gift or loans or monies that were talked about I knew nothing about

Q Okay So I'd like to ask you --

A Until they were revealed publicly

Q Were you aware in April, 2011, that Mr Williams bought a $1,600 dress for Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A Totally unaware of that

Q Were you aware that Mr Williams flew Ms Sutherland up to the Roskamp event and paid for her room at the Ritz-Carlton and also paid for her to get a facial at the spa?

A I was unaware of that, sir

Q Now, you testified that you had some small amount of involvement in the planning regarding the August 30th, 2011 event, correct?

A No, I testified that I had some involvement in the planning of the Gibson Island event And I was very clear on that But I think the question was conflated with the other reference So clearly, on the Gibson Island, I had more involvement in it The principal, however, was Professor Ladenson

Q But with respect to the August 30th event, were you aware that the primary person on the side of the Governor's Office handling the planning was Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A I knew that she was involved I didn't know she was the primary person

Q You understood that she was involved in the planning?

A Yes

Q Were you aware in the summer of 2011, in June, 2011, that Mr. Williams called Ms Sutherland to tell her he wanted her working for him and for Star Scientific?

A I was not

Q Were you aware that in July and August of 2011, that Mr Williams took Ms Sutherland to various lunches and breakfasts to discuss possibly giving her a job?

MR. HARBACH: Objection This whole line is characterization

THE COURT: The objection is sustained He is not aware, but we are, because we have heard it five times

MR. HAUSS: Fair enough, Your Honor Thank you

BY MP HAUSS:

Q You testified that you did attend the event on August 30th at the Mansion; is that correct?

A That's correct, sir

Q And that was the one and only time you ever met and spoke with Ms McDonnell; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q She made some remarks at that event?

A She did at the outset

Q Her remarks were, you said, about the history of the Mansion

A I thought that they were articulate and very well put, and I learned things about the Commonwealth that I had never known before

Q And she also made some remarks about her own interest in nutraceuticals; is that fair?

A Yes

Q She also testified about being proud to assist with a company that was based in Virginia; is that correct?

A That's my recollection.

Q Now, you testified about a conversation you had with Mr Williams about Ms McDonnell possibly being on the Board of Star Scientific Do you remember those questions?

A Yes Yes, very much so

Q And did Mr Williams tell you that he had told

Ms McDonnell that she needed to speak with the Governor first and that the Governor had told her absolutely not, she could not serve on the Board?

A I had no way of knowing that I was unaware of that But it was a dead letter once I heard about it

Q It is fair to say Ms McDonnell never in fact served on Star Scientific's Board?

A No, she wasn't asked to and she did not serve.

Q In response to Mr Asbill's questions, you mentioned the term "derivative knowledge " I want to make sure I understand what you were talking about Am I correct what you were suggesting was that as to some of the stuff you testified to today, your only source of knowledge is Mr Williams' representations; is that fair?

A Yes Some of the things

Q So with respect to, for example, the conversation with Mr Williams about Ms McDonnell serving on the Board, that's just based on what Mr Williams told you; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q With respect to the Tobacco Commission and Mr Williams' conversations with the Governor, that's based on just what Mr Williams told you; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q Okay Now, you learned in 2013, January of 2013, for the first time about the things, about what Mr Williams said his relationship was with the McDonnells; is that correct?

A Yes

Q You learned for the first time that Mr Williams had been concealing a number of things from you.

A Yes

Q You learned that Mr. Williams had not been honest with you

A On those things, that's correct He had not -- he had not been forthright

Q So given that, you cannot be sure sitting here today that the other things Mr Williams told you about his conversations with Mr and Ms McDonnell --

A Counsel, with all due respect, I think that's a legal conclusion That's the province of the jury

Q But is it correct that you cannot be sure that what Mr Williams told you about his conversations with the McDonnells were correct?

MR. HARBACH: Objection.

THE COURT: The objection is sustained

MR. HAUSS: One moment, Your Honor? Nothing further Thank you, Your Honor

THE COURT: Redirect?

MR. HARBACH: Yes, please, Your Honor

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Mr Perito, a few minutes ago you were asked some questions by Mr Asbill about the statement to the press that Ms Tuck made Do you recall those questions?

A I do, sir.

Q And I believe your answer was that you were comfortable with her statement at that time on behalf of the company Do you recall that being your answer?

A Yes

Q I'd like to unpack that, please Could you tell us what you meant by the fact that you were comfortable at that time, meaning June 5th of 2013 when the article ran?

A Because I knew more things about his conduct than I had previously

Q Did you know all of the facts by that time, sir?

A Absolutely not

Q Second part of your answer where you said you were comfortable making that statement on behalf of the company --

A Not me making that statement

Q Thank you for correcting my question as well You were comfortable with Ms Tuck making that statement on behalf of the company at the time

A Having gone through the process that I set up, I was comfortable vis-a-vis the company

Q Had the company funded the $120,000 in loans to the McDonnells or MoBo?

A Absolutely not

Q Had the company paid $15,000 for the McDonnells' daughter's wedding?

A No, sir

Q You were asked some questions earlier in Mr Asbill's cross-examination of you about the conversation you had with Mr Williams in January of 2013 after he was interviewed by the FBI Do you recall those questions, sir?

A I do

Q When Mr Williams was emotional and sobbing in that conversation with you, was he sobbing, from your perspective, did he appear to be sobbing because of a transaction he had done with John McKeon?

MR HAUSS: Objection.

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Mr Perito, during that same conversation with Mr Williams, was he -- when did he start becoming emotional? Was it when he was discussing the things that he had kept from you concerning his payments to the McDonnell family or was it concerning the -- did it start when he was talking about the McKeon transactions? If you recall?

A It was such an emotional event for me and for him that I can't differentiate very well My best recollection is that he was concerned that not only was the trust broken, but that I was going to leave the company And it was a valid concern.

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor

THE COURT: Thank you, sir You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

Call your next witness

MR. DRY: The United States calls John Piscitelli to the stand, Your Honor

JOHN A. PISCITELLI,

A I believe it was in 1987

A He was

Q And where were you living and where was he living at the time?

A We were both living in Virginia Beach, I believe a few miles apart from each other

Q Okay Can you characterize your personal relationship with the McDonnells?

A I think we became friends very early We both attended the same church We had similar stages in life where we were raising young kids And Bob led a Bible study at the time that we both belonged to, so we would meet in each other's homes on a weekly basis

Q Is it fair to say you would go out to dinner with them, talk on the phone with them, both of them?

A Occasionally Mostly we would see each other at church on Sunday But certainly we would meet socially, also

Q Is it fair to say that you are very good friends with the McDonnells?

A I'd like to think so

Q Okay You have met with Mr McDonnell's defense counsel?

A Yes, I have

Q How many times have you met with them?

A Several times I've met with prosecution and met with defense both, and both times I've just attested that I will tell the truth with whatever is asked of me.

Q You said several times?

A Yes

Q And how long did each of those meetings last?

A Hard to say I'm guessing an hour

Q Did you attend?

A I did.

Q When did that occur?

A June of this year

Q Were they holding hands, things like that?

A No, we really just saw them dancing towards the end is my only recollection of them being together, towards the end of the party

Q Is it fair to say that from your observations they appeared as much in love as they ever were?

MR BURCK: Objection, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I don't know how he could possibly answer that question. So the objection is sustained

BY MR DRY:

Q From your observations over the last 20 years, did you ever believe that the McDonnells were having marital problems?

A To my knowledge, outwardly, I could not tell that

Q Are you the godfather of any of the McDonnells' children?

A Yes The McDonnells have honored us and asked us to be their youngest daughter's, Rachel's, godfather Again, back in the 1980's

Q Were you subpoenaed to testify before the grand jury on October 3rd, 2013?

A Yes, I was

Q Since testifying in the grand jury, have you met with the government?

A Yes, we have seen each other at social events

Q I'm sorry, the government

A The government

Q The prosecutors and agents

A I don't believe so

A I was told that you had asked to speak with me again

Q And you declined.

A Yes, I felt like I had said everything I needed to say at that point

Q Are you closer friends with Mr McDonnell or Ms McDonnell?

A I would say we are friends equally with the two of them.

Q Before 2011, had you any business relationship in your role as a stockbroker or money manager with the McDonnells?

A Yes I opened an account for them, strictly to sell some shares of stock, back in the late 1980's

Q How did they obtain that stock?

A This is 25 years ago My recollection is it was through some gift or inheritance I really don't recall exactly I seem to recall that they didn't purchase the shares outright

Q What was the extent of the transaction?

A They simply asked if they could deposit the shares and have me sell them, needing some money at the time, and I gladly did that for them.

Q That transaction occurred, I think you said, approximately 25 years ago?

A Yes, in the late 1980's

Q Since that point up until 2011, any business relationship between the two?

A No, none

Q Let's bring up Government Exhibit 153, please Do you recognize this document, sir? We can blow it up That would be good.

A Yes, I do This is our New Account Data Sheet

Q You have seen this document before?

A Yes, I have

Q And this relates to an account that was opened up in the name of Ms McDonnell?

A Yes, that's correct

MR. DRY: The government moves Government Exhibit 153 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. DRY:

Q What is the --

MR SMALL: This is a one-page document?

MR DRY: I believe it is a two-page document

MR. SMALL: I would object, Your Honor The first page clearly says Page 1 of 1, and what they have is a second page starts at Number 22 It is clearly two different documents

BY MR DRY:

Q Have you seen these documents before, sir, both pages of these? Can you go to the second page?

A Yes, I have.

Q Were these the two -- were these two documents given to you, or part of the Account Data Sheet that you produced in relationship to this account?

A Yes They are actually two separate forms One is the data sheet, where we just essentially fill in the basic information about the client This is what we call a Cash Agreement, which is several pages long, but only requires the client to sign the bottom of the last page

MR DRY: Well then, we would move Government Exhibit 153-A in as the second page, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR DRY:

Q Going to just 153, can we go back to the first page? What is the date in the bottom right-hand corner of the document, if we go down? I believe this is right.

A June 2nd, 2011

Q Okay Walk the members of the jury, what happens when a client, what typically happens when a client opens an account at Davenport?

A A client can open the account either over the phone or in a personal meeting We take down the information required to open the account, and send them documents to sign, the Cash Agreement being one of them, and we can transact that business, whether they choose to buy stock or do some other type of business, we can do that before we actually receive their signed document

Q Can we go to the top of the document? In the upper left-hand corner And whose Account Data Sheet is this for?

A This is for Maureen McDonnell

Q Walk the members of the jury through what led to you opening an account, a Davenport account for Ms McDonnell

A Maureen had called me and said she had some money to invest, and said that she had seen a demonstration for this company, Star Scientific, and was very interested in purchasing shares I think at the time she had mentioned she wanted to give some gifts to her children, and thought that this would be a good stock to buy in So I did open the account for her, we bought the shares of stock, and I told her at the time that the money would be due in three business days

MR SMALL: Your Honor, if I might, there is a redacted version of this Counsel, do you have it? If so, could you use it?

MR. DRY: I think the address is actually going to be significant

MR. SMALL: I don't object to the address It is the other information.

MR DRY: Can you do that on the fly, Ms Taylor? If not, that's okay We can just walk him through it

BY MR DRY:

Q I'm sorry, Mr Piscitelli You mentioned something about you could open the account and buy the stock, but the money didn't have to be in immediately?

A Exactly If you call me and buy shares of stock, I can lock in the price today The settlement day where the money is due to pay for that is in three business days

Q And did you understand what stock, did she inform you in that first call what particular company's stock she wanted to buy?

A Yes, at the time she mentioned Star Scientific

Q And on this data sheet, who is actually filling out the information? Is this Ms McDonnell or how does the information get on there?

A This looks like it was taken from another sheet that I filled out by hand and recopied on this entry form, which they use to keypunch the account

Q Where did you get the information that was ultimately put on this sheet?

A Some I would do personally, but some I would ask Maureen for

Q Can you tell, what information -- did you know her Social Security Number at that point?

A I don't believe I did. The kind of thing I would know is "How long have you known this client," that sort of thing

Q Any of the additional information would have come from Ms McDonnell?

A That's correct

Q And in the upper left-hand corner, can you say what date "Date Opens" says?

A June 1st of 2011

Q If we go down to the bottom right-hand portion of the form, whose signature is that and signature of Registered Representative?

A That's my signature

Q Can you go to the top right-hand portion of it? I apologize, Ms Taylor Is this originally opened as a joint or a single account? Or originally, what was your belief whether it was going to be joint or single?

A You know, I assumed it was going to be joint because the last account I opened for them was a joint account, and Maureen quickly corrected me and said this should be an account in her name so we were able to correct that before any transactions occurred in it

Q So it was opened in an account only in Maureen McDonnell's name; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q In order for it to be opened in a joint account, would both account owners have had to sign?

A Yes, they would.

Q And then you've got that address there Was that address given to you by Ms McDonnell?

A I believe it was

Q What address would Davenport mail account statements to?

A To this address of record.

Q And in the Source of Funds block, what is listed there on the right-hand side? Do you see where it says Source of Funds right above Negotiable Transaction?

A Yes It says Salary or Wages

Q What is listed next to Estimated Net Worth? I think we are going to have to go down The Investment

Objectives block on the left-hand side Do you see that, sir?

A Estimated Net Worth, yes, in the range of $500,000 to a million

Q And what's Estimated Annual Income listed?

A Looks like it was crossed out Initially, it was keypunched as 200,000 to 300,000, and then changed to looks like 100 -- I'm not sure if that's $150,000 or $190,000

Q Did you understand at the time whose salary was being reflected there?

A I assumed it was household salary

Q Okay Did you know whether Ms McDonnell was working at that time?

A I believe she wasn't, but we didn't talk about that specifically

Q Okay Where did you get this information from?

A At the time, I think of the initial phone call, I believe I asked Maureen for these figures, and she said she would need to speak to Bob to get the actual figures for me And I said, "Well, we need to put something down to get the account opened. We can ballpark it and adjust it as soon as you can get me the figures to adjust it "

Q We will get to the subsequent conversation in a second. But can we go to the second page, so that's going to be 153-A, and can you, I think you briefly touched on exactly what this document is Can you kind of explain it?

A It is our standard Cash Agreement that anyone who opens an account with us just abides by our firm policies, which are pretty standard among any brokerage firm.

Q And do you recognize the signature there?

A Looks like Maureen McDonnell

Q What's the date?

A June, looks like June 1st of 2011

Q At the time you are discussing this with Ms McDonnell, did she ever tell you, "Hey, don't talk to Bob about this, this is just between the two of us"?

A She never told me that, and I wouldn't be allowed to talk to anybody about her account anyway because it is in her name only

Q Did you communicate that fact to her?

A No

Q Okay Let's go to Government Exhibit 149, please Sir, what is this?

A This is, can be quarterly account statement It is monthly if there is any activity But it is our basic account statement

Q Okay And this is for Ms McDonnell?

A That's correct

MR. DRY: Government moves Government Exhibit 149 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR DRY:

Q When does Davenport send out account statements?

A The first few days of the month following every quarter, or again following the month if there was any activity in the account that month

Q So when you say "activity," what does that mean?

A That means any transactions where a client buys or sells securities It could be a dividend paid from a stock, anything that would generate cash or a stock or bond transaction in the account

Q Let's go to the second page of this exhibit, Ms Taylor And on the second page, in the Purchases and Sales block, what does that information reflect?

A It shows on June 1st, 6,000 shares of Star Scientific was purchased at a price of, rounding off, $5 18, for a total cost of $31,079 40

Q And can we go down to the Funds Withdrawn and Deposited? What does this reflect?

A That reflects that we deposited funds from that same amount and the check was written off Maureen McDonnell's personal bank account

Q Okay That reflects that the check was from her personal bank account?

A Yes

Q Can you show me where it says personal bank account?

A It doesn't say that, but it just says "Maureen McDonnell" as opposed to --

Q This doesn't reflect whether it is from a personal account or any other account, right?

A It would have been in her name

Q Okay But could it be a joint account? Just from this, do you even know?

A I believe it would show up differently if it was a joint account

Q Okay As you sit here today, you know it came from her account

A Right And knowing because I saw the check

Q Who directed the purchase of these shares of stock?

A Maureen McDonnell

Q Did you advise her to purchase these shares?

A No

Q Had you heard of Star Scientific before?

A I had never heard of it before she brought it up

Q So this wasn't a company that you were following and promoting to your clients?

A No

Q Okay Was Star Scientific a publicly traded company at this point?

A It was

Q And can you briefly explain what a publicly traded company is?

A Basically, as opposed to a private company where you cannot buy shares unless it is directly from the company, publicly traded company means you can buy shares from another person who owns it on an exchange

Q When you say an exchange, what are the big exchanges?

A New York Stock Exchange, for instance This one trades on what we call NASDAQ, an electronic global trading platform.

Q Did you ever buy or sell any shares of any company out of this account without authorization from Ms McDonnell?

A No

Q Let's bring up Government Exhibit 155, please This is a Davenport document, sir? You can scroll down for him.

A Yes, that's correct

Q And this reflects, this is basically a print-off of a check that Davenport received?

A Yes, that's correct

MR. DRY: The government moves Government Exhibit 149 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

MR. DRY: I'm sorry, that's 155 I apologize

THE COURT: All right

BY MR DRY:

Q Is this the check that Ms McDonnell used to purchase the shares?

A I believe it was

Q Like you said earlier, that's just only from her account, right?

A Yes, that's correct

Q What's the date on the check?

A June 4th, 2011

Q Now, I noticed in the account statement it says the shares were purchased June 1st Can you just kind of walk us through why the shares are purchased on June 1st, but the check is June 4th?

A Well, again, the shares were purchased over the phone, and again, I advised Ms McDonnell that the shares were due in three business days I believe the trade occurred on a Wednesday So the settlement date where the money would have been due would have been that following Monday And she was able to hand it to me over that weekend.

Q Let's talk about that You said she was able to hand it to you When did she hand it to you?

A At her daughter, Cailin's, wedding

Q You attended the wedding

A I did. And the reception

Q Talk about the circumstances of how she hands you the check

A I don't exactly remember how You know, she was pretty tied up obviously with being the mother of the bride, with a lot of wedding things, so we weren't able to spend a lot of time speaking to Maureen, but we were able to see her, I think, for just a little bit of time And I think at the time she said, "Oh, I need to get you the check," and so she gave it to me

Q You said that "We were able to see her "

A I'm sorry, my wife and I

Q So your wife and you are at the wedding?

A Yes

Q And Ms McDonnell and you are talking?

A Yes

Q Your wife is next to you?

A Yes

Q Where is the Governor?

A Somewhere off talking with other people

Q But your wife is next to you?

A Yes

Q And Ms McDonnell says what?

A "I need to get you the check as payment of the stock "

Q All right

A Or something to that effect.

Q Did she pull you off to the side? Is she whispering this to you?

A No

Q Okay Let's go to Government Exhibit 634, please Do you recognize this document, sir?

A I do.

Q And this was turned over by your lawyers a couple days ago?

A Yes

Q And what is it?

A This is where Maureen had given me the figures that we had asked for for the financials to just put as record in the account

MR DRY: The government moves Government Exhibit 634 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR DRY:

Q Tell me the circumstances Was this attached to the check, or --

A I really don't remember exactly if she gave it to me at the wedding, if it came in at a different time, exactly when it got to us I think it was very early in the opening of the account But I can't recall exactly how it got to me

Q Just so I'm clear, you have the first conversation with her, say, "I need this information," she tells you, "I need to talk to Bob," and then you get this

A Yes

Q Okay Do you recognize whose handwriting is on this?

A I believe it is Maureen's handwriting

Q Do you recall whether she was secretive when she handed you this sticky note?

MR. BURCK: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR DRY:

Q At the time of the purchase of the shares of Star Scientific stock, did Ms McDonnell mention getting money from Jonnie Williams for the purchase in any way?

A No His name had never come up before

Q Let's go to Government Exhibit 194, please Do you recognize this document, sir?

A Yes

Q And what is this?

A This is called our Non-solicitation Letter

Q This was sent from you to Ms McDonnell?

A It was sent from our headquarters automatically I wasn't aware that it was being sent at the time

Q Okay

MR. DRY: Government moves Government Exhibit 194 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR DRY:

Q The account number listed at the top, can we just, I don't know, is it possible, I just want the last four

MR. SMALL: We will stipulate it is the same account

THE COURT: 2323 So the last four on this is 2323

BY MR. DRY:

Q Did you have a conversation with, first of all, is this a new order of Star shares?

A Yes This is a second order to buy fewer shares of Star Scientific

Q Approximately what's the date on the top left-hand corner?

A August 2nd, 2011

Q And walk me through what Ms McDonnell tells you that leads to the purchase of 522 shares?

A It is a little difficult to remember exactly the circumstances of why she wanted to invest more in this My recollection is that she had a couple thousand dollars extra that she wanted to add to it, the price was down I thought I remembered it was to round up somehow as she was still thinking of giving gifts and splitting this up among the children, but the math doesn't work out, so I don't really know exactly why

Q Okay And I think you testified earlier, she had mentioned back in June the idea of eventually gifting shares to the kids; is that right?

A Yes

Q Okay Let's go to Government Exhibit 166 Is this another Davenport account statement for July 1st through August 31st of 2011?

A It is

Q I'm going to let Ms Taylor redact that for a second No pressure. Thank you, Ms Taylor

MR DRY: I'd like to now move Government Exhibit 166 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. DRY:

Q Turning to the second page in the Purchase and Sales block, what does that information reflect?

A Reflects that 522 shares of Star Scientific were purchased at $3 82 for a total of $1,994.04

Q When somebody places an order with you, how quickly do you typically execute on that order?

A Immediately

Q Okay But can the settled date be the following date?

A For stock It is always three business days

Q Okay. So do you believe that your conversation with Ms McDonnell happened at around August 2nd of 2011 about the new purchase?

A Yes

Q And going down to the Funds Withdrawn/Deposited block. What does that show, sir?

A It shows we received another check from Maureen from that same account for a total of $1,994.04.

Q Then going to the portfolio holdings block, can you just walk me through what this information is next to the 6,522?

A Well, it is portfolio holdings, so it shows at that moment, 6,522 shares of Star Scientific were owned, shows the cost basis of the total amount of shares was $33,734 04, the current market value was $15,326 70, so there was an unrealized loss of $17,746 74

Q I'm sorry, I need you to slow down, first of all, because you talk fast It is okay When you say unrealized loss, what does that mean?

A That means, that loss can be, you buy a stock, it can move up and down in price It is never a true realized loss until you sell it

Q Okay

A So it can be a gain or loss on an unrealized basis When you sell it, it becomes realized

Q You haven't made any money or lost any money until you sell the stock.

A Technically, yes

Q Let's go to the third page, please Just go to the Owner and Associated Persons Again, sir -- we can just do it this way Can you see that on your screen, sir?

A I can.

Q Where would this account statement have been mailed to?

A To Maureen at 5913 , Glen Allen, Virginia

Q Let's bring up Government Exhibit 240, please Do you recognize this letter, sir?

A I do.

Q What's the date of the letter?

A September 9th, 2011

Q Who is the letter from and to?

A The letter is from me to Maureen McDonnell

MR DRY: The government moves Government Exhibit 240 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. DRY:

Q Starting with the second paragraph, you say: "As I mentioned when we last spoke, I thought it would be easier to spell out for you what is needed to move securities from your account into the kids' names. Hopefully this outline will be clear enough " Do you see that?

A Yes, I do.

Q Did you have a conversation with Ms McDonnell before sending this letter?

A Yes, a few weeks prior

Q Okay How certain are you on that date?

A Fairly certain Because I knew it took me a while to think of what she wanted to do, and I was busy at the time, and I think that's why I'm apologizing for it has taken a while since we last talked.

Q What did Ms McDonnell tell you during that conversation?

A In that conversation, she said that she was again thinking about how to gift these securities to the kids, and how to do it I thought at the time she was still thinking of how many shares or how much in dollars to give to each one. Or at least it wasn't communicated fully to me at that time. And she seemed to want some shares to remain in her name, but was still not necessarily wanting them to show up in her name and wondering maybe how we could avoid doing that

Q Let's unpack that a little bit What do you mean by she wanted the shares not to remain in her name?

A Could they be moved somewhere else where she still owned them and not show up as her owning them. And she had mentioned, she was mentioning a lot of different things all in the same conversation She had heard about a blind trust, is that a possibility So she was just trying, I believed, to find a way to not have the shares show up on the year-end statement as her owning them.

Q And did in fact she tell you that there was annual reporting requirements?

A I believe that, you know, it is difficult for me to remember the exact terms she used, but I got the idea that the purpose that she didn't want these shares in her name was some type of reporting I don't know what that was

Q Did you understand that it was her reporting?

A I didn't really know, and it didn't really matter to me because I was focused on how to accommodate her wishes The why didn't matter so much as how to get done what she wanted to get done

Q When she is talking about this, did she use the words "reporting requirements"?

A I can't say for certain that she did. In my mind, it had something to do with reporting, but I don't remember the exact words she used

Q Okay Do you remember, sir, first of all, you testified in front of the grand jury on October 3rd, 2013?

A Uh-huh.

Q And you took an oath to tell the truth in front of the grand jury?

A I did

Q And there was a court reporter present?

A Yes

Q Just like there is one today?

A Yes

Q And there were at least a dozen good citizens serving as grand jurors, is that true? Do you remember that?

A I'll take your word for it that they are good citizens

Q Were questions asked and you given a full opportunity to answer them?

A Yes

Q I just want to make sure I understand. Were you asked, "Was it fair to say that in --"

MR. SMALL: What page?

MR. DRY: 25, Line 20, all the way through 26 to three

BY MR. DRY:

Q "Was it fair to say that in your conversation that precipitated this letter, Maureen McDonnell made it clear to you that she needed these shares out of her name or a portion of these shares out of her name because she was trying to avoid disclosure requirements for her and the Governor?" You responded, "I don't know if she ever used the word disclosure requirements, but she made it clear that she wanted them out of her name and that she didn't want them reported, yes "

Do you recall saying that?

A Yes, I did.

MR. BURCK: Objection After hearing the testimony from the grand jury, his testimony is the same

THE COURT: That included reporting, which he didn't recall. So it is not the same Go ahead.

MR DRY: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR. DRY:

Q Before your discussions with Ms McDonnell, did you have any knowledge of what requirements a government official would have to disclose stock here as family members owned? Did you have any knowledge of what the disclosure requirements were?

A No, I didn't

Q Let's go back to your letter On the last paragraph of Page 1, do you see, "I don't have the answer about how to avoid shares remaining in your name without transferring them to another entity You had mentioned the use of a blind trust "

I believe you said, but whose idea was the blind trust?

A She brought it up I don't know where she had heard it from, but she asked me "Is that a possibility?"

Q Okay And then what is your advice? Basically just paraphrase what you say on this, the rest of it, and the top of the next word

A Essentially that a blind trust is something that we could have as an account if she had an attorney draft up the trust, but that it is a discretionary account that we would run Typically as money managers, we buy and sell in a more conservative nature larger companies with earnings and a track record of growing earnings So the Star Scientific company, which is more speculative, did not have earnings, wouldn't be something that we would hold, and we would most likely sell it So a blind trust for these purposes, I didn't think, would serve her needs

Q Was this in the context of getting the shares out of her name that this is coming up?

A Yes

MR SMALL: Judge --

BY MR DRY:

Q Why did you write this letter to Ms McDonnell?

A The main reason I wrote the letter was because she had asked about a lot of things in our conversation, and it is very complicated as to how to gift shares into the kids' names as far as opening the accounts, as far as having a letter of authorization come in. She had asked about other options of, again, how to not have these shares remain in her name And in that conversation, because it was going a lot of different places, I said, "Let me think about this Let me send you a letter that outlines what I think your options are and give you a course of action, as well as explain to you how we move shares into the kids' names "

Q Did you write the letter in any way, in any measure, because the request from Ms McDonnell made you uncomfortable?

A It was mostly for the reason that I suggested. Otherwise, I do like having a paper trail if we make recommendations and people are talking about a lot of different things that we explain what they were and what our advice is

Q Sir, my question was, did the request make you uncomfortable?

A It didn't really make me uncomfortable

Q Okay Sir, going to grand jury transcript Page 26, Lines 4 through 8 In the grand jury were you asked: "In fact, this request made you uncomfortable You wanted a written record to make clear that this was not your idea, correct? Answer: Yes I guess there are different levels of discomfort "

MR. SMALL: Could we read the next several lines where he explains the different level of discomfort?

MR DRY: I'm about to do just that

THE COURT: Let him finish answering this question.

BY MR. DRY:

Q Do you recall that, sir?

A Yes, I do recall it

Q As you sit there today, is that accurate?

A It is accurate that there are different levels of discomfort, and probably "discomfort" is probably not the best word.

Q As you sit there today, did the request make you uncomfortable?

MR SMALL: Asked and answered

THE COURT: It hasn't been answered

THE WITNESS: Yes

BY MR DRY:

Q Okay I think Mr Small wants us to go further Do you recall saying, "Question: To be clear, you are not a lawyer, right? Answer: Yes Question: You don't know what the disclosure requirements are for the Governor, right? Answer: I was just more puzzled I really was giving them the benefit of the doubt I thought certainly they know the disclosure rules and they are going to do what is right and legal and really never crossed my mind that -- you know, they weren't going to have this checked out and make sure they were doing the right thing I was more puzzled Question: But you at least felt some, as you stated earlier, discomfort about what you were being asked to do? Answer: Yes "

Do you recall all of that?

A I do

Q Now, were the shares transferred to the McDonnells' children in 2011?

A That wasn't until 2012

Q We will get to that Let's go to Government Exhibit 247, please Do you recall this document or do you recognize this document, sir?

A Yes

Q This is a Davenport account statement for October 1st through December 31st of 2011?

A Yes

Q And in fact, this is Maureen McDonnell's Davenport account statement?

A Yes

MR. DRY: Government moves for admission of Government Exhibit 247, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q Now, on the first page, is that the same address as all the other account statements that we have reviewed?

A Looks to be

Q Okay And that would be where the account statement was mailed to, correct?

A Yes

Q Turning to the third page under the Purchases and Sales, what does that information reflect?

A Reflects a sale of 6,522 shares of Star Scientific at a price of $2 34, again rounding up, for a total proceeds of $15,279 45

Q Did you direct this sale just on your own?

A No, Maureen asked me to sell the shares

Q Let's talk about that What exactly did she -- how close in time was this conversation to the actual sale?

A It had to have occurred the same day

Q Okay And what can you recall Ms McDonnell saying during that conversation?

A I think she -- you know, I don't remember exactly the conversation other than I know she was still thinking about gifting shares to the kids, but at this point it was getting late in the year and she didn't want the shares, again, I believe, to be shown or reported

Q And was she emphatic that they be sold before the end of the year?

A Yes

Q At that time, what was your understanding of why she wanted the shares to be sold before year end?

A Again, just so an account statement at year end would not show that account owning shares of Star Scientific.

Q And did she describe that again in that conversation?

A I believe so

Q During that same conversation, did Ms McDonnell say anything to you about repurchasing the shares?

A Yes, she said she wanted to buy them back at the beginning of the year

Q Okay During that conversation, did Ms McDonnell ask you anything about confirming to her that the shares were sold before the end of the year?

A I don't know that she asked me that, but we have to do that anyway We have to confirm all executions of trades

Q Sir, if I showed you something to refresh your recollection --

MR. DRY: I'm going to show him the grand jury Exhibit 29, Page 29, Lines 24, 25, and then Page 30, Line 1

BY MR. DRY:

Q I just want to refresh your recollection.

(Document proffered to witness)

A I'm sorry, which lines?

Q 24 and 25 at the bottom, and the top I'm going to ask you again, during that conversation, did she ask for confirmation that the shares had been sold before year end?

A Okay, I didn't remember that now, but --

Q Does that refresh your recollection? Do you remember that?

A You know, at this point I still don't remember that she asked me in that phone call, but I'm sure that I did confirm them and we send confirmations out as we legally have to do

Q I guess the question is, as you sit there today, do you remember her asking for confirmation that the shares had been sold before year end?

MR BURCK: Objection, asked and answered.

THE COURT: He said several times he doesn't remember

BY MR DRY:

Q All right When you were before the grand jury, that was a while ago; is that true?

A Yes

Q Things were fresher in your mind than they are today?

A I think that's maybe so.

Q Well, in the grand jury were you asked, "Did she ask for confirmation that they had been sold before year end? Answer: Yes "

Do you remember giving that answer?

A I do

MR. DRY: Can I have that grand jury transcript back, please?

(Document proffered to counsel.)

BY MR. DRY:

Q Did Ms McDonnell ever talk to you about or in any way mention any tax implications, and that was the reason she wanted to sell the shares before year end?

A Not that I recall

Q Did you ever advise her, "Hey, you might want to sell these at a loss and then re-purchase them the next year for tax purposes"?

A Not that I recall

Q Okay That would be something you probably would recall, right?

MR. SMALL: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled.

BY MR DRY:

Q That would be something you would recall, right?

A I believe I would.

Q Okay Let's go to Government Exhibit 278, please Sir, is this an account statement for Ms McDonnell's account in January of 2012?

A Yes, it is

MR. DRY: Government moves for admission of 278, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q All right On the third page, this is probably redacted, but do you recall that that's --

MR DRY: We need him to unredact that one It is all right, Ms Taylor I think we have beaten that horse enough

BY MR. DRY:

Q Turning to the fifth page, can you go to the Purchases and Sale block, please? What does this reflect, sir?

A This reflects on January 20th of 2012 we purchased 6,672 shares of Star Scientific at a price of $2 29, rounded off, for a total cost of $15,276 88

Q Out of the sale proceeds from the December 20th sale, how much of the sale proceeds were used for this purpose?

A Most all of it

Q And who instructed you to repurchase the shares?

A Maureen McDonnell

Q Okay And how did that come about?

A I had a conversation with her at the beginning of the year where she had thought that the shares were going to be automatically bought back, and there was a miscommunication apparently between us when the sale was made prior, because I couldn't do that without talking to her first Probably my fault for not explaining it in more detail at the time because I know this is something she is not used to doing So the shares were purchased later than she expected that they were going to be purchased, but it worked to her advantage because the price had dropped further, she was able to buy them even cheaper, and buy more shares than she would have had.

Q Was she upset at you for not repurchasing the shares earlier in the year?

A She showed some frustration at the time that what she thought was going to happen didn't happen. But that was quickly relieved when she understood that it worked to her benefit

Q Okay At any point in your communications with Ms McDonnell about the repurchase, are tax implications being discussed?

A Not that I recall

Q Can we go out, please? What's the market value of the securities that she holds on this account statement, sir?

A At this time, the end of January, 2012, market value was $20,159 44.

Q Okay Can we bring up Government Exhibit 323

MR. DRY: Your Honor, these documents have been stipulated to as to authenticity It is an e-mail or text message between Ms McDonnell and Mr McDonnell The government would move Government Exhibit 323 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. DRY:

Q What's the date of this text message?

A February 22nd, 2012

Q And can you read the text, please?

A It says, "Jonnie texted me to say he needs our broker's name and phone number to transfer shares this week "

Q What time was listed in the text message?

A 1:19 in the morning

Q Do you recall having a telephone conversation with Mr and Ms McDonnell the day after this text message, February 23rd?

A I do

Q Okay

MR. DRY: I thought we moved for admission of 323 Can we publish that? Thank you.

BY MR DRY:

Q Can you tell the members of the jury how that call on February 23rd of 2012 came about?

A I believe Maureen had notified me that she and Bob were, wanted to have a conference call with me, and so that was set up and the call was made and I spoke to both Bob and Maureen on the phone

Q And going -- from your communications before getting on the call, did you understand why you were going to have a conference call with Mr and Ms McDonnell?

A I don't know that I fully understood that at the time

Q Okay I'm going to try and refresh your recollection This is Page 35, Lines 7 through 11

(Document proffered to witness)

(Witness perusing document)

A Okay Apparently at this time I did remember that that was the purpose of the call

Q What was the purpose of the call, sir?

A To discuss margin loans

Q Okay And just briefly, what's a margin loan?

A Margin loan is a loan against a security held at a brokerage firm. We are typically able to loan half the value of any security placed with us

Q Your conversation with Ms McDonnell going into this call, did she ever tell you, "Hey, Mr Piscitelli, don't tell Bob about the other transactions we have done"?

A No

Q Okay On the February 23rd, 2012 call, who is on the call?

A I believe just Bob and Maureen.

Q Okay And you are on one end?

A Uh-huh

Q Was it obvious to you that everybody could hear each other, that Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell could hear what each other were saying?

A Yes

Q And let's go through what Mr McDonnell told you during this call

A That they had some property in Sandbridge that was in need of repair, and asked if they moved shares of Star Scientific to an account with me, could money be borrowed against it And I told them that I would need to get an approval just because of the low share price, but I would get back to them on that

Q Did Mr McDonnell, at the early part of the call or at any point during the call, did he thank you for helping Maureen out?

A Yes, he did.

Q What was the context of that?

A He basically, I think he basically started the call by saying, "I understand you have been helping Maureen I just want to thank you "

Q And did Mr McDonnell tell you that Star Scientific was holding stock for him?

A I don't remember if he told me they were holding it or if it was a hypothetical, if they moved shares from there I don't know for certain All I knew is that we are talking about the possibility of shares being moved from Star Scientific to our firm.

Q Sir, in the grand jury, these are lines -- Page 36, Lines 8 through 10 The question is: "So the Governor is saying, Hey, Star Scientific is holding some stock for me?" What's your response?

A "Yes "

Q Okay

MR DRY: Can I have that back? I'm sorry

(Document proffered to counsel)

Sorry about making you go back and forth.

BY MR. DRY:

Q So when Mr McDonnell is raising this issue with you, what is he telling you is going to happen with the Star stock; what's the plan?

A He is asking if shares moved to us directly from Star Scientific, if we could make a loan against it And so I told him that that would be something I would need to get approval on, but -- yeah, that was it

Q Did it strike you as odd that a Governor would have a publicly traded company that would be holding stock for him?

A It was a bit puzzling

Q Did you ask Mr McDonnell to clarify what he meant when he said that Star Scientific was holding Star stock for him?

A No, and upon further reflection he may have not actually said, "They are holding it for me " But if we move shares to you, I never saw any statement or anything showing that he actually did hold it there

Q But sir, in the grand jury you were asked that and you used the word "holding," right?

A Yeah. You asked did the Governor say, "They have stock for me " The gist was, I believe, that they either had it or were going to have it Yes

Q Sir, why didn't you ask, you said that -- is it fair to say you were confused about what Mr McDonnell was saying? Will you give me that?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, you are confused You were asked, "Why didn't you seek clarification?" Right?

A At the time I wasn't really confused. All I knew was that there was some possibility that these shares would be transferred to me.

MR. DRY: Let's go to grand jury transcript Page 37, please. I'll get you a pinpoint cite in a second

(Document proffered to witness)

BY MR. DRY:

Q We are going to go through Lines 10 through 19 In the grand jury, sir, you were asked, "In fact, did you previously tell an investigator that you were confused about what was going on but did not ask questions because you did not really want to know what Bob and Maureen were up to? You figured Bob knew what was legal and was not your job to question why they were doing what they were doing Answer: Yes I figured if they have fully paid assets that are able to be transferred to us, that it really wasn't my business anything that went on before the assets coming into our account here "

Did you say that?

A Yes, that's correct

Q During that February 23rd, 2012 call, sir, did the subject of Mr and Ms McDonnell opening a new Davenport account, was that discussed?

A On that same conference call you are saying?

Q Yes

A I can't remember if it was on that call or a later call with Maureen to determine opening the second account

Q Okay In the grand jury, sir: Were you instructed --" in the context of that call, "did they talk about opening another account to accept these shares into it? Response: Yes, and we actually did open that account also in Maureen's name as an account number two, so to speak. And that account was opened Nothing ever was transacted in there, and it ultimately was closed."

Did you say that in the grand jury under oath?

A I did And under further reflection, I'm not sure if it was made on that call or a later call

Q Okay Let's go to grand jury transcript Page 50 then, Lines 9 through 20 Were you asked: "Also in reference to that call, which of the two of them, that is, Ms McDonnell or the Governor gave instructions that the account -- sorry guys -- that the account to which the shares should be transferred from Star to Davenport, who gave that instruction that the account should be in Ms McDonnell's name alone? Answer: I really don't remember Question: But was it discussed in that call that the new account would be in Maureen's name only? Answer: Yes, and somehow it was also discussed that it should be a segregated account from the initial one "

Did you say that in the grand jury?

A I did

Q Sir, do you recall during that call this idea of a segregated account being discussed? During the call with Mr and Ms McDonnell on February 23rd, 2012?

A At this point, I don't recall if it was on that call, but I do recall that we discussed that a second account, segregated account, was discussed

Q Grand jury transcript, Page 52, Lines 5 through 10 "Question: But do you recall that it was going to be a segregated -- the new account would be segregated in Maureen's name only? Answer: Correct Question: During the call with the Governor and First Lady Answer: Yes "

Did you say that, sir?

A Yes, I did

Q I think we talked a little bit about this margin loan idea Did you ultimately inform them that Davenport could actually loan them money?

A Yes, I did.

Q And did you have to do some checking before giving that answer?

A Yes, I had to get approval prior to that

Q And did you receive any instructions about what to do after you advised that you could do a margin loan on the Star shares?

A In the instructions from who?

Q Maureen McDonnell

A No Ultimately, it never happened.

Q Sir, grand jury, Page 36, we are going to have to do for context Lines 8 through 22 "Question: So the Governor is saying, Hey, Star Scientific is holding some stock for me? Answer: Yes Question: And what was he telling you was going to happen with that stock? Answer: Well, he was asking if they moved that into an account at Davenport, could it be borrowed against I had to do some checking, and it turns out we could have loaned them the money And so after that call, I replied to Maureen saying, yes, we're able to loan you the money if you decide to go through with this She had asked me to contact the chairman of Star Scientific and give him our instructions of how to transfer assets to us That was my only conversation with him."

A That's correct

Q Okay And the chairman of Star Scientific, sir, do you know what his name is?

A Jonnie Williams

Q And in fact, do you recall during the call itself Mr and Ms McDonnell, while they are both on the call, asked you to reach out to Mr Williams?

A Yes, I believe they gave me his phone number at that point

Q Okay Let's go to Government Exhibit 327, please Do you recall seeing this document before, sir? Let's do it this way: Is this an e-mail from Ms McDonnell to you with an attachment?

A Yes

Q Okay, sir And that was sent on February 24th, 2012?

A Yes

MR. DRY: Government moves for admission of Government's 327, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. DRY:

Q What's the time of this e-mail, sir?

A Looks like roughly 9:25 in the morning

Q And that's your e-mail account, right, jpiscitelli?

A Yes

Q And Ms McDonnell writes what to you there? Do you see the "Here you go"?

A Yes

Q Okay Is there an attachment to this document? Does it say an attachment?

A Does look like there is an attachment

Q Turn to the second page Do you recognize this document?

A Yes

Q What is it?

A It is, again, a Cash Agreement to open an account with Davenport

Q Whose signature is on the bottom right-hand corner?

A Maureen McDonnell

Q What's it dated?

A February 24th, 2012

Q Why is Ms McDonnell sending you another account opening signature page?

A For what we had discussed, the possibility of transferring shares in from Star Scientific directly

Q Was this going to be a joint account?

A No.

Q Whose name was it going to be in?

A Again, just Maureen McDonnell

Q All right Relating to -- and that was because that had been discussed and instructed in the call with Ms McDonnell and Mr McDonnell, right?

A According to the grand jury testimony, that's what I remembered at the time At this point, I don't recall that

Q Okay, sir To be clear, your memory was much better in the grand jury than it is here today; is that accurate?

A I would say that's accurate

Q Okay Let's go to Government Exhibit 328, please

Do you recall sending this e-mail to Ms McDonnell?

A I do

Q That was on February 24th, 2012?

A Uh-huh

MR. DRY: Government moves for the admission of Government's 328 into evidence.

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR DRY:

Q What's the subject line on this?

A "An article from Seeking Alpha has been sent to you "

Q Now, this is a different e-mail address that you were e-mailing this from, right?

A Yes This, actually, was sent directly from the Seeking Alpha website, where you clink on a link to say send this to a friend, but you have to put your e-mail address in there as sender

Q Were you allowed to send a document like this from your work account?

A I would normally not send a client a document like this from my work account But in this case, this was warning a friend about who they might be getting involved in --

Q Okay

A -- involved with

Q Let's talk a little bit about that What was the purpose of you sending this e-mail to Ms McDonnell?

A Well, upon getting approval of being able to borrow against the potential transfer stock to us, someone had tipped me off that, hey, there are some things about this company that you might want to know about and led me to this blog, if you will, talking about Star Scientific and, you know, some of the dubious forecasts the company has had and some not-so-nice things to say about Jonnie Williams And so I just wanted to make sure that she knew who she might be getting involved with

Q Okay Is it fair to say it's a warning?

A Yes

Q The McDonnells are your friends You just want to say, "Hey, take a look at this"?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 326, please

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recall seeing this document before sir?

MR DRY: You might need to blow it up a little bit, at least at the top

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recall seeing this, sir?

A Yes

Q What is it?

A This is the Account Data Sheet for the second account for Maureen McDonnell

Q Okay This was still listing the 5913 Leabrook Way?

A Yes

Q And that's where the account statements would be sent to?

A Yes

Q Still has the joint household income listed?

A Yes I believe all the information was copied from the information on the first account

Q And the "Account Registration" block, do you see that?

A Yes

Q Okay What's listed as the "Initial Transaction"? What's listed next to it? It's in the "Account Registration" block, right-hand side at the very bottom So the second block, right-hand side

A Oh, deposit of stock

Q And that was -- that was your understanding of what this account was to be opened for?

A Yes

MR DRY: Going to the second page -- I'm sorry Move for government's admission of 326 and published to the jury

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR DRY: Just one second, Your Honor

BY MR DRY:

Q Bottom right-hand corner, whose signature is that?

A Maureen McDonnell

Q And that's just the same document that had been earlier e-mailed to you, right?

A Yes

Q That page?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 348 This has already been admitted.

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recognize this document, sir?

A Yes

Q And who is that from, and who is it to?

A It's to me from Jonnie Williams

Q And let's -- what are you providing him here?

A Our transfer instructions to be able to either move securities or cash to us

Q Okay And how would -- with these transfer instructions, could somebody just give you a stock certificate? Could they just come to Davenport and say, "Hey, here you go Here's the stock certificates"?

Would these transfer instructions be related to that type of transaction in any way?

A It would be different It would accomplish the same thing Someone could deposit a stock certificate directly in our branch

But this was an actual transfer through what's called DTC, or the Depository Trust Company, which is how most investment firms transfer securities between each other

Q Well, just so I'm clear, is this going to be basically a wire transfer of shares? You're instructing Mr Williams on how to wire transfer shares into this account; is that right?

A Essentially, yes

Q Okay Now, if I were to take a stock certificate and it had my name on it, could I just give it to you, and then you would transfer it in the McDonnells' account?

A Wait Can you repeat that?

Q Sure If I had a stock certificate -- well, let's just do it this way If there was a stock certificate in Mr Williams' name, could he just hand you the stock certificate and you would just put it in Ms McDonnell's account?

A I couldn't do that without -- if it was a physical certificate, I could not do that without a letter of authorization

Q Or a stock power? Is that what they're called sometimes?

A That would accomplish that too, right

Q Okay And had you talked to Mr Williams before this?

A No I had one brief conversation, and that was only to let him know that my understanding was that he was sending us some shares of Star Scientific and needed our transfer instructions And he just asked could I e-mail them to him, and he gave me his e-mail address That was the total extent of the conversation

Q Okay So how long did that last?

A A couple minutes

Q Okay And that was all you remember him saying?

A That was it

Q Okay Now, going down to the fourth line of this, which account is this going into?

A This would have been that newest account of Maureen McDonnell, account number two

Q The segregated one?

A Yes

Q Did Mr Williams ever transfer any stock into this account?

A No He never did

Q Did you have a subsequent conversation with Ms McDonnell about the transfers of securities into that account?

A Yes Some time had gone by, so I asked her was she still -- was this still planning to happen, and she responded, "No We've decided to go another way "

Q Okay Did you ask what they were going to do? What the other way was?

A No She provided no details, and I didn't ask her

Q Why didn't you ask her?

A It was not my business

Q Were you relieved?

A Relieved is a good word Yes

Q Okay. Do you recall talking to Mr McDonnell on March 6th of 2011?

A I don't recall No

Q Let me see if I can refresh your recollection

I'm sorry. '12. March 6 of 2012 I was trying to refresh your recollection about something that didn't happen So let's try it this way

March 6th of 2012, did you talk to Mr McDonnell for three minutes?

A I don't recall that I might have been calling to leave him a message on his cell phone, saying that we were able to get approval of this stock, if it was around that time period But otherwise, I don't remember a conversation

Q Okay Fair enough Did you talk a lot to Mr McDonnell?

A No He was a little too busy for me to have conversations often w[illegible] him

MR DRY: L[illegible]s go to Government's Exhibit 368

BY MR DRY:

Q Is this the Davenport statement for April through -- April 1st through June 30th of 2012?

A Yes, it is

MR DRY: Move for admission of Government's Exhibit 368, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q On the first page of this -- was that on the first page?

MR DRY: Do you need me to give you a little time? First page of the account statement

Oh Again, we'll just let the jury do this one as far as the address

Turning to the last page of the exhibit

BY MR DRY:

Q What are the number of shares owned at this point?

A 6,672 shares

Q And what's the market value of the shares?

A $30,424 32

Q So it had gone up?

A Yes

Q Now, to be clear, though, I mean, to be fair, when it says unrealized gain of $15,000, that's just the gain from the prior purchase, right?

A Right The entire market value was still below where she initially invested.

Q It's roughly, ballpark, the same, not --

A It's close

Q Okay

MR. DRY: Let go to Government's Exhibit 443, please.

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recall seeing this e-mail before, sir?

A Yes, I do

Q And this is an e-mail from you to Ms McDonnell on December 21st of 2012, correct?

A That's correct

MR DRY: Government moves for admission of Government's Exhibit 443 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q Now, right there in the second paragraph --

A It disappeared

Q I'm sorry?

A It disappeared

Q Oh, it disappeared?

A Okay

Q Right there in the second paragraph, you write, "Regarding our conversation today, attached are the two forms needed for each kid to sign to open an account "

Did you have a conversation on that day with Ms McDonnell?

A Yes, I did

Q And what did Ms McDonnell say during the call?

A That she was ready to transfer shares as gifts to her children. And I told her I would spell out again in an e-mail and attach the forms of exactly what we would need to do to make that happen

Q And did she tell you how quickly she wanted it to happen?

A Yes She said she wanted this accomplished by year-end

Q And was she adamant that the shares be transferred before year-end?

A Yes She -- I was -- I understood that that's -- that was her wishes

Q And at the time, was she adamant that they be transferred before year-end to avoid reporting requirements?

A That was my understanding as to why we needed to do it by year-end

Q I'm sorry, sir I just want to make it clear Did she -- did you get that understanding from your conversation with Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q That it was -- she wanted it done before year-end, right?

A Yes

Q And it was to avoid reporting requirements, right?

A That's my understanding Yes

Q She told you that?

A Yes.

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go -- let's go -- I need that document back It's okay.

BY MR DRY:

Q In this you say, "Lastly, just a signed note from you requesting that shares of Star Scientific be distributed from your account, listing for each quantity of shares and for whom "

What is she telling you? I think before you talked about, well, she wanted them sold and then repurchased Are we doing that again or are we doing something new?

A Now she's actually gifting the shares, which I think was the original intent of buying the shares to begin with, finally accomplishing the fact of gifting these shares

Initially, I believe that she wanted to gift shares to her daughter Cailin as a wedding gift, and mentioned at the time, "I think I want to do equal shares" -- "or equal amounts to all the kids I don't know when any of them may get married in the future "

And so we're finally accomplishing this

Q Well, let's talk about that for a second Did she tell you that -- because you just said "married in the future "

Didn't Ms McDonnell tell you that her plan was to gift shares to the kids upon their marriage?

A No, not that I recall

Q So early back in 2011, she didn't tell you that when she was talking about gifting shares, "Hey, I'm going to" -- "when the kids get married, then I'm going to gift them shares"?

A No I don't believe that -- I don't believe that was the way she put it

Q Okay In this, you're asking about -- what forms are you sending?

A The standard new account forms that -- similar to what Maureen signed to open her account, the children would have to sign similar forms for accounts -- for shares to be moved into their names

Q And was she saying that she wanted to gift all the shares to the children or was she going to keep shares?

A My belief was that she was going to keep some portion of it

Q Okay And did she tell you how much she wanted to keep?

A I don't recall at this time that she did

Q Okay

MR DRY: Well, let's go to Government's Exhibit 450, please

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recall seeing this document, sir?

A Yes

Q Now, this is a letter from Ms McDonnell to you?

A Yes

MR DRY: Government moves Government's Exhibit 450 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q Is this the letter that you had requested in that earlier communication?

A It is

Q That's the authorization letter, right?

A Yes

Q Okay And just so I'm clear, whose handwriting is this?

A I believe it's Maureen McDonnell's

Q And can you read what she wrote there, because I'm having trouble with it?

A "Dear, John This is to request that $5,000 shares of Star Scientific, Inc to be distributed from my account and equally divided between my five children "

Q And at this point, she had about 6,700 shares?

A Roughly

Q Okay So this was going to leave approximately 1,700 shares?

A Just under that, I believe

Q Okay. Now, as of the date of this letter, were your instructions that had to be accomplished before year-end from Ms McDonnell?

A Well, when we receive instructions like this, we have to -- we have to immediately act on them

Q So as of the date of this letter, you knew, hey, we've got to get this done before year-end?

A Yes

Q And that was from your conversation with Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Okay Did you receive text messages from Ms McDonnell regarding checking in to see whether this was going to get accomplished before year-end?

A I believe so

Q Do you have those text messages?

A No I don't keep them

Q Do you have the phone that the text messages were on?

A I'm not sure if the current phone I have now is the one that I was using at the time

Q You don't know? But you're not hiding them, are you?

A No No I would not do that

Q Can you tell the members of the jury about those text messages?

A I really don't recall anything about them

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to grand jury exhibit -- pages 46, 47, starting with line 13

I'm almost done, Your Honor Sorry

BY MR. DRY:

Q I just want to try and refresh your recollection, sir

A Yes What page?

Q We're on page 46, and I think we're on line 13 It keeps going You talk about how it's characterized All the way to the bottom and the top of the next page

A Oh, okay

Okay I do recall now

Q Do you recall in those text messages, sir, that Ms McDonnell was expressing a little frustration? Do you recall that?

A Yes

Q And that she was trying to get everything from the kids collected and gotten to you, right?

A That's correct

Q And you needed driver license photos, right?

A Yes

Q And you needed the account statements, right?

A Uh-huh Yes

Q Was that coming in as quick as Ms McDonnell wanted?

A Not for all the kids

Q Okay Fair enough

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 452, please

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recall -- this is an account statement for January 1st through January 31st, right?

A Yes

Q And is the address the same as it had been for the other accounts or for the other statements?

A No It looks like the address is now a post office box

Q Do you recall how it got changed?

A I do not

Q And do you know what that post office box is?

A I do not

Q You have no idea?

A I have no idea

Q Okay Let's go -- I think it's on the -- yeah What's the value from the last statement there, sir?

A Current -- from the -- value from the last statement, which would have been the prior statement to this, was $17,883 67

Q What was the current value?

A $3,513 91

Q And just to be clear, that would be the account value as of -- the 17,000 would have been the account value as of year-end 2013?

A Yes

MR DRY: I'm sorry I'd like to move Government's Exhibit 452 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR DRY: Published to the jury

BY MR DRY:

Q And just so we're clear, as of this document, the value from account -- value from last statement would be $17,883, right?

A Yes

Q I'm not trying to trick you I'm going to let you explain how this worked out Okay?

A Okay

Q But the current value as of January 31st, 2013, was what?

A $3,513 91

Q Okay And then turning to the sixth page of the exhibit, how many shares does Ms McDonnell own as of January 31st, 2013?

A 1,672 shares

Q Now let's go back to the other activity, and you can explain how it came to be Okay?

A Okay.

MR DRY: No No Back to Page 6 There's an "Other Activity" log

BY MR DRY:

Q Okay So just tell the members of the jury what happened that it came to be that the shares were transferred I believe as of 12/31/12

A Right Because the information we needed to open these accounts, some were coming late in the day on the 31st, and this was the last day of the year So a lot of our back office staff was already gone for the holidays We weren't able to accomplish actually moving the shares on the 31st So the first business day of January, we moved the shares with an as-of date, which is the standard way to show that legally and for tax purposes, that it was actually done at year-end We received instructions, the letter of authorization, prior to year-end, and we actually did receive all the forms and instructions from the children to accomplish it, but --

Q And it's not unusual for people that sell shares at the end of one year and buy shares at the -- or at the beginning of the next, right? That's not unusual?

A It's unusual to do it quickly Mostly they will wait 30 days to avoid the wash sale rule where --

Q Well, let's talk about that a little bit Not too much But in your discussions with Ms McDonnell around this transaction, was there any discussion of tax implications?

A Not that I recall

Q Any discussion about capital gains, implications for these transactions?

A You know, I may have, but I don't recall at this point

Q Okay And you said the wash sale rule Something has to be held for 30 days?

A Well, if you sell a stock, in order -- at a loss, in order to write that loss off your taxes, you need to have not bought it back for 30 -- for at least 30 days

Q And did you have any discussions with Ms McDonnell about that?

A I may have, but I don't recall at this point

Q And when you say you may have, do you recall explaining something as technical as wash sale rules to Ms McDonnell?

A I'm sure if I tried to explain it, I would have not used the term "wash sale "

Q Let's do it this way.

A Okay

Q When Ms McDonnell talked to you about the sale and repurchase in 2012, did you say to her, "Hey, Ms McDonnell, we need to actually wait 30 days Sorry you told me to buy it back, you know, as soon as it was available, but I'm waiting 30 days for the wash sale rule"?

A Yeah No And that's not my call to be able to do that

Q Okay All right

THE COURT: All right We're going to have to --

MR DRY: I've got like four questions left, and I'll get out of here, or you can stop me now Your choice, Judge.

THE COURT: Well, you said a few minutes ago you were almost finished, and we're still here Go ahead If you have four questions that can be dealt with, go ahead and finish

BY MR DRY:

Q Throughout Ms McDonnell's transactions in this Davenport account, did she ever trade any stock other than Star Scientific?

A No

Q And in any of your communications with Ms McDonnell about the transfer of Star Scientific stock to the children, did she ever raise anything about the reasoning for the transactions to be done before year-end other than the reporting requirements?

A Not that I --

Q That you remember?

A Not that I remember

MR DRY: One moment, Your Honor

I got it done in two

THE COURT: All right Okay We'll take 15 minutes, and then we'll come back and try to finish this up

(Recess taken from 4:20 p m until 4:39 p m)

THE COURT: Cross?

MR SMALL: Thank you, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR SMALL:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Piscitelli

A Good afternoon

Q I'm Dan Small We met, I think, day before yesterday; is that right, sir?

A We did

Q I represent Governor McDonnell in this case

First, you were asked about the birthday party recently for the Governor and his wife Do you recall those questions?

A I do

Q And you testified that for pretty much the entire party they were separate, in different parts of the room Do you recall that?

A It was an outdoor event But separate for most of the event

Q Different parts of the yard, really?

A Right.

Q Okay But they did do a dance together, right?

A They did

Q Do you recall, actually, that their daughter Cailin surprised them by calling them up and sort of challenging them to do a dance together?

A I do remember that

Q And that's how that happened, right?

A That's correct Yes

Q And they -- at their daughter's request, they had a dance together, right?

A Yes

Q The -- going back to June 1st of 2011, the first call you had with Maureen McDonnell about Star Scientific You were asked about -- asked questions about that, correct?

A Yes

Q And am I correct that it was very clear to you -- well, first of all, Bob McDonnell wasn't on that call, right?

A He was not

Q And as far as you know, he had no idea that call was made, right?

A Not to my knowledge

Q And you never talked to him about it, right?

A No

Q In fact, I think you testified that given the rules, it would be illegal for you to talk to one spouse about another spouse's stock transactions unless they both agreed?

A That's correct

Q Okay But regardless, it was clear to you that this was very much Maureen's thing, right?

A She made it clear that the account was to be in her name only So --

Q And you knew that she had a long history of interest in nutraceuticals, right?

A Oh, yes From way back

Q And this kind of fit right in, didn't it?

A It did

Q In fact, I think you made a comment that -- earlier, it might be the grand jury, that she showed kind of the same excitement that she had for other nutraceutical products; is that correct?

A Oh, she did Yes

Q And she was -- you made another comment that she had drunk the Kool-Aid, right?

A So to speak, yes

Q Okay And she said something to you that the product was going to revolutionize the world, right?

A Maybe not in those exact words But that was kind of the gist I think she was excited by the potential of the products

Q So this was very much her thing, right?

A Yes

Q It was not Bob's thing, right?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: He's already told us --

MR SMALL: Okay

THE COURT: -- once We don't need to know about --

MR. SMALL: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR SMALL:

Q The -- you testified that over the phone she gave you some rough financial information, right?

A That's my recollection

Q And she said something about, "Well, I've got to check with Bob to get other information"?

A That's right

Q You have no knowledge whether or not she, in fact, did that, right?

A I do not.

Q But she said she gave you -- at some point, she gave you that Post-it --

A Yes

Q -- that you showed us?

A Yes

Q And you have no knowledge -- the Post-it is in her writing, right?

A I believe it is

Q You have no knowledge where that information came from?

A No

Q In fact, fair to say that the Post-it actually doesn't make much sense, does it, sir?

MR SMALL: Can we call up Exhibit 634, please?

A I don't understand what you mean by that

BY MR SMALL:

Q What?

A I don't understand what you mean by "it doesn't make sense "

Q What does the last line on this mean?

A Oh. Net minus real estate

Q Do you have any idea what that means?

A That would normally imply to me that that's liquid net worth, which is your net worth minus real estate, which is typically illiquid

However, there are other illiquid assets Art, for instance, collectibles That kind of thing

Q Do you have any knowledge that the McDonnells were art collectors?

A No, I don't

Q So is it fair to say that that doesn't make much sense in this context?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: I think he answered the question It makes sense to him It, obviously, doesn't make sense to you Let's ask another question

MR SMALL: Okay

BY MR SMALL:

Q Now, on August 2nd, there was another smaller purchase, right?

A Yes

Q And you testified that that was to round up shares to divvy up among the children; is that right?

A I thought -- I thought, at the time, it might have been the reason But in reflection of that, I don't know that that was the case. It may have just been she had a couple extra thousand dollars to invest

Q Well, didn't you testify to the grand jury -- I know we've heard a lot about the grand jury

A Uh-huh

Q But didn't you testify that that's, in fact --

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor I'd like to know where we're at in the grand jury.

MR SMALL: Certainly Page 18, line 21

BY MR SMALL:

Q Didn't you testify that "I believe she wanted to round up the amount of dollars that were in this investment and the reasoning All I can remember is that she was trying to divvy up some of the money among her children and was trying to make it as even as possible "

A As I was reflecting at the time, that was what came to mind

Q Okay And you went on to say, "That's the only reason I can remember why she did this"?

A Yes

Q Okay And, again, in August when she bought this extra -- was it 522 shares, Bob McDonnell wasn't involved in that transaction, was he?

A No, he was not

Q And you have no reason to believe he was aware of it?

MR DRY: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR SMALL:

Q You didn't talk to him about it?

A I did not talk to him about it

Q You talked about the letter on September 9th that you wrote to Ms McDonnell, correct?

A Yes

Q You didn't write that to Bob McDonnell, right?

A No

Q You never talked to Bob McDonnell about that letter?

A No

Q Did she mention at all -- you talked about reporting You said you didn't know much about the state reporting requirements, correct?

A I still don't, really

Q You're a lucky man Did she mention at all whether the state reporting requirements would require her to disclose these transactions to her husband, to Bob?

A No She didn't go into any detail about the explanation of why And, frankly, I wasn't concerned with why Just executing what she was asking me to do

Q So you don't know whether or not she was trying to hide these transactions from Mr McDonnell?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR. SMALL:

Q The next transaction on December 19th, you had a call, you said, with Ms McDonnell, correct?

A Yes

Q Again, same question Bob McDonnell wasn't on that call, was he?

A He was not

Q You never talked to him about it?

A I did not

Q Ms McDonnell never said that she had talked to him about it?

A She did not tell me that, no

Q And then there was this -- you repurchased -- or you purchased other stock in January, right?

A Yes

Q Bob McDonnell wasn't involved in that, right?

A He was not

Q A month or so later, there was this phone call about margin loans, right?

A Yes

Q Nothing wrong with margins, right? Nothing illegal about margin loans?

A No Not -- no

Q And you testified that you -- you all do them fairly often, right?

A We are able to accommodate someone who wants to borrow money against securities that are held with us

Q And you testified that Bob McDonnell thanked you, in some fashion, for helping Maureen in some way in the past, right?

A Yes

Q But it's true, isn't it, that Bob McDonnell never mentioned that he knew that she owned Star Scientific stock? Correct?

A That's correct

Q It's also true that he never mentioned that she had been transacting that stock with you, correct?

A That's correct

Q It was just a general thank you?

A He knew I had a brokerage account for her He knew I was doing some business with her, but no details were ever discussed

Q Okay And certainly no details as to Star Scientific, correct?

A Correct

Q And -- so you had this call about a margin, and then nothing came of it, right?

A That's correct

Q In fact, am I correct that the next call -- phone call of any length you had with Bob McDonnell wasn't until December 19th of 2012?

A I'm not exactly sure, but that --

Q Do you recall having -- you and your wife having a lengthy call --

A Oh

Q I'm sorry I interrupted you

A I do recall the date now

Q Okay And what was discussed about Star Scientific in that call?

A Nothing

Q What was discussed about any stock in that call?

A Nothing That -- that was -- that was a call where Bob had called the house My wife, the day before, had had a mastectomy, had surgery And he had found out about it and called for support

I answered the phone and maybe might have talked for a minute, and then handed it to my wife, who basically spoke to him for the remainder of the call

Q Well, that call was 21 minutes long How long did he talk to your wife?

A About -- approximately 20 of those minutes

MR DRY: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained

MR SMALL: One moment, Your Honor

Thank you, Mr Piscitelli Nothing further

THE COURT: Mr Burck

MR BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BURCK:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Piscitelli

A Good afternoon

Q I'm Bill Burck, and I represent Maureen McDonnell

Now, I know that Mr Small, he mentioned that he had met with you before?

A Yes

Q Have you and I ever met?

A We never have

Q Ever spoken?

A Never spoken

Q I just have a few questions for you

A Yes

Q From the very beginning -- I think you testified that from the very beginning, in June of 2011 when Maureen McDonnell contacted you about buying the Star Scientific stock, that she was always telling you she wanted to gift it to the children; is that right?

A That was my understanding Yes

Q And that was from June 2011 right through to December 2012?

A Yes

Q And the September 9th letter That's grand jury exhibit -- excuse me, Government Exhibit 240

MR BURCK: Can you please pull that up?

BY MR BURCK:

Q I just want to talk briefly about the conversations you had with Ms McDonnell leading up to this letter?

A Uh-huh

Q Fair to say that she's not a sophisticated stock purchaser or investor?

A I'd say that's fair

Q And she had -- had you ever actually purchased stock for her before?

A No Never before this

Q Did you have a sense, when you were speaking to her, that she knew what she was doing?

A No And that's one of the reasons I wrote the letter, because I knew she really didn't understand how this worked, and I was trying to help her accomplish what I thought she wanted to accomplish

Q In the conversations you had with her leading up to this letter, is it fair to say that a lot of what she said didn't make much sense to you?

A I wouldn't say a lot of what she said didn't make sense Maybe some of it just because she -- of her lack of understanding

Q Okay And would it be fair to say that she asked you a lot of different questions, and that's one of the reasons why you had to write this letter?

A Yes It was -- it was -- it was really too much for one to understand over the phone And I would say if they were even sophisticated, I would have preferred to write a letter like this to explain all the details of what we're trying to accomplish

Q And I recognize this letter says --

MR BURCK: And if you scroll to the bottom of it, please There's a paragraph, the last paragraph on that page

BY MR BURCK:

Q It says, "I don't have the answer about how to avoid shares remaining in your name without transferring them to another entity "

A Uh-huh

Q "You had mentioned the use of a blind trust "

Do you recall -- this letter doesn't say anything about reporting requirements, does it?

A No, it does not

Q And it does not use those words at all?

A No, it does not

Q Did Ms McDonnell mention to you, in December of 2011, when she sold the stock, that she had a training class on December 19th at the Mansion about SOEI requirements?

A I don't recall that

Q Now, you mentioned and you testified about the fact that you didn't think this was a good stock, right?

A Yes One that has no earnings you would have to consider more speculative and more of a gamble than an investment

Q Right You thought it was an inappropriate stock for her?

A I wouldn't use the word "inappropriate " But I did warn her that it was speculative And I'm careful not to talk someone out of a stock

Q Right

A Because one out of a hundred may work And I don't want to be the one that forever is known to not let them buy their winning lottery ticket So all I can do is warn them against the risk of it

Q Okay And you sent her an article? I think you testified to that article on that?

A Yes

Q And the article wasn't introduced into evidence, but the article appeared, based on the document, to suggest it was a risky investment?

A Right It was a negative article about the company

Q Okay And that was in early 2012, right, that you sent that article?

A Yes I believe so

MR BURCK: And could you please put up Government Exhibit 452 And please turn to the -- it's Page 4 of 5 on that exhibit Page 4 of 5 It would be two more pages down Thanks

And then can you blow up the part of the page that says 1,672, Star Scientific? Actually, I'm sorry. It's further up Perfect

BY MR BURCK:

Q And that's the number of shares that Ms McDonnell had as of January 31st, 2013; is that right?

A That's correct

MR BURCK: You can take that down, please

I'd ask you to show just the witness RM-2047 And can you please turn to Page 6 Actually, it's Page 4 of 4 It's the very last page of the document Blow that up And, actually, if you can -- actually, the whole page would be fine Thanks

BY MR BURCK:

Q If you look at this document, do you recognize this as a Davenport statement to Ms McDonnell?

A Yes, I do

MR BURCK: Your Honor, we'd offer RM-2047

MR DRY: No objection

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BURCK: Could you blow up the --

BY MR BURCK:

Q This is dated January 1st, 2014, through March 31st, 2014, this statement? Mr Piscitelli, the date is right up there

A Yes January 1st, 2014, through March 31st, 2014

Q So this is her statement from earlier this year?

A Yes That's correct

Q And can you tell us how much stock she owned as of early this year?

A In shares, 1,672

Q That's the same that she had when she transferred -- after she had transferred the stock to her children?

A That's correct

MR BURCK: And just one more document Can you take that down, please RM-2046, just for the witness to identify

BY MR BURCK:

Q And, sir --

MR BURCK: Are you going to Page 5 or Page 6? Okay Perfect

BY MR BURCK:

Q Do you see that document? This is also a statement from Davenport of Maureen McDonnell's?

A Yes

MR BURCK: Your Honor, we'd offer RM-2046

MR. DRY: No objection

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BURCK: Can you blow up the date, first, please, at the top of the page for Mr Piscitelli

BY MR BURCK:

Q And that is dated April 1st to June 30th of this year?

A That's correct

Q So about a month and change ago?

A Yes That's correct

Q Can you tell us how much stock she owned as of that date?

A The same quantity of shares, 1,672 shares

Q So is it your understanding she had not sold the shares or done anything with the shares since January of 2013?

MR BURCK: That's it, Your Honor Thank you

THE COURT: Redirect?

MR DRY: Very briefly, Your Honor

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR DRY:

Q Mr Piscitelli, do you remember being interviewed by law enforcement I believe on June 21st, 2013?

A Yes, I do

Q And do you remember talking about whether Ms McDonnell was a sophisticated investor or not?

A Yes, I do

Q And do you remember telling law enforcement that Ms McDonnell might not have been a sophisticated investor, but you thought she was a smart woman?

A I believe that was the case Yes

Q Sir, I think it was Mr Small asked you about the sticky note And we don't need to bring that back up But as you sit here today, your June 1st conversation with Ms McDonnell opening the account, did she have that information on the sticky note when you asked her for that information in that first call?

A No

Q And she told you she was going to get that from who?

A From Bob

Q Sir, when you mailed that September 9th, 2011, letter to Ms McDonnell, did you mail it to her address that was with Mr and Ms McDonnell, their home address?

A That was the address we had on record So yes

Q And in your mind, as you sit there today, is there any ambiguity or confusion on your part that Ms McDonnell wanted the shares of Star Scientific out of her name by year-end 2011 and 2012?

A I believe that was the case

MR DRY: Nothing further

THE COURT: All right Thank you, sir You may stand down

THE WITNESS: Thank you

THE COURT: We'll stop there

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: All right Ladies and gentlemen, we made it through another week I don't know about you, but I'm really thanking God it's Friday Friday is here I want you all to abide by my earlier admonition Please don't discuss the case with anyone, and please don't review any media items relating to this case

THE COURT: All right Let's bring in the jury

(The jury entered the courtroom.)

Good morning All right, government, call your next witness, please.

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, the United States calls Martin Kent

MARTIN KENT,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Good morning

A Good morning

Q Could you please state your name and spell your last for the court reporter?

A Martin Kent, K-E-N-T

Q What city do you currently live in?

A Bristol, Tennessee

Q Could you briefly tell the jury a little bit about your educational background, Mr Kent?

A I can. I graduated from the University of Richmond and I attended law school at the Mercer University School of Law in Macon, Georgia

Q Where are you currently employed?

A At The United Company

Q What is The United Company?

A It is a private diversified investment company primarily focused on art, entertainment, and energy

Q Before working at the United Company, where did you work? I worked for Governor Bob McDonnell as his Chief of Staff

Q How long did you work as Mr McDonnell's Chief of Staff?

A Four years

Q Was that the entire Administration?

A It was

Q Now, before Mr McDonnell took office as Governor, where did you work?

A I worked at the Office of the Attorney General, and started working there in 2001

Q By the time that Mr McDonnell left the Office of the Attorney General, what was your role?

A When he left the Office of Attorney General in 2009 to run for Governor, I was then serving as Chief Counsel to the Attorney General

Q As Chief Counsel to him while he was Attorney General, what were your general responsibilities?

A Primarily dealing with the General Assembly, dealing with the Governor's Office, I was a directly liaison to the Governor's Office, and then representation of state boards and commissions

Q Now, as Chief of Staff for Mr McDonnell when he was Governor, what were your responsibilities then?

A They are actually spelled out by an executive order, Executive Order 3 Primarily, I was the Deputy Budget and Personnel Officer for the Commonwealth, and I was responsible for overseeing sort of the daily work of the Governor's Cabinet

Q Would it be fair to characterize you as sort of the catch-all guy?

A Pretty much, yeah.

Q As Chief of Staff, who did you report to?

A The Governor

Q Given that you reported to him directly, how often would you say you spoke to him?

A There were days we spoke multiple times, and then when he was traveling there were days that we may communicate by text message or e-mail, but at least daily in some communication mode

Q If Mr McDonnell told you to do something when he was Governor, would you do it?

A Absolutely

Q So was he your boss?

A He was my boss, yup

Q I'd like to get a little bit of a sense, we have heard some testimony about it, but since you were Chief of Staff, I'd like to get a sense of who else was in the office and how things were structured. Can you explain how many Cabinet Secretaries there were?

A There were 12 official, and when I say official, the Governor by executive order also made some appointments that were Cabinet-level positions, but there were 12 primary Cabinet positions when we started in office

Q All those Cabinet Secretaries, did they have subordinate staff of their own?

A They did.

Q Do you recognize the name Dr Bill Hazel?

A I do

Q Which Cabinet Secretary was he?

A Health and Human Resources

Q Do you recognize the name Molly Huffstetler?

A I do.

Q Who was Molly Huffstetler?

A She worked for Dr Hazel We had, early on, actually it predated the Administration, but the Affordable Care Act was passed into law and we developed an initiative called the Health Reform Initiative, which really the design of that was sort of to oversee Virginia's implementation of the Affordable Care Act And she was in essence the director of that initiative

Q Do you recognize the name Lisa Hicks-Thomas?

A I do

Q Who was Lisa Hicks-Thomas?

A The Secretary of Administration.

Q How about the name Sara Wilson?

A I do

Q Who was Sara Wilson?

A She was the Director of Human Resource Management

Q Who did Sara Wilson report to?

A To Lisa

Q Ms Hicks-Thomas?

A Lisa Hicks-Thomas I apologize

Q Who did she report to?

A She reported through me to the Governor

Q Each of these people -- sorry, you have talked a little bit about Cabinet Secretaries Could you tell us the difference between the Cabinet Secretaries and what sort of is referred to as the Office of the Governor itself?

A Sure Probably it is easiest to give you sort of a visual of the way the office is structured at the Patrick Henry Building In what we called the pod, which was the area directly where the Governor's Office was and my office was, and then immediately on each side of that were staff members They could be anything from our communications shop to our policy and legal shop, scheduling, anything legislatively-related. Those were staff members that were sort of contained within the unit called the Governor's Office But the Governor's Office is actually made up of not only those staff members, but the secretariats which are around the building, so to speak, at the Patrick Henry Building

Q Now, how did the Mansion staff relate to the Governor's Office?

A The Mansion staff also reported to the Governor's Office ultimately But they were sort of self-contained at the Mansion They had offices at the Mansion They did not have offices at our office at the Patrick Henry Building

Q The staff that were at the Mansion, were those state employees?

A They were

Q Would that include Mary-Shea Sutherland and Sarah Scarbrough?

A It did

Q All of those people, including those at the Mansion, who did they ultimately report to?

A Ultimately reported to the Governor

Q Now, in your job, was it also common for some of those staffers to relay information to you from either Mr McDonnell or Ms McDonnell?

A That did happen, yes

Q I'd like to talk a little bit now about sort of what happened on a routine basis within the office and some of the Administration's priorities Based on your interactions with Mr McDonnell as his Chief of Staff, and the things that he asked you to do, can you tell us where on the Administration's list of priorities the matter of Virginia business and economic development was?

A It was at the top of the list. I would say it was probably only second to public safety

Q During your time in the Administration, how common was it for Mr McDonnell to talk about promoting Virginia business and economic development?

A Did it on a daily basis

Q How common was it for your day-to-day work to relate to furthering those issues?

A I did so on a daily basis as well

Q I'd like to take a couple examples about sort of breaking down how that would work. How common was it for the Governor's Mansion to host events to promote Virginia business and economic development?

A It was very common I think staff, long time staff members at the Mansion had commented to me that we probably had more events at the Mansion than any other administration they could recall

Q How common was it for you or other government employees to participate in planning those events?

A It was common.

Q Would that include people like Sarah Scarbrough?

A It would. Actually, her primary job, or one of her primary jobs as Mansion Director, was to coordinate that to send out invitations, to ensure that the bills were paid. That was one of her main functions, yes

Q When those people had planned those events, as Chief of Staff, did you expect them to take time off or was it official time when they did that?

A That was part of their job

Q How common was it for Mr McDonnell to attend those types of events?

A Very common

Q Was part of your job to try to figure out which event you should or shouldn't host or which events Mr McDonnell should or shouldn't attend?

A At the Mansion, I would not say that was my primary job We had, it was a little complicated, but to simplify it, we had a scheduling process where events, invitations to events outside of really Richmond, but more specifically, outside of the Governor's Office, or the Mansion, we had a scheduling process where we would review those, if we got them in advance, and make a threshold determination of whether it was something that seemed to be gubernatorial in nature or something more appropriate for a Cabinet member or staff member to attend on the Governor's behalf But then on occasion there were events at the Mansion where I may or may not be pulled in, but on a day-to-day basis I was not pulled into the decision-making process on the events at the Mansion That was primarily the Mansion staff that dealt with that

Q Was there a process in place to your awareness as Chief of Staff for deciding which events to have and not to have?

A Yes, there was

Q How common was it for other government officials to attend events at the Mansion and elsewhere?

A Very common

Q How common was it for Virginia businesspeople to attend those events?

A Very common.

Q How common was it for Ms McDonnell to attend those events?

A She attended regularly She did not attend all If she was in town and the Governor felt like it was important for her to be there, she usually made an appearance

Q Were there times where Mr McDonnell couldn't attend an event and a surrogate would be sent instead?

A There were

Q Now, with all this process and all these events potentially on the table, who was it who had the final authority to decide whether or not an event would make it onto the calendar or not make it onto the calendar?

A Ultimately it was the Governor's call

Q We have talked a little bit about events I'd like to talk just a little bit about meetings How common was it for Mr McDonnell to have meetings on his schedule?

A Very common.

Q Was it part of your job to help figure out which meetings he should and shouldn't attend?

A There were meetings that were, yes, filtered through me and that was part of my job But there was also sort of a separate track where we are all extremely busy in the office I mean, everyone in the office is really going 24/7 There would be calls that would come in to the Governor's scheduler, and there would be meetings between the Governor and the scheduler with certain events and then there were some that I was pulled into as well It was really sort of hit or miss depending on the issue at hand.

Q How common was it for those meetings to relate to promoting Virginia business and economic development?

A Very common.

Q How common was it for other Administration officials like Cabinet Secretaries to attend meetings?

A Scheduling meetings or --

Q Just meetings in general

A Very common

Q At times, would those Cabinet Secretaries or other Administration officials attend meetings instead of Mr McDonnell?

A Yes, routinely

Q Now, would one of the types of meetings that Mr McDonnell would have on his schedule be Cabinet meetings with his Cabinet Secretaries?

A And that was one of the things that I was responsible for We attempted to do that on a weekly basis

Q Would those include at times people like Lisa Hicks-Thomas and Sara Wilson?

A It did

Q Now, when Mr McDonnell was in meetings like that, was it common for him to ask his Cabinet officials to do things?

A It was

Q Would that include asking them to look into something?

A Absolutely

Q Would that include asking them to meet with people?

A It did.

Q Just to be clear, we have talked about meetings a little bit Assuming it had nothing to do with an emergency, like some sort of public safety issue, but they were talking about a meeting with an outside third party, would you typically try to give Administration officials some notice so they could prepare for that meeting?

A You tried to I would say more oftentimes than not you did But inevitably, there were times when people would call in and, just by the caller, you knew it was probably an issue of statewide importance and you would take those sometimes on the fly

Q How common was it on the spectrum for a meeting to be arranged on less than 12 hours' notice?

A Not common, but it happened.

Q We talked about meetings and events, so now I'd like to talk a little bit about interactions with other state government entities and agencies In addition to hiring staff and appointing Cabinet officials, did Mr McDonnell also have a role in appointing members of various state boards and commissions?

A He did.

Q Did that include the Board of Visitors for Virginia Commonwealth University?

A It did.

Q Could you tell us just sort of generally what the Board of Visitors is in more common language?

A Sure Each state university in Virginia, there is a code section which spells out what the role of the Board of Visitors would be, but generally speaking, they set sort of the policy goals and initiatives for the university One of the biggest things they do that gets the most attention is they vote on any tuition increases which occur at the university They are designed to set sort of the broad policy objectives of the university, and the President of the university is then to carry out those goals

Q For Virginia Commonwealth University, did that Board of Visitors include 16 members?

A I believe that's correct. It was certainly more than 12

Q Were all of them appointed by the Governor?

A To my knowledge, they were, yes.

Q How about the University of Virginia? Was it the same process for UVA?

A Generally speaking, yes

Q Did that Board of Visitors have about 17 people on it?

A That sounds right, yes

Q Did all of those, or were all of those individuals appointed by Mr McDonnell?

A To my knowledge, yes, they were

Q Or whoever was Governor at the time

A Correct

Q Just to be up front with the jury, just because the Governor appoints members to the Board of Visitors, does that mean he controls every last thing that happens at the university?

A No, and particularly in the case of the University of Virginia, the Board members sort of jealously guard their role, and so there is no day-to-day communication with them about what they should and shouldn't do However, we did hold periodic meetings, particularly when new members were appointed, and give them sort of the things that the Governor had ran on, the initiatives he promised, an example being lower tuition. You know, Virginians spoke loud and clear that they wanted lower tuition at state schools, and that was an issue we did discuss with them. But generally speaking, we didn't control their day-to-day activities, no

Q Regardless of that, if the Governor wants to ask the Board of Visitors to resign, can he do so?

A He can ask them to resign. There is some limitation in the State Code as to whether he can force them to resign, but he can certainly always ask them to resign, yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 619 Mr Kent, is this a letter from Mr McDonnell to the Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia?

A It does appear to be, yes

Q Is it dated June 22nd, 2012?

A It is

Q Does this relate to a controversy surrounding the resignation of the UVA President?

A Yes, it does appear to

Q Turning just to the last page of this document, is that Mr McDonnell's signature at the bottom?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 619 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Mr Kent, if we could turn back to the first page briefly Do you recall actually being involved in the preparation of this letter?

A I do. You know, it wasn't something -- we had a Secretary of Education and our Secretary of the Commonwealth that really dealt day in and day out with board members and education issues But this was an issue that got so much attention that I was part of this, yes

Q If we could turn to the third page Could you read just the third-to-last paragraph there that starts with "But let me be absolutely clear "

A It says, "But let me be absolutely clear; I want final action by the Board on Tuesday If you fail to do so, I will ask for the resignation of the entire Board on Wednesday Regardless of your decision, I expect you to make a clear, detailed, and unified statement on the future leadership of the University "

Q We can take that down We have talked about VCU and UVA.

A We did

Q Does the Governor, whoever it is at the time, also appoint individuals who sit on something called the Tobacco Commission?

A He does That is a bifurcated board that's appointed in part by the Governor and in part by the legislature

Q Does it have approximately 31 members?

A There are over 30 But yeah, that sounds correct.

Q Is it accurate that Mr McDonnell either appoints or one of his Cabinet secretaries appoints around 20 or so of those?

A That sounds about right, yes

Q The Tobacco Commission, I know that's sort of the shorthand for it, is it actually called the Virginia Tobacco Indemnification and Community Revitalization Commission?

A It is We referred to it, the acronym is TICR

Q T-I-C-R?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 93 Is this an e-mail from an individual named Gerard Robinson to you, Tucker Martin, and an individual named Kim Steinhoff?

A It is

Q Is it dated April 5th, 2011?

A It is

Q Who is Gerard Robinson?

A Gerard Robinson at the time was Secretary of Education

Q Who was Kim Steinhoff?

A Kim was my executive assistant

MR FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 93 into evidence

THE COURT: 93?

MR FAULCONER: Yes, 93

THE COURT: All right It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Mr Kent, could you explain just in general terms what this e-mail is asking for from Gerard Robinson to you?

A It appears that Gerard was asking whether or not the Governor was interested in writing a letter of support to the Tobacco Commission for an application for the Virginia Early Childhood Foundation

Q If we could turn to the second page of the attachment Is that actually a draft letter that was sent over to you?

A It appears to be, yes

Q We can take that down Now, Mr Kent, in your experience, when interacting with state agencies, your experience as Chief of Staff, if Mr McDonnell encouraged somebody else in state government to do something, would it typically help or hurt the process?

A I would say it helped the process Definitely helped the process

Q All right Now, before we get to Mr Williams and Star Scientific, I just have a couple questions about some things that came up before that Now, before Mr Williams or Star Scientific entered the picture, can you tell us whether you ever saw a company associated with Ms McDonnell try to use Mr McDonnell's image to promote a product?

A Yes We had a situation, it was either just before or just after the Governor had left the Attorney General's Office to run for Governor, where a company, my recollection is a company tried to use his likeness to promote their product, and it came to mine and Jasen Eige's attention. Jasen was also at the Attorney General's Office at the time It came to our attention through our Consumer Affairs Division at the Office of the Attorney General

Q After that came to your attention, did you speak to

Mr McDonnell about it?

A We did.

Q Could you tell us how that conversation went?

A I believe the Governor had just left to run I think I'm right on that And we brought it to his attention and asked if he had ever authorized that And my recollection is he said he had not And we asked what he wanted us to do about it He said to handle it as we would in the normal course, which would mean that the Attorney General's Office, if it was fraudulent or done without the other person's authorization, then we could take certain action on their behalf And so Jasen and myself, we reached out to the company and said, "You have used a likeness of the Attorney General," at that time, former Attorney General, "and it was unauthorized. And if you fail to take that down, then we will pursue legal action to do so "

Q Now, earlier you said that you worked for Mr McDonnell, and I think you were sort of just alluding to it, not only when he was Governor but also when he was Attorney General, right?

A I did. That's correct

Q Before Mr McDonnell ran for Governor, did you know who Jonnie Williams was?

A I do not recall ever hearing the name Jonnie Williams when he was Attorney General But candidly, I was not involved in the political operation of the Attorney General's Office I had been at the Attorney General's Office since 2001, so I started out as a career Assistant Attorney General and worked my way up through the office But no, I had not heard that name before

Q Before Mr McDonnell ran for Governor, did you know anything about Star Scientific?

A No, I did not

Q Before he ran for Governor, did you know anything about Anatabloc?

A I did not

Q Before the investigation into Mr McDonnell's relationship to Mr Williams sort of broke in the media, had you ever heard Mr McDonnell refer to Mr Williams as a longtime friend?

A No We had never discussed it

Q And in fact, before sometime in 2011, do you actually have any specific recollection of meeting Mr Williams in person?

A I did not I have only met Mr Williams one time

Q All right Let's focus in on late July of 2011 I'd like to show you what's been already admitted into evidence as Exhibit 180 Now, do you recognize what type of e-mail this is? From Katherine Harris, attaching RFM schedule

A It appears to be part of the Governor's daily schedule.

Q Was it common for Ms Harris to send these out to everybody on the staff?

A She sent them out She actually had two schedules She had one schedule that was more detailed that went out to sort of the senior leadership in the office, and a less detailed version that went out to others in the office

Q I'd like to turn to the sixth page of this document All right, do you see there at 11:30 p.m., sort of at the end of that day's schedule, where it says, "Home of Jonnie Williams"?

A I do

Q Do you recall Mr McDonnell and his family vacationing at Mr Williams' home at Smith Mountain Lake in this time frame of late July, 2011?

A I do

Q We can take that down Leave it up for a second, sorry At the time of this trip, were you aware that Mr Williams had gone on a shopping trip with Ms McDonnell in New York City in April of 2011?

A I was not

Q At the time of this trip in late July, were you aware of any loan from Mr Williams to Mr or Ms McDonnell in May of 2011?

A I was not

Q At the time of this trip, were you aware that Mr Williams had paid more than $2,300 for Mr. McDonnell and his sons to play golf at Kinloch Golf Club in May of 2011?

A I was not

Q I'd like to turn to Page 10 of this document There at the bottom where it says, "Depart for Executive Mansion," what time does it say on this schedule that Mr McDonnell was scheduled to leave Smith Mountain Lake for the Executive Mansion?

A It appears to be 7:00 to 7:30 p.m.

Q We can take that down. Now, before the McDonnells went on this trip, did you know anything about Mr McDonnell potentially driving Mr Williams' Ferrari on that trip?

A I did

Q Sorry?

A I'm sorry, before or after?

Q Before

A Before, no. Sorry, I did not

Q Can you tell us whether, I think we have heard some about it, Mr McDonnell would usually drive himself around?

A No, the protocol once you become Governor is that the Executive Protection Unit will transport the Governor and the spouse wherever they need to go during their term as Governor

Q Now, after they got back from the trip to Smith Mountain Lake, did you learn about Mr McDonnell driving Mr Williams' Ferrari?

A I did.

Q Can you tell us a little bit about how you learned about that?

A It was probably a week or so, the following week after he had returned, and the Executive Protection Unit's office, I mentioned previously, sort of the layout of the office, the Governor's Office and my office, my assistant, his assistant, are in what is referred to as the pod It is sort of a self-contained unit that's within the Patrick Henry Building Immediately outside of that pod, that door to the pod, is the Executive Protection Unit's office. And there was someone, I'm sure I passed him going in and out of the hallway, and someone from the Executive Protection Unit, I believe, brought to my attention what had happened. And it had had an effect on some of the members of the Unit

Q What do you mean by that?

A I think it had hurt morale You know, their primary job is to protect And I think from their perspective, they couldn't protect him if he is driving a vehicle and they are behind him in their own vehicle

Q After the Executive Protection Unit, somebody in the Unit, talked to you about this, did you talk to Mr McDonnell about it?

A I did

Q What did you say?

A I went into his office and told him that I understood that he had driven a sports car, I'm not sure at the time I knew it was a Ferrari, but that he had driven a sports car And I reminded the Governor what the job was or the duty of the Executive Protection Unit, and I told him that it had had an impact on the morale of some members of the Unit, which was very important, and I asked him not to do it again

Q Do you recall what if anything he said or did in response?

A He didn't say a lot I don't recall there was any specific -- he just sort of listened.

Q Do you recall any sort of physical reaction or facial reaction from him?

A Yeah, I think he might have smiled when I asked about the sports car But, you know, there wasn't a lot of communication He heard me He listened to what I said and didn't really push back in any way

Q All right I'd like to hand up, with the assistance of the Court Security Officer, what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 183 This is a 21-page document, Exhibit 183 Have you had a chance to review this before coming in to testify here today?

A I have

Q And are each of those 21 pages a photograph?

A They appear to be, yes

Q Do you recognize what individual is in each one of those photographs?

A It appears to be Governor McDonnell

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 183 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

MR. FAULCONER: Your Honor, if we could just have, with the assistance of Mr Starnes, just flip through each page briefly so the jury can see it?

THE COURT: All right

(Documents displayed to jury)

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right, we can take that down Now, earlier we looked at a schedule that said that they left Smith Mountain Lake at 7 p.m., or at least were scheduled to

A Correct

Q I'd like to show you what's already been entered as Exhibit 189 Zooming in on the bottom e-mail, or on both e-mails here, do you see the bottom e-mail dated July 31st, 2011 at 11:29 p.m.?

A I do.

Q Mr Kent, were you copied on either of these e-mails that were sent between Dr Hazel and Mr McDonnell?

A I was not

Q At the time of this e-mail, did you know about this meeting that Mr McDonnell was contacting Dr Hazel about?

A I did not

Q We can take that down I'd like to move forward two weeks to August 16th of 2011 I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 635

MR. ASBILL: I object to this unless it is redacted Same problem we had before

MR FAULCONER: Could I lay a couple of foundation questions and then we can approach to discuss it?

THE COURT: We will deal with the redaction before it is published to anybody Go ahead

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Mr Kent, is this a document with your handwriting on it?

A It does appear to be my handwriting, yes

Q Is it a printout of an e-mail dated August 16th, 2011?

A It does appear to be, yes.

Q After you wrote what you wrote in your handwriting on this e-mail, can you tell the members of the jury what you believe you did with this document?

A Typically, what I would do when there was handwriting on a document for the Governor's attention, as I mentioned previously, my office was adjoining his in what we referred to as the pod I would usually take whatever it was that I had written on and place it on his desk in his office

Q Do you believe that you either did that or handed it to him personally with this document?

A I can't remember with absolute certainty that I did that, but that was certainly normally what I would do, yes

MR. FAULCONER: May we approach briefly?

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench)

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, now that we have laid the foundation, he believes he gave this document to the Governor We would ask that it be entered into evidence unredacted

THE COURT: All right

MR. ASBILL: This is the same document we dealt with before that references the Attorney General's opinion and summarizes it at the bottom of the e-mail and attaches the opinion to it

MR. FAULCONER: Your Honor, as we understand it, previously we said although it was obvious from the document that it was intended to be given to the Governor, we didn't previously lay a foundation that it was written on by Mr Kent, and his normal course would be to hand it to the Governor or place it on his desk. We offer it for the fact that it was given to Mr McDonnell but not for the substance

THE COURT: You have established that this is what he would normally have done We haven't established that he did. Which I think is --

MR FAULCONER: Doesn't that go to weight, Your Honor?

THE COURT: I agree with Mr Asbill on this Unless we've got some direct testimony that he has this, I'm not going to enter this into evidence

MR. DRY: One more fact That document was produced by the defendant in the Statement of Economic Interests, the draft So he got it He produced it to us

MR. FAULCONER: It was mixed in with the other pages of the SOEI

MR. ASBILL: We produced what we had That doesn't mean he saw it or read it We produced what was in the Governor's files at their request

MR. FAULCONER: If the question is whether or not he received it, if he produced it, then we know for certainty he received it How closely he read it is a matter of weight

THE COURT: The objection is overruled.

(In Open Court)

MR. FAULCONER: Could we publish this document to the jury?

THE COURT: Go ahead

MR. FAULCONER: I assume this is admitted into evidence now?

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Mr Kent, could you read what you write in your handwriting on this document?

A Dated 8-16-11 "Governor: FYI As you can see, I have asked for written guidance on this and other issues Thanks " Those are my initials

Q Is that MLK?

A MLK, yes

Q Then "P S ," what do you write there?

A "P S , issued by Mary Sue Terry as Attorney General, AG "

Q If we could zoom out on this document The e-mail you actually print out here, what's the subject line of the e-mail?

A It says: "COIA, Personal Friend "

Q Do you recall having had some conversation with Mr McDonnell leading up to this time frame about the definition of a personal friend?

A Vaguely I must have had some conversation, which is why I would have assumed that I would have given this to the Governor, yes

Q If we could scroll down, was there actually a part of this document that you underlined before you took it in to the Governor's Office?

A It appears it is underlined. That could very well have been my underlining

Q Read what's underlined on that document

A It says: "When the circumstances suggest a relationship between the gift and the declarant's public position, even when the relationship is relatively distant, it is my opinion that the gift is required to be disclosed in Schedule E "

Q It says "Schedule E" there Is this referring to the Statement of Economic Interests?

A I believe it is, yes

Q We can take that down I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 206 Mr Kent, is this an e-mail chain that is essentially a later set of e-mails in this same thread of e-mail conversation?

A It appears to be, yes

Q And is it between you and Jasen Eige?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 206 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, first, looking, if we could zoom out a little bit, and looking at Page 1 down at the bottom, do you see there the e-mail, Tuesday, August 16th, 2011 at 10:18 a.m.?

A I do.

Q Could you read to us what you write to Jasen Eige?

A It says: "I talked to the Governor about it yesterday Prompted this follow-up "

Q Then turning to the next page, do you see in the e-mail that preceded that that Mr Eige wrote to you, "This is the standard we have been using, no bright line, but you and I need to discuss the matter we talked to JK about " Did I read that right?

A You did.

Q Based on your review of this e-mail, who do you believe that JK is referring to here?

A I believe that was Jerry Kilgore

Q Now, Jerry Kilgore, did both you and Mr Eige know Mr Kilgore?

A We did. We both worked for him when he was Attorney General

Q Did you interact with him being a lobbyist on a number of different issues?

A We did. I probably did less than Jasen, because that was Jasen Eige's primary role, but sure, we did.

Q During this time frame, that being August of 2011, did you know at some point that month that Mr Kilgore represented Jonnie Williams and Star Scientific?

A I did

Q Did you also interact, to be clear, with Mr Kilgore on some other issues on something related to something involving a bank?

A I did, and it was all in that same time frame

Q Was that Bank of Mellon?

A That's correct

Q Sitting here today, can you specifically recall the conversation that Mr Eige is referring to here?

A I can't. I have struggled to try to recall exactly what that is, and the best I can think of, because there were two separate issues that involved Jerry Kilgore, that we were potentially conflating two issues in the same e-mail That's the best I can come up with

Q Just to be clear, when you would interact with Mr Kilgore or any other lobbyist, was it common to have conversations that would start on one topic and go on to another?

A Particularly with lobbyists, they try to get as many issues as they could so they could bill as many clients as possible

Q Take that down Regardless of the specifics of that e-mail chain, when you wrote those e-mails on August 16th, 2011, were you aware that Mr McDonnell and one of his sons had been out to Kinloch Golf Club again on August 13th and spent more than $800 on Mr Williams' account?

A I was not

Q I'd like to move forward in time a little bit and go to late August of 2011 I'd like to show you what's been entered into evidence as Exhibit 230

MR. FAULCONER: For identification as Exhibit 230, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Mr Kent, do you recognize this as a regular daily schedule for Mr McDonnell?

A It appears to be, yes

Q Is it dated August 30th, 2011?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 230 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Before we sort of walk through this document in a little bit of detail, can you tell us whether late August of 2011 was a busy time for you and the Governor's Office?

A I believe it was probably one of the busiest times of the four years we were in office As those I'm sure in the room can recall, within a one-week span, we had an earthquake, a sizeable earthquake in Louisa County; we had a major hurricane, one of the most devastating hurricanes that Virginia has had come up its east coast; and there were fires in the Great Dismal Swamp and the Chesapeake area which were affecting traffic up and down the interstate in Virginia as far west as the Richmond area

Q So in that time frame, could you tell us what the first thing is on Mr McDonnell's schedule at 8:20 a.m. that day?

A Says depart for the helipad

Q Then that interview there, can you tell us what that interview generally would have been?

A There are two radio stations in Virginia, AM radio stations, which have what we call a monthly Ask The Governor It is WRVA in Richmond, and WTOP, which is in Northern Virginia. And typically, once a month, the Governor will do both radio shows But this appears to be an interview with Jimmy Barrett, the host of WRVA, specifically about the hurricane, Hurricane Irene

Q Now, going down past the travel to the next item that looks like reference is WTOP, that radio station you just referenced, in that 9:30 to ten time frame, if we could scroll down just a little bit Then actually at 10 to 11 where it actually has the show itself, could you tell us what it says there under "Note"?

A It says, "Note: Governor O'Malley is scheduled to call into the show regarding Hurricane Irene "

Q Do you recall which state Governor O'Malley is from?

A The Governor of Maryland

Q At the top of the second page of this document, can you tell us what travel is listed there at the top?

A At the very top, "11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., Helo from Northern Virginia to Richmond "

Q Then what is listed from 12:35 to 1:30 p m.?

A From 12:35 to 1:30 p.m., it says, "Lunch with Virginia researchers-Executive Mansion "

Q Do you see there the two little icons? It looks like a Word document and an Excel document?

A I do

Q Can you tell us what significance those have in terms of what those documents would typically be?

A Typically, the scheduler will attach supporting documentation to the Governor's calendar It could be a list of attendees, it could be the request, the original request for the event, and it could also be talking points the Governor may or may not use at that event

Q When they were attached to the schedule, would they ultimately be printed out and given to Mr McDonnell?

A They would, yes

Q Do you recall seeing him carry those documents around at times?

A He had what we referred to as The Notebook, and it was a black binder which contained his daily schedule

Q To be clear, Mr Kent, you said this was a busy time, and we have seen entries about the hurricane Did Mr McDonnell have the authority to remove things from his schedule?

A He did

Q To your knowledge, did he remove this event from 12:35 to 1:30 p.m. from his schedule that day?

A To my knowledge, he did not

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 231 Do you recognize this as what looks like an Outlook calendar entry for that lunch with Virginia researchers?

A It appears to be

Q Do those icons in this document appear to match the icons we were just looking at?

A I believe so

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 231 into evidence.

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right, now, if we could zoom out and go to the second page Does that appear to be that Event Briefing Form that you were talking about?

A It appears to be a briefing form, and it looks to be lunch with researchers and doctors, yes

Q Now, the handwriting towards the bottom of that page, if we could just zoom in on that sort of box right there Could you tell us whether you recognize that handwriting?

A That appears to be the Governor's handwriting

Q Could you tell us below the handwriting what name has an asterisk next to it?

A John Clore

Q At that time, did you know who John Clore was?

A I did not

Q If we could turn to the second page Do you recognize the handwriting that's on this page?

A I do

Q And whose is it?

A It appears to be the Governor's

Q Could you walk us through what names have an asterisk or handwriting by them on this page?

A Jasen Eige, Office of the Governor has an asterisk. John Lazo has an asterisk next to it Then there is handwriting next to a name, Diane Roskamp. Then handwriting next to a name that says Bob Roskamp. And then there is handwriting next to the name Mary-Shea Sutherland

Q We can go ahead and take that down. Taking a step back from the schedule and briefing form, did you actually attend this event at the Mansion?

A I did not

Q Do you recall some conversation and e-mail traffic about a press release before the event occurred?

A The night before, yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 223 Is this an e-mail from Tucker Martin to you and other Governor's Office staff members attaching a draft press release?

A It appears to be, yes

Q Is it dated August 29th, 2011?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 223 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, in that e-mail at the top, that's from Tucker Martin, right?

A It is.

Q Now, if we could turn to the third page of this document Does that look like the draft press release that you received?

A I believe it is, yes

Q Could you read what it says in the first sentence of the fourth paragraph?

A "The Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, Robert McDonnell, and First Lady Maureen McDonnell, are joining with a group of physicians and healthcare providers in the Richmond area today to learn more about the state of the research."

Q Then could you read the sentence there sort of a little ways down that starts with "Jonnie R. Williams"?

A "Jonnie R Williams, Star Scientific CEO, expressed his appreciation for Governor and First Lady McDonnell's interest in the company's work. 'All of us at Star and Rock Creek are very grateful to the Governor and Ms McDonnell for their interest in our research and product development '"

Q Mr McDonnell -- Mr Kent, what was your reaction to this press release when you saw it?

A Well, if I could step back just a second and sort of put it in context I had mentioned that there were literally three natural disasters that were ongoing the week prior and the weekend before this To make matters more complicated, I actually was on my family vacation the preceding week, actually had to leave my family vacation a day early, partly due to the hurricane and partly because of what had happened here in Richmond, to come back. So the weekend leading up to this, to say it was busy is an understatement We were, I believe, at the Emergency Operations Center, the Governor was as well, senior members of the Administration, the Secretary of Public Safety We had lost several lives in the hurricane that took place There was a lot of wind, a lot of wind damage, a lot of trees had fallen, and several people died as a result of trees actually falling either on their house or their car So there was a lot going on

I had just come back from my vacation We were dealing with the natural disasters that had occurred, and then that evening, the first full workday back from my vacation, is when we received this e-mail And when I received the e-mail from Tucker -- actually, it was sent, if I am not mistaken, it was sent by Mary-Shea to Tucker, and then Tucker replied to all and included Jasen Eige and myself on the response And when we saw the e-mail, I read the attachment, I believe I responded to Mary-Shea, "What is this, when is this, is the Governor aware of his inclusion in this," something to that effect I don't recall specific conversation with her, although I'm sure I probably had some conversation to try to get more information about it And I believe I immediately went to go see Jasen Eige about it at well

Q Why did you immediately go to see Mr Eige?

A Because I was concerned at first, the way this looked to me to be a press release, the way it was worded. And, you know, I think it struck me as the press release and what it appeared to be, I'm assuming I got this from Mary-Shea because I didn't really talk to anybody else about it, would appear to be an effort to actually hold a press conference at the Mansion with regard to this And that struck me as unusual

Q You were talking a little bit about your reaction. If we could go to the first page, could you tell us sort of at the bottom of that page, Mary-Shea Sutherland, could you tell us what she wrote in that e-mail lower in the thread?

A It says: "I just sent David a message - NO WAY this can go as written You can call me," and it gives a number

Q If we scroll up a little bit Can you tell us one more e-mail past, can you tell us, you might have already said this, but who forwarded it to Tucker Martin?

A It appears that she did, yes

Q All right I'd like to show you what's already been entered as Exhibit 224 Zoom in on that top e-mail Is that the response back to Mary-Shea that you referenced just a moment ago?

A It is

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 226 Zooming in on that top e-mail, is this Mary-Shea Sutherland's response to you?

A It appears to be, yes

Q Is that also dated August 29th, 2011?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 226 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Mr Kent, could you just read for us that one-line response from Mary-Shea Sutherland?

A It says, "I didn't know about release until an hour ago. Call me when you can."

Q We can take that down. Now, after you went and spoke to Mr Eige, can you sort of walk us through what happened in the process after that?

A We talked about it, he agreed that it was unusual, and we were concerned about the way it was worded. And I believe he was the one that was aware of the fact that Jerry Kilgore represented, I believe represented Mr Williams And we got on the phone immediately -- my recollection is we got on the phone immediately and spoke with Jerry Kilgore about it

Q How did that conversation go?

A It went well My recollection is we explained to Jerry what we had received and that we had some concerns, and my recollection is, he understood and agreed with those concerns and told us that he would address it with his client

Q Now, after talking to Mr Kilgore, do you recall whether either you or Mr Eige decided to attend the event?

A Yes As I mentioned, I had just returned from my vacation, we were still in the midst of dealing with the natural disasters that had taken place or were taking place And that was one of my many roles, was to basically coordinate that with the Secretary of Public Safety's office in the event of a natural disaster to make sure the Governor was issuing executive orders, emergency declarations, things of that nature that a Governor would typically do And Jasen and I discussed it and we agreed someone should go to make sure what we had discussed with Jerry was actually done. And Jasen, his role didn't require that involvement in the natural disaster process, so he agreed to go

Q To be clear, Mr Kent, at that point, on August 29th, 2011, were you aware of the things of value that had been provided by Mr Williams to the McDonnells?

A I was not

Q Now, after the event, did you become aware of how the event was paid for?

A At some point, I don't remember exactly when, I have tried to go back and piece that together I'm not sure there is any documentation to help with that But at some point I learned that the Governor's PAC had paid for that event

Q Just to be clear, do you remember any of that conversation happening before the event or was it after?

A No, I don't recall it It couldn't have happened before because I don't believe I knew about the event until the night before, so I think it had to have happened after the event

Q To be clear, do you recall having any conversations with Mr McDonnell about the PAC paying for the event?

A I do not recall that, no

Q All right I'd like to move forward to September of 2011, a few weeks later I'd like to show you what's been marked or what's already been entered as Exhibit 245 Is this an e-mail exchange with you, Katherine Harris, and Jasen Eige?

A Yes, it is

Q If we could scroll down to see the first e-mail in the exchange Katherine Harris is the scheduler; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q Scrolling back up again, do you recall getting this e-mail forwarded from Katherine Harris to you and Mr Eige asking about a dinner related to Anatabloc in October of 2011?

A I do

Q Can you tell us what happened once you got this e-mail?

A She forwarded it to myself and Jasen, it looks like, about 11 a.m. on the 21st, and it looks like I responded back to her at 2:22 p.m. on the same day and basically said, "Yes, we should discuss " I do recall this And one of the parameters we talked a few moments ago about the Governor attending events generally, one of the factors that we look at is, has the Governor recently done something with this person or something for this industry And I believe, I saw this, recalled the event that had occurred three weeks prior, and I believe I told Ms Harris that we did not need to schedule the Governor for this

Q All right I'd like to move to 2012 Now, earlier we saw a little bit of e-mail traffic about the SOEI or Statement of Economic Interests Are you aware of when each year that document would typically be filed?

A I believe it has to be filed by the 15th of January for the preceding year

Q And in January of 2012, were you aware that Mr McDonnell and his sons played golf at Kinloch on Mr Williams' tab on January 7th, 2012?

A I was not

Q I'd like to move forward to February of 2012 and show you what's been entered into evidence as Exhibit 319 Now, is this an e-mail forward from Mr Eige to you on February 17th, 2012 at 12:06 a m.?

A It appears to be, yes

Q It looks like Mr Eige says "FYI" there

A Yes

Q Do you recall ever discussing this e-mail with Mr McDonnell?

A No And I actually, when this was brought to my attention last year, I actually went first to Mr Eige, to Jasen, and asked him if we had ever discussed this, because I did not recall this e-mail And he informed me that he did not recall we had ever discussed it So, you know, I'm not sure, given the time of day, although it was not unusual to get e-mails all throughout the night, it could have been that I just simply didn't see it, didn't focus on it at the time.

Q So sitting here today, do you have any specific recollection of any conversation with either Mr McDonnell or Mr Eige about this e-mail?

A I do not, no

Q I'd like to ask you one quick question about this, which is, do you see there where it says, "rfmva09@gmail com"?

A Yes, I do

Q Was that a common e-mail address for Mr McDonnell to use while he was Governor?

A It was, yes

Q Even though it is a gmail address, would he typically use that for things that involved official government business?

A Yes He had at one point in time, I think we started out with a BlackBerry, and then ultimately migrated to an iPhone And the Governor, I think probably the only person that received more e-mails than I did was probably the Governor. And it got to a point, I believe the Governor's aide actually did this, and we didn't discuss it until afterwards, but the Governor would get so many e-mails, he would receive them on the same device He would receive e-mails to his official account and e-mails to a personal account, and oftentimes he would just look at the e-mail and respond. And the way the BlackBerry was set up, you have to actually go out and go into the particular e-mail system to make sure you are responding on that e-mail server, if that makes sense And the Governor would oftentimes respond to personal e-mails on his state system, and respond to state e-mails on his personal system. So a decision somewhere along the way was made to simplify it to give him one e-mail address that he used as his primary e-mail address

Q You mentioned a couple different types of e-mail addresses Do you recall him during the campaign using an e-mail address rfmcandidate@bobmcdonnell com?

A That sounds familiar It was on the campaign I'm not sure if I used it a lot, I didn't use it a lot But that's possible, yes

Q Once he became Governor, do you recall him using the e-mail address governor@bobmcdonnell com?

A Yes, he did

Q That bobmcdonnell com sort of suffix on the end of the e-mail, what did that refer to?

A That was part of his campaign.

Q Was that related to the PAC?

A Initially it was the campaign and then ultimately I think it became part of the PAC, yes

Q Did he also have an official governor virginia gov e-mail address?

A He did, yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been entered as Exhibit 318 This is an e-mail, the lower one down there, that was six minutes before the e-mail we just looked at To be clear, were you aware of this e-mail from Mr McDonnell to Mr Williams on February 16th, 2012?

A No

Q All right I'd like to move forward a little bit further into February and show you what's been marked or what's been entered as Exhibit 345 Does this appear to be an Outlook calendar event?

A It does

Q Now, can you tell us, where it says "PHB Governor's conference room," what that refers to there?

A As I mentioned previously, what I referred to as the pod, in addition to my office, the Governor's Office, and our executive assistants' offices, the Governor has a conference room, which is connected to his office through a door And that is what we referred to as the Governor's conference room.

Q This particular meeting on February 29th, 2012, what does it list as the topic for that meeting?

A "Healthcare Group Leaders Reception Tonight at the Executive Mansion."

Q To be clear, are you listed as a participant on this meeting?

A No.

Q Did you attend this meeting?

A No

Q Is Mary-Shea Sutherland listed as a participant on this meeting?

A No

Q To your knowledge, was Mary-Shea Sutherland even working at the Mansion in February of 2012?

A No, she was not

Q Is Ms McDonnell listed as a participant?

A No

Q Now, are you aware of what Mr McDonnell and

Mr Williams actually discussed in this meeting?

A No.

Q I'd like to show you what's been entered into evidence as Exhibit 2 Now, this document, do you recognize the handwriting that's shown on this first page of this document?

A It appears to be the Governor's handwriting, yes

Q Now, could you read for us what it says where it says "File Form 4" there down the second bullet point, it looks like?

MR. ASBILL: I object He has no knowledge of this meeting

THE COURT: Overruled

THE WITNESS: It says: "File Form 4 with the SEC saying sold = doesn't disclose who sold to for Jonnie "

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Mr Kent, at the time, any time in 2012, were you aware of Mr McDonnell and Mr Williams discussing anything about this?

A No

Q I'd like to go to Page 3 of this document Actually, Page 2 real quick. Do you recognize that handwriting?

A That appears to be the Governor's as well

Q Turning to Page 3 Apart from the section that's between the lines, do you recognize the handwriting at the top of that document and below the line at the bottom?

A Very top appears to be the Governor's handwriting as well

Q Then down below?

A I believe it is, yes That appears to be his handwriting

Q If we could zoom back out and zoom in on that bottom section, do you see where it says, "Loan of 50k shares to Maureen"?

A I do

Q Were you aware of anything about loaning shares to Maureen McDonnell in this time frame?

A No

Q All right I'd like to go to Page 4 of this document Does this document appear to be, or do you recognize the handwriting on this page?

A It appears to be the Governor's handwriting

Q And have you had a chance to review this page of handwriting before coming into Court?

A I have

Q And any of this information that's referenced on this document, we you aware of any of it in 2012?

A No

Q I'd like to go to Page 5 Do you recognize the handwriting on this page?

A It appears to be the Governor's as well

Q Now, do you see where it says, could you read what it says there starting with "Pay back" and down to "Maureen"?

A "Pay back in cash at 50,000 times 1 90 = $90,000 either return or 50-70 K shares " It looks like "Plan" to the left, "split into 10k shares certificates for delivery to Maureen" or "son deliver to Maureen " Sorry

Q Do you ever recall meeting Mr Williams' son, Jonnie Williams, Jr ?

A No

Q At this time or any time in 2012, were you aware of anything involving share certificates being delivered to Maureen McDonnell by Jonnie Williams, Jr

A No

Q Turn to Page 6 of this document Do you recognize the handwriting on this page?

A It appears to be the Governor's handwriting

Q What's the date written there at the top?

A 3-12-12

Q If we could turn to the seventh page Do you recognize what this seventh page of this document appears to be?

A This appears to be another copy of the Governor's daily schedule

Q Is that for March 12th of 2012?

A It appears to be, yes

Q Now, I think we have sort of asked about it a little bit, but before the investigation went public, were you aware of either a $50,000 loan or a $20,000 loan from Mr Williams to the McDonnells in March or May of 2012?

A I was not

Q All right I'd like to move forward and focus on February of 2013 Do you recall learning that month that Ms McDonnell was interviewed by law enforcement?

A I do

Q And after that interview took place, do you recall speaking to Mr McDonnell about it?

A I do. Yes

Q And do you recall how close in time that was to the interview?

A My recollection is, it was either that day or the next day It was within 24 hours

Q Could you tell the members of the jury what Mr McDonnell's reaction was to that interview when he discussed it with you?

A I can. I should explain sort of how I was involved in this I was contacted because I was the closest to the Governor as far as staff is concerned, to --

Q Sorry to interrupt, Mr Kent, but just to make sure we don't get into any problems with who said what to whom, could you just focus in on what Mr McDonnell's reaction was and what he said after the interview?

A Yes He was upset He was upset, and basically said that the interview was not what it was purported to be for

Q Did he describe at all what he meant in terms of what the difference was?

A No We didn't get into a lot of back and forth It was a pretty short conversation But he was visibly upset

Q Do you recall whether he said whether it was broader or narrower than he thought it was going to be?

A Broader, was the indication I got

Q Just to be clear, at that time, when you were talking about the interview that Ms McDonnell had with law enforcement, did Mr McDonnell tell you anything about a $50,000 loan from Mr Williams in May of 2011?

A No

Q Did he tell you anything about a $15,000 payment for a wedding?

A No

Q Anything about a $50,000 second loan?

A No

Q Anything about a $20,000 third loan?

A No

Q Anything about any of the golf at Kinloch?

A No

Q Now, before, at some point before the press stories broke, do you recall Mary-Shea Sutherland saying something about credit card debt to you as it related to Mr Williams?

A She did It was, it had to be sometime before she had left, during a general conversation that we had And there was some reference to credit card debt

Q Could you explain exactly what that was as it related to Mr Williams?

A It was unclear at the time At that time, there were, I'm assuming that's when it was, Mary-Shea had been to my office several times just upset in general about her situation And she did reference that There was some vague reference to credit card debt, and I believe she mentioned Maureen at the time when she said it

Q Did she mention something about Mr Williams in that context?

A Yeah, I think she did. It was, again, sort of not something we spent a lot of time harping on It kind of was out of sight, out of mind for several years

Q And did she tell you anything in that conversation about what amount of credit cart debt she was talking about?

A I recall her mentioning, I believe, $20,000 That sounds right

Q Now, after the press stories broke about the investigation or any of the press stories about the relationship between Mr Williams and Mr McDonnell, did you ask Mr McDonnell about whether a loan from Mr Williams had anything to do with credit card debt?

A I did. It was sometime, probably early spring of last year, and he corrected me quickly and said that, "No, that was a loan." And that was really the extent of the conversation we had

Q Did he tell you whether the loan had anything to do with credit card debt?

A Well, I think I brought up the question of credit card debt, and he responded that, "No, that was a loan." My recollection is, that was pretty much the extent of the conversation

Q Did you also have a conversation or during the conversations that you had with Mr McDonnell after the press stories broke, did you ever talk to him about the second $50,000 loan from Mr Williams in May -- March of 2012?

A No At some point he mentioned to me, it was during the process of obviously he had, I believe, retained counsel, and we were being inundated with requests on a daily, sometimes hourly basis, by the media And at some point I went into his office and asked, I believe, about, generally about the loan or the loans And his response to me was that it was a matter that he was discussing with his counsel and we shouldn't get into it any further

MR. FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR. FAULCONER: No further questions at this time, Your Honor

THE COURT: Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Good morning, Mr Kent How are you?

A Just fine

Q I want to go back a little bit to the beginning of your examination, of your direct examination. And you told us you went to the University of Richmond and then to Mercer Law School; is that right?

A Yes, sir, that's correct

Q You were at one point obviously the Chief of Staff to my client, correct?

A That is correct, yes, sir

Q Prior to that you were at the Attorney General's Office?

A Yes, sir

Q And was one of your assignments at the Attorney General's Office heading the Criminal Division?

A At one point I was in charge of what was referred to as the Special Prosecutions Section, which was a subset of the Criminal Division I was never the Deputy of the Criminal Division, but I was the Chief of the Special Prosecutions Section

Q Okay That was one of your many jobs at the Attorney General's Office before you came over to the Governor's Office; is that correct?

A Yes, sir, it is

Q Okay I believe you testified early on this morning that if my client said to you to do something, that you would absolutely do it Is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q And obviously, that would not include doing something that you thought was wrong or improper or unethical or immoral, right?

A Absolutely not

Q So if he asked you to do something that you thought was a legitimate request, you would obviously do it

A That's what I was referring to, yes, sir

Q To your recollection, in all the time that you spent with my client, in the Governor's Office, Attorney General's Office, did he ever ask you to do something that you didn't do because you thought it was wrong to do it?

A No, sir

Q Now, I think you talked a little bit about Dr Hazel and Molly Huffstetler. Both of those people are part of the Governor's staff; is that right?

A They are part of the Secretariat which ultimately would be part of the Governor's staff, yes, sir, that's correct

Q Ultimately, for example, Ms Huffstetler reports to Dr Hazel but Dr Hazel reports to the Governor?

A Yes, sir

Q Anyone who works in a Cabinet position is viewed as part of the Governor's staff?

A Loosely, yes, sir, that's correct

Q And anyone who works in his office is part of his staff, right?

A Yes, sir

Q And with respect to the First Lady's office at the Mansion, are those his staff or are they her staff or what?

A I guess to answer your question, they are, on a day-to-day basis, viewed as part of her staff But at the end of the day they are ultimately Governor's staff as well

Q Those folks ultimately report to you before, I mean, in the chain of command, they report to you before it would get to the Governor?

A Yes, sir

Q So they would go to you if they had a problem, at least in the first instance?

A Typically, yes, sir

Q All right Now, you said, I believe, that it was -- that my client's primary interest and focus as the Governor was jobs in Virginia; is that correct?

A That was certainly the top of the priority list, yes, sir

Q Other than public safety, and what did you mean by that?

A Well, obviously, public safety took priority over everything Classic example would be if there is, you know, an emergency, no matter what we were doing, even if it was economic development, it would take a back seat to public safety But other than public safety, the top priority of the Administration was economic development

Q What were the third or fourth priorities?

A Education was probably amongst the top three or four I would probably, I had to rank them, I would say public safety, followed closely by economic development, education, and probably health.

Q All right And you said it was very common for, at the Mansion, or to host events at the Mansion; is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q Do you have any sense of how many Mansion events there were during the four years that you were with the Governor's Office?

A I couldn't give you an exact number, but there were many

Q Would 1,150 or so ring a bell?

A That's entirely possible, yes

Q At any point in time, did you ever try to figure out after the investigation started, for example, how many events there were at the Mansion?

A I don't think I did at the Mansion The Governor and I had discussed how many events, meetings he had taken and Cabinet members and myself had taken, and at that point in time, I did a very quick extrapolation by reaching out to several Cabinet members just to get an idea of how many meetings they felt they took, and I think the Governor took that information and extrapolated from that

Q Okay I'm sorry, were you going to say something else?

A No, that's it

Q You talked about the scheduling process There was a protocol or a process for scheduling the Governor for various events?

A Yes. There were really two different processes The first was sort of the day-to-day schedule, for lack of a better explanation, and that was really more the scheduler, Governor, occasionally myself, I was included in some of those discussions But then there was a separate weekly scheduling process which would be typically invitations to go to Northern Virginia, invitations to go to Roanoke, invitations to go to Virginia Beach, events outside the office And we -- staff had an initial meeting where we tried to sort through some of those to try to narrow the scope a little bit

Q Okay But there were constant requests being made for his time and attention; is that fair to say?

A Yes, it is

Q Whatever the scheduling process was or the protocol was, sometimes it would get bypassed, either by mistake or because there wasn't enough time to go through the normal process?

A That happened, yes

Q Would that -- would it ever be -- who would be people that would potentially interfere with the protocol in terms of trying to schedule something?

A Well, people would call People would call, and sometimes they would call the scheduler, sometimes they would call me, or sometimes they would call the Governor or he would run into them at particular events and ask to meet with him. Classic examples would be legislators Whenever they were in town your schedule was kind of out of the window because they would come across the street and ask to speak to the Governor and wanted to speak to him immediately So that happened.

Q How about family members?

A Yes

Q And they have the ability at times to try to redirect the schedule? At least potentially to redirect the schedule?

A Yes

Q All right And do you know whether or not that was in consultation with my client or was it just something that they wanted him to do and he may or may not agree?

A I'm sure it happened both ways, you know You could ask about a specific example and I could try to answer your question. But generally speaking, I'm sure it happened both ways

Q Okay Did you have any protocol in place for taking a closer look at those sort of requests that were unusual or not the regular sort of process?

A No You know, a lot of reliance was placed on the Governor's scheduler to really sort of know what he had on his schedule and to deal with those If there was a question, an example was shown earlier about an event where she did bring it to to my attention and asked for my input But typically, she would handle that

Q You talked about everybody in the office working 24/7 Who led the pack in terms of hardest working?

A The Governor did

Q Outworked everybody else on the staff?

A No question

Q Now, you talked about meetings that would occur, meetings on a weekly basis, or something, and these were Cabinet members, I believe, you were discussing that?

A Yes, sir

Q And at those meetings, sometimes the Governor would ask somebody to look into something or to meet with somebody?

A He did

Q All right So, "Take a look at this and tell me what you think," basically? Is that the idea?

A That's generally the idea

Q Or, "Meet with everybody and see if they got a good idea, and if so, do what you need to do"?

A Yes

Q As those meetings, was the Governor ever more affirmative in terms of, "I want you to do this I want you to take action on it I want you to get this done"?

A No That was not the Governor's MO The Governor -- you know, you could sense when it was something -- and it was typically in the realm of economic development You could sense when it was something that he felt like we should spend time and look at But no, there was never a situation where he demanded a response and a response -- a specific response at a specific time, no

Q Did he know how to make it plain that he wanted something done?

A I'm sure he could Sure

Q Now, at any of these meetings that you talked about, that you talked about earlier today, did you ever hear my client ask anything to be done for Jonnie Williams or Star Scientific?

A No

Q All right With respect to board, board members, did you have any knowledge of my client ever appointing anyone to any board or commission that was in any way related to Star or related to Jonnie Williams?

A Not to my knowledge, no

Q You talked about the UVA Board, I believe, and you said, I think in reference to that Board in particular, that those members of the Board, jealously guard their independence, despite having been appointed by the Governor?

A Yes, sir

Q And there's some issue legally about whether or not they can be fired by the Governor or there's some other process that would be required --

A There is

Q -- in order to fire -- there is another process?

A No There is -- there has -- there's been debate about how far the Governor's authority goes I think it's pretty clear by the code that when there's -- when they have taken an inappropriate act, certainly in that situation he has the ability to act But it's a little more gray when it comes to just general disagreement over a policy position

Q If they did something illegal, he could fire them But if they did something that disagreed -- you know, they disagreed with his policy on something, that would be a harder decision or a harder issue?

A Illegal or violate a university policy that's been established by the Board But yes, that's generally correct

Q With respect to -- so you were knowledgeable about the people that -- that Governor McDonnell appointed to boards and commissions? You were in that process?

A Not regularly But on particular instances, the UVA example is a classic example, I was pulled into it because of the high profile nature of it But typically, that process, as I mentioned previously, was handled by the Secretary of the Commonwealth

Q And that would be Janet Kelly?

A Yes, sir That is correct

Q All right With respect to the -- when you were involved in these issues like that, the high profile situation you described, did you believe that the Governor was appointing people to boards on merit?

A The term he used throughout the administration, going back to when we chose members of the Cabinet, all the way through, was the best and the brightest Those are the terms that he used He wanted the best and the brightest

Q How did it work in terms of hiring the staff? Not the Cabinet folks or people on boards, but in terms of -- obviously, he hired you Did you then hire all the people under you or was the Governor involved in those hires as well?

A I never hired any high-level position without the Governor signing off on it You know, there were positions, clerical positions where we had a need and quickly needed to fill it that I would make that decision on But anything deputy agency head or higher, I asked the Governor to weigh in and approve

Q And when you asked him to weigh in and approve, do you believe that the two of you collectively, in that situation, were hiring the best and the brightest you could?

A I believe so, yes We certainly tried to

Q Now, with respect to this UVA issue --

MR ASBILL: Can we pull up 619, please

Government Exhibit 619

BY MR ASBILL:

Q This is the letter to the Board members that you talked about previously

A Okay

Q I don't want to get into the details of the letter I just want to talk to you generally about it The letter is in evidence What was that controversy about, just in a nutshell?

A There was an effort by certain members of the Board to remove President Sullivan as the President of the University of Virginia, and they initially took steps to do so I believe she initially agreed to step down Then she rescinded that offer And it became a very high profile, public situation, and ultimately, she was reinstated as President

Q All right And that particular controversy occurred, what, in June of 2012? Is that when it occurred?

A I don't remember the exact date But this is the date of the letter So it must have been around that time frame, yes

Q Do you recall the letter being contemporaneous with the controversy?

A I'm -- it was It was A decision was made -- because the matter had lingered for a period of time, I think the Governor made a decision that he had to do something to get the Board to make a decision one way or the other, and basically told them that if they failed to act, that they were not carrying out their responsibilities as members of the Board of Visitors and that he would take action.

Q All right And he was very direct in terms of what he was going to do if they failed to take action and deal with this situation; is that right?

A He was

Q Now, that particular controversy had nothing to do with Jonnie Williams or Star Scientific in any way, did it?

A Not to my knowledge No

Q All right Let's talk about the Tobacco Commission And I believe you talked that the appointees to that commission, it's some sort of joint process?

A It's a hybrid process Yes, sir

Q Okay And the Secretary of Agriculture is the only person that the Governor appoints directly to that commission?

A No I believe he appoints, by statute, actually, the

Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Finance, and I believe it's the Secretary of Commerce and Trade And I believe since that time, we may have even added Secretary -- no That's, I'm sorry, a different board Those three other Cabinet members

Q Those are the Cabinet members --

A I believe so

Q -- out of how many folks on the Board?

A There are over 30 in total The Governor appoints a number, and then the legislature appoints a number as well

Q And then the Board does what it wants or it does what the Governor tells them to do?

A Well, the Tobacco Commission is a little more complicated than that The Tobacco Commission has what's referred to as an Executive Committee And the Executive Committee, I think, makes a lot of preliminary decisions and then meets with the full Board and basically adopts those decisions But they are independent of our office

Q Okay And to your knowledge, did Governor McDonnell ever appoint anyone to the Tobacco Commission Board that had any connection whatever to Star Scientific or Jonnie Williams?

A Not to my knowledge, no

Q To your knowledge, did my client ever try to influence the Tobacco Commission in any way either by testifying in front of them, calling them up on the phone, sending them an e-mail, whatever, to support anything that Jonnie Williams or Star Scientific may have been trying to get from the Tobacco Commission?

A Not to my knowledge, no

Q I believe you said you didn't -- or you only met Mr Williams one time; is that correct?

A Yes, sir That's correct

Q And did you ever talk to him on the phone or anything like that?

A I don't remember ever speaking with Mr Williams but one time And that was when we took a trip to New York

Q Okay Did you ever have discussions with my client about Jonnie Williams before the start of the investigation before the public knew about the existence of the investigation?

A Not specifically about Mr Williams As we discussed earlier, there was an incident driving his vehicle, which the focus of that conversation was not Mr Williams It was the fact that the Governor had driven the vehicle But no, we, to my knowledge, did not have any conversations about Mr Williams

Q Prior to outside lawyers becoming involved when the investigation became public, going all the way back, however long you've known the Governor, did he ever refuse to talk to you about anything you wanted to talk to him about?

A No

Q Now, I believe you said that there was a time, at least one instance, when you were aware of somebody using the Governor's likeness or name to try to promote something without his permission, correct?

A Uh-huh

Q And that related -- can you give me some more details about that? Did that relate to a product called Nu Skin and --

A I believe it did And I believe it involved a company that Maureen -- at the time, she wasn't the First Lady -- was involved in

Q And your understanding was that somehow his likeness and the fact that he was the Attorney General was being used to promote the product?

A Yes, sir

Q And he was not aware of that?

A I don't believe he was No, sir

Q And when it came to his attention or your attention, then you all shut it down?

A Yes, sir

Q No pushback from my client on that?

A No, sir I don't recall any pushback

Q Now, the Smith Mountain Lake trip That was the end of July 2011, correct?

A I believe that was what we saw Yes, sir

Q Okay And you were obviously aware of that trip, correct?

A I was aware of that trip

Q And you were aware that that was a gift from Jonnie Williams?

A I don't think I got into how it was valued and how it was reported I did know that the Governor took a trip and that the home was, I believe, Jonnie Williams' home I did know that Yes, sir

Q Okay So regardless of exactly how it was reported, you knew that it was connected to Jonnie Williams and/or Star --

A I believe I did

Q -- at the time the event occurred?

A I believe I did Yes, sir

Q All right And you knew that fact well before the Mansion lunch, which was 30 days later, right?

A Yes I would have That's correct

Q Okay Now, Mr Faulconer, I believe, asked you about were you aware of my client playing golf with Jonnie Williams or playing at Kinloch, correct?

A He did Yes, sir

Q And do you play golf or --

A I'm not very good I play at golf

Q Miniature golf?

A Better at miniature golf Yes, sir

Q And you say you were not aware of some of the golf outings that my client may have had --

A No, sir

Q -- with Mr Williams at Kinloch?

A No, sir

Q How would you have -- I mean, other than it coming up in a conversation with my client, what are the other ways that you generally might be aware of something like that?

A Conversation If it did or didn't show up on his calendar on any particular day, I may or may not have noticed it But truthfully, if the Governor was away on vacation, in particular, or out of the office for personal things, I typically didn't focus on his calendar on any given day or time It was only when he was acting as Governor that I would

Q So if there were calendar events on a weekend, you would not review those, generally?

A They would typically have been sent But it was rare Unless I needed the Governor If something came up and I needed to get him and get him immediately, I would refer back to his calendar, determine where he was, and then try to track him down

Q Okay But you had transparency into his calendar, to the extent things were calendared; is that correct?

A That's a fair statement Yes

Q Okay And if something like a game of golf was not on the calendar, are there reasons why that might be other than trying to hide the game of golf?

A I'm sure there could be Sure

Q It could come up at the last minute or --

A Sure

Q Do you know whether or not people got information from my client or from others that were, for some reason, mistakenly not on the calendar?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor He's calling for him to speculate

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Now, the Ferrari You looked at the schedule and saw that my client was scheduled to leave Smith Mountain Lake at around 7 p m on the 31st of July?

A Yes, sir

Q Do you know if that's exactly when he left or not?

A No, sir, I do not

Q Okay But he was supposed to come back that night?

A Yes, sir

Q All right And then later on you find out, I guess, I think you said within a week or so, that the EPU people were upset about it?

A Yes, sir It was sometime that week afterwards, I believe

Q Okay And you -- I mean, I don't want to use this word improperly, but you chastised the Governor for that?

A I didn't -- I didn't chastise the Governor I reminded the Governor of their job, and that was to protect he and the First Lady, and stressed the fact that they couldn't do that if he's driving a vehicle and they are following behind

Q Okay And after you talked to him about that, he never did it again?

A To my knowledge, no, sir He did not

Q And prior to that time, had he ever driven himself against the wishes of the EPU?

A To my knowledge, no, sir

Q Had he ever done anything against the wishes of the EPU that came to your attention?

A No, sir

Q Ultimately, the decision to drive the car without the EPU, whether it was over their objection or not, his call?

A Yes, sir

Q Did you understand it was difficult to have EPU people around you all the time?

A Absolutely

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Did you know anything about the EPU eavesdropping on my client's conversations --

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Now, I believe you looked at Exhibit 189

MR. ASBILL: Can you pull that back up for me, please

BY MR ASBILL:

Q This is an e-mail that you are not copied on?

A That's correct

Q From my client to Bill Hazel?

A Yes, sir

Q And this is the night that he gets back from Smith Mountain Lake?

A That's what -- that's what I've been told Yes, sir

Q Okay It's at 11:29 p m on the 31st of July of 2011, right?

A It appears to be Yes, sir

Q And you're not copied that Are you copied on everything that my client sends to Cabinet officers?

A No, sir Not everything

Q Do you have any reason to believe that you were not copied on this on purpose for some bad reason?

MR FAULCONER: Objection Calls for speculation

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q With respect to why my client wanted Bill Hazel to have Keith or Matt or somebody on his staff attend this meeting the next day, do you have any transparency into that?

A This e-mail came to my attention when I was conducting a review

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor We're getting into anything that came to his attention after the investigation If he knew at the time, he can testify to that But I object to any conversation about anything after the investigation

THE COURT: You're talking about something you learned later?

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir

THE COURT: All right Objection sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q So at the -- at the time that this -- that this happened, basically, you don't know why my client wanted Bill Hazel to do this, right?

A No, sir

MR ASBILL: Let's go to Exhibit 635 for a minute

BY MR ASBILL:

Q This is an exhibit with your handwriting on it; is that correct?

A It is

Q All right And you don't have any recollection about ever talking to my client about that after you wrote those notes?

A It had to have occurred for me to have made the request But specifics about a conversation, no, sir, I do not recall that

Q Okay But, again, didn't try to talk to him and he refused to talk to you, did he?

A No, sir I can't say that

Q All right

MR ASBILL: Let's go to Exhibit 206 that you were shown on direct Can you blow that up, please

BY MR ASBILL:

Q So this is on the 16th of August, and from you to Jasen, right?

A Yes, sir

Q All right

MR ASBILL: Scroll up Okay

Let me go to 230

BY MR. ASBILL:

Q This is the Governor's schedule for 8/30, the day of the Mansion lunch?

A Yes, sir It appears to be

Q And he had a pretty busy day that day?

A He did

Q And this was overlaid by the earth, wind and fire events that everybody has talked about?

A It was

Q You have no recollection, either on the 16th or between the 16th and the 30th, ever talking to my client about the Mansion lunch?

A No I don't think I was aware of it until the 29th And I did not discuss it with him that night

Q All right And do you know when he first became aware of it?

A I do not

Q Do you have any reason to believe that he planned it or he organized it?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR. ASBILL:

Q You say you know Jerry Kilgore, right, and you talked to him in August on an earlier occasion? Was that the 12th of August?

A I don't remember the exact date, but it was sometime in the August time frame, middle August time frame

Q All right And whenever you and Jerry were talking, who was with you, Jasen?

A Well, for that discussion?

Q Yeah For the August 12th discussion

A For that discussion, Jasen, myself There were several members of the McGuireWoods legal team that were there, and I believe at one point the Governor actually was at that meeting as well

Q All right And so a lot of lawyers, outside lawyers? There was inside counsel?

A Yes, sir

Q And you have no recollection that that discussion had anything at all to do with the Mansion lunch; is that correct?

A They were two separate discussions

Q All right So you learn about this Mansion lunch, basically, on the 30th; is that correct? One day before the event or --

A That would have been the 29th

Q 29th Excuse me

A I believe so Yes, sir

Q All right. And it comes to your attention how?

A Through an e-mail that was forwarded to me by Tucker Martin

Q All right And when that e-mail was forwarded to you, you then -- you read it, obviously, and then you met with Tucker; is that correct?

A Actually, I met with Jasen

Q Jasen Excuse me

A Yes, sir

Q And did you meet with Tucker as well or just Jasen?

A I'm assume we did discuss it He had sent it to us But I recall specifically meeting with Jasen

Q All right And before you all took action, did you ever have a discussion with my client about it?

A No It was the night before the event There was a lot going on My recollection is we saw it, and we attempted to address it as quickly as possible

Q All right And you thought that the -- you thought that the press release was essentially -- that Star was thinking about issuing was overaggressive or not appropriate --

A Yes

Q -- in terms of your view?

A Yes, sir

Q All right So you all shut that down, correct?

A We did Yes, sir

Q Did you have any reason at all to believe that you were not doing something that my client would have wanted you to do?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Did you ever later talk to my client about what you had done, in terms of revising the press release?

A In 2013, yes, sir, I did

Q Pre -- pre the commencement of the investigation?

A No, sir

Q Did my client, between the time of the lunch and the start of the investigation, ever give you any pushback on what you had done?

A No, sir

Q Did you ever talk to Mary-Shea Sutherland about it?

A As I mentioned previously, based on the e-mail traffic, there had to have been some sort of conversation, I assume, with her to get more information But beyond that, I don't recall any conversation No, sir

Q Did you inquire of her whether or not she was aware of whether or not my client knew about the existence of the press release?

A That would be logical, based on my question to her in the e-mail, and I'm assuming I had to get more information about the event from her But I can't sit here and tell you specifically how that conversation -- you know, how it played out I just don't recall that

Q But in any event, after you talked to her, you didn't talk to my client about it, correct?

A It was the night before the event, and we moved as quickly as possible, in the midst of everything else going on, to try to deal with it No, sir, I did not

Q Okay Or at any time after the lunch itself?

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, this has been asked and answered

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Now, you talked about sort of a black book, some sort of a briefing book that the Governor would get before events, and it would be stuck in the elevator in the Mansion?

A He would get his schedule for the next day It would typically either be given to him as he left, or if he had already left, it would be left in the elevator at the Mansion for him to get the night before the day

Q Okay And did you see the actual briefing memo that he got about the Mansion lunch event before he went to the lunch?

A Did I review it or see it --

Q Yeah. Review the hard copy?

A Honestly, I don't remember Again, there was so much going on that day I just -- I can't say if I did or didn't

Q Okay You looked at an exhibit in this courtroom with that particular information on it, and there were some stars or asterisks, et cetera?

A Yes, sir

Q And you said -- I believe you said that you thought that was my client's handwriting?

A It appeared to be Yes, sir

Q And do you know when, in time, those asterisks were placed on that document?

A No, sir

Q All right That particular event, the Mansion lunch, you did talk to Jerry Kilgore, you and Jasen did, on the 29th; is that correct?

A I believe that's the case Yes, sir

Q And you just told him that, you know, this is not something that was appropriate, from your perspective. And you thought the meeting went well?

A I do Yes, sir

Q The conversation, I mean

A I think he understood our concerns Yes, sir

Q And did you ever tell my client, before the investigation began, about that conversation that you had with Kilgore?

A Before this occurred?

Q Yeah

A No, sir I don't recall that

Q Did you tell him about it afterwards that you had talked to Kilgore?

A Yes, sir

Q Before the investigation commenced?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor, to conversations post investigation

THE COURT: We don't know when -- in response to this last question --

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir

THE COURT: -- are you talking about before this hit the media or sometime after?

THE WITNESS: No, sir

THE COURT: The objection is sustained Ask another question

BY MR ASBILL:

Q With respect to concern about the press release that you've been discussing or you've been describing in your conferences with Mr -- or conference with Jerry Kilgore, would I be accurate in saying that your concern was with the press release, not about the Governor?

A The concern was the press release and the inclusion of the Governor and the First Lady in the press release, the way it was worded

Q Okay But your concern was not about the Governor's conduct It was about Star's press release, right?

A It was about the press release, yes, sir That's correct.

Q Okay You talked about an e-mail I'm sorry I don't even know the exhibit number February 17th, 2012, with some -- that you didn't have any knowledge of, but you were cc'd on the e-mail

Did that kind of thing happen often; that even if you were on an e-mail, you missed it, you overlooked it?

A It did I mean, I probably averaged 3 or 400 e-mails a day, in addition to phone calls and personal visits And I did my best to read as many of the e-mails I received on days I could, but inevitably, there were some e-mails that I just did not get to in the next day's work

Q Do you have any knowledge of whether the Governor got more or fewer e-mails than you?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: He can answer that

A It wouldn't surprise me if the Governor received as many or more

BY MR. ASBILL:

Q All right The Healthcare Leaders Reception in the end of February 2012 I want to focus on that

MR ASBILL: Exhibit 345, please

BY MR ASBILL:

Q This is a calendar entry; is that correct?

A Appears to be Yes, sir

Q Reflecting a meeting between my client and Jonnie Williams that same day for 25 minutes?

A Appears to be Yes, sir

Q Okay And that's in advance of the reception that night; is that correct?

A I'm not sure what time of day the reception was But that appears to be in the afternoon The reception was likely in the evening

Q Okay

A I did not attend the reception So --

Q All right No I know you said you didn't attend the reception But this meeting is scheduled, is on the record at the Governor's Office, correct?

A It appears to be Yes, sir

Q All right And you were asked about a lot of handwritten notes by my client, four or five pages of handwritten notes

Do you know when those notes were prepared? In other words, do you know whether they were all in one day or in multiple days?

A No, sir, I do not

Q Do you know whether they were all in one meeting or all about one meeting or they were about several discussions?

A Do not.

Q Do you know whether those notes reflect my client's views, opinion, analysis, as opposed to writing down what someone else said?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q You just don't really have any idea about the contents of that exhibit; is that right?

A Other than what I testified to, no, sir

Q Okay The event that you've described briefly, the February 13th, 2013, you say you learned that Maureen McDonnell was going to be talked to by the Virginia State Police; is that right?

A Yes, sir

Q And how is it that you learned that that was going to occur?

A I believe I received a call from the Superintendent

Q And what was your understanding of the purpose of the meeting?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor Relevance as to his understanding

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Did you talk to my client about the meeting before it occurred?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you tell him the meeting had anything to do with Jonnie Williams?

A No, sir

Q You talked to him after the meeting, correct?

A Yes, sir

Q And you say he seemed upset at that point?

A Yes, sir

Q Do you know why?

A The only thing I recall him saying was that the interview was not what it was purported to be about

Q With respect to my client's personal finances, was that something that he discussed with you at any time during the years you worked for him?

A No, sir

Q With respect to his marriage and any issues between himself and his wife, are those things that he discussed with you?

A No, sir

Q Correspondingly, are those the types of things that you ever brought up or raised with him and discussed with him?

A Only if I felt like it somehow spilled over into state government

MR ASBILL: Court's indulgence one moment, Your Honor

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Going back to the discussion with Jerry Kilgore about the Mansion lunch Did Kilgore ever report to you in that discussion that my client had somehow promised Star that they could have a launch event at the Mansion?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

BY MR ASBILL:

Q After the investigation became public -- that's, what, Easter March 2013?

Q That was in March 2013 when the investigation broke or the public knew there was an investigation?

A It was sometime in that time frame March, April time frame

Q And you stayed until the following January; is that right?

A Yes, sir, I did

MR ASBILL: I have no further questions

THE COURT: All right We're going to stop now for the morning break We'll take 15 minutes

MR DRY: Judge, I just wanted to apprise the Court The government anticipates calling witnesses Skunda and Bridge tomorrow And there's a pending motion to exclude filed by the defendants, and we filed a response I don't know when the Court wants to take that up, but I just wanted to apprise the Court of that

THE COURT: So I guess that means I'll have to look at it during lunch today I'll deal with it

MR DRY: Thank you, Your Honor

(Recess taken from 11:38 a m until 11:55 a m)

THE COURT: Hold up We need the witness.

(The jury entered the courtroom)

THE COURT: All right Cross for Ms McDonnell?

MR BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BURCK:

Q Good morning, Mr Kent

A Good morning

Q My name is Bill Burck, and I represent Ms McDonnell I have a handful of topics that I want to go through with you as fast as possible

A Okay

Q First, I just want to start with when Ms McDonnell was the First Lady of Virginia, she was not a state employee, right?

A That is correct

Q She did not receive a salary?

A She did not

Q And she was not a public official?

A That is correct

Q She had no authority to hire or fire anyone, did she?

A That is correct

Q Mary-Shea Sutherland, she left the Mansion in October of 2011; is that right?

A I believe that's correct Yes

Q And I think that technically, you fired her; is that right?

A She was involuntarily separated

Q Involuntarily separated And that was your -- your authority that she was voluntarily separated, right?

A That is correct

Q It wasn't Ms McDonnell that -- that involuntarily separated her?

A That is correct

Q Now, in fact, Ms McDonnell didn't ask you to terminate her at all, did she?

A No, she did not

Q You were asked about an incident involving Nu Skin

This is back when the Governor was the Attorney General Do you remember that testimony?

A I do

Q And the -- the incident that you described was that Nu Skin was using Mr McDonnell's likeness without his permission; is that right?

A That was my understanding Yes

Q And you guys put an end to that? "You" the staff

A That is correct

Q Did Ms McDonnell, in any way, object or complain about that?

A I do not recall that No

Q Okay. Now, during the time that you were Chief of Staff, which is, I guess, the entire period of the Governor's time in office, you testified that he was the busiest person in the -- in the administration?

A No question

Q And there were times that Ms McDonnell came to you to try to get times scheduled with him; isn't that right?

A She didn't come to me I think she came to the scheduler

Q She came to the scheduler?

A She did Yes, sir

Q And you were aware of the times that she would come to the scheduler looking for time to be with

Mr McDonnell?

A I was aware of several I'm not sure if I was aware of all But I was aware of several Yes

Q And you were aware that she found that it was very difficult to find time with him; isn't that right?

A That is probably correct Yes

Q Let's talk a little bit about the summer of 2011 and Mary-Shea Sutherland and your interactions

A Sure

Q Now, you were asked about a shopping trip, I think, by the prosecutor that you didn't know about at the time in April 2011?

A (Nodding head)

Q You -- please, can you just answer --

A That's correct

Q Thanks

A I'm sorry I was waiting for you to finish your question I apologize

Q No That's okay

Did Mary-Shea Sutherland ever tell you about the shopping trip?

A I do not recall her ever telling me about that No

Q And did she ever tell you about the wedding gift to Cailin that Mr Williams provided?

A I do not believe she did No

Q Now, you testified that you recall that she said something about credit card debt of about $20,000?

A That's my recollection, yes

Q And "she" being Mary-Shea Sutherland She told you about this?

A Referencing the First Lady

Q Referencing the First Lady And also Jonnie Williams came up in the same conversation?

A I believe it did Yes Yeah It was -- again, it was in the midst of a very long protracted conversation about other issues, but I do believe she did Yes

Q So to you -- sitting here today, your best recollection is that Mary-Shea Sutherland told you something about $20,000 worth of credit card debt that Jonnie Williams may have paid for the First Lady?

A That was the gist of it Yes

Q Okay And, again, this is while Mary-Shea Sutherland was actually employed by the Mansion; isn't that right?

A That is correct

Q Did Mary-Shea Sutherland tell you that she received a dress as a gift from Mr Williams in April 2011?

A No, she did not

Q Did she tell you that she was negotiating for a job or a position of some sort with Mr Williams during the summer of 2011?

A No, she did not

Q You testified about --

MR BURCK: Can you please publish Government Exhibit 226, which is already in evidence

BY MR BURCK:

Q This is -- take a moment to look at it

MR BURCK: If you could blow it up a little bit so it's easier to read

BY MR BURCK:

Q This is a series of e-mails you testified about on direct concerning the press release, leading up to the launch?

A Yes

Q Now, do you recall if Maureen McDonnell had any involvement at all, as far as you knew, in the press release?

A No I have no specific knowledge of that

Q And these -- this e-mail chain has -- Maureen McDonnell is not on it at all, is she?

A No, she's not

Q Do you recall if, when the press release was changed, to make it more acceptable to the Mansion, to the Office of the Governor, that Ms McDonnell complained in any way, pushed back in any way?

A No

Q Okay

MR BURCK: You can take that down Thank you

BY MR BURCK:

Q Do you recall that there was supposed to be a press conference of some sort in front of the Mansion for the launch event?

A That was my understanding Yes

Q Or the lunch or the launch event, whichever?

A Yes That's my understanding

Q And that was also canceled, right?

A That's -- that's what we focused on

Q That's what you focused on You and Jasen Eige --

A Yes

Q -- and Tucker Martin?

A Tucker to a lesser extent, but primarily Jasen Eige and myself Yes

Q Okay And did you ever hear any kind of pushback or complaint from the First Lady when that was canceled?

A No

Q In December of 2011, there was SOEI training provided for the staff; isn't that right?

A December of 2011?

Q Yes

A There was some provided at some point in time I'm not sure of the exact date But yes, there was

Q Do you recall that the First Lady was provided training as part of that SOEI training?

A She -- I believe she was Yes

Q Do you recall why she was included in the training?

A I do And I think the timing, in large measure, had to do with the change in transition of staffs And she -- we -- several new hires were made after Mary-Shea had left and a few other folks had left

And I believe I spoke with my Deputy Chief Of Staff, Matt Conrad, who, I believe, is the one who conducted the training, and we felt like it was important for multiple reasons One, to try to ensure there was some cohesion within the Governor's -- I mean the Mansion Office with staff, you know And it was sort of the -- the unknown, and we felt like it was better to be safe than sorry and to have her, along with the staff at the Mansion, included to make sure that everyone was on record as to what the requirements were

Q Okay And the SOEI training, at some point you concluded that the First Lady did not have to file an SOEI because she's not a state employee, right?

A I believe our counsel's office did make that determination Yes

Q But the staff were employees of the -- of the state?

A They were Yes

Q So they would have to file SOEIs?

A Yes They should

Q Okay So the First Lady was present for the reasons you mentioned, not because she had to file an SOEI?

A That's correct

Q Okay And you -- there was a transition in staff, you talked about, after Mary-Shea left --

A Yes

Q -- or was terminated?

Can you tell us a little bit about that? There was three people that replaced Ms Sutherland?

A No There weren't three that replaced her There was one individual that technically replaced her There was another individual that was hired for a different purpose That was -- part of her job was to deal with the First Lady's initiative dealing with military spouses And so she, by default, was sort of folded into the work of the Mansion, but she was not really hired to replace Mary-Shea per se

Q Okay But when Mary-Shea left, is it fair to say that the First Lady's -- the people, the number of staff, that reported technically to the First Lady grew in number?

A There were more individuals That is correct

Q And was that partially because there was concern about the First Lady's ability to manage her office?

A Well, one individual was a request of the First Lady, someone that she had known personally and was a personal aide to her And she -- we hired her primarily at the First Lady's request

There was an individual who, I would say, to answer your question, was the primary replacement for Mary-Shea

And then there was another individual that I mentioned to you that was sort of morphed into part of the First Lady's initiatives that was actually working at the time, initially, for Public Safety and Commonwealth Preparedness
Q Okay I want to talk about the -- briefly, about the Virginia Health Leaders event
A Okay
Q Was it -- is it fair to say that it was not uncommon for any kind of event that was going to be held at the Mansion for the Governor's staff to ask the First Lady's staff whether or not they wanted to invite people to an event?
A I didn't get involved in that level of granularity, but that wouldn't surprise me if that request was made
Q And not just for that event, but I'm talking more generally That was a typical --

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor He said he's not familiar

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR BURCK:

Q Going to February of 2013 There was a -- an interview conducted by -- by the Virginia State Police of Ms McDonnell?

A Ms McDonnell Yes

MR BURCK: Please show the witness only, for identification purposes, RM-2028 And can you blow it up and then start at the bottom

BY MR BURCK:

Q Now, Mr Kent, you testified that you recalled that you received a phone call from Virginia State Police in advance of that -- that interview Do you recall that?

A I did

Q Is this an e-mail from a Steven Flaherty to yourself, dated February 13, 2013?

A It appears to be Yes

Q Do you know who Mr Flaherty or Colonel Flaherty is?

A He's the Superintendent of the Virginia State Police

MR BURCK: Your Honor, we would offer RM-2028

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BURCK: Could you blow it up entirely so we can see the whole page?

BY MR BURCK:

Q So starting at the bottom, this is an e-mail, again, from Mr Flaherty to you on February 13th It says, "Martin We want to wrap up the Chef Todd case Plan to go to the grand jury next week If the First Lady is available Friday and can block off about two hours (probably won't need that long) to talk to Charlie Hagan and Tyler Kennedy, we would appreciate it Thanks, Steve "

Do you see that?

A I do

Q And above that, you respond, "Will talk with her tomorrow Thanks, Steve," from Martin?

A That's correct

Q And then immediately above that, it says, "Thanks "

Now, what was the Chef Todd case?

A That was a separate matter in the City of Richmond involving some alleged misappropriation of state assets, mainly, food, by the former chef of the Mansion

Q And was that your understanding of what the agents were there to interview Ms McDonnell about?

A That -- that was my understanding, yes

Q Do you recall if they had mentioned to you that they wanted to talk with Jonnie Williams?

A No

Q If you look at the top of the e-mail just briefly, it says -- this is from you to Colonel Flaherty on the next day, February 14th "She is pulling together her notes so she can refresh her memory for tomorrow Go ahead and work through her office to schedule Thanks, Martin "

And then above, that Colonel Flaherty says, "Thanks, Martin," right?

A Yes That's correct

Q So as of -- this is the day before the interview, which is on February 15th, as of that point, you understood that this interview was about the Chef Todd case, correct?

A That's correct

Q And you had no idea it was also about the Jonnie Williams issue?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: He's already answered that

BY MR BURCK:

Q Now, prior to -- on the day of the interview on February 15th, did you -- were you planning to attend this interview with Ms McDonnell?

A I had initially offered to attend the interview with her

Q I'm sorry Who did you offer that to?

A I believe I offered that to the Governor

Q Okay And what did the Governor say to you?

A At the time, I think he thought it was okay And, you know, that was kind of the end of that conversation I think the understanding was is that I would attend with her

Q Okay And did you attend with her?

A No

Q What happened?

A I was contacted by Deputy Superintendent of State Police and notified that I would not be -- I would not be needed at the interview

Q You would not be needed at the interview But did you still have a choice to attend the interview?

A I don't think so

Q You did not have a choice?

A It was made clear to me that I was not invited

Q And that was made clear to you by whom?

A By the Deputy Superintendent

Q Do you know if Ms McDonnell took anyone with her into the interview?

A I do not know that she did

Q Do you know if she took a lawyer with her into the lawyer?

A I do not believe she did

Q Just a few last questions for you

MR BURCK: Just pulling up Government Exhibit

231 This has already been admitted into evidence

BY MR BURCK:

Q If you look at the second and third pages of that exhibit, you were asked about the handwriting You thought you believed that it looked like the Governor's handwriting?

A That's correct

Q And you were asked about stars that were placed next to people's names?

A Uh-huh

Q And one of the stars is John Clore, and another one is Carrie Cantrell?

A Yes

Q And the next page, Jasen Eige, John Laso And then I think Roskamp and Roskamp are written down on the third page --

A Yes

Q -- next to Diane Roskamp and Bob Roskamp And Mary-Shea Sutherland has "1st Lady Office," right?

A Yes

Q Do you see Jonnie Williams and Jonnie Williams, Jr below Mary-Shea Sutherland on that list?

A Yes, I do

Q Do you see any stars next to their names?

A I do not

Q If you look, top of the page, above John Laso, Paul Ladenson?

A I do

Q Do you see a star next to that name?

A I do not

Q And prior page, David Dean, and Fiona Crawford Do you see stars next to those names? It says Roskamp and Star Scientific?

A I do not

MR BURCK: You can take that down Thanks

BY MR BURCK:

Q And then just some final questions for you Are you aware of any -- during your time as Chief of Staff to the Governor, are you aware of any budget money going to Star Scientific or Jonnie Williams?

A No

Q Are you aware of any economic grants going to Jonnie Williams or Star Scientific?

A No

Q Are you aware of any Board appointments made to Star Scientific or Mr Williams?

A No

Q Are you aware any of legislation provided to or on behalf of Star Scientific or Mr Williams?

A No

MR BURCK: Your Honor, just a moment

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR BURCK: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: Redirect?

MR FAULCONER: Yes, Your Honor

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Mr Kent, just to follow up real quick on something that Mr Burck was just asking about with respect to state funds Are you aware of what the default is for an event held at the Mansion in terms of what pays for an event at the Mansion?

A Who pays for an event at the Mansion?

Q Yeah So if Sarah Scarbrough, for example, doesn't invoice anybody for an event, are you aware of what the default is of where that's paid out of?

A I would assume it would probably be the Governor's PAC

Q Sorry An event held at the Mansion, is that paid out of Mansion funds?

A No You said the default if it wasn't paid for out of the Mansion

Q I'm sorry Let me rephrase the question --

A I may have misunderstood your question

Q -- to be a little bit more accurate

A Yeah

Q If an event is just held at the Mansion --

A Yeah

Q -- and no invoicing is done to the PAC or to any outside groups, what's your understanding of what the default is of who pays for?

A Typically, it would be paid for by the Cabinet secretary that has requested the event or the agency head that's requested the event

Q And if no agency head pays for it, does it then come out of the Mansion budget?

A Yes It would typically come out of the Mansion budget

Q And is the person who would typically be monitoring that typically be Sarah Scarbrough?

A She would

Q Now, you were asked a few questions about the interview with law enforcement on February 15th of Ms McDonnell And you discussed potentially going or you potentially offering to go?

A Uh-huh

Q Just to be clear, were you offering to go as Ms McDonnell's private personal attorney?

A No

Q You were also asked some questions about Mary-Shea

Sutherland on cross-examination

A Uh-huh

Q And you were asked about whether or not she told you about any conversations she had with Jonnie Williams about employment

A Uh-huh

Q To be clear, in the summer of 2011, did Mary-Shea Sutherland tell you that she was looking for outside employment?

A She, most likely, did, in the midst of everything, but she never mentioned Jonnie Williams

Q But was it a surprise to you that she was --

MR BURCK: Objection, Your Honor

BY MR BURCK:

Q -- potentially looking for outside employment?

THE COURT: Overruled

A No, it was not a surprise

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And shortly before she left, do you recall whether or not Mr McDonnell wanted, based on his conversations with you, wanted Mary-Shea Sutherland to stay on staff or whether he wanted her to leave?

A He initially wanted her to stay

Q You also were asked about a couple of conversations involving Nu Skin, the product endorsement type thing that happened before Mr McDonnell took office as Governor And I believe either Mr Asbill or Mr Burck asked you about whether or not you got any pushback from Ms McDonnell about that Do you remember that question?

A I do

Q To be clear, did you have any conversation with Ms McDonnell about the Nu Skin, whatever that event was?

A No

Q You were also asked about -- I'd like to go back for just a moment to the interview with law enforcement --

A Uh-huh

Q -- of Ms McDonnell Did Mr McDonnell or Ms McDonnell, to your knowledge, ever ask you about having a personal attorney there for Ms McDonnell in that interview?

A I don't remember they ever asked me about it

Q So going back to -- past the Nu Skin, and then now into the press release for the event at the Mansion in late August of 2011 And you were asked about whether or not Ms McDonnell pushed back on you, whatever you and Mr Eige did with that press release?

A Uh-huh

Q To be clear, did you have any conversation with Ms McDonnell in which she would have pushed back?

A No

Q You were also asked about Mr McDonnell and whether he pushed back Again, did you have any conversation with Mr McDonnell about that?

A No

MR FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel

MR FAULCONER: No further questions

THE COURT: All right, sir You may stand down Thank you very much

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir Thank you

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: Call your next witness, please

MS ABER: The United States calls Sara Wilson

SARA WILSON,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Good afternoon, Ms Wilson

A Good afternoon

Q Please state your name, and spell your first and last for the record

A Sara Redding Wilson And it's S-A-R-A, W-I-L-S-O-N

Q What is your current title?

A I am the Virginia Department of Human Resource Management Director

Q Tell the jury, please, what that involves

A I'm head of human resources That -- one of the things I manage is healthcare, EEO, any type of fairness and equity type of issues, human resource policy for the state Any kinds of things like that that relate to people Worker's compensation Various human resource issues

Q Do you work within the office of a Cabinet secretary?

A I do I work within the Office of the Secretary of Administration

Q How long have you had this job?

A I've had this job since April 1998 This is my fifth governor

Q So does that mean you worked in the administration of Governor Robert McDonnell?

A Yes, it does

Q And during that administration, to which Cabinet secretary did you report?

A Secretary of Administration

Q And what was her name?

A Lisa Hicks-Thomas

Q Is it fair to say that you oversee, in part of your many hats, the health plan for the employees of the Commonwealth of Virginia?

A Yes, ma'am

Q Now, are you familiar with a company called Star Scientific?

A I am

Q Did you have a meeting with someone from Star Scientific on February 29th, 2012?

A I did

Q And who was that?

A David Dean

Q And did he make an appointment or did he just sort of swing by?

A He was a cold call Just walked in, asked if I had time to meet with him, and I did So I met with him

Q Is it common for folks to just knock on your door, swing by?

A Has it been done? Yes Is it the most common? No But it's not unheard of

Q Now, at that time --

A And it was his lucky day He didn't have to wait

Q At that time, what did you understand that David Dean did for Star Scientific?

A He was involved in sales and marketing for Star Scientific

Q And, in essence, what did David Dean want from you in that meeting? What was his ask?

A He walked into the meeting I said, "What can I do for you? What is it you want?"

And he said, "I would like Anatabloc to be covered by the employee health plan "

And I said, "Well what is this? Is this a drug? Is it covered by the FDA? What is it?"

And he said, "Oh, no No No This is a dietary supplement "

And I said, "Well, that's going to make this meeting really short because we don't cover dietary supplements in the state health plan "

Q Did you ask Mr Dean about studies of Anatabloc, scientific studies?

A Oh, yes Yes Because he's a salesman He's a good salesman And he talked about who was taking it and all the people interested in it And I wanted to see studies I wanted to see the scientific research behind this Even though we didn't cover it, I was very interested in results And we have a lot of employees that have -- that need things that would be anti-inflammatory So I looked for detailed scientific information

Q Did he say anything about having state employees participate in a pilot research study?

A At some point in time, I've talked to him several times, he may have mentioned it But employees can participate in any kind of study There's that 1 800 on the billboard, "If you have these kind of symptoms, call " They are free to participate, but it's not anything that we would sponsor

Q Okay So after you sent Mr Dean on his way, did you see him later that evening?

A Yes, I did

Q And where did that happen?

A At the Executive Mansion

Q For what kind of event at the Executive Mansion?

A I believe it was called Health Leaders meeting or Leaders in Healthcare Something along that line

Q Did you also briefly meet a gentleman named Jonnie Williams at that reception?

A Briefly

Q Okay Now, moving forward in time, almost a couple weeks, were you present at a meeting with Mr McDonnell on March 21st, 2012?

A 21st Yes Yes, ma'am

Q On or about?

A Yes 21st

Q Who else was at this meeting?

A Lisa Hicks-Thomas, Martin Kent And others may have come and gone, but those two were there for the duration

Q And Lisa Hicks-Thomas was your boss at the time, right?

A Yes, ma'am

Q Where did the meeting take place?

A Governor's Office

Q So the Governor was present?

A The Governor was present

Q Okay What was the purpose of this particular meeting?

A We were talking about healthcare

Q Was there any particular aspect that related to your job and the Virginia healthcare plan for employees?

A Yes He was very interested in implementing a consumer-driven health plan, and we were always giving him updates on that particular item Of course, I always try to get in employee compensation and other issues when I have an audience with the Governor, but the primary meeting was for healthcare

Q In a nutshell, can you tell the jury what a consumer-driven healthcare plan is?

A A consumer-driven healthcare plan is a plan that we've put in place to try and get employees to really know their numbers and be much more engaged in their health, taking care of themselves And we give them tools so that they can understand the quality and cost from their providers where you can go look it up on-line to see what certain procedures cost or what providers charge So they have the tools

And then the big difference from a regular plan is that they pay more out of pocket But to offset that, the employer gives them cash So that we give them cash for them and for their spouse, and then they can earn additional funds, what we call do rights Like if you go to the doctors, you can get a reward If you get your flu shot, you can get a reward So would get additional rewards to put into your account And anything you don't spend rolls over for your own account for the next year and keeps rolling over and over and over So it's your money to spend on healthcare

So the concept is is that if you're an employee spending your money, you're going to be a good shopper And that's what we're looking for the consumer to be a good shopper Because if they are, then they win and so does the state plan, which also means all other state employees would win too because hopefully the cost would drop

Q Now, based on your conversations with Mr McDonnell during the administration, would you say that he was a proponent of this consumer-driven plan?

A Oh, he was very much in -- very, very interested in the consumer-driven plan Yes

Q Now, at this meeting on March 21st, did Mr McDonnell make any reference to Anatabloc?

A At the end of the meeting, he did

Q Okay Tell the jury what exactly happened, to the best of your --

A He was mentioning -- we were talking about all these issues, and he pulled out a bottle, you know, one of those small bottles, of Anatabloc and talked about how much it had helped him and his wife

Q Did you try to respond to him?

A I did try to respond to tell him that I had already met with these people But there was a lot of conversation, and so I just didn't finish the -- I didn't finish my thought with him to tell him I had already met with these people

Q Had you ever seen Mr McDonnell bring out a product during a meeting like this?

A No

Q Now, after the meeting had finished, did you walk out with your boss, the Secretary of Administration, Lisa Hicks-Thomas?

A I did

Q Did you two ladies have a conversation?

A We did

Q And tell the jury what you recall about that conversation

MR BROWNLEE: Objection, Your Honor Hearsay

THE COURT: Overruled

A I participated in this conversation And when we left the meeting, Lisa turned around and looked at me and said, "He wants us to meet with these people "

And I said, "I didn't hear that He never asked" -- "there was no specific ask in the meeting "

And she said, "Well, let's go down and" -- and she said, "Well, trust me That's what he wants "

And we walked down to her office and we Googled it, because I understood from David Dean that it was being sold by GNC, but I had never scoped it out So we pulled it up and looked at the price and looked at how it was being sold And I explained to Lisa the kinds of things that I mentioned with David Dean; that, no, we wouldn't cover it, but I did offer to him a chance to give -- if it's marketed publicly, if he wanted to give an employee discount, we'd post it on the website, if employees wanted a discount, and I never heard back from them on that

MS ABER: One moment, please, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MS ABER: I have no further questions, Your

Honor Thank you

THE COURT: All right Anything for Mr McDonnell?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Good afternoon, Ms Wilson

A Good afternoon

Q My name is John Brownlee I represent Bob McDonnell, and I have a few questions for you today

A All right

Q Just to review, you were first appointed to the government by Governor Gilmore in 1998; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q And I believe you've testified that you're now on your fifth governor?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay And is it fair to say that with regard to healthcare policy and this consumer-driven policy that you talked about, that this was something that Governor McDonnell was very interested in from the very beginning of his administration?

A Absolutely

Q Okay And I believe you testified that you met with him regularly on budget issues; is that right?

A Well, if I met with the Governor, generally, it was budget, but the topic was always involving healthcare because it is a big driver for us for the budget

Q Okay Just to talk about this first meeting, this meeting with David Dean I believe you testified this was a cold call So he just --

A Cold call Just walked in

Q Wanted to talk?

A "Can we talk?" And I said, "Okay "

Q All right And is it fair to say within -- because you are the Director of Human -- let me make sure I get this right -- the Human Resources Management, that this happens somewhat frequently that you meet with these types of sales reps?

A I get vendors all the time Call all the time And we will meet with everybody Usually they make an appointment

Q Okay

A But I do meet with anybody that asks to have a meeting

Q All right And you see part of your job is to kind of hear them out?

A That's part of my job, to listen to them And anything that looks like it has merit to further along, then we move it up to the healthcare team

Q Okay And Mr Dean, according to your testimony, wanted Anatabloc added to the state employee health plan; is that correct?

A That's what he asked for

Q All right And you told him no?

A And I said, "Well, this will be a short meeting " Yes, I told him no

Q Okay And at that point he said he would try to -- I think you -- is it true that you told him that you needed to see some science behind this?

A I was interested in hearing -- I mean, he was an engaging fellow I was interested in hearing the details And if -- you know, somebody has to come up with a new product sometime, and so I wanted to see the research It sounded like it was not ready for prime time, but I was really interested in the scientific evidence that would support it --

Q Okay

A -- to keep my eye on it

Q Okay And so as the meeting left, he said he would try to follow up with you at some later date; is that correct?

A He would give me additional information at a later date Yes, sir

Q Okay Now, with regard to that meeting, best of your knowledge, Bob McDonnell didn't have anything to do with that; is that correct?

A No From best of my knowledge, this was a salesman trying to do his job, cold call on a -- somebody with the health plan where his product could be -- he thought could be benefited

Q Okay

A No I had no idea -- I didn't -- never assumed it was from the Governor

Q Okay

A Thought it was a cold call from the company

Q Okay Let me move to this Healthcare Leaders Reception You said that you attended that evening --

A I did

Q -- in February?

That you saw Mr Dean that evening?

A I did

Q This was the gentleman who had just dropped in on you --

A Yes

Q -- a few hours before?

A He must have been killing time or something He came to see me I don't know

Q Okay And did you see Bob McDonnell that night?

A I did

Q Okay Did he come by and talk to you? Do you recall?

A I don't know if I talked to him But I saw him He was busy

Q All right He didn't come by and --

A It could easily have I don't recall But it would not be uncommon for him to acknowledge your presence and say hello

Q Okay

A But I cannot recall specifically whether he did at that time or not

Q Okay Let me -- now, you had a second meeting with Mr Dean; is that correct?

A I did

Q Okay And this is, I guess, the follow-up to his original; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q Okay And at this second meeting, did he bring some slides?

A He brought a PowerPoint presentation

Q Okay And let me --

MR BROWNLEE: Could we pull up, please, RM-1448 -- just for the witness -- 0001

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And does this look like at least the front slide and the other slides of the --

A These slides Yes

Q Okay And there was a --

A Yes

Q These are these other folks

A Uh-huh

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, we would move RM-1448-01 through 31 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And so this is the package of materials that he left for you to take a look at; is that correct?

A That was his leave behind, yes, sir

Q Okay And fair to say that you reviewed these?

A I did

Q Okay And --

A We reviewed them together

Q Okay And after that, did you, once again, tell him that -- first of all, State of Virginia, your office, this kind of stuff doesn't go on your formulary; is that correct?

A Oh, he knows that

Q Okay

A He knew that

Q Okay

A I think he was just following up that -- I had asked for specific details, and this was his -- this was his specific detail, I think

Q Okay Fair to say this didn't convince you to --

A No This is not what I had in mind I was looking for a scientific document, you know, where there were studies done and research done and the probabilities and percentages of the study I consider this more marketing material

Q Okay So once again, he left without getting any of your assistance?

A That's correct

Q Okay And Bob McDonnell didn't have anything to do with this meeting?

A Not that I'm aware of Not to my knowledge at all, huh-uh

Q Okay I mean, he never asked you --

A Never

Q Now, I want to touch, finally, on this meeting that Ms Aber talked about in the Governor's Office

A Yes

Q And this was on March 21; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q Okay And this meeting talked about this rollout of this consumer-driven healthcare plan; is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay And I think you testified that at some point at the end of the meeting Mr McDonnell pulled out a bottle of Anatabloc and talked about the fact that he took it and that it had helped him; is that --

A That's correct

Q And you testified that you were talking about numbers Were those numbers, like cholesterol numbers and blood numbers? Things that people refer to in their own health?

A Yes We were trying to get employees -- one of the things about a consumer-driven health plan is to get employees to know their numbers Whether it's their blood pressure, their BMI, their --

Q What is BMI, for the record?

A We have -- it's -- it is the measure, really, of whether you're overweight or not

Q Okay

A And so that's -- we are really interested in that because if you are, it has a collateral impact on a lot of other diseases --

Q Okay

A -- which raises the cost of the healthcare So we're trying to get everybody to do right and do all the things to help them be healthier And if they're healthier, then they're at work more, and they are -- we get the work done, and they are better and healthier

Q All right Do you remember, if you recall, one of the numbers that was discussed was something called C-reactive protein? Do you recall that?

A I don't recall that, but it could easily have been discussed But I am familiar with C-reactive protein

Q All right And is that a number or a marker --

A That's an inflammatory piece to -- that goes with that, that measures that

Q All right And that has some indication of the status of your heart Is that fair?

A Yes.

Q Okay Now, I believe you stated before that it was your view that when he pulled this out, that it was like someone would pull out and say, "I like an Advil gel cap over Tylenol"; is that correct?

A He pulled it out I didn't know why he pulled it out I mean, for me, it could say -- I would say, "I like Advil gel caps over Aleve " I had no idea why he pulled it out because there was no ask There was nothing there He did pull it out of his pocket, though, and talk about it It was personal

Q Okay Now, Ms Aber talked with you about -- after the meeting you had this conversation with Ms Hicks --

Secretary Hicks-Thomas; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And there was some confusion between the two as to whether or not -- exactly what Mr McDonnell had said in the meeting?

A Well, I don't know if there was -- I did not hear him ask for anything, and she thought that -- it was my -- my recollection that she said, "He wants us to contact them " And that wasn't my recollection at all because he didn't say that

A And I had already met with these people

Q Okay And so then you went and --

A Googled them

Q -- you looked it up on -- on Google?

A We Googled them

Q And Googled them Okay Fair enough Now, you did have on your calendar, did you not, just scheduled for the next day, this meeting with Dean that you just talked about?

A That was just a follow-up meeting from our first meeting

Q Okay But that didn't have anything to do with Bob McDonnell?

A No

Q Okay All right And after that, were there ever any other follow-up or any additional meetings or anything about Anatabloc or -- or Star Scientific with you?

A The only issue that I -- when we went down, as we walked down to Secretary Lisa Hicks-Thomas' office, I explained the history I had had with learning about Star Scientific, and I explained to her that David Dean had been to see me, that I told him it was not covered, that I -- I did offer an employee discount if they wanted to offer that, and I had not heard back

We Googled them, and I said, "I'll keep you posted if I hear anything more about it And to date, we've not even heard back on the discount for state employees So we've really not talked about it since

Q Okay

A I mean, other than related to something like that But no Never followed up

MR BROWNLEE: All right Great

Thank you, Your Honor

Thank you

THE COURT: All right

MR KOFFMANN: Nothing for Ms McDonnell

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Two questions Although every lawyer says that and it's four Why, Ms Wilson, did you have an instinct to say that you had already met with the Star Scientific folks if you didn't think that Mr McDonnell was asking for anything?

A Because he was mentioning about a product, and I didn't think anybody else in the room knew about it I wanted him -- I had an instinct to say, "Yes, I was familiar with the product "

Q Okay Second question

A If you mentioned something to me, I would tell you if I knew about it or not

Q Yes, ma'am Second question I believe on cross-examination you said you didn't know why Mr McDonnell pulled the bottle out of his pocket

A That's correct

Q Were you aware that Mr McDonnell had received a 50,000 loan from --

MR BROWNLEE: Objection, Your Honor

MS ABER: The United States calls Lisa Hicks-Thomas

LISA HICKS-THOMAS,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Good afternoon

A Good afternoon.

Q Please state your name and spell it for the record.

A It is Lisa Hicks-Thomas, L-I-S-A, H-I-C-K-S - T-H-O-M-A-S

Q Did you previously serve in the Administration of Governor Robert McDonnell?

A Yes, I did

Q In what capacity?

A I was the Secretary of Administration.

Q Can you tell the jury briefly what a Secretary of Administration does?

A Sure The Secretary of Administration is a member of the Governor's Cabinet, tasked with basically the responsibility of running the back office of state government And I had a number of agencies that reported to me, including the Department of Human Resource Management, the Department of General Services, the State Board of Elections, the State Compensation Board, the Department of Employee Dispute Resolution, the Department of Minority Business Enterprise, and the State Compensation Board I think I said that

Q Did a woman named Sara Wilson report to you?

A Yes, she did. She was the head of the Department of Human Resource Management

Q And to whom did you report?

A I reported to the Governor

Q So fair to say you are part of or were part of the Cabinet?

A Yes

Q Could the Governor fire you?

A Yes

Q Just to be clear, you don't work in state government anymore, right?

A No.

Q All right In your capacity as Secretary of Administration, did you have a hand in administering the health plan for the employees of the Commonwealth of Virginia?

A Yes, I did As I said, the workforce, state employees, about 105,000 employees, were under our state health plan, and that fell under the purview of the Department of Human Resource Management and then ultimately up to me as the Secretary.

Q Who administers the health plan for Virginia state employees?

A The company, you mean?

Q I mean --

A We are self-insured The state is self-insured, but we have a third-party administrator and that is Anthem.

Q Approximately how much money during your tenure did the State of Virginia spend on the healthcare plan for state employees? Ballpark?

A Definitely in the millions of dollars

Q Now, did the state employee health plan authorize certain drugs that could be used and not used by state employees?

A Yes

Q And who made the decision about what drugs would be covered and which ones would not?

A Well, it was a joint decision I mean, the Department of Human Resource Management and the folks that were directly assigned to look at the healthcare plan, they would do research over the year as well as with our, we had different advisors, different companies that worked with us, like Aon, for example, and they would make calculations as to what was more effective or what was, you know, not being utilized or what would be, you know, less expensive, for example, and so they would make recommendations to Sara. And then Sara would bring those to me and we would look over the plan and then we would sit down ultimately during the budget cycle when we were going over the state budget, we would sit down with the Governor and folks from the Department of Planning and Budget and make those decisions together

Q Did you periodically have meetings with the Governor about the state employee healthcare plan?

A Yes

Q Did you have such a meeting back in the spring of 2012?

A Yes

Q Who was present at the spring meeting?

A I was present, Sara Wilson was present, I believe Martin Kent was there, and the Governor was there

Q And where did the meeting take place?

A I believe that meeting took place in the Governor's office

Q In general, what was the topic of that particular meeting?

A We were talking about the state employee health plan.

Q In very short terms, how would you describe a consumer-driven health plan?

A We were talking about implementing a consumer-driven health plan, which just to be brief, it is really empowering state employees or whoever is covered by the plan to have more information about their healthcare costs, and it is a way to drive down healthcare costs for the Commonwealth of Virginia and ultimately for the taxpayers

Q During this particular meeting, did Mr McDonnell make any reference to Anatabloc?

A Yes At some point in the meeting, he reached in his pocket and pulled out, he showed us the pills and he said that he had been taking them and that they were working well for him, and that he thought it would be good for like state employees, and then he said that, he asked us if we would meet with them, meet with the people

Q In that meeting, did you respond?

A I'm sure we said, "Sure " I can't remember I really don't remember word for word what I said. But that was pretty much the gist of it

Q And after the meeting finished, what did you do?

A After the meeting finished, Sara and I left the office, and I'm not sure if she told me at that point that she had already met with the folks, but we went down to my office and we went and looked it up on the computer to see what it was

MS. ABER: If I could have one moment, please, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Sure

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MS ABER: Thank you, Your Honor I have no further questions

THE COURT: Cross?

Q I think you testified at some point during this, he pulled out an Anatabloc pill or something and said he took it and thought it helped him; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q Okay And then there was some other conversation, and I think you testified that you can't remember word for word, but at some point after the meeting, you and Ms Wilson had a discussion about what he actually said, and whether or not he wanted you all to meet with him; is that right? Do you remember that?

A I don't recall that I know at some point after the meeting, Sara and I left and she said that she had already met with the people, the Anatabloc folks And then we walked down to my office and looked it up on the Internet

A Separated starting October of 2012

Q Are you familiar with a business entity called MoBo Realty LLC?

A Yes

Q What is that?

A It was a partnership between Bob and Maureen that managed the rental properties that they had

A Sandbridge, in Virginia Beach.

Q How many properties were there that the company managed in Virginia Beach?

A Two

Q Do you recall whether those properties had names?

A Yes East Coast Palace and Sunseeker

Q Do you recall approximately when the first of those two homes was purchased by the partnership?

A Sunseeker was 2005, and East Coast Palace was 2006, I think

Q Are those two houses physically close to one another in Virginia Beach?

A Across the street from each other

Q What about Ms Chamberlain?

A She was the bookkeeper

Q How frequently would you interact with them to help them do their jobs?

A Dan Cook, at tax time, to give him all the information, make sure he had all the information or answer any questions that he had. And then Brenda, a few times throughout the year I would send her just the bills and numbers or statements that we got from Sandbridge Realty

Q For her work as the bookkeeper?

A Right

Q From time to time, would Ms Chamberlain or Mr Cook provide you with copies of work product they did, whether it was tax returns in the case of Mr Cook, or copies of QuickBooks and the like in the case of Ms Chamberlain?

A She usually sent them directly to Dan Cook, and then he would give us the tax return at the end of the year

Q Who is "us"?

A Maureen and I

Q Just so we are clear in the record, your wife at the time?

A Right

Q Let's go back to 2005 or thereabouts when Sunseeker, the first of the two, was purchased In retrospect, where was the market then, if you recall generally?

A At the height

Q And have real estate values fallen since Sunseeker and later East Coast Palace was purchased?

A Yes

Q In fact, did the real estate values begin to fall shortly after those homes were purchased?

A Yes

Q What is your recollection of how the properties did in terms of rental income versus expenses year to year? On that metric, did they make money, to your recollection, or did they lose money?

A Lost money

Q And again, on an annual basis in terms of cash flow, say during the last five years you were working there, 2008 to, I guess, 2012, do you have any recollection of the approximate amount of money that the properties lost in terms of cash flow each year?

A Between the two of them?

Q Yes, sir

A 50 to $60,000

Q Now, to be fair, was your understanding that a business purpose for MoBo was to make a bunch of money on these homes?

A It was always to -- for long term investment It was for long term investment and enjoyment We knew out of the gate that they weren't going to make money

Q Okay And in fact, they didn't

A Right

Q Now, did there come a time, let's say approximately 2009, when there were some discussions about trying to sell the homes?

A Yes

Q Could we put the first exhibit for identification up on the screen, which is Government's 48 Mr Uncapher, take a look at that screen there, and we will blow up the top and scroll down to the bottom form, please, so he can identify the document Can you see this okay, sir?

A Yes

Q Go back to the top, please My question for you, sir, is whether this is an e-mail exchange in the 2009 time frame concerning putting the homes on the market

A Yes

MR HARBACH: The government offers Government's 48

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Let's start at the bottom, please, with at least the beginning of the e-mail from someone named Tom Bucker Who is that?

A Real estate agent at Sandbridge Realty

Q The e-mail that Mr Bucker has addressed his e-mail to, mcdonnell71@cox.net, do you know whose retail -- e-mail address that was?

A My wife, Maureen.

Q Your wife, Maureen

A Yes

Q Let's scroll up, please, to the next e-mail It says, the signature block on this one is from Maureen McDonnell Uncapher That's your then wife, right?

A Right

Q And do you recall what her reference to the Seibert folks means?

A Seibert was just the competing real estate company

Q Okay Then if we could scroll up to the top, the e-mail from Mr McDonnell, and what's the date of the e-mail that Mr McDonnell sends to his sister?

A April 24th, 2009

Q If we could take that one down The next one is Government's 49 for identification Same drill If you could blow it up for him a little bit Take a look at that, sir, then I'll scroll down for you. Go ahead, Mr Starnes Thank you.

MR. HARBACH And with the Court's indulgence, we will show him Page 2 just so he can identify it, please

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Mr Uncapher, do you recognize this as an e-mail exchange in August of 2009, again, about the attempts to sell the homes?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government Exhibit 49

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q I'd like to start at Page 2, the very first e-mail on the chain, at the bottom. Could you just blow that one up for us. This is an e-mail from your then wife to Mr McDonnell and you; is that right?

A Yes

Q Okay And she is talking about dropping the price on Sunseeker to 1 399k from a higher price Is it your recollection that the Sunseeker property was actually on the market at this time in August of 2009?

A I believe so.

Q All right Then a little bit later in the paragraph there is a sentence that begins "For ECP " Is that East Coast Palace, the other house?

A Yes

Q And in this one, your then wife is reporting that she recommended listing at 900,000 Does that mean that folks were contemplating putting ECP on the market at that time or do you remember whether it was in fact already on the market?

A I don't remember

Q Then finally, in that e-mail, she says, "We will either need to take a hit on the sales price or come up with 60k in a few months to make it through another off season "

What was significant about the off season to your recollection?

A Less rental

Q Say again?

A Less rental income

Q Did that make it more difficult to get through?

A Yes

Q Financially speaking?

A Well, it was definitely not even throughout the year as far as income

Q Then if we could just go back to Page 1 just to see how this turns out The second e-mail from the top is the one I care about, please, Mr Starnes Now, the second one on the screen from your then wife, Mr McDonnell's sister, she mentions somebody called Gail, and says she is going to go ahead and lower the price Was Gail a real estate agent, I take it?

A Yes

Q That's it for 49 Next document is Government's 51 for identification Again, scroll down so he can see the whole thing to identify it, please Mr Uncapher, do you recognize this to be an e-mail exchange involving, among other people, you, your then wife, and Mr McDonnell involving sale of the house?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 51

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR HARBACH:

Q On this one, the first e-mail chronologically is from you, and what's the date on there?

A December 4th, 2009

Q It is sent to Mr and Ms McDonnell and in addition, your then wife; is that right?

A Yes

Q You say, "Any luck finding a magical partner?" What does that mean?

A We were looking for, or had talked about finding somebody that was interested in either buying or becoming an investor in the properties

Q When you say "we," we are talking about that, who do you mean, sir?

A Bob, Maureen, Maureen, and myself

Q Bob, meaning Mr McDonnell?

A Right

Q Both Maureens?

A Yes

Q And you

A And myself

Q The next e-mail, that's from the Governor's sister, right, your then wife?

A Right

Q And could you read just the first couple of sentences that she writes there, please, beginning with "In other words "?

A "In other words, we are in trouble and need to act now We can look into a short sale, but we need to come up with a buyer first I understand short sales will not hurt our credit, unlike bankruptcy "

Q That's enough, sir Thank you First question is, what is your recollection of why you were in trouble?

A Just there was a shortfall every year That's what I believe she is talking about

Q Financially speaking?

A Just the shortfall for income versus revenue of the properties

Q Okay She then states, "We can look into a short sale but we need to come up with a buyer first " Do you know what a short sale is?

A Vaguely

Q Tell us your best understanding then

A That the property is sold for less than it's worth, or less than is owed on it

Q Okay Then the next sentence is: "I understand short sales will not hurt our credit, unlike bankruptcy " Do you have a recollection of bankruptcy being discussed among this group of people at the time as a possibility?

A No

Q The very end of her e-mail, she states: "From what Mike indicated last month, we need money now to make December payments " What did you understand that to mean? What are the December payments that needed to be made?

A Mortgage, mortgages of the properties

Q Then if we could scroll up to the top, Mr McDonnell responds and says, "We are working on a couple of ideas " Please, could you just note for us the date of his e-mail?

A December 4th, 2009

Q Was that after he had won the election to become Governor?

A Yes

Q But before he was inaugurated?

A Right

Q That's it for 51 Did the houses sell in 2009?

A No

Q You have testified a couple times in reference to these e-mails about a cash shortfall that you all encountered from year to year, I think you said; is that right?

A Yes

Q Generally speaking, how did the -- how did the business deal with that cash shortfall each year? In other words, what sorts of arrangements would be made to overcome those issues?

A Maureen and Bob put money into the -- personal money into the account We had a line of credit that we used for expenses And then we got a couple of loans from other people

Q All right So when you say, "Bob and Maureen could invest further themselves in the business," you are talking about the business owners, Mr McDonnell and his sister

A Yes

Q Now, the loans that you mentioned a moment ago, do you recall someone named Dr Davis?

A Yes

Q Was he among the people that a loan was obtained from to deal with these cash shortfalls?

A Yes

Q Who is Dr Davis?

A He was a friend of Bob and Maureen's

Q Do you recall what sort of doctor he was?

A Radiologist

Q Did you ever meet him?

A I did.

Q Tell us about that

A I first met him at a Christmas party

Q Do you recall when that was?

A It was Scott Rigell's Christmas party, I think, in December of 2010

Q And how did you learn that Dr Davis was going to provide a loan? If you recall?

A I don't remember

Q Okay Did you ever have any conversation with Mr McDonnell about that possibility, to your recollection?

A I don't remember a specific conversation. But, I mean, I was told either by him or Maureen --

Q Which Maureen, sir?

A My wife at the time

Q That?

A That we were going to go to Dr Davis' house to talk to him.

Q And did you in fact do that?

A Yes

Q Do you recall when it was that you went to meet with Dr Davis?

A I don't know the exact month

Q Okay We will get to a document that can help you with the date in a moment Let me ask you this before we get there Who went over there besides yourself?

A My wife, Maureen

Q The two of you?

A Yes

Q What happened when you got there?

A We talked with him and had lunch, and it was more social for most of it, and most of the time I think we were there for about an hour

Q What else happened besides lunch?

A And then talked about the loan, him giving us money for a loan

Q Did he in fact do that at that meeting?

A Part of it, I think.

Q Now, how long would you say it was after you met Dr Davis at the Christmas party that you went to his house?

A A few months

Q Could we take a look for identification at Government's 55, please? Take a look at that, Mr Uncapher Do you recognize these documents?

A Yes

Q Is this a check and deposit slip related to monies that Dr Davis provided at that meeting at his place?

A It looks like it

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 55

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Let's start at the bottom with the check, please Could we blow that up? What's the date on this check, sir?

A December 19th

Q What year?

A 2009

Q You said a moment ago that you thought the Christmas party may have been in 2010. Does this change your view of that?

A Yes

Q What year do you think the Christmas party was?

A 2009

Q Okay And did Dr Davis provide this check to you and your sister at his home that day?

A I believe so

Q All right Now, let's scroll up to the top, please, and see the very first document This appears to be a deposit slip to a bank called TowneBank, and the name up there, it says MoBo Real Estate Partners Is that your handwriting, by chance?

A Yes

Q And then on the right-hand side of the slip, it indicates $100 is in the cash block, and $9,900 for a check. Is this the deposit slip for monies you received from Dr Davis, sir?

A Yes

Q Now, did he give you a check for $9,900 and $100 cash?

A I don't remember

Q Do you remember where the $100 cash came from?

A No.

Q In any event, all $10,000 was deposited to MoBo's account on the same day; is that right?

A Right

Q And just so we can show the jury, the last part of this document, scroll down a little bit, that's the teller receipt for $100 cash, right?

A Right

Q Let's take down Government's 55, please A moment ago you said that at the meeting at his house, Dr Davis advanced part of the monies that he ultimately loaned MoBo. Did there come a time after that where he provided additional funds, additional loan proceeds?

A Yes

Q Let's take a look at Government's 59, please Blow this up for the witness Do you recognize this to be a later check that Dr Davis provided for MoBo?

A Yes

Q And the associated deposit slip

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: Your Honor, the government offers Government's 59

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Now, the check at the bottom of the screen here, this one is dated February 6th of 2010 And it looks as if it was deposited on the 8th Do you recall the circumstances of how you all received this check?

A I don't remember

Q You don't remember? So now we are up to in the neighborhood of $30,000, correct?

A Right

Q Was this the end of the line or were there additional funds after this to your recollection?

A There was a total of 50

Q A total of $50,000?

A Right

Q Now, let's take a look then, actually, you can take 59 down. Let's take a look at Government's 61, please Do you recognize this document, sir, to be an additional check that Mr Davis -- Dr Davis provided to MoBo?

A Yes

Q And the associated deposit slip?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 61

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

MR. HARBACH: Can I have just a second, please?

THE COURT: Yes

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Now, the date on this check, sir, is March 15th of 2010 It appears that it was deposited five days later on the 15th Do you have a recollection of how you all obtained this check from Dr Davis?

A I believe we went to -- I went to his house, but I don't exactly recall

Q And the handwriting on this deposit slip at the top, is that you again?

A Yes

Q Before we go on, because I forgot to ask you this, could we take a look at Government's 59, which is in evidence, just for a second? Blow up that top deposit slip for the witness, please Thank you, Mr Starnes Do you recognize the handwriting on this deposit slip, sir?

A No.

Q You can take that down So to this point, we have two checks for $20,000, correct?

A Yes

Q And then one check for $9,900, correct?

A Yes

Q So that's a total of $49,900; am I right about that?

A Yes

Q You said a moment ago that the total amount that was loaned by Dr Davis was $50,000 Do you recall that?

A Yes

Q Does that help you remember whether that additional hundred dollars in cash was part of the Dr Davis loan?

A I assume it is

Q Okay Let's take a look -- actually, before we look at the next exhibit, I think you said that the March 15th of 2010 check that we just looked at, that was Government's 61, did you say that you think you got that at Dr Davis' house again?

A I think so

Q Who was there that day, if you remember?

A I don't remember

Q Do you remember anything else that happened that day besides picking up the check?

A No.

Q At any time, was there a promissory note signed as to any portion of these loan proceeds?

A We did sign a promissory note

Q Let's take a look at Government's 60, please Is this the promissory note you just mentioned?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 60

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. HARBACH:

A Right

MR HARBACH: The government offers Government's 622

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Blow up the top of the form so we can explain this to the jury What's this document, sir? What's its purpose?

A To see how each payment is broken down and what the balance is at the end of each month

Q Okay And so the interest and principal together should be that $1,001 90 that was reflected in the promissory note?

A Right

Q Thank you. You can take down 622 That's it for the Dr Davis loan

Do you recall whether there was another person who provided -- withdrawn. Do you recall whether Mr McDonnell's father ever provided a loan to the business?

A Yes

Q What do you know about that?

A I don't even remember how much it was, but Maureen and Bob talked with their sister because she was in charge of their dad's money

THE COURT: Overruled.

MR. HARBACH: Can I tender the report to the witness, Judge?

THE COURT: Go ahead.

(Document proffered to witness)

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Mr Uncapher --

MR. HARBACH: Just for the record, I've tendered to the witness a copy of the Report of Interview from his meeting with the FBI that he just talked about.

BY MR HARBACH:

Q If I could direct your attention, sir, to Page 3, the second paragraph. It begins with the word "Regarding " Do you see that there?

A Yes

Q Just read that paragraph to yourself, let me know when you are done, and then I'll ask you a question

(Witness perusing document)

A Okay

Q My question to you is whether that refreshes your recollection at all about the approximate amount of the loan that was obtained from Mr McDonnell's father

A Yes

Q And what was that approximately, to your recollection?

A Over a hundred thousand dollars

Q Thank you, sir You can put that down Now, the Dr Davis promissory note that we saw a little while ago was signed in March of 2010 I'm going to ask you to fast forward with me to early 2011 Okay, so nearly a year later Do you recall an effort to refinance various bank loans for the rental properties in early 2011?

A I remember trying to refinance. I don't exactly remember dates

Q Okay Let's take a look for identification at Government's 84, please Just blow the content up for the witness Take a look at this for a minute and then I'll ask a question Can you see that okay?

A Yes

Q Do you recognize this to be an e-mail exchange about refinancing the loans on the rental properties?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 84

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Let's start with the e-mail at the bottom. Mr Starnes, if you could go out and zoom back in a little bit because that's small text It would be useful Thank you. This first e-mail is dated January 5th of 2011 It is from Mr McDonnell And it begins with "Ted and I had a good meeting " Do you recall who Ted is, sir?

A Ted Yoder

Q Who is that?

A He was with Monarch Mortgage

Q He worked for a mortgage company?

A Right

Q Next sentence says: "He has a plan to refinance all five loans as interest only at five percent," and so on

When Mr McDonnell says "all five loans," do you have a recollection about what that refers to?

A I believe three loans for Sunseeker, one loan for ECP, and one loan for a house in Wintergreen

Q Okay Which we will talk about in just a second. A little bit further down in that paragraph, there is a sentence that says: "This gets us halfway to savings we need." My question for you is, do you have a recollection of what you understood Mr McDonnell to mean by that, what the savings was that you all needed?

A I would be guessing at what his --

Q I don't want you to guess. My question is, do you remember whether you had any conversations with him on that issue around that time or have any recollection of what you understood him to be talking about?

A Just getting a better rate for the loans

Q Okay Let's scroll up a little bit This is your response to Mr McDonnell's e-mail on January 5th, same day And you say here: "We need to talk about BRH " What's that?

A Blue Ridge Heaven.

Q Could you explain to the jury what Blue Ridge Heaven is, please?

A That's a house in Wintergreen

Q This is the same home you mentioned a moment ago?

A Right

Q Do you recall who owned that vacation home?

A Bob and his wife and Maureen, my wife, and their sister, Eileen, bought in later

Q So in addition to Mr McDonnell and his wife, Mr McDonnell's sister, Maureen, and you, were you an owner as well or no?

A I was on the deed but not on the mortgage

Q Okay Then a new party, an additional sister of Ms McDonnell, Eileen and her husband; have I got that right?

A Right

Q Okay So last question at the top of this e-mail, there is a reference to Wintergreen. That's the same house as BRH, right?

A Right

Q So the partnership that you described just now with respect to Wintergreen, was that just a single property?

A Yes

Q Were you involved yourself at all in handling the finances for Blue Ridge Heaven?

A In the same capacity as I did for the beach properties

Q For MoBo

A Right.

Q Okay. You can take that down. Next document I'd like to show you is Government Exhibit 90 for identification, please Scroll down for him so he can see the rest Thank you, Mr. Starnes Do you recognize this to be an e-mail exchange among you, your then wife, and Mr McDonnell about loan payments related to MoBo?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: The government offers Government's 90

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR HARBACH:

Q And we can start at the bottom. This e-mail bleeds on to the next page, but let's start here What date did you send this e-mail, sir?

A March 9th, 2011

Q You say, "Here is the breakdown for what is owed for February and March." What's NFCU?

A Navy Federal Credit Union.

Q TB 1?

A TowneBank.

Q TB 2?

A TowneBank as well

Q And then Bank at Lantec Is that just another loan?

A Right

Q At least on this page, that's four different loans?

A Right

Q Okay And then let's look at the next page You tally up those payments for February and March there And then it says Bob and Mo Who is the Mo there?

A My wife

Q That's split in half because they were 50/50 partners?

A Right

Q Now, you say, "Regular payments for mortgages only are," and then the four different mortgages listed there Have I got that right?

A Yes

Q So that total that's listed there, $11,557 23 on the second page of Government's 90, what does that represent?

A The total for the mortgages of the two beach properties

Q That's a monthly payment?

A Right

Q And that's what you say in the next sentence Now, you also say, "I sent an e-mail to TB. " is that TowneBank?

A Yes

Q " this morning letting them know I would be getting both loans up-to-date by this Friday " Were you a little behind on those payments at this stage?

A Yes

Q Now, finally, if we could go back to Page 1 of Government's 90, down here, same e-mail, your opening sentence, you say, "Here is the breakdown for what is owed for February and March." Why were you doing this? Why did you prepare and send this e-mail to Mr McDonnell and your wife?

A So that they could put money into the bank to pay the mortgages

Q Take down Government's 90 Next document is Government's 91, please We are still in March of 2011, but take a look at this one for identification, please Do you recognize this to be an e-mail exchange that you and others were on concerning the attempt to refinance the loans on the homes?

A Yes

Q Or some of the loans

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 91

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Let's start at the bottom, please We will just scroll up. You can see what Mr McDonnell says, it is an e-mail to Mr Yoder on March 21st, Mr Yoder's response And the date of this e-mail is March 24th of 2011 My question for you, sir, is Mr Yoder refers in his second sentence there, "I recommend that you let Bruce and I work on a private solution for you " What did you understand that to mean?

A I didn't know

Q Do you recall having any discussions with Mr McDonnell about a private solution or a private proposal, as he refers to it in the next e-mail?

A He directed me to talk to or call Bruce Thompson.

Q Who is that?

A A developer in Virginia Beach.

Q For what purpose?

A Just to get his advice

Q On?

A On I didn't know what at the time

Q Did you have a conversation with Bruce?

A I did.

Q Did it concern an alternative financing proposal?

A It wasn't about financing, it was more marketing

Q Okay Were you involved in any way with discussions with Mr Yoder about the refinance issue?

A No

Q Okay If we could look at the e-mail at the top of the screen right now, which is the one from Mr McDonnell A little bit later on, he refers to someone named Will, says, "Will is helping with 2 75 percent on both loans for a year " Do you recall who Will is?

A Will Sessoms, President of TowneBank.

Q Okay And then finally, the e-mail at the top, this is from your ex-wife, correct?

A Yes

Q Could you read to us what she says there?

A "What an unfortunate waste of time Thanks for all you are doing, Bob. Mike--can you get on the phone with John Bishard tomorrow I can participate a few times during the day if desired."

Q Who is John Bishard?

A He is a developer in Virginia Beach.

Q Is that you, are you the Mike she is directing to get in touch with him?

A Yes

Q What was that all about?

A I don't know I never talked to him.

Q Finally there is an e-mail at the top that says mmem1@mac com. Is that your e-mail address, sir?

A Yes

Q That's it for 91 Did you ever meet Mr Jonnie Williams?

A No.

Q Did you ever speak to him?

A Yes

Q Tell us what you recall about that, the first time you spoke to Mr Williams

A I talked first with Maureen, Bob's wife, and I don't recall if she called me or I called her, and there was phone calls back and forth to try to get in touch, so I talked to her first and Jonnie was with her at the time

Q Okay

A And she passed the phone to him to talk to me

Q And do you recall what your conversation with Ms McDonnell was during that call?

A She said that Jonnie was there to talk about either buying or investing in the properties, the beach properties

Q Did you, tell us what you recall about your conversation with Mr Williams after she put him on the phone

A I told him what we owed on each property and what the approximate revenue and expenses or shortfall was for the property

Q Okay Do you recall approximately when this telephone call took place, sir?

A I don't I don't remember

Q Take a look at that document that's in front of you I'm going to direct your attention to Page 3, please There is a paragraph in the middle of the page that begins, "Regarding the loans. " Do you see that, sir?

A Yes.

Q Just take a minute, read that paragraph to yourself and let me know when you are done

(Witness perusing document)

A Okay

Q Does that refresh your recollection about when this first time you talked to Mr Williams was, approximately?

A In 2011

Q Approximately when in 2011, sir?

A Summer

Q Thank you Now you can put that down Focusing on this conversation that happened sometime in the summer of 2011, do you recall whether Mr Williams asked you any questions during that call?

A Just about the information that I gave him.

Q And did a similar incident to the one you have just described occur again several months later?

A Yes

Q Tell us what you remember about that

A It was basically the exact same conversation I had talked to Maureen first, and she passed the phone to

Jonnie Williams, and I explained the financial situation of the two properties

Q And do you recall anything about your conversation with Ms McDonnell before she passed the phone to Mr Williams?

A Same thing. She said that he was basically following up from the previous conversation, and just wanted an updated version

Q And based on your conversations on the two occasions with Ms. McDonnell, what did you understand from her to be Mr Williams' interest?

A Either buying or investing

Q Okay Now, same question as before: Do you recall approximately when this second phone conversation was?

A Early, 2012

Q And do you recall, other than asking the questions that prompted you to provide the same information as before, do you recall any other comments or questions by Mr Williams during that call, sir?

A No

Q How long would you say you talked to him on each of these occasions?

A 10 or 15 minutes

Q Between the two or each?

A Between the two I'm sorry, each phone call, is that what you are asking?

Q Yes, sir

A The same for each phone call

Q Let's take a look for identification at Government's 295, please Just scroll down for him so he can see the e-mail at the bottom. Sir, do you recognize this to be an e-mail that you sent to Mr and Ms McDonnell and some additional e-mail traffic between them?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 295

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Let's start at the bottom, please, which is what's on the screen right now Your first paragraph there, you say, "I just wanted to follow up from our meeting " Do you recall what that meeting was about?

A Not specifically No, I don't

Q Okay The date of this e-mail that you are sending is January 25th of 2012; is that right?

A Right

Q The next paragraph says: "Could you please send a check for $1,000 for your portion of past pay-in for BRH?" That's the property in Wintergreen?

A Right

Q It says Mo and Boo have both put money in and so forth Is Mo your ex-wife?

A Yes

Q Who is Boo?

A Eileen, their sister

Q The other sister

A Right

Q Okay Then a little bit down, further down there, the last line on the screen says: "For MoBo, I talked with your Mo . " Who is that?

A Maureen, his wife

Q " last week and she had me talk to the guy who is helping us." Who were you referring to when you said "the guy who was helping us"?

A Jonnie Williams

Q It then says, "He said he was going to call me the next day to get an address so he could send the first check." Who is the "he" in that sentence?

A Jonnie Williams

Q Had he in fact said that to you?

A Apparently

Q Do you have a recollection of it, sir?

A No

Q And then the e-mail says, "I did not hear from him and I left Mo " and which Mo is that?

A Maureen, his wife

Q " a message yesterday We will need to get that in the next week so we can keep up-to-date " You need to get what, sir?

A The check.

Q Now, if we can go back to Page 1 Well, just let -- you are not on either of these e-mails, are you, sir?

A No

Q We will let the jury take a look at them for a second and then I'll move on Okay, you can take down 295, please

Now, at the time that you sent the e-mail we were just looking at, which to remind you was January 25th of 2012, did you know the amount of money that Mr Williams was going to be providing?

A No

Q To your recollection, did MoBo eventually receive some money from Mr Williams?

A Yes

Q How much?

A I don't recall the total

Q Do you recall a $50,000 amount in approximately March of 2012?

A Yes

Q And then a $20,000 amount in approximately May of 2012?

A That sounds right

Q Do you recall, specifically with respect to the $50,000 payment, how you learned about that?

A No.

Q What about the $20,000 payment?

A No

Q Do you recall at all being involved in communications concerning some wire instructions?

A Yes

Q Let's take a look at those We can start with Government's 381 for identification, please. This looks a little strange I'm going to represent to you that it is a text message from Mr McDonnell to you Okay?

A Right

Q And does it concern the wiring instructions that we were just -- that you just testified about?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 381

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Can you just read to us the text there, sir, from what Mr McDonnell sends to you?

A "Can you send wiring instructions to Jonnie Williams for sending 20k to MoBo account "

Q You don't need to read the phone number It just says, "Thx, Bob" there at the bottom?

A Yes

Q What's the date of that one according to the time stamp?

A May 18th, 2012

Q Finally, take a look at Government's 385 Just blow that one up for the witness, please Same deal here, this is, I'm going to represent to you that this is a text message, okay, from Mr McDonnell to you All right?

A Right

Q Does this also concern those wiring instructions?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: The government offers Government's 385

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Looking at the bottom, sir, what's the date on this one?

A May 18th, 2012

Q Could you read to us just what the text says?

A "Michael, Jonnie's instructions Can you do Monday, Bob. Hi Michael, call my secretary Monday early afternoon she returns and will promptly wire money Jerri Fulkerson "

Q You can skip the number Thank you. Do you recall having any conversations with Mr. McDonnell about any of the terms regarding this money from Mr Williams?

A He said he was working out the terms That's all I --

Q Do you recall what the duration of the loans was going to be?

A No.

Q What about whether there were any payments due on a monthly basis for the loans?

A I don't know.

Q Okay Could you take a look with me, please, at Page 4 of that same report that's in front of you, sir There is a paragraph -- are you on Page 4, sir?

A Yes

Q There is a paragraph near the top that begins "Over the next few months " Do you see that there?

A Yes

Q Same drill Could you just read that paragraph to yourself and then I'll have a question for you, okay?

(Witness perusing document)

Let me know when you are finished.

A Okay

Q Are you finished reading?

A Yes

Q First question is, do you recall having read that now whether you had an understanding at the time about whether these monies received from Mr Williams were gifts or loans?

A It was a loan.

Q And do you recall based on conversations with Mr. McDonnell, among other things, and your ex-wife, what the term of the loans was; in other words, how long the loan term was going to be for?

A No payments due for three years.

Q Okay And then finally, do you recall any -- whether any provision was made for Mr Williams to use the properties from time to time?

A Yeah, he could use it and that would offset some payments

Q Do you know -- you can put that down. Do you know whether Mr Williams in fact ever used either Sunseeker or East Coast Palace?

A Not to my knowledge

MR. HARBACH: Can I have a moment, please, Judge?

THE COURT: Sure

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Last couple of questions, Mr Uncapher Do you recall whether there there was any loan paperwork that you saw related to the $70,000 in proceeds from Mr Williams in 2012?

A No

Q Do you have any recollection of whether MoBo in fact made any loan payments to Mr Williams or Starwood Trust while you were handling payments for MoBo?

A No

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor I have no further questions at this time

THE COURT: Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. SMALL:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Uncapher I'm Dan Small I represent Bob McDonnell A few questions for you You said that MoBo was an entity, an LLC; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And it was owned jointly by Mo and Bob That was the reason for MoBo, right?

A Right

Q The name Could we call up just for the witness RM-0502, please? Do you recognize this as the certificate for MoBo LLC, MoBo Real Estate Partners, LLC?

A Yes

MR. SMALL: I offer that into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted. What's the number on it, again?

MR. SMALL: 0502, RM-0502

THE COURT: All right

BY MR. SMALL:

Q Now, so there were just two partners, correct?

A Right

Q Mo and Bob And if I call your wife Maureen, Mo, that's what you called her, right?

A Yes

Q So maybe that will make it a little easier

A Yes

Q So, and we talked about the fact that there may be a gap between expenses and income, right?

A Right

Q In fact, that was the understanding you said right from the beginning, correct?

A Right

Q And so if there was a gap, it would be up to Mo and Bob to decide whether to fill it and how to fill it, correct?

A Right

Q And --

THE COURT: I have a question It was the understanding from the beginning that they were going to be looking at 50 and $60,000 --

THE WITNESS: That there was a shortfall, yes

THE COURT: All right Go ahead.

BY MR SMALL:

Q Am I correct that the reason for that is that this was viewed more as a family gathering place than as a day-to-day profit/nonprofit investment, right?

A Yes

Q Bob McDonnell, there are five siblings, right?

A Right

Q And at one time or another, all five of them and their families came to these properties to use them?

A Yes

Q And you and Mo used them?

A Yes

Q And other members of the family would use them?

A Yes

Q Now, most of the costs were covered by rents; is that correct?

A Yes

Q The overwhelming majority of the costs were covered by rents each year, right?

A Yes

Q And we saw the mortgage numbers Most of the mortgage payments were covered by rents, right?

A Yes

Q But there was always going to be a gap, correct?

A Right

Q So, and that gap, you testified, was also somewhat aggravated by the season; is that correct? It is going to be bigger during the winter

A It wasn't even through the year

Q Got you When MoBo was started in 2005, Bob McDonnell was running for and became Attorney General, correct?

A Right

Q And your wife, Mo, chose a different career path, right?

A Right

Q And she became a very successful executive in the private sector, right?

A Yes

Q Earning a large salary?

A Yes

Q Had a large amount of money in stock accounts and other savings accounts?

A Yes

Q And in fact, you are aware that in 2012 she had over half a million dollars in income?

A Yes

Q In the seven years that you were involved in managing MoBo's books, did you ever have any concern that the partners were not going to be able to come up with the money to pay the bills?

A No

Q Okay That was a given, right?

A Right

Q The question only was, how would they do it; is that fair?

A Right

Q And in some years, so in those seven years, there were loans from three different people; is that correct?

A Yes

Q The father, John McDonnell, and Dr Davis, and Jonnie Williams, right?

A Yes

Q So I assume that means that in some years there were no loans, right?

A Right

Q So from about 2005 through about 2008, things went pretty smoothly in the management of MoBo, correct?

A Yes

Q In that four or five-year time there wasn't a single late fee, correct?

A Right

Q In 2009, in addition to what we talked about, the fact that the market crashed, right? But there were some other things that changed, weren't there?

A Yes

Q Tell the jury what those were

A In 2008, Mo and I had a baby During her pregnancy she was on bedrest for six-and-a-half months And then my business, I closed my business in September of 2009 And then after having our baby, she was, she had a significant amount of health concerns that we were in and out of the hospital, or she was in and out of the hospital right after our daughter was born, and then up to and including going to the Mayo Clinic for ten days

Q With all of this going on, where did MoBo fit on your list of priorities?

A At the bottom.

Q Okay And is it fair to say that you started to have problems just with managing the cash?

A Right.

Q And there started to be a lot of late fees

A Yes

Q And those late fees reflected your mismanagement of the money, didn't they?

A Right.

Q They didn't reflect problems with finances, right?

A Right

Q Mo had plenty of money, she just needed to know when to put it up, right?

A Right, she did.

Q I'm not going to go into the details, Mr Uncapher, but isn't it fair to say that there were also problems with your having moved some money out of the MoBo account to other accounts?

A Yes

Q And that also made the finances of MoBo a little more difficult

A Right

Q But that all got resolved, right?

A Right

Q So the loan from the father, John McDonnell, that was back in 2007; is that right?

A Right

Q And then the Dr Davis loan was in 2009, correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And then we talked about the Jonnie Williams loans in 2012, correct?

A Yes

Q The Jonnie Williams loan, the first loan, I think we saw, was in March of -- I'm sorry, in May of 2012; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Now, I was right the first time. It was in March of 2012. Right?

A Uh-huh

Q And you are aware -- and so, again, they made a decision that they would use a loan to fill that gap

A Right

Q But there was plenty of other money available to fill that gap, right?

A Right

Q And in fact, you are aware, aren't you, that within literally days of that $50,000 loan in March of 2012, Mo got a bonus of $70,000 from her company, right?

A Right

Q So there was never any desperation, was there?

A No

MR. HARBACH: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. SMALL:

Q You knew the bills were going to be paid one way or the other, right?

A Yes

MR HARBACH: Objection.

THE COURT: Sustained.

MR SMALL: Nothing further

THE COURT: Mr Burck?

Q Do you recall that the Governor's cell phone at the time was 0714?

A Yes

MR BURCK: We would offer RM-0106-220, 221, and 287 into evidence I would offer all of the phone records, Your Honor, but we don't have them all redacted yet

THE COURT: All right 220, 221, and 287 will be admitted

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Sir, you will see there that there are, there is a call starting at 9:57 a.m., this is from Ms McDonnell to 2465 on May 2nd. Do you see that?

A Yes

Q That's your phone number?

A Yes

Q You will see that it is for one minute

A Right

Q Then you will see below that there is a phone call from Ms McDonnell to 0673, which I think you have testified is your former wife's number?

A Yes

Q That's for one minute

A Right

Q You will see below that there is a call from Ms McDonnell, two minutes after that, to 0714, which you testified is the Governor's cell phone, correct?

A Right

Q Right after that, you see that there is, one minute later, there is another call to 0673, which is Maureen, your wife's, phone number?

A Yes

Q Another one a minute later again to your wife, and then another one a minute later to you

A Yes

Q So that's six phone calls to your former wife, the Governor, and yourself in that roughly five-minute period

A Yes

Q Then you will see on the next page, turn the page to 221, please, the very top There is a phone call at 10:44, this time from you to Ms McDonnell Do you see that?

A Yes

Q And that is actually for 13 minutes

A Right

Q So that looks like you actually had a conversation with her in that period, right?

A Right

Q I showed you in the Mansion log earlier that Mr Williams was present at the Mansion on May 2nd from 9:24 to approximately 11:30 that day, remember that?

A Yes

Q So does this help refresh your recollection as to when you had this phone call with Maureen McDonnell that she put Jonnie Williams on the call?

A Yes

Q You think it was May 2nd, 2011?

A Yes.

Q Now, focusing on that conversation, you testified that you got a call, you called or received a phone call from Maureen

A Right

Q It looks like that you actually called her back, right?

A Right

Q And you said that Maureen gave you the phone to talk to Jonnie Williams?

A Gave Jonnie the --

Q I'm sorry, excuse me, gave Jonnie Williams the phone to talk to you

A Right

Q Because she was present with Jonnie Williams; that's what you understood?

A Right
Q Can you tell us, what did Maureen McDonnell say to you describing Jonnie Williams? The best you recall.
A Just that he was interested in buying or investing in the properties
Q Okay Did she mention to you that he has been looking for property in Virginia Beach?
A Not that I remember
Q Okay And when you talked to Jonnie Williams about the properties, what did you say to him, to the best of your recollection?
A I just told him what we owed on each property and what the average expenses were for the mortgages
Q Did you tell him what the annual deficit was?
A Yes
Q What was that?
A Between 50 and $60,000
Q The words 50, $60,000 came out of your mouth?
A Yes
Q Then Mr Williams handed the phone back to Maureen?
A Yes
Q And when you said 50 or $60,000 to Mr Williams, was Maureen McDonnell on the phone?
A Was she on the phone?
Q Was she on the phone?

A I was talking to Jonnie

Q He didn't have it on speaker or anything like that?

A Not that I know of, no

Q Okay Now turning to page RM-0106-287 Actually, before we do that, can you call up Government Exhibit 290? It is already admitted into evidence If you could blow up the 11:05 period. You will see that there is a reference there, this is again a Mansion log, and this is dated January 19th, 2012 You will see there is a reference to Williams, Bobby is crossed out, it says, "To see 102 " I'll proffer to you that's Jonnie Williams to see the First Lady He comes in at 11 o'clock and leaves at 1300, 1 o'clock.

A Yes

Q If you could show Government Exhibit 295 This is already admitted into evidence And the bottom e-mail This is from you, you testified a bit about this e-mail, from you on January 25th, 2012, so about six days later, to Bob and Maureen McDonnell It is actually to Bob McDonnell, I think you testified, "Dear Bob " The last sentence you say on that page, "For MoBo, I talked with your Mo last week and she had me talk to the guy who is helping us " Right?

A Right

Q And "your Mo," you testified, was Maureen McDonnell, the First Lady, right?

A Right

Q You were telling him that you had spoken to Maureen McDonnell the prior week, right?

A Yes

Q Going back to, please put up the phone records for RM-0106-0287 Blow up the middle there for me, please You will see, these are phone records of Maureen McDonnell Again, there are two calls, one to you and one from you. One is at 12:01 p.m. on January 19th This is to you from Maureen McDonnell And there is one on January 19th at 12:11, which is from you back to Maureen McDonnell, 12 minutes Does this help refresh your recollection as to when you had the call with Jonnie Williams the second time?

A Yes

Q So January 19th, 2012, fair to say?

A Yes

Q And during that call, you testified that it was more or less sort of a replay of the first phone call; is that right?

A Right

Q And you discussed in that call the financial situation of MoBo?

A Yes

Q And you told him again about a 50 to $60,000 deficit?

A Yes

Q And those words again came out of your mouth, right?

A Yes

MR. BURCK: Your Honor, no further questions for us

THE COURT: All right Redirect?

MR HARBACH: Yes, Your Honor, thank you

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Mr Uncapher, during either of these phone calls where you spoke with Jonnie Williams, did he say to you, "Sounds great, Michael, I'm going to loan MoBo $70,000"? Did he tell you that?

A No

Q Do you recall how you learned that Mr Williams was going to be helping you out?

A I don't recall specifically I just heard it from either Bob or Maureen, my wife

Q You testified on cross-examination to Mr Small with respect to the loan from Mr McDonnell's father He asked you, "That was in 2007, correct?" And you said, "Right " My question for you is, do you actually remember that that loan was in 2007?

A It was early on I don't exactly remember what the date was

Q Okay How many times did you meet with Mr Small before you testified here today, sir?

A Three

Q And after the one interview that you have testified about you had with the FBI that was approximately a year ago, how many times have you met with government counsel?

A None

Q You testified on cross-examination about the anticipated shortfall for MoBo year to year, and I think His Honor asked you a question about the 50, $60,000 amount Do you recall that exchange?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: Could I show the witness for identification, please, Page 8 of Government's 513?

BY MR. HARBACH:

Q Do you recognize this document, sir?

A I don't know who did it

Q Does this look like the type of document that Ms Chamberlain prepared based on the books of the business?

A Again, I never saw this She sent those directly to Dan Cook.

Q Okay Then we will leave it up just for the witness, please, and look at Page 9 I'm sorry, take that down for a second, please Do you recall exactly how much the shortfall was for each of the years of 2008 through 2012?

A I don't know exactly It was an estimate of 50, that was what we banked on, an estimated 50 to 60

Q Now, let's take a look now at Page 9 of Government's 513 just for the witness's review Blow that up for him. Are you able to see that okay, sir?

A Yes

Q Does that refresh your recollection about whether in fact for the years from 2008 to 2012, at least, and in three of those five years, the shortfall was substantially in excess of $60,000?

A Again, I never saw those things, I was always going off the estimate I see what's written there

Q All I can ask you is what your recollection is Do you recall --

A No --

Q Let me ask the question first, please Do you recall in 2009, 2010 --

MR. SMALL: Your Honor, may we approach? He is talking about depreciation and paper losses I object to the use of a document this witness knows nothing about

THE COURT: That objection will be sustained.

MR HARBACH: You can take the document down, please

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Did you know at the time, do you have any recollection of knowing in 2009, 2010, 2011, what in fact the cash shortfall was year to year? Did you know?

A No For me it was always an estimate of 50 to $60,000

Q And what was that based on?

A Just rough guesses of handing over the numbers to Brenda

Q And then my last question is, did I understand your testimony correctly on cross-examination to be that when the business was formed, it was anticipated that there would be a cash shortfall year to year of 50 to $60,000; is that your testimony?

A That was the rough estimate, yes

MR. HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor

THE COURT: I have a question.

BY THE COURT:

Q Were the loans, and I guess we have identified three, were the loans to fill the shortfall?

A Yes

Q So at one time there was a $100,000 shortfall?

A Apparently Like I said, I've never seen that document

Q All right Thank you.

THE COURT: You may stand down, sir

(Witness stood aside)

All right, we will go ahead and take a break. 15 minutes

(Recess taken from 3:41 p.m. to 3:55 p.m.)

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor --

THE COURT: Yes

MR BROWNLEE: -- before we bring the jury in, can we -- Ms Krueger is next?

MR DRY: Yes

MR BROWNLEE: Yeah Can we just -- can we raise one issue with this next witness before she comes in, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Okay.

MR BROWNLEE: Do you want us to --

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench)

MR BROWNLEE: Judge, I think that the government is going to try to introduce an e-mail, going to try to introduce that

MR FAULCONER: Let me double-check It may be an e-mail depending on her recollection

Which one is that?

THE COURT: What's -- who's the witness?

MR FAULCONER: The witness' name is Sharon Krueger, Your Honor K-R-U-E-G-E-R

What's the date of that one, John?

MR BROWNLEE: It's 11/22/11

MR FAULCONER: Can I see that?

MR BROWNLEE: Sure

MR FAULCONER: Is this the one that has a photo on it, the other version?

MR. BROWNLEE: No

MR FAULCONER: I don't think we currently intend to offer it, but it's possible

MR BROWNLEE: Just to raise this, Your Honor Basically, this is an e-mail that summarizes a call she had with John Lazo Mr Lazo has already testified So when he was on the stand, this particular subject wasn't -- they didn't go into it so we didn't cross on it

And now what I think they are going to try to do is ask her about this conversation, about what he told her And we just can't confront him now He's come and gone He was here And so we just wanted to raise this If they are not going to do it, that's fine, but I just wanted to do it before the witness got in the seat

THE COURT: I don't see any particular problem with that If -- if you have to use it, you'll have an opportunity to deal with whatever he does here That's an objection that will be overruled at this time

MR FAULCONER: Thank you, Your Honor

(In Open Court)

(The jury entered the courtroom)

THE COURT: All right Government, call your next witness

MR FAULCONER: Yes, Your Honor The United States calls Sharon Krueger

THE COURT: All right

SHARON KRUEGER,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

MR FAULCONER: May I inquire, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Go ahead

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Good afternoon

A Good afternoon

Q Could you please state your name, and spell your last for the court reporter

A It's Sharon Ann Krueger K-R-U-E-G-E-R.

Q And, Ms Krueger, what city do you currently live in?

A I live in Earlysville, Virginia

Q And where do you currently work?

A I work for the University of Virginia

Q And how long have you worked at UVA?

A I have worked at UVA since July of 2003

Q And what is your current title at UVA?

A My current title is I'm the Program Director for Innovation Grants & Relationships

Q Now, prior to taking on that role and focusing in on the time frame of August to December of 2011, what was your role during that time frame?

A I oversaw strategic partnerships Basically, I'm still doing the same that I did then, but I have added responsibilities that just started in May

Q And which office within UVA are you working in?

A I work for the Vice President for Research, and I have a cross appointment in an initiative out of the VPR Office called UVA Innovation

Q Now, the VPR Office is that the Vice President for Research?

A Correct

Q And could you tell us, just briefly, what exactly is UVA Innovation?

A UVA Innovation is primarily the technology transfer arm of the university And part of that involves -- in addition to the technology transfer arm, it involves oversight on our internal proof-of-concept Translational Research funds Industry partnerships that advance research

Q And so during that time frame of about August to December of 2011, what were your day-to-day responsibilities, generally speaking?

A I serve as a point person for research industry --

serve as a point person for industry interactions for R&D, for research and development I also partner with people across the university to plan and manage and run entrepreneurial and innovation events, be it at the university level, the community level, and all the way up to the national level

Q Now, Ms Krueger, UVA, is that a state school or a private school?

A We are a state school

Q As a UVA employee, do you receive certain e-mails addressed to all state employees?

A Yes, I do

MR FAULCONER: I'd like to show the witness what's already been admitted as Exhibit 525 And if we could zoom in just on sort of the top half of that

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Ms Krueger, does this look like one of the types of e-mails that you would get on the state employees's ListServ?

A Yes, it does

Q Is this dated during a time period when you were employed by UVA?

A Yes, it is

Q And would some of the e-mails that you received have this seal and Office of Governor Bob McDonnell at the top of them?

A Yes They all do

Q All of them at least that come from the Governor's Office?

A That come from the Governor's Office Yes.

Q Now --

MR FAULCONER: We can go ahead and take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, as someone working within UVA Innovation as part of the Vice President for Research, do you interact with state government officials who aren't UVA officials?

A Yes, I do

Q And, generally speaking, would you prefer to have good relationships or bad relationships with those people?

A Good relationships

Q Now, while working at UVA Innovation, have you also helped plan events related to UVA research initiatives?

A Yes, I have

Q And have those included events in which you have invited public officials to attend them?

A Yes

Q Has that included the Governor?

A Yes

Q Did that include when Mr McDonnell, when he was

Governor?

A Yes

Q And have those included events in which Mr McDonnell declined to attend, despite having been invited?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 517 Now, Ms Krueger, is this a fairly lengthy e-mail exchange between you and other individuals at UVA?

A Yes

Q And does this pertain to an invitation for Mr McDonnell to attend an event in 2013?

A Yes, it was

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, I'm going to object This is an invitation that was declined in May of 2013 I don't know what the relevance to this case would be

THE COURT: Overruled

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 517 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, without going through the whole e-mail exchange, can you just tell us, if you recall, what the event was that you invited Mr McDonnell to attend?

A Charlottesville and UVA, as the host school, was selected by the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities to host a summer meeting for one of their Councils and Commissions on graduate studies, and the Commission on Innovation and Economic Prosperity

Last year -- or the prior year, when the conference was at the University of Nebraska, the Governor spoke So we were just following the protocol that Nebraska followed, did the year before

Q And when you say the Governor spoke at the prior year, was that the Governor of Nebraska?

A The Governor of Nebraska

Q And why did you want Mr McDonnell to attend the event?

A More so, we were just following the protocol that if Nebraska had their Governor when the event was in Nebraska, we wanted our Governor at the event when it was held in Virginia

Q To your recollection, did Mr McDonnell actually attend this event?

A No, he did not

Q Did he send someone in his place? Do you recall?

A Yes, he did

Q And who was that?

A That was Secretary Jim Cheng

Q Do you know which secretary he is?

A Oh, of Trade and Commerce

MR FAULCONER: All right We can take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, before 2011, had you heard of the company either Star Scientific or Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals?

A No, I had not

Q How about Anatabloc or anatabine?

A No, I had not

Q Do you recall learning, at some point in 2011, about an event at the Governor's Mansion involving Star Scientific and its Anatabloc product?

A Yes, I did From one of my colleagues

Q Was that individual Dr John Lazo?

A Yes, it was

Q Did you also talk about it with some other people?

A Really, pretty much it was John -- the best I can recall, it was just Dr Lazo

Q Now, do you recall actually having both some e-mail correspondence and a couple of phone conversations with various people in 2011 about Star Scientific and Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals?

A Yes, I do

Q And in the course of that process, did you learn about a number of UVA doctors who had received planning grants from Star Scientific for the purpose of creating study proposals?

A Yes, I did

Q And I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 268 Ms Krueger, do you recognize this as a chart of essentially doctors and -- that received grants?

A Yes

Q And is this a document that you actually had in your files as you were looking into this?

A Yes This is created by our Office of Sponsored Programs It's a standard research document

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 268 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR FAULCONER: All right Now, if we could zoom in on the first five columns there I guess it doesn't get that If we could zoom in on sort of the top half to start Thank you, Mr Starnes

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, do you see the names there, Ronald Turner, Brian Annex, and Eugene Barrett?

A Yes, I do

Q And do you know who those individuals are?

A Yes, I do

Q Who are they?

A Well, they are all clinicians in the School of Medicine, clinician researchers in the School of Medicine

Q And do you know why they ended up on this chart?

A They received a pilot grant from Star Scientific

MR FAULCONER: And if we could scroll down a little bit

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Do you see there also the name Jonathan Truwit?

A Yes, I do

Q Is that another UVA researcher, who, to your understanding, had a grant from Star Scientific?

A Based on this document, yes

Q Now, when you were looking into this, what was your understanding of what the purpose of the -- I think you said pilot grant was?

A Yes My understanding was that it was just to start to do -- to test the potential compound in different disease states

Q And was it your understanding of whether there would be any follow-on funding from any alternative source later on?

A No, not to my -- not to my knowledge

Q Well, do you recall what the size of the initial planning grants were that came in?

A Yeah They were $25,000 each

Q And was that all the money to fund all the research or would there need to be an application made at some point for additional funding?

A Via e-mail conversation, I know a request for proposals went out for the -- for the researchers to apply to get the money

Q Okay And was that to apply for a larger amount of funding to actually do the studies themselves?

A No That was to apply to get the $25,000 each

Q All right Well, let me show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 259 Do you recognize this as an e-mail from an individual named Jeffrey Blank to you?

A Yes

Q Is this dated November 8th, 2011?

A Yes

Q And is this towards the beginning of when you started to look into these grants?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 259 into evidence.

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, can you start by telling us who Jeffrey Blank is?

A Jeffrey Blank also works in the Vice President for Research Office He primarily is -- he's not on the research end like I am He primarily takes care of a lot of the HR issues He works with gathering a lot of the information for reports that are due to the President of our university.

Q Now, do you see there where -- do you see what the subject line of this e-mail says?

A Yes

Q And what is the subject line?

A "Star Scientific and State Tobacco Commission Collaboration" with a question mark

Q And in the body of the e-mail that's forwarded to you, do you see a reference to planning grants of $25,000 each?

A Yes, I do

Q And those doctors' names, Gene Barrett, Ron Turner, and Brian Annex, are those some of the doctors we saw on the prior page?

A Yes, they are

Q Now, can you tell us -- where the sentence says, "At UVA they went to," what does it say after "to support" in terms of where the larger amount of money was supposed to come from?

A "To support planning work in advance of what was to be a larger award expected from the" -- "from the Virginia Tobacco Commission that Rock Creek indicated to the schools they would secure "

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: Now, if we could scroll down a little bit

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Could you read for us just the first two sentences of that second paragraph?

A "Peggy mentioned these planning awards were announced by the Governor of Virginia at a public event In addition, the Governor's wife has publicly disclosed that she is a happy user of the company's products and perhaps the Governor as well "

Q Do you know who Peggy is that's referred to in that --

A Yes Peggy Shupnik is the Dean of Research in the School of Medicine and also an endocrinologist researcher

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: We can take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, after learning this information and getting these e-mails forwarded to you, did you actually do some due diligence or looking into Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals and Star Scientific?

A Yes

Q And did you keep individuals who worked with you in the VPR's Office apprised of what you found?

A Yes, I did

Q And was one of those supervisors or individuals someone named Mark Crowell?

A Yes

Q And is his name actually Wriston Mark Crowell?

A That -- legally, yes. But he professionally goes by Mark Crowell

Q And was he the predecessor to the position you're now in?

A No He was actually my boss

Q Got it

A And he has since retired from the university

Q Got it Now, I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 261 Is that an e-mail exchange between you and Mr Crowell the following day, on November 9th, 2011?

A Yes

Q And is this discussing what you were looking into?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 261 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Ms Krueger, could you read the bottom e-mail, the one that you sent to Mr Crowell on November 8th, 2011, at 8:17 p m Just that first paragraph there

A "So got more information, interesting I'm going to do a bit of diligence as well and let you know what I found out Personally, I think the Governor's wife or assistant may look like the Governor is influencing UVA to a potential action Just odd in my opinion "

Q And what does Mr Crowell write in response to you?

A "Great reports Kind of agree that the Rock Creek thing - this makes me uncomfortable "

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: We can take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 262 Is this another e-mail from you to Mr Crowell dated November 9th, 2011?

A Yes, it is

Q And is this another e-mail where you're forwarding some of the information that you've obtained?

A Yes, it is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 262 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR FAULCONER: Now, if we could zoom out and then go to the second page of this document

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Can you tell us what that photo is that is embedded within this e-mail?

A This is a photo of Governor McDonnell with a microphone, speaking at an event with a company logo behind him

Q And do you recall where you obtained this photograph from before you put it in the e-mail?

A I captured it from a Facebook page

Q And do you know if that was a Facebook page affiliated with Star Scientific or Rock Creek?

A You know, honestly, I don't remember, because it was taken down almost immediately I honestly don't remember

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: Well, if we could go to the first page of the e-mail

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Could you read the last bullet point in that e-mail, just at the very bottom under --

MR FAULCONER: Yeah Right there

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Just that last e-mail where it says, "Virginia State Government "

A "Set up visit to UVA by Curtis Wright from Rock Creek UVA: You, me, Tom" -- that's referring to the Vice President for Research -- "Peggy, Ron and maybe Phil Rock Creek: Curtis Wright Virginia State Government: Yes/no -- this is the awkward part -- as Governor McDonnell has publicly announced his support for the parent company Star Scientific "

Q Now, that statement there about Mr McDonnell, what was your basis for making that statement?

A The photo and just the press release

Q Now, I'd like to ask you about as part of your due diligence, did you also have some phone conversations with Dr Lazo? I think you referenced him earlier

A Yes, I did

Q And what was your understanding of his role within this whole process as it unfolded?

A So he attended a luncheon at the Governor's Mansion, and we talked about what that event was like

Q During at least one of -- did you have just one conversation with him or do you think you had several?

A According to his testimony, it looked like he called me when he was driving back But I think he called my boss because I was --

Q Ms Krueger, just focusing on your recollection and not commenting on anything else Do you recall having any conversations with Dr Lazo?

A Yes, I do

Q And do you recall one of those being in November of 2011?

A Yes, I do

Q All right I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 264 In looking at this page, and then flipping briefly to the second page, are these handwritten notes that you took during your conversation with Dr Lazo, at least whatever one occurred in November 2011?

A Yes, they are

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 264 into evidence

MR BROWNLEE: Just note our objection, Your Honor

MR KOFFMANN: Same objection

THE COURT: They will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, what are the -- after you write down, "Call with John Re: Meeting at Gov - lunch," do you know what you're referring to when you say, "Gov" there, before the word "lunch"?

A Governor

Q And what do you write underneath that on sort of the first line where there are two lines on either side?

A "Governor Mansion for lunch."

Q Do you recall that coming up in your conversation with Dr Lazo?

A Yes, I do

MR FAULCONER: Now, if we could go to the second page, and the bottom right-hand portion

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Do you see there --

MR FAULCONER: Yep There we go

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Do you see there what you write on the first two lines that are being shown here?

A Yes

Q What do you write?

A "Governor wants to get something good out of tobacco - grow - harvest - medical "

Q And do you recall that coming up in your conversation with Dr Lazo?

A Yes

Q Now, going over to the left of this document, do you see where you say -- there's something Am I reading this correctly? It says, "It's transparent and not put us in comprised position " Do you see that?

A Yes

Q What are you talking about there?

A We were talking about if we would put in a Tobacco Commission grant, to make sure that everything is completely transparent and not to put UVA in a compromised position with doing research -- how can I describe this? We didn't want to be put in a position that we were being told to do or directed to do research

Q By whom?

A By the company

Q Just the company or did it also include politics?

A To the best that I can remember, probably both

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: We can go ahead and take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, at some point after your conversation with Dr Lazo, did you participate in a conference call with some individuals affiliated with Rock Creek and Star?

A Yes, I did

Q And do you recall, was that later on, towards the end of November 2011?

A Yes, it was

Q Do you recall who was on that call?

A It was myself from -- from UVA was myself, Mark

Crowell, and Phil Parrish, another colleague and the Vice President for Research Office, and he's our Tobacco Commission liaison

Q And did you actually take handwritten notes during this call as well?

A Yes, I did

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer -- sorry Show the witness for identification what's been marked as 269

Now, if we can flip to the second page of this document, and then to the third page

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Are these handwritten notes that you took on an e-mail and then the back of the e-mail for this call?

A Yes, they are

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer into evidence Exhibit 269

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR FAULCONER: Now, if we could go to the second page of this document

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Do you see about two-thirds of the way down where you say, "Consider grant process by gov"? Do you know what "gov" is referring to there?

A I have -- I have read this over and over again, and based on my other abbreviations from Governor, that's the only thing I can think of that I wrote down was that "gov" meant Governor

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: Well, zooming back out and going to the second page Sorry I guess I meant third

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Looking on the portion, sort of the upper right-hand corner that's between those lines, can you read for us what you wrote there?

A "Let McDonnell know about Tobacco Commission proposal Look favorable on Commonwealth Proof-of-concept funds "

Q Can you explain -- can you sort of decode that for us? What are you --

A So that was just a little note to myself that if we would decide to go ahead with a proposal, that their current -- at that time, there was an initiative worked on by many different universities to create a proof-of-concept research fund And so just doing some internal thinking, you know, I was trying to maybe connect the two

Q And when you say, "Let McDonnell know about Tobacco Commission proposal," what are you contemplating doing there?

A That would be probably -- well, it wouldn't be me letting him know It would be probably the Vice President for Research

Q And when you say, "Favorable on Commonwealth POC funds," is that referring to Star or an entirely separate --

A Oh, this is entirely separate

Q Now --

MR BROWNLEE: We can go ahead and take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, as you sort of did your due diligence and you were participating in these calls with Dr Lazo and Star and Rock Creek, did you also brief one of the individuals I think we've referenced named Tom Skalak?

A Only one.

Q And does Mr Skalak, to your knowledge, interact with government officials in his job?

A Yes, he does

Q Now, before you briefed Mr Skalak, did you put together a list of pros and cons in your -- as part of your due diligence?

A So that was a document I created just for myself When you -- when -- personally, when I'm wrestling with making some decisions, it's easier if I write down pros and cons So it was a document I created for myself, to be seen by no one except myself And yes, I did

MR FAULCONER: I'd like to show the witness what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 267

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And is that the pros/cons list that you created?

A Yes, it is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 267 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, we won't be long on this, but could you just read for us the first thing that's listed in the "Pro" column there?

A "Perception to Governor that UVA would like to work with local companies to support future economic development "

MR FAULCONER: And if we could scroll over to the right

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q What is the first thing written in the "Cons" column?

A "Political pressure from Governor and impact on future UVA requests from the Governor "

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: We can go ahead and take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, we've talked a lot about the process that unfolded In the end, did the UVA researchers end up making any applications to the Tobacco Commission?

A No, they did not

Q At the time of your various deliberations and due diligence and these conversations, did you have any knowledge of any payments or things of value given from Mr Williams to the McDonnells?

MR BROWNLEE: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Overruled

A No, I did not

MR FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR FAULCONER: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Good afternoon, Ms Krueger My name is John Brownlee, and I represent Bob McDonnell I've got a few questions for you here today Thank you

MR BROWNLEE: If we can begin with 267, Government's Exhibit 267

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q This is this pros and cons that you've testified you prepared Now, government counsel asked you, on the cons, it says, "Political pressure from Governor and impact on future UVA requests from Governor "

You never spoke with Bob McDonnell about Star or Rock Creek; isn't that correct?

A That is correct

Q Okay So whatever you're referring to here, it didn't come from this man, right?

A That is correct

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: All right. You can take that down

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, I want to start back one step as we begin here

MR BROWNLEE: If we could pull up -- well, let's take a look at Government's Exhibit Number 261

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right And I believe the government showed this e-mail to you Do you remember that?

A Yes

Q Okay So this is an e-mail, we'll start at the bottom, from you to Mr Crowell on November 8th And this is at 8:17 p m Okay?

A Yes

Q And you're saying, "So got more information Interesting I'm going to be" -- "I'm going to do a bit of diligence as well Let you know what I find out " And then you talk about the governor's wife and all this

Now -- and then you forwarded it up and it says, "Great reports Kind of agree on the Rock Creek thing "

And this is what the government showed you; isn't that right?

A This is correct

Q Okay And they just showed it to you just a few moments ago?

A This is correct

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Let's pull up Government's Exhibit 260

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, I don't think this one has been entered

MR BROWNLEE: If we could just show the witness If we'd go down below

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay Now, this is an e-mail that has got your name on it that was sent to you You're in the cc block, from Mr Crowell; isn't that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And it's on November 8th?

A Yes

Q Same date as the other one, except this one is at 5:04 a m , correct?

A Correct

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, we move Government's Exhibit 261 -- 261 -- 260 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you

Okay Now, if we scroll up.

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q The e-mail that sets up the one that was shown to you by government counsel is from Mr Wright And who is Mr Wright?

A He is from Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals

Q So he's a Star guy?

A Yes

Q Okay And he sends this e-mail, and you're on it And it says, "We do not know yet It is one of the following three " And then it has three people, "Assistant to the Governor, Attorney General, wife of Governor I will try to find out more "

Now, this is who Star is telling you might show up at some meeting?

A That is correct

Q Okay And Bob McDonnell is not on this e-mail, right?

A That is --

Q No one from the government is on this e-mail?

A That is correct

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: And then it scrolls up.

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay And then Wriston responds, and you're cc'd And then it says, "Mark, I will call Peggy and see what are the compelling time-related issues she sees at this point "

Now, Peggy is Peggy Shupnik; is that correct?

A That is correct.

Q And Ms Shupnik, if you know, attended this Star event at Gibson Island in July; isn't that right?

A That is right

Q Okay And so when she went to Gibson Island, she got the full pitch from Star about Anatabloc; isn't that correct?

A That is correct

Q Okay And it was at that time, after that, that Ms Shupnik decided that they would accept this $25,000 planning grant from Star; isn't that right?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor, as to what Ms Shupnik decided

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Well, do you know when UVA, Ms Shupnik, decided to accept this money from Star?

A No, I do not

Q Okay All right So if we take this down and then bring up 261, Government's Exhibit 261, and we blow this up, this is a continuation of the e-mail I just showed you, right?

A That's correct

Q Okay Because those were starting in the morning, and now we're in the evening?

A Right

Q Okay And so this is a follow-on And so when you're talking here about -- when you say, "I think involving the Governor's wife or assistant may look like the gov is influencing UVA," that information came from Star, didn't it?

A That is correct

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: You can take that down

Can we pull up Government's Exhibit 262? And go to the next page If we could blow up that photograph

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, Ms Krueger -- am I pronouncing it right, by the way?

A Krueger

Q Krueger I apologize Ms Krueger, you testified that you -- at some point you decided to do some due diligence and you went on I think the Star website, or somewhere, and pulled this photograph?

A I pulled it off of Facebook

Q Off the Facebook Okay And you said that in seeing this photograph, that influenced one of your later statements that you thought he supported this product; is that correct?

A That is correct

Q Okay Were you aware that this picture went through the channels in the Office of the Governor and was actually approved by staff to be released?

A No, I do not

Q Okay All right

MR BROWNLEE: We can take that down

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, I think you were -- you met with government counsel, I believe; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Yes Okay And at some point you testified that you attended an event for a company called MicroAire; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q Okay And tell us what that event was about.

A So MicroAire is a -- a small surgical supply company located in Charlottesville, Virginia And in -- gosh, it was in the spring, and I can't remember the year, they actually moved to a much larger facility And the Governor and his wife were at the grand opening at that facility

Q All right

MR BROWNLEE: Let me show you, just for the witness, RM-0166-0001 No 0166-0001 There you go If you could blow that up

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Is this the event you're referring to?

A Yes, it is

MR BROWNLEE: All right Your Honor, we move RM-0166 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you

If we could just publish this

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And so this is Governor McDonnell at MicroAire, and they are expanding and they make apparently -- I think you said surgical --

A Orthopaedic equipment

Q Like saws and things?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: You can take that down

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And one other thing I won't pull it up again, but you -- in one of your notes, you say, "This is the awkward part as Governor McDonnell has publically announced his support for the parent company, Star Scientific "

And I think you testified one of the reasons you wrote that is because of the picture; is that right?

A That is correct

Q But up to that point, you had never had a conversation with Bob McDonnell about Star or Rock Creek or any of that?

A That is correct

Q Okay You talked a little bit about your conversations with Dr Lazo; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And you mentioned something You said his testimony was -- he asked you a question, and you said something about his testimony was different or something What did you mean by that, "his testimony"?

A I guess I'm kind of unclear of -- was it the conversation John and I had? John Lazo and I had are you talking about?

Q No, ma'am You just referenced Dr Lazo's testimony And I was just wondering --

A Oh Oh He -- just following the trial, the media portrayal on the trial

Q I see

A It was mentioned that John spoke to a senior researcher official at the university on his drive home

Q I see

A And I don't think that he meant me

Q Okay All right And so -- I just wanted to make sure So when you referenced his testimony, you're just following the press accounts?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, counsel asked you about Dr Lazo and some of his thoughts on these research principles I believe you have some reference to that in your notes; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay Were you aware that Dr Lazo has testified -- you obviously know that, correct?

A Yes

Q And he was asked whether or not Bob McDonnell -- if there's anything Bob McDonnell had done that would have violated any of those principles?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor, as to commenting on Dr Lazo's testimony

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right And in those notes, in your conversations with Dr Lazo, would you agree that Dr Lazo's in court, under oath testimony is a better reflection of what he actually saw and said than your notes of a conversation you had with him?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Now, you testified that Star, or Rock Creek, never actually responded or got back to you guys about applying for any of these tobacco grants; is that correct?

A That is correct

Q Okay So there was some discussions I think you had a phone call with some of the folks at Star, and then after that, nothing ever happened?

A The day after the call, I was sent, and maybe Mark Crowell was cc'd on it, just a follow-up, scientific journal article and a poster from a research presentation from Rock Creek And then that was it

Q That was it And did you ever have any conversations with Bob McDonnell about Rock Creek or Anatabloc or anything?

A No, I did not

Q Okay. So fair to say that all this -- these e-mails and notes and all -- all of it comes from someone else other than Bob McDonnell?

A That is correct

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: And let me just do one last thing, Your Honor, and I'm just about done

Can you pull up Government's Exhibit 268 and just look at the far two left, the left-hand side

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q It's kind of hard to see, but I think the first one, it says, "Date Letter Received " One of them says August 1 Number 2 says August 11th Number 3 says August 15th Number 4 says August 17th Number 5 says August 18th maybe

MR BROWNLEE: If you'll go down

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Then 6 is August 18th The 7th is the 19th

Are those accurate dates, ma'am?

A So I -- you know, this is a document that's created by our Office of Sponsored Programs So I never saw the request for proposals So this is how they track either when letters were submitted or funding was granted But I never -- I wasn't aware of anything at this time, in August

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: You can take that down

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And then lastly, they asked you about some event in May of 2013 with the Governor of Nebraska

A Yes

Q Okay Did that event have anything to do with Star or --

A No No No That did not

Q Okay And I believe at that event Secretary Cheng attended?

A Yes, he did

Q Okay And has Governor McDonnell, in prior times, attended those types of events at Virginia?

A Yes

Q Okay So he has --

A Yes

Q He has, I guess, positively responded to your invitations on occasion?

A Not necessarily mine, but the -- from the Office of the Vice President for Research Yes

Q Okay Good All right

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you, Judge

THE COURT: All right Ms McDonnell

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR KOFFMANN:

Q Good afternoon, Ms Krueger My name is Dan Koffmann, and I'm an attorney for Maureen McDonnell

Ms Krueger, you testified -- you were shown a picture by Mr Brownlee of you at a -- or Governor McDonnell at a MicroAire event?

A Correct

Q And you attended that event, right?

A Yes

Q To your knowledge, did Maureen McDonnell attend that event?

A Yes, she did

Q And did you have an opportunity to speak with her at that event?

A No, I did not

Q Have you ever had an opportunity to speak with Ms McDonnell?

A No, I have not

Q So Maureen McDonnell has never pressured you to do anything?

A No, she has not

Q And she's never even spoken to you about Anatabloc?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor Asked and answered

THE COURT: Overruled

A That is correct

MR KOFFMANN: Thank you

THE COURT: Any redirect?

MR FAULCONER: Very briefly, Your Honor

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Ms Krueger, you were shown the dates on that -- on that form --

A Yes

Q -- that originally was sent to you

As of the time that you were on the conference call in late November 2011 talking about the potential applications to the Tobacco Commission, was it your understanding that that application had already been made to the Tobacco Commission or that that was something that was being considered?

A So this actually was an exploratory call to discuss the early opportunity of -- or to discuss potentially putting in a Tobacco Commission grant

Q So those dates on the form, are those referring to the planning grants or to the Tobacco Commission grants?

A Those are referring to the pilot study grants

MR FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

Thank you, ma'am You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: Call your next witness, please

MR DRY: The United States calls Jerry Kilgore to the stand, Your Honor

JERRY KILGORE,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR DRY:

Q Mr Kilgore, can you state your full name for the record, sir

A Yes Jerry W Kilgore

Q And what city and state do you currently live in?

A I live in Glen Allen, Virginia

A I work at McGuireWoods Consulting

Q And what is McGuireWoods Consulting?

A It's a -- it's a lobbying firm, for lack of a better description

Q Okay And how long have you been with McGuireWoods Consulting?

A For five years

Q And specifically, what do you do at McGuireWoods Consulting?

A I co-chair the National Practice Team, which is the team that goes out and -- and works with state Attorneys General and state Governors

Q Okay And who are you interacting with these state Governors and state Attorney Generals on behalf?

A On behalf -- business clients, usually

Q Okay So business clients hire you to do what?

A They hire me to -- to go to meetings with state AGs or governors and work on their issues, whether it's consumer protection issues or -- or just dealing with various investigations by state Attorneys General So just a whole gamut of things

Q And when did you first meet Mr McDonnell?

A It would have been in '93, '93 when I was working with the George Allen campaign, but then became Secretary of Public Safety for then Governor George Allen in January '94

Q Okay I'm sorry Who was Secretary of Public Safety?

A I was Secretary of Public Safety, and became

Secretary of Public Safety in January of 1994

Q Okay And that was in whose administration?

A Governor George Allen

Q Since the time you met him, how would you describe your personal relationship with -- or your relationship with Mr McDonnell?

A Right It was, you know, a political relationship He was a member of the General Assembly on the Courts of Justice Committee, which was the committee that the Secretary of Public Safety had to deal with and get legislation passed out of He handled a lot of our legislation from -- from the Governor Allen administration on pro abolition, juvenile justice reform

And then over time, you know, I would say we became personal friends He ran for -- after I served as Attorney General, he ran for Attorney General with me running for Governor on the same ticket

Q Okay And let's just unpack that a little bit When did you run for Attorney General of Virginia?

A I ran twice, actually First in 1997, in a four-way primary, and I didn't quite make it then And then I won in 2001 and started service in January of 2002

Q And during your campaign for Attorney General, did you use private airplanes of political donors?

A When we could Yes

Q Okay

A It made it easier to get to Southwest Virginia or other areas of the state

Q Okay And was Mr Williams one of your political contributors?

A Yes.

Q And you rode on his plane?

A Yes

Q When did you first meet Mr Williams?

A It would have been during the Attorney General's campaign

Q And what was the context of your meeting him?

A He was a political supporter

Q Okay And what did you know about Mr Williams at that time?

A Just that it was Star Tobacco at the time, Star moving into Star Scientific, and that he was one of the independent tobacco marketers, if you will, in Southside Virginia

Q When you say "independent," what does that mean?

A Well, it's not one of the big five, like Philip Morris and some of those But one of the more independent tobacco manufacturers and growers in Southside Virginia

Q And how would you describe your relationship with Mr Williams during your campaign for Attorney General?

A It would -- it would have been political supporter Candidate, political supporter

Q Okay And did Mr Williams ever donate actual money to your campaign for Attorney General?

A Yes I believe so

Q And were these all in the context of campaign contributions?

A Yes

Q Okay Did you ever receive any personal money or loans from Mr Williams while you were running for Attorney General?

A No

Q Okay And when did you serve as Attorney General of Virginia?

A From 2002, January 2002, until the beginning of 2005

Q And during that time, how would you describe your relationship with Mr Williams?

A Political supporter, candidate for Governor then, you know, running for Governor during some of that time

Q And while you were Attorney General, did you receive any personal loans or money from Mr Williams?

A No

Q Did he ever offer you any?

A No

Q Now, you stepped down as Attorney General in 2005, I believe you said?

A Correct

Q And what did you do after you stepped down from your role as Attorney General?

A Unfortunately, I ran for Governor

Q Okay And while you were running for Governor, I believe -- you alluded to this I just want to make sure I'm clear on it

Who was also running on your ticket, I guess?

A Governor McDonnell was running for Attorney General

Q And did you make joint campaign appearances with Mr McDonnell, who was running for Attorney General?

A Oh, yes Absolutely Plenty of those

Q Okay And what's your relationship like with Mr McDonnell at that point?

A I -- I would say personal friend, political ally All of the above

Q Now, did Mr Williams ever make campaign contributions for your campaign for Governor?

A Yes

Q And do you have any idea how much those would be? Was he the largest contributor?

A He wasn't the largest, but I would say he and Star together were probably around $100,000

Q Okay And at the time you're running -- I'm sorry

I know this is going to be painful, but I'll ask What were the results of your race for Governor?
A I did not win
Q And what were the results of Mr McDonnell's race for Attorney General?
A He did win.
Q Okay. Now, after -- and that was in 2005, I believe?
A Correct
Q After that, where do you go next?
A I went to Williams Mullen and basically did the same thing there that I'm doing at McGuireWoods
Q You were a lobbyist?
A I was a lobbyist
Q And then --
A And attorney Sort of a mix, a hybrid there
Q Okay And then when did you -- what year did you go to McGuireWoods?
A I went to McGuireWoods in -- in January 2010
Q Okay Now, in 2009, Mr McDonnell is running for Governor; is that right?
A Correct
Q Did you assist in his campaign?
A Yes I was on the Finance Committee
Q And what do you do - what was your role as being on the Finance -- first of all, can you explain what a

Finance Committee does?

A Finance Committee is a group of people that assist a candidate in raising money for their race

Q When you say "raising money," what is that?

A Contacting donors, contacting businesses that might contribute to a candidate and bringing those dollars in for the campaign to be used on advertisements and -- and campaign expenses

Q All right Can you distinguish between a campaign contribution and somebody giving personal money?

A Well, I mean, a campaign contribution is to be used solely for that campaign You know, expenses of the campaign, like you have staff or you -- you want to save as much money as possible to -- to buy those ads at the end, in September and October, that go on TV or the radio and things like that

Personal would just be outside of the campaign It would have nothing to do with the campaign

Q Okay And you mentioned briefly what a campaign contribution is Can you describe what an in-kind contribution is?

A That would be a contribution of services, whether it's a plane You mentioned that earlier It could be an in-kind Somebody giving you an office space, buying -- buying dinners for -- for everybody at an event or something Those could be in-kind You just put the value, to the best of your ability, down on the campaign finance report and report it.

Q Okay And you mentioned a "campaign finance report " If somebody makes a campaign donation, how is that tracked and reported?

A Well, you -- you're obligated, under state law, to file with the State Board of Elections every so often, every -- you know, and it gets shorter and shorter as your race is getting shorter and shorter in days So you may start out reporting every six months, and then you'll file reports every 30 days And then at the end, you're filing them every ten days, and then maybe every day if you get large enough donations

Q And are you reporting just money in or are you required to report money out?

A You're reporting money in and money out You're reporting the money you've raised and the expenditures you've made

Q Okay So during the Governor's -- Mr McDonnell's campaign for Governor in 2009, how would you describe your relationship with Mr McDonnell at this point?

A Great relationship Just working to raise the dollars necessary to be competitive

Q Okay And you're out of politics at this point --

A I'm --

Q -- as a candidate?

A As a candidate for sure. Yes.

Q Okay. And how is -- what's your relationship with Mr. Williams like at this point?

A I mean, just, you know, good I mean, it's a -- he's a political person He's a donor I would call to -- to raise money for candidates

Q Okay Now, when do you first start having a business relationship with Mr Williams?

A In -- during the summer of 2011

Q Okay So this is after Mr McDonnell has been elected Governor?

A Correct

Q And you've worked on his campaign committee, or his --

A Finance

Q -- Finance Committee?

A Correct

Q Was there any other committee after he won the election that you worked on?

A Yes The Higher Education Board Appointments Committee I worked on that with the Governor and his staff

Q How about the Inaugural Committee?

A Yes I'm sorry Yes, I did I worked on -- I was the co-chair of the inauguration

Q Okay Now, going to -- I believe you said the summer of 2011, you started having a business relationship with Mr Williams Can you -- just tell us, how did that come about?

A He called me in the summer of 2011, July time frame, and asked me to meet him for lunch in town, and we met for lunch And he wanted to talk about getting research dollars from the State for his product

Q And what product was that?

A Anatabloc And he, you know, was describing anatabine and all that -- the good it could do. And he needed it researched in Virginia, and he thought I and the consulting firm would be the place to go to make sure that we helped him get the research dollars through -- he mentioned first the Tobacco Commission and --

Q Okay So he brought that up in that meeting?

A He brought up the Tobacco Commission, going after Tobacco Commission funding for this research And I brought up that, you know, you should look broadly at state government for research dollars, that, you know, just don't rely on the Tobacco Commission You should look at other ways to get those dollars, whether through the budget or through grants And you just got to look at all of state government to figure out if there are research dollars out there

Q And when you mention "the budget," what exactly are you discussing with him about potential funding sources?

A Well, when I'm -- when I mention the budget, I mean the biannual budget that the Commonwealth passes every two years, but it amends every year So it's like dealing with a budget every year, technically

And you try to, on behalf of clients, get support for, if you will, a line item in the budget for particular research or for a particular product or for a particular item

Q Okay And this meeting was July 6th of 2011; is that right?

A That sounds right Correct

Q What did Mr Williams tell you during this meeting regarding his relationship with Mr McDonnell?

A During that meeting, he did say that the Governor and the First Lady both supported his product and supported -- would support getting research on his product

Q And did he mention their support for state funding for the research?

A He mentioned that they would be supportive of that, yes

Q Now, was anyone else present during your meeting with

Mr Williams on July 6th?

A No

Q It was just you and he?

A Just the two of us

Q Now, can you kind of -- first of all, were you aware of the process -- he mentions the Virginia Tobacco Commission, right? Were you aware of the process of the Virginia Tobacco Commission?

A Yes I mean, for the most part, I'm aware of the Virginia Tobacco Commission process But I do know they have deadlines and they have specific funding cycles, you know, whether it's research cycle or other types of cycles They have defined cycles at the Tobacco Commission

Q And can you just briefly describe what the Virginia Tobacco Commission is?

A It was -- the Virginia Tobacco Commission was established by the large -- what we call the master settlement agreement with the five large tobacco companies back before I was AG that sends a stream of money into each state that was -- into each state, now all 50 states But Virginia chose to use their stream of dollars in two ways One would be to give 90 percent of those dollars to the Tobacco Commission to give out through grants to regions of the Commonwealth that grew tobacco to diversify those economies and to make sure they are no longer tobacco dependent

The other 10 percent goes to the Virginia Healthy Youth Foundation to deal with anti-smoking campaigns

Q Okay And who serves as commissioners?

A The -- it's a 31-member committee -- commission You would have -- members of the House and the Senate would probably be -- I think 11 of those members are -- 11 or 12 are members from the House and the Senate The rest are appointed by the Governor or the Governor's designates

Q Okay And, in fact, do you have a family relation that works on --

A Yes, I do.

Q -- that?

A My brother is the Chairman He's in the House of Delegates, and he's the Chairman of the Tobacco Commission at this point

Q And to be clear, the Governor didn't appoint him to the Tobacco Commission? That's --

A No He's appointed by the House of Delegates And the House and the Senate have to appoint members from those tobacco growing areas So since he represents the -- the far western corner of state, then he represents the Burley tobacco area

Q Okay Now, as a result of your meeting on July 6 with Mr Williams, what resulted? What was your relationship? He had been a political donor Now what is he?

A He became a client

Q All right

A So I just go back and --

Q Yeah

A -- talk with my staff, mainly Chris Nolen, in my office to, "Let's come up with a plan, how do you want to deal with" -- "how do we want to deal with approaching the Tobacco Commission and looking for other funding sources " And I immediately said, "Well, I better call and see if there's a deadline coming up "

So I called my brother to see if there was a deadline coming up, and there was one coming up for research And it was coming up in August

Q Okay You just mentioned "research " Could the Virginia Tobacco Commission use Tobacco Commission funds for research?

A Yes, they could And they have a cycle for research and development And that's the cycle I'm referring to that was going to come up in August, in the August time frame of 2011

Q Okay And that cycle, the August time frame, is that for the pre-applications for the final application?

A That's for the application

Q Okay Were you able to make that August deadline as far as submitting grants applications?

A No, we did not We were working with Bob Pokusa, who is the general counsel, at the time, at Star, and we were pushing them, "If you're going to do this, we've got to" -- "if you're going to do it for this cycle, we've got to it quickly We've got to get all of our information together "

And we had some problems with how they wanted to do it because Mr Williams had suggested that the partnership needed to be with Johns Hopkins, and I totally advised against that because I did not believe that -- that the -- this Tobacco Commission would partner with a University of Maryland

Q So what did you recommend that he do?

A I told him you have to get a Virginia research institution to deal with this And we suggested VCU or UVA, to go for research folks at those facilities because that would make it more palatable to the Commission

Q And just so I'm clear Why is it going to be more palatable to have UVA or VCU rather than Johns Hopkins?

A Because they are in the Commonwealth of Virginia And this money, the commissioners would -- I'm convinced the Commission likes to spend money on Virginia projects, not see Marylanders getting the money

Q And did you mention that to Mr Williams?

A Mr Pokusa

Q Mr Pokusa?

A Yes

Q And did Mr Williams, in your conversations with him, did he agree, "All right UVA and VCU sounds great"?

A Eventually, yes They -- they all agreed that we should be focusing on UVA and VCU

Q Now, in July of 2011, were you aware -- after your meeting with Mr Williams, were you aware that Star Scientific was going to hold a conference at Gibson Island?

A Yes I was invited to that conference originally by Mr Williams He said that I should go to the conference and learn more about Anatabloc and learn more about the benefits and hear the researchers talk about it

And I was like, "Okay I can go " And then Mr Pokusa called me and told me I should not go I did not need to go

Q Okay Were you excited about listening to more about Anatabloc?

A No I was happy not to go, actually

Q After the Gibson Island event, did you have any conversations with Mr Williams about it?

A After the Gibson Island?

Q Yep.

A Yes. At a lunch

Q Okay And what did Mr Williams tell you regarding the Governor's support?

A That the Governor was very supportive of -- of Anatabloc and that the First Lady was attending -- going to attend the Gibson Island

Q And did you subsequently learn that the First Lady didn't attend, but somebody else attended?

A I did learn that she did not attend, and that Ms Sutherland, instead, attended for her

Q Okay

MR DRY: I'd like to bring up Government's Exhibit 202, please.

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you do you recognize this e-mail sir?

A Yes, I do

Q And just to be clear, Mr Nolen works for you?

A He works with me I don't think he'd like me to say he works for me

Q And this is to Bob Pokusa?

A Yes

Q And you authorized Mr Nolen to send this e-mail?

A Yes We worked on this together

MR DRY: Government moves for the admission of Government's Exhibit 202, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q Sir, basically, what is the purpose of this e-mail?

A It's to outline for Mr Pokusa the activities that we believe needs to be done to ensure that we have the opportunity to get research dollars for the testing of Anatabloc

Q And there's an attachment with a memo?

A Yes Correct

MR DRY: Can we go to the second page of this

BY MR DRY:

Q And did you and Mr Nolen author this memo to Bob Pokusa?

A Yes, we did

Q And at this point, to be clear, who's your primary point of contact at Star Scientific?

A At this point, it had become Mr Pokusa only

Q Okay And Mr Pokusa was what?

A He was the general counsel

Q Okay And can you -- what's the subject line of this?

A It's the "Draft Timeline of Activities to Obtain Tobacco Indemnification and Community Revitalization Commission, TICRC, Grant Funds "

Q And going to the second paragraph, you talk about, "A pivotal aspect of the proposed activities is to know the decision-making process at UVA to pursue grants of this nature "

Walk us through what had to happen before you could make an application to the Tobacco Commission

A Well, the Tobacco Commission rarely would give a grant to a private entity I mean, it would -- it's just rare I mean, they prefer to have localities or universities, someone with a governmental function to apply for those grants on behalf of a company

And that's why we were pushing UVA or VCU, and at this -- and we wanted to understand -- because it wasn't part of our job to get -- to locate these researchers at UVA -- what is the decision-making process at UVA "We need to know that, Bob, so that we can project a timeline with you "

Q Okay Just so I understand You're going to be responsible for putting together the grant application or submitting it to the Tobacco Commission, right? That's what McGuireWoods is hired to do?

A Yes And working with the Commission staff and working with the commissioners, if we get that far

Q But before that happens, what does UVA have to decide to do under this plan?

A They have to decide to be a partner with Star, and they have to decide to take the lead on applying with the Tobacco Commission

Q Now, is part of your role to call the UVA administrators up or the scientists and start that process?

A This was not our role in this case No

Q Who was responsible for doing that?

A That was Star's role.

Q Okay And on the third paragraph where it says, "Additionally, we think it is worth exploring whether the McDonnell Administration would consider allocating some additional funds to UVA's state appropriations for use as matching funds to leverage TICRC funds "

First of all, TICRC, that's the Tobacco Commission acronym?

A Correct

Q Okay Sometimes it's VTC for that?

A I have

Q Okay Now, what are you talking about "matching funds"?

A Well the Tobacco Commission, on their pre-application, their application, like to see others have skin in the game, if you will, to other entities to be supporting this as well Whether it's the private entity or the locality or the other state entity, they like to know that others are supporting this project through some funding or through giving all the staff -- you know, to quantify, if you will, that process

Q Now, your next sentence you write, "We need to determine whether this is possible and if so, make the ask directly to the Governor "

Why did you want to make the ask directly to the Governor?

A So that it would be included in the Governor's budget or the budget amendments

Q Going to the third page of this exhibit, sir, is this the draft timeline that you put together?

A Yes

Q All right

MR DRY: Let's go to the first block

BY MR DRY:

Q In August, it says, "Determine extent of interested researchers/partners Determine UVA internal approval process Initiate UVA approval process "

Who's going to be doing that?

A The -- Star is supposed to do that

Q Okay And then going down, the September time frame -- and these are -- is it fair to say this is like a timeline proposal to your client where you're saying, hey, these are what needs to be checked off?

A Yes This is our wish list of things we want Star to accomplish with us

Q Okay And then it talks about, "Prepare advocacy materials for use in meetings with government officials Complete a pre-application Schedule a meeting with Tobacco Commission staff Initiate drafting of the application "

But this next bullet point, you have, "Schedule meeting with Governor McDonnell and Governor's policy staff," and you write "J Williams and J Kilgore required to request Governor to include state appropriation to UVA for specific research, which could be eligible for the match "

Why did you want -- I think we talked about why you wanted to have a meeting with Mr McDonnell Why did you want Mr Williams to be at that meeting?

A Because generally, if you're making an ask for the state Budget, you want the principal in the room to ask the other principal, which would be the Governor, and to express why it's needed and what the background is

I mean, I would submit that just having me in the room wouldn't possibly get the job done because we're -- we're in the Governor's Office on so many other things

Q And did Mr Williams express to you anything about the Governor's support of his product by this point?

A Yes I mean, he had said that the Governor and First Lady strongly supported Anatabloc

Q Now, at the time of this memorandum -- Mr Williams has told you about the Governor's support Did he tell you anything about taking the First Lady shopping in New York City?

A No

Q And had he told you anything about writing a $50,000 check made payable to her?

A No

Q Had he told you anything about paying $15,000 for the Governor's daughter's wedding reception?

A No

Q Anything about the Governor playing golf at Kinloch on his tab?

A No

Q Now, have you known Mary-Shea Sutherland for a while?

A Yes

Q Okay

A I have

Q I'd like to move to the meeting that you had I believe it was at The Berkley Hotel on August 1st of 2011 Do you remember that meeting?

A Yes

Q Okay And how did that come about?

A Originally scheduled by Mary-Shea as just a catch-up time We do this occasionally to catch up with each other She worked with me back in '94 through '97

Q And in what context did Ms Sutherland work with you?

A She was -- I was Secretary of Public Safety, and she worked in my inner office And she was the grants administrator for the entire Secretary of Public Safety

Q And did you know her while she was working at Benedetti & Farris in any context?

A Yes I knew her as a fundraiser that I worked with on various campaigns

Q Okay Now, let's go to this Berkley Hotel meeting You said it was originally scheduled, it was just going to be with Ms Sutherland?

A Right

Q It was kind of a typical thing, every now and then?

A Right

Q Who else shows up at this meeting?

A Jonnie Williams

Q And who -- it's Ms Sutherland, Mr Williams, and you Anybody else at it?

A That's it

Q Just walk me through what's discussed at this meeting

A Catching up first But then, you know, Mary-Shea and Mr Williams start talking about getting her a job and finding her another job because she's telling me she's totally unhappy at the Mansion and does not want to work for the First Lady anymore and wants a new job and wants out of there

And immediately they bring up that she wants to go to work for Jonnie, and they are talking this back and forth And Jonnie turns to me and asks me if -- if we would hire her at -- at McGuireWoods Consulting and make a place for her and he would find a way to -- to give her business

And I'm like, "We just don't have a position like that that's open right now, and I'm not sure we're going into that area "

So then they started talking about other ways to make it happen And they -- I think Mary-Shea -- Mary-Shea brought up, you know, going back to Benedetti & Farris, with Jonnie being a client of hers at Benedetti & Farris

Q And what's -- what's Ms Sutherland's demeanor as she's telling you that she's unhappy on the First Lady's staff?

A Oh, she's very emotional that day about her work at the Mansion

Q Was it -- did she make it clear to you that she was leaving the Mansion no matter what?

A Oh, I left there thinking she was leaving the Mansion

Q Okay What did Mr Williams say as you're -- as the meeting is discussing Ms Sutherland's employment, what is Mr Williams saying regarding whether he's going to hire her or not?

A Well, it seems to me like during that meeting, it's a -- a job negotiation lunch more than anything Here I thought I was going to this lunch just to causally meet up with Mary-Shea, and it becomes a job negotiation lunch.

And he -- at the end of it, as we're leaving, he's asking her to get with Benedetti & Farris and put a proposal together And then he says send it to me, which I didn't know I was going to be involved in that until that very moment, to send that proposal to me And that's how we left that lunch And then I got the proposal a few weeks -- or a week or so later Two weeks later, I think Two or so weeks later

A Maybe longer than that I'm trying to -- longer than that

Q Okay And are they talking about salary at this meeting? When you say a job negotiation, are they sitting there saying, "This is what you've got to pay" or anything?

A No No We did not get into that detail But we got into, you know, she would work -- you know, her proposal was she would work for him He would be a client of Benedetti & Farris

Q Okay And he says, "Send a proposal to Jerry Kilgore"?

A Correct

Q Okay And were you negotiating on behalf of Mr Williams this proposal that came over later?

A No I mean, I got the proposal from Abby Farris at Benedetti & Farris And I've known her for a -- for almost my entire -- my entire political career So, you know, Abby called me about it, sent it over And I said, "Well, I'll just get it on to Mr Williams " And so I tried to call him, tried to reach out to him several times, and actually never reached him about this particular contract And -- or this proposal

And they kept calling Abby would call And then I got a call from -- one day from Tom Benedetti And I eventually talked with Chris Nolen, who also works with me, and we decided we best just ship that off to Mr Pokusa and ask Mr Pokusa, since he was general counsel to Star, and that's who would be using her, I would -- we thought So just have Mr Pokusa take care of it

Q Before you sent the proposal that you received from Benedetti & Farris to Mr Pokusa, did you have any conversations with Mr Williams about it?

A I tried to call him about it, but never really had a conversation or reached him about it

Q But after you sent it to Mr Pokusa, did you subsequently have a conversation with Mr Williams about the proposal?

A Yes

Q And tell us what happened then

A That would have been in September of -- after we had sent it to Mr Pokusa And I asked Mr Williams about it I said, you know, "It was" -- "I thought, you know" -- I said, "I thought, you know, you all were going to hire her, and what happened?" He said he just could not hire her It was poaching on the First Lady's Office, and he was not going to do that

Q Did he explain why he didn't want to do that?

A He needed -- he told me he needed the support of the First Lady for his product and did not want to make her mad

Q What did he ask you to do after that call?

A I didn't deal anything with that issue because I had already shipped it off to Pokusa

Q All right Let's take a step back Because that -- I believe that was in September of 2011 Let's take a step back

A Right

Q At some point do you learn that there's going to be an event at the Mansion related to Anatabloc?

A Yes, I do

Q How do you learn that?

A Well, I had -- I learned it from Mr Eige and Mr -- and Martin Kent called me to come to a meeting at their office And I went to the meeting I had other business there as well, and I was glad to get a quick meeting And they had major concerns about this launch that was going to happen at the Mansion

MR DRY: Can we bring up Government's Exhibit 4, please

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recognize this document, sir?

A Yes

Q And this is basically a time sheet for you and Mr Nolen at McGuireWoods?

A Correct

MR DRY: Government moves for Government's Exhibit 4 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q And just to be clear, how great of a timekeeper are you?

A Well, we normally -- on the consulting side, which is why I want to be on the consulting side, we don't have to do time sheets that are -- account for every tenth of an hour that the law firm has to do And we generally don't do work on an hourly basis We do work on a project basis or a monthly retainer basis

Q So it's more of a -- either like a flat fee or --

A It is a -- it's a flat fee That's how I would describe it

Q Okay

MR DRY: Can we go down to August 12th of 2011

BY MR DRY:

Q And right there, it shows an hour -- or 9?

A Right

Q Is that the length of time?

A Right

Q And then that's how much it cost? Not to be rude

A Yes

Q Okay And then here -- what are you referring to, "Discussions with C Nolen on strategies at Tobacco Commission"? Do you recall what that --

A We -- Chris and I met before I went to this meeting

Q Okay And then it says, "Meeting with J Eige and M Kent, Chief of Staff, regarding rollout issues"?

A Correct

Q Do you recall Mr Williams informing you of concerns by Eige and Kent before you had the meeting?

A Yes

Q What did he tell you?

A That they were concerned about the launch of Anatabloc being at the Mansion, that they didn't want it at the Mansion

Q And what did he tell you to do?

A He said, "Well, the First Lady and the Governor want it at the Mansion So we're going to have it at the Mansion "

Q And did he ask you to reach out to Eige and Kent about this?

A They reached out to me

Q Okay And what did they tell you?

A They were opposed to having a launch at the Mansion, that it was -- they did not believe that it was appropriate to have this launch at the Mansion, that -- and they suggested that any launch of the project be at the -- at the BioTech Park here in Richmond and not at the Mansion

Q Did they --

A And they asked me to pass that back on to Mr Williams

Q Did they say anything about whether they were familiar with any other similar event like this?

A I mean, they just went on that we don't do those rollout -- we don't do announcements like that at the Mansion We should not do those announcements at the Mansion

Q And they ask you to talk to Mr Williams Do you?

A I do

Q And what do you tell Mr Williams?

A I told him that they did not want it at the Mansion and that, you know, he needed to look at the BioTech Park as a potential place to do a rollout

Q And what was his reaction?

A His reaction was he didn't want to do that He needed the Mansion He wanted the Mansion because that would be a great place, get better press, he said, so that he could rollout his product

Q Is he talking about the Governor and Ms McDonnell's support of this?

A Yeah He always would say that they support this project and that we need -- he needs to have this at the Mansion because they want to have it at the Mansion

Q Now, were you actually involved in the planning of the Anatabloc event at the Mansion?

A I was not

Q Were you invited to the event?

A I was not.

Q Okay At this point, after your conversations with Mr Eige and Kent and then your conversation with Mr Williams -- first of all, I believe you -- your time sheet says August 12th, 2011 How long after that do you think that you relayed Mr Eige and Mr Kent's message to Mr Williams?

A I would have tried to call that day So I would have reached him that day or the very next day

Q Okay And from your call with Mr Williams, let's ballpark it, August 12th, August 13th, up to August 30th, did you know whether there was actually going to be an event at the Mansion?

A I did not

Q Okay

A Up until August 29th

Q Okay Well, let's talk about that How do you find out that the event is -- there's going to be an event and it's going forward at the Mansion on August 30th?

A That Mr Eige, again, calls to say, "Have you seen this press release that Star wants to put out with the Governor's statement in it?"

I was like, "I don't know now what you're talking about " And he was reading it to me And I said, "Well, you know, I didn't write it I didn't" -- "I don't know anything about this It's not what they have hired me to do, but I will call I will deal with it "

And so I called Mr Williams, who -- to say, "They're" -- "they're not going to" -- "they don't want you to put out a statement that the Governor hasn't approved on your letterhead "

Q Okay And what was his reaction?

A Well, he just said he would call in to Star, in to Star

Q Did you -- well, how certain are you that you talked to Mr Williams or Mr Pokusa about that? I just want your best recollection

A No It could have been Mr Pokusa, because we were working with him on all the other issues

Q Okay All right Did you attend the event at the Mansion?

A I did not

Q After the August 30th, 2011, event at the Mansion, was -- did you discuss with Mr Williams whether he wanted to go forward with the studies at UVA and VTC -- or Tobacco Commission funding?

A We discussed that with Star

Q Okay

A But Mr Pokusa significantly

Q And what was --

A We had another conference call I mean, we were trying to move this forward, do a conference call. We had another conference call in November of that year to sort of, you know, get moving on the research

Q Well, let me ask you about that You said originally that there was like this deadline of August that you missed

A Right

Q Now you're talking about a conference call in November Why didn't you move the ball forward from August to November?

A Well, the August -- you know, Star wasn't ready in August, and our view was Star wasn't moving forward with the researchers until that November phone call when we had a phone call scheduled with the researchers at UVA and VCU

Q And did you actually participate in that call, sir?

A I opted out of that call, and Chris Nolen participated in the call because it was going to be a research call

Q Okay Now, from the time of that call through February of 2012, what's going on with this grant application process? Did you make a submission?

A We did not The -- Star is supposed to be working with the researchers, getting the researchers on board so that we can submit for the next deadline

Q And were they --

A They were not being successful at that time

Q Okay And in February of 2012, did you discuss the fact -- did you discuss with Mr Williams UVA and VCU not moving the ball forward?

A Yes He was wondering why we weren't moving forward with the Tobacco Commission, and I said, "Well, UVA and VCU haven't stepped up to the plate yet So we can't move forward "

Q And what was Mr Williams' reaction with UVA and VCU?

A Well, he -- he was not happy about that.

Q And in that conversation with Mr Williams, did he bring up Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell?

A He again reminded me that they supported his research and they wanted to find a way to help the research

Q From your perspective, if the Governor does support this idea of the research, as the lobbyist, was that going to be helpful for you doing what you needed to do?

A Well, it's always helpful to have the Governor support something you're doing as a lobbyist

Q Why?

A Well, I mean, the Governor is the Chief Executive of the Commonwealth He has this bully pulpit, if you will, to go out and talk about issues Whatever the issue is, he has the power of that office to go out

Q But to be fair, I mean, the commissioners of the Tobacco Commission make the decisions on the Tobacco Commission funding?

A Absolutely

Q So why does it matter to you whether you have the Governor's support?

A It's always helpful to have the Governor on the front of your -- or in your application materials, to say the Governor supports a project

Q All right After your conversation with Mr Williams about things not moving forward with UVA and VCU, do you have a subsequent conversation with Mr Eige about this?

A Yes Yes, I do Jasen Eige called me about it again to say that, you know, "I don't think we should be pressuring UVA and VCU on this research " And I'm like, "What are you talking about?"

And he's again saying, "Well, I've been asked by the Governor to call and put" -- "you know, show support for this research, and I'm just" -- "I just don't think we should be doing it "

And I'm thinking, "It's Jasen being Jasen," and just say, "Well, you know it doesn't hurt to have the Governor's support for these projects, and we'd like to have his support for the research "

Q Well, I mean, at this point did you see anything wrong with the Governor supporting the research?

A Oh, I thought it would be helpful I wanted the Governor's support

Q But there was nothing inherently illegal about the Governor supporting the research?

A Oh, absolutely not. I wouldn't be asking if it were

Q Okay Fair enough

Did Mr Eige say that the Governor had asked him to call you or was he calling you on his own from your call?

A He said the Governor had made an inquiry

Q An inquiry of him?

A To him, yes

Q What did you tell Mr Eige -- well, what did you tell Mr Eige?

A That, you know, "We'd like to have the support We'd like to have the Governor's support, that the Governor can" -- "can voice support with" -- "with any of Virginia's universities about research he may support "

Q Did Mr Eige specifically ask you to do anything as a result of his call?

A No Not at that time

Q But did you have a feeling about what he was hoping you would do?

A Well, I certainly passed it back to -- to Star and Mr Williams to say that, you know, the -- that Jasen isn't confident that the Governor should weigh in here

Q Are you telling Mr Williams, "Hey, the Governor has said" -- "personally said he's not going to do this"?

A I didn't say the Governor -- no The Governor didn't say -- Jasen did not tell me the Governor wasn't going to do this Jasen said he was uncomfortable with the Governor doing it And I passed that back on to Mr Williams

Q Well, what is Mr Williams' reaction when you tell him, "Hey, Eige is saying that he's uncomfortable"?

A Well, he again said they support his research, and he would like their help

Q When you're having any of these conversations with Mr Eige or Mr Williams, at any of these points is he telling you about the things of value that he had given to the Governor and the First Lady?

A No

Q Okay We can do this fairly quickly

You said that you were --

THE COURT: Mr Dry, are you almost finished?

MR DRY: I think I've got about 15 more minutes, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

Well, Mr Kilgore, it looks like you're going to have to come back tomorrow Obviously, we've got two cross-examinations, and you're not even close So we might as well look out for the comfort of our jury and allow you all to leave now

As I've said over and over again, please don't review any media items regarding this case Don't allow anyone to discuss it with you And you all be safe, and we'll see you tomorrow morning at -- just a second. Let's make it 9:45 again All right

THE COURT: I'm going to go down for about five minutes and come right back in, and we'll have a hearing on this -- this witness issue So I'll be right back

(Recess taken from 5:32 p m until 5:39 p m)

THE COURT: All right Let's approach this in this way I know this is the defendants' motion, but I think I understand the defendants' position completely I'll hear from the government, and then from the defendants if they feel it's necessary

Government

MR COOKE: Thank you, Your Honor I'll try to be brief As I understand the defendants' position, particularly through their reply brief, they are emphasizing the comparison between the testimony -- proposed testimony of Mr Skunda and Ms Bridge with that that was excluded from Mr Earley

And the testimony is very different The essence of Mr Earley's testimony was to give an opinion about the legality of conduct, and in particular, the legality of the McDonnells' conduct, and tell the jury when an official can be paid personal funds for performing acts that --

THE COURT: Let's save some time I don't need to hear that

Tell me what it is that you're going to present through these witnesses, why it's relevant, and --

MR COOKE: Sure

THE COURT: -- what is fact and what is opinion

MR COOKE: Okay I'll start with Ms Bridge, who was Mansion director from 2002 to 2010 for Governor Mark Warner and Tim Kaine And she could testify about the types of events that were held at the Governor's Mansion She would not be saying what -- she wasn't -- did not have a role in selecting what events would be held at the Mansion, but she had personal experience and knowledge about what was done at the Mansion

And that's relevant because under the definition from

JEFFERSON and BIRDSALL for an official act, the Fourth Circuit has a firm instruction that said, "Official acts include those activities that have been clearly established by settled practice as part of a public official's position "

And we think it's helpful to the jury to understand the types of events, meetings, and the promoting a Virginia business that have been the subject matter of this case are the types of things that other governors have done and, therefore, are part of a settled practice that's been clearly established

I also would emphasize, this is going to be very short testimony We expect that both Ms. Bridge and Mr Skunda, combined, that their direct examinations would take less than a half an hour.

THE COURT: All right And Mr Skunda, what is -- he's just going to do the same thing?

MR COOKE: Essentially He was Secretary of Commerce from 1994 to 1997, and so he would testify about meetings that were held to promote Virginia businesses and events

THE COURT: Okay Thank you

MR COOKE: Sure

THE COURT: Okay The McDonnells

MR BURNHAM: Just very quickly, Your Honor

All I would emphasize is that the reason that Mr Cooke gave for this being relevant -- these are not fact witnesses, of course, since they don't have any personal knowledge of the facts in this case And that sounded to me like classic expert testimony

Other than that, I think the Court understands our position So thank you

THE COURT: All right As to Mr Skunda, the defense motion will be granted As to Ms Bridge, the Mansion executive, that motion will be denied

And let me say this as to Skunda Just so we're clear, it is possible that the defendants, in putting on their case, could make Skunda relevant and material Just so you know, I mean, if this comes back for rebuttal, there might be another look at that But at this point, I'm not going to allow Skunda and his testimony about the meetings All right

(The trial adjourned at 5:43 p m)

(In Chambers.)

THE COURT: All right What's up?

MR. DRY: Sorry to be back here again, Your Honor. The government received a phone call from a practicing attorney, Jim Watson. The government had never heard of Mr Watson before, had no knowledge of him, did not reach out to him. It was a complete cold call phone message Mr Watson identified himself as a member of the Virginia Bar, said that he had a client of his that had contacted him. And in the message, he stated that the client was a member of the jury in the McDonnell case, and that the attorney informed him that he didn't want to talk about the case. And Mr. Watson basically said that he felt obliged to bring it to our attention, the Judge's attention, the defense counsel's attention. He then left his phone number for the government.

We got the message and contacted him and spoke to him. During the interview -- we have interview notes that have been turned over. Both the voicemail and the interview notes have been turned over to both defense counsel. Mr. Watson informed us that the call came from Juror Louis Denitto. He stated that they have a relationship that goes back some thirteen years because Mr Denitto runs a construction business and had asked him to help him out on legal issues from time to time He said that before the phone call at 6:15 p.m. that night, last night, that they hadn't spoken for six to eight weeks, and that there was an introductory part of the call where Mr Denitto asked about family or something like that

And then after the introductory portions were concluded, Mr Denitto said, "I'm calling you because --" and he stated that he was on the jury. Mr Watson responded, "Like a venire?" Mr Denitto says, "No, one of 12 " Mr. Watson says, "You mean now?" And Mr Denitto responded, "Yeah, I'm the Foreman. I've got 12 people all over the place, and I don't know what to do " And Mr Watson said he might have said, "I don't know what I am supposed to do." Mr Watson said that Mr. Denitto did not use the word "sequester," but stated that he was in a hotel for the trial And it became clear to Mr Watson that he was talking about the McDonnell trial

Mr. Watson told him that he couldn't talk to Mr. Denitto about the trial We asked, again, Mr. Watson during the interview, "Are you sure that he stated that he was a Foreman?" He goes, "Yes, he used the 'Foreman' word and he said that there were '12 people all over the place and I don't know what I am doing '" Mr. Watson said there was no substantive discussion, no discussion of the evidence, but Mr. Watson believed that it was something that the parties should be aware of He stated that the relationship, their business relationship, was on an as-needed basis, that they never socialize, that Mr. Denitto calls him when he has a business problem, that the call last night had nothing to do about a new business matter. In other words, it wasn't in the context of "I've got something else I want you to work on." Mr. Watson believes that Mr Denitto appreciates his honesty and candor, thinks that they have mutual respect, and that Mr. Denitto viewed him, Mr Watson, as his confidant and that he needed to talk to somebody But Mr Watson shut him down.

So what the government has done is, it has asked Mr Watson to be here. He is in a witness room. If the Court or the parties want to inquire of him, that's obviously the Court and defense counsel's discretion. We have no position at this point because we frankly don't know what happened. We've got what Mr. Watson has told us, and from there we are kind of looking for everybody else's thoughts

THE COURT: All right. I'll hear from both defense counsel, and then I'll tell you what I am going to do.

MR. ASBILL: Okay Obviously, we were not parties to the conversation with Mr Watson last night that the government conducted. We've got the notes of the call and we've got a transcript of the voice message. I'd like to make those part of the record in this case.

Our position is we would like to, in the first instance, hear from Mr. Watson directly And then we will give you our views of what should happen next after we hear from him.

THE COURT: Bring Mr Watson in.

MR. BURCK: Just for the record, my client is not present but we waive her presence.

MR. DRY: We have a transcript of the voicemail and the handwritten notes that were turned over. And for the record, we did turn over the voicemail, which included the cell phone number

MR. BURNHAM: I don't know if we need your permission, but we would make this part of the record, Judge

THE COURT: Sure

(Documents proffered to Law Clerk.)

(Mr Watson entered chambers)

THE COURT: How are you doing? Good to see you.

BY THE COURT:

Q Mr Watson, we got this information about the phone call that you had with one of our sitting jurors. And I just wanted to hear from you about the conversation. Now, when did you receive the phone call?

A About 6:15 yesterday evening

Q Yesterday evening?

A Yes, sir

Q All right. And the juror is a person that you have known for some time?

A The person that called me I've known for some time. He told me he was a juror. I did not know that. I have not sought to know that.

Q Tell me about the beginning of the conversation.

A The call came in, and there was a lot of static on the line so I pulled over into a small shopping area close to my home. And I could see it was from Mr Denitto or his business, and I called him back. And when I called him back, the clarity of the conversation was much improved; good, if you will. And he just starts off with the basic conversation: "Hi, Louis, how are you doing?" "Hi, Jim, how are you doing? Haven't heard from you for a while." He knows that I am in the process of transitioning out of my active practice of litigation, because I had worked with him on a case fairly recently, this past spring So he asked me how that was going. I asked him how he was doing He told me that he had had some health problems, which I was surprised to hear I hadn't heard about those. He indicated that he had had a difficult time. And I think that was pretty much the sum and substance of the introductory type of conversation.

And pretty much typical with Louis, he would go through some type of, you know, informal conversation. Then he said, "Jim, I wanted to call you," and I will try to relate to Your Honor the way the conversation came down. I have not taken any notes or attempted to preserve that So he says, "Jim, I'm calling you because I am a Foreman on a jury " I think he said "Foreman" before he said anything else. In other words, I don't think he said, "I'm on a jury" or something like that He may have And I said, "Really?" I said, "Do you mean you are like in what we call the venire where you have a bunch of jurors and you haven't been selected yet?" And he said, "No, I'm on a jury " And he said, "I'm calling you because I'm the Foreman, and there are 12 people, and they are kind of all over the place and I don't know what to do "

And I could tell that he, in my judgment, was stressed I think "befuddled" would be too strong of a word. And he needed some guidance, reassurance. And having worked with Louis on some matters, I felt I could make that judgment, and I think I had the sense that he was calling me because I had always told him, I said, "Louis, if you ever have any problems, give me a call You've got my cell phone, just give me a call." I thought he was taking advantage of that, if you will, or making use of it And I asked for clarity. I said something along the line, "Louis, you are a Foreman on a jury?" And he said, "Yes." And I can't remember which way this came first He said -- I think it was this way -- he said, "I'm up, I'm put up," I think that's what he said, "I'm put up in a hotel here in the McDonnell case "

And when he said, "I'm put up here in a hotel," and I coupled that with when he said a 12-person jury, which you don't usually have in state courts, you know, a light kind of went off, and I thought he was saying he was sequestered. But it may have been that he was just put up in the hotel because I know he lives down in Blackstone, which is an hour-and-a-half to two-hour drive away

I said, "Whoa, Louis Louis, I know you think you have the right to an attorney, and I can understand that because I've been your attorney But when you are in the jury, on the jury, I can't talk to you and you shouldn't be talking with me. And I know that kind of runs counter to the fact that everybody is entitled to their lawyer, but you just have to listen. I can't talk to you. I just can't do it. And I hope you understand that." And the conversation pretty much ended at that time That's pretty much it. I'm trying to think if there is anything else that -- no, that was it.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. DRY: Can I ask just one question?

THE COURT: Go ahead.

BY MR. DRY:

Q Just to confirm, there were no substantive discussions or any discussions of the evidence in the case in any way, shape, or form?

A Absolutely none, not even close.

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Sir, did Mr Denitto actually say that he was on the McDonnell trial or did you infer that?

A He said it.

Q He said "the McDonnell trial"?

A Yes, sir

THE COURT: All right Thank you You may be excused. Thank you very much.

MR. WATSON: Am I free to go?

THE COURT: Absolutely. Thank you.

(Mr Watson left Chambers)

All right. I'll hear what you have to say

MR. DRY: After you.

MR. BURCK: Just one thing before Mr Asbill starts, just for the record, I have seen Mr. Denitto over at the Marriott Hotel There is a Starbucks over there, and I go there every morning. I know that Mr. Dry is staying there as well. I've seen him physically there But I obviously haven't spoken to him. So I know he is at the Marriott, for what it is worth.

MR. DRY: I haven't seen him.

THE COURT: Anything else before I tell you what I am going to do?

MR. ASBILL: Yes. I'd like to propose, I don't know if there is unanimity in the defense camp, but I would like to propose we interview on the comments "I'm the Foreman on the jury," "There are 12 people all over the place and I don't know what to do."

THE COURT: It is on the record what you want, but that's not happening Anything else from anyone? Mr. Denitto is gone He violated the Court's instruction, simply by making the phone call and identifying himself as being on this jury. So he is finished. All right?

MR. ASBILL: Judge, there are a number of other people that are implicated by his comments, and I think they need to be interviewed. I would ask the Court to follow the procedures in U S v RESKO, Third Circuit case from 1993, 3 F.3d 684, 1993, which I think outlines the procedure that needs to be followed in a situation like this I'm happy to make a copy available.

THE COURT: I know the case. Your request is noted and denied. Thank you all very much.

MR. ASBILL: I would also ask for a mistrial then under these circumstances

THE COURT: Denied.

MR. BURCK: Just for the record, Ms. McDonnell joins the objections of Mr McDonnell.

(All counsel left the courtroom.)

THE COURT: Have Kathy come in here.

(Deputy Clerk Kathy Hancock entered Chambers)

THE COURT: All right, who is next up?

THE CLERK: I have to look at the list to get her name. I think it is one of the females

THE COURT: So give me the name

THE CLERK: Actually, it is the guy, the sleeper guy

THE COURT: This guy right here?

THE CLERK: Yes

THE COURT: Okay. Who do we have in there, Lee?

THE CLERK: Lee and Grant and then the tall guy I'm not sure of his name.

THE COURT: Have them come in.

THE CLERK: Lee or Grant?

THE COURT: Both of them.

(Court Security Officers entered Chambers.)

Hi, how your doing? All right, we've got a problem with one of our jurors. And what I need you to do, this is Mr. Denitto, Louis Carmen Denitto. I need you to get him. Is our conference room -- I'm trying to think of someplace where we can put him.

THE CLERK: Our conference room in the hall is the media room. The media is in there. The only other place we can put him --

THE COURT: We can put him in one of the offices back here.

THE CLERK: Back in this hallway, you mean?

THE COURT: Yeah, back down the hallway Let's get Mr. Denitto, put him in there, and then I have to have counsel back in here I have to have them back.

THE CLERK: All right.

THE COURT: So what we will do is, I want you all to put him back in the office, one person to stay with him. Okay? And then at some point we are going to bring him in to talk to him. If it's not one thing, it's another

THE CLERK: I think you should tell that tall guy, I can't think of his name, to just come back and stay in the courtroom. I'll bring counsel back now

(Counsel entered Chambers.)

THE COURT: All right, have a seat. Bring Mr Denitto in Mr. Denitto, come on in and have a seat.

BY THE COURT:

Q Good morning. Mr Denitto, we have been informed by a lawyer, Mr Watson, that you called him yesterday.

A Yes

Q And identified yourself as a juror in this case

A Well, I had called him on some other business He is one of my lawyers in the company And we had called about government work and had mentioned that, I was asking him if in the jury room, when it is all over, what is the normal procedure, I mean, how does that work. I had never been to that point on a criminal trial like this

Q Did you tell him you were Foreman?

A No, no, no. I said, "Is it possible to be open with me as well as anyone else?" He said, "Are you talking about the McDonnell trial?" I said, "Yes." He said, "Well, we can't talk about it any further " And that was it But the call, the phone call originated about some other legal stuff that we were dealing with.

Q Did you tell him you've got 12 people all over the place?

A Twelve people all over the place?

Q Right.

A What I meant, I did say that. What I meant by that was we didn't know, I didn't know where the charges referred to in what we were, the lawyers and so forth were talking about in the trial And that's why this morning I asked if we could get a copy of the charges on each individual That's what that was, you know -- that's what I meant by "it is all over the place " I don't know based on what you told us when we started, and writing it down, I didn't get it all You were talking fast And I wanted a copy of the 12 charges.

Q You say "12 people all over the place," that indicates that you have talked to 12 --

A No, no, no It wasn't intended like that at all. Not at all No I didn't talk to anyone about it, about the specifics of the case or anything, you know. Different comments are made when you walk back in there, like, "Wow, glad that's over with," or that sort of thing, whatever I didn't call Jim Watson about this case, by no means. It was about something else.

THE COURT: Do you all have any questions for him?

MR. ASBILL: No questions.

THE COURT: All right Thank you, Mr Denitto. You can go back outside.

All right, obviously he is still out. But --

MR. ASBILL: I object to that Based on what he said, Your Honor, I don't think he should be out And the fact he said he was in the McDonnell case, I think, is an irrelevancy. There has been newspaper reports that he and another juror from the same hometown are on the McDonnell jury That is public knowledge. That's not any secret or anything that I think is inappropriate for him to say to a lawyer.

MR. DRY: Forty-five minutes before he got on that phone call, you told him he shouldn't talk about this case to anybody

THE COURT: I appreciate what you have to say, counsel, but he is gone All right Thank you.

MR. DRY: Can he be instructed not to discuss anything?

MR. ASBILL: There is also a problem with the first alternate. We collectively noticed he has been sleeping a lot of this trial.

THE COURT: Well, there is no question about it He has been drifting later in the day But I don't know that there is anything we can do about it

MR. ASBILL: Obviously, the government thinks that we think that Denitto is a favorable juror to the defense, and we do. And he has now been cut over our objection. We would like to cut the sleeping juror

THE COURT: That's not how it works, Mr Asbill.

MR. ASBILL: Whatever.

THE COURT: He hasn't been asleep. He has been listening intently with his eyes drifting downward.

MR. ASBILL: That's a distinction with a difference that I am missing.

THE COURT: No, as far as I can tell, he is still up to snuff But we will see We've got a long ways to go. But no, he is not going to get cut just because -- and I, well, it is total speculation as to what is a good juror for whom. But this guy violated my instructions, and so he has to go.

MR. DRY: Judge, we have looked at case law It might be beneficial if you just remind the jury sometime during the day about no discussions with anybody, no talking amongst yourselves, that kind of stuff

MR. ASBILL: He obviously reports that they are having some discussion. Whether those are benign or malign or intra-jury discussions that are improper, we don't know unless we interview these jurors.

MR. DRY: The government opposes that.

THE COURT: No, I'm not interviewing them. Thank you all very much.

(Counsel left Chambers.)

Bring Mr Denitto back in.

(Juror Denitto entered Chambers)

All right, Mr Denitto, you are going to be excused from the jury. This is a violation. I'm sure you probably didn't mean it this way, but I keep saying, "Don't talk about the case or discuss the case," and, you know, to make this call and even have these kinds of discussions with this lawyer was not appropriate And so you are going to have to be excused. And do you have anything in the jury room?

THE JUROR: No, huh-uh.

THE COURT: We will see you. Thank you for your service.

THE JUROR: I certainly apologize for that. It wasn't intended in any way I've dealt with that lawyer for 20 years

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You are excused.

(Chambers Conference ended at 10:20 a.m.)

Are counsel ready to proceed?

MR. DRY: The United States is ready to proceed.

MR. BURCK: Maureen McDonnell is ready to proceed

MR. ASBILL: Mr McDonnell is ready to proceed

THE COURT: All right Let's bring in the jury

(The jury entered the courtroom.)

All right, good morning, ladies and gentlemen. For the record, Juror Number 0356 has been excused. First alternate, Juror Number 12, Mr , has been moved up to the active jury Mr Dry?

DIRECT EXAMINATION (Cont'd)

BY MR. DRY:

Q Mr Kilgore, you know you are still under oath?

A Yes

Q Okay Upon further reflection, I only have two questions for you, I think.

A That's good.

Q Now, without getting into the substance of the conversation, on March 15th of 2013, did you receive a call from Mr Williams regarding a package he had received from Ms McDonnell?

A Yes, I did.

Q And as a result of that call, what did you do?

A I was out of town, so I directed my assistant to go to the Star office here in Glen Allen, Virginia, and pick up all the material

Q Okay

MR DRY: No further questions

THE COURT: Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Good morning, Mr Kilgore My name is John Brownlee I represent Bob McDonnell and I have a few questions for you this morning

A Good morning

Q Thank you I believe you started your testimony indicating that you had a meeting with Mr Williams here in Richmond on July 6th; is that correct?

A In July, yes, correct

Q And Mr Williams apparently flew up here from his home in Florida and you all met at one of the local hotels and had breakfast or some meal; is that correct?

A I'm not sure how he got here, Mr Brownlee, but I know we met at the Berkeley Hotel for lunch

Q Okay And Mr McDonnell was not there; is that right?

A That's correct

Q Okay Let me pull up just for the witness, if I can, RM-0520 Mr Kilgore, this is a receipt or an invoice for Mr Williams' trip that day to meet with you on July 6th.

A Okay

Q It indicates that Governor McDonnell was at that meeting with you; do you see that there, sir?

A I see meetings with Governor McDonnell and former Governor Kilgore

Q Right He was not at that meeting with you, correct?

A Correct Nor was I Governor

Q Thank you

MR. BROWNLEE: We move RM-0520, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, you indicated that -- you can take that down. Thank you. You had indicated that at this meeting, Mr Williams decided to retain you to assist him in trying to get some state funding for the research of his product,

Anatabloc

A Correct

Q Okay And it is my understanding that what you kind of laid out on the table for him at that time were really two options for him; is that correct?

A Correct Tobacco funds through TICR, the TICR organization, or Virginia -- I think you are calling it Virginia Tobacco Commission; and then or, a state budget line item for research.

Q Okay So just so I'm clear, the Tobacco funding is the process, and I think you and Mr Dry went through some of it; that's where you have to get some public entity to kind of apply on your behalf

A Yes

Q And if this whole Commission approves it, then you could get some of their tobacco money

A Correct

Q Okay And I think you testified that from the tobacco side, your brother, Terry Kilgore, who is a member of the House of Delegates, correct?

A Correct

Q He is the Chairman of that Tobacco Commission.

A Yes, he is now Yes

Q Okay And did you inform Mr Williams that you had this connection with the Tobacco Commission?

A I'm sure I said that Terry was on the Commission But I just can't -- I would normally say that I can't recall for sure that I said that

Q That's a pretty big deal

A I would normally say that.

Q To hire you as lobbyist for this project, and you happen to have your brother kind of running it That's a pretty big deal, right?

A Well, I mean, I'm glad he is there

Q Fair enough Now, I understand that your wife, Marty, also has some relationship with the Tobacco Commission; can you let us know that?

A It is not the Commission. She runs the, what's now called the Healthy Use Initiative for the Commonwealth, which is the other side of the tobacco settlement funding, if you will, and their mission is to stop smoking in teenagers, and the mission of that, just because I know from Attorney General days, is to spend those dollars on advertising campaigns, to deal with smoking cessation in kids and youth

Q Okay So at that meeting when you are discussing those two, Mr Williams is now aware that you have this relationship, these relationships with the Tobacco Commission, and that's one option for him to try to get some state dollars?

MR. DRY: Objection, Your Honor That's not what the witness testified to He said he may have said something about his relationship, but he didn't say he could say, it was normal

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q You believe you informed Mr Williams that your brother was head of this Commission?

A I can't say for sure, but I think I did. But I can't say for sure

Q So that's the Tobacco Commission. There was another option that you discussed with him, which is this line item.

A Correct

Q Is it accurate that that's a process where the Governor can simply insert into the state budget a line item for a particular project?

A Correct Yes, can insert it, and submit it as part of the Governor's budget or budget amendments, depending on the year you are in

Q And it is my understanding that the biennial budget is about $99 billion; am I in the ballpark?

A Yes Used to be, when I got here in Richmond, it was $20 billion

Q So it is a lot of money

A Right

Q What we are talking about here for this research is about three to $4 million

A I think so

Q Is that what Mr Williams was thinking it might cost?

A I never got to an exact amount because we were still pursuing UVA and VCU

Q All right Now, of those two, I think that -- well, let me move forward a little bit You then prepared kind of a memorandum for him; is that right?

A Correct

Q And I believe that's been put into evidence as Government Exhibit 202 If we could pull that up If we go to the next page This is kind of the main body of the memo where you are kind of outlining for Star the options that you think or the schedule you believe you would have to do to get what he wanted; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay So this is kind of your plan for him.

A Yes

Q If you look at the next page, it is actually kind of a checklist of things that need to be done for them to be successful; is that correct?

A Correct.

Q Okay So the first three, those in August, you stated that those were kind of up to Star themselves to do

A Yes We weren't designated to deal with UVA and that process, finding the researchers and things like that

Q Okay So that would be Star And it is your understanding that that just never got done

A It was on the slow roll, that's for sure

Q Okay Let's look at September This memorandum is dated August 10th So now in September we have another, I think it is seven items there, action items to do. And so the Number 1, "Prepare advocacy materials " Who was to do that?

A We would do that

Q Did you all ever do that?

A No

Q Okay The second one is the "Complete the tobacco pre-application for funds and submit to staff " Who was to do that one?

A Chris Nolen with me was going to do that He gathered information but did not complete it He met with staff or talked to staff

Q But that never happened.

A No

Q The next one, "Schedule meeting with staff "

A Mr Nolen did do that, yes

Q "Initiate the drafting of the grant " Was that ever done?

A No, because we needed to do the pre-application.

Q Okay Now the next one here says, "Schedule meeting with Governor McDonnell and Governor's policy staff to request Governor to include state appropriation to UVA for specific research which could be eligible for match." This is what we talked about earlier where you would just sit down with the Governor and ask for the money

A Correct

Q And then if he supported this, then he would just put it in his budget?

A He could, yes

Q And if the General Assembly supported it, boom, it is done

A Right Correct

Q All right The next one is "Determine professional economic impact analysis " That wasn't done

A No.

Q And then, "Develop list of supporters for use, southside-based businesses " That wasn't done, either, right?

A No

Q Let's go to the next ones quickly We've got October, "Schedule meeting with Chairman " Was that done?

A No.

Q "Meetings with the Chair of subcommittees"?

A No, it was not

Q Were any of the other ones done?

A No, sir

Q Okay So none of the other stuff was done So you put this plan out in August There's really two options: You have the Tobacco Commission, and then the other one is just to go straight to the Governor and ask for the money

A Correct

Q Let me talk about that one I think you testified -- you can take that down -- I think you testified that when you proposed this, that the meeting with the Governor and Star to make that ask just never happened; is that right?

A It did not

Q And it didn't happen, it is my understanding, because Star never authorized you to set up that meeting

A They weren't ready to -- right They didn't have the researchers at UVA lined up at that point

Q But if you were just going to make the ask to the Governor, you didn't need all the researchers, right? All you would need to --

A You would need the researchers to take the money to research I would think you would I wouldn't ask for the meeting if I didn't have VCU or UVA on board

Q But you said that you had advanced this out for Star and Star had never come back to you and asked for this meeting

MR. DRY: Asked and answered

THE COURT: Overruled.

THE WITNESS: No, they did not

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Fair to say that between the two options, going through the Tobacco Commission and getting the public entity to approve and all that, just going straight to him and asking for the money is a lot easier, right?

A Oh, yes, than dealing with 30-some members of the Tobacco Commission.

Q That's just a direct route right then He is the Governor He can just do it if that's what he wants to do

A Correct

Q Okay Let's move to this event at the Mansion Fair to say that when this was coming up, Jasen Eige and Martin Kent contacted you at some time and basically had two issues with what was going on; is that correct?

A They had the issue with it being at the Mansion, yes

Q Well, let me ask you this: Is it accurate that when Jasen first called you, he said, "It is my understanding there is a lunch and the launch and we don't like the launch," and you agreed, "Fine, we will move that to an off site"?

A He said he didn't like the -- it was the launch He didn't like the launch at the Mansion. He did not distinguish on that day between lunch and launch

Q That you recall

A That I recall

Q But he didn't like the launch or whatever, and that was not done, apparently?

A He suggested that it be moved to the Biotech Park, and I called Mr Williams to pass that on

Q Okay And then with the press release, there were some issues with it, and you got that changed.

A Yes Jasen complained about some of the language in the press release

Q Okay And when you heard that from Jasen, you believed that was a legitimate concern and you helped him change that

A I did. Absolutely

Q Okay Now, let me just step back How long have you known Jasen Eige?

A Oh, probably -- his mother-in-law was the Clerk of the Court in the Western District of Virginia, so I've known him since he married into the family

Q So a long time

A A long time

Q He worked with you?

A He came to Richmond as one of the Assistant Attorney Generals when I was Attorney General

Q Okay So fair to say you have known him for a long time and you have worked with him as well?

A Yes, absolutely

Q And you have respect for him and you trust his judgment on things?

A Yes, I do

Q When he worked for you, he was loyal and he looked after your best interests; is that correct?

MR. DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Overruled.

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q When he worked with you, you believe that he acted in your best interests when you were Attorney General?

A Yes, I did.

Q Now, you have testified that sometime in February, he contacted you and said, "Hey, you all need to back off here, okay?" And it is my understanding what he said was, "Listen, the Governor supports all this, but we don't think it is appropriate, and so we are asking you to back off," and it is our understanding you followed up with that and did that

A He contacted me to say he didn't think it was appropriate for a Governor to weigh in with research institutions on research I pushed back some to say, "Well, governors weigh in on things all the time " But I passed that on to Star

Q But he also was, fair to say that he also told you in that same conversation, "But I want to let you know that the Governor supports this"?

A Yes

Q Right?

A Yes

Q And so let me ask you this: Because you know Jasen, is there any chance, Mr Kilgore, that what he was doing to you, what he was communicating, was what we have referred to as a polite no? That "Listen, Jerry, I want to let you know the boss really supports this, but we just can't do this," and so that's what he was really communicating to you?

MR. DRY: Objection, calls for speculation

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q You do know what a polite no is, right?

A I do.

Q When Jasen was talking to you, he made it pretty clear that whatever Mr Williams wanted was not going to happen

A You know, I didn't leave the conversation that it was not going to happen. I left the conversation with it was Jasen being Jasen, Jasen was concerned, and didn't know that the Governor could or should call and weigh in with university researchers And I pushed back some to say, "Well, the Governor can make a statement on whatever the Governor wants to make a statement on "

Q But despite your pushing back, nothing ever happened after that, right?

A I passed that on to Mr Williams and Star And I don't know that the researchers ever got on board at that point

Q Well, let's pull up Government Exhibit -- where did I put that, the one we just had up? Government Exhibit 202 Go to the last page We just went through this, Mr Kilgore Once you hit September here, none of this ever happened So when he calls you in February and tells you, "I think this is a bad idea, it is not going to happen." It never happened, right?

A It was not happening at that time, correct The only thing that had happened from like September to November was the November conference call with the research institutions

Q Okay That was in November

A Correct

Q We are talking now in February

A Correct

Q So nothing ever happened.

A I didn't know of anything happening between November and -- I mean, that wasn't my job, to deal with UVA and VCU And I hadn't gotten an update on it

Q Let's pull up Government Exhibit Number 4 Let's go to the second page These are your billing records that were put into evidence; is that correct?

A Correct.

Q Let's look at -- and these are all the records that the government has given us from you all

A Right Correct

Q How much time have you billed or did you bill on this matter after February of 2012?

A Just under -- oh, after February, none

Q Zero, right?

A Correct

Q Nothing

MR DRY: Objection, asked and answered

THE COURT: Last I checked, zero was nothing Why are you asking three questions in one? He has answered it

MR. BROWNLEE: Thank you, Judge

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q We can take that down Now, you had talked a little bit about when you were brought on to the case Were you aware that it was Attorney General Cuccinelli who recommended you to Mr Williams?

A Not at the time, I was not

Q You now know that?

A I now know that

Q Okay And when you were first spoken to, Mr Kilgore, Mr Dry asked you where you presently work. And that's at McGuireWoods; is that correct?

A That is correct

Q And McGuireWoods represents Mr Williams; is that correct?

A Yes, they do

Q Okay If we pull up Exhibit 530 This is Mr Williams' immunity agreement with the United States And if you look at just the address on the top, Mr Cullen from McGuireWoods, that's the Chairman of your firm; is that correct?

A That is correct

MR. BROWNLEE: Court's indulgence for one moment, Your Honor You can take that down.

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR. BROWNLEE: That's all, Judge Thank you.

THE COURT: Mr Burck?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BURCK:

Q Good morning, Mr Kilgore

A Good morning

Q My name is Bill Burck and I represent Maureen McDonnell

A Yes

Q I want to focus on the summer of 2011 You were asked questions about the 2012, period but I'm just going to focus on 2011

A Okay

Q You testified about the lunch meetings you had with Mr Williams in the summer of 2011 Remember that testimony?

A Yes

Q And you talked to him about the various universities that could support the clinical trials, right?

A Correct

Q And he had come to you with Johns Hopkins; isn't that right?

A He did

Q As one of the options

A Yes

Q And you testified that --

A That was his option.

Q Because that's in Maryland principally, right?

A Right

Q You testified that you were telling him to focus on the Virginia options

A Correct

Q VCU, UVA, places like that?

A Correct

Q So that suggestion, as far as you know, came from you, right?

A It did

Q As far as you know, it didn't come from Governor McDonnell, right?

A No, I suggested VCU and UVA.

Q Ms McDonnell, it didn't come from her, either, right?

A Not that I know of

Q Let's talk about the August 1st lunch you had with Mary-Shea Sutherland and Mr Williams

A Yes

Q I think you testified that this was in fact a lunch that Mary-Shea Sutherland had set up, that you were going to meet her for a regular lunch?

A Correct

Q And you met with her a couple times a year; is that what you said?

A Like every year Once a year

Q Once a year So when she showed up with Mr Williams, that was a surprise to you.

A Right Well, they called right beforehand to say he would be joining us Right

Q When she called and said she was bringing Mr Williams, you hadn't known that before?

A I did not know that, yes

Q When she showed up, did they mention, did either Mr Williams or Ms Sutherland mention to you that they had been at the Mansion together before the lunch?

A They did not

Q Did they mention to you that Ms Sutherland had been in a meeting with a Dr Clore and Maureen McDonnell?

A Not to my knowledge I don't remember that, no

Q Did Mr Williams say anything about being at the Mansion with Maureen McDonnell and anyone from the Virginia Health Department?

A On that day?

Q On that day

A No

Q So as far as you knew, they just showed up together for lunch.

A For lunch

Q Then I think you described the lunch as a job negotiation That was your takeaway.

A Yes

Q And you said that, I think did you feel it was a little bit strange that you were there witnessing a job negotiation?

A Well, I was trying to figure out my purpose then at the lunch. Was I going to be the -- going to negotiate between the two

Q You are a lobbyist, right?

A Correct

Q And you had been hired by Mr Williams to look into research opportunities for Anatabloc for Star Scientific, right?

A Star Scientific, right

Q You are not an employment lawyer?

A No.

Q You don't negotiate employment agreements, right?

A Not normally I have in the past

Q You have in the past But that was not something you had been hired, as far as you knew, by Mr Williams to do?

A Correct

Q So you were there feeling a little uncomfortable with the situation?

A As the lunch progressed and Ms Sutherland was talking about her issues, yes

Q Okay You testified that she had mentioned that you rejected the idea that McGuireWoods could hire her You testified about that

A Right

Q But that she raised the idea that he could be a client of hers at Benedetti & Farris?

A Correct

Q And did she use the term "anchor client"?

A "A client" is all I remember.

Q "A client"?

A "A client " Yes

Q And did you understand that her -- that this was something that was important to her, to go back to Benedetti & Farris?

A I understood that she wanted to leave and go back to Benedetti & Farris

Q Okay And you testified that Mr Williams, it seemed that there was -- let me ask you this: Did it seem that they had an agreement in principle by the end of that lunch?

A I wasn't sure how to read it I mean, she really wanted to leave, and he wanted to, seemed like he wanted to find her a place to go. And when we were leaving, he asked her to just send me a proposed contract

Q Okay This is the Benedetti & Farris contract that you received in September?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, did the topic of the August event, the Mansion event, come up at that lunch?

A I do not remember that

Q You don't remember that?

A No

Q Do you recall at any point learning that Mary-Shea Sutherland was involved in helping set up the launch or lunch?

A Not until the press -- the call from Mr Eige about the press issue

Q So it was when you got the press releases from Mr Eige, when he was asking you "What are we doing with this? This is not something we can do," that's when you learned that Mary-Shea Sutherland was involved in the lunch?

A I figured out she was involved with the lunch.

Q You figured out -- okay So at this point you understood that she was involved with the lunch, and of course you knew that on August 1st, that she had been present for a job negotiation with Mr Williams

A Right

Q Okay Now, you testified that after the lunch occurred, and you received the Benedetti & Farris contract in early September, that thereafter, nothing ever happened between Mr Williams and Ms Sutherland, hiring her

A Correct

Q And you testified that Mr Williams told you that he couldn't do that because it would upset the First Lady, couldn't hire Mary-Shea because it would upset the First Lady?

A His words, he wasn't going to poach on the First Lady

Q Did Mr Williams tell you that Mr Perito had told him that hiring Mary-Shea Sutherland would present a conflict of interest?

A He did not tell me that

Q He never said that?

A No

Q Okay So the only thing you understood was that he was worried about poaching; is that right?

A Correct

Q Did you have any response to him being concerned about poaching?

A No, I just, it is his decision It wasn't -- I had already forwarded on to Mr Pokusa to deal with it

Q Did you say anything to him about the poaching idea? When he said "poaching," did you say anything back?

A I did say, did reply that "It happens all the time

People leave state government for other jobs all the time." And I was always happy if somebody got a better job, better opportunity

Q Right Okay By the way, did you ever hear Jonnie Williams say to Mary-Shea Sutherland in the August 1st lunch, or I guess any time after that, that she should not tell the Governor's Office that she was leaving until after the event? Do you remember hearing that?

A No, because I didn't know about the event

Q Right Until at the end of the month.

A Right

Q Now, is it fair to say that your understanding was that Mary-Shea Sutherland was genuinely interested in leaving the Mansion and going to work for, in some capacity, for Mr Williams or Star Scientific?

A Yes

Q That her interest was genuine?

A Yes

Q And you didn't think, putting you in September of 2011, this is after you have learned that she is involved in the lunch, and also you know that she is negotiating a job with Mr Williams, you didn't think that she was negotiating a job in order to help Mr Williams with the launch, right?

A Didn't cross my mind. No

Q Didn't cross your mind because you thought she had a genuine interest

A Right

MR DRY: Asked and answered.

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR. BURCK:

Q After speaking to Mr Williams, did you believe that his interest in her coming to work for him had been as genuine as her interest in working for him?

MR. DRY: Objection, relevance

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR. BURCK:

Q It never occurred to you that, given what you understood about the conversation that you witnessed, and your discussions with Mr Williams and your discussions with Mary-Shea Sutherland, you never thought that she was looking for some kind of quid pro quo? Is that right?

MR. DRY: Objection, relevance

THE COURT: Sustained

MR. BURCK: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Redirect?

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR DRY:

Q Bring up Government's Exhibit 202, please Can we go to the second page? I'm sorry, third page Can we blow up the second block, the September block? Sir, in this, you write "Schedule meeting with Governor McDonnell and Governor's policy staff, J Williams J Kilgore required, to request Governor to include state appropriation to UVA for specific research which could be eligible for match " Right?

A Right

Q Would it be possible for you to have a meeting --

MR. BROWNLEE: Objection, calls for speculation

THE COURT: Let him finish the question first

BY MR. DRY:

Q In order to discuss with the Governor what state appropriation you would want and how much and what research it was related to, didn't UVA have to be on board before that meeting could occur?

MR BURCK: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: The "wouldn't it be possible" question is sustained

BY MR DRY:

Q What was the reason you didn't have the meeting with the Governor?

A Because UVA wasn't on board yet

Q And without UVA being on board, did you know what to ask the Governor for? How much money, specifics?

A I did not I did not know the specifics

Q Now, regarding the line items in the state budget, the Governor can put the line items in; is that right?

A Correct

Q But who ultimately has to approve it?

A The General Assembly

Q Let's go to, I believe you were asked questions about this August 1st, 2011 lunch And I believe Mr Burck asked you about finding out that Ms Sutherland was involved with the, I think he said "launch," and then corrected himself and said "lunch " Exactly what was your knowledge of Ms Sutherland's involvement in the lunch?

A Not any until the August phone call, the late August phone call from Mr Eige about the press statements

Q In your conversations with Mr Williams, I think you testified that there were several conversations about this lunch and event at the Mansion, right?

A Right

Q At any point in that, did Mr Williams ever, ever say that Mary-Shea Sutherland, it was her idea to have this event?

MR. BURCK: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Overruled.

THE WITNESS: He did not

BY MR. DRY:

Q And in those conversations, who was he telling you supports his product?

A The Governor and the First Lady

MR DRY: Nothing further Thank you, sir

THE COURT: All right

MR. BROWNLEE: Could we have just one question?

THE COURT: No, sir All right Thank you, sir You may stand down.

(Witness stood aside)

Call your next witness, please

MS ABER: Emily Rabbitt

MR. ASBILL: May we approach for a minute?

THE COURT: Sure Come on up

(At Bench)

MR ASBILL: The 302's for this witness contain an incredible amount of hearsay and gratuitous personal opinion and irrelevant material about the kids and whether they were looking for gifts and things of that nature I don't want to constantly be objecting in front of the jury about these issues But it is certainly, based on the 302, I'm really worried about that kind of information coming in constantly in this case

THE COURT: I don't know how I can help you. I can't resolve your objection to any question until the question is asked But I'm alerted.

MR. ASBILL: Thank you

(In Open Court)

EMILY RABBITT,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Good morning, Ms Rabbitt Please state and spell your name for the record

A Emily Rabbitt, E-M-I-L-Y, R-A-B-B-I-T-T

Q Did you previously work in the Administration of Governor Robert McDonnell?

A I did.

Q When did you start working there?

A I started in June, 2011 as Deputy Scheduler

Q Did you subsequently gain an additional job?

A I did In late November, early December, 2012, I became Deputy Director of Scheduling and Travel Aide

Q Does that mean that you picked up where Adam Zubowsky left off?

A Yes

Q You took over for him?

A Yes

Q And so is it fair to say that you maintained your job as Deputy Director of Scheduling, but added additional duties as Travel Aide?

A Yes

Q Okay How long did you continue working for Mr McDonnell?

A I stayed until the end of his Administration in January, 2014

Q If you were the Deputy Scheduler, who was the Principal Scheduler?

A Katherine Harris

Q Is it fair to say you started roughly when Monica Block was on her way out the door?

A Yeah I think we had just a couple-day overlap

Q In a very brief summary, can you tell the jury about what your job as Deputy Scheduler entailed?

A I was responsible for the briefing information for the Governor's briefing book. Every day we assembled a binder for him that had a divider for each event that he needed briefing information for, whether it was talking points or just background information on what he was supposed to be doing So it was my responsibility to go in and work with the appropriate contacts to make sure he had the information he needed for the book.

Q If I can stop you there, Ms Rabbitt, we will talk about that in a little bit

A Okay

Q Tell the jury how Mr McDonnell's schedule was determined from your perspective How did things get on the calendar?

A Well, I wasn't totally involved in the actual, like complete process, but basically we would receive scheduling requests Our rule was they had to be in writing And then we would determine if it would work with his schedule, and if it seemed like a good event for him to do, and then it would be put on a log for consideration with a larger group of members of his staff

Q Who had final approval over Mr McDonnell's schedule?

A He did

Q Now, I'd like to talk about that briefing book you started to talk about Let's bring up Government Exhibit 230 This has been admitted, Your Honor Okay So assuming we are talking about a day like August 30th, what would be in the briefing book that you would provide to the Governor?

A Typically, let's see --

Q Would this document be in it?

A Yes, definitely It would be the first page in the book.

Q Okay What else would be in there?

A Based on the events, he had maybe something for WTOP if he needed it, or for the Legislator Call Time further down the page if he needed specific background information for that call

Q If I could direct your attention, please, to Page 2 of the exhibit For example, the 12:35 event

A Yes We had a set briefing for the Executive Mansion events that he would have for each event

Q Okay So you would print all those Word documents and the Excel document out and put it in the binder?

A Uh-huh.

Q Were you able to leave for the day if the binder was not complete?

A No

Q So you had to stay until it was done?

A I guess I could have left, but I chose to see it through to the end. It was my job to complete it

Q I understand So Government Exhibit 234, please, that's been admitted. Is this the sort of item that you would include in the binder as the specifics of an event?

A Yes

Q Okay How did you get -- you can take that down How did you get this binder to the Governor?

A Every night I would drop it off at the guardhouse of the Executive Mansion, and I would give it to a member of the Capitol Police, who would then put it on the elevator for him to see

Q Based on your experience, when did Mr McDonnell review his briefing book?

A It depended He had the opportunity to see it the night before, but in some instances he was just reviewing what he needed to be doing before he would go into an event. So --

Q Now, I'd like to talk a little bit more about the e-mail schedules Let's bring up not-admitted Government Exhibit 291, please Now, the jury has seen quite a few of these, but can you tell them more precisely when they were sent out, to whom they were sent out, and why they were sent out?

A It was -- the schedule was sent out to the Governor's security detail, the Executive Protection Unit, as well as members of his senior staff

Q Let me stop you there

MS. ABER: I'd like to move 291 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q So it went to those folks When was it sent out?

A Typically at the end of the day Sometimes we were waiting for things to be finalized, but between six, any time after six p.m., really, I would say

Q Even though this e-mail shows To: Katherine Harris

From: Katherine Harris, are there other folks who are blind carbon copied on this?

A Yes

Q Whose responsibility was it to send out the final scheduling e-mail?

A Katherine's

Q Did there come a point in time when you took that over?

A Katherine left the Administration in December of 2013 and I just assumed that duty as well

Q Now, did you rely on these schedules from your perspective to determine where Mr McDonnell was located at a given time?

A Yes

Q And did Mr McDonnell largely follow the schedules?

A Yes

Q Now, for the sake of moving this along, I'm going to hand you a stack of schedules that are Government Exhibit 552, 553, 305, 310, 317, and 378 Have you had an opportunity to take a look at those before coming to court?

A Yes

Q Okay Are they all schedules from various dates in the Administration?

A Yes

MS ABER: I'd like to move those into evidence, that being 552, 553, 305, 310, 317, and 378, please

THE COURT: They will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Okay Now, I'd like to direct your attention back to Government Exhibit 234 Do you remember anything about this particular lunch with Virginia researchers?

A Well, just that I remember when I went to go get the briefing information for it, because each morning I would touch base with Katherine about what events would need information, what the status of things was, because she had worked to get it on the calendar She, I remember that I went and I said, "Sarah, what about the briefing form?" And then I had also heard there might be a press release involved with the event And I would typically, if an event had a press release, I liked to include it just as additional background information for the Governor to make sure he had everything But I remember hearing that there was some, as best I can recall, that there was some issue with the press release, so I was like, okay, I won't worry about that until I hear more about it

Q Did you attend this event?

A No

Q Were you aware in general that before this event, a couple months before, that Mr Jonnie Williams had given some money, $50,000, to Ms McDonnell?

MR ASBILL: Objection.

MS ABER: Your Honor, she worked in the Administration. It is relevant to know whether she was aware of the loans that Mr McDonnell was providing

THE COURT: Go ahead and answer

THE WITNESS: I was not aware of it

BY MS ABER:

Q Is it fair to say you didn't know about any of these gifts or loans until after the media stories broke in 2013?

A Yeah I mean, I think, I guess at that point in time I had known about like flights maybe and that kind of thing had been donated.

Q But not anything other than flights?

A Yeah, I don't think so As best I can recall

Q Okay You can take that down, please I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 627, please That has not been admitted. Is this an e-mail exchange between you and Adam Zubowsky in January of 2013?

A Yes

MR. ASBILL: I object to this

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench.)

THE COURT: So state your objection.

MR. ASBILL: It is not relevant It is extraordinarily prejudicial

MS ABER: Your Honor, the defendants have made an issue about Mr McDonnell's thriftiness and suggesting that Mr Williams foisted these gifts upon him. The government would like to introduce this evidence to show that he was willing to accept other folks' gifts and other free items if available

THE COURT: This is an e-mail from?

MS. ABER: From Mr -- it is a chain between Mr Zubowsky and Ms Rabbitt in January of 2013 The witness is on it

THE COURT: Okay So how does the Governor fit into this?

MS ABER: The e-mail makes reference to Zubowsky's prior experiences as Travel Aide, the new position that Ms Rabbitt assumed, and his practice was to seek out free golf and free vacations for the Governor

THE COURT: Not through this witness The objection is sustained

(In Open Court)

BY MS ABER:

Q Okay Moving along Let's look at Government Exhibit 458, please, which has not been admitted. Is this a January of 2013 exchange between you and Katherine

Harris?

A Uh-huh.

Q You have to say yes

A I'm sorry, yes

MS ABER: Your Honor, I would move Government Exhibit 458 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Is it fair to say this e-mail pertains to a P O Box?

A Yes

Q Okay And in the top part there, you write to Ms Harris that "Apparently he has a P O. Box, a personal P O Box that Pam checks " And that lists P O. Box 406; is that right?

A Yes

Q Who is the "he" in that sentence?

A The Governor

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up already-admitted 452, please

BY MS ABER:

Q Ms Rabbitt, is that the same P O Box number on the top left there that we just saw in Government Exhibit 458?

A Yes

Q Okay Thank you You can take that down. We would like to change subjects entirely, directing your attention to February of 2013 So at that point, what job did you have?

A I was Deputy Director of Scheduling as well as Travel Aide at that time

Q And as Travel Aide, did you accompany Mr McDonnell to various events?

A Yes

Q Did you attend an event with Mr McDonnell at the SunTrust Building here in Richmond?

A Yes

Q Do you remember roughly when in February that was?

A I would say, I don't remember the exact date, but I think early February

Q And what was this particular event at the SunTrust Building?

A I think we went to several, but it was either an event for, I think it was an event for the Thomas Jefferson Institute I believe that was the one We went to several in a row there, but I think that might have been the one

Q When you were finished with the event, did you exit via elevator?

A Yes

Q Who was in the elevator with you?

A Myself, the Governor, First Lady, a member of EPU, and a security guard from the SunTrust Building

Q While you were in the elevator, did Mr McDonnell say anything in particular that stood out to you?

A I did hear him, I believe I may have heard him say something about stock with the First Lady But I didn't hear much beyond that

Q Did Mr McDonnell remove anything from his pocket when making this statement?

A Yes It appeared he had taken something from his bottle and was about to take something with it, took something from his pocket and was about to take something

Q Could you identify what item he pulled out of his pocket?

A I'm assuming it was --

THE COURT: Sustained.

THE WITNESS: I think it might have been Anatabloc, but I can't say with certainty

BY MS ABER:

Q To whom was Mr McDonnell making this statement?

A The First Lady

Q Did Ms McDonnell say anything in return?

A I think she -- i'm not entirely certain what she said. She may have [illegible], "Okay "

MR HAUSS: [illegible]jection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained. She doesn't know what she said.

BY MS ABER:

Q You can only say what you know

A I'm sorry

Q Let's change subjects again. Let's talk about in general your experiences in the Administration Okay?

A Yes

Q How common was it for the Governor to have meetings on his schedule?

A Very common

Q Did any of those meetings pertain to business and economic development?

A Yes

Q In your experience, did Administration officials other than Mr McDonnell ever attend those meetings?

A Yes

Q How common was it for you to participate in planning the logistics of those meetings?

A Fairly common, especially with the briefing information on the back end

Q How common was it, if you know, for other Administration officials like Cabinet Secretaries or Deputies to have meetings on their schedules?

A Common Very common, yes

Q How common was it for you to facilitate in some way getting those meetings on those Cabinet Secretaries' schedules?

A Common Not incredibly common, but yeah, pretty common, I guess I would get, if a request came to me and the Governor was not able to take the meeting for scheduling purposes, sometimes we would say, "You can meet with the Cabinet member on his behalf, on behalf of the Governor "

MS ABER: One moment, please, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MS ABER: I have no further questions

THE COURT: Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Good morning How are you?

A Good

Q You've talked a little bit about the Governor's schedule and how he would learn about his schedule Isn't it true that he often didn't know what to expect on his schedule or didn't know what his exact schedule was going to be until the morning of the day that was scheduled?

MS ABER: Objection Speculation

THE COURT: No She can answer

A I -- it just depended when he would look at his book He received it the night before, but I'm sure some days he wouldn't look at it until the day of

BY MR ASBILL:

Q And would there be any possible changes overnight or early morning on his schedule?

A Yeah Certainly

Q Okay And is it fair to say that many meetings for the Governor were set without somebody personally asking him whether or not it was okay with him to set the meeting?

A I do not know

Q All right And during the day, would schedules often get changed and substitutions on the schedule be made?

A Yes

Q Okay With respect to the number of meetings that the Governor had while you were in this job, did you ever estimate that number?

A No.

Q Do you have any idea how many hours he worked during the day or during a year?

A He worked very long days I do know that

Q Would you have any idea whether -- how many hundreds, thousands of meetings he might have had during the four years?

MS ABER: Objection Asked and answered

THE COURT: Overruled

BY THE COURT:

Q He's asking you if you know a number, the number of meetings he might have had

A I --

Q If you have any idea

A No, I do not

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Okay With respect to your testimony about the P O Box, do you know the details of that, where the box was and when it was opened and why it was open?

A Not -- no, not with certainty

Q Okay

MR ASBILL: I have no further questions

THE COURT: All right.

Anything for Ms McDonnell?

MR HAUSS: Very briefly, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR HAUSS:

Q Is it fair to say that Mr McDonnell had a very busy schedule?

A Yes

Q Frequently would work 14, 15, 16-hour days?

A Yes

Q Was it common for Mr McDonnell to travel?

A Yes

Q And would he often travel without Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

MR HAUSS: Nothing further, Your Honor

THE COURT: Any redirect?

MS ABER: No, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Thank you, ma'am You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: Call your next witness, please

MS ABER: One moment, Your Honor I'm sorry

MR DRY: Can we approach, Your Honor?

(At Bench)

MR DRY: Your Honor, we were told that Kilgore's cross would take an hour and a half for Mr Asbill and a half hour for Mr Burck Obviously, that didn't happen We can put -- we have a witness, Hagan, Special Agent Hagan, who's ready to go That would be out of the order that we'd given it to you So we're basically --

MR FAULCONER: Vetrovec and Bridge are on their way, but they're not here quite yet

THE COURT: Why don't we take our 15 minutes, and we'll see where we're at

MR FAULCONER: Thank you, Your Honor

(In Open Court)

THE COURT: All right We are going to go ahead and take 15 minutes now

(Recess taken from 11:17 a m until 11:36 a m)

THE COURT: All right Let's bring in the jury, please

(The jury entered the courtroom)

THE COURT: All right Call your next witness, please

MR FAULCONER: Yes, Your Honor The

United States calls Dr George Vetrovec

DR GEORGE VETROVEC,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

MR FAULCONER: May I inquire, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Go ahead

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Good morning

A Good morning

Q Could you please state your name, and spell your last for the court reporter

A George Wayne Vetrovec, V, like in Victor, E-T-R-O, V again like in Victor, E like in Edward, C like in cat

Q What city do you currently live in Dr Vetrovec?

A Richmond, Virginia

Q And what do you currently do for a living?

A I am a cardiologist at VCU Medical Center

Q How long have you worked at VCU?

A Since -- I've been on the faculty since July of 1976

Q And what is your current title at VCU?

A Professor of Medicine, and I direct the adult catheterization laboratory

Q What sort of educational background do you have?

A I have an undergraduate degree from the University of Virginia and a medical degree from the University of Virginia, postgraduate medical training at VCU Medical Center in internal medicine and cardiology

Q And how do your day-to-day duties break down in terms of patients, research, admin stuff?

A Well, the majority of my work is patient care, but an awful lot is also teaching Now, when I say that, I think you have to understand that our teaching is more apprentice, on-job training So much of the clinical work I do is in conjunction with the trainee who's learning to do procedures that I do and so forth So it's hard to separate out entirely teaching and patient care And then I do probably 10 percent research, and I do some administration

Q Now, as a VCU employee, do you receive certain e-mails that are addressed to all state employees?

A Yes, I do

Q And do those include e-mails from whoever is Governor at the time?

A Yes, I do

Q I'd like to show you what's been already admitted as Exhibit 271 And zooming in on the top there, does this look like one of those types of e-mails that you would generally get?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: We can take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, I'd like to shift gears and talk about an individual named Jonnie Williams, and I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 248 Zooming in on that top portion there, does that appear to be a calendar entry to you for a meeting with Jonnie Williams and yourself?

A Yes, it does

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 248 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Dr Vetrovec, I see that this says, "Jonnie Williams, Founder of Visx Laser Vision, CEO of Star Scientific " And the date of this dated October 3rd, 2011 And it says, "Location: Lobby of Gateway "

Could you orient us about sort of how this meeting came to be and got to your attention?

A Yes It entirely came through scheduling by my assistant at the time, Cindy Dutilly, who was contacted by Mr Williams, who said he had a new drug, he needed to talk to me about it and potential studies And that was what the crux of the meeting was But I never talked to him before I actually met with him at this time

Q In that year at least?

A That's right

Q Now, before 2011, before this meeting got put on your calendar, had you heard of the compound anatabine?

A No

Q Had you heard of Anatabloc?

A No

Q But had you met Mr Williams prior to this meeting?

A Yes

Q How long before it, approximately, had you met him?

A A number of years Maybe ten But that's a guess He -- the first time I met him, he brought a patient to my office that was scheduled, but he came with the patient and introduced the patient to me not as a family care member or anything like that He simply introduced the patient, said he was a very important person to him and he wanted me to take care of him, and then he just -- he left So that's the first time I saw Jonnie

Q And was there one interim time between the first time you saw him and then this meeting?

A I saw him some years later, it's like three or four or five, in the Atlanta airport one evening We were waiting for a flight to Richmond, and he reintroduced himself I, frankly, wouldn't have probably remembered him Reintroduced himself about the patient and so forth And so I saw him in the Atlanta airport

Q Now, on this particular occasion in October of 2011, did you ultimately meet Mr Williams at the lobby of the Gateway building?

A I did

Q And just for anybody who's not from Richmond, do you know where the Gateway building is?

A The Gateway building is meant to be the main entrance into the hospital for inpatient and outpatient activities It fronts onto Marshall Street, approximately where 12th Street intersects

Q Do we need to move that microphone?

A Am I too close to it?

Q I think if you sit back just a little bit Thanks

All right So that's -- is that on -- you said the main entrance to the hospital Is that the VCU Medical Center?

A Correct

Q Now, when you met Mr Williams at that location, where did you go from there?

A Well, Mr Williams said to me, "How much time do you have?" And I said, "Thirty minutes " And he said, "Make it 45 " He said, "The Governor's wife makes really good cookies, and I asked her to make us some cookies We're going over there "

So I got in his car, and we drove over to the Mansion

Q And before that time in 2011, had you been to the Governor's Mansion before?

A Not that I can recall

Q And do you recall what kind of car he was driving?

A I don't recall the car, and I hesitate to say, but it -- it is fair to say that I couldn't open the door It was sort of embarrassing So I --

Q Was that because it was an old car or --

A No It was a different kind of lock that I wasn't used to

Q Okay Now, during your ride over from the Gateway building to the Governor's Mansion, did Mr Williams talk about this new product that he had?

A Yes He did talk about the drug Anatabloc and what its potential, he thought, was And he said it, you know, was just still sort of in its infancy That's my term, but it's new He was excited to have physicians get involved and perhaps do some studies with it

Q And did he tell you that he was interested in you potentially being one of those physicians?

A I can't remember, but that certainly, over time, became clear that he wanted me involved if I was interested in doing studies with it

Q And did he say anything about the relationship between the product and tobacco?

A Yes, he did

Q Do you recall what he said?

A Well, he basically said that if -- I think the background was there were many -- obviously, a lot of bad things related to tobacco, but there were some conditions, medical conditions where patients maybe did better if they had smoked at some time or had had tobacco contact, and that what he was doing was trying to use -- utilize the positive or good agents out of the tobacco for potentially medical use

Q Now, when you got to the Governor's Mansion, do you recall where Mr Williams parked?

A He parked on the lawn of the Governor's Mansion

Q And once he parked the car, where did you guys to go?

A We went into the Mansion

Q And do you recall what sort of event was going on, if any, out on the lawn

A Yes This was a large event there, which was -- it turned out to be the official state recognition, I guess is the best description, for Steven Spielberg when he was here for the movie Lincoln

Q And did you actually meet Mr Spielberg at the event?

A I did

Q And can you describe -- I think you said earlier you only had 45 minutes Could you describe how that happened?

A Well, after the official introductions and so forth, I said to Mr. Williams that I needed to get back, and he said, "Wait a minute Before you go," he said, "let me get you to meet Mr Spielberg " And he spoke to the Governor's wife, who took me over and introduced me to Mr. Spielberg.

Q Now, was there a line of people or how exactly did it work for you to walk --

A It looked like -- as I recall, it looked like there was starting to be sort of a receiving line, if you will, that was gathering And she just sort of took me to the head of that, and I spoke to Mr Spielberg for a few minutes

Q Now, just to be clear, do you recall whether you spoke to Mr McDonnell at that event?

A I do not recall speaking to him at all

Q Now, after -- or as you left the event and got back in Mr Williams' car, do you recall whether he continued to talk about this product that he had?

A He did

Q And coming away from the event, what was sort of your impression of why you had gone to this thing?

A I thought it was someone who was using an opportunity that -- an event that was going on to help enhance my interest in potentially being involved in the product

Q And when you say "someone," do you mean Mr Williams?

A Mr Williams

Q Now, after this meeting, or after this going over to the Mansion, sorry, did you tell any of your colleagues or anybody about sort of what had happened?

A Of course

Q What did you tell them, in general?

A I just told them, "You can't imagine This was the most unusual event that you can imagine You just never know what's going to happen every morning when you get up "

Q And do you recall ever discussing it with a colleague of doctors named Dr Abbate?

A Now, that was a little bit different approach The reason I spoke with Dr Abbate, he's a junior faculty member at Virginia Commonwealth University in cardiology He is originally from Italy, Italian trained An excellent young scientist And I actually talked to him about, "Let's look at this and think about whether this is worth exploring as a new entity and new drug "

Q Got it Now, after your visit to the Mansion, did you also attend an event related to Star Scientific or its company Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals later in October at the Westin Hotel?

A I can't confirm the date, but it was after that that I did attend an event at the Westin Hotel, which was sponsored by, as you say, Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals or Star Scientific It's unclear to me

Q All right I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 251 And zooming in on this, is this an e-mail chain between someone named Caroline Birgmann and it looks like yourself; is that right?

A Yes That's certainly my name.

Q And does this appear to be dated October 18th, 2011, at least the top e-mail?

A Yes

Q Does this appear to be discussing this event that --

A I believe so

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 251 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, where it says there at the top, "I plan to attend and am bringing Dr Antonio Abbate with me Thanks Looking forward to event," is that the e-mail that you wrote here?

A I assume that's mine

Q And do you recall if Dr Abbate also went to the event?

A He did

MR FAULCONER: We can take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, when you went to the event, do you recall whether you were there the whole time or were you only there for part of it?

A My recollection is is I got there somewhat late, as the program was starting

Q And what do you recall about the part of the event that you were there for?

A There were -- I recall, really, the science of it And there were at least two or three lectures One specifically talking about the animal studies that had been done with this drug in patient or animal models of Alzheimer's There were two or three, quote, scientific presentations that were there And that's what I basically remember from it

Q All right Now, I'd like to move forward from October to the end of February of 2012 And I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 342 And, Dr Vetrovec, does this appear to be a calendar entry for an event that you attend at the Executive Mansion on February 29th, 2012?

A Yes I went to such an event I can't recall the specific date But the -- in that time frame, yes

Q Okay In the late February time frame?

A Yes, sir

MR. FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 342 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Dr Vetrovec, you said that you attended an event at the Executive Mansion in February of 2012; is that right?

A Correct

Q When you arrived at that event, or at some point when you were there, did you meet Mr McDonnell?

A Yes, I did

Q And do you recall what you spoke about with him?

A Yes The conversation turned around -- at that time frame, there was some issue going on in the legislature relative to his getting passed, his budget And he spoke to myself, and there was someone else, I can't remember who it was, about he would like to -- he said, you know, "I will need your support with this perhaps, and I hope you would be willing to come down and help by supporting it because it could be important to your institution " It was the entire state budget that he was referring to

Q And just to be clear, in that conversation with Mr McDonnell, did Mr Williams' name come up?

A No, not that I can recall at all

Q But at that event at the Mansion, did you see Mr Williams there?

A Yes He was there

Q And could you tell us what you spoke about with Mr Williams when you were at that event?

A I can't remember specifically, but we talked about potential studies with the drug He was still saying, "Are you" -- "are you interested in doing some studies?"

Q And do you ever recall Mr Williams saying anything specifically about Virginia schools doing a study, as opposed to other types of schools?

A His only reference at one time, and I don't know if it was that night or at some point, said, you know, this is a Virginia drug, and it's sort of disappointing that I don't have better scientific support coming out of the schools here I have somebody doing studies at Johns Hopkins as a -- and, you know, I'd like to see more in the Commonwealth "

Q And do you recall whether Mr Williams ever said anything to you about potential state funding for studies of his product?

A You know, I don't recall anything about the source of funding I recall -- and the fact was that I never got far enough with developing a research protocol to basically say to him, "Okay Where do I apply for money for this? Is it through your company," et cetera So I really never had that discussion with him because I never got that far research wise

Q Do you ever remember him saying anything about it, though?

A I don't clearly recall anything

Q All right Now, I'd like to show you, sorry, what's been already admitted as Exhibit 309 Now, Dr Vetrovec, is this a -- just zooming in on the list towards the bottom, sorry, is this a list of names and individuals that you've had a chance to review before coming into court?

A I believe you've shown me this before

Q And we've heard some testimony about these individuals not being invited to that event Do you recognize -- I guess maybe it's easiest to put this way Are there any companies on this list that you don't recognize?

A I don't know what AmeriHealth Mercy or CGI are, or Generic Pharmaceutical There are some of these I don't know what they are Majority of them I do recognize as -- such as Amgen and Sanofi-Aventis, Medtronic, Merck, so forth

Q And the ones that you do recognize, are those ones that you interact with as a cardiologist fairly regularly?

A Yes

Q Other --

A In general

Q Oh, sorry

A In general, yes

Q And other than the discussions that we've been talking about with Mr Williams, had you interacted with Star Scientific before 2011 in your practice?

A No

Q And at the time of the event that you went to in late February of 2012, were you aware of any conversations between Mr McDonnell and Mr Williams about any financial transactions between the two of them?

A No

Q All right I'd like to shift gears just a little bit forward and talk about early March of 2012 And I'd like to show you what has been either marked or admitted as Exhibit 353

MR STARNES: It's not admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right What's been marked as Exhibit 353 Dr Vetrovec, is this an e-mail from Dr Abbate to an individual named John Clore, with a blind carbon copy to yourself?

A Yes

Q And is this dated March 7th of 2012?

A No It looks like it's March 3rd -- March 3rd

Q I'm sorry I guess in the upper right-hand corner does it say 3/7/2012?

A Okay Okay That's correct

Q Okay

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 353 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, you've told us who Dr Abbate is Can you tell us who Dr Clore is?

A Dr Clore is head of what I guess would be called the Clinical Research Center at VCU and is significantly involved in clinical research

Q And I see there on -- it looks like the fourth line, it says, "George Vetrovec and I were exploring the use of anatabine in patients with CAD or CHF "

At this time, were you and Dr Abbate still discussing the possibility of doing some studies on anatabine?

A Yes. We had on and off We sort of had outlined, I don't know if written, but verbally and in our discussions, a list of potential studies that might be of interest to do with this compound We were operating on the idea that it had anti-inflammatory properties based on some of the science that had been -- has been written about it

Q Got it Well, I'd like to fast-forward now to May of 2012 and show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 391 And, Dr Vetrovec, is this a -- it looks like a page to you from somebody on your staff at VCU?

A Yes Michele is an assistant in the general cath office staff pool

Q And is this dated, it looks like May 30th, 2012?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 391 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Dr Vetrovec, do you recall being alerted that Mr Williams had reached out to you again in May of 2012?

A I do not recall this specifically

Q Okay But do you recall at some point later in that year, late 2012, Mr Williams reaching out to you?

A Yes I mean, I -- I don't know the specific dates, but I know he continued to have intermittent contact with me about potentially doing studies with the drug

Q And did that extend at least sometime into sort of late spring, summer of 2012?

A I believe so I think in addition to that, because we had not offered an individual proposal, he had some type of one or more center studies going, and he had also asked if we wanted to join an existing group of centers I'm saying group I don't really recall how many or what that was, but to be a multicenter, part of a multicenter experience with the drug

Q All right One moment

MR FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Dr Vetrovec, it says on here, "Personal call Jonnie Williams," and it gives a phone number Do you recall having a phone conversation sometime in this general time frame with Mr Williams?

A I must say I don't I know I had phone calls with him, but I can't pinpoint it to the time

Q And when you did have phone calls with him, would he generally be bringing up the studies that he was talking about?

A Yes

Q Is it fair to say -- do you recall a conversation with him in which he wasn't referring to the studies?

A No I don't recall any

MR FAULCONER: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Good morning, Doctor How are you?

A Thank you

Q My name is Hank Asbill, and I represent Bob McDonnell You briefly described your credentials You said you were at VCU, and you're a cardiologist, and you're on the faculty; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And you said you -- am I correct in thinking that you're also an internist, in addition to being a cardiologist?

A Well, my credentialing is -- to become a cardiologist, you have to be an internist, and then you do specialized training in cardiology

So I am board certified in internal medicine, cardiology, and interventional cardiology, which is putting in stents and the like But I don't really practice internal medicine except as it interrelates with cardiology

Q All right And you said you're the head of the cath lab at VCU; is that correct?

A Right

Q And are you -- aside from being board certified, are you on any boards or do you hold any positions within medical societies?

A Yes I have, over the years, been on the National Board of the American Heart Association, the Board of Trustees of the American College of Cardiology Been on the Board of Trustees of the Society for Cardiac Angiography and Interventions Been President of that President of several other organizations

Q All right Now, government counsel put up Exhibit 271

MR ASBILL: Could we bring that back up, please

BY MR ASBILL:

Q This, I believe you described, is a -- is a general e-mail you received from my client?

A Well, to qualify that appropriately, I -- the question was do I receive these, and I said yes Do I recall this one? No

Q Okay Whether or not you recall it, in realtime have you had a chance to read it before you came into court today?

A I don't recall reading it

Q You don't recall reading it All right I don't want to go through it with you I just want to ask you this question Do you have any recollection of receiving these kind of e-mails from my client, or letters from my client, to state employees that mentioned Jonnie Williams or Anatabloc or Star Scientific?

A No

Q Okay

MR ASBILL: You can take that down Thank you

BY MR ASBILL:

Q The next exhibit they showed you was Exhibit 248

MR ASBILL: Would you please pull that up again

BY MR ASBILL:

Q This was an e-mail that you described, and this was Jonnie Williams wants to discuss some interesting cardiology topic And apparently he has set up a meeting with you for the 3rd of October; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q Okay And this is something that was set up with your assistant --

A Correct

Q -- is that correct?

And --

A And she did tell me that it was about -- it may say a "cardiology topic " But she did tell me it was about a new drug

Q Okay And she also told you that Jonnie Williams, presumably, told her that he was the founder of Visx Laser Vision and the CEO of Star Scientific?

A I assume that's where she got that

Q I mean, do you have any reason to believe she'd look him up and put that in there?

A I think she probably did whatever he told her, or maybe he sent her something I don't know

Q Okay And with respect to -- to this meeting, at least this message doesn't say anything about my client, Governor McDonnell, right?

A No

Q Okay And, in fact, you met with Jonnie Williams on that evening of October 3rd, 2011 --

A Yes

Q -- at approximately 6:30?

A Yes

Q And that's when you told him, basically, you got 30 minutes, and he said how about 45?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, prior to -- between the time of this note to you about scheduling the meeting and the meeting itself, do you recall another e-mail that you received from your scheduler suggesting to you that Jonnie Williams told her -- or your assistant telling you that Jonnie Williams was going to bring the Governor with him to come see you?

A She made some reference to that, saying -- she was sort of puzzled is the way to say it. She said, "I'm not quite sure what's involved in all of this " She said, you know, "He said he might bring the Governor with him."

Q Okay But --

A I didn't --

Q All right

A I didn't go too far with that

Q But, in fact, he did not?

A He did not

Q Okay And then you two met and you talked about Anatabloc, et cetera, and whatever his story was about that

A Right

Q And would I be accurate in saying that you were very interested in what he was describing to you?

A Well, as someone who's been involved in scientific studies over the years and development, you know, opportunities to get something early are a good opportunity if it's a valuable potential product or study and so forth So I was interested, if this had any potential, because it looked like an opportunity to get in on the ground floor

Q So it was an opportunity, in your view, if it was real, essentially, to get in on the cutting edge of a potential very serious breakthrough in medicine Is that fair?

A Correct

Q All right So after Mr Williams talked to you, you all drove over to the Mansion; is that correct?

A Correct

Q All right And this was to, supposedly, get some cookies that my client's wife makes?

A That's correct

Q Did you ever get a cookie?

A No

Q And on that night, this was the Spielberg event for the Lincoln movie; is that correct?

A Correct

Q All right And you drove over in the car You described you couldn't open the door; is that right?

A That's correct.

Q And that's because it was a very fancy, expensive car that was sort of complicated?

A That's correct

Q And you thought it was a Maserati, or something like that?

A I'm not sure what it was

Q All right So --

A I'm not good on expensive cars

Q So up until this point, Mr Williams had said, "Well, I'm going to bring the Governor over, and he did And he's got this fancy car And did you get the sense --

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor There's been testimony as to what --

THE COURT: Sustained Don't editorialize Just ask a question

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Did you think Mr Williams was trying to impress you?

A I guess so I guess I didn't think about it too much I mean, it seemed to me that it was far more than I expected to discuss a drug

Q All right Let me go back to when you first met Mr Williams When you first met Mr Williams, this is when he brought a patient to you that he said was of interest to him; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q All right And I take it you helped the patient out?

A We took care of the patient I will --

Q All right And later, some ten years or whatever, you see Mr Williams in an airport in Atlanta; is that correct?

A I don't know if it's ten years or five years Probably closer to five years But I don't --

Q Okay And he recognizes you?

A Correct

Q All right And when he recognizes you, he says hi again to you; is that correct?

A He came up and reintroduced himself to me, reminded me of the previous incident with the patient --

Q Okay

A -- and sort of --

Q And he does something else as well, does he not?

A That's correct We had our brief discussion for a few minutes I went off to the side, still waiting for the airport -- for the airplane, and I got paged by the person at the gate, who said, "Mr Williams has upgraded you to first class "

Q And you thought that was a gracious gesture?

A I did

Q Okay Now, going back to the Spielberg event When you arrive at the Spielberg event in Mr Williams' car, you say that you parked on the grass there --

A Correct

Q -- at the Mansion?

And were there cars parked everywhere for this event?

A I don't recall

Q And you were not on the guest list, were you?

A What he said to the -- I guess it's the gate guard that was there

Q Right

A He said, "I'm Jonnie Williams, and this is my guest for tonight, Dr Vetrovec "

Q Okay And the guard happened to know you, right?

A Well, the guard looked into the car and he looked at me, and he said, "Oh, I think I know him He did my brother," referring to a procedure

Q Did you do his brother well?

A I hope so

Q So you go into this event, and there are hundreds of folks at this event Is that fair?

A That's correct

Q All right And you don't recall talking to my client at all during that event?

A No, I do not

Q But you did get to meet Mr Spielberg?

A I did

Q And the two of you had some California connection that you talked about for a second Is that fair?

A That is true It turned out that he was very personable and he funds research for a cardiologist in Los Angeles at Cedars-Sinai that I know, and so we had a little discussion

Q Okay And do you recall whether you talked to Jonnie Williams at that event about Anatabloc or Star?

A I don't recall at all, at the Governor's Mansion event, speaking about Anatabloc We talked about it in the car coming over, in the car going back

Q Okay And then I believe, going forward in time --

MR ASBILL: I'd like to see Exhibit 251

BY MR ASBILL:

Q -- you were invited to an event at the Westin Hotel mid-October of 2011?

A That's correct

Q Okay And up to this point in time, and with respect to any e-mails or documents other than my client's letter to Virginia employees, my client is not on any of these exchanges relating to you and Mr Williams; is that correct? Not cc'd or not copied in or directed to or from?

A None that I can recall

Q Okay And this is from Carolyn Birgmann And who did you understand her to be?

A An employee of Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals or Star Scientific I'm not sure what -- what particular agency, but that she worked for --

Q I'm sorry Well, did you understand that Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals and Star were essentially one in the same?

A Well, I thought they were somehow separate entities, but -- but would not be surprised to think they were somehow closely associated

Q Okay And this is inviting you to attend the Westin event; is that correct?

A Correct

Q All right

MR ASBILL: And can we pull up the invitation, please I think it's attached Is it not attached? Try RM-1232 Can you pull up the invitation from that document

MS TARAKTCHIAN: It's not attached

MR ASBILL: Not there We'll try to find it in a second

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Do you recall what the invitation said?

A No

Q All right You attend the event, correct?

A Correct

Q And there are two or three lectures talking about studies and anatabine or Anatabloc's effects on Alzheimer's?

A There was at least one on its effects on Alzheimer's

Q Okay And my client wasn't there, right?

A No I do not recall seeing him at all

Q Okay And to your knowledge, he was not advertised on the invitation; is that correct?

A I don't recall that

Q All right Now, going forward to the Healthcare Leaders event

MR ASBILL: And I believe this is Exhibit 342 Would you please pull that up, Victoria And is there an attachment to that Don't worry about it if there's not

MS TARAKTCHIAN: No

BY MR ASBILL:

Q With respect to this event, this was on what -- this is, what, leap year, right? 2/29/2012; is that correct?

A That's the --

Q The event was on --

A -- date on that exhibit

Q Okay And that, in fact, was the date of the event; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And you go to the Healthcare Leaders event

You're invited to that And would I be correct in saying -- and I'm not asking you to brag -- that you viewed yourself as a healthcare leader in Virginia?

A Well, when I got the invitation, you say, Why am I invited to this?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

A And at that time, I was on the --

MR FAULCONER: I'm sorry, Your Honor Just objection as the witness speculating as to why he was invited If he doesn't know

THE COURT: Overruled

Go ahead

A Okay Well, my speculation was that I was invited because I was on the VCU Health System Board at the time, which I thought would qualify for that recognition

BY MR ASBILL:

Q So you thought you were qualified to be at a Healthcare Leaders event --

A Right

Q -- correct?

All right And I believe you said that you -- you met my client at the event, and you all talked about budget issues?

A That's correct

Q And that related to the entire state budget; is that correct?

A That's correct That's how I recall

Q Do you have any sense of what the health component, healthcare component part of the total budget is? Do you have any idea what the percentage is?

A No

Q Would you think it's large or small or somewhere --

A Large

Q Large Okay And there was no discussion at all with my client or in the presence of my client about Anatabloc or Star Scientific?

A None that I can recall

Q Okay You say you had a side conversation at some point with Jonnie Williams at the event about his interests; is that correct?

A Correct

Q All right Now, you looked at Exhibit 309, which is a list of the attendees at the event

MR ASBILL: Could we pull that back up, please

BY MR ASBILL:

Q And I think you said you recognized some of the names there, et cetera

MR FAULCONER: Just -- Your Honor, objection real quick It's not a list of attendees to the event I think the prior testimony established none of these people attended

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR ASBILL:

Q You looked at the -- you looked at this list, and you said you recognized some of the names, right?

A Correct I really did not recognize the people, but really recognized the companies

Q You recognized the companies Okay And were there folks at the event that you did recognize personally?

A There were a handful of people There were some VCU people I can't remember who they were But I remember seeing people that I knew

Q How many -- can you give me an estimate of how many people actually attended that event?

A I think I probably can't Because I got there late I realize that's a little bit of a pattern But I got there late, and so when I got there, a lot of people, I think, had already left at that point So there were probably 25 people when I was there

Q At the time you got there?

A Yeah

Q And did you go through all the various rooms where people might be mingling?

A I don't think I went -- it seemed to me there were just like two rooms or something I didn't see an expansive But maybe I didn't figure it out

Q Okay Going forward to early March 2012, and you talked about that time frame with respect to Exhibit 353, which is an e-mail from Mr Abbate to Mr Clore, or visa versa, and you're copied in on it?

A Yes That's Dr Abbate to Dr Clore.

Q Right Okay And you're cc'd on that e-mail?

A Correct

Q And I believe you said that in that time frame in early March you and Dr Abbate were discussing a list of potential studies; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Had you focused in on that point in terms of how much the studies might cost?

A No, we had not Well, only to the extent of saying if we plan a study, how long should the follow-up be Because the longer the follow-up, the more cost How complicated is the study Because all of that does affect money, and we, frankly, didn't think that was going to be a high budget study

Q All right But you hadn't pinpointed any particular dollar amount --

A No

Q -- or anything like that?

A No Not at all

Q And no discussions with Jonnie Williams about that at all?

A Not anything about dollar amount

Q Okay And then you say sometime later in May or end of May, that there was a note that he had called you? You got some note in, I believe, the 30th of May

MR ASBILL: Exhibit 391 Can we pull that up

BY MR ASBILL:

Q You get a message to call Jonnie Williams, right?

A Right I affirm that that's there I don't remember what we talked about, when I actually returned the call, et cetera

Q Okay And at some point later you return -- do you know whether it's shortly after this or months after it or what that you talked to him again or talked to him in response to this?

A I don't know I assume it was fairly soon, but I don't know

Q All right And at that point he wanted to talk to you about joining a different group of some sort of centers or something? I wasn't quite sure what you said

A Well, I think -- he had some type of ongoing study, and he said, "Since you're not currently involved in this, maybe you would want to join another group and you could pool your data "

Q Okay And --

A That's what I mean by multi-center study And I don't recall whether there were other centers grouped already or whether it was just one other center that he was offering for us to join

Q And that was the -- basically, the end of your conversations with Jonnie Williams about all this?

A I think so I can't -- I can't remember

I know that there was also a time when someone contacted me from Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals And, actually, when we -- and I assume this is after we didn't participate in this study They wanted me to review the data from a study, which I didn't do But they wanted me to review it

Q Did he offer to pay you to do that?

A Yes

Q And you didn't accept it?

A I didn't

MR ASBILL: Thank you, sir I have no further question

THE COURT: All right

Ms McDonnell, cross?

MS MARTIN: Thank you, Your Honor Briefly

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS MARTIN:

Q Dr Vetrovec, my name is Heather Martin, and I represent Ms McDonnell

Directing your attention back to the Steven Spielberg event

A Yes

Q Do I correctly understand your testimony that your only interaction with Ms McDonnell that night is that Jonnie Williams asked you -- or asked her, rather, to introduce you to Mr Spielberg?

A That's correct

Q And at that time, you did not get the impression that Mr Williams and Ms McDonnell had previously discussed who you were, correct?

A No I thought -- not at all

Q And then moving forward a couple of weeks to the Westin Hotel event You testified that you attended that event, correct?

A Yes

Q An event sponsored by Star Scientific or Rock Creek Pharmaceuticals, correct?

A Correct

Q And you do not recall Ms McDonnell speaking at that event, correct?

A I do not recall her speaking at the event Recall, I said I came late But I have some recollection that she was leaving as I came or had been there in some way

Q You don't recall having seen her at the event?

A I can't say that I know she was there, and if I saw her leaving or something to there, that I probably did see her But I didn't -- I don't recall hearing her speak

Q And then moving forward to the Healthcare Industry Leaders event in February of 2012 This is an event you attended, correct?

A Yes

Q And you did not speak to Ms. McDonnell at that event, correct?

A I do not recall In fact, I do not recall seeing her at the event That doesn't say she wasn't there. I just don't recall

Q Now, you stated that you and Dr Abbate periodically talked about the possibility of participating in a study of Anatabloc, correct?

A Correct

Q And is it fair to say that your interest in participating in such a study had nothing to do with Ms McDonnell?

A That's correct

MS MARTIN: No further questions

THE COURT: Redirect?

MR FAULCONER: Very briefly, Your Honor

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Without getting into the full number, Dr Vetrovec, was one of the numbers -- phone numbers associated with you in this time frame a number that ended in 2968?

A Correct

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Thank you, Doctor You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: Call your next witness, please

MS ABER: Amy Bridge

AMY BRIDGE,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Good afternoon

A Good afternoon

Q Please state your name, and spell your last for the court reporter

A Amy Bridge B-R-I-D-G-E

Q How are you currently employed, Ms Bridge?

A I work for the Library of Virginia Foundation

Q Previously, did you work at the Executive Mansion?

A I did

Q And when did you do so?

A From August of 2002 until January 2010

Q So which Governors did you work for?

A Governor Mark Warner and Governor Tim Kaine

Q Is it fair to say you helped with the transition, a little bit, when Governor McDonnell took office in 2010?

A I did I stayed for one month

Q Is it also fair to say that you had roughly the same job that a woman named Sarah Scarbrough had in the McDonnell administration?

A Yes

Q Okay Now we will turn your attention back, please, to your time as a Mansion Director in both the Warner and Kaine administrations

A Uh-huh

Q I'm going to ask you these questions lumping them together If they are appropriately separated, please answer the question in that way Does that make sense?

A Yes

Q Okay In those administrations, how common was it for the Mansion to host events?

A We had events, on average, about twice a week

Q And how much of your day-to-day job involved event planning?

A About half of my time

Q What did you do with the other half?

A I spent serving as Curator for the house and the furnishings, working on facilities management, assisting the family, that sort of thing

Q With regard to event planning, how common was it for you and the other government employees to participate in the planning?

A A hundred percent

Q So when you say that, do you mean that -- what do you mean by that?

A Well, the plans for events, the decision on having events would be made in the Governor's Office or the Office of the First Lady The information would come to me, and I would take over the planning at that point

Q So who had the decision-making authority to schedule an event at the Mansion?

A That would be the Governor and First Lady's staff, the Governor's scheduler, Chief of Staff, that sort of role

Q In those two administrations, did the Governor and First Ladies have to bless an event that was put on a calendar?

A Yes An event had to be part of their -- applicable to their job and their roles, and they had to be hosted by either the Governor or the First Lady

Q Now, can a -- in those two administrations, could a member of the public just come on in and rent the Mansion?

A No

Q Did either or both Governors ever have Mansion events that related to Virginia business and economic development?

A Yes

Q Were both Governors supportive of Virginia business?

A Yes

Q Can you tell the jury a little bit about what kinds of events related to Virginia business and economic development they might have had or had?

A We hosted events for companies that were considering opening operations in Virginia or that had opened operations in Virginia When JetBlue decided to fly to Richmond, we had an event for them When the Commerce and Trade was wooing the Sabra Hummus people, we had an event for them as well We also had events for the Tourism Office, the Film Office, the Virginia Economic Development Partnership, all came under Commerce and Trade

Q Was it your experience that events at the Mansion had to be applicable to the work being done by the Governor and First Lady?

A Absolutely

Q Now, in those two administrations, if the Mansion events were related to business, is it fair to say that they were generally related to a significant business opening or luring a business to Virginia?

A Yes

Q Did the Mansion ever host receptions for the Department of Commerce and Trade?

A Yes

MS ABER: If I could have one moment, please, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MS ABER: Thank you, Your Honor I pass the witness

THE COURT: Cross

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Good afternoon, Ms Bridge My name is Hank Asbill I represent Bob McDonnell

A Good afternoon

Q How are you?

A Fine Thank you

Q You spent only a brief period of time during the transition of administrations, essentially --

A Correct

Q -- with my client?

So you were there for about a month; is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And then Sarah Scarbrough took your job; is that correct?

A Yes We worked together for that month so that I could provide some training

Q So you could provide some training and help in the transition; is that correct?

A Uh-huh

Q And, you know, with respect to hosting events in the Mansion and that sort of thing, is there any kind of law or regulation that governs what someone can do as a Governor or First Lady in the Mansion?

A To my knowledge, the only rule is that there cannot be ticketed events at the Mansion People cannot pay to buy a ticket to come to an event at the Mansion

Q Okay And is there some sort of -- as you transitioned, was there some sort of manual, basically, of how to operate a Mansion that was left behind?

A I -- yes I wrote a Mansion manual that we used during my two administrations

Q And those were about sort of administrative things or were those about hosting events?

A They were the day-to-day operations, staff requirements, procedures, that sort of thing

Q Okay And you experienced that position with two different Governors, correct?

A I did.

Q And is it fair to say that each Governor who comes in basically does it his own way?

A They are given the freedom to run the Mansion however they would like

Q Okay And with respect to the idea of supporting Virginia businesses, were you aware that -- that my client's campaign initiative was Bob's For Jobs?

A I think I had heard that But that was not part of my job in that month

Q Okay And you talked about events for opening operations or, what, expanding operations or what was it that you said?

A That could be But generally, it was for bringing new companies to Virginia

Q Or perhaps trying to keep companies in Virginia to stay in Virginia instead of going to another state?

A Perhaps I don't recall that

Q Okay Were there any events when you were there that were designed to -- for companies to give money to Virginia?

A Not to my knowledge

Q All right And I take it that you had, I mean, a brief interaction in the transition period with my client; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And since that time, have you seen him?

A I saw the Governor twice Once on election day last year at my previous employer, and once recently at a funeral

Q And did you all exchange greetings?

A Just greetings and hello, how are you type things

MR ASBILL: Thank you very much

THE COURT: Mr Burck

MR BURCK: Your Honor, very briefly

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BURCK:

Q Good afternoon, Ms Bridge My name is Bill Burck, and I represent Maureen McDonnell Just a few quick questions

A Yes, sir

Q The Governors you worked for were both married, right?

A Correct

Q And they both -- so they had First Ladies of Virginia?

A Correct
Q And the First Ladies would participate in Mansion events on occasion?
A Yes
Q And the -- the Mansion would typically invite people to these events, right?
A Yes, uh-huh
Q And typically, the First Lady would also have an opportunity, when she was going to be part of an event, to invite people to events, right?
A Yes
Q So there was nothing unusual about that, in your experience?
A No.
Q And do you know -- I think the First Lady, the only official position she has is she's the Honorary Chair of some kind of Citizens' Committee?
A Correct There is a Citizens' Advisory Council on Furnishing and Interpreting the Executive Mansion, known as the CAC, and the First Lady is an ex officio member of that
Q And ex officio meaning, I guess in common parlance, sort of honorary?
A Yes

MR BURCK: That's it, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right Anything else?

MS ABER: No, Your Honor Thank you

THE COURT: All right Thank you, ma'am You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: Call your next witness

MS ABER: Special Agent Charles Hagan

CHARLES HAGAN,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Good afternoon, sir

A Hello

Q Please state your name, and spell your last for the record

A Charles Hagan H-A-G-A-N

Q How are you currently employed, Special Agent?

A I'm a Special Agent accountant with the Virginia State Police

Q How long have you had that job?

A Ten years

Q Okay Were you employed in law enforcement before that?

A Yes, I was

Q Let's start at the beginning of your law enforcement career, please, and walk through it to present for the jury

A Okay In 1975, I became a police officer in the City of Baltimore I left there in 1978 to attend graduate school in New York City I then took a position as a Special Agent with the Internal Revenue Service in Chicago Took a promotion and transferred to Washington, D.C While I was there, I transferred over to the FBI, and I retired from the FBI in March of 2004

Q And instead of retiring to a beach, you joined the State Police?

A Yes, I did

Q Okay And just for the jury's knowledge, were you run out of these various law enforcement agencies? Why were you leaving each of them?

A It was -- the police department was so I could attend school, go to graduate school I left the IRS because I was traveling six months out of the year I was in the International Division And then I stayed with the FBI, and retirement was at 57, mandatory retirement And I left in 2004 because there was an opening in the State Police

Q Now, are you one of the case agents in the investigation of Mr and Ms McDonnell?

A Yes, I am

Q Before that, were you a case agent on any related cases?

A Yes I was the case agent on the investigation concerning the chef of the Executive Mansion that was embezzling food from the Mansion

Q Now, Special Agent, was there ever a federal, federal grand jury investigation opened on the case about the chef stealing food from the Mansion?

A No, there was not

Q Okay Were you also involved in the investigation of Jonnie Williams for suspected securities fraud?

A Yes, I was

Q And was a federal grand jury opened on that case?

A Yes, there was one

Q And is it fair to say there was a federal grand jury involving Mr and Ms McDonnell opened in this case?

A Yes, there was

Q Now, in the course of these various investigations, did you have to keep your supervisors at the Virginia State Police apprised of your progress?

A Yes, I did

Q And why was that?

A Because it involved -- first, it involved the Mansion, and they were very worried about someone stealing from the Governor's Mansion

And then when we got involved with the Governor's investigation, Mr McDonnell was the boss of all of us in the State Police, and my supervisors wanted to know what was going on regarding the investigation

Q Now, did you have an opportunity to interview Defendant Ms McDonnell back in February, that being February 15th of 2013?

A Yes, I did

Q Did you set up that interview?

A No, I did not

Q Do you know what explanation was given to put on her calendar?

A At the time, I did not

Q Now, Special Agent, do you typically tell folks that you're going to interview what topics will be addressed during the interview?

A No, I do not

Q And why don't you do that?

A Normally when we do interviews, we'll knock on someone's door and identify ourselves and explain we're here and we need to ask you some questions We do that so that we don't give them an opportunity to think about their answers prior to us coming to interview them

Q Now, setting aside the topic of lawyers who want to attend an interview, putting that aside, do you customary permit just additional folks to tagalong to participate in interviews?

A No You normally want to have the person you're interviewing be by themselves so there's no distractions I found if somebody is present, they might interject things as I'm talking to the witness

Q Now, on that day in February of 2013, why did you go interview Ms McDonnell?

A I had to -- for several reasons Number one was one of the allegations in the chef case was that -- Todd Schneider had mentioned that Ms McDonnell had authorized a bartering agreement between the two where he owned a catering company on the side as well as being the chef for the Mansion, and he would provide services to the Mansion In exchange, he was allowed to take food from the Mansion Kind of like in a bartering system

Q And --

A And secondly, I needed to -- we had some information where we had found a $50,000 check made payable to Ms McDonnell from a trust, Starwood Trust, and also a $15,000 check from Starwood Trust that paid for her daughter's wedding

Q Now, at the time of this interview, what payments from Starwood Trust to Maureen McDonnell did you know had, in fact, occurred?

MR BURCK: Objection, Your Honor Can we approach briefly?

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench)

MR BURCK: Your Honor, the objection is actually to the prior question The testimony that came in was that she was involved in the bartering transaction I just wanted to make sure that the -- they are going to elicit that she, in fact, did not, that she was not involved in any criminal activity with the chef Because right now the impression that maybe left is that she's committed another crime that has not been either informed of --

THE COURT: I don't have any -- any of that You'll be able to deal with that on cross-examination That objection will be overruled

MR BURCK: Okay Thank you, Your Honor

(In Open Court)

BY MS ABER:

Q Let me ask the question one more time At the time that you went to the Mansion for the interview, what payments from Starwood Trust to Maureen McDonnell did you know had, in fact, occurred?

A I was aware of the $15,000 check from Starwood Trust, payable to Great Seasons for the benefit of Ms McDonnell's child's wedding And I was also aware of a $50,000 check made payable to Maureen McDonnell

Q Did you take a second agent with you to the interview?

A Yes, I did

Q And why did you do that?

A Several reasons Normally, whenever I interview a female, I always bring another person so that there could never be any allegations of something misappropriate

Secondly, I wanted a witness when I did the investigation -- interview And thirdly, because it was Ms McDonnell, the First Lady of Virginia, I thought I better have another witness with me

Q Who did you take with you?

A Special Agent -- well, we know him as Doc Lyons Well, it's -- James Lyons is his official name He's a Special Agent with the State Police

Q And why did you pick him?

A Because he was a senior agent and mature

Q Did he have anything else to do with this investigation?

A No He was not involved in the investigation at all

Q Now, where did your interview take place?

A It took place on the grounds of the Executive Mansion There was a building to -- as you're looking at the Executive Mansion, there's a building to the right, and it was in that building

Q And within that building, were you in Ms McDonnell's office?

A It looked like her office. Yes

Q Had you ever interviewed Ms McDonnell before?

A No, I had not

Q Who was present at this interview?

A Ms McDonnell, Agent Lyons, and myself

Q Did either of you take notes during the interview?

A I took notes

Q Who did the questioning of Ms McDonnell?

A I did the questioning

Q Was it -- is it fair to say you were trying to ask questions and take notes at the same time?

A That's correct

Q Now, talking about the interview itself, did you say anything at the beginning of the interview to Ms McDonnell?

A We introduced ourselves We displayed our credentials and our badges, identified ourselves to her I engaged her in some conversation, kind of like trying to build up a rapport with her I knew that she had been a former FBI employee, as I was So we talked about that for a while. And then I learned that when her father was an agent, an FBI agent, he lived in New York, and we found out that we lived in the same neighborhood She lived in the neighborhood that I grew up in

Q Now, at the interview, what was the very first topic you addressed?

A We talked about the chef and how she came about meeting him

Q And did the conversation then turn to Cailin McDonnell's wedding?

A Yes, it did

Q Did you ask Ms McDonnell about the contract for the wedding catering?

A About the wedding catering?

Q Uh-huh Did you ask her about the contract?

A Yes

Q Did you ask Ms McDonnell about the payment on the wedding catering contract?

A Yes

Q Did you then explain to Ms McDonnell that a search warrant had been conducted at the catering company?

A Yes

Q And did you tell Ms McDonnell that investigators had found a $15,000 check?

MR BURCK: Objection, Your Honor Leading questions

THE COURT: Sustained

MS ABER: Your Honor, can we approach for a moment?

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench)

MS ABER: Your Honor, I'm trying to tread carefully in light of our previous -- the motion in limine filed by the defendant in reference to the three particular statements that Special Agent Hagan can articulate that Ms McDonnell provided Other than that, we're constrained to topics And I'm not sure, other than having him list all the topics, how I can list --

MR BURCK: If that's the basis of the objection, then -- they just didn't tell me that

THE COURT: Okay

MR ASBILL: Excuse me one second I can hear the conversation from counsel table I don't know if there's a hush, but I can hear it That's why I came up

THE COURT: Okay

(In Open Court)

BY MS ABER:

Q Special Agent Hagan, did you explain to Ms McDonnell that a search warrant had been conducted at the catering company?

A Yes, I did

Q Did you tell Ms McDonnell that investigators had found a $15,000 check from Starwood Trust to the catering company for Cailin McDonnell's wedding?

A We explained to her that we found $15,000 that had been applied to the catering bill, yes

Q Did you talk to Ms McDonnell about Jonnie Williams?

A Yes, I did

Q Okay Now, tell the jury what Ms McDonnell said about the origin of her relationship with Mr Williams

A She explained that Mr Williams was a friend of the family for a long time She indicated that her husband, when he left the Army, first had employment at the American Hospital Supply Company And that's where he met Jonnie Williams, who was a representative for American Hospital Supply, at the same time

Q Did Ms McDonnell say how many -- how long ago she had met Mr Williams?

A She said that her husband met him first, and that was when he got out of the Army

Q Okay Did you talk to Ms McDonnell about her May 2011 trip to the Roskamp Institute?

A Yes, we did

Q Did you talk to Ms McDonnell about the August 30th 2011 lunch at the Mansion?

A Yes, I did

Q Did you talk to Ms McDonnell about her attendance at a Star Scientific event in California?

A Yes, I did

Q Did you tell Ms McDonnell then that you had uncovered a check from Starwood Trust to her?

A Yes, I did

Q Is it accurate that that was a $50,000 check?

A It was a $50,000 check payable to her It was written on May 23rd, I believe

Q Okay What did Ms McDonnell say about the $50,000 check in reference to a loan agreement?

A Well, she said that the $50,000 was a personal loan to her and that Jonnie Williams had provided the money and that she had signed a contract for the loan agreement and that she was making periodic payments on the loan

Q Did Ms McDonnell ask you any questions?

A Yes, she did

Q And what did she ask?

A She -- when we were talking about the $15,000 check for the catering bill, she asked if we had interviewed her children

Q Could you tell the jury what Ms McDonnell's demeanor was like during the interview?

A She was very pleasant She was -- when we began the interview. She was pleasant throughout the interview But she got a little more inquisitive of why we were asking questions about the $50,000 check and the $15,000 check

Q Once you concluded the interview in her office, what happened next?

A She escorted us out through the gardens, telling us this was the gardens of the Executive Mansion As we were walking out, I asked her for a copy of the loan agreement And she advised me she didn't think she had a copy of it, she remembers signing it, giving it back to Jonnie Williams, and she would try to get a copy from him for us

Q At any time during your interview with Ms McDonnell, or your time walking through the gardens, did she ever ask for an attorney?

A No, she did not

MS ABER: Okay One moment, please, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

BY MS ABER:

Q Special Agent Hagan, at the beginning of your testimony, I believe you mentioned the various reasons why you went to go interview Ms McDonnell; is that right?

A Yes

Q Okay Did your investigation reveal that this purported bartering agreement between the chef and Ms McDonnell had actually occurred?

A It had not occurred There was -- she said that she had not made -- entered into an agreement with the chef

Q Okay. And so is it fair to say, as sit here, that Ms McDonnell -- your investigation didn't show that she did anything wrong in the chef --

A No

Q -- investigation?

A No No, not at all

Q Okay

MS ABER: Thank you, Your Honor I have no further questions

THE COURT: All right Cross?

MR BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BURCK:

Q Good afternoon, Special Agent Hagan

A Hello

Q My name is Bill Burck, and I represent Maureen McDonnell

A Hello, sir

Q Can you just -- how long have you been in law enforcement?

A Oh, over 30 years

Q Over 30 years And during that time, you received training on how to take police reports and take notes as part of your interview process?

A Yes

Q And when you -- when you testify in a case where you've conducted the investigation, sometimes you use reports to help refresh your recollection if you don't remember things that well?

A That's correct

Q And these reports that you -- you come up with that you write as part of your job, it's important that they be accurate?

A They -- they are my best recollection of what the person has told me Yes

Q Okay But -- but they are --

A It's my best recollection

Q And your best recollection to you, it's important that that be accurate?

A Yes We strive to be accurate Yes

Q Okay And do you try to have these reports be thorough?

A Yes, sir

Q And you try to have them as complete as possible --

A Yes, sir

Q -- within reason?

Okay Now, you, obviously, can't write a report while you're conducting an interview So you have to take notes?

A Yes, sir

Q And is that your typical practice, to take notes while you're interviewing somebody?

A Normally, if I'm with two people, one person is -- asks the questions, and the second person is the note taker In this particular case, Agent Lyons didn't know much about the case so I took both, as we normally do in the State Police because we do a lot of our interviews by ourselves

Q Okay We'll get back to Agent Lyons in a moment So -- and sometimes do you use your handwritten notes? Well, let me put it this way You use your handwritten notes to help inform your -- your typed up report?

A That's correct

Q And just to be clear, the handwritten notes are typically taken at the time that you're interviewing the person?

A Yes And they are not verbatim notes

Q Of course

A As you know, they are just to refresh my memory when

I'm sitting down to write the report

Q Okay And just to be clear, in this case, for the February 15, 2013, interview of Maureen McDonnell, those notes were being taken simultaneous -- or contemporaneously with you interviewing her?

A That's correct

Q And you were asking the questions?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay Now, you testified that -- you answered some questions on direct about having started this investigation -- or let me put it this way That you had begun looking at the McDonnells in connection with another case, the Chef Todd case, Chef Todd Schneider?

A Todd Schneider Yeah, Todd Schneider

Q It was Todd Schneider And you also -- excuse me Todd Schneider

A Schneider

Q And you also said that you had been looking at Jonnie Williams as well, right?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay Now, in connection with the Chef Todd Schneider case, which is related to this one, at least in the origins, you had originally scheduled an interview with Ms McDonnell in early part of 2012; is that right?

A That is correct

MR BURCK: I'd like to show, just for the witness, only RM-2072 And if you could blow up the second page, the bottom -- the first e-mail

BY MR BURCK:

Q You'll see this is an e-mail, sir, from Rick Jenkins to Steven Flaherty, cc'ing Herman Davis, and it's dated February 29th of 2012 Can you tell us, who is Rick Jenkins, and who is Steven Flaherty?

A Steven Flaherty is the Colonel with the State Police And Rick Jenkins is the Major of the Criminal -- Bureau of Criminal Investigations He's like the Deputy Chief of the Bureau of Investigations

Q Okay And had you told Mr Jenkins, as of February 29th, that you would like to interview the First Lady --

A Yes

Q -- that week?

A Yes, I did

Q Okay

MR BURCK: And can we please go to the first page

BY MR BURCK:

Q You'll see there's an e-mail from Martin Kent to Steven Flaherty, dated February 29th, 2012, same day And it's -- do you know who Martin Kent is?

A Yes, I do

Q And who is he?

A He's the Chief of Staff for the Governor

Q Okay And you'll see there's a series of e-mails above that.

MR BURCK: If you would just blow up the whole page so that he can see that.

BY MR BURCK:

Q And fair to say that this e-mail is a -- reflects this attempt to set up an interview back in 2012, early 2012?

A That's correct

Q Now, I know you're not on these e-mails, but is this a fair reflection of your recollection as well?

A My recollection was there was a -- a scheduled interview, yes

MR BURCK: Your Honor, we would offer RM-2072 into evidence

MS ABER: I object He's not on the e-mails He's testified about his knowledge

THE COURT: Sustained

MR BURCK: You can take that down

Can you also show the witness RM-2074 Just for the witness

Now, you'll see this is an e-mail from Mr Flaherty to Mr Michael Morehart Do you know who Michael Morehart is?

A Yes, I do

Q Who is he?

A Well, I've known him for many years I knew him when he was with the FBI I used to car pool with him up to Washington headquarters And I know that he became the Special Agent in charge of the FBI office here in Richmond, and then he also become the first Inspector General for the State of Virginia

Q Okay Now, you see this e-mail suggests that a meeting was canceled, an interview. Do you have any recollection of whether or not that interview occurred with Maureen McDonnell on that date?

A It did not

Q It did not It was canceled?

A Yes, sir.

MR BURCK: You can take that down Thank you

BY MR BURCK:

Q And why was it canceled?

A At that time, we were starting to find additional checks made payable to Ms McDonnell So we asked to hold back until we could further find out what was going on before we interviewed

Q Okay So this was in February, March of 2012 you had discovered additional checks -- or checks involving Ms McDonnell?

A No This was the $15,000 check We found out -- we were told on February 22nd, from Ryan Greer, about the $15,000 check

Q And this is -- so you knew -- you had learned about the check for Cailin's wedding And had you learned about the $50,000 loan as well?

A No, I was not at that time

Q Just the $15,000 check for Cailin's wedding?

A I was aware of the $15,000 check, yes But I had not obtained a copy of it yet

Q Okay Now, back at this time, were you working with the FBI on these investigations?

A Yes We worked everything jointly

Q And there was a meeting between yourself, Colonel Flaherty, who you testified about earlier, FBI Special Agent Tyler Kennedy and others to discuss the Mansion investigation, is that right, in January 2012?

How about I do this

MR BURCK: Can you show the witness RM-2067 Just the witness, please

BY MR BURCK:

Q And what I would ask you to do is just take a look at that page, and this is just to refresh your recollection

If this reminds you of anything in January of 2012?

A Yes

Q So do you recall if you had a meeting with Colonel Steven Flaherty, Special Agent Tyler Kennedy, and yourself about the Mansion investigation?

A That's correct

Q And this was the -- this was the -- the period of time, meaning this meeting, that you learned that Jonnie Williams had given a $15,000 check for Cailin's wedding, right?

A No

Q No

A No

Q Go ahead, please

A All right This is -- in January 30th This is when we first became aware of the allegations about the chef and the embezzlement I was called at home that night before the meeting, was told to report to the Colonel's office the next morning and -- they didn't tell me why

And when I arrived, I met Agent Kennedy and his assistant, Special Agent Allie Mackenzie

Q Okay So when did you learn, if you can recall, about the Cailin check precisely?

A We were first -- all right Based on the January 30th meeting, they provided us the information about the chef embezzlement They had the information first They passed it off to us We started looking into the matter On February 22nd, I interviewed Ryan Greer That's when he mentioned the $15,000 check

Q Okay

A I was able to obtain a copy of the check by -- I believe it was March 1st, from BB&T And that's when I had a copy of the check

Q Okay. And Ryan Greer, he worked with Todd Schneider?

A Yes He was the general manager for Todd Schneider's catering company

Q Okay And around this time, when did you learn about the Roskamp visit by Ms McDonnell?

A It would have been after March 1st

Q After March 1st? Do you know -- is it around March 1st or long after March 1st? Do you have a recollection?

A I know it was between March 1st and May 23rd when I briefed my bosses on the matter

Q Okay And it was around this time that the FBI opened a wire fraud or public corruption investigation of the McDonnells?

A My understanding is back in January they opened it, or maybe February I don't know when they opened it, specifically But we worked it jointly

Q Okay So -- but around --

A As of January 30th, we worked it jointly

Q Okay And this was the -- just to make sure I'm clear, because there were two different investigations

A Yes

Q This was -- the wire fraud/public corruption investigation of the McDonnells had been opened in that time frame as well?

A The McDonnells had not been opened yet No

Q Okay I'm sorry So the McDonnells were opened in March of 2012?

A I -- what happened was on March 8th, we had met with Todd Schneider and his attorney They provided us with the contract that the Governor had signed for the wedding

And as a result of that, since it appeared that there might be something that -- some illegality by the Governor, I was -- by rule, or by law, I have to stop investigating because he's an elected official And that's what happened

MR BURCK: Could you show, just for the witness only, RM-2068, please Page 2, please

BY MR BURCK:

Q You see some highlighting This is just for ease so that you can read it more easily

By the way, do you recognize the handwriting on this?

A No

Q Does this document refresh your recollection as to about when a wire fraud/public corruption investigation was opened by the FBI into the McDonnells?

A No, it does not

Q Okay

MR BURCK: Please take that down

BY MR BURCK:

Q Now, the FBI and the -- and the Virginia State Police, is that common for the FBI and the Virginia State Police to work together on investigations?

A Yes, sir, it is

Q And it's common for public corruption cases; isn't that right?

A Yes

Q Is there -- would it be fair to say that it enhances the credibility of an investigation if the FBI is involved?

A That, and also what it does, it -- for the State Police, I know in this particular investigation, since it regarded the Executive Mansion and the Governor, my management wanted very much to have an outside agency to basically investigate it with us so it wouldn't look like we were trying to -- if it was unfounded, that we were trying to, you know, slip it underneath the rug or something So they wanted to have an outside, independent agency investigating with us

Q Okay And that's -- and, again, that's Special Agent Tyler Kennedy --

A Yes

Q -- who was the -- and is he here in the courtroom today?

A Yes, he is

Q He's sitting over here at the prosecution table?

A Yes

Q Next to Mr Dry?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR BURCK: Your Honor, I have quite a bit left So I don't know if you want to stop now or --

THE COURT: All right We'll stop here for lunch And let's make it 2:05 We'll get back and get started with the afternoon session

(Luncheon recess taken from 1:01 p.m. to 2:05 p.m.)

THE COURT: All right, let's bring in the jury, please

(The jury entered the courtroom.)

All right, Mr Burck?

CROSS-EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Special Agent Hagan, I know you have been doing this for 30 years, so I'm going to ask you this for the record. You didn't speak to the prosecutors during the break, right?

A At lunch?

Q Yes, sir

A No, I did not, sir

Q Just to reorient you where we were before we broke, we were talking about the 2012 period and the investigations that led up to the McDonnells -- the charges that were brought in this case

A Okay

Q And in 2012, at this point, you were also looking at Jonnie Williams; is that right?

A I don't know what point you are talking about Around the end of March, April is when we began looking into Jonnie Williams, yes

Q You were looking at securities fraud issues related to him; is that right?

A Yes, sir

Q Now, on May 23rd, 2012, I think you testified a bit about this on direct, you had a briefing about the investigation, the status of the investigations that were going on at the time, right?

A That's correct

Q And the status, the briefing was about Jonnie Williams, about Chef Todd Schneider, and also about the McDonnells investigation; is that right?

A That's correct

Q And you drafted a memo that would summarize how you saw the investigation at that time and the facts that you had developed and the legal theories you were looking at at the time, right?

A Well, yes It wasn't a memo It was notes from myself to present to the upper management, yes

Q If you could just show just for the witness only, this would be RM-0016 Now, sir, this is the document, the notes that you prepared for yourself, right?

A That's correct

Q And the first part of this document is about Todd Schneider, the Todd Schneider investigation?

A That's correct, sir

Q Then if you turn to the third page of the document, you will see that this section is where it begins to discuss the Robert and Maureen McDonnell investigation?

A Correct

Q And then you walk through, I think, in this document the various aspects of your investigation, the various suspicions you are looking at, the facts you are looking at, right?

A Suspicions and then anticipated additional investigation that was going to be needed. Yes.

Q Okay. And then on the second-to-last page, under Number 7, that's where you start talking about Jonnie Williams and his companies?

A Yes.

Q Okay Then on the last page, this is the end of the document, right?

A Right That's where it says "Additional Investigation," that's what I anticipated would happen, we would have to look at

Q At this time on May 23rd of 2012, at this point, had you concluded that gifts to, or say, money to Maureen McDonnell was not illegal?

A No

MS. ABER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained. His legal conclusion is not relevant

BY MR BURCK:

Q Let me ask you this: Had you been told by someone that money to Maureen McDonnell was not illegal?

MS ABER: Objection.

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Were you told as part of your investigation, had you been told by anyone that the Governor was not required to list gifts to his spouse?

MS ABER: Objection.

THE COURT: He can answer that

THE WITNESS: I don't know if someone told me that, but reading the statute, if it was gifts, it was gifts for the Governor, not for his immediate family

BY MR. BURCK:

Q And at this point in the investigation, had you -- were you suspicious that Jonnie Williams had possibly committed securities fraud?

A There were indications, yes We were starting to -- we, Agent Kennedy and myself were starting to receive some of the documentation that we had subpoenaed underneath the state subpoena power, and it appeared there might be, yes

Q Okay And did you also have suspicions that Jonnie

Williams had committed fraud in obtaining financing for his company?

A Suspicions, yes

Q Okay And did you wonder at the time whether or not you could use Williams to go after the McDonnells?

A It was a possibility down the road, yes

Q Okay And what did you mean by that? What was your thinking at that point?

A Well, what I had at the time was I had the $15,000 check that was to the Governor's benefit It was not reported on his Statement of Economic Interests, which is, at that time, I thought was a violation I had the $50,000 that was being given to Maureen. I didn't know what that was If it was a loan, it should have been reported It wasn't on the Statement of Economic Interests form. If the $50,000 was for her services to go to Roskamp and talk on behalf of Star Scientific, that wasn't reported, which should have been reported. And if it was considered a gift, then it did not have to be reported

Q Okay So why were you saying or why were you thinking that you could use Williams to go after the McDonnells?

A Well, someone was going to have to tell me eventually down the road what kind of document was this, what was the

$50,000 for

Q Okay But you knew or you suspected at that time that Mr Williams had committed securities fraud in a separate matter.

A Yes We suspected, yes

Q Okay Is it fair to say that you thought you could use the fact that Mr Williams might have committed fraud in something else to get him to assist you against the McDonnells?

A Yes

Q And this is May 23rd of 2012, right?

A Right And this was what I anticipated what was going to happen There was a lot more work to be done because we weren't trying to go overt yet

Q The investigation is ongoing, you are looking for leads and facts, et cetera Right?

A I was letting my bosses know that this was going to be a prolonged investigation; it was not something that was going to be handled or resolved quickly

Q And of those bosses was Colonel Flaherty, right?

A Yes, sir

Q As of May 23rd of 2012, you had not interviewed Maureen McDonnell, right?

A No, we didn't go overt until January of 2013

Q You had not interviewed Jonnie Williams at that point, either?

A No, we had not

Q You testified that you were investigating Mr Williams on direct, so I'd like to ask you a little bit about that interview in January of 2013 Now, that interview occurred on January 23rd, 2013; is that right?

A 23rd, yes

Q Okay That was you and Special Agent Tyler Kennedy of the FBI?

A Yes

Q And you showed up at Mr Williams' house unannounced, right?

A Correct

Q And you started asking him questions about his potential violation of securities laws

A Yes, sir

Q You asked him about a possible scheme to sell his stock through John McKeon without reporting it; is that right?

A It was more of a collateralization of stock for a loan that Mr McKeon had provided to Jonnie Williams

Q And the reason why you were asking about that is because you thought it might constitute a securities fraud?

A Yes

Q Okay And you were asking about transfers of shares to his children, right?

MS ABER: I have to object as this being beyond the scope of direct examination If they want to make Special Agent Hagan their witness, that's fine

THE COURT: Our philosophy is exhaust the witness You go ahead

BY MR BURCK:

Q So you asked him about transfers of shares to his own children, right?

A Yes

Q And you asked him about withdrawals from a trust set up for his children

A Yes

Q And your reason for asking these questions, again, was because you thought he might have committed some kind of securities fraud, all those questions

A Yes

Q At some point in the interview or the meeting -- by the way, Mr Williams, he was alone, right?

A Yes, he was

Q Okay And he didn't have any lawyers with him or anything like that

A No, he did not

Q Now, at some point in that interview you started asking him about his relationship with the McDonnells, right?

A That's correct

Q And he told you that he had provided Maureen McDonnell with a $50,000 loan, right?

A Correct

Q He said it was a personal loan.

A Yes

Q And he told you that it was two days after he gave the $50,000 loan to Ms McDonnell that Governor McDonnell called him on his cell phone to discuss the loan, right?

A That's my recollection, yes.

Q Okay And he said that Governor McDonnell would repay the loan when the real estate situation had improved

A Right He was explaining that there was no due date He said when things got better, he would end up paying it

Q He also told you about the $15,000 wedding gift for Cailin McDonnell, right?

A Yes

Q And he said that the Governor and he were friends?

A Yes, he did

Q And he said that the Governor was the best Governor Virginia had ever had, something like that?

A That's correct

Q And he said that he never got anything in return for the $50,000 personal loan to Maureen McDonnell, right? He said that?

A Yes, he did.

Q And he said that he never asked for anything from the Governor and never expected anything from him; is that right?

A I don't remember expected, but he did not ask for anything or receive anything, yes

Q He told you also that Maureen McDonnell was into wellness, into his products, right? He said that?

A Yes, he did

Q And he also said that he had never paid Maureen McDonnell for anything, right?

A Yes, he did.

Q Now, he also asked you several questions generally about the investigation, like whether or not he was a target of the investigation?

A That was in the beginning of the interview, yes

Q So he asked you is he a target

A Yes

Q What did you say?

A I didn't say anything

Q You just didn't answer the question?

A I wasn't the lead for the interview Agent Kennedy was

Q So what did he say, if you recall?

A He told him that, he said he did not have a target letter for Mr Williams, and that there was a grand jury investigation going on, but he did not have a target letter for him.

Q Okay So did he say how long -- I'm sorry, did Mr Williams ask Tyler Kennedy or yourself how long the investigation would last?

A Yes, he did ask that

Q What did you say or what did Special Agent Kennedy say?

A Well, both of us explained some of that, because Agent Kennedy talked about the federal grand jury portion of it, and I had the state grand jury portion of it And we basically told him we didn't know how long it would take

Q So Special Agent Kennedy, because he is with the FBI, talked about the federal grand jury investigation at that time?

A That's my recollection

Q It is your understanding there was a federal grand jury investigation at that time?

A Yes, there was

Q This is on January 23rd, 2013

A That's correct I believe it was in July, 2012, the U S Attorney's Office opened up a federal grand jury investigation on the securities case

Q That's on Mr Williams' securities case?

A Right

Q Then the grand jury, federal grand jury investigation that you are talking about in January of 2013 -- January 23rd, 2012, just so I'm clear, this is a grand jury investigation about Mr Williams only, or also about the McDonnells?

A At the time it was Mr Williams and everything that fell underneath it, yes

Q So it included the McDonnells?

A I don't know if it did. I was pursuing the, at the time, we thought we had state charges against the McDonnells, so that was being pursued on the state grand jury The time of the interview was underneath the federal grand jury, so in answer to your question, it was two separate grand juries going on

Q But again, I just want to be clear, there is a federal grand jury investigation that covered Williams and there was a state grand jury investigation that covered the McDonnells?

A That's correct

Q Was there overlap between the two?

A No No, because my recollection is most of the federal grand juries were to get bank records At that time, that was our first overt interview, so everything had been done collecting documents, and it was usually done by the particular grand jury that was, whatever we were looking at at the time

Q Okay Now, as part of the collecting the documents, you and Special Agent Kennedy would serve subpoenas, right?

A Yes, sir

Q Did you give Mr Williams a subpoena at this interview on January 23rd, 2013?

A Agent Kennedy served him with a federal grand jury subpoena, yes

Q Okay He served him with a federal grand jury subpoena?

A Correct

Q And this was for records in his possession?

A Yes

Q Relating to what?

A Star Scientific I don't remember the specifics of the subpoena, but anything that related to his dealings as part of Star Scientific

Q Okay Would that subpoena, did that subpoena cover the McDonnells as well?

A No Not that I am aware of, no.

Q Did you give him a state grand jury subpoena?

A No, I did not

Q Okay And as part of this meeting, did you take notes of the meeting?

A Yes, I did.

Q So did Special Agent Kennedy, he did most of the questioning?

A He did.

Q You took the notes?

A Yes, sir

Q A little different than what you did with Ms McDonnell, where you both took notes and listened.

A That's correct

Q We talked about this at the beginning: You were trained in how to take notes of things that had happened in the meeting, right?

A I mean, trained to take notes, no I mean, you were trained you should take notes to help you recollect, but not how to take them, no

Q Is it fair to say that your notes are intended to help you remember the important things that happened in the meeting?

A Yes What's relevant

Q Okay Now, during this interview or near the end, did you or Special Agent Kennedy ask Mr Williams to wear a wire against Governor McDonnell?

A It wasn't that specific What happened was, Mr Williams, after we had basically concluded the interview, said he was willing -- he was going to contact his attorneys, he was going to cooperate with the investigators, he was going to turn over documents that we wanted, and I mentioned to him, "Would that also include consensually monitoring a conversation some day?" So it was not specifically to Mr McDonnell

Q So you didn't tell him that it was actually, you were asking him to record Governor McDonnell?

A No It was more of, "While you are talking to your attorneys and you want to cooperate, consider this "

Q Let me ask you, what was your intention when you said that? Were you asking him to consider recording Governor McDonnell?

A If it needed to be, yes

Q And he had just told you, though, that -- Mr Williams had just said he had not gotten anything or received anything or offered anything Why did you not -- why did you want him to consensually record Governor McDonnell potentially?

MS ABER: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Now, you took the notes of this interview?

A I did

Q Those notes don't include a reference to the request for a consensual recording, do they?

A No, they do not

Q Is there a reason why you didn't include those in the notes?

A It was just a suggestion to him. It was nothing that was specific

Q But he did end the interview after you said, you asked him whether or not he would consensually record?

A That wasn't the last thing that was said, but it was in that little segment of explaining where he said he wanted to cooperate and we threw that out to him.

Q Okay And you informed the prosecutors about the request for consensual recording while this trial had occurred, right, the first time you told them about it? I'm sorry, let me be more clear The trial started on July 28th, last month.

A That's correct

Q You first told the prosecutors about the consensual recording request after the trial had started.

MS ABER: Objection, relevance

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR BURCK:

Q Going on to Maureen McDonnell's interview, which occurred about three weeks or so after the Jonnie Williams interview, which was on February 15th, 2013. Remember that interview?

A I do

Q Now, if you would call up, publish RM-2028, which has already been admitted into evidence If you could blow up the bottom e-mail, please Now, sir, you are not on this e-mail, but this e-mail is in evidence and it is an e-mail from Steven Flaherty to Martin Kent I think you testified earlier that Mr Flaherty was your supervisor?

A He is the Colonel of the State Police, Superintendent

Q He is one of the people that you were keeping informed of the progress of your investigation of the McDonnells and Mr Williams?

A Yes He wasn't there for all of the updates He would be there occasionally when he could, because he was busy But yes, at times he was there present when I was filling him in

Q He was aware that you were investigating the McDonnells?

A Yes, he was

Q Okay And as of February 13th of 2013, a year ago, did he know that you were investigating the McDonnells?

A Yes, he did

Q And when -- that week, before you went to interview Ms McDonnell, was he aware that you were planning to interview Ms McDonnell about the Jonnie Williams matter?

A I'm sorry, I lost that

Q Was he aware as of this week, the week of February 13th?

MS ABER: Objection. He knows whether the Colonel was aware or not?

THE COURT: He can answer

THE WITNESS: Judging from this e-mail, yes, he was aware that we wanted to.

BY MR BURCK:

Q You had spoken to him about it

A I don't know if I spoke to him specifically one-on-one about it I did speak to the executive management It could have been the Major or Lieutenant Colonel But I don't have any clear recollection of actually talking to the Colonel and saying I wanted to It may have worked its way up the chain.

Q You testified that you were diligent about keeping your supervisors apprised of the progress of this investigation, right?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, this e-mail, as you will see, Martin Kent, you also testified earlier, is the Chief of Staff to the Governor. And in this e-mail, Colonel Flaherty says, "We want to wrap up the Chef Todd case, plan to go to the grand jury next week. If the First Lady is available Friday, you can block off about two hours to talk to Charlie Hagan and Tyler Kennedy we would appreciate it Thanks, Steve " That e-mail doesn't reference anything about the Jonnie Williams investigation relating to the McDonnells, right?

A No, it does not

Q Okay Going into that meeting -- you can take that down Going into that meeting, did you have a discussion with anybody at the Office of the Governor prior to showing up on the 15th of February to interview Maureen McDonnell?

A I was instructed by someone from the executive management to call Ms McDonnell's scheduler and confirm a meeting, which I did. The lady asked what it was about, and I said, "She knows "

Q "She knows," meaning Maureen McDonnell knows?

A Yes

Q Okay And do remember, you said executive management Do you remember who it was who told you to call?

A No, I don't recall Probably the Major, but -- the Major is the one that would usually communicate with me, but I had no clear recollection of the individual or when it was done

Q What's the Major's last name?

A Jenkins

Q Major Jenkins We saw him from an earlier e-mail, the first time you wanted to interview Maureen McDonnell

A Yes

Q This is the second effort to interview her, because the first time you had canceled?

A Correct

Q Now, you show up at the Mansion Do you show up with Special Agent Kennedy?

A No, I did not

Q So it was just yourself and --

A Special Agent Lyons

Q Was Special Agent Kennedy supposed to be at the interview?

MS ABER: Objection, relevance

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR. BURCK:

Q So it was just yourself and Special Agent Lyons?

A Correct

Q And when you meet Ms McDonnell, you go into her office; is that right?

A I presume it was her office No one ever told me it was, but it appeared to be, yes

Q Did you have an understanding of Martin Kent, you know he was the Chief of Staff, did you know that he had requested to be part of that interview?

A I have no recollection of him wanting to be part of the interview for the second interview I know he wanted to be there for the first one that was set up that was eventually canceled

Q Right But you have testified earlier that your practice is not to have a second person who you are not interviewing present

A Right I recall being asked if I would want him present, and I said, "No "

Q Okay And you don't recall if that happened in 2012 or 2013?

A Right

Q Okay So the interview starts at around 1 o'clock on the 15th? Roughly?

A I think so, yes.

Q And again, Colonel Flaherty had contacted Mr Kent 48 hours before, right?

A It appears from the e-mail you showed me, yes

Q Okay Now, you conducted the interview, Mr Lyons sat there

A Correct

Q Did he ask any questions at all that you can recall?

A He may have asked one or two, but I don't know what they were I don't recall what they were

Q You testified earlier that he hadn't really been involved in this investigation at all

A He wasn't He wasn't involved

Q He wasn't involved at all until this day

A Right

Q And why was it that you brought him and not Special Agent Kennedy?

MS ABER: Objection.

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR BURCK:

Q And Ms McDonnell did not have an attorney present, right, for the interview?

A That's correct

Q Now, at the beginning of the interview, at any point, did you advise Ms McDonnell that she was under investigation?

A No, I did not

Q At any point, did you advise her that she has a right to an attorney?

A She was not -- it was not a custodial interview

Q Custodial interview, right You did not advise her that she had a right to remain silent?

A No It wasn't custodial

Q You started the interview by asking her about the chef, Todd Schneider, and his theft issues, right?

A Well, I mean, I started by talking about our common denominators, yes But then the meat of it, yes, we started talking about Todd Schneider Of course, the AG's office was anticipating indicting him relatively soon.

Q And at the beginning of the interview, you said, testified on direct that you were trying to build a rapport with her

A That's correct

Q You said that she had worked at the FBI?

A Yes

Q Do you know what she did at the FBI?

A No.

Q Okay Was she a lawyer? Do you know if Ms McDonnell is a lawyer?

A No, not that I am aware of

Q And you also testified that she mentioned at some point during the interview or the part of the interview about Jonnie Williams, that she said that her husband had met him 30 years before or knew him for 30 years? Do you remember that?

A I don't know if I said 30 years I think I said when he got out of the Army, he took a job with American Hospital Supply, and that's where he met Jonnie Williams, who also worked for American Hospital Supply as a representative

Q Okay Do you recall that in fact what she said was that her husband and Mr Williams had overlapped at American Hospital Supply sometime many years before and that's the original connection?

A That's not my recollection of what she told me

Q Okay Now, you prepared -- while you were listening to the interview, you are taking notes, right?

A Correct

Q And you also eventually, or maybe the next day, you do a typed-up version of your handwritten notes, right?

A I do a summary of what she told us during the interview to my best recollection while I'm looking at the notes helping refresh my memory

Q Okay

A I'm not taking the notes and writing them on a document

Q I'm sorry But you are handwriting the notes and then separately later on you use those notes to write the typed-up version?

A Yes, that's what I do

Q Okay Now, just focusing on what you have testified Ms McDonnell said during the interview about Jonnie Williams and her relationship and the Governor's relationship with Jonnie Williams, let's just focus on that, you testified that Ms McDonnell said that she had -- she had received a $50,000 check as a personal loan from Jonnie Williams, right?

A That's correct

Q And she also said that, this is nothing you testified to, but I'm asking you the question, she also said that Jonnie Williams, that she had asked Jonnie Williams for a loan to help with the McDonnells' expenses and cash flow Do you recall that she said that?

A I don't remember if there was a -- those were the specific words, but yes, they had accumulated some debts with regards to the election There was also something about some houses that they rented, some beach houses

Q And you also testified that she said she had a written agreement or contract with Mr Williams?

A Yes

Q And that she was making periodic payments to satisfy that loan

A That's correct

Q And you also testified that she had or could get a copy of the loan.

A Yes

Q And again, you said that, I think you already testified to this, but just to be clear, you said she also said that Jonnie Williams and the Governor had been friends for many years, right?

A Since the Governor left the Army I don't know when he left, so I can't say how long

Q What I would like to do is just show you now RM-2079, which is just for the witness Okay Now, these are your handwritten notes of that interview?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, let me ask you just some questions about the notes Again, these are the notes that you took while you were listening to her

A Yes

Q Now, these notes don't say anything about a written contract, do they? You can read it, if you would like to spend a minute to look it over

A Yeah, I'd like to. Can you make it bigger?

Q Sure Actually, what we will do is, we will do even better We will turn you to the right section of the notes Please show the witness 2079-0004 That's easier, I think.

(Document displayed to witness)

A That little segment that you are showing me does not say anything about, except for written notes, it says, "I have a contract."

Q Doesn't say "written contract"?

A No

Q And what about, does it say anything about periodic payments being made?

A "I am paying back."

Q It says, "I am paying back"?

A Uh-huh.

Q Does it say anything about periodic payments being made?

A No Doesn't say specifically periodic

Q It says "I am paying back."

A Right That's this section. I haven't seen the rest of it

Q Did you have a chance to review your notes as part of the -- preparing for trial today?

A Yes, I tried to I have done a lot of interviews

Q I understand. I'll give you, with the Court's indulgence, I'll let you, there are two pages of handwritten notes that you can review right now This is your handwriting

MR BURCK: I don't think it will take more than a couple minutes, Your Honor

THE COURT: Go ahead Have you got the hard copy of this?

MR BURCK: Oh, yes, Your Honor, that would be easier

(Document proffered to witness)

(Witness perusing document)

THE WITNESS: Okay.

BY MR BURCK:

Q So can you tell us now, do the notes say anything about -- I'm sorry, I've lost what I was asking you about A written contract?

A No, it just says "contract "

Q Does it say anything about periodic payments?

A Just says "paying back."

Q Does it say anything about Jonnie Williams being a friend for many years? Look at the top of the page, I'll just direct you to it, the third-to-last page The very top

A Okay Yes, it says that "Williams was a family friend "

Q So it doesn't say "many years "

A No

Q "He had been a friend for many years "

A No.

Q Does it say anything about a signed agreement? I think you testified she said she had also signed this written contract

A That's correct.

Q Do the notes say anything about a signed agreement?

A No, they do not

Q Now, during the interview, Ms McDonnell one time or twice, actually, asked to speak to her husband, didn't she?

A No

Q She never asked to speak to her husband?

A No.

Q Okay That's not you don't recall; that didn't happen, right?

A I have no recollection of her saying that, yes

Q Okay And you said that she tensed up or she became more, her demeanor became more tense when you started asking her about the Jonnie Williams checks?

A Yes When I say "tensed up," I didn't use -- she became more inquisitive, why we were asking

Q Had you told her prior to entering the meeting that this meeting was going to be about Jonnie Williams as well as Chef Todd Schneider?

A I didn't talk to her at all prior to the interview

Q Okay Did you hear Special Agent Lyons say anything to her prior to going into the meeting that this was going to be about Jonnie Williams as well as Todd Schneider?

A No, I don't remember him saying that

Q So as far as you know, she has no idea what the interview is about?

A That's correct

Q Although you did say, "She knows what it is about" before

A Yes

Q You didn't really mean that?

A No, I meant it, because I knew that the Executive Office had set up the interview And I didn't want to tell the scheduler what I was there for So she had been told by the executive staff what What that was, I don't know

Q Understood. And just one last question: In March of 2013, that's about a month after the Maureen McDonnell interview, you learned from the Tobacco Commission, the Executive Director of the Tobacco Commission that no one had approached the Tobacco Commission to initiate a research project involving anatabine or Anatabloc, right?

MS ABER: Objection

THE COURT: He can answer that

THE WITNESS: I recall interviewing, I think his name was Neal Noyes, and that's what he told us, yes

MR. BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor Just one moment, Your Honor

THE COURT: Can I see that hard copy?

MR. BURCK: I'm sorry, Your Honor Just for, we would like to offer the notes, the handwritten notes into evidence

THE COURT: All right Is this RM-2079?

MR. BURCK: Yes

THE COURT: You had some particular pages?

MR. BURCK: Yes, Your Honor We have RM-2079-0003, through RM-2079-0005 What we will do is make sure there is nothing in there that should be redacted in terms of personal information But we offer that, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Before I admit them, you all take care of any redactions

MR. BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Mr McDonnell?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Agent Hagan, good afternoon. My name is John Brownlee, and I represent Bob McDonnell And I have some questions for you today Let me begin, I believe you testified that in a meeting in May of 2012, that you had anticipated, that was -- at that time, I think you testified that you anticipated using Mr Williams to go after the McDonnells; is that correct?

A That's what I wrote, but what I was explaining to my supervisors was that we were in the initial stages of the investigation; it was going to take a lot of documentation to put it together; and down the line I anticipated possibly that we would have to get Mr Williams to tell us what's going on.

Q All right. Now, let me show the witness, just for the witness, RM-2069 Just blow up just the bottom part there Sir, this is an e-mail that you received in February of 2013 from John C Bullard. Do you know who that is?

A Yes Mr Bullard, B-U-L-L-A-R-D, is the Deputy Commonwealth's Attorney for the City of Richmond

Q Okay And you had testified earlier about you had a state investigation as well; is that correct?

A Yes

Q On the McDonnells

A Yes

Q Okay

MR. BROWNLEE: Your Honor, at this time we would move RM-2069 into evidence

MS ABER: Objection, Your Honor This is a communication between the Special Agent Hagan and the Commonwealth's Attorney for the City of Richmond and his deputy about various legal requirements under the PAC rules

THE COURT: Let me take a look at it, and come on up here

(At Bench)

MR. BROWNLEE: This is just classic bias testimony This was an investigation into PAC resources It turned out that they couldn't prosecute the McDonnells for that He sent it to his own private e-mail, and then flips it to us and says, I forgot exactly what he said, but basically he is disappointed that this didn't work out We think it is biased testimony, Your Honor

THE COURT: No The objection is sustained.

(In Open Court)

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, Agent Hagan, as part of your investigation, first of all, do you know who Christopher Young is?

A Yes, I do

Q Who is Christopher Young?

A He is the individual that married Cailin McDonnell

Q Okay And as part of your investigation in May of 2012, did you and some of your agents put a tail on him and follow him?

A I did a solo surveillance on him. What I believe And yes

Q And you went to his place of employment and sat outside and watched him leave work; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q And this is -- he works, he is an engineer?

A Yes, he was, or is

Q Okay And he married Cailin McDonnell; is that right?

A Yes

Q Okay Also as part of your investigation, did there come a time when you learned that one of Mr Williams' loans went to a company called MoBo?

A Yes, I did.

Q All right And you investigated that; is that correct?

A Yes, I did.

Q All right And as part of your investigation, did you investigate whether or not the Governor's sister was involved in disguising some loan?

A Sister involved with what?

Q With attempting to disguise the loan

A I don't recall that

Q Okay

MR. BROWNLEE: May I approach the witness?

THE COURT: Go ahead

(Document proffered to witness)

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Look at the last line of the e-mail there, sir

(Witness perusing document)

A Okay

Q All right Does that refresh your recollection that part of your investigation, you looked into whether or not the Governor and his sister were trying to disguise this loan from it going to their company?

A What I was thinking possibly is that the second $50,000 loan may have been given to the sister when it should have been going to Maureen, the wife

Q Okay So as part of your investigation, you looked at his sister and her involvement; is that right?

A No, did I not look at her involvement Well, the check indicated that it was possibly to the sister And what I was saying is possibly we need to look into this, that the $50,000 may have been to Maureen, but went to the sister

Q His sister's name is Maureen?

A Yeah, that's where the confusion is

Q All right Now, let me take -- if I can take your memory to May of 2013 Do you recall having a meeting with Mr Dry and Mr Kilgore and Mr Kilgore's boss, Richard Cullen, to discuss this case? Do you remember that meeting?

A I attended several meetings Can you be more specific? Mr Kilgore?

Q This is a meeting in which it was yourself, Mr Kilgore -- I tell you what Since you are having trouble, let me just show you --

MR DRY: Your Honor, may we approach?

THE COURT: Come on up.

(At Bench)

MR. DRY: Judge, Mr Brownlee has asked me about whether there was any kind of meeting like this He has handwritten notes I'm not sure whose they are, but they are not this witness's, and this meeting never occurred I told Mr Brownlee that Now what he is trying to do is dirty up the prosecution team with these kinds of questions This meeting never occurred and it is irrelevant what meetings happened

THE COURT: What is it regarding this?

MR. BROWNLEE: The government just called as their witness Jerry Kilgore These are notes from the Superintendent of State Police which indicates Charlie Hagan met with Mike Dry, Kilgore, Williams' attorney and Richard Cullen to discuss the federal case He agreed to testimony, by documents and testimony they could prove the payments to McDonnell were not loans So their last witness --

MR. DRY: You should have asked Mr Kilgore about it

THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

MR. BROWNLEE: Thank you.

(In Open Court)

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Agent Hagan, let me ask you, do you know an individual named Marc Wiley?

A Yes, I do

Q Marc Wiley is, at the time of the investigation, was in charge of EPU; is that correct?

A No

Q What role did he have at EPU?

A When I first met Marc Wiley, he was a Sergeant in the Executive Protection Unit I met him when I went to the Mansion to review and make copies of the closed circuit TV in regards to the chef embezzlement investigation

Q But he is a part of EPU?

A Yes, he is

Q EPU, we have had a couple of the officers here, but EPU was the Executive Protective Unit and they protect the Governor and his family; is that correct?

A Yes, they do

Q Okay Did there come a time in April of 2012 when Mr Wiley on your behalf began to communicate back to you what was going on with the Governor?

A It wasn't -- well, my recollection when we first started talking to Sergeant or First Sergeant Wiley, I was asking at the time, I was looking for additional gifts that Jonnie Williams may have provided to the Governor that were not reported on his Statement of Economic Interests And yes, I did reach out to him and ask for some assistance

Q Okay And so for the next 19 to 20 months, he on behalf of you essentially was eavesdropping on conversations of the Governor and reporting them back to you; is that correct?

A No, I've never instructed him to do that I don't know why you say -- well, no, I never instructed him to eavesdrop

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Court's indulgence, Your Honor Let me grab one thing, Your Honor

(Counsel retrieving document)

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Agent Hagan, did you not write in a State Police document in April of 2012 that Mr Wiley reported back to you that he advised Trooper John Dudley, who was assigned to the Governor on a trip, the flight manifest indicated Jonnie Williams was supposed to be on the plane but he wasn't, one of Williams' co-workers was on the flight and sat next to the Governor for most of the flight, but Trooper Dudley could not hear their entire conversation because of the jet engine noise, but he was able to hear them talking about Anatabloc?

MS ABER: Objection

MR. BROWNLEE: I'm just asking if he recalls that, Your Honor

THE COURT: I'll let you answer that

THE WITNESS: Okay I recall First Sergeant, may have been Sergeant then, Wiley telling me that, but I never instructed him to tell me that

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Did you have Officer Wiley get a new cell phone when he started this process back in 2012?

A I have no knowledge of that, no

MR BROWNLEE: May I approach to refresh his recollection?

THE COURT: Go ahead.

(Document proffered to witness)

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Just take a look at the first page

(Witness perusing document)

A Okay

Q Does this refresh your recollection that Mr Wiley got a new cell phone in April of 2012 right after he started reporting back to you?

A He advised me that he had a new cell phone and he gave me his number, yes

Q All right

MR. BROWNLEE: That's all, Your Honor Thank you.

THE COURT: Redirect?

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Special Agent Hagan, let start where Mr Brownlee left off About Officer -- what's Mr Wiley's title?

A He is a First Sergeant right now

Q First Sergeant Wiley Is the EPU at all affiliated with the Virginia State Police?

A Yes, they are

Q And were they at all aware, had you informed Mr Wiley in some terms about what you were investigating?

A Yes, I did

Q Okay And tell the jury, when Mr Brownlee uses words like "on your behalf," what was your affiliation with Mr Wiley, First Sergeant Wiley? Was he acting on your behalf?

A No, he never acted on my behalf, except if I asked for specific information, such as, "Can you give me a list of what flights the Governor has been on in the last year or so?" The reason we did that is because we were still in the covert stage, we didn't go overt yet, and I didn't want to go to the travel office in the Mansion to let them know we were looking into that area

Q Did you ever ask First Sergeant Wiley to listen in on Mr McDonnell's phone calls?

A No, never

Q Did you ever ask him to look at e-mails that Mr McDonnell may have been writing?

A No, never

Q How would you characterize, in sum, the information that First Sergeant Wiley was providing to you?

A He would provide information that I had asked him specifically for And then he knew the areas that we were looking into, the investigation was centered on, based on what I was asking about And he would voluntarily call me many times and say, "Hey, this might help your investigation "

Q And were you using Special Agent Wiley as some sort of deliberate secret spy on the Governor?

A No.

Q Changing topics At the very beginning, I believe, of Mr Burck's cross-examination, I believe there was a lot about investigations and who had what open when. At the time you went to interview Ms McDonnell in February of 2013, was there a federal grand jury investigation open into the McDonnells for public corruption?

A No, there was not

Q Was there a state grand jury investigation into the McDonnells for public corruption?

A Yes, there was

Q Now, I believe you mentioned something about a custodial interview Could you describe to the jury what that is?

A Normally --

MR. BURCK: Objection, Your Honor, relevance

THE COURT: Overruled.

BY MS. ABER:

Q What's a custodial interview?

A A custodial interview is when I conduct an interview, usually of a suspect, and my intention, either the person has been placed under arrest or my intention is to place the person under arrest after I interview the person Underneath those circumstances, my understanding is I'm supposed to let the suspect know the Miranda warnings; that the person is allowed to get an attorney and whatever they say can be used against them. In a non-custodial interview, it is just a normal interview that I would normally do I have no intention of detaining the person I take their information and leave

Q Which one occurred here with Ms McDonnell?

A Non-custodial

MR. BURCK: Objection, asked and answered.

THE COURT: Overruled.

THE WITNESS: Non-custodial

BY MS ABER:

Q Let's talk a little more about those notes I'm going to show you so you have it in front of you RM-2079, the set of notes of your interview with Ms McDonnell Now, I think we have established, sir, is it fair to say that your notes are not a verbatim transcript of this interview?

A Oh, yes, definitely

Q Did you ask Ms McDonnell at certain points for clarification on issues that interested you?

A Yes

Q What would something like that have been in this interview?

A Well, while I was interviewing Ms McDonnell, I was interested in the $50,000 She told me it was a loan She indicated that there was a written agreement that she had signed, a written contract And that contradicted what I had been told three weeks earlier, so there was a conflict, contradictory information, from what I had heard from Jonnie Williams Secondly, she indicated that she was making payments for the loan. Again, that was contradictory from the knowledge I had at the time, because I had pulled her bank records and I analyzed her Wachovia and her Beach bank accounts, and I think they were from March of 2010 to March of 2012, and I did not see any payments going back to Jonnie Williams

Q Now, Special Agent, did those notes say that Special Agent Lyons was present at that interview? Do you see his name anywhere?

A I don't believe it does

Q So how do you know he was there?

A I was there

Q Okay. Do those notes say the word "Jonnie Williams" or do you just use the shorthand "JW"?

A "JW "

Q How do you know that that's a reference to Jonnie Williams?

A Because it is his initials that I, I guess, created so I would know that's who they were talking about

Q Why did you testify before this jury that Maureen McDonnell said there was a written contract?

A Because that's what she said

MS ABER: One moment, please, Your Honor I have no further questions, Your Honor Thank you.

MR. BURCK: Your Honor, I just want you to know, this document is okay with us It doesn't need redaction

THE COURT: So you are ready to move that in?

MR. BURCK: Yes, just those two pages, unless the government wants to put in the entire document For us, all we need is RM-2079-0003 through RM-2079-0005 We have no objection if the government wants to put in the entire document

THE COURT: They will be admitted.

MR. BURCK: Thank you.

(Witness stood aside)

Call your next witness, please

MS ABER: James Lyons

JAMES LYONS,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

Q You are not a doctor, though, right?

A No, ma'am.

A I was

Q For how long did you work there?

A 25 years

Q Okay I'm going to turn your attention back to February 15th of 2013, please Were you working for the Virginia State Police on that date?

A Yes, ma'am, he did.

Q Who was that interview of?

A Ms McDonnell

Q Until that day, did you have anything to do with the State Police investigation of food thefts at the Mansion?

A No, I did not

Q Until that day, did you have anything to do with any investigations of Jonnie Williams?

A No, I did not

Q Until that day, had you had anything to do with any investigations of Mr and Ms McDonnell?

A No, I did not

Q Did you attend any briefings or witness interviews related to those investigations?

A No, I did not

Q After that date, did you assist in any way with those investigations?

A No, ma'am.

Q Okay Thank you Now, did you help schedule that interview of Ms McDonnell?

A No, ma'am.

Q All right Let's talk about the interview itself Walk us through what happens when you got to the Mansion

A We went to the Mansion, myself and Special Agent Hagan We were met at the entrance to Ms McDonnell's office by, I don't remember the young lady's name, but we were told that she was expecting us And we went in, introduced ourselves, and the interview began

Q Okay In what room were you conducting the interview?

A I believe it was her office

Q And who was present for the interview?

A Myself, Special Agent Hagan, and Ms McDonnell

Q Did either you or Special Agent Hagan take notes during the interview?

A Special Agent Hagan did.

Q Is it fair to say he did most of the questioning of Ms McDonnell?

A Yes, ma'am.

Q Now, I'd like to ask you first if Special Agent Hagan said anything at the beginning of the interview

A Just an introduction, and then just we introduced ourselves and then it was just general conversation for a few minutes

Q All right And in sum, what was that general conversation about?

A Growing up in -- apparently, Special Agent Hagan and Ms McDonnell had grown up in the same neighborhood in New York Just general chit-chat I think Ms McDonnell asked me if I was from New York, and I told her I was from the other side of the state in Southwest Virginia It was just general conversation.

Q Do you recall whether Special Agent Hagan said anything about previously working for the FBI?

A Yes, he did.

Q Now, what was the first topic addressed at the interview?

A The first topic addressed was the food from the Mansion, as I recall

Q Did the conversation then turn to Cailin McDonnell's wedding?

A Yes, ma'am, it did

Q And did you or Special Agent Hagan ask about the contract for the wedding catering?

A There was discussion about the contract for the reception Ms McDonnell had said --

Q Hang on there Let me stop you Did you explain or did Special Agent Hagan explain to Ms McDonnell that a search warrant had been conducted at the catering company?

A Yes, ma'am.

Q And did one of you tell Ms McDonnell that investigators had found a $15,000 check from the Starwood Trust to the catering company for Cailin McDonnell's wedding?

A Yes, ma'am.

Q Did you both talk to Ms McDonnell about a gentleman named Jonnie Williams?

A Yes, ma'am.

Q Okay Now, tell the jury, please, what Ms McDonnell said about the origin of her relationship with Mr Williams

A May I refer to my notes?

Q Yes, sir, but you need to tell -- just for the record, what is it that you are looking at?

A I have a copy of the interview, the VSP-102 that was done by Special Agent Hagan after the --

Q They are signed by Special Agent Hagan Did you review them at the time they were made?

A Yes, ma'am, I reviewed them as soon as he made them.

Q Before they were finalized and processed through the State Police?

A Yes, ma'am.

Q At the time, did you agree with everything that Special Agent Hagan had written?

A Yes, ma'am, I did.

MR. BURCK: Objection If the witness doesn't remember and has to refer to notes, then the testimony is -- there is no point in testifying

THE COURT: Let's determine whether or not the witness has any independent recollection before we start dealing with the notes

BY MS ABER:

Q Let me ask you to put them away for a second. If I were to ask you if you could tell this jury about what Ms McDonnell said about the origin of her relationship with Mr Williams, how long they had known each other, do you know that off the top of your head?

A I can tell you that, yes, ma'am. She stated that they had, she and the Governor had first met Mr Williams a long time ago, after Governor McDonnell had left the Army That Mr Williams was a sales rep for American Hospital Supply, and that Governor McDonnell had gone to work with American Hospital Supply. And that is where they met

Q Now, did you talk to Ms McDonnell about her May, 2011 trip to the Roskamp Institute?

A She discussed that in my presence, yes, ma'am.

Q Okay Did the subject of the August 30th, 2011 lunch at the Mansion come up?

A Yes, ma'am, it did.

Q And did the topic of a Star Scientific event in California come up?

A Yes, ma'am, it did.

Q Did you all tell Ms McDonnell that you had uncovered a check from the Starwood Trust to her?

A Yes, ma'am.

Q Okay And from your recollection, what did Ms McDonnell say about the existence of a loan agreement for that $50,000 check?

A She said that there was a loan agreement that she had signed, and that she was making payments on that loan

Q Now, did Ms McDonnell ask you any questions, ask any questions of both of you?

A Yes, she did. At one time she asked if we had interviewed the children, and then she also asked was it necessary that the children be interviewed.

Q When the interview concluded, how did you all exit?

A We went out the front door of her office, she escorted us around the Mansion, and we left at the gate

MS ABER: One moment, please, Your Honor No further questions Thank you.

THE COURT: Mr Burck?

MR. BURCK: Very briefly

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Special Agent Lyons, my name is Bill Burck. I represent Maureen McDonnell I just have a few questions for you

A Yes, sir

Q You testified that you didn't have anything to do with this investigation before the interview of Maureen McDonnell or after the interview of Maureen McDonnell, right?

A That's correct, sir

Q So the words Starwood Trust and all this that you heard from Ms Aber, did that mean anything to you at the time?

A Well, the only thing I knew about the investigation at the time when I went over to the Mansion was what I had read in the paper

Q What you had read in the paper

A Yes, sir

Q Fair to say the information you were hearing from Special Agent Hagan that was being asked of Maureen McDonnell at the time didn't mean much to you?

A It didn't mean a lot to me No, sir

Q Jonnie Williams didn't mean a lot to you, other than what you read in the paper?

A I had heard of him, but again, other than what I read in the paper or heard on the news

Q You were asked by Ms Aber whether or not you have prepared for your testimony here today

A Yes, I have prepared for my testimony

Q I think you said that you reviewed a VSP report, Virginia State Police repor right?

A That's correct, sir

Q Is it a typewritten version?

A Yes, sir, it is

MR BURCK: May I approach the witness?

THE COURT: Go ahead.

(Document proffered to witness)

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Sir, is that a copy of the same thing you reviewed?

A No, sir, it is not This is more -- the information that I reviewed is different from what I am seeing here

Q Okay So there is a -- so you have something else that you reviewed? That's not that document?

A Yes, sir This document is dated January 26th, 2013. And the information that I referred to was dated February 15th, 2013

Q Okay

A I have not seen this document

Q Okay I'm going to show you another document Actually, bring up RM-2079

MR. BURCK: Your Honor, I'm sorry, I gave him the wrong document My apologies

(Document proffered to witness)

BY MR BURCK:

Q That one, sir I'm sorry, I gave you the wrong report Is that the same document?

A Yes, sir, this is the same report

Q That's a typewritten document that was created by Special Agent Hagan?

A That's correct, sir

Q And if you could just publish for the jury as well, RM-2079-0003 Can you just flip through, sir, would you just look, you don't have to read it, but do you recognize that document?

A On the screen?

Q Yes

A No, sir

Q These are handwritten notes of Mr Hagan's You have never seen those before?

A No, sir, I have not

Q You didn't review them prior to testifying today?

A No, sir This is the first time I've seen them.

MR BURCK: Thank you. That's it, Your Honor, for us

THE COURT: Mr McDonnell?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR ASBILL:

Q Good afternoon, sir My name is Henry Asbill I represent Governor McDonnell

A Yes, sir

Q I just want to make sure I understand your testimony clearly At the time you went to this interview you were not involved in the planning of it or anything of that nature

A No, sir, I was not

Q You say what you knew is just what you read in the paper?

A Basically, that's correct

Q Did that relate only to the Chef Todd issue or was it broader than that?

A Sir, I don't recall It was whatever was popular in the paper in February

Q Did it involve the McDonnells in any way, do you recall?

A Yes, sir, it did.

Q It did

A Uh-huh

Q So you knew that that was at least a subject matter of the interview

A That's correct Yes, sir

Q As you got into the interview, Agent Hagan was doing the questioning and it became very clear to you what the various subjects were in the interview, correct?

A Well, it became clearer to me what the subjects were, yes

Q So whatever you knew beforehand, it became more clear once the interview commenced; is that right?

A That's correct, yes, sir

Q During the interview, Agent Hagan was the one who was doing the questioning, and simultaneously taking notes Correct?

A That's correct Yes, sir

Q And you were not doing the questioning, but you also were not taking notes

A I think I asked two questions the entire time

Q But you didn't have to worry about trying to talk and write at the same time

A No, sir, I did not

Q So would you have been or would somebody have been recording this interview in any way?

A I don't recall, sir, whether it was recorded I know that I did not record it And whether Charlie Hagan recorded it or not, I don't know

Q Was there any discussion between the two of you about whether or not you should record it?

A Not with me, no, sir

Q Is there any reason to think of why it wouldn't be appropriate to record it?

A No, I can't answer that I have done interviews that I have recorded and I've done interviews that I have not recorded. So I can't speak for him. I don't know why he chose not to record it

MR. ASBILL: Thank you, sir No further questions

THE COURT: Anything else?

MS ABER: No, Your Honor

THE COURT: Thank you, sir You may stand down.

(Witness stood aside)

A My brother asked me to go by there and see if I could help them out, and I didn't have the time I said, "As a favor to you, I'll run by there and see what they have, see what the problems are "

Q Where was it that you were going to run by and check out?

A It was over in Glen Allen I forgot the street name

MR. HARBACH: Your Honor, can I tender hard copies to the witness? It might make this easier

THE COURT: Sure

MR. HARBACH: For the record, I'm sending up paper copies to the witness of Government 424 through 427, 437 through 441, 463, 473, and 491

BY MR HARBACH:

Q My question for you, Mr Williams, is that stack of paper that the Court Security Officer just handed you, do you recognize those to be paper copies of text messages between you and Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: The government offers that same list, I'll repeat for the record, Government's 424 through 427, 437 through 441, 463, 473, and 491

THE COURT: They will be admitted

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Now, before we get to the texts, Mr Williams, do you recall having any conversations with your brother about the list of repairs that Ms McDonnell had requested that you do?

A He didn't know what it was, he just said, "Go by there and see if you can help them out "

Q After you did that, did you talk to him again about it, to your recollection?

A To Jonnie?

Q Yes, sir

A Yes I called him because they had a hot tub and they couldn't find or they didn't know anybody, it needed a new top on it She asked me could I find one I found it They would need a new hot tub cover, and I deal with a pool company in Fredericksburg, and I talked to the guy there and he was going to order it

Q Did you relate that to your brother?

A Yes And I asked him did he want, "What's going on, are you going to pay for it or do you want me to bill them?"

Q What did he say?

A He said he would go ahead and pay for that

Q Let's take a look at some of those text messages We can roll through them quickly I'd like to start with Government's 424 in evidence, please We can blow this one up for the witness and the jury This one is from Ms McDonnell And you mentioned a moment ago not remembering the exact location of their home Seeing on the screen now there is a reference she makes to Wyndham. Is that where their private home was located, their personal home?

A Yes

Q Let's take a look at 425, please Noting the date on this one is November 12th of 2012, is this your response to her? It says, "No, everything's fine"?

A Yes

Q Okay Let's keep going and look at 426, please Before we blow up the text, let's let the jury see the date, please Thank you. We are still on November 12th of 2012 Ms McDonnell is asking you: "Do you need me to get a key out to you? To get into the garage " And she gives you other instructions Do you recall whether in fact you were provided a key to their residence?

A Yes, they left a key for me

Q They did Can we take a look at the next one, please, which I believe is 427 Blow up the date and the content for the witness We are still on November 12th; is that right, sir?

A Yes

Q And Ms McDonnell, she is making reference here to a hot tub cover which you testified about a moment ago Is this what got that started?

A Yes

Q Okay Let's look at the next text message, please, which is Government's 437 Now, this is about a month later This is December the 12th of 2012 Do you see that there, sir?

A Yes

Q And Ms McDonnell is asking you, "Forgot to ask you, were you able to get the model number of the Jacuzzi?"

Were you able in fact to get hold of a new Jacuzzi top from your contact?

A I did. I never found the model number on it, and I had to go drive from Fredericksburg and pick it up and take it to the pool company in Fredericksburg so they can get the measurements and get the accurate ones

Q Did a replacement cover end up coming?

A Yes

Q Let's take a look at 438, please This is your response to Ms McDonnell a couple of days later on the 14th And you say, "Spa cover will be here in three weeks " Is that consistent with your memory?

A Yes

Q Can we take a look at 439, please This is Ms McDonnell's response to you Now, you told us a moment ago that you had a conversation with your brother about him paying for it; is that right?

A Yes

Q Let's take a look at Government's 441 That's what you tell her

A Yes

Q Now, you mentioned some other odd jobs that you did for the McDonnells around their home I think you said you replaced some flooring; is that right?

A Some hardwood flooring

Q Okay Any other jobs of significance that you remember besides that?

A Well, we ended up staining the deck and fixing some lattice on it, and ended up replacing some bushes on the side of the house and putting new rows of bushes in the back, trimming bushes I told her, at the time I told her we were really busy, Jonnie was aerating and seeding his lawn, you know, it is a large lawn, and she asked could we do theirs And I said, "Okay " So we ended up getting all the leaves up, aerating it, bringing the machine over, aerating it, seeding it We fixed a couple of the sprinkler heads, let's see, stained the deck

Q You are saying "we" when you describe this How big of a team of workers do you have out there?

A Well, when we done aerating and seed, there was four people It took us a good part of the day

Q Are you yourself actually out there working, too?

A Yes

Q And what about the staining the deck and replacing the hardwood floors, ballpark, how many people are we talking about?

A Well, there was two people the first day and three people the second day and we were there all day because it was getting cold and we wanted to finish it up.

Q Over the course of time that you are doing these things for the McDonnells, did Ms McDonnell ever say anything to you about offering to pay for any of it?

A She offered to pay several times

Q She did?

A She did.

Q Before the investigation in this case became public, did she ever ask for an invoice?

A Before that, no.

Q Before the investigation ever became public, did

Ms McDonnell ever ask you how much anything cost?

A No

Q Before the investigation became public, did Ms McDonnell ever actually pay for anything?

A No

Q Approximately how many times -- withdrawn. On approximately how many different occasions would you say you went over to the McDonnells' home in Wyndham to make repairs? How many times did you all go over there?

A Ten to twelve times

Q Let's take a look now at what's in evidence as Government's 463 The date on this one is January 19th of 2013 And if you see there, about three lines in, she is inquiring whether any of your days next week might work for meeting out at Wyndham. Was this an example of another occasion when you went out there to do some work?

A Yes

Q I'm sorry?

A Yes

Q Okay Let's take a look at Government's 473 in evidence, please This is five days later on January 24th of 2013, and she is asking about if you can help out with the heat and furnace unit in the garage The e-mail goes on Do you recall if you in fact do some work on their HVAC?

A Yes, replaced all the filters in the house, but they didn't know anything around the Richmond area, they said, that worked on it, so I called the company I use, and they came down and it ended up being the internal filter in there. He ordered a new one, I picked it up from him in Fredericksburg, and my little brother and I put it in.

Q What's your little brother's name?

A Deanie

Q Dean?

A Dean Excuse me, I call him Deanie

Q Can we take a look at the last text message, which is Government's 491, please Now we are into February of 2013 This is February 19th. And in this one, Ms McDonnell references a granite guy Do you recall what that was about?

A Yes She had a crack in some granite, and she asked me, you know, did we know anybody And I have a guy I use for granite in the Richmond area, and he came over

Q To do some repairs?

A Yes, to get an estimate on if he can fix it, and I think he was looking in the kitchen at the granite

Q We are still at their personal residence in Wyndham; is that right?

A Yes

Q You can take the exhibit down Mr Williams, did you ever have any conversations with Mr McDonnell about any of these repairs?

A Yes, one day they came together

Q And where were you when you had this conversation with Mr McDonnell?

A We were in the garage He was talking about the air-conditioning It wasn't working properly on -- I forgot what floor it was But it was the air-conditioner located in the garage

Q Did you all end up fixing that? Was this the same filter problem you described a few minutes ago?

A Yes That's what was the problem.

Q During that conversation with Mr McDonnell, did he offer to pay for the work?

A No

Q During your conversation with Mr McDonnell, did he ask you how much it cost?

A No

Q Now, after the investigation became public in early spring of 2013, after that point, did you get a request from Ms McDonnell for an invoice?

A Yes

Q What do you recall about that?

A She wanted it on a paper with all the work on it from my company And I said, "Look --" I felt uncomfortable then because I'm not a contractor I work on my own stuff I've built houses and stuff, but it is my personal stuff And I didn't want to get involved with taxes or if you needed any kind of permits for any of the stuff

Q Was there conversation with Ms McDonnell in person or over the phone or do you remember?

A It was in person

Q Did Ms McDonnell say why she wanted a receipt or an invoice?

A She said she wanted -- she needed a record of it

Q Did you in fact provide her with one?

A I did.

Q Let's take a look at Government's 496, please Mr Williams, can you see that okay?

A Yes

Q Is this an e-mail exchange that at least is in part between you and Ms McDonnell with the list of expenditures?

A Yes

Q That you have been discussing?

A Yes

MR. HARBACH: The government offers Government's 496

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Publishing to the jury, what's the date, looking at the bottom e-mail there, Mr Williams? Is the date that you sent this list of expenditures, is that March 4th of 2013?

A Yes

Q And was this what you sent that was in response to Ms McDonnell's prior request?

A Yes

Q Let's take a look at the next page of Government's 496, please Let's blow up the top part for the witness. Did you prepare this document, sir?

A Yes

Q Now, looking at the figures that are on here, for example, staining the deck, you charged $150 of labor and apparently no materials costs Was that the actual cost of the labor that was involved here?

A No

Q How did it compare to what the actual cost of the labor was?

A A third. A third of that

Q Okay And similarly, look at the next-to-the-bottom line, "Repair and replace hardwood flooring " You charged only $50 in labor Was that similarly a fraction of what the actual labor cost was?

A Yes

Q Why did you make the prices so low on this invoice, sir?

A I just made it up in a couple minutes I wanted to get it and get it to her, get it over with.

Q Let's scroll down to the bottom so we can see the total, please $1,685 50; is that right?

A Yes

Q Did Ms McDonnell, after you sent her this invoice, did she send you a check?

A Yes, she did.

Q Did you either cash or deposit it right away?

A No

Q Why not?

A I wasn't going to -- I wasn't even going to cash it I didn't want anything to do with any of this mess So I just left the check in my vehicle

Q Did you eventually either cash or deposit the check?

A Yes

Q Why did you eventually do it?

A I talked to my brother He said, "You might as well go on and cash it You can get some money "

Q Did you have any conversations with Ms McDonnell about whether you should cash or deposit the check?

A I believe she sent me text messages

Q What do you recall the substance of the text message as being?

A Questioning "When are you going to cash the check?"

Q Did you eventually do that?

A I did

Q Do you recall at some point having an encounter with Ms McDonnell in the garage of their home where she gave you something?

A Yes

Q Tell us what you remember about that

A She had, she said it was a couple of dresses in there that she had worn, I believe it was in a box, and she had written a note I believe it was for Jonnie I didn't look at the note, but she said to give them, you know, get them to Rachel so she can maybe auction them off for charity, and say the First Lady wore the dresses

Q Who is Rachel?

A Rachel is my niece

Q Whose daughter?

A Jonnie's daughter

Q Prior to this conversation with Ms McDonnell where she gave you the box, had you heard anything about any of this clothing from anybody?

A No

///

///

Q You mentioned that there was -- your recollection is that there was a note or something, some kind of letter with the box?

A Yes

Q And you said you did not look at it?

A No, I did not

Q How would you describe Ms McDonnell's demeanor when she gave you the box with the note attached?

A She was nervous

Q Did she say anything to you that made you think she was nervous?

A The tone of her voice, and she was talking fast

Q Did she say anything about anything that had happened to her recently?

A I don't -- I don't know

Q Do you recall whether she made any reference to having any contact with law enforcement?

MR HAUSS: Objection

A Oh, yeah

MR HAUSS: Leading

MR BURNHAM: Leading

THE COURT: Overruled

BY MR HARBACH:

Q What do you recall about that, sir?

A I think we were in the living or the foyer or something, and she was upset And she said that she was going to call the FBI agent up and tell him Jonnie is a generous person and they shouldn't be doing this, you know, to him

And I told her, I said, "It doesn't make any sense, you calling up the FBI agent" -- I forgot his name -- "and tell them Jonnie is a good person. It just doesn't make any sense You need to talk your attorney before you talk to, you know, one of the FBI agents about something It just doesn't make any sense "

Q Now, were you aware, at the time of this conversation with Ms McDonnell, that your brother Jonnie had loaned the McDonnells, you know, many thousand dollars of dollars?

MR HAUSS: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled

A Yes

BY MR HARBACH:

Q How did you know about, let's say, the $50,000 loan?

A Jerri Fulkerson called me up on the telephone

Q For what purpose?

A To tell me she was giving the $50,000 loan out to the Governor and his wife

Q Do you have an understanding of why Ms Fulkerson needed to call you about that?

A She calls me for everything because I'm the trustee on Jonnie's trust, on the Starwood Trust for the kids

Q The day that you had this conversation with Ms McDonnell when she mentioned the FBI, did she also mention the $50,000 loan?

A Yes

Q What do you recall her saying about that?

A She was worried about it because they didn't have a contract and stuff And I -- I said, "Well, you know" -- I told her it was a check, and on the check it was written "loan" on it And -- but she was -- you know, because they didn't have a contract with Jonnie or anything, and they were upset over that So -- she was

Q Now, let's go back to the -- the box for a minute What did you do with the box with the note that was with it?

A I took the box and put in my little brother's truck and told him to take it back to Jonnie's and put it on the kitchen counter, because I was going to Fredericksburg at the time --

Q All right

A -- when I left

MR HARBACH: Can I have just a moment, Judge, please

THE COURT: Sure

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Mr Williams, do you recall the -- when Ms McDonnell asked you for the -- the invoice for the stuff -- all the stuff you had done at the McDonnells' house, was that after you had had this conversation with her where she gave you the box?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR HARBACH: No further questions, Your Honor Thank you

THE COURT: All right Cross?

MR HAUSS: Thank you, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR HAUSS:

Q Good afternoon

A Good afternoon

Q So you -- my name is Steve Hauss I'm an attorney for Maureen McDonnell

You did not meet Ms McDonnell until October or November 2012; is that correct?

A Somewhere around there

Q And you had testified that your brother Jonnie was the one who asked you to do some repairs on the McDonnells' home; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And you testified that it was around November 11th, 2012, when you first went over there, correct?

A Yes

Q And when you went to the home the first time, you met with my client, Ms. McDonnell?

A Yes

Q And she pointed out to you the various things that needed to be repaired; is that correct?

A Yes There was a lot -- a lot of things

Q Okay Do you recall at some point after that Ms McDonnell calling you and telling you that a list had been left for you?

A I told her to make a list because it was so many things that needed to be done around there

Q And do you recall that, in fact, she had left a list for you in a black folder by the door?

A It was -- I remember it was in the garage I never looked at it

Q Okay

A I never got to that part

Q Do you recall her telling you that the Governor had written out the items that needed to be worked on for -- on the list that was in the folder?

A I don't recall that But I -- she told me that she was writing stuff -- I told her to make the list She was writing stuff I don't know who wrote it, whether it was the Governor or her So --

Q Do you recall her telling you that she had already marked off the items from the list that had been completed so that you could send her a bill?

A No

Q Okay. And you never looked at the list?

A I never -- no

Q So you don't know if things were marked off or not?

A No

Q Now, you've testified that you went over to do work at the McDonnells approximately 10 to 12 times?

A Yes

Q Okay And every time you met with Maureen McDonnell, she offered to pay; is that correct?

A No

Q Okay

A She offered several times during the time I was there to pay It wasn't every time

Q Do you recall meeting with the prosecutors and the agents in this case in about October of last year?

A Yes

Q Okay Do you recall telling the prosecutors and the agents that every time you met FLOVA, she offered to pay?

A Every time I --

Q You met with Ms McDonnell, she offered to pay?

A It wasn't every time

Q I'm asking do you recall telling that to the prosecutors?

A I don't recall

Q Okay

MR HAUSS: Could we pull up for the witness the 302 dated October 23rd, 2013

Your Honor, if I could approach I have a hard copy I can just show the witness

THE COURT: Go ahead

MR HAUSS: Thank you

BY MR HAUSS:

Q And I'm showing you a hard copy of the interview summary from your October 23rd, 2013, interview with the prosecutors Have you had a chance to read that?

A Yes

Q And does that refresh your recollection reading that?

A It does But I -- I just don't recall every time I'm trying to remember back a couple years I just don't remember every time But she did offer several times I remember that

MR HAUSS: If I may approach again, Your Honor

BY MR HAUSS:

Q Now, you were shown some text messages from the prosecutor, by Mr Harbach, on your direct

MR HAUSS: And if we could pull up Government Exhibit 439 And this is in evidence And if we could blow up the body of the text

BY MR HAUSS:

Q And you testified that this is a text between yourself and Ms McDonnell regarding the spa cover that you just talked about?

A Yes

MR HAUSS: And if we could go now to Government Exhibit 429, also in evidence Sorry 439 Thank you

BY MR HAUSS:

Q And this was Ms McDonnell's response to you; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And she asked, "Do I need to give you a credit card?"

A Yes

MR HAUSS: Now, if you could pull up Government Exhibit 440

BY MR HAUSS:

Q And this is a response from you to Ms McDonnell This is you indicating, "No Jonnie is paying for it"?

A That's correct, because I called Jonnie and asked him

MR HAUSS: And if we could pull up Government Exhibit 441

BY MR HAUSS:

Q And this is Ms McDonnell's response to you; is that correct?

MR DRY: It's not in evidence

A Yes

MR HAUSS: I'm sorry?

MR HARBACH: We don't think it's in evidence

MR HAUSS: 441?

MR HARBACH: No My mistake

BY MR HAUSS:

Q And this, I'm sorry, is Ms McDonnell's response to you; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And she says, "OMG I didn't expect him to do that " That's correct?

A Yes

Q Now, in the end, Ms McDonnell, in fact, paid you for the work you did at the house, correct?

A Yes

Q You've also indicated to the prosecutors that she paid the plumber and the air conditioning contractors directly; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Now, you testified that Ms McDonnell did not request an invoice until the investigation became public, correct?

A That's correct

Q Okay Now, you could have sent her an invoice before that, couldn't you have?

A Well, I was doing very small things Sometimes I was there a couple hours Sometimes it was four or five And it was just too many little things I just waited until the end to, you know, put everything on there So --

Q Ms McDonnell never told you not to send her an invoice; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q And Mr McDonnell never told you not to send an invoice, correct?

A That's correct

Q Now, you also indicated that she never asked you what the price was; is that correct?

A She did not

Q Okay And you could have told her the price She never told you not to tell her the price, correct?

A That's correct But never asked So --

Q So it was your choice not to send her an invoice and not to give her the price?

A Yes

Q Now, you testified that it was only after the investigation became public that she asked for an invoice What do you mean when you say "the investigation became public"?

A When it hit the newspapers

Q Okay

MR HAUSS: So could we pull up Government Exhibit 496, which is in evidence

BY MR HAUSS:

Q Now, this is when you sent the invoice to Ms McDonnell, correct?

A Yes

Q And the date on here is March 4th, 2013?

A Yes

Q Now, prior to this, Ms McDonnell had asked you for the invoice, correct? You're saying that's in response to her because you had previously asked her for -- I'm sorry -- she had previously asked you for the invoice?

A Can you -- I'm not sure what you're trying to --

Q Sure She had asked you, prior to you sending this, Ms McDonnell had asked you for an invoice?

Let me ask you this Do you recall telling the prosecutors that Ms McDonnell asked you at least three times, both in person and over the phone, for an invoice before --

A Oh, yes

Q -- you sent this?

A Yes

Q And that was prior to this date, March 4th, 2013?

A Yeah I'm not sure

Q Now, you said that your first meeting with her was on November 11th, 2012, correct?

A Yes

Q And this invoice was sent on March 4th So that's about four months later?

A Yes

Q Now, Ms McDonnell asked you for an invoice from a business, correct?

A Yes

Q She didn't want one from you personally?

A Yes

Q But you did not give her an invoice from a business, did you?

A No

Q And the reason for that was because you didn't have a contractor permit, correct?

A I don't have a contractor's license And I have several LLCs, and I didn't want any of that into my -- my personal stuff

Q Okay So during your direct examination, you said that you charged less than the cost of the labor and the actual work, correct?

A I just wanted it over with

Q Okay You're not a professional contractor, correct?

A No

Q Okay And you don't have a business or construction license?

MR. HARBACH: Objection. Relevance

A No.

THE COURT: He's already answered this

BY MR HAUSS:

Q Is it correct that you generally only do jobs for family and friends?

A Yes

MR HAUSS: And could we show, just for the witness, this is not in the evidence, RM-146-0029 I'm sorry RM-1546-0029 And if you could blow it up for the witness

BY MR HAUSS:

Q So, Mr Williams, this is a text message sent from Ms McDonnell to you on November 17th, 2012; is that correct?

A Yes

MR HAUSS: And, Your Honor, we would offer RM-1546-0029

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR HAUSS:

Q And, Mr Williams, this is a text message where Ms McDonnell invited you and your brother to a Christmas party; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Now, you testified that at some point Ms McDonnell gave you a box; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And that was in the garage of the McDonnells' home?

A Yes

Q Okay Do you remember what the date was when she did that?

A No

Q Do you recall if it was in March 2013 versus February?

A I believe it was -- it was in 2013

Q Okay

A March That sounds about right

MR HAUSS: Could we --

A I'm not sure of the exact date I don't know

BY MR HAUSS:

Q Sure Now, there was no one else there that day but you and Ms McDonnell, correct?

A That's not true

Q There was someone else there?

A Several other people there

Q Who else was there?

A My little brother was there and a helper Because I put the dress in his truck

Q And did you have an interview with the prosecutors and the police in this case just a month ago, on July 8th, 2014?

A Yes

Q Okay Do you recall telling the prosecutors that you did not recall anyone else being present at the time?

A It was just her and I in the garage They were outside

Q Okay. So --

A But, you know

Q Okay Just -- so to clarify, it was just -- in the garage where she gave you the box, it was just you and Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Okay And you testified that you never looked in the box?

A I did not

Q You never saw what was inside of the box?

A No

Q You never saw the note that accompanied the box?

A No It was for Jonnie I wasn't going to read it

Q Now, you testified on direct that when she gave you the box, Ms McDonnell said some things about the loan from Mr -- from your brother Jonnie; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Do you remember that when you met with the prosecutors last month you told them, at first, that Ms McDonnell never said anything about the loan when she delivered the box to you?

A That was a -- I believe that was a different day on that I'm not sure if it was the same day When the loan come up and when the dresses, I think it might have been a different day

Q So you're not sure, when Ms McDonnell gave you the box, if that was the time she talked about a loan?

A It was approximately the time But I talked to her several times I believe the $50,000 check was a different time or a different day than that

Q Okay So sitting here today, you're not sure if when she talked about the loan and when she gave you the box were at the same time? You're not sure?

A That's true

Q Okay And you also testified on direct that when she gave you the box, Ms McDonnell referred to Rachel, your niece?

A Yes

Q And that she said that the dresses were for Rachel?

A She said -- well, she said to give them back to Jonnie, to give them to Rachel and she could auction them off for charity or something, say the First Lady wore them So --

Q Okay Do you recall that when you met with the prosecutors last month, that what you said to them was that you learned the box contained clothing belonging to Rachel and you recall thinking to yourself why would Ms McDonnell have Rachel's clothing?

A I didn't have a clue, because I hadn't heard nothing about these dresses But she told me there were dresses in there

Q Is it fair to say you have no idea if Ms McDonnell ever met your niece Rachel? Is that fair?

A I don't have a clue Yeah

MR HAUSS: One moment, Your Honor

Thank you Nothing further, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

Anything from Mr McDonnell?

MR BURNHAM: No, Your Honor We're good

THE COURT: All right Any redirect?

MR HARBACH: Yes, please, Judge

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR HARBACH:

Q Mr Williams, you were asked a moment ago about a Christmas party that Ms McDonnell invited you to go to
Did you go to the party, sir?

A No

Q You testified on cross-examination that -- and I believe on direct also, that you mainly did contractor work and the like for friends; is that right?

A Yes That's -- it's mainly relatives or friends.

Q Okay At the time that you first went over to Mr and Ms McDonnell's residence, were they personal friends of yours?

A No

Q Why did you do the work for them?

A Because Jonnie asked me to stop by there

MR HARBACH: Nothing else, Your Honor Thank you

THE COURT: All right
Thank you, sir You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: All right We're going to take the afternoon break It will be 15 minutes

(The jury left the courtroom)

MR BROWNLEE: Judge, could we steal your ear just for a second

THE COURT: Sure

(At Bench)

MR DRY: This last witness, who is also on the list, we didn't give them So they're not prepared to cross And we have additional witnesses I think our stuff is moving quicker than maybe anticipating, but -- no one's fault We're just moving quicker We're going to be done with our case, most likely, by Thursday We did not give them additional names today so they are, understandably, not prepared to cross

If the Court is willing to take a break at this point

THE COURT: Well, we'll get through what we have and then go -- we'll just have to break early

MR DRY: Do you want to break now or -- the next witness is the one that they are not prepared to cross on We do have a witness ready to go We have a witness here ready to go, but they are not prepared to cross that witness because we didn't give that name to them before We're going to give them all of our remaining witnesses' names so that this doesn't happen again

THE COURT: Oh, jeez, man We don't have --

MR DRY: We can do the direct and the --

THE COURT: All right We'll do the direct, and then we'll give you all overnight to --

MR BROWNLEE: Okay Thank you.

MR DRY: Does that make sense? The direct might take a while So I don't think we're going to break too early

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you, Judge

(Recess taken from 4:07 p m until 4:25 p m.)

(The jury entered the courtroom)

THE COURT: Call your next witness, please

MR FAULCONER: Yes, Your Honor The United States calls William Sessoms

WILLIAM SESSOMS, JR ,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

MR FAULCONER: May I, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Go ahead

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Good afternoon

A Good afternoon

Q Could you please state your name, and spell your last for the court reporter

A William D Sessoms, Jr S-E-S-S-O-M-S

Q And what is your -- what are your current occupations?

A I am President of Towne Financial Services Group and Mayor of the City of Virginia Beach

Q And how long have you been the Mayor of Virginia Beach?

A Six years

Q And Towne Financial Services Group, is that what you said?

A Correct

Q Is that part of TowneBank?

A Yes, it is

Q How long have you been with TowneBank?

A I've been with TowneBank eight years

Q And how long in the current position that you have?

A Approaching three

Q Now, where is the TowneBank location that you work at?

A In Virginia Beach, and it's 622nd Street

Q And TowneBank, does it offer mortgages to borrowers?

A Yes, it does

Q Could you move the microphone just a little closer to you?

A I'd be glad to

Q Thanks Now, you said that TowneBank offers mortgages, right?

A Correct

Q And in the roles that you've served in, have you overseen parts of that mortgage process?

A Yes

Q And are you familiar with the types of documents that you all have?

A Yes

Q Now, you said that TowneBank offers mortgages Are those sort of the typical 30-year mortgages or are they usually different types of mortgages?

A No, they are not They are usually short term In the commercial bank, we have mortgages that might have a 30-year amortization, but could have anywhere from a one year to five year, seven year type call

Q And are those sometimes interest-only loans?

A Yes Sometimes

Q Now, do you also offer what's called a -- I think the term is HELOC?

A Yes

Q Could you explain what a HELOC is?

A It's a home equity loan

Q And does HELOC stand for Home Equity Line of Credit?

A Yes, it does

Q And could you explain, just briefly, what that is?

A If someone has a residence and there's equity in their home, they can establish a line of credit to use that equity if and when they want to and be available to them

Q All right Well, I'd like to transition to some of your interactions with the McDonnells

A Okay

Q Can you explain -- have you met Mr McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Could you explain how you met Mr McDonnell?

A I -- I met Mr McDonnell in the late '80s I had just run on the City Council seat in Virginia Beach, and he was just starting his political career, running for the House of Delegates, and ended up supporting him and working very hard for him

Q Would you consider him a friend?

A Yes

Q And in the years that you've known him, have you socialized with him and Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q All right Well, I'd like to focus in on your interactions with them as President of TowneBank

A Okay

Q And can you tell us how -- did you end up doing some loans with them?

A Yes, I did

Q Can you tell us how it first came about that you were doing some loan transactions with Mr McDonnell?

A This was a number of years ago I believe it was 2005 and 2006, if my memory is correct And they were purchasing homes down at Sandbrige, and I had the opportunity to offer them a mortgage loan on -- on one of those and I believe a HELOC on another

Q And when you say "they were purchasing properties," did you actually talk to Mr McDonnell about these loans?

A Yes.

Q And do you know who "they" were in that conversation?

A He, his wife, and his sister

Q And his wife and his sister have the same name, right?

A Correct

Q Now, did he tell you how he was planning to buy the properties? Are these -- let me clarify that a little bit

Did he tell you how he was planning on running the properties or what type of properties these were going to be?

A Yeah These would be rental properties and investment properties

Q And did he tell you whether there was any sort of entity that was going to be affiliated with running the properties?

A Not that I recall

Q Do you recall any conversation at any point about any sort of partnership or entity with him and his sister?

A Down the road, I believe there was one established Yes

Q But in terms of your interactions as TowneBank, did you ever actually do any business with that entity or was it always just with the individuals?

A As I recall, the key reason I was making these loans were the reason for their personal income and assets that the three of them held I said, at one point, if they were going to form a partnership or something along those lines, however they wanted to do it would be fine as long as they understood they would be personally guaranteeing the debt

Q Got it So any business you did with them was a personal guarantee?

A Correct

Q All right Well, you said that there were two loans Do you remember, were there two properties as well?

A Correct

Q And I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 41

MR FAULCONER: And if we could just zoom out on sort of the top third of that there

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Is this a document called a "Disbursement Request and Authorization"?

A Yes, it is

Q And is this one of the standard documents that will be part of a TowneBank loan package?

A Yes, it is

Q I'm sorry If you could just make sure to pull the microphone over

A I picked up on that Got it

Q And does this appear to be for the first of the two loans that you did with Mr McDonnell and his sister?

A I would believe so If my recollection, another loan was made in 2006 So -- this is in 2005 So that's -- I believe this was the first one

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 41 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Mr Sessoms, what is the date under "Loan Date" on this document?

A September 23rd, 2005

Q And is that consistent with your recollection of when the first loan was?

A Yes

Q And what's the dollar amount on this loan?

A $249,990

Q And is that consistent with your recollection of what the loan amount was?

A Yes

Q Now, earlier you said that you had both mortgages and HELOCs Do you remember whether this was a mortgage or a home equity line of credit?

A I -- my recollection, this is a HELOC

Q And there under borrower, could you tell us what names are listed under borrower?

A "Robert F McDonnell Maureen C McDonnell "

Q And do you recall whether, when it says "Maureen C McDonnell," is that the wife or the sister?

A I don't recall

Q Well, in terms of whether you recall the initials or not, do you recall whether the loan that you did was with the wife and Mr McDonnell or with the sister and Mr McDonnell?

A The sister

Q Okay Now, when it says there "Borrower: Robert F McDonnell, Maureen C McDonnell," does that -- can you tell, from looking at that, whether it was a personal guarantee or a business guarantee?

A This was a personal loan So that would result as being a personal guarantee

Q All right So there's no MoBo or anything --

A No

Q -- any entity like that on the paperwork?

A No

Q All right I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 42 Zooming in on the top third or so there, is this a settlement statement that appears to be for that same loan?

A I'm looking for the date

Q Over in the sort of right, middle portion, there's a box that says "Settlement Date " Is that the same date?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 42 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, just looking at the -- where it says "Name and Address of Borrower," again, what are the names that are listed there?

A "Robert F McDonnell" and "Maureen C McDonnell "

Q And that address that's listed on Sandfiddler Road, is that consistent with where you understood the properties to be?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you now what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 43 Zooming in on that top portion there, is this another "Disbursement Request and Authorization"?

A Yes, it is

Q And does this appear to be for the other loan?

A Yes, it does

Q And what's the loan date on this?

A 3/1/2006 March 1st, 2006

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 43 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, what's the dollar amount listed on this loan?

A $722,550

Q And under "Borrower," again, who's listed on this document as the borrower?

A "Robert F McDonnell" and "Maureen C McDonnell "

Q Is there anything about MoBo Realty on this document?

A No, there's not

Q All right Now, do you recall what type of loan this was in terms of when you were earlier talking about 30-year mortgages versus more short-term mortgages?

A This would have a long-term amortization, which could be a 20- to 30-year mortgage -- I don't recollect the term -- with a call of a number of years less than that, 20 to 30 years Probably five years, I believe.

Q Okay

A I'd have to look at it closer

Q Got it And we may have some documents later on that

A Okay

Q But do you recall whether or not, during the initial period of this loan, whether principal was being repaid or whether it was interest only?

A I believe -- we started with interest only, as I recall

Q Now, I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 44 And is this a settlement statement?

A Yes, it is

Q And the date there, sort of in the middle, right-hand portion, under "Settlement Date," is that the same date --

A Yes, it is

Q -- as the document we were just looking at?

A Yes, it is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 44 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Mr Sessoms, do you recall that the first settlement statement we were looking at says 3113 Sandfiddler Am I right about that?

A Yes, sir

Q Okay And this one is 3112; is that right?

A Yes

Q And do you recall the properties being relatively close in proximity to each other?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: Now, if we could go back briefly to Exhibit 43 I apologize, Mr Starnes

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q The dollar amount on that one is what, again?

A $722,550

Q And do you recall the combined loan exposure being somewhere around a million dollars?

A Yes, I do

Q Now --

MR FAULCONER: We can take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, at the time that you extended these loans, you said you had conversations with Mr McDonnell about them Do you recall what, if anything, he told you about how he intended to pay for the mortgages?

A Well, the -- the hope is, you know, the rental income would be a big part of paying it At the same time, it was investment property And there was no guarantee that that would be available But the vast majority should be paid by the rental income generated by the property

Q And do you recall him telling you; that he believed that there would be sufficient income to cover the mortgages?

A I don't recall that specifically, but that, I believe, was the intent

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, I'd like to hand the witness a document for purposes of refreshing his recollection

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And, sir, if you could just take a look at the bottom of Page 24, on to the top of Page 25 Starting on Page 24, line 19 And if you could read through the bottom of that page on 24

A Start at line 19?

Q Yes Just read it to yourself Don't read it out loud

A Oh, okay

Q Starting on line 19 on Page 24, down to the bottom, and then on to the next page, down to line 24 on the next page

Have you gotten a chance to read that?

A Yes, uh-huh

Q All right Does that refresh your recollection about whether or not -- about whether or not the subject of the rentals covering the mortgage payments came up in your conversation with -- with the Governor?

A Correct

Q And what was the conversation?

A If I read through the whole thing, it's basically what I just said But I do say that it's expected that the rents will cover the debt service.

Q And that was based on what Mr Mr. McDonnell told you?

A Yes

Q Now, I'd like to talk about how things sort of unfolded with these loans as time went along I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 518 And zooming in on sort of top portion of this, is this a "TowneBank Loan Transaction History"?

A Yes, it is

Q And is this for the smaller of the two loans?

A Yes, it is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 518 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, I see there at the top, it starts with January 1st, 2009 Am I correct that the loan actually started a number of years earlier, back in '05, right?

A Correct

Q So is this a transaction history that just goes from the beginning of '09 until sometime in 2013?

A I just see the two dates, '09 But I'm assuming that's correct

MR FAULCONER: Now, if we could -- okay Now, if we could zoom back out, Mr Starnes I apologize

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Mayor Sessoms, have you had a chance to review this document before coming in to testify?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: And if we could turn to the second page of this document, and if we could zoom in on the entry on 4/24/2009

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Could you tell us what's indicated there on 4/24/2009?

A A late fee of $28 22

Q And, Mayor Sessoms, could you tell us, is that the only late fee that's listed in this document?

A No, it's not

Q Have you had an opportunity to count how many late fees are shown on this document from 2009 to 2013?

A I did

Q Do you recall how many there are?

A I don't

Q All right Let me give you a moment, and I can hand you a paper copy

MR FAULCONER: And for the record, Your Honor, this is a paper copy of Exhibit 518

THE COURT: All right

THE WITNESS: Thank you

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Mayor Sessoms, if you could start with the first page of this document And I don't -- do you see any late fees on the first page?

A I do not

Q All right On the second page, can you tell us how many late fees you see on the second page of this document?

A Two

Q And turning to the third page, can you tell us how many late fees are indicated on the third page?

A One

Q So that -- so we're up to three now Turning to the fourth page, could you tell us how many additional ones are on the fourth page?

A One

Q All right So that's up to four Turning to the fifth page, how many are located on that one?

A Two

Q All right Is that six now? Am I right? I shouldn't do math in public, but is that right?

A Yeah

Q Now, on to the sixth page, how many late fees are indicated on the sixth page?

A One

Q So that being seven Turning on to the seventh page, are there any located on that seventh page?

A No

Q Turning to the eight -- eighth page, am I correct that there are two located on that page?

A Yes

Q All right So that being up to nine Turning to Page 9, am I correct that there is a tenth late fee on Page 9?

A Yes

Q Turning to Page 10, am I correct that there are no late fees on Page 10?

MR BROWNLEE: We don't object if Mr Faulconer wants to give the final number, and we'll agree with it

THE COURT: He said he didn't remember the final number So we have to do this

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Okay So turning to Page 10, are there any late fees on that page?

A No

Q Turning to Page 11, am I correct that there is an 11th and a 12th late fee on that page?

A Correct

Q Turning to Page 12?

A Two of them

Q So that would be up to 14 Am I right?

A Correct

Q Okay And then on to Page 13, how many late fees there? Are there two?

A Yes, two

Q All right So we're up to 16 Turning to Page 14, how many are on that page?

A Two

Q I'm sorry How many is that?

A Two

Q All right So we're up to 16 How many on Page 15?

A I don't see any

Q Okay On to Page 16?

A Don't see any

Q On to Page 17?

A Do not see any

Q All right Now, regardless of whether or not you and I just doing that math was correct, are all the late fees from that time period located on that document?

A Yes

Q And do you recall there being late fees, at times, on this loan?

A Yes, I do

Q All right I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 519 And zooming in on the top, is this a loan transaction history for the other larger one of the loans?

A Yes, it is

Q Now, without --

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 519 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And, Mayor Sessoms, have you had a chance, at some point, to look over this document?

A Yes, I have

Q And without asking you to, necessarily, count this one up, does it seem about accurate that there are somewhere in the range of 29 late fees on this document?

A Yes

Q And is that consistent with your recollection of how this loan unfolded over time?

A Yes

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: We can take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right So we've talked a little bit about late fees Can you tell us whether you ever discussed those late fees with Mr McDonnell?

A What I discussed would be late payments

Q Probably scoot back from the microphone just a little bit

A And just acknowledging that we just don't want the loan to go 30 days past due

These payments, the late payment was at 15 days, as I recall But that would be the extent of just saying we cannot let those payments go up to 30 days past due

Q All right Just lean back just a little bit Sorry

Now, can you explain what you mean by the late fee coming at 15 days and not wanting it to go to 30 days? What would happen at 30 days?

A We consider a loan reportable to the Board when it goes 30 days past due

Q Got it

A And that's something we always try to avoid We want to make sure all the payments are in prior to that date

Q And at times during the course of these loans, in that 15- to 30-day period, or at least between the late fee and whenever the 30 days would come, would you have conversations with Mr McDonnell about them?

A Yes

Q And would you tell him that -- what would happen if it went 30 days overdue?

A Yes

Q And what would usually happen at that point?

A If it goes to the Board, in other words, it hits a Board report, and that would have an impact on your credit

Q And about how many of these conversations would you say you had with Mr McDonnell?

A I don't recall off the top of my head

Is it somewhere in here?

Q Well, let me ask you this way Was it more than just two or three?

A I would say more than two or three Yes

Q Now, as time went on, over the course of these loans, did you also have conversations with Mr McDonnell about him trying to get more permanent financing for these properties?

A Yes, I did

Q And could you tell us what happened in those conversations?

A Well, as you know, interest rates were extremely low during this time period, and he wanted to take advantage of getting the lowest interest rate and, again, fixed for a longer term

As I shared with you, we have an amortization that might be long, but the loan would be callable in a shorter term period It was his desire to get a long-term rate of 20 to 30 years at a fixed rate for that term, also with the market being, you know, low interest rates like they were

Q And about how often do you think you had conversations with him, in terms of how often annually, about potentially getting more permanent financing?

A I'd say we probably had that annually

Q And was that from the time that the loan started in '05 on through until at least 2012?

A I would say that's fair Because he always was trying to get a long-term interest rate, you know, especially with the rates being low, yes

Q Now, can you recall what he told you about whether or not he was able to get, at least from 2005 to 2011, whether he was actually able to get that refinancing?

A He was having issues getting refinanced because the real estate market had turned, and as such, the values of the properties had decreased and that would result in not being an acceptable loan to value on trying to obtain the permanent financing

Q Now, what about any conversations about something we had talk about earlier, about whether or not the rentals were covering the mortgage payments? Did you have conversations with Mr McDonnell about that?

A Yes

Q And can you tell us what you recall about whether or not the rental payments were covering the mortgage payments?

A It -- they were not covering it, and they were using their personal assets to cover the debt service

Q And do you recall about how much there was in a gap?

A I do not

Q Now, I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 227 Zooming in on the top there, is this a document called a "Change in Terms Agreement"?

A Yes, it is

Q And is it dated August 30th of 2011?

A Yes, it is

Q And does this pertain to the larger of the two loans we've been discussing?

A Yes, it does

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 237 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Mayor Sessoms, do you recall -- this is, I guess -- am I correct that this is about five years after the loan had started in 2006?

A That would be correct

Q Do you recall the terms in the loan changing in 2011?

A I -- I do

Q Looking at this document where it says "Description of Change in Terms," what does it say the change in terms is?

A It says, "Description of Change in Terms " Is that what you're looking at?

Q Yes Could you just read what it says there?

A "Change payments from interest only to principal and interest payments; fixed rate of 2 75 will expire on September 28, 2012 "

Q All right So before this time, they had just been interest payments; is that right?

A Correct

Q And then after this time, what was going to change?

A We would be getting a principal payment as well as interest In other words, we would start collecting principal The loan had been extended for five years, which is about right on an interest only, and then we had to start terming it out

Q Now, where it says "fixed rate of 2 75 percent will expire on September 28, 2012," what does that mean in terms of that only being about a year from when this document is dated?

A Well, two things First of all, the rent -- the interest rate is lowest -- lower because it's only a one-year commitment And then secondly, the intent of trying to find permanent financing

Q So at this time, what was going to happen about a year from then, or so?

A We'd have the option to reprice the loan, renew the loan or call the loan

Q And is it typical for you, when you have situations like this, to do sort of an annual review after that year is up?

A Absolutely

Q And based on your review of the bank files from TowneBank on these loans, was there a renewal process the following year?

A Yes

Q As part of that, do you request a personal financial statement?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification -- sorry Real quick

Could you tell us what it means to call a loan? You used that terminology.

A We have the ability to demand payment for the loan to be paid in full.

Q Got it And does that allow you, then, to go after somebody's assets if they say no?

A Yes

Q Now, I'd like to go back to showing you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 416 And is this a personal financial statement -- if we could scroll up to include the top portion

Is this a personal financial statement that was located in the TowneBank file for these loans?

A Yes, it is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 416 into evidence

THE COURT: It'll be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Mayor Sessoms, looking at this page,

I see there that it says "TowneBank" at the top, but it says "Heritage Bank" on the actual top of the document
A Correct
Q Do you accept personal financial statements that are filled out on a different bank's form, at times?
A Yes
Q And did you do that in this case?
A Yes
Q All right Looking at this document, can you tell us whose handwriting is on that first page?
A It's Mr McDonnell's
MR FAULCONER: And if we could zoom out
BY MR FAULCONER:
Q Zooming in on the numbers that are there towards the bottom, is that also Mr McDonnell's handwriting?
A Yes, it is
Q All right
MR FAULCONER: Turning to the second page
BY MR FAULCONER:
Q Have you had a chance to review this second page as well?
A At some point, yes
Q And do you recognize the handwriting on it?
A Yes
Q Whose is it?

A Mr McDonnell's

Q All right Turning to the third page, do you recognize the handwriting on this page?

A Mr McDonnell's

Q Turning to the fourth page, do you recognize the handwriting on the fourth page?

A Mr McDonnell's

Q Now, turning back to Page 1 of this document, zooming in on the box on the lower right-hand corner, do you see there where it says $2,075,000 under "Total Liabilities"?

A Yes, I do

Q Sir, is there anything listed on this document under "Other Loans Payable"?

A No, there's not

Q Where it says "Loans on Life Insurance," am I correct that there's about $4,000 listed there?

A Correct

Q "Taxes Due, Income," there's nothing listed, right?

A Correct

Q How much is listed under "Credit Card or Accounts Payable"?

A 10,000

Q Is there anything listed under "Liabilities of Proprietorships"?

A No, there's not

Q Is there anything listed under "Liabilities of Partnerships or Joint Ventures"?

A No

Q Is there a number there of about $2,061,000 for loans on wholly owned real estate

A Yes, there is

MR FAULCONER: If we could zoom back out

A Excuse me?

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Sorry I'm just asking Mr Starnes to zoom back out

Now, Mayor Sessoms, in the chance that you've had to review this document, have you looked at it to see whether or not there's anything about any loans from Jonnie Williams or Starwood Trust on this document?

A I have looked at that

Q And is there any reference to any loan from Jonnie Williams or Starwood Trust on this document?

A No, there's not

Q All right Now, I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 373 Mr Sessoms, does this appear to be a version of that same document with the same handwriting, but just a different fax header on it?

A Yes, sir

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit

373 into evidence It's been stipulated as a business record

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR FAULCONER: Now, if we could take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 106 Mr Sessoms, is that another Heritage Bank personal financial statement?

A Yes, it is

Q Now, to be clear, was this one in your TowneBank files?

A I don't see where it says TowneBank anywhere on it

Q Got it But I --

MR. FAULCONER: Your Honor, I'm simply going to ask him about recognizing handwriting It's a stipulated business record

THE COURT: All right

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Mr Sessoms, on this first page of this document, do you recognize the handwriting?

A Yes, I do

Q Whose handwriting it is?

A Mr McDonnell's

MR FAULCONER: If we could zoom back out And if we could just flip through the second page

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Is that also Mr McDonnell's handwriting?

A Yes

Q The third page, is that Mr McDonnell's handwriting?

A Yes

Q And the fourth page --

A Yes

Q -- is that also his handwriting?

Sorry Was that a yes?

A Yes

Q And then on the fifth page, is that also Mr. McDonnell's handwriting?

A Yes

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: We can take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 417

MR FAULCONER: All right And zooming in -- yes

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, is this a credit report for Mr McDonnell?

A Yes, it is

Q And where you see there under "User ID," do you recognize who that indicates is the user ID?

A Yes, I do

Q And is that -- who does it indicate?

A Denise Stolle She was a loan administrative person at the bank

MR. FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 417 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Mr Sessoms, before coming in to testify, have you had a chance to review this document?

A Yes, I have

Q And on this document, are there any loans from Jonnie Williams or Starwood Trust listed?

A No

Q Now --

MR FAULCONER: We can take that down

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, to be clear, Mr Sessoms, you've been in banking for a while, are personal undocumented loans typically put on credit reports?

A Yes -- oh, no Not on credit reports, no

Q So how do you find out about them if there is an undocumented loan?

A On a financial statement

Q Now, was the loan that was being reviewed in 2012 ultimately renewed?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 423 Zooming in on the top half of this, is this the document that shows that loan being renewed?

A Yes, it does

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 423 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Mayor Sessoms, this says, "Loan Change Authorization " From looking at the loan amount on this document, can you tell whether this was the larger or the smaller of the two loans?

A It's the large loan And you can see where the principal has been reduced

Q Got it So over the course of the -- I guess how long is it, about six years now, since the 2006 origination?

A Yes

Q About how much had been paid down in principal?

A 15,000

Q And, Mayor Sessoms, at any time before this loan change was finalized, whether it was on the phone or in person, did you have any conversations with Mr McDonnell in which he told you anything about loans from Jonnie Williams or Starwood Trust?

A No

MR FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR FAULCONER: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: Thank you

All right Ladies and gentlemen, we're going to have to stop a little early today I'm sorry about that, but it couldn't be helped

I have some instructions that I'm going to give you, repeating what I told you earlier, but simply for emphasis And as I said, I'm simply repeating what I told you earlier, but I want you to listen to me

I instruct you that during the trial, you are not to discuss the case with anyone or permit anyone to discuss it with you Until you retire to the jury room at the end of the case to deliberate on your verdict, you simply are not to talk about this case And that means between yourselves as well as outsiders It also means you are not to discuss what goes on in the jury room with anyone outside

Second, do not read or listen to anyone or anything touching on this case in any way If anyone should try to talk to you about it, bring it to the Court's attention promptly

Third, do not try to do any research or make any investigation about the case on your own Everything that you will learn about this case should come here in open court And finally, do not form any opinion until all of the evidence is in Keep an open mind until you start your deliberations at the end of the case

So jealously guard your -- the juror's prerogative and privacy in this matter Do not discuss this case with anyone You will find that we are absolutely serious about this

And the reason for this should be clear We want a fair trial We want a fair trial for these defendants as well as the government A fair trial And they can only get a fair trial from a jury that's unbiased and impartial and follows the instructions of the Court

So everybody understand it? You hear it? All right Great

Now, we will see you tomorrow -- let me give you a time Again, it will be 9:45 So we will see you in the morning You all take care, and we will see you at 9:45 sharp

(The trial adjourned at 5:03 p m)

THE CLERK: Day thirteen, Case Number 3:14CR12: United States of America versus Robert F McDonnell and Maureen G. McDonnell The government is represented by Michael Dry, David Harbach, Jessica Aber, and Ryan Faulconer Robert F. McDonnell is represented by John Brownlee, Henry Asbill, Daniel Small, James Burnham, and Christopher Iaquinto Maureen G. McDonnell is represented by Heather Martin, William Burck, Stephen Hauss, and Daniel Koffmann. Are counsel ready to proceed?

MR. DRY: The United States is ready to proceed

MR. ASBILL: Mr McDonnell is ready, Your Honor

MR BURCK: Maureen McDonnell is ready.

THE COURT: I understand you had some preliminary issues

MR. ASBILL: The parties are trying to figure out scheduling for this week and the beginning of next week. We subpoenaed a lot of witnesses for the 18th anticipating the government's case would go through the end of this week, and we understood that Friday afternoon was going to be off for other matters There is the motion hearing pursuant to the motion that the Washington Post has filed So we are really trying to figure out Thursday and Friday of this week and what you want to do, and we are trying to accomodate that I'm not sure of precisely when the Government's case is going to end

MR DRY: The government can't say when its case is going to end precisely Based on the pace, our summary witness may be on as early as this afternoon We don't know what the length of cross is, but we anticipate that we will be resting sometime tomorrow

THE COURT: All right This is what I would envision If we finish with the government's case tomorrow, then I would give the jury Friday off while we deal with your end-of-government-case motions Friday morning And then, of course, we have the media issue at noon on Friday And then Monday we would get started with your case

MR ASBILL: That's fine, sir

THE COURT: Okay?

MR ASBILL: That's fine

THE COURT: So we may have some, you know, some down time tomorrow if we finish early tomorrow, but it can't be helped.

MR. ASBILL: Thank you, sir

MR DRY: Thank you, sir

THE COURT: All right Bring in the jury

(The jury entered the courtroom.)

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Mr Sessoms, good morning My name is John Brownlee I represent Bob McDonnell, and I have some questions for you this morning First of all, you had testified yesterday you are the President of TowneBank; is that correct?

A President of Towne Financial Services Group. I was President of Townebank-Virginia Beach a few years ago

Q Okay And is TowneBank Financial Services, is the bank part of that?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, it is my understanding that you have met with the government twice on both August 8th, 2013, and again on July 1st, 2014; does that sound about right?

A It does

Q You have also then testified in the grand jury, I believe, on November 6th, 2013; is that correct?

A That sounds right

Q Sir, the document at issue in this case as it pertains to TowneBank is Government Exhibit 416. Could we pull that up? If you could blow up the top part of that Now, Mr Sessoms, this is in evidence This is a personal financial statement that was submitted to your bank, it is actually for a Heritage Bank, but it was submitted to your bank by Robert McDonnell; is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q This is dated April 30th, 2012; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And this is filled out by one person, Robert McDonnell; is that right?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, if you look down, if you scroll down just a bit, there is a block there in the middle It says, "You may apply for credit individually or jointly with another party " Is that correct?

A Yes

Q So the person filling out this form has an option They can go by themselves or jointly; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q And below that is the place where you pick which one And in this case, Mr McDonnell picked Individual Financial Statement Is that correct?

A Yes

Q Below that, it says, it is a little hard to read, but it says, "Does not include jointly-held assets " Is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay Then below that, it says, "If joint, complete the following " And there is an area there below for information, and that is blank in this form; is that correct?

A Yes

Q So from this information, this is an individual personal financial statement, not a joint financial statement; is that right?

A Yes

Q And therefore, it only requires information pertaining to Mr McDonnell and not his wife; is that right?

A Yes

Q Okay We can take down the highlights and just kind of leave up the document

Now, Mr Faulconer asked you at the close of your testimony yesterday whether loans that were provided by Mr Williams were on this form. Do you remember that question?

A Yes, I do

Q And you answered no

A Yes, that's correct

Q Well, I want to talk about those loans in relation to this form. First of all, the first, if we could pull up RM-0896 No, no, keep going Scroll down. There you go

MR BROWNLEE: I believe this is in evidence as a government's exhibit number I'm not sure what the government's exhibit number is

MR. FAULCONER: That's right, Your Honor, at least this page is

MR. BROWNLEE: This is in evidence If we could publish this

THE COURT: All right

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q And this is a check from Starwood Trust to Maureen McDonnell for $50,000 And this, Mr Sessoms, is the loan that Mr Williams gave to Ms McDonnell on --

MR FAULCONER: I object to that The check is made out to Ms McDonnell Mr Brownlee is testifying about who the loan is to

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q This is made out to Ms McDonnell, correct?

A Correct

Q If you look at the deposit slip below it, that's signed by Ms McDonnell; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, Mr McDonnell's name does not appear anywhere on this check; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, could we pull up RM-2058?

MR. BROWNLEE: Court's indulgence for a moment, Your Honor We will do this the old fashioned way

THE COURT: Go ahead

(Document proffered to witness)

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q This is an account showing on May 25th, where there is a deposit of $50,000 Do you see that, sir?

A Yes, I do

Q Whose account is this?

A Maureen G McDonnell's

Q Okay Mr McDonnell's name is not on this anywhere, is it?

A No

Q Okay Now --

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, we move RM-2058 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Now, Mr Sessoms, you testified that the form in question here is a personal financial statement; is that correct?

A Correct

Q So a loan to Ms McDonnell would not need to be on that form, correct?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, if we could pull 416 back up, please If we could go to the bottom right-hand corner, that block Now, Mr Faulconer showed this area to you yesterday in your examination And he asked you about liabilities of partnerships and joint ventures, he asked you about liabilities of proprietorships; do you remember that?

A Yes

Q Now, what he didn't ask you is about liabilities to an LLC, did he?

A No

Q Okay The documents that we just showed you with regard to the check to Maureen McDonnell, her account balance, the deposit slip, when you interviewed with the government three times, did they ever show you those records?

A No, sir, that I recall

Q Okay Now, what is an LLC?

A It is a Limited Liability Company

Q Okay I want to show you what's been previously admitted, RM-0502 This has been admitted, Your Honor This is an Incorporation Certificate of Organization for MoBo Real Estate Partners, LLC Is that correct?

A Yes

Q An LLC is a separate legal entity; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And so it is fair to say that debts of a separate legal entity do not need to be on a personal individual financial statement

MR. FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay Well, would a debt of an LLC need to be on the debt of a personal financial statement?

MR. FAULCONER: Objection Depends on how the LLC is --

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Well, are some loans personally guaranteed? Can you have a loan that is personally guaranteed by an individual?

A An individual signing on a loan by themself is their personal guarantee

Q So in instances where people actually sign for a loan, they take on what you call a personal guarantee

A Yes

Q Okay And in instances where people get loans without signing, are those not personally guaranteed?

A If they haven't signed a guarantee agreement or an endorsement agreement --

MR. FAULCONER: Objection as to if somebody doesn't sign a guarantee.

THE COURT: He can answer that

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q If someone doesn't sign a personal guarantee, is there in fact a personal guarantee on that loan?

A If there is no personal guarantee or personal signature or endorsement, no

Q It has to be in writing, right?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, let me show you what's been marked as Government Exhibit 355. If we could blow that up. Now, this is in evidence This is a check from Starwood to MoBo MoBo Realty, and a deposit slip for MoBo Realty of $50,000; is that correct?

A Yes

THE COURT: We don't have that in evidence

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, I don't know if this specific version is in evidence, but --

MR BROWNLEE: Why don't we just show the checks I believe the checks and deposit slip are in evidence from the government

THE COURT: You can just move it

MR. BROWNLEE: Okay We will move RM-2059 into evidence, Your Honor

MR. FAULCONER: No objection

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q So as I asked, this is a check from Starwood Trust to

MoBo Realty, and a deposit slip of that check for MoBo; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay Can we pull up RM-1454? Blow that up Now, if you look there in the middle, there is a deposit on March 12th of $50,000

A Got it

Q Do you see that?

A Yes

Q And if you go to the top, this is the account, keep going up, thank you, for MoBo Real Estate Partners, LLC; is that correct?

A That's correct

MR. BROWNLEE: We move RM-1454 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q So this is a check to an entity; is that correct?

A This is a checking statement I have in front of me

Q That's right And the check I showed you that is the basis for this deposit, it is to an entity

A Yes

Q And that entity is MoBo Real Estate Partners, LLC

A Correct

Q Okay And sir, is this corporate debt something that would need to be included on a personal financial statement?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor, as to Mr Brownlee testifying

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Well, let me just ask it this way: Would this $50,000 check to MoBo, in your view, need to be on a personal financial statement?

MR. FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q This debt on a personal financial statement, is the individual only required to put on debts from which he has personal guarantees?

A Yes

Q Okay So if there is no personal guarantee for a debt, it doesn't need to be placed on the personal financial statement; is that correct?

MR. FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor Asked and answered

THE COURT: The objection is sustained Let me ask you a question: If you have outstanding liabilities, joint or otherwise, and you apply for a personal loan, is your bank interested in the outstanding liabilities even thou[illegible] they are shared?

THE WITNESS: We are required -- by law, we have to be very careful how we address that And as such, with an individual financial statement, we cannot ask about any other debt except the individual's debt based on the way that statement is filled out

THE COURT: All right My question to you is, if my debt is shared, let's just pick a figure, there is a $100,000 outstanding liability, and I am 50 percent responsible for that liability, is that something that your bank needs to know about under the personal loan?

THE WITNESS: Yes

THE COURT: All right

MR BROWNLEE: May I follow up?

THE COURT: Sure, go ahead

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q But if you don't have a personal guarantee on that debt, that debt, as the Court has explained, is a corporate debt, it doesn't need to be on your personal financial statement

A Correct

Q So it doesn't, that's right?

A Correct

Q So in this instance, this $50,000 went to MoBo, LLC, that entity that you testified is a separate entity So under the Court's hypothetical, this would not need to go on someone's personal financial statement; is that correct?

MR. FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor He is conflating where the check goes versus where the loan --

THE COURT: The objection is sustained Go ahead

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Just to make sure I'm clear, and then I'll move along, a debt that does not have a personal guarantee, that goes to -- that is a corporate debt, does not need to go on someone's personal financial statement; is that correct?

A Repeat it one more time You are getting me confused

Q All right A debt that is held by an entity, a separate corporate entity, that debt, unless there is a personal guarantee, and you said a personal guarantee in writing, it doesn't need to go on someone's personal financial statement

MR. FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor He did not say "personal guarantee in writing "

MR. BROWNLEE: Actually, he did

THE COURT: The objection is sustained If there is any point to be made, you have made it So move on

MR. BROWNLEE: Thank you, Judge

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Let me move to this next loan if we can. If we could pull up RM-1521 If you blow up the middle there, there you see a wire transfer on 5-22 from Starwood Trust for $20,000; is that correct?

A Yes

Q If you go to the top, once again, this is to MoBo Real Estate Partners, LLC?

A Yes

Q We won't go into it again, but again, this is now a payment, and if it is a loan, it is a debt for the LLC; is that correct?

MR. FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor Characterizing the payment

THE COURT: No, he can answer that. It is clearly a debt of the LLC

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Okay And then if you just blow up that part, the date on it is what, sir?

A The date for the deposit, the wire, was 5-22, May 22nd.

Q That's May 22nd. Now, if we pull up Government Exhibit 416, a government exhibit, I think, that's dated as of April 30th, 2012 Do you see that?

A Correct

Q So if you have a financial statement and it is submitted as of this date, do you need to include debts that you incur after that?

A Financial statement is good for one year from the date it is issued. And it would not be required

Q So the answer is no

A Right

Q Okay Let's move on The government asked you yesterday about late fees And I want -- and there were a series of late fees that we went through for the year 2009 Do you remember that?

A Yes, I do

Q Is it fair to say that a late fee is imposed on an individual or an entity after 15 days; is that right?

A Correct

Q And then the payment is considered missed after 30 days So if 30 days lapses, it is a missed payment, and after 15, it is late Is that fair?

A Yes

Q All right And based on your knowledge, Mr McDonnell and his sister never missed a payment; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And of course they never defaulted on the loan; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And I think you have testified before that as long as the bank receives the payment within 30 days, the bank is what you called very comfortable; is that right?

A Yes, that's correct

Q All right Now, let me talk generally about Maureen McDonnell We will call her sister Maureen and Bob You have known them for a long time; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And it was your understanding that combined, they had sufficient resources to cover these debts, and you knew that and you felt comfortable with that; is that correct?

MR. FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor, to the analysis after the fact

THE COURT: If you give it a time that's relevant, you can go ahead and ask the question. But after the fact, it is not good.

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q At the time they had this loan, you felt very comfortable that together, his sister and him together could make the payments on these loans; is that right?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: I apologize, I object again

The time they had this loan to MoBo was before and after the financial statement

THE COURT: "At the time that you granted these loans " You can ask that question.

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q At the time you granted the loans, did you feel comfortable that Bob and his sister, Maureen, could make payments on these loans?

A Yes

Q Okay And they always made their payments and they never missed a payment, I believe you testified.

A Yes

Q Okay Now, this loan was originated in 2005; is that correct?

A I don't know We have one in 2005 and one in 2006 I don't know which one you are referring to.

Q Let's pull up RM-0035 Is this a loan transaction history?

A Correct

Q Okay And this goes all the way back to 2005; is that right?

A Okay

Q And I just want to walk through this If you could make the page a little smaller And these loan transaction histories here show late fees if there are any; is that right?

A Yes

Q So is there any late fees on this page?

A No

Q How about the next page?

A Can you make it bigger, please? No

Q How about the next page?

A No

Q How about the next page?

A No

Q How about the next page?

A No.

Q We are up to 2007 How about the next page?

A No

Q How about the next page?

A No.

Q We are up to 2008 How about the next page?

A No

Q How about the next page?

A No.

Q How about the next page?

A No

Q How about the next page?

A No.

Q How about the next page?

A Yes

Q In April

A Yes

Q All right So there are no late fees from 2005 until 2009, in April of 2009; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay You can take that down. Now, it is understood that one of the reasons you gave this loan is the strength of the Governor's sister's financial status; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And you understood -- well, let me show you what's been marked as RM-077 This has been admitted. I think it is 0077 All right, this is Maureen McDonnell's W-2 for 2012 If we could redact the Social Security information, please All right And in 2012, at the time these loans were made from Mr Williams, you see the Governor's sister made nearly $530,000 that year

A Yes

Q All right And if you look at, pull up RM-0033 This is in evidence as well, Your Honor The date of this is what, sir? If you look at the top right-hand corner

A Advice date?

Q Do you see it? Is that March 9th, 2012?

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor May we approach?

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench.)

MR. FAULCONER: Your Honor, the objection to this question is materiality, which you have already excluded. Looking at documents which are on the face of the financial statement couldn't go to a material point relevant to Mr McDonnell

MR. BROWNLEE: This is not materiality The first section was about falsity These documents are not false He went through every single late fee to try to establish that somehow they were financially desperate This goes directly at that The partnership of MoBo had more than sufficient resources So they raised this, and I think it is fair to allow us to show that, yes, there may have been some late fees, but these people had more than enough resources to cover these debts, and this is the President of the bank.

THE COURT: What does this have to do with this witness?

MR. BROWNLEE: The financial information we are showing now is of the Governor's sister, and the testimony here is when he made these loans, he made it to both of them. They want to try to lay this all on one guy, when in reality she was a big part of this

THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

MR. BROWNLEE: Thank you, Judge

(In Open Court)

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right, Mr Sessoms, yesterday Mr Faulkner talked about when they first got these loans, that their intent was that the rental payments would cover what you testified as the debt service; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And I think you have said that that was your understanding and that was what they communicated to you that they would hope would happen; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And now, covering the debt service is different than covering all the expenses of the business; is that correct?

A You are correct, yes

Q Okay So let me pull up Government Exhibit 513, Page 8, just for the witness If you look at the line called "Total Rental Income," okay, that's for 2008 through 2012 If you will highlight "Total Rental Income" all the way across

A Yes

Q Okay And then if you look down at the bottom line, total interest expense, is it fair to say that the rental income for every year from '08 to 2012 --

MR. FAULCONER: He is testifying This document is in evidence The witness has never seen it before He is asking him to compare numbers on a document that's not in evidence

THE COURT: Do you know anything about this document?

THE WITNESS: No, sir

MR. BROWNLEE: You can take it down.

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q If the rental income is more than the debt service, the interest that they are paying on the debt, is that your understanding of what the point was, when they went into this, that the debt service -- that the rental income would be more than the debt service?

A That was certainly the desire, yes

Q Fair enough

MR. BROWNLEE: Court's indulgence for one minute

THE COURT: Sure

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR. BROWNLEE: Your Honor, could we just approach for a moment?

THE COURT: Come on up.

(At Bench)

MR. BROWNLEE: This is the first of a series of bankers we are going to hear from today, Judge And we understand the Court's materiality ruling and we are going to follow it to the letter But we also believe that the elements they have to establish is that, number one, the document is false, and secondly, it was done with the intent to influence the bank And so our questioning is about falsity and I want to make sure that we are in line with the Court's rulings, but that we can try to show, because if they don't have to be on there --

THE COURT: Let's go back to the previous ruling I'm not saying that you can't get that information out through the right witness But this wasn't the one

MR BROWNLEE: I understand the last part of it, Judge I'm just talking generally speaking --

THE COURT: If you want to make the case that they had sufficient financial wherewithal to do that, there is nothing wrong with that But you can't have a witness get up and start talking about stuff --

MR. BROWNLEE: I understand I'm really talking about the initial part of the examination when we were trying to establish that these loans to an entity don't need to be on this form. And I think we got that in, but I want to make sure because all these witnesses are coming up, and that's the heart of this, that the document itself is not false

MR. FAULCONER: We didn't have any problem with him asking questions about what does the form say, does it say LLC, partnership, other loans payable That kind of testimony is fine We also have our own testimony about the conversations with the defendant on direct examination. We don't have any problem with any of that testimony It is when they start going to things that are either after the loan or things that are just the banker's subjective intent, legal conclusions, materiality conclusions

THE COURT: I'm afraid you've got all the guidance I can give you. I rule on the questions as you ask them.

MR. BROWNLEE: I don't want to run afoul of the Court's position. But our position is these documents are not false because the loans didn't need to be on there That's what the evidence is in the 302's from the other witness They never asked those questions They never asked if it was false

MR FAULCONER: Respectfully, that's not true And obviously, we disagree with that position as to who the loans are to.

MR. ASBILL: Our client is going to testify as well, and the question, and if in fact the loan is to Ms McDonnell, if in fact the loans are to MoBo, they are not required to be on the form

MR. FAULCONER: To clarify, this particular transaction is only charged with omitting $50,000 in liability Even if the first loan is to Ms McDonnell, that makes absolutely no difference on whether we have sufficient on this particular charge. It is our position based on the testimony that these loans were to Mr McDonnell and that he had gauranteed these just as much as Ms McDonnell

THE COURT: Listen to me When the bankers come along, the question that you ask is, are these particular procedures, methods, how things are done as the bankers You can't ask him "In your view " Right? This is an inappropriate question. So I can't tell you how to ask this question to get you to do it right, but what I will tell you, if the objection is made and your question is inappropriate, I will sustain it I don't have anything, any problem with the area of inquiry

MR. ASBILL: We have several bankers, who could justify under the Court's ruling that the practice of the bank would be you wouldn't have to put it on.

THE COURT: Well, if you can make that out

MR. ASBILL: He has been President

THE COURT: We will see

(In Open Court)

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q Mr Sessoms, I'm just about done. I just want to go back and make sure Sir, is it the practice of the bank that loans to LLC's that don't have personal guarantees in writing, they do not need to be on personal financial statements? Is that an accurate statement?

A Yes

Q Okay Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. Mr Burck?

MR. BURCK: Your Honor, just very briefly

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Good morning, Mr Sessoms

A Good morning

Q My name is Bill Burck, and I represent Maureen McDonnell Now, just for clarity, the application that you were going through with the government and Mr Brownlee, Ms McDonnell was not -- Ms McDonnell, the wife, was not an applicant on that form, right?

A On the financial statement?

Q The financial statement

A That's correct

Q Just so I understand, a personal guarantee in your practice and your experience with this form and as the President of this bank, a personal guarantee is required for a loan that is not in the name of the applicant in order for that loan to be listed on this form, right?

A One more time

Q Let me try it this way If a personal loan is to Ms McDonnell, and there is no written guarantee by Mr McDonnell for that loan, would that loan have to be listed on Mr. McDonnell's application?

A No

Q No

MR. BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor, that's it

THE COURT: Redirect?

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Mr Sessoms, how many conversations did you have with Mr McDonnell about whether or not any loans from Jonnie Williams or Starwood Trust were personal guarantees, LLC guarantees, personal loans, LLC loans? How many conversations?

A None

Q As a banker, how do you typically know who is responsible for a loan?

MR BROWNLEE: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled.

THE WITNESS: The financial statement

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Piece of paper, right?

A Right

Q How many pieces of paper or loan documents did you as TowneBank sign with MoBo, LLC?

A I do not know.

Q Are you aware of any loans that you made to MoBo, LLC?

A No

Q But you were aware that there was a real estate partnership that was operating these properties, right?

A Yes

Q But you made the loan to Mr McDonnell and his sister, right?

A Correct

Q Now, as a politician, it is fair to say, have you shaken a lot of hands before?

MR. BROWNLEE: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Overruled

THE WITNESS: Yes

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q How many of those have been of a corporation?

A Have I shaken hands with a corporation?

MR BROWNLEE: I object

THE WITNESS: None

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Have you ever Done a handshake deal with a corporation?

A No

MR. FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q If we could pull up Exhibit 416 Just to be clear, Mayor Sessoms, looking at the top of this document, can you tell us what date this document was actually sent to TowneBank?

A October 3rd, 2012

Q And scrolling down to the bottom right-hand portion of this document, could you read what it says, the first line under "Liabilities and Net Worth"?

A The first line?

Q Yes

A "Other Loans Payable "

MR. FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor No further questions

THE COURT: All right Thank you, Mayor You may stand down

THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir

(Witness stood aside)

Call your next witness

MR. FAULCONER: Your Honor, the United States calls Barbara Tierney

BARBARA TIERNEY,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Could you please state your name and spell your last for the court reporter?

A Barbara Tierney, T-I-E-R-N-E-Y

Q And what city do you currently live in?

A Virginia Beach

Q Am I correct that you recently retired?

A You are correct.

Q Before that, where did you work?

A I worked for TowneBank.

Q What was your role there?

A I was a Senior Vice President My functional title was Senior Credit Analyst

Q About how long did you work there?

A Almost nine years

Q Now, are you familiar with any real estate-related loans that TowneBank had with Mr McDonnell, Robert

McDonnell, and his sister, Maureen McDonnell, while you worked there?

A Yes, I am familiar

Q How many loans were there, to your knowledge?

A Two

Q And just to be clear, was that the wife, Maureen McDonnell, or the sister, Maureen McDonnell?

A No, it would be the sister

Q Now, I'd like to show you what's been previously admitted as Exhibit 41 Zooming in on the top portion there, is this the Disbursement Request and Authorization for one of those two loans?

A Could I see the bottom, please, as well?

Q Sure If we could scroll down.

A Yes I believe it is

Q And what's the dollar amount at the top of that one?

A $249,990

Q We can take that down Now, if we could turn to what's been previously admitted as Exhibit 43 Do you recognize this document?

A Yes

Q Is this the Disbursement Request and Authorization for the other of the two loans?

A Yes, it is

Q All right You can take that down. Now, Ms Tierney, do you recall participating in a loan renewal process for the larger of these two loans in October of 2012?

A Yes, I do

Q Could you explain exactly what a loan renewal process is?

A On a regular basis, the bank reviews its loan portfolio to ensure that the credit is of good standing

Q During that process, do you typically request a personal financial statement from the borrower?

A Yes, we do.

Q I'd like to show you what's been admitted into evidence as Exhibit 416 If we could show this to Ms Tierney, and then flip through the pages Ms Tierney, do you recognize this document?

A I do

Q What is it?

A It is a personal financial statement of Robert McDonnell

Q Is this the personal financial statement that you used in the annual review in the October of 2012 time frame?

A It is

Q If we could go to the first page of that document And zooming in on the lower right-hand portion, Ms Tierney, do you see anything listed on "Other Loans Payable" there?

A No, I do not

Q Is there anything listed under "Liabilities of Proprietorships"?

A No, there is not

Q Is there anything listed under "Liabilities of Partnerships or Joint Ventures"?

A No, there is not

Q If we could zoom back out Now, Ms Tierney, I see that this says that it is a Heritage Bank personal financial statement Even if somebody submits a personal financial statement from another bank, will you still use it in your renewal process?

A Yes, we do

Q Is that what you did in this case?

A Yes, I did.

Q Now, in addition to receiving and incorporating a personal financial statement, did someone on your staff or someone at TowneBank also run a credit report as part of this annual review?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been previously admitted as Exhibit 417 Zooming in on the top portion there, does this look like the credit report that was run as part of this annual review?

A Yes, it is

Q Have you had a chance to review this credit report before coming in to testify today?

A Yes, I have

Q To your knowledge, are there any loans related to Jonnie Williams or Starwood Trust listed on this credit report?

A To my knowledge, no, there are not

Q Now, in your experience, would you typically see a personal undocumented loan on a credit report?

A No, you would not

Q As someone who is doing this process, how would you typically find out about that type of loan?

A It would have to be disclosed on the personal financial statement

Q Now, we have looked at the personal financial statement and at the credit report In the entire process that you did here for this loan renewal, did you ever become aware in any way of any loan related to Jonnie Williams or Starwood Trust?

A No, I was not aware of any loan.

MR. FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Ms Tierney, my name is John Brownlee, and I represent Bob McDonnell I just have a couple of questions Mr Faulconer showed you what's been marked as Government Exhibit 416 This is the Heritage Bank financial statement for Bob McDonnell And he asked you if there were loans from Mr Williams that were on this document And he asked you if you ever became aware of that; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q Is it fair to say, ma'am, that if those loans are not required to be on this document, then they wouldn't be on the document; is that correct?

A I'm not sure that I understand your question

Q Okay Well, he asked you if they are on there, and you said no I'm just asking, if they are not supposed to be on here, they don't need to be on here, that wouldn't be a surprise to you, right? That they are not on there?

MR FAULCONER: Objection as to relevance

THE COURT: Sustained.

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you.

THE COURT: Sure.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. BURCK:

Q Good morning

A Good morning

Q My name is Bill Burck, and I represent Maureen McDonnell Maureen McDonnell, wife, was not a borrower on this transaction, this account, right?

A That's correct

Q So you wouldn't have been collecting information from her

A No.

Q And is there any circumstance in which you would have collected information from her for this transaction?

A No, not really, if she is not a borrower No, we would not

MR. BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor No further questions

THE COURT: Anything else?

MR FAULCONER: No, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Thank you, ma'am. You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

Call your next witness, please

MR. DRY: The United States calls Frank Pollack to the stand.

FRANK R POLLACK,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

BY MR DRY:

Q Good morning, Mr Pollack.

A Good morning

Q And how do you spell your last name?

A P-O-L-L-A-C-K.

Q Now, where did you work in January of 2013, sir?

A Pentagon Federal Credit Union.

Q How long had you worked for Pentagon Federal Credit Union?

A Since April of 1978

Q Is Pentagon Federal Credit Union often called PenFed?

A Yes, sir, it is

Q Now, in January of 2013, what was your title?

A I was President and CEO

Q And how long were you the President and CEO of PenFed?

A Since January 1st, 2000

Q Okay Now, is PenFed a federally-chartered credit union?

A Yes, it is

Q How long has it been federally chartered?

A 1935

Q Now, I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 453 Do you recognize this document, sir?

A Yes, sir, I do

Q What is it?

A It is my calendar for January of 2013

MR DRY: Government moves to admit Government Exhibit 453, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. DRY:

Q Do you normally record your meetings and phone calls on this calendar?

A Yes, I do

Q That was your standard practice?

A Yes

Q Okay Turning your attention to January 11th, if we could blow up that block, please Now, you see where it says phone call around 1:10 p.m. with Governor McDonnell, and what is the "Re:," what does that mean?

A There was a phone call to take place regarding a mortgage refinancing on his home

Q Did you in fact have a call with Mr McDonnell on January 11th?

A Yes, sir

Q And how did that come about?

A I had been contacted earlier by a gentleman named Richard Pillow, the CEO of the Virginia Credit Union League, and he had asked whether we would be interested in the Governor refinancing his home with us

Q Okay At this time, when you are getting this call, did you even know that Mr McDonnell was a customer of PenFed at that point?

A Yes, we knew he had been a member for a long time

Q Okay What did you and Mr McDonnell discuss during your call on January 11th?

A He was interested in the rates that we had, and we had a brief discussion regarding rates and loan-to-value requirements

Q Did he discuss what kind of mortgage, what type of properties he wanted mortgages for?

A Initially, the conversation revolved around their personal home, as well as later on, a second home that was owned in, I think, Nelson County

Q And from your call, did you understand that these were going to be rental properties or these were personal residences?

A They were personal residences

Q And during that call, did the Governor, Mr McDonnell, talk about how quickly he wanted to move forward on these?

A We had very good rates and he was interested in closing quickly

Q That's not unusual, for people to want to lock down rates?

A It is very frequent

Q Okay Let's go to Government Exhibit 466, please Do you recognize this document, sir?

A Yes, I do

Q And that's an e-mail from Mr McDonnell to you?

A Yes

MR. DRY: Government moves Exhibit 466 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q If we could blow up the top for a second. What's the date of this e-mail, sir?

A January 21st

Q And when he talks about "We are interested in pursuing both," what is he referring to?

A Both properties

Q Okay And those are the properties we just talked about, the personal residences?

A Yes, sir

Q At this point, had you had any discussions or communications with Mr McDonnell about the idea of refinancing rental properties?

A No, sir

Q Okay Now, going back to Government Exhibit 453, I want to turn your attention to January 23rd. Did you have another call with Mr McDonnell on January 23rd?

A Yes, we did.

Q And who participated in that call?

A The Governor, his wife, and his sister

Q That was sister, Maureen?

A Yes, sir

Q And from PenFed, who participated in the call from that side?

A Myself, our Executive Vice President for Mortgages, Debbie Ames Naylor, her number two, Larry Blake, and our loan processor who was going to handle the Governor's requests, Nan Bolt

Q B-O-L-T; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Now, while you are on this call, what's being discussed?

A Well, I wasn't on this call very long, actually I introduced the Governor to the people that were going to handle his account, made sure that he knew we would take good care of him and get the loan closed quickly

Q Do you typically participate in phone calls with people seeking mortgages or was this kind of a special case?

A This was a special case He was the Governor

Q Fair enough Now, PenFed is what's referred to as a full doc lender?

A Yes, we are That's the only kind of loan we make

Q What is a full doc lender? What does that mean?

A It means that you have to verify your income, your place of employment, all of your debts, everything that is involved in the loan application It is what the rest of the world didn't do and why we got in trouble

Q When you say "we got in trouble," you are talking about the financial crisis?

A Yes

Q So how do you go about verifying information provided by a lender -- by a borrower?

A With regard to employment, we require pay stubs and bank statements for their assets, and we check on valuations of the home, so an appraisal is required, and we will pull a credit report to see their credit history

Q Do you want to see documentation of any debts?

A Generally speaking, debts are in the credit report, so we might occasionally ask for documentation on a particular mortgage But not necessarily so.

Q Let's talk about that If a loan applicant has personal loans that are undocumented --

MR. BROWNLEE: Objection

THE COURT: Overruled.

BY MR DRY:

Q If an individual has personal loans that are not documented on the credit report, what would be the way that you would be able to find out about those?

A The consumer would have to tell us about them.

MR. DRY: I have nothing further Thank you, sir

THE COURT: Any questions, Mr McDonnell?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Good afternoon, sir My name is John Brownlee, and I represent Bob McDonnell I have just a few questions Mr Dry asked you about, that you are a full doc lender; is that correct?

A Yes

Q I think he asked you what that meant You testified that it means you had to verify income, place of employment, and debts and liabilities; is that correct?

A That's correct

Q You take that seriously, do you not?

A We do

Q So if you felt like someone wasn't complying with full doc --

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Finish the question.

BY MR. BROWNLEE:

Q If you felt like someone wasn't complying with what Mr Dry talked about full doc lender, you would have an issue with that; is that correct?

MR. DRY: Objection, relevance

THE COURT: Sustained.

MR. BROWNLEE: We have nothing further

THE COURT: Mr Burck?

MR. BURCK: Nothing, Your Honor, thank you

THE COURT: I assume you don't have anything else?

MR DRY: No, Your Honor

THE COURT: You may stand down

(Witness stood aside.)

Call your next witness, please

MR. DRY: The government calls Nanette Bolt

NANETTE BOLT,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government,

having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. DRY:

Q Good morning, Ms Bolt

A Good morning

Q Can you please state your name for the record and please spell both your first and second?

A Nanette, N-A-N-E-T-T-E, Jeanine, J-E-A-N-I-N-E, Bolt B-O-L-T

Q Now, what city and state do you currently live in?

A Woodbridge, Virginia

Q And do you work in the banking industry? Or the credit union industry, I should say?

A Yes, I do.

Q And how long have you worked in that industry?

A 24, 25 years

Q And where do you currently work?

A Pentagon Federal Credit Union.

Q And what was your first job at PenFed?

A Equity Supervisor

Q What does an Equity Supervisor do?

A Essentially overlook the equity processing staff, underwriting, managing the department

Q Were you subsequently promoted from that job?

A Yes, I was

Q And what were you promoted to?

A First Mortgage Supervisor

Q That was about three-and-a-half years ago?

A Yes

Q What does a First Mortgage Supervisor do?

A Basically the same thing, receive processors, troubleshoot loans, take care of higher profiles, higher profile files, difficult files, anything like that

Q When you say "processors," what are you talking about, processors of what?

A Loan processors

Q Including mortgages?

A Yes

Q Okay And as part of your job at PenFed, did you work on certain loan refinancings for Mr and Ms McDonnell?

A Yes, I did.

Q How did that come about?

A One day I was requested to go up to Frank Pollack's office for a conversation in regards to a Governor loan

Q Did that occur on January 23rd, 2013?

A Around there, yes

Q And who was on the call from PenFed?

A Frank Pollack, Debbie Ames Naylor, Larry Blake, and myself

Q And who was on the call from the Governor's family side?

A The Governor was, I think Ms McDonnell, I don't recall, and the sister, Maureen McDonnell

Q Okay Now, can you just walk me through what's discussed on this January 23rd -- at some point, Mr Pollack drops off; is that right?

A Yes

Q And what was discussed? Were you on the call the entire time?

A Yes

Q What was discussed during the call?

A We discussed refinancing a property on Devils Knob Loop, which was a second home that they had. We kind of discussed the primary residence which we currently held lien at that time

Q Whose primary residence are we talking about?

A I'm sorry, that would be Robert and Maureen McDonnell

Q Okay Not sister Maureen, but wife Maureen?

A Correct

Q Was there any discussion, were you collecting any information from the Governor and Ms McDonnell, wife Maureen?

A Wife Maureen. I did Maureen McDonnell, the sister, dropped off the conversation. We basically went over some of the information as far as assets, income, credit properties owned. We briefly scanned that information and I did so off of the previous application we had with them.

Q Let's talk a little bit about that. When you say there is a previous application, what are you talking about?

A I'm sorry, it was a previous loan that we had done for the primary residence

Q So at the time of this call, PenFed was carrying the Morton the primary residence of Mr and Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q And do you remember approximately when that was?

A I want to say it was like 2007, 2008

Q Okay And what is the purpose for you getting this information from the Governor?

A In order to process the loan to move forward with an application for Devils Knob Loop.

Q When you say Devils Knob Loop, was there another -- was there an entity associated with Devils Knob Loop?

A Yes, there was

Q Blue Ridge Heaven?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, how quickly did the McDonnells want to close on -- first of all, taking a step back, in the conversation are you discussing only Devils Knob Loop or are you also discussing refinancing the personal residence of the McDonnells'?

A Briefly, the personal residence at that time

Q Okay

A But mostly Devils Knob Loop.

Q How quickly did they want to refinance the loan on Devils Knob Loop?

MR. BURCK: The witness doesn't recall if Ms McDonnell is on the phone call He is referring to both McDonnells

THE COURT: Is that what you said? That you didn't recall whether she was, Ms McDonnell, was on the call or not?

THE WITNESS: Correct

THE COURT: Okay Well, confine it to who she can testify about or do something else, move on.

MR. DRY: Yes, sir

BY MR. DRY:

Q How quickly did at least Mr McDonnell want to close the loan on Devils Knob Loop?

A Pretty quickly They were looking at about a 30-day turnaround.

Q Is that unusual, ma'am?

A No

Q Why is that not unusual?

A Everybody wants to refinance quickly to get a lower rate

Q That's locking in the current rate?

A Yes

Q Okay During that conversation, were you taking any notes?

A I was, yes

Q And do you have those notes today?

A No, I do not

Q And do you know what happened to them?

A They were most likely shredded My desk had moved around a couple times and I was carrying a lot of paperwork and our office is primarily paperless

MR. DRY: One moment, Your Honor The government would like to refresh the witness's recollection.

(Document proffered to witness)

BY MR. DRY:

Q Just read to yourself the second paragraph.

A You want me to read this?

Q I just want you to read it to yourself, the second paragraph. You can flip over to the second page as well

(Witness perusing document)

After reviewing that document, ma'am, do you remember Ms McDonnell participating in this call on January 23rd, 2013?

A She most likely was

Q Okay At any point during this initial call, do you remember Mr or Ms McDonnell mentioning personal loans that they had?

A No

Q Did you recall any mention of a Mr Jonnie Williams?

A No

Q Any mention of an entity called Starwood Trust?

A No

Q Now, in order to fill out -- to obtain a mortgage loan from PenFed, do borrowers have to fill out a mortgage application?

A Yes

Q Okay And typically, how do they go about that?

A Through our institution, typically they would apply online or they would call up a member services representative who will complete the application for them over the phone

Q That's the typical way a mortgage application gets filed?

A Yes

Q In this case, for Mr and Ms McDonnell, wife Ms McDonnell, did they use either one of those processes?

A No, they did not

Q And in fact, what process was used in this case?

A I built the applications in because of the sensitivity of the applications

Q And when you say "the sensitivity," PenFed was trying to assist with what?

A Assist with, one, expediting their applications, and kind of keeping their applications a little more sensitive

Q Their personal identifiers, limiting the number of people It is nothing nefarious And it was your idea, it wasn't their idea, correct?

A Correct

Q I just want to make sure When you say build the application or build the loan, I guess, what do you do to build a loan?

A I go into the system and input the information that's provided, create an application number

Q Okay And in this case, this is after, you would be doing this after the January 23rd call?

A Yes

Q Okay And what did you rely on to build the loan application?

A I relied on the notes I had at the time, the previous application from the loan that we had with them, part of our conversation that we had on the 23rd, and discussing the application with Larry Blake

Q Had you run a credit report?

A Yes

Q Did you consider the credit report in building the application as well?

A Yes

Q I'd like to go to Government Exhibit 475, please Ma'am, do you recognize this string of e-mails?

A Yes, I do

Q This is between you and Mr McDonnell as well as Larry Blake and it appears Ms McDonnell, correct?

A Correct

MR. DRY: Government moves for Government's Exhibit 475 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q I'd like to go to your e-mail at 6:56 p.m., ma'am. Who is that e-mail to?

A Governor McDonnell and his wife

Q Okay Regarding the, where it says, "The encrypted documents can be accessed using the last four digits of the primary borrower's Social Security Number," what does that mean?

A When we send electronic documents, we encrypt the documents because they are personal information. And typically we will use the four last digits of the primary borrower's Social Security Number

Q I got you. Then the second paragraph, you talk about "Attached are the documents for refinancing on Devils Knob Loop Please review the information, sign, and return. Please make any changes, corrections you feel are necessary on the application "

First of all, what documents are you sending them on the encrypted system?

A The Application, the Good Faith Estimate, Truth In Lending, Notice of Intent to Proceed, Borrower's Authorization for Additional Information, Affiliated Companies There's quite a few different documents

Q Okay And then you write, "Once received, this will provide your authorization for PenFed to begin ordering services, appraisal, and title " Is this kind of like a necessary first step from them for you to go forward?

A Yes Because I needed their permission to move forward.

Q Okay And when you, going up, can you just read what Mr McDonnell responds with, please?

A "Nan, thanks so much for your very prompt service

We will review and edit and sign and fax back soon

Thanks "

Q Okay Let's go to Government Exhibit 476, please Have you had an opportunity to review this document before your testimony today, ma'am?

A Yes, I have

Q And generally, what is this document?

A This is the Uniform Residential Loan Application, also known as a 1003

Q Does it also include the other documents that you were talking about earlier, the Good Faith Estimate and Borrower's Authorization, all of that?

A Uh-huh

MR. DRY: The government would move government Exhibit 476 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR DRY:

Q Is it fair to say that what we have, this packet of documents, is what you were referencing in your earlier e-mail that was going to be accessed with the last four digits of the Social Security Number?

A Correct

Q That's this packet?

A Correct.

Q Now, this is typically, this is a Uniform Residential

Loan Application; is this often referred to as a URLA?

A Yes

Q Who put input of the information on this form?

A I did.

Q Okay And had you had any subsequent conversations from the 23rd to the date of this e-mail, January 28th, before you filled out this, that you can remember, with the McDonnells?

A I don't recall off the top of my head.

Q Okay But what information did you use to fill out this loan application or input the data?

A Again, it was from our initial conversation. It was going over the application with Larry Blake and using previous information that we already had on file

Q Okay Now, going to the next page, can you blow up on the right-hand side, please, the liabilities? Go up a little bit, please In fact, can you blow up the paragraph, the instruction paragraph right there? Can you read that, ma'am, where it says, "Liabilities and pledged assets "?

A Just a little bit more

Q There you go

A Yes

Q Okay And this requires that a borrower list the creditor's name, address, and account number for all outstanding debts, including automobile loans, revolving charge accounts, real estate loans, alimony, child support, stock pledges, et cetera, and to use a continuation sheet if necessary

Can we scroll down and just slowly scroll down, are any of these, do any of these mention Starwood Trust?

A No, they do not

Q Any mention of Jonnie Williams?

A No

A A good faith estimate gives an estimate of the charges that will be applied to the application
Q All right
MR DRY: And, Ms. Noble, if we can go to the eighth page of the exhibit

Q From third parties?

A Correct

Q And does this authorize you to go get back-up documentation as needed?

A Correct

Q Okay And that's -- the borrowers have to sign on that as well?

A Yes

MR DRY: Going to the 13th page of the exhibit, please

BY MR DRY:

Q And what is this document, ma'am?

A The Notice of Intent to Proceed

MR DRY: And can you just blow that up

A Correct

Q Okay And in this, it says, "Nan, did you send documents to my sisters also for signature Some of my originals show a space for their signatures, but I assume you sent them their own copies "

When you have multiple people -- borrow -- or multiple people on one loan, do you typically try to make sure that personal information from one borrower goes to that borrower only, and there's not -- the borrowers, regardless of family relationship, don't see each other's personal information?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, he asked, "Can I fax back the forms and mail originals and then send the supporting documents Monday after I find them all this weekend?"

A Yes, it is

Q And you tell him it's not necessary to send the originals Faxes are fine?

A Correct

Q And then he responds with a "thanks," correct?

A "Thanks, Nan "

Q Okay Now, that's Thursday -- I'm sorry That "thanks" response is Friday, February 1st, correct?

A That would most likely be all the documents that I had sent to them Disclosures

Q And let's take a look at this

MR. DRY: Let's go to the second page of the exhibit

BY MR DRY:

Q And who is signing and acknowledging?

Q And, again, ma'am, this is the Intent to Proceed?

A Yes Yes

Q And who signs this, and what's the date?

A Robert McDonnell and Maureen McDonnell

Q And what property is this referring to?

A 770 Devils Knob Loop

Q All right

BY MR DRY:

Q Have you had an opportunity to review this, the URLA that was contained in this packet before?

A Yes

Q And this is what was faxed to Pentagon Federal Credit Union on federal 1st?

A Yes

Q February 1st of 2013?

A Correct

Q Okay Now -- just going down, scrolling down, please

Now, I see some handwriting on this document For all the non-handwritten portions, who would fill that out?

A I had

Q Okay And, again, you base that on the prior loan app, the credit report, and information from the call?

A Correct

Q Okay Did you fill out any of these handwritten corrections?

A No, I did not

Q Okay And had you previously informed the Governor in that e-mail we talked about, "Make any corrections and send it to me"?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, on the first page, what's written, handwritten in the years of school for Mr McDonnell?

A Twenty-one

Q And on the first page, what's handwritten in the years of school for Ms McDonnell?

A It looks like 23

MR DRY: Can you just blow that up?

A Twenty-three or 13

Q Okay Either 23 or 13 One of the two Okay On the first page of the loan application, what's handwritten in for number of dependents?

A Two

Q And what is handwritten in for years at current address?

A Six

Q And I think we might have --

MR DRY: Can you go down, please? Okay I think we redacted the business phone block

BY MR DRY:

Q What is handwritten in for the -- well, first of all, can you look on your copy and see if there is a handwritten phone number on that page? It's going to be GMP-02588169 is the Bates number That's been redacted as well Don't worry about it, ma'am

What's handwritten next to the position title for Ms McDonnell?

A Director

Q All right

MR DRY: Now, going to the second page of the application That's Bates Number 170 There we go

BY MR DRY:

Q On the left-hand side, towards the bottom, the "Stocks & Bonds" block, is there anything listed?

A No

MR DRY: And then on the right-hand side, if we could scroll up

BY MR DRY:

Q Is there anything listed in any of the liabilities on this page regarding Jonnie Williams, Starwood Trust?

A No

Q Okay Now, on the bottom of that, it still says, "See Attached," correct?

A Correct

Q All right

MR DRY: And then going further down -- sorry Going to the next page --

BY MR DRY:

Q This isn't the continuation sheet This is just part of the loan application, correct?

A Correct

Q Going down, who signs and dates that?

A Robert McDonnell and Maureen McDonnell

Q Okay And what's the date on that?

A February 1st, 2013.

MR. DRY: Now, let's go to the next page, please And going to the -- yeah Blow up the top, please

BY MR DRY:

Q This is the "Additional Liabilities" block?

A Correct

Q Or box?

A Correct

Q Is there anything listed for Mr Williams there?

A No, there is not

Q Starwood Trust?

A No

Q At this point, you pulled the credit report?

A Yes

Q Was there anything regarding Mr Williams on the credit report?

A No, there wasn't

Q Starwood Trust?

A No

Q Before you filled out the application for -- for Mr and Ms McDonnell, up to this point, before this comes back, had either one of them ever mentioned Jonnie Williams or Starwood Trust to you?

A No

Q Ever mention personal loans that they held?

A No

Q All right.

MR DRY: Going to the bottom of that page, please On the very bottom, keep going There we go Can you just blow up that bottom, please.

BY MR DRY:

Q And this is the continuation page They sign again, correct?

A Correct

Q Can you read what is right above their signatures?

A Can you blow it up just a little more?

Q We can try

A "I/we fully understand that it is a federal crime punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, to knowingly make any false statements concerning any of the above facts as applicable under the provisions of Title 18 United States Code, Section 1001 "

MR DRY: Okay We car take this exhibit down, please

BY MR DRY:

Q Now, what's the next step in the loan process? After you get this from the borrower, the signed Loan Application, Intent to Proceed, all that, what do you do? What's the next order?

A I order appraisal, order title, and then I start accumulating the information I requested

Q Okay

MR. DRY: Let's bring up Government's Exhibit 483, please

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you recognize this document, ma'am?

A Yes, I do

Q And what is it?

A It's a --

Q -- series of e-mails between you and Mr McDonnell and some of the people at the bank?

A Correct

Q And the date is February 5th of 2013 on the top one?

A Correct

MR DRY: Government moves Government's Exhibit 483 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR DRY: Turning to the second page of the exhibit, please, towards the top There you go That top e-mail

BY MR DRY:

Q And this e-mail is from Mr McDonnell to Debbie Ames Naylor First of all, who is that?

A She is the executive vice president in charge of mortgages at Pentagon Federal Credit Union

Q Okay So just the chain of command It goes from Mr Pollack to Ms Naylor, and then to you?

A Larry Blake is between Debbie and myself

Q Gotcha And in this, Mr McDonnell writes, "We have decided that on the 3112 and 3113 Sandfiddler properties we would like to apply" -- it looks like for a loan

Do you recall, what are 3112 and 3113?

A Those were two properties that they had down in Virginia Beach, also known as MoBo

Q They were rental properties?

A Correct

Q And can you read what he writes, starting with the "Since"?

A I'm sorry?

Q On the fifth line -- or fourth line, it says, "Since"?

MR DRY: There we go

A "Since we provided all the data for the loans already to Nan on the Wintergreen loan application, what else do you need from us on these applications? Thanks again The appraiser can call me on these properties Thank you "

Q Okay

MR DRY: And can we go up, please -- or actually, to the next -- or the first page of the exhibit

BY MR DRY:

Q And then at the bottom, Ms Naylor is responding back to you and Mr Blake

A Correct

Q And what is she instructing you to do at this point?

A "Can you please incorporate this info into their applications and confirm with him that we have adjusted the loan to those products Also see his comment on appraiser Thanks much, Debbie "

Q Okay

MR DRY: And then can you go up in the e-mail chain?

BY MR DRY:

Q And just being clear, what are you being told to do there? Exactly what are you supposed to do with the 3112 and 3113, building those loan applications?

A Build those applications in like I did with the 770

Devils Knob Loop and apply --

Q What are you going to use that --

A We're going to use the products that they chose, the 5/5 ARM at the 2 625 percent

Q But in order to build the loans, what are you going to be using for information to fill out the URLA?

A The information they provided for 770 Devils Knob Loop

Q Okay And, in fact, Mr Blake writes back, "We will use information from your existing applications for the loans on these two properties " Is that accurate?

A Correct

Q Okay

MR DRY: And then can we just go to the top part of the e-mail, please

BY MR DRY:

Q And that's Mr McDonnell's response, correct?

A Correct

Q All right

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 485

BY MR DRY:

Q And this is an e-mail chain between you and Mr McDonnell?

A Correct

Q And the date on this is February 15th of 2013?

A Correct

MR DRY: Government moves Government's Exhibit 485 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q This is a long e-mail chain, but let's see if we can move it along

MR DRY: Going to the fifth page of the exhibit It's going to be RFM-012655

BY MR DRY:

Q And I want to go with -- in the middle at 4:59 What are you telling the -- this is an e-mail from you to the Governor and Ms McDonnell; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And what are you telling them there?

A "The encrypted attachment can be accessed " And then, "Attached are the disclosures and estimated closing amounts for 31222 Sandfiddler "

Q Okay

A "We are awaiting the appraisal to see what the current value actually is "

Q And at this point, had you started ordering appraisals for the prior loans, the 77(sic) Devils Knob Loop?

A Yes

Q Okay And in this, you're sending them disclosures and estimated closing costs, correct?

A Correct

Q But not a new URLA, or did you, or do you remember?

A I usually would

Q Okay

A I do believe I did Because each application will have its own application

Q And on -- going to the fourth page of the exhibit, you say, "Sign me up " What is that in reference to?

A A phone meeting

Q With who?

A Governor McDonnell

Q Okay And, in fact, if you go down in the e-mail chain -- we can just show this quickly -- is that him setting up a 1:30 call with you on February 13th?

A Yes, it is

Q Okay And, in fact, did you talk to him on that date?

A Yes, I did

Q And what -- what, generally, was discussed?

A I don't recall at this time

Q Okay Well, during that call, do you ever remember him mentioning --

MR BROWNLEE: Objection Leading

THE COURT: Go ahead and answer the question

BY MR DRY:

Q Any mention of Starwood Trust or Jonnie Williams during that call?

A No There wouldn't have been

Q Okay And then going to the second page of the exhibit, do you see where that's from you at 6:57 p m ?

A Correct

Q And you write, "I have received information from Maureen and Eileen I have requested additional items from both " You write, "I reviewed your documentation very quickly," and these are the few items I need from you

What are you asking them for there? What's the 2000 -- well, first of all, "Beach Municipal: Provide statement reflecting you/Ms McDonnell as the account holder "

What was that?

A There was a document from Beach Municipal, and I don't believe they had identifiers on them It was basically a snapshot from computer

Q And then you've got K-1s there for various things What are K-1s?

A K-1s establish their part of the corporate tax returns that reflect the percentage of ownership in a company

Q Okay And there you've got, "Profit and loss covering 2012 for herbal supplements (Schedule C income)" Do you remember what that was in reference to?

A On the Schedule C of their personal tax returns, Ms McDonnell claimed income for herbal supplements

Q You're just looking for proof of that?

A Correct

Q Okay

A Correct

Q And "Mortgage" --

A Basically, I had a proof I just needed a profit and loss to see what she had made year to date

Q Gotcha And the "Mortgage statements from TowneBank"?

A Yes

Q Okay Is this just you requesting the actual documentation to support the loan application?

A Correct

Q Okay And then going to the first page, the top there, this is Mr McDonnell's response to you And he's providing you, it looks like, with a fax And those were the MoBo -- or the beach rental properties; is that right?

A Correct

Q Okay And did any of the information that

Mr McDonnell faxed to you, as of February 15th of 2013, did any of that reference Mr Williams or Starwood Trust in any way?

A No, it did not

Q And in any of your discussions with Mr McDonnell, did he ever reference Mr Williams or Starwood Trust --

A No, he did not

Q -- as of that date and time?

A No

Q Okay As of the date and time of this, did Mr McDonnell ever tell you, "Hey, I still need to look at that loan application, the URLA, for 777" -- "770 and update it"?

A No

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 487, please

BY MR DRY:

Q Ma'am, do you recognize this document?

A Yes, I do

Q And this is a fax from the Governor to you containing an amended loan application?

A Correct

MR DRY: Has this been entered into evidence?

Government moves to admit Government's Exhibit 487

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q Now, on the top, what's the date and time of this?

A February 18th, 2013, 10:57 a m

Q And do you remember what day of the week that was?

A Not off the top of my head

Q Okay We can -- on the top left corner, that says 10:57 a m Do you see that?

A Correct

MR DRY: Now, going down to the bottom, stop right there

BY MR DRY:

Q Can you read what Mr McDonnell wrote?

A "Nan, I reviewed the general loan application again this weekend and made some updates concerning information that was incomplete Please use this as the template for the loan" --

MR DRY: And then go down, please

A -- "applications for all four loan refinances we requested Please advise if you have any questions Thank you for your work "

BY MR DRY:

Q All right

MR DRY: Let's go to the third page of the exhibit

BY MR DRY:

Q And on the left-hand side, in the "Stocks & Bonds," is there handwritten any information?

A Yes there is

Q What is that?

A There's stocks There's a car There's retirement plans There's Racehorse, LLC, which is a company that's held

Q And do you see "Star Scientific 1,672 SH common" with a 3,143 value?

A Yes, I do

MR DRY: And then let's go to the right-hand size, please And first of all -- let's go up a little bit

BY MR DRY:

Q Had there been some confusion regarding which loans went with which properties?

A Yes

Q And kind of describe that?

A Specifically, it was 3112 and 3113 Both of those properties had numerous liens against them, and it was just -- I had trouble matching them up One of the liens was actually held by the sister's name alone So it wasn't reflected within the Governor's credit report

Q But is it fair to say he's just kind of laying it out, hey, this loan goes with this property?

A Yes He -- yes Yes

Q Okay

MR DRY: And then can we scroll down, please

BY MR DRY:

Q And in the "See Attached," what's handwritten there?

A "Starwood Trust" and "J Williams "

Q Okay And zero and -- it looks like 36 months, and zero and 24 months

A Correct

Q Does that look right?

A Yes

Q And then 70,000 and 50,000?

A Correct

Q Okay As of this date, receiving this, had you even heard Mr McDonnell refer to unsecured loans?

A No

Q Okay

THE COURT: Why don't we stop now for our morning break We'll take 15 minutes

(The jury left the courtroom)

(Recess taken from 11:31 a m until 11:30 a m)

(The jury entered the courtroom)

THE COURT: All right

MR DRY: Thank you, Your Honor

Can we bring back up the exhibit, please That's 487, Page 3

BY MR DRY:

Q Okay Ma'am, to be fair, there are other handwritten changes in this document as well other than the Mr Williams loans and the Star Scientific stock, correct?

A Correct

Q We talked about one of those was the Devils -- putting the correct properties next to the correct loan balances?

A Correct

MR DRY: Now, I'd like to go on the left-hand side of the document, on the bottom left

BY MR DRY:

Q Where it says "457, 401(a) Plan," what are those?

A Those are retirement plans

Q Okay And then Racehorse, LLC, what is that?

A That is a limited liability company that Governor McDonnell belongs to

Q And you --

MR DRY: Well, let's go the top of the document where it says, "Racehorse Properties K-1 distribution "

BY MR DRY:

Q That's handwritten, right?

A Correct

Q But on the right-hand side, that's -- that's 16 -- it looks like 67 Had you filled that in?

A Correct Yes

Q And what did that represent?

A That represents his -- his percentage of income from that company

Q Okay So you had taken that into account --

A Yes

Q -- and put that there yourself?

A Yes

Q And he's just putting in the name of the entity?

A Correct It had previously been disclosed on his previous application

Q I gotcha Now, to be fair, is it unusual for borrowers to make changes to their loan applications occasionally?

A No, it's not unusual

Q But before this, had Mr McDonnell ever communicated to you in any way that he needed to do any further review on his loan application before you received this fax?

A No

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's go to Government's Exhibit 489, please

Oh, I'm sorry Before you go there Back on this one I just want to make sure I don't know if I did this

BY MR DRY:

Q The next page of the document, that still has Mr and Ms McDonnell's signatures as of February 1st, correct?

A Correct

Q And then the following page of the document, there's some additional handwriting explaining, on the right-hand side, who's guaranteeing --

A Correct

Q It's just further explanation on the guarantee of certain car loans, it looks like. And then at the bottom of the document, that's still the signature that you received from the McDonnells on February 1st, right?

A Correct

Q Okay

MR DRY: All right Sorry about that, Mr Starnes

Let's go to Government's Exhibit 489, please

BY MR DRY:

Q Is this an e-mail from Mr McDonnell to you dated February 18th at 11:42 p m ?

A Correct

MR DRY: Government moves Government's Exhibit 489 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q And on this, I just want to focus, what's -- it's from you to -- I'm sorry From Mr McDonnell to you, and do you know who "Senior Management Maureen" is?

A By the last name, I'd identify that as his sister

Q Okay You think it's his sister, or are you talking about "Uncapher Mo"? It looks like there's two different addresses I'm just asking what you know If you don't, it's fine.

A I don't know

Q Okay But on the last line, can you just read what he wrote?

A "Also sent fax with updated information for loan application Thanks "

Q Okay

MR DRY: Now let's go to Government's Exhibit 492

BY MR DRY:

Q And this is an e-mail from you to Mr McDonnell, and then it looks like to Ms McDonnell's wife; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR DRY: Government moves Government's Exhibit

492 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR DRY:

Q The date on this is February 21st, correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And then it looks like -- you write, "I have been through your paperwork and had a few things I still need " And then what are you -- what are you asking for? Generally, what's the stuff, "K-1s, Profit and Loss, Source of Deposit"?

A The "K-1s" were part of the -- their ownership in Blue Ridge Heaven, which was the Devils Knob Loop property "MoBo Real Estate" for the properties down in Virginia, 3112 and 3113 Sandfiddler -- or Sand -- Sandfiddler "Profit and Loss Statement," which is typically covered under the company just to show what has been made year to date Also requesting the Schedule C And also a source of deposit for a large deposit that was made on January 2nd

Q Okay Is it fair to say that you're just looking for paperwork to back up the loan application?

A Correct Supporting documentation

Q Okay And then what do you ask for -- can you just read starting with "Question"?

A "Question regarding unsecured notes for Starwood

Trust 0/36 months $70,000 and J Williams 0/24 $54,000 Do you have a note with a terms/maturity date? The loans you are guarantor for, can you provide documentation reflecting the other party is making the payments? (Typically they look for 12 months canceled checks) "

Q Okay And why are you requesting additional information regarding Starwood Trust and the J Williams loans?

Had you had -- at this point, did you have any information other than what was in the loan application, the amended loan application?

A No, I didn't, other than the conversation I had had with the Governor --

Q Okay Well, let's --

A -- which pretty much reinstated this information

Q Okay Well, let's go into that Did you have a conversation after this e-mail with Mr McDonnell in which he provided you additional information that you had requested in this e-mail?

A Yes

Q I'm sorry?

A Yes

Q Okay And can you tell the jury -- can you tell the jury what Mr McDonnell told you about the Starwood Trust loan and the J Williams loan?

A The conversation reflecting the 70,000, I was told that that was part of the company MoBo And the $54,000, it was -- there was no documentation

Q And to be clear, when you say "no documentation," there was no loan application?

A A verbal agreement

Q Okay It was a verbal agreement?

A Yes

Q And was it unsecured?

A It was unsecured

Q Okay But did Mr McDonnell want those reflected on this personal financial statement?

A He did The 54,000 -- the 54,000 was a personal loan to Maureen McDonnell, the wife The 70,000, what I had explained to him was under MoBo --

Q Well, hold on I want you to stop there

A Okay

Q I'm just asking for what he explained to you

A Okay

Q Had he told you -- well, I'll withdraw that question

In your discussion with Mr McDonnell, did he ever mention to you that his wife had been interviewed by law enforcement on February --

MR BROWNLEE: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: No If he mentioned it, she can recall

BY MR DRY:

Q Did he ever mention to you that his wife had been interviewed by law enforcement on February 15th, 2013?

A No

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel.)

BY MR DRY:

Q And just to be clear, where is -- is PenFed located within the Eastern District of Virginia?

A Alexandria, Virginia

Q Okay Thank you

MR DRY: Nothing further

THE COURT: All right Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q It's still good morning, Ms Bolt

A Good morning

Q My name is John Brownlee I represent Bob McDonnell I have some questions for you today

Now, when you -- I think you've testified that when most people -- or it's typical when folks come and apply for a loan with PenFed, that they do so on-line; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And -- but in this case, Mr McDonnell, there was a phone call He didn't do it on-line You actually had a phone call from which he provided you his information; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And I think you testified that because of his position and the bank's efforts to keep his personal identifiers and financial information, I guess, protected because it was sensitive, that's why the phone call was done; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, is it fair to say that the bank wants to be careful with everybody's private information?

A Yes

Q Okay And you are familiar with the bank's policy and procedures 709?

A I don't know the number

Q Okay Let me show you on the screen

MR BROWNLEE: If we could pull up, just for the witness, RM-0229

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And if you look at I A -- just take a look at that First of all, are these the policies and procedures with regard to third-party requests for members' records?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, at this time we'd move RM-0229 into evidence

MR DRY: We would object, Your Honor If there's no evidence that Mr McDonnell was aware of the internal policies at PenFed, they're irrelevant

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, these are speaking objections Your Honor, this is --

THE COURT: Go ahead and answer the question

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Are these the policies of your bank?

A Yes

Q Okay And the one I've highlighted, is that with -- talking about the protecting of members' information?

A Yes

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, at this time we'd move RM-0229 into evidence

MR DRY: Objection Relevancy

THE COURT: Overruled Admitted

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right And will you please read just the last sentence of A?

A "According" --

Q Go ahead

A Am I starting at the correct place?

Q Please The word "Accordingly" is perfect Thank you

A "Accordingly, unless requested or consented to by the member of a thrift share or credit account, required by law, or otherwise authorized, member information shall be withheld from dissemination

Q Okay Thank you

MR BROWNLEE: We can take that down

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, Ms Bolt, Mr Dry talked a lot about some of the interaction you had with Bob McDonnell through this loan process --

A Uh-huh

Q -- and we're going to talk about some of that. But I just want to confirm, is it accurate that in your dealings with him, that he appeared to be forthcoming and responsive to your requests?

A Yes

Q Okay Okay If we can start on January 23rd I believe you testified that there was a conference call with the Governor and several members of his family on that date; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And you took the call with your boss, Debbie Naylor; is that right?

A Correct And Larry Blake

Q And Mr Blake was on the line?

A Correct

Q And at the beginning, the head of the bank, Mr Pollack, was on kind of to give the intro?

A Correct.

Q Okay And this -- I think you've testified that this first call, as you've described it, was general in nature; is that right?

A Yes

Q Okay And you were -- the purpose of the call was to collect information about the Governor's general assets and liabilities; is that right?

A Correct

Q Okay So it wasn't all his assets or all his liabilities It was just the general; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay All right And is it fair to say that this first call, it was to get the very basic information at that time with the understanding that it would be followed up with later?

A Correct

Q And so, in other words, it was your understanding, as of this first phone call, that you collected some basic information to begin the loan process, and then it was your understanding that the information would be supplemented thereafter?

A Correct

Q Okay So Mr Dry has gone through several iterations of this loan application So is it fair to say this doesn't happen like all at one time? It happens over a period of time --

A Correct

Q -- the actual process itself?

A Correct

Q Okay And the person, the borrower, sends in lots of information and then supporting documentation, tax documentation And I think Mr Dry asked, I think appropriately, is this -- sometimes people make mistakes in providing you this information?

A Correct

Q And your job is to kind of help them give you the right information that you need so that the form, at the end of the day, can be prepared properly?

A Correct

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Overruled

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q I think you also stated that, pursuant to Mr Dry's question, that sometimes borrowers will write down things incorrectly Is that fair?

A Correct

Q Okay And -- or miss something on one of these drafts?

A Correct

Q Okay And that with regard to the Form 1003, which is the main form we're talking about here, that it's quite common for borrowers to make multiple updates to these loan documents, including the Form 103 -- 1003?

A Correct

Q Now, on this first phone call, if you remember, do you remember Mr McDonnell talking about any auto loans that he had?

A I don't recall

Q Okay How about student loans?

A I don't recall

Q Okay How about any credit card debt?

A It was very basic Most of that information is pulled up through the credit report

Q Okay Personal lines of credit with a bank?

A Correct

Q Okay Or any business loans?

A Typically, not business loans

Q Okay And did you also then have another conversation with Mr McDonnell's sister Maureen?

A Yes

Q Yes Okay And that was the same, similar type of call where you got some -- just the basic information?

A Correct

Q All right

MR BROWNLEE: If we could pull up RM-2049 just for the witness

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And this is an e-mail --

MR DRY:

MR BROWNLEE: Is this the right one? Could you go up on that? That's it

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay If you look down at the bottom, this is an e-mail from Mr Pollack to Bob McDonnell on January 24th; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And if we scroll up, it eventually gets to you; is that right?

A Correct

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, at this time we move RM-2049 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right

MR BROWNLEE: So if we go down a little bit, right in the middle In the middle If you'd go up just a bit There you go Thank you

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q This is from Mr McDonnell, and it looks like it's sent to his family members on January 24th, and it's titled "Estimates on Your Loan " And then he says, "FYI, estimates coming tomorrow "

So the FYI is referring, in this one, to the e-mail that he just received from Mr Pollack; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay So is it accurate that as of January 24th, 2013, they were still -- the rates were still moving a little bit? They were still kind of trying to figure out what the rate was to lock down?

A Correct

Q Okay And that's why -- and that is the -- when they say "estimates coming tomorrow," that's hopefully more rates?

A Correct

Q Okay Okay Let's look at RM-2050-01 All right Now, this date -- I believe this is -- I believe this is in evidence, but we'll do it this way This is an e-mail, on the top, from Bob McDonnell to you, is that correct, on January 28th?

A Correct

Q All right

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, at this time we move 2050 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BROWNLEE: All right Can we publish this?

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right So if we go to the middle there, it says, "Attached" -- it says, "Attached are the documents for the refinancing of Devils Knob Loop Please review the information, sign and return " And then you attach some documents to the e-mail; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And you attached a draft loan application that you had filled out; is that correct?

A Correct.

Q Okay And you had prepared an Affiliated Business Arrangement Disclosure Statement; is that right?

A Correct

Q And Mr Dry asked you a little bit about that I want to make sure

MR BROWNLEE: Can we just -- just for a second pull up 2050-10? It's the tenth page of this document

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q This is the Affiliated Business Arrangement Disclosure Statement?

A Correct

Q To be clear, this is a disclosure of PenFed?

A Correct

Q All right This isn't a disclosure of the borrower?

A Correct

Q And you are, in this document, disclosing to the borrower your relationships with another entity?

A Correct

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: We can take that down

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And then you also gave him a Borrower's Authorization? Yes?

A Correct

Q A Federal and State Compliance Document?

A Correct

Q A Borrower's Notice of Intent to Proceed with Loan Application?

A Correct

Q A PenFed Closing Credits document?

A Correct

Q A Notice to First Lien Mortgage Loan Applicants?

A Correct

Q A Truth-in-Lending Disclosure Statement?

A Correct

Q Okay And so once these documents were -- were prepared and sent back, that now gives you the authorization to begin; is that -- once all that's done and completed, now you have the authority to disburse funds; is that correct?

A We have to go through the entire process, but yes

Q Right But when it's all done --

A Yes

Q -- when everything is completed, then we have closing, that's when you have the authority to disburse funds?

A Yes

Q So when you got these documents back, when the first set came back -- I guess the first draft, we'll call it, got back, at that point it wasn't completed You didn't have authority to disburse funds, did you?

A No

Q Okay All right Let's talk about a couple of them First, the Truth-in-Lending Disclosure Statement

MR BROWNLEE: If we could pull up Page 24 of that document RM-2050 Page 24

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right This is the Truth-in-Lending Disclosure Statement; is that correct?

A Yes

Q All right And you see the two boxes on the right?

A Yes

Q And in this case, the "Preliminary" is checked; is that right?

A Correct

Q And not the final; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Can we pull up Page 13 of that document?

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay There is called a Federal and State Compliance Document?

A Yes

MR BROWNLEE: And if we could pull up the line that starts, "This "

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q It says, "This document is neither a contract nor a commitment to lend"; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: All right Can we pull up Page 16 of that document? If you highlight the first paragraph -- or second paragraph

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q This document says, "This form is not a commitment to extent credit"; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And then there's some information on the form about closing credits; is that right?

A Correct

Q Okay And that's, what, $10,000 at closing?

A I don't recall at that time what the credits for closing costs were We changed our program a number of times

Q Okay I think if we pull it up there, we might see it I'm sorry It's small to read So it says, "If the loan closes using our preferred title/settlement provider," correct?

A Yes But I don't recall Is this document dated from that time frame?

Q Yes

A Because it may not have had a limit on it

Q Okay This is what you sent --

A Okay

Q -- to Bob McDonnell

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor She's just asking when the document is

MR BROWNLEE: Oh, I see Okay

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q I don't think there's a date on it

Okay And so then it discusses origination charge; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And it talks about required service, "All Required Services" there?

A Correct

Q It talks about "Title Service and Lender's Title Insurance"?

A Correct

Q Okay It talks about a "Settlement Fee"?

A Correct

Q And "Government Recording Charges"?

A Correct

Q And "Transfer Taxes"?

A Correct

Q Okay And all these things happen at closing; is that correct?

A Correct

Q So when this was sent out on January 28th, none of these things had happened yet?

A Correct It was an estimate

Q Okay And fair to say that none of these things had happened when Bob McDonnell sent the form back to you on February 1st?

A Correct

Q Okay And I think the document also says that it is "subject to change at any time prior to the time you submit a loan application"; is that correct?

A Correct.

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Let's highlight that

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay It's the last line of that paragraph?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, if we also look at Page 16 of that document, if you look at where it says "Purchases "

MR BROWNLEE: If you could blow that up.

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And it says if you want this special deal, on closing you must send "the application and a fully executed purchase agreement during the promotional period"; is that correct?

A Correct

Q What is a "fully executed a personal agreement"?

A It's a purchase agreement between seller and buyer --

Q Okay

A -- executed -- fully ratified

Q Okay And that means -- how does that apply in a refi?

A It does not

Q Okay So in this case, you wouldn't have that because you already own the property?

A Correct

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: All right And let's look at Page 1

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And this is back in this original e-mail that was sent that says, "The Account Condition Letter reflects items that are needed for verification of the processing of your application"; is that correct?

A Correct

Q And this document is called the "Account Condition Letter"?

A Correct

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Let's take a look at RM-17959 That's not it 17 -- there it is If we could blow that up Can you show that just to the witness?

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q What is this, ma'am?

A Accounts Condition Letter

Q And is it dated -- what's the date?

A It looks like 1/28/2013

Q Okay. And is this for the loans for 770 Devils Knob Loop?

A Yes

Q All right For Bob and Maureen McDonnell?

A Correct

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, we move in 1759-22

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, this is a document that lists all kinds of information that's needed from the borrower; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay Tax returns, pay stubs, stock account statements, and the like?

A Correct

Q Okay And this is information that the bank needs before it can act on the loan; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And, now, when Mr McDonnell had sent in his application -- or his draft application on February 1st, had all these things been done?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor The witness has never called this a draft application

THE COURT: Would you characterize it differently, please

MR BROWNLEE: Yes, sir

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q When Mr McDonnell sent in his document on February 1st, had he completed all these things?

A I -- I don't recall

Q Okay All right Do you see about halfway down where it says, "Provide copy of most recent stock account statement"?

A Yes, I do

Q Okay And is written next to that "Maureen"?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor I don't believe this witness has any personal knowledge of this document

THE COURT: All right Let's -- let's get through this We --

MR BROWNLEE: Very well, Your Honor

THE COURT: This is -- this is a process, right? And this is a loan process?

THE WITNESS: Correct

THE COURT: Things don't -- as you asked the question, it doesn't happen all at once

MR BROWNLEE: Yes, sir

THE COURT: So if you've got some point, make it But dragging through this, demonstrating that some of these things are not at the point of closing, it's really not helping us

MR BROWNLEE: Okay Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Let's move -- now, I want to move to January 31st, 2013

MR BROWNLEE: If we could pull up 2051 And if you would blow up the middle part of that, please

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay This is a document that's in evidence that was introduced by the government

A Uh-huh

MR BROWNLEE: And if you go -- scroll down.

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q This is Mr McDonnell and -- a couple things In this, he's saying, "Nan, did you send documents to my sister " And you've read this for the government Is it fair to say that he asked if he could fax back the forms?

A Correct

Q And that is -- he's asking if he can do that before he locates the supporting documents; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And so essentially what he's saying is I'm going to send in this paperwork now, some of it, and then I'll find the other documents and I'll get those later?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

MR BROWNLEE: Okay

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And you replied to him; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And if we move up, what you -- first word you said is, "Yes " So were you telling him it was okay for him to go ahead and fax the documents and then get the supporting documentation later?

A Correct

Q Okay Let me just ask you

MR BROWNLEE: You can take that down

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Were you aware at the time that Governor McDonnell was in the middle of a legislative session?

A Yes He mentioned it to me in one of our conversations

Q Okay And did he mention that in the sense of how busy he was and that he had a lot going on?

A I think that goes without mentioning

Q Okay Great

MR BROWNLEE: Okay Let's pull up RM-1787-0006 87

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay And I believe you've -- this has been introduced by the United States as Government's Exhibit 480

MR BROWNLEE: This is in evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

MR BROWNLEE: If you would publish it. Now, let's start at the very top, if we can. If you'll blow up just the very top part

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right Can you read this for us, Ms Bolt?

A "This application is designed to be completed by the applicant with the lender's assistance Applicants should complete this form as borrower or co-borrower as applicable Co-borrower information must be provided and appropriate boxed checked "

Q Okay Let me stop you there So it says co-borrower information must also be provided if that box is checked; is that -- and then check the appropriate box; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, on this application, or this document, are there any boxes checked?

A No, there is not

Q Okay So let's start, then, with the last line, beginning with "If "

A "If this" --

Q And read that for us

A "If this application" -- "if this is an application for joint credit, borrower and co-borrower each agree that we intend to apply for joint credit (sign below) "

Q Okay And this is unsigned; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay Let's look at the asset section of this Is it fair to say that in looking at all the documents that Mr Dry introduced to you and you talked about, that Mr McDonnell didn't include many assets in this -- in this submission; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And once again, to state the obvious, in a loan, assets are good; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And they improve the chances of getting a refi; is that correct?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay Well, if one is applying for a loan, the more assets you have, the greater likelihood you'll get a loan?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: She's indicated assets are good

MR BROWNLEE: Okay Thank you

THE COURT: Why do you want to beat the dead horse?

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And -- we'll come back and look at that

Now, in one section here -- if you could blow it up -- his application talked about a note for a car for 9,877 Do you see that?

A Yes

Q Okay But if you look on the asset page, he didn't include the actual collateral for the car itself?

A Correct

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: You can take that down

All right Let's look at Page 9 of 1787 If you'd blow up the middle section here

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, this is a document that was dated February 1st that he sent back to you; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And in the "Liabilities" section, did he add $704,000 worth of debt?

A Yes, he did

Q Okay And then another $250,000 in debt; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And that was sent back to you on February 1st?

A Correct

Q Okay All right So you received this on --

MR BROWNLEE: We can take that down

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q -- on the 1st And then let's look at -- I believe on the 15th -- you had a call, I think you talked about, and then there was some additional information sent to you on the 15th; is that correct?

A Yes

MR BROWNLEE: Let's you pull up 0591-09 009

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay And do you remember Mr Dry showing you this?

A Yes

Q Okay And this is -- Mr McDonnell --

MR BROWNLEE: If you could blow up that last -- that bottom part

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Mr McDonnell is indicating that he is sending several faxes One of them is 18 pages, and one of them is 34 pages; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And these are for -- these are forms for two additional properties that --

MR BROWNLEE: Can we publish this?

MR DRY: I don't believe it's bee -- I don't think the top has been admitted I think this is a -- this is a chain where the top has not been admitted We don't object to it admitting it

MR BROWNLEE: Okay I thought this was in I'm sorry

We would request admission of 0591, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q So he's sending you some documents on this date, some facsimiles; is that correct?

A Correct

Q With some additional information And most of this information has to do with two additional properties that they are considering refinancing; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And what he says is --

MR BROWNLEE: If we go to the actual page, let's look at 0591 Go ahead The next page Let's look at 0591 The next page The next page Keep going

Actually, let's look at RM-0612 No

Okay Your Honor --

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q If you'll take a look at this, is this one of the facsimiles that was sent to you on February 15th, 2013?

A Yes

MR BROWNLEE: All right Your Honor, we move in RM-0612

MR DRY: No objection

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right And Mr McDonnell wrote, "Nan, here are the forms for the loan As discussed on the phone, please disregard the ones that have the incorrect loan amounts and resend when revised"; is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: And if we could look at page 18

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay On top, is it true Mr McDonnell has written in "for 770 Devils Knob Loop"?

A Yes

Q And if you go to the bottom where it says, "Total Assets" -- I think it's on the next page -- it says 804

And if you move to the right -- keep going -- what does it have for "Total Liabilities"?

A Zero

Q Zero Right Okay And if you go to the next page, and one more page Excuse me At the bottom, did Mr McDonnell sign this as well?

A Yes, he did

Q Okay All right Any reason why he would have signed this having put no liabilities on it?

MR DRY: Objection Calls for --

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay Let's look at RM-0612-0032 And, again, this is another application, still for Devils Knob Loop?

A Correct

Q And if we go down to the next page, once again, he puts in no liabilities; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And if you look at the next page and the one next, he signs this one as well?

A Correct

Q Okay Let's move along If we go to the actual February 18th application

MR BROWNLEE: I believe that is Government's Exhibit 487

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And this is what he faxed you on the 18th; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay And when you received this, is it fair you've testified that it struck you that he must have used his free time over the weekend to review what he had previously sent and had come up with these edits?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor She did not testify to that

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Well, let me ask it this way When you got this, did you have any sense of that?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Just ask her a question about a fact

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q When you got this, what did you think, ma'am?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Fair to say that you were not surprised to get these edits?

A Correct

Q Okay Now, let me walk through, if I can, a couple of things on this document We'll try to do this quickly

MR BROWNLEE: Can we go to the next page?

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q All right First of all, in the very top part that we had talked about earlier, in this one he signed the very top, indicating the borrower and -- that he was a borrower; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: Let's move down The next page And let's look at the right-hand column

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q I believe Mr Dry discussed this with you Mr Dry talked about these edits on the right-hand side, and that you said that -- I think you said this was in an effort to try to clear this up; is that correct?

A Correct

Q All right What was confusing at the time?

A The number of liens against the number of properties not totally reflecting all on the individual's application It was also reflected on his sister's application I believe there was one lien that was not reported on the credit report, which is where I was kind of vague until I became more familiar with the application

Q Okay And so fair to say that what he's providing here is giving you clarity as to some of this confusion?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: All right Let's move to Page 5

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And then on the right-hand side there, also providing you additional information about which one is co-signed, guarantors and things for some of these other debts; is that correct?

A Correct

MR BROWNLEE: All right Let's go down to the next page Actually, if you could go one page up One more up Okay And on the left-hand side for the assets.

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay Here, he's added -- or edited certain things This PedFed IRA and Share Okay Do you see that?

A Yes, I do

Q Okay He's also added the Star Scientific stock I believe he's also added a life insurance policy with a cash value of about $4,000; is that correct?

A Yes

Q Okay He's also added his ownership of this 2005 Toyota; is that correct?

A Yes

Q And then he's also added the 457 and the 401 Plans and then the Racehorse, LLC?

A Correct

Q And take my word for it That adds to up about $243,000 Challenge that?

A I can't challenge it

Q Okay Fair enough All right

MR BROWNLEE: And then if you move to the other side If you blow that up

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q The Starwood Trust and the loans from Mr Williams put on there, those equal 120,000; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay Let's look at RM-0591-0037 And if you look at the line second from the bottom there -- first of all, this is an e-mail from you; is that correct?

A Correct

Q All right

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, we move in RM-0591

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor This is subsequent to the charge account, and any communications other than what Mr McDonnell is telling to her after about these --

MR BROWNLEE: I think we should approach

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench)

MR DRY: Your Honor, I think we're going to start veering into materiality world if we're going for anything after February 18th

THE COURT: What's the point of it?

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, the charge account is February 1 So once the government went beyond February 1, they have put in play all the communications after that So we think that's all relevant, particularly -- we are not talking about materiality We're talking about the ultimate question that this witness --

THE COURT: I mean, tell me what this is going to prove that's relevant to this

MR BROWNLEE: Two points One is that this was, in fact, a draft This is a charge account for a first draft in a multi-layer process That's one Secondly --

THE COURT: When was the draft?

MR BROWNLEE: The February 1 submission I mean, that's the charged offense What he submitted in, in February, the first thing he submitted is what the government alleges is false The government has already gone beyond that date So --

THE COURT: Don't start -- a tit for tat is not an argument

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor --

THE COURT: Tell me again I want to make sure

I understand Your point is that this document indicates that the relevant document was a draft Is that -- that's your point?

MR BROWNLEE: Yes, sir That is one That is one thing Secondly -- or where we ultimately get is that when he submitted it, there was no intent to influence because it was a draft Secondly, what we'll ultimately get to is that the loans themselves do not need to be on this form

THE COURT: That's a complete -- yeah The objection is overruled Go ahead

MR DRY: Thank you

(In Open Court)

MR BROWNLEE: If we could pull up RM-0591-0037 And if we highlight that again

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Second to the last line, could you please read that?

A "I am continuing to review the documentation you provided and am including it in all files open now "

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: We can take that down If we could pull up RM-0598

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, two days later, this is an e-mail from you; is that correct?

A Correct

MR BROWNLEE: All right We move into RM-0598

MR DRY: Objection It has the defendant's hearsay on the top

THE COURT: Let me see it Just let me have it, if you've got a hard copy

MR BROWNLEE: Do you have a hard copy of that?

(At Bench)

MR DRY: If Mr McDonnell wants to get on the stand and talk about this document is one thing But getting into this, it's hearsay to Nanette Bolt two weeks after the February 1st and after he disclosed the Starwood Trust and Jonnie Williams relationship

THE COURT: This witness is not on this?

MR DRY: She's on it But he's the one writing to her

MR BROWNLEE: He's writing back to her

MR DRY: It's hearsay

THE COURT: Let me see

MR DRY: He has to take the stand and talk about it

MR BROWNLEE: Well, he's going to, but --

MR DRY: Your Honor, they shouldn't be able to put the defendant's statements of Nanette Bolt --

THE COURT: Just be quiet

MR DRY: Yes, sir

THE COURT: The objection is overruled

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you, Your Honor

(In Open Court)

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, we move in RM-0598

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q So two days later, you asked for some loan documentation; is that correct?

A Correct

Q All right And then he responded to you If you -- Governor McDonnell responded If you move up And this is on February 22nd, 2013 Do you remember this e-mail?

A Yes

Q Essentially, what is he telling you here?

A He received the appraisal on 3112, and the appraisal came up much lower than anticipated

Q Okay So he's letting you know that --

A Yes

Q -- and trying to come up with ways that they can continue to work with you all?

A Yes Yes

Q Okay All right Thank you Now, if you go down, you were asked about -- if you look in the middle of the page there, you were asked about these loans; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And I believe Mr Dry -- messed up my dates here maybe But you talked with Mr McDonnell on the phone after that; is that right?

A Yes

Q Okay And do you remember what he told you about those loans?

A The 70,000 was MoBo, and the 54,000 would have been to -- I believe it was Maureen

Q All right And did he tell you that these were balloon loans and there were no payments due until 2013?

A That was the 0/36 Zero due in three, and zero due in two

Q Okay

MR BROWNLEE: We can take that down

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Now, Ms Bolt, this process went through -- and I'm going to try to just cut to this -- over time, and ultimately, these loans closed, I believe, in the May, June time frame of 2013; is that correct?

A The primary residence I believe closed in April

Q Okay

A And the other -- Devils Knob Loop and 3112 I believe closed both in May

Q Okay

A Or beginning of June

Q Okay And is it -- when these things went to closing -- let me just talk about the MoBo loans first Did the bank make a judgment that the MoBo loans did not need to be on the application?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

MR BROWNLEE: Okay

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Well, let me ask it this way When you prepared for closing, after having -- going through this whole process, were the MoBo loans on the final closing documents?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Nope She can answer that

Go ahead

A They were reflected on the application

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q The MoBo loans?

A No The MoBo loans were not I'm sorry I misunderstood your question

Q Okay And tell us why those loans were not on the closing documents

MR DRY: Objection

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Well, would the fact that they were not on there, was that a decision of the bank?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Let me talk -- let me focus on this again, because I want to make sure we have this The MoBo loans you testified to were not reflected on the final closing papers?

MR DRY: Asked and answered

THE COURT: Sustained

MR. BROWNLEE: Okay.

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q And can you tell us why?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained

MR BROWNLEE: Your Honor, can we approach?

THE COURT: No, we cannot

MR BROWNLEE: Okay

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q One of the things you requested were tax returns; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay And can you tell us why you requested tax returns?

A Personal tax returns?

Q Business tax returns

A Business tax returns To reflect any income or loss of income on any of the companies that were held by the borrowers

Q Okay Did you request tax returns for MoBo?

A Yes

Q Okay And did you receive those?

A I did

Q Okay And did you receive those before closing?

A Yes

Q Okay Let me ask --

MR BROWNLEE: I'm just about done, Your Honor

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Let me ask about Ms McDonnell's loan Was that loan on the final closing documents, that you recall?

A Not initially, no

Q Not initially Okay And did that have anything to do with the nature of this balloon payment that this loan reflected?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor The reason that it wasn't on there is immaterial We're getting into the materiality analysis again

THE COURT: No I -- she can answer that

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q Okay Why wasn't that loan on the final closing papers?

MR DRY: That's a different question, Your Honor

THE COURT: That is a different question

MR BROWNLEE: Okay Let me see if I can remember the one before, Judge

BY MR BROWNLEE:

Q With regard to Ms McDonnell's loan, you testified it was not on there, on the final closing papers originally; is that correct?

A Correct

Q Okay Why?

MR DRY: Objection, Your Honor

BY THE COURT:

Q The question was the balloon payments, what impact did that have on them not being on or being on the form?

A There were no immediate payments due at that time

Q Thank you

MR BROWNLEE: Thank you

All right Thank you for your patience, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Mr Burck

MR BURCK: Thank you, Your Honor

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR BURCK:

Q Good afternoon, Ms Bolt My name is Bill Burck, and I represent Maureen McDonnell

A Hello

Q Just starting off where Mr Brownlee left off You testified that the personal loan to Maureen McDonnell was initially not on the final application; is that right?

A Correct

Q And you also testified that the MoBo loan was not on the final application; is that right?

A The MoBo loans were not on any of the applications

Q Any of the applications, right?

A Correct

Q And they had been disclosed to you by Governor McDonnell prior to the final application; is that right?

A Yes

Q And did you give them the loan, the McDonnells?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, you testified earlier about a conversation that happened on January 23rd of 2013 And you said that you recall that Governor McDonnell was on and Maureen McDonnell sister was on the call?

A Yes

Q And you were not -- you said that you did not recall if Ms McDonnell was on the call, right?

A Correct

Q And you had to be shown a document by Mr Dry to refresh your recollection that she was on the call?

A Correct

Q Is it fair to say that even though she was on the call, that you don't recall her saying anything on that call?

A Correct

Q Okay.

A She -- if she was there, she didn't speak much

Q Okay And is it fair to say that the Governor did -- the Governor and Maureen the sister, who you recall being on the call, did most of the talking?

A Correct

Q You have no idea if she was even listening on that call, do you?

A I -- I -- I don't know

Q Okay Now, the -- you've testified about a number of conversations and e-mails you had with Governor McDonnell today And do you recall having any specific conversations with Ms McDonnell, Maureen McDonnell, the wife, about this application?

A Not very much

Q Okay Is it fair to say that Governor McDonnell was the person you were dealing with with respect --

A Point of contact, right

Q And getting information during the various iterations of the application, that information came from Governor McDonnell, right?

A Correct

Q Okay Just to -- one thing that I -- clear

MR BURCK: Can you show RM-2049, please I think this is already in evidence Actually, you know what It's not worth the time You can take it down That's okay Thanks

BY MR BURCK:

Q Now, just a couple of last questions. On the forms that were -- the various iterations of the application, there was one dated February 15, 2013, and that is RM-0612 I believe that's in evidence It's a government exhibit

MS TARAKTCHIAN: 06 --

MR BURCK: 0612

MR DRY: I don't think that we introduced it I think he may have, but I'm not sure So many --

MR BURCK: This is in evidence, Your Honor It's RM-0612

THE COURT: All right

BY MR BURCK:

Q And this is a fax cover sheet dated February 15, 2013 It's from Robert McDonnell to yourself Do you see that?

A Yes

Q And you testified a little bit about this document

A Yes

Q Were you aware on that date that Ms. McDonnell was interviewed by the FBI -- excuse me -- by the Virginia State Police?

A No

Q Okay And Mr McDonnell didn't tell you about that?

A No

Q Okay

MR BURCK: If you turn to -- please turn to page 0612-00019 And if you blow up the bottom half of it, please, just so it's easier to read

BY MR BURCK:

Q This is a page that you testified about in response to questions from Mr Brownlee And it is -- it's supposed to list assets and liabilities; is that right?

A Correct

Q Do you see anything listed on either side, other than a total number?

A No

Q So you don't see any assets and no liabilities listed?

A Correct

Q And then a few -- two pages later, 0612-00021, that's -- I think you testified that was signed, actually, by Mr McDonnell, and it appears to be Ms McDonnell as well, on the 13th, right?

A Correct

Q Okay So this document didn't contain any assets or liabilities?

A Correct

Q And was this a document that -- that there are typewritten notes or typewritten aspects of it? This was typed in by you?

A Yes.

Q Okay

MR BURCK: And then finally, on -- can you bring up the February 18, 2015, document Government Exhibit -- this is the -- the -- RM- -- Your Honor, just one moment

THE COURT: Sure

MR BURCK: Government Exhibit 487 Thank you

BY MR BURCK:

Q And this is the -- you've testified about this document as well This is from Governor McDonnell to yourself on the 18th, a few days after the 15th, correct?

A Yes

Q And on this document, page -- the third page of the exhibit, right I know you've testified a bit about this today too, so I'm sorry to replow old ground But on this page is handwriting from the Governor listing additional assets and liabilities; is that right?

A Correct

Q And, for example, he -- Mr Dry took you through the Starwood Trust and the Jonnie Williams, right?

A Correct

Q And he also mentioned the Racehorse, LLC, right?

A Correct

Q Do you see that there's also an addition of a car, the 2005 Toyota Avalon?

A Correct

Q And the 457 Plan, the 401(a) Plan?

A Correct

Q And above that there's an IRA and Share? Do you see that above the Star Scientific stock?

A Correct

Q So this had not been previously provided by the Governor as of that date, right?

A Correct

MR BURCK: Your Honor, just one moment

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR BURCK: That's it for us, Your Honor Thank you

THE COURT: All right Redirect?

MR DRY: Can we have -- can we have RM-229? Can you -- somebody RM-229 I believe it was the first document

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR DRY:

Q Ma'am, I believe Mr Brownlee talked about this and the highlighting

MR DRY: Can you blow up the highlighting again?

BY MR DRY:

Q Did you ever have any discussions with Mr McDonnell discussing the policy regarding disclosure of his information by bank staff?

A I don't recall having that conversation

Q Okay

MR DRY: Let's bring up RM-2050 And can you -- can we scroll through and -- just scroll through some pages Do you guys have a paper copy? Do you have a paper copy? Okay

BY MR DRY:

Q I'm sorry Do you see this?

A Yes

Q Mr Brownlee took you through a lot of things that were talking about how things hadn't happened until the closing table, that there was things that had to happen before the -- after the application, the URLA was filed before closing Do you remember those questions?

A Yes

Q Before you could order appraisals, before you could go through that process, did you have to get the loan application from him?

A Yes

Q So that was like a necessary first step, right?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR DRY: Now, let's go to Government's Exhibit 480, please And then let's go to the second page Actually, I think I'm going to -- can we get to the URLA? The loan application Right there And can you blow up the top of that?

BY MR DRY:

Q Now, Mr Brownlee asked you about the check boxes of whether it was going to be a joint application or not, right?

A Correct

Q From your conversation with Mr and Ms McDonnell on the 23rd, did you understand this was going to be a joint application?

A Yes

MR DRY: And can we actually go down, please

BY MR DRY:

Q And, in fact, when you were building this loan application and when Mr McDonnell is doing handwritten notes, is he providing information for both himself and his wife?

A Yes

Q And then -- I'm sorry, ma'am You've seen this document before, correct?

A Yes

Q This URLA?

A Yes

Q Do you recall, in reviewing it, ever seeing anything about first draft or draft anywhere on this document?

A No

Q Okay And Mr Brownlee, he talked about, I think, your role is to assist in helping a borrower in filling out this information and collecting information, right? Do you recall that question?

A Correct

MR DRY: Can we go to the signature block, please I think it's going to be on the second page of the URLA Third page, then

BY MR DRY:

Q Ma'am, is there anywhere for you to sign and make any representations regarding the accuracy of this information?

MR BROWNLEE: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Overruled

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you have to sign this?

A Typically, it's signed down at the bottom My name is down there

Q But are you making any representations regarding the accuracy of the information?

A No

Q Whose responsibility is that?

A The borrower's

MR DRY: And then let's go -- I just need -- thank you very much

MR BURCK: Sure

MR DRY: I really appreciate it

BY MR DRY:

Q You were asked questions about the additions of information I believe on the fourth page of the exhibit -- or I'm sorry Fourth page of the URLA

MR DRY: It's going to be Bates number GMP-02588172 Right there Can we blow up that middle part?

BY MR DRY:

Q Now, ma'am, we talked a lot -- there's confusion about which loan went with which But is it going to be possible for you to actually give the McDonnells the money that they are applying for for 3112 and 3113 later without knowing what the correct amounts are?

A Correct

Q You have to know what the liens are in order to refinance the property, right?

A Yes

Q Okay

MR DRY: Then let's go to -- let's go to 0612 RM-0612, please Can we -- 0612

Oh, I think we need to flip it Okay And the first page, please 0612-1 Right there

BY MR DRY:

Q Do you know what time of day Mr McDonnell faxed this to you?

A I don't see a time on it

Q Okay

MR DRY: And can we go through the document slowly so I can -- keep going All right Stop there One page back

BY MR DRY:

Q What is the date that Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell are signing this document?

A 2/13/2013

Q Okay

MR DRY: And can we keep going, please I'm sorry I'm having to do this I just don't have a paper copy I want to get to the URLAs that were discussed Oh, stop there One page back

BY MR DRY:

Q What date is being signed there by Ms McDonnell?

A 2/13/2013

MR DRY: Thanks a lot, John I really appreciate it Was this in the admitted exhibit?

MR BROWNLEE: I don't think so Not the top

MR DRY: Okay

Then let's go to -- I believe we talked about total assets and -- let's go to the 19th page, 0612-19

BY MR DRY:

Q Now, when you're sending this, ma'am, is this populated?

A No

Q It's not populated Why isn't it populated with all the information?

A I, most likely, didn't populate the information before sending out the application

Q And when you're sending this, this is just the -- had you already been informed to use the 770 information for these loans?

A I don't recall

Q Okay Well, let's do it this way

MR DRY: Can I pull up -- actually, I don't think I need to

And can you go down a little bit further on this one, please

I apologize, Your Honor

Right to the -- can we go to 612-21?

BY MR DRY:

Q And I believe you were shown the signature at the top?

A Correct

Q Do you remember that?

MR DRY: Can we scroll down to the bottom?

BY MR DRY:

Q What date is Mr and Ms McDonnell signing this?

A February 13th, 2013

MR DRY: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel.)

MR DRY: Nothing further Thank you, ma'am

THE COURT: All right Thank you, ma'am You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: We're going to stop here for lunch And if you all could come back at -- let's make it 2:25, we'll get started with the afternoon session

MR DRY: Judge, just one thing

MR DRY: I just want to confirm We don't object to the bank record portions coming in, but there's a lot of handwritten notes on the first page and the back page that we didn't know were going in So to the extent that they are in, we'd object to any of that

MR BROWNLEE: Right That was not admitted, and we'll make sure we get it all cleaned up, Your Honor

THE COURT: Okay

MR DRY: Thank you, Your Honor

(Luncheon recess taken from 1:09 p.m. to 2:25 p.m.)

THE COURT: Let's bring in the jury

(The jury entered the courtroom.)

All right, government, call your next witness, please

MR. FAULCONER: The United States calls Jeffrey Creekmore

JEFFREY CREEKMORE,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Good afternoon

A How are you doing?

Q Could you please state your name and spell your last for the court reporter?

A Jeffrey Creekmore, C-R-E-E-K-M-O-R-E

Q What city do you currently live in?

A Chesapeake, Virginia

Q Could you briefly tell the jury what sort of educational background you have?

A I have a Bachelors degree from James Madison University

Q And where are you currently employed?

A Heritage Bank in Norfolk, Virginia.

Q What is your title or role there?

A Senior Vice President, Business Banking Executive, essentially a commercial loan officer

Q Now, have you ever met Mr or Ms Robert or Maureen McDonnell?

A I have not

Q Can you tell us, though, whether Heritage Bank has ever done any business with entities that are affiliated with Mr McDonnell?

A Heritage Bank currently banks Poole Mahoney, which was formerly Huff, Poole & Mahoney which was the law firm that Mr McDonnell was a partner in

Q Have you also done some loans for an entity called Racehorse, LLC?

A Racehorse Properties, LLC. Yes, sir Racehorse Properties is a holding company that was formed in 2004, I believe, by ten partners of Huff, Poole & Mahoney to purchase a building where the law firm would operate out of it

Q Is one of those partners Mr McDonnell?

A He is

Q Can you tell us what -- are there two types of loans that you had with them or can you describe what the loans are that you had?

A Yes, sir We have a commercial mortgage, which is a first mortgage that we refinanced from the institution that originated it, and later, we refinanced it again and combined a second mortgage that was held on that property into one loan. And we also have a line of credit to that entity that's used for, very rarely, for repair purposes, tenant upgrades, things like that The law firm does not occupy the entire building, so sometimes it is used for tenant outfit for a new tenant in the additional parts of the building

Q Do these loans go back a number of years?

A Yes, sir The line of credit goes back to 2006 with Heritage Bank, and the mortgage was refinanced originally over in 2009

Q All right Now, can you tell us what a personal financial statement is?

A A personal financial statement is a document that the bank requests from guarantors on a loan who are going to be personally obligated for the debt of the loan that basically states the assets and liabilities of the individual who is guaranteeing the loan.

Q Is it common for you to request those as part of a loan renewal process on a periodic basis?

A That's correct

Q Did you require them at various times for these transactions, the two that you have mentioned?

A Yes, sir, we have We require it on, I believe, an annual basis for the line of credit renewal, and also, when we did the refinance with the first mortgage combining the second and first, we also requested them.

Q Typically, would you request them from all ten partners?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been admitted as Exhibit 106 There we go. Mr Creekmore, do you recognize what type of document this is?

A Yes, sir, that is Heritage Bank's standard personal financial statement

Q And looking at this, is this a personal financial statement that came from the files for these loans?

A Yes, sir

Q Could you tell us what the date is there stamped in the upper right-hand corner as received?

A Received on June 15th, 2011

Q Can you tell us what the crossed-out date is there next to "As of"?

A The crossed-out date is June 1st, 2011

Q Is that June or may?

A May 1st, 2011 I apologize

Q What's the actual date for the personal financial statement?

A December 31st, 2010

Q Now, that "Date Received," is that the date that you got it at Heritage Bank?

A I assume that's what that stamp represents, yes, sir.

Q If we can go down to the lower right-hand corner, am I reading correctly that first line says, "Other Loans Payable"?

A That's correct

Q And then "Liabilities of Proprietorships" and "Liabilities of Partnerships/Joint Ventures" down below that?

A That's correct

Q Now, if we could turn briefly to what's been admitted as Exhibit 373 Do you recognize this document?

A That's also Heritage Bank's personal financial statement

Q Is this a later one dated April 30th of 2012?

A That's correct

Q Was this in the Heritage Bank files for a subsequent renewal process?

A That is correct.

Q Now, if we could zoom in on the box in the lower right-hand corner Does that, I know it is harder to read on this one, but does that list all the same categories we saw on that form just a moment ago?

A Yes, sir, it is the same form.

Q On this form, is there anything listed under "Other Loans Payable"?

A No, there is not

Q Is there anything listed under liabilities of proprietorships?

A No, there is not

Q Is there anything listed under "Liabilities of Partnerships/Joint Ventures"?

A No, there is not

Q If we could turn on this document to, I believe, the last page, Page 4 If we could zoom in on the "Representations and Warranties" at the bottom. Now, sir, I'm not going to ask you to try to read this one, but have you had a chance to compare the "Representations and Warranties" on this financial statement, the April 30th, 2012 one, to that other one that we looked at a moment ago from December of 2010?

A It is the same form.

Q So if we could go back to Exhibit 106 And sir, could you read just the first three lines of those representations and warranties there?

A "The information contained in this statement is provided to induce Heritage Bank (Heritage) to extend or to continue the extension of credit to the undersigned or to others upon the guaranty of the undersigned. The undersigned acknowledge and understand that Heritage is relying on the information provided herein in deciding to grant or continue credit or to accept a guaranty thereof Each of the undersigned represents, warrants, and certifies that the information provided herein is true, correct, and complete "

Q If we could scroll down, what's the date that this one is signed?

A Signed May 1st, 2011

Q All right And now I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 394 Sir, is this a credit report from your Heritage Bank files?

A Yes, sir, it is

Q Is that date there June 14th of 2012?

A That's correct

Q So is this part of the annual review for the second renewal that we have been talking about?

A That date would most likely have been the renewal of the line of credit for Racehorse Properties

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 394 into evidence

MR SMALL: Objection as to relevance.

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Just to clarify, if we could go back to Exhibit 373 Could you tell us what the date is there?

A April 30th, 2012

Q So going back to Exhibit 394, that's June 14th, 2012, right?

A Correct

Q Have you had an opportunity to review this credit report before coming into Court?

A I have not reviewed it as of very recently, no, sir

Q Let me hand up a paper copy to you with the assistance of the security officer

(Document proffered to witness)

Taking a look at this --

MR SMALL: Can I see that?

MR. FAULCONER: It is up on the screen.

MR. SMALL: I wanted to take a look at the whole thing

MR. FAULCONER: One moment

THE COURT: Why don't you go ahead while they look for that

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Sir, could you take a look at that document and look at each page of that credit report and tell us, look to see whether or not there is anything referencing Jonnie

Williams or Starwood Trust

(Witness perusing document)

A No, sir, I do not see anything referencing either of those two items

Q All right

MR. FAULCONER: One moment, Your Honor.

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right

MR. FAULCONER: I believe 106 was admitted on Mayor Sessoms' testimony yesterday, but if not, I would move it into evidence now

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. SMALL:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Creekmore My name is Dan Small I represent Bob McDonnell I think we talked briefly on the phone a week or two ago, sir

A Right

Q I appreciate your being here You weren't here this morning in Court The jury has heard a lot of this, so I'm going to try to move pretty quickly through it If I move too fast for you, just let me know All right?

The government interviewed you several times in this investigation, correct?

A Yes, sir

Q And they interviewed you about these loans, correct?

A Yes, sir

Q They never actually showed you the loan documents, though, did they? Relating to Jonnie Williams

MR. FAULCONER: Objection. There are no loan documents

THE WITNESS: No, sir, I did not receive any

BY MR. SMALL:

Q They never showed you any of the checks, did they, sir?

A No, sir

Q Now, going to, I guess 373, please This is your bank's form, correct?

A Correct

Q And it is a form for a personal financial statement, correct?

A Correct

Q And it is dated April 30th, 2012, right?

A Yes, sir

Q Now, personal financial statement means it is for an individual, correct?

A Yes, sir

Q You all have a different form if there is an entity applying for a loan, correct?

A We would generally request the tax returns or financial statements of that entity, yes, sir

Q All right So this is for a person, and the person here is Robert F McDonnell, correct?

A Correct

Q He is the only person listed on this

A Yes, sir

Q Going down a little bit, go up just a little bit here, okay, so right in the middle there, there is a box with writing in capital letters Do you see that, sir?

A Yes, sir

Q That box says, "You may apply for credit individually or jointly with another party " Have I read that correctly?

A Yes, sir, you have

Q Below that, there are about four lines of text which I'm not going to try to read, but am I correct that those are the instructions on how to apply either individually or jointly? Is that fair?

A Correct

Q And then below that, there are two boxes One says, "Individual Financial Statement," the other says, "Joint Financial Statement " Correct?

A Yes, sir

Q And there is a box to check one or the other, and here, individual has been checked, correct?

A Yes, sir

Q And then below that box, blow up the box again, where it is checked. Right below there, it says, "Does not include jointly-held assets " Is that correct?

A That's correct

Q And then right below that, it says, "If joint, complete the following " And all of that is left blank; is that correct?

A Yes, sir

Q So it is clear on the bank's practice, this is an individual personal financial statement for Mr McDonnell, correct?

A That's how it is intended, yes, sir

Q Not a joint statement, correct?

A Correct

Q Now, there are three loans related to Jonnie Williams or Starwood Trust Let me just walk through them very quickly Going first to RM-0896, already admitted, do you see this as a check -- that's the wrong one

MR. FAULCONER: This has not been admitted.

MR SMALL: No. Did I have the wrong number? I want the Starwood Trust check to Maureen McDonnell I have it as 96, but I could have the wrong number

(Document displayed.)

BY MR. SMALL:

Q You see this check from Starwood Trust to Maureen McDonnell?

A Yes, sir

MR. SMALL: That's been admitted. Please publish it

MR. FAULCONER: 896 has not been admitted There is a version of this that's a government exhibit, not this document

MR. SMALL: What number is that?

MR. FAULCONER: One moment

THE COURT: Is there some problem with offering this exhibit as your own, even though the government --

MR. SMALL: I have no problem.

THE COURT: That's too bad then That way we know what's in

MR FAULCONER: We ask it be just this page, Your Honor

MR. SMALL: That's fine to offer this page

THE COURT: It will be admitted. Give us the number again.

MR SMALL: I have 0896-0015

THE COURT: All right It will be admitted.

BY MR SMALL:

Q And this is a check from Starwood Trust to Maureen

McDonnell, correct?

A Yes, sir

Q So am I correct that based on your experience with Heritage Bank and your form, the bank's practice would be that a loan to a different individual would not have to appear on a personal financial statement, correct?

A Correct

Q And that would include a loan to a spouse would not have to appear on a personal financial statement, correct?

A If that statement was individual, it would not, correct

Q And we already said this is an individual personal financial statement Correct?

A Yes

Q So clearly, a loan, if this was a loan, I know you weren't here for the testimony, but if this was a loan to Maureen McDonnell, it would not have to appear on the Heritage Bank statement, correct?

MR. FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Only to the fact that it has been stated a number of times

MR SMALL: Okay

BY MR. SMALL:

Q Now, are you familiar with an LLC generally? You know what that is?

A Yes, sir

Q Just tell the jury very quickly your understanding of what an LLC is You can take this down.

A Limited liability corporation, often used to -- I see it most often used to hold assets such as real estate or other items that multiple parties can hold an entity in.

Q The prosecutor asked you a question about a proprietorship That's different than an LLC, correct?

A My understanding is, yes, sir

Q He asked you questions about a partnership. That's different from an LLC, correct?

A Yes, sir

MR. FAULCONER: Objection

THE COURT: He can answer the question based on his experience

BY MR. SMALL:

Q Finally, he asked you a question about a joint venture That's also different in your experience

A Legally, yes, sir

Q So pull up 0502 previously admitted Publish it, please I don't know if you have seen this particular document, but you have seen Certificates of Organization of LLC's before, correct?

A Yes, sir, I have

Q This is Certificate of Organization of MoBo Real Estate Partners, LLC, correct?

A Yes, sir

Q And that means that -- well -- so am I correct then, the bank's practice with regards to a personal financial statement such as this one is that a loan to an LLC would not have to appear on the bank's personal financial form, correct?

A The bank has a separate page for contingent liabilities, and if the loan to the LLC was guaranteed by the individual, it would appear on the contingent liability page

Q Fair enough. Let's address that quickly Sometimes, am I correct, you see a loan to an LLC which is in addition to the loan documents or whatever the loan agreement, whatever it is, there is also a personal guarantee by one or more of the members of the LLC, correct?

A That's the practice of our bank, to do a loan

Q You understand that, well, the bank's practice is that a guarantee, a personal guarantee like that has to be a document in writing, correct?

A That's my understanding, yes, sir

Q That's also Virginia law, correct?

A Correct

MR FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. SMALL:

Q And so if there is no written, signed personal guarantee, let's take that situation out, assuming for the moment there is no written, signed personal guarantee, the bank's practice is that a loan to an LLC would not have to be disclosed on a personal individual financial statement; is that correct?

MR. FAULCONER: Objection, Your Honor, hypothetical We have already been over this

THE COURT: Plus it has been asked and answered like five times

MR. SMALL: No, sir, not of this witness, Your Honor

THE COURT: Let's go on to something else

BY MR. SMALL:

Q Could I see Government Exhibit 355? RM-2059 You see this is a $50,000 check from Starwood Trust to MoBo Realty; is that correct?

A Yes, sir

MR. SMALL: One moment, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MR. SMALL: Thank you, Mr Creekmore No further questions

THE COURT: Mr Burck?

MR. BURCK: No questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: Government?

MR FAULCONER: Briefly, Your Honor

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q If we could pull up Exhibit 106 and go to Page 4 I apologize -- oh, there we go In that upper right-hand corner, is that the contingent liability section you were talking about?

A That's a smaller version of it There is a full page on Page 5 of our form.

Q Got it Does that say, "Are you indirectly liable for obligations of others?"

A Yes, it does

Q And turning to Page 5, is that a longer list for those types of liabilities?

A Yes, sir

MR FAULCONER: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: Thank you, sir You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

Call your next witness, please

MS ABER: George Floyd

GEORGE FLOYD,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government,

having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Good afternoon, sir Please state your name and spell it for the court reporter

A Good evening It is George, G-E-O-R-G-E, Floyd, F-L-O-Y-D.

Q And where do you work, sir?

A I work for Verizon Wireless

Q What is your title there?

A I am a custodian of records

Q How long have you been so employed?

A I have been employed for six years with Verizon Wireless

Q As the custodian of records, have you received training on how Verizon keeps records of phone calls and text messages and data?

A Yes, I have received several hours of training

Q Okay In short, are you aware that Mr and Ms McDonnell are Verizon customers?

A Yes, I am.

Q Did Verizon get a federal grand jury subpoena back in April of 2013 for subscriber information and toll records related to their account?

A Yes, we did.

Q Did Verizon produce records in response to that subpoena?

A Yes, we did

Q I'd like to walk through very briefly a couple pages of that. I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 145 Sir, with the assistance of the Court Security Officer, I'd like to show you an unredacted version of this to help you follow along

(Document proffered to witness)

Are these a few pages from the very many documents that Verizon produced in response to the subpoena?

A Yes

MS ABER: I would move 145 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MS ABER:

Q If we could back out for one second Is it fair to say this is the first page of a bill sent to Robert McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Okay If we could zoom in there, please Going to the second page, is it accurate that this is what you might call a toll record?

A Yes

Q What's a toll record?

A A toll record, and this is commonly known, as you stated, as a bill, toll records are pretty much the records that we store that can consist of text messages, call logs, and even data transferring information from one device to another

Q Okay And does this show that the phone number associated with Bob McDonnell ends in the four digits 0714?

A Yes, it does

Q Okay So walking through the columns here very briefly, specifically taking the first row as an example, tell the jury what each of those columns means, please

A Yes The first column to the far left is the Date That's the date that the call was processed The next column is the Time That's the time that the call was processed. It is based upon the origin on the call, where the time zone indicates In this case, it would be Eastern Standard Time The Number that you see is the number that was called, and in some cases, it would appear as the number that the call was made to as being the call that was received. The Rate, that's basically how Verizon Wireless bills the calls As you can see, it is Peak, so that means that it was during the time frame of 6 a.m. in the morning to 9 p.m. at night Off Peak indicates that, of course, it is a night call and you have your weekend calls Usage Type, it says "M to M," that means on the very first one at the top, that shows that's a mobile-to-mobile call Origination, that shows where the call was actually processed from. So as I stated earlier, if a call was processed on the East Coast, it is going to be East Coast time, or if it is processed on the West Coast, it will be West Coast time And again, the Origin indicates that The Destination indicates where the call was placed to So if a call, as I stated earlier, was made in Virginia and it was processed in California, then it is going to show California in that particular section Then you have the Minute section. All calls are rounded to the next minute, so if you are on a call for 30 seconds, it is basically rounded to the next minute That includes a voicemail as well Then the Airtime Charges, as you can see, there is nothing there, mainly because all of that was indicated in the billing peak hours and what have you

Q How far back does Verizon keep toll records like this?

A On average, it is three to five years

Q This may sound like a silly question, but I have to ask it anyway Does Verizon record phone calls? Do you have content available?

A We record calls for quality and training purposes, which is to train our representatives, and they are only kept for like 30 days

Q Absent a court order, at the time the call was made contemporaneous, could you go back in time and find the content of these calls?

A No, we couldn't

Q Does Verizon keep records of text messages in a similar way?

A Yes, we do

Q How long do you all keep text message data like that?

A We keep text message data in records to where the call was processed from, to That's typically kept for a year The content, meaning the actual message itself, we keep that roughly about three to five days

Q So even with a grand jury subpoena, the government, or anyone with a subpoena, couldn't go back and get content of text messages

A Correct

Q Would a message remain on the cell phone itself if the user had not deleted it?

A Yes

Q Now, are you i liar with an Apple application called iMessaging?

A Yes

Q Is that something that can be used, among other things, on iPhones?

A Yes

Q Tell the jury very simply what is an iMessage

A In contrast to a text message, Verizon Wireless, of course, we keep our text messages because they are sent on our network iMessage is a third-party application, commonly known as a chat They can be used through Apple, Yahoo Messenger, AOL uses it as well Basically, as you just stated, it is something that's kept on the device We process it as data so it is processed through like an IP address, through the Internet from Verizon Wireless's standpoint

Q Would a toll record showing text messages capture iMessages?

A They would not

MS. ABER: One moment, please, Your Honor

(Counsel conferring with co-counsel)

MS ABER: No further questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right Any questions?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS JOCHUM:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Floyd.

A Good afternoon.

Q I'm Elizabeth Jochum. I represent Bob McDonnell

Just a couple questions for you Does a user decide when to use text messaging and when to use Apple iMessage?

A Yes, it is totally independent on the user

Q So if you are engaged in a text message conversation and the phone switches to a Wi-Fi connection, does that automatically transfer the conversation to iMessage?

A It necessarily does not Again, it is really going to be independent on the user

Q iMessage functions very similar, though, to text message conversations?

A Yes It is easy to get them confused. They are typically in the same thread as your text messages so you can easily, you know, attempt to send a text message and actually send an iMessage

Q So a user may, they wouldn't necessarily make a conscientious choice of text message or iMessage, they are just trying to send a message?

A That's totally independent of the user

Q So if you have toll records showing, for example, a thousand text messages between two individuals, that would not necessarily represent the entire universe of messages sent between the two?

A Correct

MS JOCHUM: No further questions

THE COURT: Anything?

MR. BURCK: No questions

THE COURT: Anything else from the government?

MS ABER: No, Your Honor

THE COURT: Thank you, sir You may stand down

(Witness stood aside)

Call your next witness, please

MS ABER: William Long, please

WILLIAM LONG, JR

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS ABER:

Q Good afternoon, sir

A Good afternoon

Q Please state your name for the court reporter

A Sure My name is William John Long, Jr

Q Mr Long, where do you work?

A I work for AT&T

Q In what capacity?

A In the Asset Protection Group

Q How long have you been so employed?

A A little over a year

Q In the course of that position, have you received training on how AT&T keeps records of phone calls, text messages, and data?

A Yes

Q Now, are you aware that a user named Celeste Williams is an AT&T customer?

A Yes.

Q And that a gentleman named Jonnie Williams is listed as a user on her account?

A That is correct

Q Did AT&T get a federal grand jury subpoena back in roughly February of 2013 for subscriber information and toll records for the phone number associated with those folks?

A That's correct

Q Okay Did AT&T produce records in response to that subpoena?

A Yes

MS ABER: I'd like to bring up Government Exhibit 96, please, which has not been admitted. And to facilitate Mr Long, if you don't mind, I'd like to hand him up an unredacted version of what we've got

(Document proffered to witness)

BY MS ABER:

Q Mr Long, before you is an unredacted version On the screen is a redacted version. Does 96 reflect a few pages from the large production that AT&T sent in response to the subpoena?

A Yes, it does

Q Okay

MS ABER: The United States would move 96 into evidence, please

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MS ABER:

Q Very briefly, sir, if we could scroll in on the top, please, could we walk through the columns and let the jury know what kinds of data AT&T maintains on these sorts of calls?

A Sure, absolutely So at the very top in the upper left-hand corner, that first number is just going to be an internal AT&T case number So when we receive the order, our court order compliance folks would create an internal AT&T case number to supply the records So that's an internal number The date below that would be the date that the records were run, and where it says SCAMP, that's the application, internal proprietary application that we use to extract the information from our billing system.

Q Let me direct your attention to the line that says "Voice Usage" for a phone number ending in 5828 Is that affiliated with the user Jonnie Williams on Celeste Williams' account?

A Sorry, repeat that, please

Q Absolutely The phone number there, the number ending in 5828, sir, is that affiliated with the user, Jonnie Williams?

A Yes, it is It is listed as the user on the account

Q Thank you. Scroll down. Tell the jury briefly what is the item, what does that column mean?

A So the item is just a line number for each transaction or connection or event that took place

Q What does Conn Date mean?

A That's going to be the connection date that the transmission or connection actually took place

Q And the third column, what is that?

A The connection time That's going to be the local switch time

Q What does Seizure Time mean?

A Seizure Time is best described as the time it takes somebody to push the send button on their cell phone and the person receiving the call to hit Talk on their phone So it is the time distance between Send and somebody answering the call

Q Okay Originating Number, does that mean the call from which the phone -- the phone number from which the call is coming?

A The Originating Number is going to be the person placing the call

Q Got you. What does Terminating Number mean?

A The Terminating Number is going to be the person receiving the call

Q What does Elapsed Time mean?

A That's going to be the duration of the call itself

Q Number Dialed?

A The Number Dialed is generally going to be the same number that is dialed by the originating number. The number that's being called

Q Moving along quickly to the other columns, is it fair to say these are associated with the serial numbers on the phone and the SIM card?

A That's correct The IMEI is International Mobile Equipment Identification number That's specific to the actual phone And then the IMSI number, International Serial Identification, is specific to the SIM card, which is specific to the phone number

Q Let's back out, please Turning your attention, sir, to the column that says Conn Time, is it fair to say that that reflects the local switch through which the call is being routed?

A That is going to be the local switch where this phone user was at the time that the call was either received or placed.

Q Okay Thank you

A There is no location information, so I can't say

Q Yes, sir Now, how long does AT&T keep these sorts of records?

A We maintain these toll records for seven years

Q And does AT&T record any content of phone calls absent a court order?

A No.

Q Now, does AT&T keep similar records of text messages?

A Yes

Q And how long does AT&T keep those kinds of records?

A For a minimum of four years up to -- it could be seven years

Q In reference to content of text messages, do you all keep that?

A So the content of text messages is maintained, not reviewed, but maintained for a period of seven days going back. It is maintained only for subscribers that use Android devices It is only supplied with court-ordered search warrant through law enforcement And it is only that seven-day period.

Q Finally, are you familiar with a program called iMessaging?

A Yes

Q Would a record of an iMessage appear on an AT&T toll record?

A It would appear somewhere in the data formula that's provided for the data usage It would not show up in the SMS or the Short Message Service, texting, or call records So iMessage doesn't use the AT&T network other than using data It is a proprietary application owned by Apple They would maintain the records I'm not sure if they maintain content, but it is an application proprietary to Apple

MS ABER: One moment, please No further questions, Your Honor Thank you

THE COURT: Any questions from Mr McDonnell?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS JOCHUM:

Q Good afternoon, Mr Long

A Good afternoon.

Q I'm Elizabeth Jochum. I represent Bob McDonnell

A Yes, ma'am.

Q Can you tell us, does a user decide when to use a text message and when to use Apple iMessage?

A There is, I believe, a way to turn that feature on and off with the phone The iMessage is only available on the i products, the Apple products So I can't tell from these records here

Q Do you know under some circumstances if when a user goes from a data service to Wi-Fi, if it can automatically switch from text to iMessage?

A I don't know that information.

Q Okay Do you know if text messages and iMessages show up in the same thread, the same application?

A They are two completely different services, so they don't show up in any of these records, iMessages

Q So the toll records that reflect text messages, SMS, if they happen to show, say, a thousand text messages, that would not reflect necessarily the total communications between the two users?

A I can only speak to these records So if you are asking if it is possible, I'm not sure if folks were using this application or not according to these records So the only thing that I can say is that if there are a thousand text messages listed, that a thousand text messages occurred. So I don't know about this iMessage program, how many messages would travel through that So we maintain data usage, and those iMessages are exchanged through the data usage So we don't maintain records in relationship to applications and what's being used So if somebody is using the iMessage service, it would look no different than if somebody was using Facebook or another type of application

Q But just to clarify, the text messages, the toll records would not show iMessages?

A That's correct

MS JOCHUM: Nothing further, Your Honor

THE COURT: Mr Burck?

MR. BURCK: No questions, Your Honor

THE COURT: Government?

MS ABER: No, Your Honor

THE COURT: All right, sir You may stand down.

(Witness stood aside)

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

MR HARBACH: Thank you, Judge

THE COURT: All right Call your next witness

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, the United States calls Special Agent David Hulser

DAVID HULSER,

called as a witness by and on behalf of the government, having been first duly sworn by the Clerk, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Good afternoon.

A Good afternoon

Q Could you please state your name and spell your last for the court reporter?

A Yes It is David Patrick Hulser, H-U-L-S-E-R

Q How are you currently employed?

A I'm a Special Agent with the FBI

Q And what office of the FBI do you work in?

A The Richmond Division.

Q How long have you been at the FBI?

A It will be 19 years this October

Q What did you do before you worked as an FBI agent?

A I worked for six years with a CPA firm.

Q Now, in your current role as an FBI Special Agent, what are your responsibilities?

A I'm currently assigned to a white-collar criminal squad, which is responsible for public corruption and other financial matters

Q Now, turning to this case, approximately how many agents have worked on this case, to your knowledge?

A Approximately eight

Q What agencies have those been from?

A The FBI, the Virginia State Police, and the IRS

Q Where has your work focused on the course of the investigation?

A Sir, my work has focused primarily on conducting interviews as well as review of texts, toll, and financial records

Q As one of the agents on this case, have you participated in every single interview that's been done?

A I have not

Q Do you know approximately how many interviews have been done?

A In excess of 300

Q Have you reviewed every single document that's been collected?

A I have not

Q Do you know approximately how many pages of documents that have been collected?

A Approximately three-and-a-half million

Q Are some of those pages duplicates?

A They are

Q Are some of those pages from related investigations that aren't actually Mr and Ms McDonnell's investigation?

A That's correct

Q Have you looked at every single page of those more than three-and-a-half million pages?

A No, sir

Q Now, have the documents that the FBI collected in this case included documents obtained from the defendants, Robert McDonnell and Maureen McDonnell?

A They have

A We did

Q Were those generally e-mail records?

A Yes

Q How about Star Scientific; did you get any records from them?

A Yes

Q Now, in addition to the parties, those entities that we have heard a little bit about, have you also collected financial and bank records for the defendants?

A We have

Q Could you walk us through in general terms what types of bank and financial records you got and reviewed?

A Sure We received bank records, credit card records, tax records, other accounting records, and also some mortgage records

Q Now, did the bank records that you got, did they include every transaction and every detail of those transactions or just detail for ones over a certain dollar amount?

A Just detail over, generally, a $500 limit

Q And did those include at least some financial records related to the various things of value given by Mr Williams to the McDonnells?

A Yes

Q Have you also obtained some phone records via grand jury subpoena?

A We have

Q Did those include records for the McDonnells and for Mr Williams?

A Yes

Q Could you walk us through the phone records that you got and describe them just a little bit, starting with the ones that you got for the McDonnells?

A From the McDonnells, as we just heard, they both maintained their accounts through Verizon Wireless So for Mr McDonnell, he had two cell phones during the period that we received the subpoenaed records, and that covered the period from December of 2009 through April of 2013 Ms McDonnell maintained one cell phone, and that covered the period June of 2009 through April of 2013

Q To be clear, we heard a little bit about it from the Verizon and AT&T folks, but did you obtain any sort of recorded phone calls?

A No

Q Was there any sort of wiretap done in this case?

A There was not

Q What about text message records for the McDonnells? Did you get any text message records for their cell phones?

A We did, but only during the period September of 2012 through September of 2013

Q To be clear, is that because that's all you asked for or why is that the only year that you got?

A No, they only maintained one year worth of text records

Q Even for the text records that you do have, speaking just to what you obtained from the phone companies, did you get any content of text messages from the phone companies?

A No, we did not

Q Now, for Mr Williams, could you walk us through the phone records that you got for Mr Williams?

A Sure From Mr Williams, he maintains his account with AT&T, and we received records from July of 2009 through February of 2013 We also received information relative to text messages and data covering the period February of 2010 through February of 2013

Q And generally speaking, the text message records that you have for either of these two companies, well, just talking about AT&T real quick, did you get any content of text messages from AT&T?

A We did not

Q Are you aware that text messages that are sent via iMessaging don't show up on those text records?

A Correct

Q Just talking a little bit about the two different types of records, could you walk us through, is there a difference in terms of the type of information that you can locate in a Verizon record versus an AT&T record?

A Sure With the Verizon records, they typically utilize a rounding as far as the duration of the call So, for example, if it was a 50-second call it would be rounded up to one minute If it was a 1 minute 20 second call, it would be rounded up to 2 minutes The Verizon records also indicate generally the location of the user, where they were when the call was placed.

Q Is that sort of a general location?

A Correct

Q Now, for the AT&T records, do those include both minutes and seconds in terms of duration?

A They do.

Q And to be clear, again, for the AT&T records for Mr Williams, did you have any sort of content of the phone calls?

A We did not

Q Any sort of wiretap done?

A No, sir

Q Now, we have talked a little bit about cell phones Did you obtain any phone records for landline, residential, or office phones?

A We did not

Q For the phone records that you did obtain, how did you compile and review them?

A Primarily through utilizing a spreadsheet program, which allowed us to sort and analyze the data

Q Now, for the specific calls and text messages that you are going to talk about during your testimony, have you actually gone back and looked at the paper records to confirm that they are there?

A I have

Q Did it take a while?

A It did

Q Earlier you said that your work on this case focused mostly on financial, phone, and text message records Did I get that right?

A That's correct

Q Could you tell us how you tied all of that together to prepare for your testimony here today?

A Sure Through the analysis of all that information, approximately 50 summary charts were prepared.

Q Have you also sat through all of the testimony here at trial?

A I have

Q With the exception, I guess, of occasionally helping out to run grab a witness and the like

A Correct

Q Now, I'd like to start by showing you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 566 Special Agent Hulser, is this a two-page chart?

A It is

Q What is on the first page, generally speaking?

A Generally, it is just a listing of names and abbreviations

Q And what is on the second page, generally speaking?

A The second page is a key or a legend that contains particular marks or notations that are utilized throughout the summary charts

MR FAULCONER: We offer Exhibit 566 into evidence

MR. ASBILL: We object

THE COURT: Come on up

(At Bench.)

MR. ASBILL: I believe all of these charts are under 1006, and these are not admissibile These are demonstratives, and I object to them being admitted into evidence

MR FAULCONER: We provided these charts a week ago We were told yesterday that we would get any objection last night We got no objection to these charts last night They are Rule 1006 charts They are phone records, financial records This is a legend for the other charts If these aren't in evidence, nobody can understand the others

THE COURT: The objection is overruled.

(In Open Court)

MR. FAULCONER: Is 566 in evidence?

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Special Agent Hulser, walking through this sort of names and abbreviations, does this apply for all the rest of the charts you are going to be talking about?

A Yes, sir, it does

Q Could you start just by telling us what the initials and color coding mean in the first couple of rows there?

A Sure For Robert F McDonnell, the initials or the abbreviation used throughout is RFM, and also highlighted in yellow For Maureen G. McDonnell, the abbreviation is MM, and highlighted throughout in orange For Jonnie R Williams, Sr , the abbreviation would be JRW, and highlighted in green. One other, Maureen C McDonnell, who is the sister of Mr McDonnell, formerly Ms Uncapher, the abbreviation is SisM.

Q For these other ones, I see there is Celeste Williams, Michael Uncapher, Cailin McDonnell Young, Robert Bobby McDonnell, Sean McDonnell Are those simply the first names throughout the rest of the charts?

A Yes

Q What does MSS stand for in the rest of them?

A Mary-Shea Sutherland.

Q For anybody on this summary chart, is generally their last name used?

A That's correct

Q If we could turn to the second page Just to walk everybody through these, since we will be looking at a few of them, could you tell us what the asterisk next to a time means on these subsequent charts?

A Sure That asterisk next to a time would indicate a one-minute time difference between the records So for example, if there was a toll record with a call between Jonnie Williams, or JRW, and Ms McDonnell, and there was a one-minute time difference, we would utilize the time for Mr Williams and the asterisk would be notated next to Ms. McDonnell's

Q If you didn't have -- let's say it is a call involving not Jonnie Williams, but Maureen McDonnell and Mr McDonnell Then whose records would you default to when there is that one-minute time discrepancy?

A Ms McDonnell's

Q Looking at the asterisk on the call recipient, could you tell us what that indicates if it is on one of these subsequent charts?

A That just indicates that one of the two parties, the call did not appear on their recipient records

Q And then where it says there a double asterisk on call recipient, could you explain what that means if it shows up on one of these charts?

A Sure. That applied to Ms McDonnell only, and there were several instances where Mr McDonnell had a phone conversation with her and it would show up as Unavailable due to the Caller ID block

Q So is that, for those records, are those only calls where it is RFM to MM?

A Correct

Q So in those, does the record show up in the RFM records, am I right?

A It does

Q They show up in the MM records just as an unavailable call

A Correct

Q Now, what does the, I don't know exactly what to call it, the upside down V next to the time, what does that indicate?

A That indicates that we had to make a time zone adjustment, which is typically based on the records that we have received, some of the text records, were in UTC format, which is the coordinated universal time, also known commonly as Greenwich Mean Time or Zulu Time, so the four-hour conversion was made

Q When you made those adjustments, were they generally based on trying to compare two different records and figure out which one is the most likely the Eastern time?

A That's correct

Q We can take that down. All right Now, just to clarify a few things before we get into some of the charts themselves When you have calls listed on some of these later charts, do you, Special Agent Hulser, personally know what was or wasn't discussed on any of those calls?

A No

Q When you list calls or text messages for a given day, do you necessarily include every single call or text message from that given day?

A No. Only those that are relevant to our investigation.

Q I'd like to show you what's been already admitted as Exhibit 54. Now, are you familiar with this e-mail dated December 22nd, 2009?

A I am.

Q I'd like to focus on two parts of this e-mail The first is there at the top Do you see Mr Eige and Ms McDonnell exchanging an e-mail conversation about a potential phone call?

A I do.

Q Have you reviewed the phone records to determine whether or not Ms McDonnell's cell phone and Mr Eige's cell phone had a phone call in that time frame?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked as Exhibit 567 Is this a chart showing what the phone records indicated in terms of calls in proximity to that e-mail?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We offer Exhibit 567 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, starting with the, just reading across the time there, is that the time of either the e-mail or phone call?

A Yes, sir

Q From or To is the individuals or e-mail accounts, phone numbers involved.

A Correct

Q Now, that 11:19 a.m., is that the e-mail, at least the last one in the thread of what we were just looking at?

A Yes, sir

Q Could you walk us through what this chart shows on the next two lines subsequent to that e-mail?

A Approximately six minutes later, Ms McDonnell contacts Jasen Eige and a phone call is connected for approximately 17 minutes And immediately thereafter, Ms McDonnell contacts Mr McDonnell's cell phone and a call is connected for two minutes

Q All right Now, during this time frame, up through December of 2009, based on your review of the records, are there any calls between Mr Williams' cell phone and either of the McDonnells' cell phones?

A No, there were no calls during calendar year 2009 or 2010

Q All right Let's go back to Exhibit 54 briefly I'd like to focus on the e-mail at the bottom of the first page Do you see there where it says, "We are broke, have an unconscionable amount in credit card debt already, and this inaugural is killing us"?

A Yes

Q Have you reviewed Mr and Ms McDonnell's credit card records for that general time frame?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 568 Could you tell us what this chart shows?

A Sure This chart shows credit card balances in seven different credit cards during the month of January, 2010 for Mr and Ms McDonnell

Q Is this the month following that e-mail we were just looking at?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 568 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Special Agent Hulser, if we could just zoom in on the portion that's in color there Looking at this, could you start by walking us through what the color coding means on this chart?

A Sure The color coding is associated with the credit card account holder, so those in yellow are Mr McDonnell's and those in orange are Ms McDonnell's

Q How many credit cards are listed on here in each person's name?

A Seven.

Q Is that four for Mr McDonnell and three for Ms McDonnell?

A That's correct

Q And what is the total credit card balance as of January, 2010?

A $74,941 11

Q And when we look at this document or this chart, the statement dates being different in the far left-hand column, can you explain why those are different dates?

A Sure Each account just has its own independent statement closing date for the month.

Q We can take that down Now, there is also a reference in the e-mail that we saw to being broke Have you heard some of the testimony in trial about MoBo Realty?

A I have

Q And based on the records that you have reviewed, can you tell us what the ownership percentages are in MoBo Realty?

A It is 50/50, Mr McDonnell and his younger sister, Maureen.

Q During the course of the investigation, have you reviewed some e-mails in which Mr McDonnell and his sister are discussing MoBo's financial situation in this 2009 time frame?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been admitted as Exhibit 51 If we could just focus on the middle e-mail there Do you see where it says, "In other words, we are in trouble and need to act NOW," and then discusses a short sale?

A Yes

Q Based on your review of the mortgage and financial records, was there actually any sort of short sale or refinance done in this time frame?

A No.

Q We can take that down. Now, in addition to reviewing some of the e-mails, have you also looked at MoBo's tax returns and bank records for the 2009 and 2010 time frame?

A I have

Q Are you familiar with what its cash flow situation was like in that time frame as reflected on the tax returns?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: I'd like to show the witness what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 569

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Special Agent Hulser, can you tell us what this chart is, generally speaking?

A This is just a summary chart, scheduling out the rental real estate activity for 2009 and 2010 for MoBo Real Estate Partners

MR FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 569 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Special Agent Hulser, could you walk us through what each of the three rows on this chart are indicating?

A Yes The first row is the rental real estate income, so that's actual monies received for the rental of the combined two properties that make up MoBo So we have for 2009, it is just over $178,000 For 2010, it is just over $196,000

Q Does that number there, rental real estate income, does that include any sort of outside loans or owner contributions into MoBo Realty?

A No

Q Now, the second line there, rental real estate expenses, can you tell us what's included within that?

A Sure Those are the annual operating expenses that were incurred for both 2009 and 2010 So for 2009, just over $221,000 For 2010, over $236,000

Q Now, there in rental real estate expenses, can you tell us whether that includes any principal repayments on loans?

A It does not

Q So what part of any loan repayment is included in that category?

A Just the interest

Q Does that row include any sort of capital improvements or expenses on capital improvements?

A None that were capitalized

Q Now, what is the net rental real estate income for each of those two years, 2009 and 2010?

A For 2009, it is a negative 43,203 And for 2010, it was a negative 40,321

Q Just to be totally clear, Special Agent Hulser, is this number that we are seeing here actually the tax loss that's taken or is that a different number?

A No, that number does not include depreciation expense, which is a tax entry It is a non-cash item that's calculated and deducted for income tax purposes only

Q All right We can go and take that one down. All right, now I'd like to move forward in time to April of 2011

MR. FAULCONER: Unless Your Honor wants us to stop here for the break?

THE COURT: No, let's try to get to 4 o'clock

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Moving forward in time to April of 2011, have you heard the testimony at trial about the shopping trip to New York in April, 2011?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been admitted as Exhibit 97 Have you reviewed this e-mail?

A Yes, sir

Q Do you see there where Monica Block and Ms McDonnell, at least Monica Block refers to "Per our conversation"?

A Yes

Q Have you reviewed the phone records for that day for Ms McDonnell?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 570. Special Agent Hulser, can you tell us what this chart is for Monday, April 11th, 2011?

A Sure, this is a summary chart summarizing communications involving Ms McDonnell, Jonnie Williams, the RFM Travel Aide, and Monica Block.

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 570 into evidence.

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q I see here that the first call is from Maureen McDonnell to Jonnie Williams at 5:28 p.m. Before this call that's shown on this chart, how many calls were there between Ms McDonnell, Ms McDonnell's cell phone and Mr Williams' cell phone?

A Zero

Q How about between Mr McDonnell's cell phone and Mr Williams' cell phone?

A Also zero

Q Now, before we sort of walk through this in a little bit more detail, can you remind us again what the asterisk there means on the time?

A Yes, that just indicates that this was a one-minute time difference between the records for Jonnie Williams and Maureen McDonnell as far as when the call was placed.

Q Now, after the 5:28 call from Ms McDonnell to Mr Williams for about 12 seconds, is there then a text message at 5:33 p.m., same people, Ms McDonnell to Mr Williams?

A Yes

Q Could you walk us through the next three rows in terms of what's shown there?

A Sure. There were a series of text messages from Mr Williams to Ms McDonnell followed by a 15-minute phone call from Mr Williams to Ms McDonnell, and then also followed by a text message

Q Now, what does this chart show three minutes after the last of those text messages from Ms McDonnell to Mr Williams?

A That Ms McDonnell has contacted the RFM Travel Aide and had a brief conversation, two minutes

Q Is that about two minutes?

A Correct

Q Immediately after that conversation concludes, what is that next eight-minute conversation, at least phone call?

A Ms McDonnell contacts Ms Block.

Q And then that 10:31 entry, is that the e-mail we looked at right before we looked at this chart?

A It is

Q All right We can take that down. Now, we have also, we heard some testimony about the shopping trip that actually occurred on April 13th of 2011 Have you reviewed Mr Williams' credit card bill for that time frame?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 571 Can you tell us what this chart is?

A Sure This is a summary chart providing detail for Mr Williams' American Express bill during the days April 13th and 14th, 2011

Q Does this focus on the stores that were mentioned during testimony?

A It does

MR. FAULCONER: We offer Exhibit 571 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Without necessarily reading off every dollar amount, could you just tell us how many transactions are located here and what the total is?

A Sure There are a total of six transactions: two charges at the Louis Vuitton store, two charges at the Bergdorf Goodman store, and two charges at the Oscar de la Renta store The total of those charges is $20,979 28 We then backed out the amount for Mary-Shea Sutherland's dress that was purchased, which was $1,690, to arrive at a total associated with Ms McDonnell of $19,289 28

Q The dollar amount listed there for the Mary-Shea Sutherland dress, did you just take that from something Ms Sutherland told you or where did you take that amount from?

A No, it is on the tag of the dress right over here

Q Is that the dress over there?

A Yes

Q Okay Now, earlier we saw a chart of the McDonnells's credit card debt in January of 2010 Are you aware of what their credit card debt was like from the span from January of 2010 until April of 2011?

A I am.

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 572 Special Agent Hulser, is this a chart showing that credit card debt over that time span?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We offer Exhibit 572 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Again, Special Agent Hulser, without reading off every single amount on here, could you just tell us how that amount of credit card debt generally changed over time?

A Sure From the point that we started in January of 2010, the balance was just shy of $75,000 And in September, by September of 2010, it hit a high watermark of over $90,000 And by January of 2011, the combined balances were just over $30,000 and remained fairly consistent until April of 2011

Q In that time frame from September of 2010 until January of 2011, where that drop occurs, have you reviewed the bank accounts for Mr and Ms McDonnell to determine whether there were any large deposits that weren't deposits that would happen on a routine basis?

A I have

Q Could you describe what if any such deposits there were?

A During that time period there was a deposit of just shy of $25,000 from the Gardner Family Trust And there were also in excess of $30,000 of deposits from a series of insurance companies I believe life insurance

Q   The Gardner Family Trust, was that associated with the death of one of Ms McDonnell's parents?

A   I believe so

Q   Now, earlier you said that April 11th, 2011 was the first communication between Ms McDonnell and Mr Williams by cell phone After that time, did their communication frequency increase?

A   It did.

Q   We have heard a number of, a number was sort of tossed out there about how many communications there were Have you reviewed the number of communications?

A   Yes

Q   Have you also reviewed the communications between Ms McDonnell and Mr McDonnell in that same time frame?

A   I have

Q   I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 573 Now, what is this chart that we are looking at here, generally speaking?

A   This is just a summary of overall phone record totals associated with Mr McDonnell, Ms McDonnell, and Jonnie Williams during the period April 11th, 2011 through February 15th, 2013

MR FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 573 into

evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Agent Hulser, could you tell us why you picked the dates April 11th, 2011 through February 15th, 2013?

A April 11th was the date of the first contact, and February 15th was through the date of the law enforcement interview with Ms McDonnell

Q When you say "first contact," is that first contact between whom?

A Between Jonnie Williams and Ms McDonnell

Q After February 15th, 2013, were there any communications between Ms McDonnell and Mr Williams?

A No

Q Now, does it also say here, it says "Number of calls greater than one minute " Does this only include calls greater than a minute?

A Yes

Q Now, in the AT&T records, do those records include some calls that actually show up as zero seconds?

A They do.

Q Can you explain whether those sometimes duplicate calls that actually show up for a duration of time?

A I'm sorry, could you repeat that?

Q I phrased that very confusingly Could you explain whether any of the zero-second calls appear to duplicate any of the calls that actually have a time duration on them?

A No

Q Were there any calls that lasted zero seconds that corresponded with a call that lasted more than zero seconds?

A Yes

Q Does this chart include any call that lasted zero seconds?

A No

Q Does it include any call that lasted less than a minute?

A No

Q In that first upper left-hand corner, how many calls are shown between Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell from April 11th of 2011 to December 31st of 2011?

A 130

Q Where it says "RFM Verizon," can you explain why this says RFM Verizon in the furthest left box there?

A We utilized Mr McDonnell's records primarily because of the Caller ID issue that was previously testified to

Q Can you explain exactly what that was one more time?

A Sure Caller ID block on Mr McDonnell's phone If he contacts Ms McDonnell, it would show up as Unavailable on her records

Q As compared to that first time frame, April 11th, 2011 to December 31st, 2011, compared to that first time frame, what are Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell's communications greater than a minute from January 1st, 2012 to February 15th, 2013?

MR. BURCK: Objection, Your Honor The question was communications or was it phone calls?

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q How many phone calls greater than one minute?

A 178

Q Going to Ms McDonnell and Mr Williams, how many phone calls greater than one minute are in that first time frame during 2011?

A 94

Q And how if at all do those number of communications compare to the number of communications from January of 2012 to February 15th, 2013?

A They decreased to 73

Q Now, to be clear, Special Agent Hulser, are you aware that Ms McDonnell and Mr Williams exchanged at least 733 text messages during that left-hand time frame in 2011?

A That's correct

Q Were you able to do sort of an apples to apples comparison of the number of text messages exchanged between Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell during that same 2011 time frame?

A No

Q And why were you unable to do that?

A Because we didn't have those records We only had the records for a one-year period that began in September of 2012

Q Now, during the 2012 time frame to February 13th, 2013, are you aware that Mr McDonnell and Mr Williams exchanged around 179 text messages?

A Yes

Q Were you able to do a comparison of that number to whatever number of text message communications were between Ms McDonnell and Mr McDonnell during that same time frame?

A No

Q Now, during the time frame that's indicated here, how did this overall number of text messages that we were just discussing, 733 and 178, how did that compare to the total number of text messages that Mr Williams sent or received, at least as indicated in his phone records, during that time frame?

A Sure During that time frame, April of 2011 through February of 2013, Mr Williams had sent or received over 40,000 text messages

Q But again, were you able to look at a comparison of the number of text messages Ms. McDonnell sent to Mr Williams as compared to how many text messages she generally sent?

A I'm sorry, repeat that

Q Looking at Ms McDonnell's records, were you able to look at how many records she sent to Mr Williams in that time frame and compare it to how many she sent generally during that time frame?

A No

Q Again, why is that?

A We didn't have the records

Q Now, during this same time frame, three more questions about this time frame. Are you aware of how many communications Mr McDonnell had with Mr Williams, phone communications, greater than one minute in 2011?

A One

Q And how many phone communications in 2012 greater than one minute?

A Nine

Q During 2011, are you aware of how many text messages the records showed Mr Williams and Mr McDonnell exchanging in 2011?

A Five

Q And how about number of text messages between, at least according to the records, Mr McDonnell and Mr Williams in 2012?

A 22.

Q But as of April of 2011, had there been any communications by cell phone between Mr McDonnell and Mr Williams?

A No, sir

MR. FAULCONER: Do you want to stop at 4 o'clock now?

THE COURT: Yes We will go ahead and take the afternoon break 15 minutes

(The jury left the courtroom.)

THE COURT: All right

(The jury entered the courtroom)

THE COURT: All right Government

MR FAULCONER: Thank you, Your Honor

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right, Special Agent Hulser I'd like to pick up with what's been admitted at Exhibit 104 Are you familiar with this calendar entry from April 29th of 2011?

A Yes, sir

Q Were you in court for the testimony about this dinner between Mr and Ms Williams and the McDonnells?

A I was

Q Have you also reviewed e-mails produced by the defendants, pursuant to the grand jury subpoena, for e-mails discussing Star or MoBo properties in this general time frame?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 107 Is this an e-mail from Ms McDonnell to Mr McDonnell?

A It is

Q Was this produced by Ms McDonnell?

A Yes

Q And is it dated May 1st of 2011?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 107 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Special Agent Hulser, starting with what's at the bottom there, could you tell us what is written in that link at the bottom of this e-mail chain?

A Sure It's "seekingalpha com/article" -- some numbers, and then "star-scientific-has-home-run-potential "

Q In the middle e-mail, what is written by the individual who sends this e-mail to Ms McDonnell?

A "Please give to the Governor and his wife as per Jonnie Williams Thank you Rob "

Q Now, after that e-mail at 10:45 a m , what does Ms McDonnell's e-mail account do with that e-mail?

A She forwards that e-mail to Mr McDonnell on May the 1st, 2011, at 12:17 p m

Q Now, is there any difference between the subject line in the middle e-mail and the first e-mail and the subject line of that e-mail when it's sent by Ms McDonnell to Mr McDonnell?

A There is It's been changed to "Home Run Potential "

MR FAULCONER: Oh, Your Honor We offer this into evidence I apologize

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR BURCK: Your Honor, I'm sorry Objection May we approach on this document?

THE COURT: Come up

MR BURCK: Your Honor, the only reason for the objection is that this document, the subject line that he just testified about where it says "Home Run Potential," the agent testified that somebody changed it But on the face of it, it could be that they forwarded the document And the document comes up as a forward as a "Home Run Potential" as the title of the article. So I'd like --

MR FAULCONER: The face of the first e-mail to the middle e-mail has something different So I can clarify

MR BURCK: If you would just clarify, that would be fine Because I don't know if there's proof --

THE COURT: All right

MR BURCK: Thanks

(In Open Court)

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Agent Hulser, just looking at the subject line from the first e-mail to the middle e-mail to the top e-mail, can you just tell us what, on the face of this document, the difference is in the text from the middle e-mail to the top e-mail? Without necessarily saying what happened, just tell us whether there's a difference in the text on the face of it

A Sure The subject in the middle e-mail is "FW:" and, in parens, "no subject "

The subject line in the e-mail that's forwarded is "FW: Home Run Potential."

Q All right Now, I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 108 Now, is this an e-mail produced by Ms McDonnell?

A Yes, sir

Q And is this an e-mail from Ms McDonnell to Celeste Williams?

A Yes

Q Is it dated May 1st, 2011?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 109(sic) into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, looking at this document, can you tell us -- can you read just what the first three lines of this e-mail say?

A Sure It says, "Hi, Jonnie and Celeste Here's one of our beach rental properties that we own with Bob's sister and her husband MoBo Realty "

Q And where it says "Sunseeker" there, were you in court for the testimony of Mr Uncapher that that refers to one of the two MoBo properties?

A I was

Q All right Now, I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 109

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, just to clarify, the one that we just showed was 108 I believe I might have misspoke and said we offer 109 Just to clarify, 108 is what we just offered

THE COURT: 108 has been admitted

MR FAULCONER: Thank you

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, showing you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 109. Is this another e-mail dated May 1st, 2011, from Maureen McDonnell to Celeste Williams?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 109 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, could you read for us what the subject -- or the first three lines of this e-mail are?

A Yes "Hi, Jonnie and Celeste Here's the other beach rental property that we own with Bob's sister and her husband MoBo Realty "

Q And East Coast Palace Were you in court for the testimony about that being the other MoBo property?

A I was

Q Now, all three of these e-mails that we've looked at, the Home Run Potential e-mail and these MoBo e-mails are May 1st, 2011 Have you reviewed the phone records and Mr McDonnell's schedule for that day?

A I have.

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 574 And is this a chart that -- chart that shows texts and tolls as they relate to and surround those e-mails that we just looked at?

A Yes, sir

Q And does it also include some information from Mr McDonnell's schedule for that day?

A It does

MR. FAULCONER: We'd offer Exhibit 574 into evidence, Your Honor

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Special Agent Hulser, could you walk us through what's shown on the first line of this chart here?

A Sure On the first line, from 11:20 to 12:55 p m , Government Exhibit 105 references personal time, Executive Mansion, for Mr McDonnell

Q Now, during that same frame time, while that's on his schedule, could you tell us which one of the three e-mails we just looked at is sent at 12:17 p m ?

A Yes The e-mail from Ms McDonnell to Mr McDonnell.

Q Now, at 1:11 and 1:13 p m , can you tell us what's indicated on that line on the chart?

A Yes, sir That's a combination of two texts that are sent from Mr McDonnell to his younger sister, Maureen, SisM

Q Could you read that text, that combined text message there?

A Yes "Any chance we could do a call tonight on MoBo and bank options Need about an hour I can walk thru loans, and Mike, if you can outline expenses that would be great Need to make some deciosions Mo, any ideas on properties we can buy if we sell these 2 a reasonable prices? If not tonight, another this week? Bob "

Q Now, just to be clear, at least to the best of your ability, are the typos that are on here, did you try to get it how the materials that were produced to you look?

A Yes

Q Now, after the response text message there at 1:20 p m from sister Maureen McDonnell to Mr McDonnell's cell phone, can you tell us what calls are shown there -- what call is shown there at 3:02 p m ?

A Sure Ms McDonnell contacts Jonnie Williams, and the call is connected for just over 41 minutes

Q And those next two rows, are those the two e-mails about the two different Sandbrige or MoBo properties that we just looked at?

A They are

Q And then ten minutes after the second of those e-mails, can you tell us what the phone records indicated at 4:16 p m ?

A Mr Williams contacts Ms McDonnell, and a call is connected for 8 minutes and 53 seconds

Q All right Now, let's move to the next day May 2nd, 2011 I'd like to show you what's already admitted as Exhibit 110 Have you reviewed this Mansion log for May 2nd, 2011?

A I have

Q And have you also reviewed the toll records for Mr and Ms McDonnell for this day?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 575 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, the times there where there's sort of the bracket on the right, and then it says 9:24 a m to 11:25 a m , where are those times taken from?

A Those are taken from the Mansion log as referenced on Exhibit 110

Q Now, what does this chart show the phone records indicated at 7:53 a m , about an hour and a half before that?

A That Maureen McDonnell, the sister, contacted Mr McDonnell, and a call was connected for seven minutes

Q Now, a few minutes after that, at 8:03 a m , what does that refer to there in reference to Government Exhibit 112?

A If references an Outlook calendar invite being set on Ms McDonnell's -- Ms McDonnell's calendar

Q And is that one of the Outlook invites that Special Agent Huff testified about earlier in the trial?

A Yes, sir

Q Now, after Mr Williams arrives at the Mansion, according to the log, at 9:24 a m , can you walk us through the progression of phone calls from 9:57 a m to 10:02 a m from Ms McDonnell's cell phone?

A Sure There are a series of cell phone calls where Ms McDonnell reaches out for Michael Uncapher, then sister Mo, or sister Maureen, then Mr McDonnell, followed by sister Maureen again, and a second time, and then at 10:02 a m , Michael Uncapher again

Q Now, to be clear, the asterisk that's located there next to RFM at 10 a m , does that indicate that that call didn't actually show up in Mr McDonnell's record?

A It does

Q Or does it indicate that it does not show up there? Sorry That was a terrible way of asking it

What does the asterisk indicate?

A It does not show up on his records

Q So do you know if that even connected for a call?

A I don't

Q Now, were you in court for Mr Burck's testimony of Michael Uncapher?

A Yes

Q Or Mr Burck's cross-examination of Michael Uncapher? I apologize

A Yes

Q And were you in court when he showed him some of the phone records from May 2nd, 2011?

A I was

Q And were in you court when he asked him about this 10:44 a m call from Michael Uncapher back to Maureen McDonnell?

A Yes.

Q And is that a call for 13 minutes during the same time frame when Mr Williams, according to the log, was in the Mansion?

A It is

Q Now, after that, at 1:19 p m and 1:41 p m , what does this chart show?

A It shows two -- two calls connected between Mr Williams and Ms McDonnell

Q And then at 9:34 p m , is that a 48 minute and 18 second call between the two of them?

A It is

Q What does this chart show happens a little while after that call ends at 10:37 p m ?

A Mr McDonnell contacts his younger sister Maureen, and that call is connected for 84 minutes

Q Now, have you reviewed Mr McDonnell's schedule for this day, Monday, May 2nd of 2011?

A I have

Q Now, keeping in mind the times here, 9:34 and 10:37 Could you tell us what Mr McDonnell's schedule shows on the last page of this exhibit for where he's scheduled -- I'm sorry, this is Exhibit 623, which has already been admitted

On the last page of this document -- sorry, second to last page, is this the portion for May 2nd, 2011?

A It is

Q And what does this schedule say as far as where Mr McDonnell is scheduled to be after 7:15 p m on Monday, May 2nd, 2011?

A At the Executive Mansion

Q And is there anything on his schedule after 9 p m ?

A No

MR. FAULCONER: Just for comparison purposes, can we flip back briefly to Exhibit 575?

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, in addition to these calls and some of the e-mails that we've looked at, have you also reviewed any e-mails regarding Cailin McDonnell's wedding that were sent by Mr McDonnell in this time frame?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's already been admitted as Exhibit 111 Now, the two dates that we just looked at were May 1st, 2011, and May 2nd, 2011 Can you tell us when these two e-mails that are shown here on Exhibit 111, when they were sent relative to the dates that we just looked at?

A Sure The first -- the e-mail string starts on May 1st, 2011 And that's an e-mail from Mr McDonnell to Cailin McDonnell And she then replies on Monday, May 2nd Cailin McDonnell replies to Mr McDonnell

Q And is that e-mail on May 1st a few minutes before the call between Mr McDonnell and sister Maureen McDonnell?

A It is

Q And is the e-mail back from Cailin McDonnell a few minutes before the call between sister Maureen McDonnell and Mr McDonnell?

A Yes

Q All right Now, we've looked at May 1st and May 2nd Have you compared the link that Ms McDonnell sent to Mr McDonnell, the one that ended in Home Run Potential, from May 1st, 2011, with any documents that Mr McDonnell or his staff forwarded on to other individuals?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been entered as Exhibit 116 Have you reviewed this e-mail from Pam Watts to Dr Bill Hazel?

A I have

Q And what is the date of that e-mail?

A Thursday, May 5th, 2011, at 12:25 p m

A On May 1st, 2011

Q Now, going back to the first page real quick, what is the time on May 5th, 2011, that's shown here?

A 12:25 p m

Q All right Now, turning to Exhibit 117, which has already been admitted, this is Monday, May 9th, 2011 What day of the week does Dr Hazel refer to in his e-mail there in the middle where he says, "He mentioned this to me"?

A "He mentioned this to me on Thursday "

A Sure It states, "Meet on HHR Strategic Plan -- PHB: Governor's Conference Room "

Q Now, turning to the next page, who does it show is the scheduled participants for that meeting?

A Bill Hazel and Martin Kent

Q All right So keeping that in mind and turning briefly back to Exhibit 116, where does that 11 to 11:45 a m meeting fall relative to when Pam Watts forwards this e-mail on to Dr Hazel?

A It's about an hour difference

Q All right I'd like to move forward to May 23rd of 2011 Are you aware that that's the date of the two checks, $50,000 and $15,000 from Starwood Trust?

Q And how many contacts, prior to this phone call, were there between Mr McDonnell and Mr Williams' cell phone?

A Zero

Q Approximately 24 minutes, or so, after that contact, what did the phone records indicate for Mr McDonnell's cell phone?

A Mr McDonnell reaches out to Ms McDonnell, and the call lasts for six minutes

Q And to be clear, that double asterisk again, what does that mean?

Q To be clear, Special Agent Hulser, was there any metadata produced showing when these text -- when these photographs were taken or what was done with them?

A No

Q All right Now, we just saw the e-mail for the scheduling of the meeting on August 1st, 2011 I'd like to now go to the Mansion log that's already been admitted as Exhibit 186 Are you familiar with this Mansion log?

A Yes, sir

Q And does that show Mr Williams, Ms Huffstetler, and Dr John Clore at various times?

A It does

Q Now, I'd like to show you, in reference to the same date, August 1st, 2011 -- well, first off, what's the last time next to John Clore's name for time out there?

A 11:31

Q All right Now, if I could show you what's been already admitted as Exhibit 192 Are you familiar with this document showing a calendar entry being set on Ms McDonnell's calendar?

A I am

Q And what's the time there at the bottom that it shows that this calendar event for August 30th was set on her calendar?

A It was set at 11:44 a m

Q Is that August 1st, 2011?

A That's correct

Q All right Well, now I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 582 Is this a chart showing certain calls and text messages both before -- or before and during Mr Williams' time at the Mansion that day?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 582 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, are those three text messages between Ms McDonnell and Mr Williams before he arrives, on the first three rows?

A Yes

Q Now, at the same time of the last of those three text messages, what does Ms McDonnell's records show in terms of phone calls?

A At 9:41 a m , Ms McDonnell contacts Mr Williams -- oh, I'm sorry At 9:41 Ms McDonnell contacts Mr McDonnell

Q Now, again, that asterisk, does that mean that the call -- am I correct to say that that means that the call did not actually show up in Mr McDonnell's records?

A Correct

Q So do you know whether that call actually connected?

A I don't

Q All right Now, after that, I see there that Mr Williams arrives at 9:45 and Ms Huffstetler at 9:55 What happens, according to the phone records, six minutes after Ms Huffstetler's arrival?

A Ms McDonnell reaches out to Mr McDonnell, and the phone call -- or the contact is four minutes

Q Now, 33 minutes after that, it says that Dr Clore arrives What happens at 10:57 a m , according to the phone records, between the time that Dr Clore arrives and the time that Ms Huffstetler leaves?

A Mr McDonnell contacts Ms McDonnell for a one-minute contact

Q And then are those remaining rows essentially the people leaving the Mansion and then the calendar entry being set?

A Correct

Q All right Now, in reference to this date of August 1st, 2011, did you recover any e-mails from Mr or Ms McDonnell discussing Star Scientific in the days following this meeting?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked as Exhibit 199 Is this an e-mail produced by Ms McDonnell?

A It is

Q Now, looking at the top of this e-mail, can you tell us, who is it from and to?

A Sure The e-mail is from Ms McDonnell, and it's to governor@bobmcdonnell com

Q And is it dated August 4th, 2011?

A Yes, sir

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 199 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, that's August 4th, 2011, at 5:58 p m Can you read underneath where it says "Quote," and then the sort of part that's a little grayed out? Can you read what that says in the e-mail from Ms McDonnell to Mr McDonnell on August 4th?

A Sure It's, "Quote from Patrick Cox, today, in Breakthrough Technology Alert " And in quotes, "As an economist, however, I am utterly certain that Anatabloc is going to shake our political system to its very roots This is because even" -- something -- "changes to the actuarial tables will have enormous budgetary" -- I can't read that.

Q It's hard to read Is that fair to say?

A Yeah, it is

Q Now, I'd like to show you, keeping this date and time in mind, Exhibit 201, what's been marked for identification Is this an e-mail produced by Ms McDonnell dated August 5th of 2011?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 201 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, is this an e-mail from Ms McDonnell to Patrick Cox?

A Yes, sir

Q Could you read what Ms McDonnell writes in sort of the italicized text there on the e-mail to Patrick Cox on August 5th of 2011?

A Sure It states, "Would it be possible for you to send this as an attachment like you did in the first e-mail so I would be able to print out a clean copy for my husband?"

Q All right Now, if we could move forward to what's been already admitted as Exhibit 200 Have you reviewed this Kinloch receipt?

A I have

Q And have you also reviewed Mr McDonnell's and Mr Williams' toll records in this time frame?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 583 Is this a chart showing Mr McDonnell and Mr Williams' toll communications as they relate to the various golf transactions in August of 2011?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 583 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, where it says August 5th, 2011, there in the first row, and it says "From JRW to Sean & Pfister," does that include -- does that indicate that Mr Williams was there or what does that actually indicate there?

A Yes, it does

MR FAULCONER: Well, if we could turn back to Exhibit 200 and to the second page and on to the third page

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q On August 5th, 2011, the receipt at the top there -- sorry, going down -- is Mr Williams indicated on that receipt?

A No, he's not It's Sean McDonnell and Hunter Pfister

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: So if we could go back to Exhibit 583

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q After that golf on August 5th, 2011, what is the contact between Mr McDonnell and Mr Williams' cell phone there two days later?

A On August the 7th, at 11:48 p m , Mr McDonnell contacts Mr Williams via text

Q And how much cell phone contact was there between

Mr McDonnell and Mr Williams between May 29th of 2011 and that day?

A None

Q It looks like on August 8th there's a response back from Mr Williams. Is that another text message then on August 13th, 2011, at 9:59 a m from Mr Williams to Mr. McDonnell?

A It is

Q And to be clear, from the Kinloch records, did Mr McDonnell play golf on August 13th, 2011, at Kinloch Golf Club?

A No

Q Sorry Was that a no, as far as whether Mr McDonnell played on --

A Oh, I'm sorry Mr McDonnell played, yes Mr Williams did not

Q I'll try to stop mumbling quite as much All right And is that dollar amount taken from the Kinloch Golf Club receipts?

A It is

Q All right Now, earlier we heard testimony about a Rolex being purchased on August 14th in Malibu in this same general time frame Did you review Mr Williams' credit card records for any purchases in Malibu on August 14, 2011?

A I did

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 203 Is this that credit card bill?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 203 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR FAULCONER: All right Now, if we could turn to Page 2 of this bill, and if we could go halfway down there

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q What purchase is indicated there on August 14th, 2011, with a posting date of August 16th, 2011?

A A purchase at Traditional Jewelers in Malibu, California, for $6,500

Q All right So let's move forward a little bit to some of the information about the lunch event at the Mansion at the end of August 2011 I'd like to show you what's been admitted, I think, as Exhibit 204

Now, zooming in there, what is the date of the exchange there between Ms Harris and Ms Sutherland about whether Mr McDonnell is going to go to this event?

A On Monday, August 15th, 2011, at 8:16 p m

Q Now, going to Exhibit 207, which has already been admitted, and focusing in on the bottom e-mail in this thread, can you tell us what date and time Mr Zubowsky e-mails Mary-Shea Sutherland asking for "info on the fl lunch at the Mansion, the wtop day, so I can ask him"?

A August 16th, 2011, at 2:50 p m

Q All right Well, have you looked at Mr McDonnell's -- Ms McDonnell and Mr Williams' toll records around this time frame?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked as Exhibit 584 And is this a chart showing toll records from August 15th and 16th of 2011, the same two days we were just looking at?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 584 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right So August 15th, 2011, is that e-mail shown on the top line the same e-mail that we were just looking at a moment ago, or the first of the two?

A Yes, sir

Q All right Now, on August 16th of 2011, how many phone calls are there between Mr Williams and Ms McDonnell in the morning?

A Three calls

Q And then what happens at 11:17 a m ?

A She sends Mr Williams a text message

Q And then at 2:47 p m , what's shown in Ms McDonnell and Mr McDonnell's phone records?

A A three-minute call

Q And how does that relate to the time of the e-mail from the Travel Aide asking Mary-Shea Sutherland for "info on the fl lunch at the Mansion"?

A Three minutes prior

Q All right I'd like to show you what's been admitted as Exhibit 552. Now, is this Mr McDonnell's schedule for the second of those two days, August 16th of 2011?

A It is

Q And turning to the end of this schedule, where does it show, at the bottom there, Mr McDonnell ending his day on this schedule?

A The Executive Mansion

Q Now, showing you what's been admitted as Exhibit 208, and turning -- zooming in on the middle of those e-mails, what is the date and time of the e-mail response back from Mr Zubowsky saying, "Governor wants to make it to the last part of this lunch"?

A Wednesday, August 17th, 2011, at 8:25 a m

Q All right So let's move forward in time to December of 2011 Have you reviewed the Davenport & Company records that were provided related to purchases and sales of stock in Ms McDonnell's name?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been already admitted as Government's Exhibit 247 Do you recognize this document?

A Yes

Q What is it?

A It's a Davenport & Company statement

Q Now, turning to the third page of this document, what is the date shown there on sort of the upper third for the sale of Star Scientific stock?

A The date is December 20, 2011

Q Now, have you reviewed Ms McDonnell's toll records for that day and the day before?

A I have

Q And were you in court for Mr Piscitelli's testimony that he would typically execute sales either the day or the day after he spoke to clients?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 585 Is this a chart showing the tolls that you pulled from those two days, December 19th and 20th of 2011?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 585 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right. So what is the first call shown on this chart at 1:15 p m on December 19th of 2011?

A A five-minute call between Mr. McDonnell and Ms McDonnell

Q And immediately after that, at 1:20 p m , what occurs, according to the phone records?

A Ms McDonnell reaches out for Mr Piscitelli

Q And then after that call to Mr Williams in the middle, is there another call there from Ms McDonnell to Mr McDonnell?

A There is A one-minute call

Q And then how long is the call at 4:03 p m from Ms McDonnell to Mr Piscitelli?

A A 20-minute call

Q And then the next day, the date of the sale of the stock, how long of a call is there between Ms McDonnell and Mr Williams at 10 p m ?

A Thirty-one minutes

Q All right Now, are you aware of when Mr McDonnell's SOEI was filed for the following year in 2012?

A I am

Q And do you know what date that was?

A Yes July -- or January 16th

Q And are you aware, according to the Davenport records, on when the stock was repurchased?

A I believe it was on January 20th

Q All right Now, were you in court earlier for the trial testimony from Bobby McDonnell about the Rolex watch being given to Mr McDonnell over Christmas of 2011?

A I was

Q When you served grand jury subpoenas, or when the FBI did, on the defendants, did either of them produce any pictures of Mr McDonnell wearing what appears to be a watch?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 274 Now, taking a moment -- have you had a chance to review this exhibit before your testimony?

A I have

Q And is this a series of photographs of Mr McDonnell?

A Yes

Q And were all of these produced by Ms McDonnell?

A They were

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: Now, if we could go back to the first page

Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 274 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Agent Hulser, if we could just flip through these -- or sorry

MR FAULCONER: Mr Starnes, if we could just flip through these briefly for the jury to see

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Special Agent Hulser, was there any metadata associated with these pictures produced to the government in response to the grand jury subpoena about what phone these were on or when they were sent or whether they were sent anywhere?

A No, there was not

Q But were you in court for Mr Williams' testimony about receiving a picture of Mr McDonnell posing with a watch at some point in time?

A I was

Q I'd like to show you what's been entered into evidence as Exhibit 444 And looking at the first and second page of this document, are these the photos that Mr Williams testified about?

A They are

Q Did you compare these photos to the photos that we just reviewed that were produced by Ms McDonnell?

A Yes.

Q Did it appear that these photos here matched any of those obtained from Ms McDonnell?

A Yes It appeared that it matched the eighth photo

MR FAULCONER: Now, if we could turn to the second page of this one more time And then could we turn back to the eighth page of Exhibit 274 for the jury's comparison

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, to be clear, Special Agent Hulser, were you in court when Mr Williams testified about sending photos of a chef to the McDonnells before receiving whatever photo he got back in return?

A I was

Q And have you reviewed Mr Williams' toll records to determine whether those text messages that he actually produced showed up in his toll records?

A Yes

Q And did they actually show up in his toll records?

A No

Q So sitting here today, can you tell the members of this jury exactly how that photo of Mr McDonnell got to Mr Williams?

A I can't

Q All right Now, I'd like to move forward to January of 2012, and I'd like to show you what's been already admitted as Exhibit 285 Are you familiar with this Kinloch receipt, Agent Hulser?

A I am

MR FAULCONER: Judge, do you want to stop now or have us keep going for a little longer?

THE COURT: We'll go ahead and stop

All right We'll stop for this evening. I know it may not seem like it, but we are -- we're making progress We're getting there Tomorrow, 9:45 And we'll see you at 9:45

Again, let me tell you, as I do every day, please don't discuss the case with anyone or allow anyone to discuss it with you, and please don't review any media items related to this -- to this case You all have a great evening, and we will see you at 9:45

THE COURT: All right We'll be back at 9:45 in in case 9:00

(The trial adjourned at 5:25 p m)

Good morning All right, government?

DIRECT EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Agent Hulser, you know that you are still under oath, right?

A Yes, sir

Q Now, I'd like to pick up by just clarifying a couple of things from the end of your testimony last night If we could pull up what's been admitted as Exhibit 444 Now, do you recall that we talked a little bit at the end of your testimony about whether or not there was any record of an iMessage between Mr McDonnell and Mr Williams; do you recall that?

A Yes

Q Do you know based on your review of the phone records whether Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell had iPhones during this time frame?

A I do

Q And did they?

A They did

Q All right In addition, we talked a little bit yesterday about the federal grand jury that the FBI used to subpoena the records from Mr and Ms McDonnell Can you tell us whether that grand jury, that federal grand jury, was located within the Eastern District of Virginia?

A Yes, sir, it was

Q So now I'd like to move to January of 2012 I'd like to show you what's already been admitted as Exhibit 285

Are you familiar with this document, sir?

A I am.

Q Is this one of the Kinloch Golf Club receipts from January of 2012?

A It is.

Q If we could turn to Page 2 of this document Do you see there on the receipt, it looks like about the second receipt down, can you tell us the individuals that are listed on that receipt?

A Sure It is Governor Bob McDonnell, Bobby McDonnell, and Sean McDonnell

Q Agent Hulser, have you reviewed Mr McDonnell's and Ms McDonnell's credit card records for this particular time frame?

A I have

Q Are there any charges to Kinloch Golf Club in that time frame?

A No, there are not

Q In this same time frame, have you obtained any e-mails in which Mr McDonnell in January of 2012 is discussing his and his sister's finances as they relate to MoBo Realty?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 283 Is this an e-mail exchange between Mr McDonnell and his sister, Maureen McDonnell?

A It is

Q Is it dated January 4th, 2012?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 283 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right, focusing in on the e-mail down below, where it says from Mark Shulman to governor@bobmcdonnell com. Can you tell us what property they are referring to in that area down towards the bottom of the e-mail?

A The Sandbridge oceanfront property, so the smaller of the two properties in Virginia Beach.

Q Then turning to the second page, do you see there where it refers to Wintergreen  Devils Knob Loop?

A I do

Q Do you know what property that is?

A Yes That is the property at the Wintergreen resort It is included within Blue Ridge Heaven partnership

Q We have heard a little bit about Blue Ridge Heaven, but a little bit less than we have about MoBo Based on your review of the records, do you know what Mr McDonnell's ownership percentage was or is in Blue Ridge Heaven?

A 20 percent

Q Going back to the first page, where it refers in the e-mail below, if we can scroll down just a little bit, do you see there where it refers to financing alternatives at the bottom of where it is on the screen right now?

A Yes

Q If we could scroll up. What does Mr McDonnell write to his sister in that response e-mail?

A "FYI, meeting with a few banks tomorrow Thoughts "

Q Agent Hulser, based on your review of the financial records and the mortgage records, did a refinance actually go through in this time frame?

A It did not

Q Let's go to about a week or so later, a little over a week later, to January 13th of 2012 I'd like to show you what's been admitted as Exhibit 287 Agent Hulser, are you familiar with this Mansion log?

A I am.

Q Whose name is listed there from 1318 to 1358 on January 13th of 2012?

A Jonnie Williams

Q Now, Agent Hulser, did you review the text and toll records for this day?

A I did.

Q To be clear, did you actually put together any sort of chart for that particular day?

A Yes

Q Sorry, for January 13th, 2012

A Correct

Q Agent Hulser, I can show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 586 What's the date of this chart?

A January 19th, 2012

Q So for January 13th of 2012, was there any chart that you put together?

A No

Q All right Now, turning to what's been admitted as Exhibit 290, so now this is a Mansion log from January 19th of 2012; is that right?

A That's correct

Q And what name is shown from 1100 to 1300 on that particular Mansion log?

A "Williams "

Q Who does it say Williams is there to see?

A "To see 102 "

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 586 Is this a chart that you put together showing text, tolls, and information from Mr McDonnell's schedule for January 19th, 2012?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 586 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q I'd like to start at the top here The section in green where it goes across and then down and comes back over at 1 p.m., where is that information taken from?

A That's taken from the log for the Mansion

Q Now, after Mr Williams arrives at the Mansion according to that log, what happens at 11:57 a.m ?

A Ms McDonnell calls Jasen Eige

Q Now, according to Mr McDonnell's schedule, where is he scheduled to be from 12 to 12:45 p.m. while Mr Williams is at the Mansion?

A He is scheduled to be having lunch with Ms McDonnell at the Executive Mansion

Q Now, at 12:02 p.m. there, what call does Ms McDonnell make according to the phone records?

A She reaches out to sister Maureen.

Q And then from 12:11 to 12:23 p.m., what call is shown there?

A A call from Michael Uncapher to Ms McDonnell

Q Agent Hulser, were you in Court when Mr Burck cross-examined Mr Uncapher about this particular date and some of the phone records?

A I was

Q Were you in Court when Mr Uncapher said that this is the date he believes he talked to Jonnie Williams?

A Yes

Q So then after Mr Williams leaves the Mansion according to the log at 1 p.m., can you walk us through the next four calls that are shown here on this chart?

A Sure Jonnie Williams reaches out for Ms McDonnell, and that call is connected for four minutes Then Ms McDonnell immediately contacts Mr McDonnell for a short two-minute call Ms McDonnell then calls Jonnie Williams, and thereafter she contacts Mr McDonnell's Travel Aide, and that call was connected for six minutes

Q Then later at 4:05 p m., how long of a call does Mr Williams have with Ms McDonnell?

A 16-minute call

Q This chart says that that lunch with Ms McDonnell was on Mr McDonnell's schedule Have you also reviewed Ms McDonnell's calendar for January 19th of 2012?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 276 Is this first page of this document Ms McDonnell's calendar that she produced for that same time frame?

A Yes, it is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we would offer Page 1 of Exhibit 276 as 276-A.

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR FAULCONER: Could it be published to the jury, Page 1?

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q So Mr Starnes, if we could zoom in on January 19th there Could you tell us what is shown on Ms McDonnell's calendar for 12 p.m. on January 19th of 2012?

A "Lunch with RFM, Executive Mansion."

Q After this day, January 19th, 2012, but later in January, have you reviewed any e-mail communications in which Mr or Ms McDonnell discuss Mr Williams?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been admitted as Exhibit 295 Is this an e-mail that was produced by Ms McDonnell?

A It is

Q If we can look at the bottom e-mail in this exchange Is that an e-mail that Mr Uncapher testified about earlier in the trial?

A Yes

Q Do you see there where it says for MoBo at the bottom, "I talked with your Mo last week and she had me talk to the guy who is helping us " Do you see that there?

A I do

Q If we could go back to the first page Could you tell us what Mr McDonnell's response is to that e-mail that he sends to Ms McDonnell?

A "Maureen, who are we talking about that is helping us and talking to Mike? Jonnie?"

Q And what is Ms McDonnell's response?

A "Just got home. I'll talk with you upstairs "

Q What's the subject line of that e-mail?

A "BRH and MoBo."

Q All right Now, just like the calls and text messages that we have talked about, do you personally know what if any conversation Mr and Ms McDonnell had after that e-mail exchange?

A I do not

Q So I'd like to move forward to February 8th of 2012 I'd like to show you what's already been admitted as Exhibit 312 Focusing in on the middle e-mail as well as the header of the e-mail right below it, could you tell us what time the e-mail from Ryan Lanier to Jonnie Williams, Jr is sent?

A Sure That's sent at 10:58 a.m.

Q What's the date?

A February 8th, 2012

Q Then what time does Mr Williams, Jr forward that e-mail to Ms McDonnell?

A At 3:14 p.m. on February 8th

Q All right So now I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 587 Is this a chart showing certain calls from Ms McDonnell's phone records for that same day, February 8th, 2012?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 587 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q So Agent Hulser, could you tell us what the first two calls are shown on this chart at 10:14 and 10:16 a.m.?

A Sure At 10:14, Ms McDonnell reaches out for Jasen Eige on his office phone Right after that, she reaches out for Jonnie Williams, Jr , and that phone call lasts for approximately 13 minutes

Q If we could go back real quick to Exhibit 312 That says 10:16 a.m. there How long after that call does Mr Lanier forward that e-mail to Mr Williams, Jr at 10:58 a m.?

A Less than an hour

Q Now, looking at 3:14 p.m. there, and now going back to Exhibit 587, after that, is that e-mail shown in the middle there, that e-mail we were just looking at?

A It is

Q Now, what happens after that e-mail a few hours later at around 6:30 p.m. that evening?

A Ms McDonnell reaches out for Jasen Eige again, and at 6:36 and 6:37

A She forwards that to Mr McDonnell

Q Is there a cc on it?

A Cc is Jasen Eige

A Yes

Q If we could flip forward, have you reviewed those attachments to this document?

A I have

Q If we could flip forward, keep going, keep going, all right Back one page Could you read for us what it says starting with "The Governor " and then through the three things that are listed there?

A Sure "The Governor of Virginia and his wife became interested, and asked the company to present the results of the symposia at the Governor's Mansion After reviewing the material the Governor asked three questions: 1: Was there enough evidence to suggest that this might be an important scientific finding? 2: Would the findings, if positive, have the potential for significant health gains for Virginia? 3: Would successful findings result in good jobs in economically depressed counties in Virginia "

Q What's the sentence right after that?

A "Hearing affirmative answers to all three questions, he suggested a grant be made to the Tobacco Commission "

Q All right Now, going back to Page 1 of this exhibit, to be clear, Special Agent Hulser, this e-mail says it was forwarded from Ms McDonnell to Mr McDonnell Can you say for certain whether or not Mr McDonnell read that attachment or that portion of it?

A No, sir

Q But keeping in mind that timing on February 9th, 2012 at 3:13 p.m., I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 588 Is this a document showing certain toll records as well as information from Mr McDonnell's schedule on that day?

A He is scheduled to be departing for the Executive Mansion from the Governor's Office

Q When in relation to that portion of the schedule does the e-mail we just looked at fall?

A Before

Q Right there at 3:13 p.m.?

A Correct

Q Then at 4:20 p.m., what does Mr McDonnell's schedule say that he is supposed to do on that day?

A Supposed to be packing luggage at the Executive

Mansion.

Q Then what about that evening from 4:55 to eight p.m.?

A From 4:55 to eight p.m., Mr and Ms McDonnell are traveling together to Washington, D.C for an event, and thereafter, they are staying overnight together at the Hyatt Regency in Reston, Virginia, Northern Virginia

Q And do their cell phone records in fact indicate some calls with origination locations in Northern Virginia on that day?

A They do.

Q So now let's go to the following day, February 10th, 2012 I'd like to show you what's been admitted as Exhibit 314 Zooming in on the top portion of this e-mail, who is this an e-mail from and to?

A This is an e-mail from Ms McDonnell to Jasen Eige

Q Can you read for us the first couple of sentences down to where it says "VCU MCV"?

A Sure "Please call Jonnie today, get him to fill you in on where this is at Gov wants to know why nothing has developed with studies after Jonnie gave $200,000 I'm just trying to talk with Jonnie Gov wants to get this going with VCU MCV Please let us know what you find out after we return. A Governor McDonnell, Ms McDonnell, Tucker Martin, Adam Zubowsky, and Phil Cox

Q Were you in Court for Tucker Martin's testimony about recalling that travel with Ms McDonnell?

A I was

Q All right So let's move forward to the following week I'd like to show you what's been already admitted as Exhibit 318 Are you familiar with this February 16th, 2012 e-mail from Mr McDonnell to Mr Williams shown there at the bottom?

A I am.

Q What's the time on that e-mail?

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 589 Special Agent Hulser, is this a chart showing communications between Ms McDonnell and Mr Williams as they surround those two e-mails we were just talking about?

A It is

Q What's the date on this chart?

A February 13th through the 18th of 2012

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 589 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Agent Hulser, I'd like to actually start with the bottom of this chart Do you see there where it shows a text message from Mr Williams to Ms McDonnell at 8:18 p m. on February 18th?

A I do

Q Before that time, going all the way back to February

13th, spanning those two e-mails, were there any communications in which Mr Williams was reaching out to Ms McDonnell in the records?

A No.

Q Were there any communications in the records where Mr Williams was reaching out to Mr McDonnell?

A No.

Q How long are the two phone calls on February 13th and February 16th that are shown there?

A Seconds

Q Now, after the two e-mails from Mr McDonnell that we just looked at, what's shown at 8:50 p.m. later on February 17th?

A Ms McDonnell sends a text message to Mr Williams

Q And then the next day at 4:22 p.m., who is it that reaches out to Mr Williams again?

A She does

Q How long is that call?

A That's eight seconds

Q Now, that's what the tolls say Have you reviewed Mr McDonnell's schedule for the night of February 16th, 2012 in the middle there?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been admitted as Exhibit 317 Turning to the second page, could you tell us at the bottom there where Mr McDonnell is scheduled to be that evening of those e-mails?

A At the Executive Mansion

Q All right Now, prior to this time frame, we have seen some of these calls that are just a few seconds Do you recall when the last call greater than a minute was between Mr Williams and Ms McDonnell during that time frame prior to February 13th?

A I believe it was back on February 4th.

Q After that, when was the next call that lasted more than a minute?

A February 20th

Q And to be clear, were there any calls from Mr Williams to the McDonnells during that time frame for more than a minute?

A No.

Q Let's move to February 21st and 22nd of 2012 I'd like to show you what's been admitted as Exhibit 323 Turning to the second page, could you tell us what the date and time at least reflected on this document is?

A February 22nd, 2012 at 1:19 a m.

Q Now, to be clear, Agent Hulser, do you recall your testimony yesterday about time zone adjustments?

A I do

Q Is this one of the text messages to which, based on your review of the records, you made a time zone adjustment?

A It is Four hours

Q Now, and that would be four hours to when?

A Four hours back

Q So to 9:19 the prior day?

A Correct

Q Now, have you compared this text message to Mr Williams' text message records around that same time frame?

A I have

Q Just to be clear, is this a text message here from Ms McDonnell to Mr McDonnell?

A It is

Q All right So now I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 590 Is this a chart showing some of the text message records from this time frame surrounding that text message?

A Yes, sir

MR FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 590 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Before Ms McDonnell sends the text message that we just looked at talking about Jonnie texting her, can you tell us what two text messages are shown earlier that same evening?

A Sure. Mr Williams sends a text message to Ms McDonnell at 6:50 p.m. And Ms. McDonnell sends a text message back at 8:22 p.m.

Q Now, one thing on that last text message, does it say there, "Needs our broker's name"?

A It does

Q Did you recover any text messages from Ms McDonnell in this time frame saying "my broker's name"?

A No.

Q I'd like to show you what's been already admitted as Exhibit 556 Are you familiar with this metadata poll that Special Agent Huff did and testified about earlier in trial?

A Yes

Q Now, it shows there that the call is scheduled from 8:30 to 9 p.m. Do you see that in sort of the upper portion?

A I do.

Q Is that, again, one of those areas to which a time zone adjustment applies?

A That's correct

Q Now, going down, what time is that calendar entry set on Mr McDonnell's calendar?

A 1:32 p.m.

Q Now, going to -- sorry, one more thing about this one Read for us what it says under "Note "

A "Note: Adam will connect you to this call Once all participants are on the line, it will be transferred to your office/desk line "

Q Do you recall during this time frame what the name was of Mr McDonnell's Travel Aide?

A Yes, Adam Zubowsky

Q All right So going forward from this one to Exhibit 324, does this show that same meeting being set, or at least a meeting for the same time frame referencing John Piscitelli on Ms McDonnell's calendar?

A It does

Q And who is this entry being sent to by an individual named Kristen Kaplan?

A It is being sent to Adam Zubowsky

Q All right Now, between these two calendar entries, and we can flip back to the other one if you need to, what is the order in which these are set? Whose calendar does it get put on first?

A Mr McDonnell's

Q Have you reviewed the toll records for that day for any calls that corroborate the set-up of how this was arranged?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 591 Is this a chart showing some of those phone call records?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 591 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, the first two entries on this chart, are those the Outlook entries we were just looking at?

A They are.

Q So after that, at 3:38 p.m., can you tell us what's shown in the phone records?

A Yes There is a phone call from the RFM Travel Aide office to Maureen McDonnell, phone call lasts for 22 minutes, and then immediately after that, Ms McDonnell reaches out to Jonnie Williams, and that call lasts for a minute and 40 seconds

Q Does that 3:38 to 4 p.m. call, does that fall within the scheduled time frame of the scheduled call with John Piscitelli?

A It does

Q All right Now, that was February 23rd, 2012 I'd like to show you what's been already admitted as Exhibit

330 Are you familiar with this Outlook entry for a meeting on February 29th, 2012?

A Yes

Q And what date and time is this meeting set on Mr McDonnell's calendar?

A It is sent on February 28th at 3:15 p.m.

Q Have you compared the tolls in this time frame to that meeting that Mr Williams -- sorry, real quick, what is the topic that's listed under that meeting there?

A "Healthcare Group Leaders Reception tonight at the Executive Mansion "

Q All right Now, have you reviewed this Outlook entry as it relates to certain texts and toll records?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 592 Is this a chart showing those toll records that you reviewed?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 592 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right, now, can you walk us through what those two calls are at the top there before the meeting with Jonnie Williams is set on Mr McDonnell's calendar the next day?

A Sure There was an exchange of calls between Mr Piscitelli and Mr Williams

Q Then the next day, after the 1:30 to 1:55 p.m. meeting between Mr Williams and Mr McDonnell, can you tell us what's shown there at 3:30 p m.?

A Yes Mr Williams reaches out again for Mr Piscitelli

Q Then what's shown there at the bottom of the chart?

A The bottom of the chart, that shows that from 5:30 to 7 p.m., Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell and Jonnie Williams attend the Virginia Healthcare Industry Leaders Reception at the Mansion Mr McDonnell was only from six to seven.

Q Got you. Now, the schedule, at least the Outlook entry we see there for the meeting earlier that afternoon says, "Topic: Healthcare Group Leaders Reception." Have you reviewed any handwritten notes produced by Mr McDonnell in this case?

A I have

Q Are there any notes that have the date February 29th, 2012 written on them?

A Yes

Q I'd like to pull up what's been previously admitted as Exhibit 2 Is this a set of handwritten notes that were produced by Mr McDonnell?

A Yes

Q Have you actually reviewed the originals of these notes?

A I have

Q Now, turning to Page 3 of this document, zooming in on the portion there, do you see where February 29th, 2012 is written?

A I do

Q Now, Agent Hulser, we have seen those various invitations and scheduling things referring to the Healthcare Leaders Reception. Do you see any reference to the Healthcare Leaders Reception here?

A No, I do not

Q We have also heard some testimony about these notes having been produced to the government Again, how did you obtain these notes from the defendants?

A These notes were turned over to us

Q Was that after a grand jury subpoena?

A It was

Q Now, originally, were these notes produced in color?

A No

Q What were they produced in?

A Just black and white

Q And how about the order of them? When they were originally produced, were they in the same order they were produced in color later on?

A No

Q I'd like to show you Exhibit 1 marked for identification Agent Hulser, is this the same set of handwritten notes as they were originally produced?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 1 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Agent Hulser, sitting here today, can you be certain yourself of the order in which any of these notes were actually taken?

A No, I cannot

Q I'd like to show you what's been already admitted as Exhibit 352 Are you familiar with this check?

A I am.

Q What is the date of this check?

A March 6th, 2012

Q Have you reviewed the texts and toll records for that date, March 6th of 2012?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 593 Is this a chart that you prepared for texts and tolls from that particular day?

A Yes, sir

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 593 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Agent Hulser, this is the date of the check we were just looking at Can you tell us what call is shown or what the first two calls are that are shown here on this chart?

A Sure At 11:01 a m., Mr Piscitelli reaches out to Jonnie Williams, and at 12:11 p.m., Mr McDonnell reaches out for Mr Piscitelli

Q Then what's shown on the next row?

A Mr Williams reaches out for Ms McDonnell

Q Then there, later on that same day at 11:52 p.m , could you read the text message that's sent from Ms McDonnell to sister Maureen McDonnell?

A Sure "Mo, I've tried to call you and sent you the above text Need to talk. You will be receiving a check written out to MoBo tomorrow by overnight delivery Don't deposit "

Q And Special Agent Hulser, again, that notation there on the time there, what does that reflect?

A That we had to make a four-hour time conversion

Q Was that text message produced by sister Maureen McDonnell?

A It was

Q All right Now, I'd like to show you what's been -- excuse me Exhibit 357, has that already been admitted? It has been marked for identification as Exhibit 357 Zooming in on the second page Is this a text message produced by Mr McDonnell of a text to Mr Williams?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 357 into evidence

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, could you read the content of this text message from Mr McDonnell to Mr Williams?

A "Do you have time tomorrow to talk with me on business matters Governor What time are you available "

Q Do you see there where it says March 12th, 2012 at 3:09 a.m.?

A I do

Q Is this another one of the text messages that you made a time zone adjustment to?

A It is

Q I'd like show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 358 Going to the second page, is this a text message from Mr Williams to Mr McDonnell?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 358 into evidence.

A It shows a series of text messages and communications involving sister Maureen, Mr McDonnell, Ms McDonnell

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 594 into

evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, starting with Page 1, am I correct that the jury hasn't seen these text messages between Ms McDonnell and sister Maureen McDonnell yet; is that right?

A That's my understanding

Q So could you start by just reading for us the first text that's shown on this page from Ms McDonnell to sister Maureen McDonnell?

A Sure "Hello Have you received my messages? Know you have been traveling and got back Friday Need to talk to you. Anxious friend waiting for me to confirm you received FedEx valuable package Please call "

Q Then how does sister Maureen McDonnell respond within the hour?

A "Mo, so sorry Got back Friday night and have been sick Just got out of bed for the first time now Yes, hit FedEx package Should I not deposit? Love Mo "

Q Special Agent Hulser, to be clear there, who is the 50 percent partner in MoBo Realty with Mr McDonnell?

A His younger sister Maureen.

Q There does it say, "You don't even know what it is for and what agreement and arrangement I've made"?

Q So then after sister Maureen McDonnell responds "Mike and I will call shortly," what's the text message that comes in about the same time from Ms McDonnell back?

A "Hey Bobby I'm leaving church. Mike called Mo earlier and got disconnected She said we needed to talk about check when you woke up Please call now if you would like "

Q Now then, at 6:15 p.m., how long of a phone call is there between Mr McDonnell and sister Maureen McDonnell?

A Approximately 22 minutes

Q Then what happens later within that same hour?

A Mr McDonnell reaches out for Ms McDonnell, phone call for a minute And then sister Maureen reaches out for Mr McDonnell and there is a three-minute call connected.

Q Then at 7:19 p.m., could you read the text message from Ms McDonnell back to sister Maureen McDonnell?

A Sure "I left you messages because I worked on this loan for a year, not Bob I needed to speak to you directly, not Michael Why do you always do that to me? But you could return Bob's call "

Q And then the last two lines that are shown there, are those the text messages that we looked at a little bit earlier?

A They are

Q Is there any reference in these text messages to the loan being to MoBo?

A No

Q Now, I'd like to show you what's been already admitted as Exhibit 356 Are you familiar with this deposit slip?

A Yes, I am.

Q Is this a deposit slip for that same check we were just looking at a moment ago?

A It is

Q Now, have you reviewed the text and toll records for March 12th of 2012?

Q Is it dated March 12th, 2012?

A That's correct

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 359 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q Now, could you read this text message from Mr McDonnell to Mr Williams that evening?

A Yes "Please call when you can Governor "

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 360 Turning to the second page --

MR. FAULCONER: Has this been admitted? Your

Honor, I think I misspoke earlier Could we go to Exhibit 356 briefly? Your Honor, I don't believe that this has been admitted, but we would offer it into evidence now This is the deposit slip.

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Again, Agent Hulser, what's the date on that deposit slip?

A I lost the screen.

Q Is it back up now?

Q All right So I think we were on Exhibit 360 Turning to Page 2 of this, is this a text message from Mr Williams back to Mr McDonnell?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 360 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

Is this another text message from Mr McDonnell back to Mr Williams?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 361 into evidence

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 363 into evidence

A Yes

Q Could you read the text message from Mr Williams back to Mr McDonnell?

A "Can you talk? Jonnie "

Q Now, we have looked at this series of four texts Have you also reviewed the texts and toll records for that same time frame?

A I have

MR. FAULCONER: Your Honor, I'd like to show the witness what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 595

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Special Agent Hulser, is this a chart showing some of those texts and tolls as they relate to the text that we just reviewed?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 595 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right, Agent Hulser, there is a little bit more on this one What is the first call shown there at 2:36 p.m., the date of the check deposit?

A Call from Mr McDonnell to sister Maureen

Q And then two minutes later, could you read the text exchange that occurs between Mr McDonnell and sister Maureen McDonnell?

A Sure There's a couple of short telephone exchanges between Mr Williams and Mr McDonnell, and then at 9:52 p.m., Mr Williams has a call with Mr McDonnell that lasts 23 minutes and 49 seconds

A I believe that's the Navy Federal Credit Union mortgage

Q Down below that, "@@Lantec loan," do you know what that's a reference to?

A Another one of the MoBo mortgages

Q Dr Paul Davis there, were you in Court for the testimony about the loan from Paul Davis?

A I was

Q Does that dollar amount match the dollar amount on the promissory note?

A Yes

Q Now, you have said there are several mortgage payments that are shown here on this chart Are there any payments in from rentals in that time frame?

A No

Q Now, "Resource Building Corp" there shown at the bottom, are you aware based on your review of the tax returns how that particular expenditure was treated for the year 2012?

A Yes That amount was capitalized to the balance sheet of MoBo

Q Does that essentially mean it is an improvement to the property?

A It does

Q Now, turning to the second page of this chart, could you tell us there, the TowneBank credit line and TowneBank business loan entries, can you tell us what types of payments those were?

A Those were also related to the TowneBank mortgages

Q Now, there on April 12th of 2012, can you tell us what that entry shows in terms of that deposit?

A Yes That shows that there were partner contributions, $12,500 from Mr. McDonnell and $7,500 from sister Maureen.

Q Then lastly, those two payments down there, Bank @Lantec and NFCU, are those also mortgage payments?

A Again, mortgage payments.

Q What's the ending balance on April 30th of 2012?

A Just over $2,300

Q Now, I'd like to show you what's already been admitted as Exhibit 370 Going to the second page, are you familiar with this text message from Mr McDonnell to Mr Williams?

A Yes

Q Could you read it?

A Sure "Stock going great Alzheimer's study announcement really helped Thanks for coming to Romney event and helping him. Gov "

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 371 Is this a text message from Mr Williams to Mr McDonnell?

A Yes

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 371 into

evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q And again, this says April 28th, 2012 at 2:10:08 a.m. Is this one of those e-mails with that time zone adjustment?

A Yes, it is

Q I'm sorry, text message

A Right

Q Now, I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 372 Is this a text message back from Mr McDonnell to Mr Williams?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 372 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Could you read that text message back from Mr McDonnell?

A Sure "Phenomenal This will be great for Virginia and medicine Will talk to you about Virginia Beach soon Thanks."

Q Now, this is April 27th or so of 2012 Have you reviewed text messages between Mr McDonnell and his sister discussing the financial status in the month leading up to this?

A Yes

Q That being the financial status of MoBo?

A Correct

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 597 Is this a chart showing some of those text messages from March 23rd and 24th of 2012?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 597 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Again, Agent Hulser, are these text messages that were produced by sister Maureen McDonnell?

A Yes, sir

Q Have any of these been entered into evidence previously?

A No.

Q Now, after that first one that's shown there saying "We paid the builder today, we will have not quite enough to pay all expenses through June," who is that from there?

A From Mr McDonnell to sister Maureen.

Q Then what's the next one shown there at 8:33 p.m. from Mr McDonnell to sister Maureen McDonnell?

A It is another text message

Q Could you read it?

A Sure "FYI this is the payoff for Dr Davis $33,004 53 after March payment. $16,500 each Bob "

Q Now, after sister Maureen McDonnell's response at 8:40, could you read the next message that Mr McDonnell sends to his sister at 8:54 p.m.?

A Yes "Total or on top of the 6-7k more we will probably need by June for expenses?? Bob "

Q How does sister Maureen McDonnell respond two minutes later?

A "In addition likely "

Q Then the next day, could you read the text message from Mr McDonnell to sister Maureen McDonnell?

A Okay "Will work on that premise for an April 15th payoff to Davis "

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 369 Is this an e-mail produced by Mr McDonnell?

A It is

Q Is it an e-mail exchange between him, Michael Uncapher, and sister Maureen McDonnell?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 369 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q What is the date of this e-mail exchange?

A It begins on April 4th, 2012 at 12:26 a m

Q Now, could you read for us on the bottom e-mail just the last two lines where it starts with "As soon as I get "

A It states: "As soon as I get the rental income estimates from Sandy I will estimate our shortfall this year. Thanks."

Q All right And that e-mail was from Mr McDonnell, right?

A Correct

Q Now, turning to the top e-mail, can you tell us what Mr McDonnell then writes a little bit later that same day?

A Sure It says: "Mo and Mile Just found another better loan opportunity 1 9 percent for 13 months but can only borrow 8,000, meaning we would need to pay 12,500 each toward the Davis loan However the monthly payment for MoBo is only 679 for twelve months Can you do this or is that a stretch? Advise soon "

Q To be clear, Agent Hulser, does this say "meaning you," sister Maureen McDonnell, "would need to pay $25,000 yourself" or does it say "$12,500 each"?

A $12,500 each.

Q Based on your review of the financial records, did you find any evidence of this loan opportunity actually coming to fruition?

A No

Q All right Now, moving past that April exchange and into May of 2012, I'd like to show you what's been already admitted as Exhibit 386 Are you familiar with this wire transaction document?

A Yes

Q If we could just zoom in on the middle portion there What is the date of that wire transaction?

A May 22nd, 2012

Q Is this $20,000 to the MoBo Real Estate Partners bank account?

A Yes

Q And based on your review of the other records, is this a wire in from Starwood Trust?

A It is

Q Did you review text message conversations for text messages discussing this transaction in the days leading up to it?

A I did.

Q All right Agent Hulser, I'd like to hand up to you with the assistance of the Court Security Officer paper copies of what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 382, 383, and 384 Agent Hulser, if you could take a moment to look at those and tell us if those are text messages between Mr McDonnell and Mr Williams on May 18th, 2012 once you adjust for time zone

A Yes, they are.

MR FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 382, 383, and 384 into evidence

THE COURT: They will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right, now, Agent Hulser, have you actually taken these text messages and some others from that same day and put them into a chart that corrects the time zone issue?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 598 Is this that chart?

A Yes, sir, it is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 598 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q There's a lot of text on this one, Agent Hulser, but could you start with what the first line on this chart shows?

A The first line on this chart shows that Mr McDonnell reached out to Mr Williams and a short phone call was connected.

Q Now, four minutes later at 1:26 p.m., could you read the text message from Mr McDonnell to Mr Williams?

A Yes "Jonnie Per voicemail would like to see if you could extend another 20k loan for this year Call if possible and I'll ask Mike to send instructions Thanks Bob "

Q And then what's the text message three minutes later to Michael Uncapher?

A "Can you send wiring instructions to Jonnie Williams for sending 20-K to MoBo account Phone is," the last four digits, "5828 Thanks Bob "

Q 12 minutes after Mr McDonnell had texted Mr Williams, what's the response back from Mr Williams?

A "Done Tell me who to make it out to and address Will FedEx Jonnie "

Q Is that next text message a text message that says, "It is addressed to Michael" and then has instructions for wiring money?

A Yes

Q And then at 4:13 p.m., what's the text message from Mr McDonnell to Mr Williams?

A "Jonnie Thanks so much for your help and friendship. Bob."

Q And then Mr Williams responds at 4:16 p.m. At 4:35 p.m., could you tell us what the text message is from Mr McDonnell to Michael Uncapher?

A "Michael Jonnie's instructions can you do Monday Bob " With forward of a 3:54 p.m. text

Q When you say forward of the 3:54 p.m. text, is that the same one shown at 3:54 there?

A It is

Q All right Now, this is May 18th, 2012, four days before the wire goes over Are you aware of where Mr McDonnell's schedule shows he was scheduled to be located at or around this time frame?

A Yes, Kiawah Island.

Q I'd like to show you what's already been admitted as Exhibit 378 Is this the schedule for that time frame?

A It is

MR. ASBILL: Objection. May we approach?

(At Bench.)

MR ASBILL: I understood the Kiawah Island trip for 404(b) evidence, it is Government's rebuttal evidence, or is it now something they are trying to admit?

MR. FAULCONER: The evidence from the SOEI is already in evidence The schedule is already in evidence I'm simply asking where he was that day I'm not going to ask him follow-up questions

THE COURT: The objection is overruled.

(In Open Court)

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right, now Agent Hulser, we have looked at a number of calls between Mr Williams and Mr McDonnell and some text messages in this time frame, May of 2012 Can you tell us in May of 2012, were there any calls between Mr Williams and Ms McDonnell greater than a minute?

A No, there were not

Q Were there any text messages between Ms McDonnell and Mr Williams in May of 2012?

A None

Q All right So earlier you walked us through the $50,000 that was deposited in MoBo in March of 2012 and how that was expended over the course of that month. Could you tell us whether you did the same thing for the $20,000 in May of 2012?

A Yes, I did.

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked as Exhibit 599-A. Is this a one-page chart showing that activity in that time frame?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 599-A into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right, so Agent Hulser, what is the balance shown in this account the day before the Starwood Trust wire comes in?

A Approximately $3,200

Q And then on May 22nd, 2012, two lines down, those next three lines, TowneBank, Bank @Lantec and NFCU, can you tell us if you know what payments those went towards?

A Mortgage payments for MoBo

Q Then Resource Building Corp, was that expenditure also capitalized as an improvement to the properties that year?

A It was

Q And then after the entry for Michael Uncapher, could you tell us TowneBank there, is that another mortgage payment?

A It is

Q And then Bank @Lantec on 5-31-12, what type of payment is that?

A Again, related to the mortgage

Q So in total, what does this chart show as the total withdrawals in the nine days, including and following that wire coming in?

A $18,775

Q Now, let's take a step back and talk about MoBo and the real estate holdings more generally Have you reviewed MoBo's bank records to determine what the ending monthly balance was in the account each month in this early 2012 time frame?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 600 Is this a chart showing what that analysis revealed?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 600 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR. FAULCONER: Could we publish it to the jury?

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Agent Hulser, which month of these six months is the ending monthly balance in the MoBo account the highest?

A I'm sorry, I didn't hear that

Q Which of these six months is the ending balance the highest on this chart?

A In March

Q And which month did Jonnie Williams' $50,000 check come in?

A March

Q In June of 2012, what's the ending monthly balance in June?

A $332

Q Now, in addition to looking at the ending monthly balances, do you remember earlier yesterday when you testified about looking at the deposits and withdrawals in the McDonnells' personal bank accounts in early 2011?

A I do

Q Did you do the same thing for MoBo in early 2012?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 601 Is this a chart showing what that analysis of the bank accounts determined?

A It is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 601 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Agent Hulser, it says there "Deposits and Withdrawals " To be clear, did the deposits there, is that limited to rental income or does that include every type of deposit in those accounts?

A Every type of deposit

Q When it says 53,312 in March, 2012, does that include the $50,000 from Mr Williams?

A It does

Q When it says 23,356 02 in May of 2012, does that include the $20,000 from Mr Williams?

A Yes.

Q With those amounts included, can you tell us what the difference is between the total deposits into the accounts in that time frame and the total withdrawals?

A Just over $5,400

Q If you subtracted out the $70,000 from Mr Williams, would that $5,000 go into the positive category or further into the negative?

A Further into the negative

Q All right Now, in addition to the bank records at TowneBank themselves, have you also reviewed the MoBo tax returns as they were prepared by Dan Cook?

A I have

Q Do you know who Dan Cook is?

A I do

Q Is he the CPA who did the taxes?

A Yes

Q Now, did those documents have MoBo's real estate income and expenses on them?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 602 Is this a chart showing that information?

A It is

Q Is this essentially a version of the same '09 to '10 chart just adding on '11, '12, the one we saw earlier?

A Yes, it is

MR. FAULCONER: We would offer Exhibit 602 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Agent Hulser, we saw the first two columns on this chart yesterday, right?

A We did

Q Could you walk us through what the changes are in the rental real estate income and expenses in 2011 and 2012?

A Yes The net for 2011 is a negative 32,912 And the net for 2012 is a positive $5,004

Q Now, 2012, is that the same year that Mr Williams' $70,000 came in?

A It is

Q But to be clear, that $70,000 is not included in the rental real estate income, right?

A No, it is not

Q But looking at this document, does this document from the tax returns show all deposits into the account and disbursements out of the account?

A No

Q Have you looked at all of the disbursements out of the account to compare how they, or to compare them in this time frame to earlier time frames?

A I have

Q And based on that review, did the total cash disbursements out of the account in 2012, did they go down from 2011 or did they go up?

A Up

Q Have you prepared another chart based on the tax returns that shows how that was done?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 602-A. Is this that follow-up chart that you prepared?

A Yes, sir, it is

MR FAULCONER: We would offer 602-A into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted.

BY MR. FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Agent Hulser, are the first three lines on this chart just the same as the chart we were just looking at?

A They are

Q Can you tell us what's shown in the next line down where it says "Less: Loan Principal Payments"?

A Yes That is the portion of the payments for mortgages and other loans that represented principal So for the payment, if it is principal plus interest, the interest was only included in the rental real estate expenses row The principal payments are the rest of the payment that was made

Q Of course, you are not saying there is anything wrong with doing that; that's just what the tax return showed, correct?

A Right

Q The next one down where it says "Less: Capitalized Expenses," can you tell us what that's showing?

A That's just showing expenses or disbursements that were made each year for items, that for tax purposes are capitalized, so over time they are depreciated You don't take the full amount of the expense in the year that you paid that out

Q And what's the total amount of capitalized expenses in 2012?

A $30,040

Q Does that dollar amount include those payments to Resource Building Corp that we saw earlier?

A It does

Q Now, could you walk us through what the last row on this chart shows?

A The last row just shows the net cash disbursements or essentially the cash shortfall by year

Q Is that the difference between all of the disbursements in the account and all the rental real estate income?

A It is

Q So does this chart include any loans or owner contributions that are put into the account?

A No.

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Which of these four years is the highest shortfall in terms of net cash disbursements?

A 2012

Q All right Now, let's go back to -- or let's talk about Blue Ridge Heaven for a moment Have you also looked at the Blue Ridge Heaven tax returns for this same time period?

A I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 603 And is this a chart that you put together for Blue Ridge Heaven for 2009 to 2012?

A Yes, sir, it is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 603 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR FAULCONER: And could we publish that to the jury?

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, Agent Hulser, looking at this, is this basically the same chart just for Blue Ridge Heaven instead of MoBo?

A It is

Q In which of the four years is the net rental real estate income loss the highest for Blue Ridge Heaven?

A 2012

Q To be clear, though, what was Mr. McDonnell's percentage ownership in Blue Ridge Heaven?

A Only 20 percent

Q All right So let's go back to MoBo for a second Were you in court when Mr Uncapher testified about the loans that were taken out by MoBo over time?

A I was

Q And have you reviewed the tax returns and other records from Mr Cook to track how those loans increased or decreased over time?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 604 Is this a chart showing that information?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 604 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, there are a lot of numbers on this one too, Agent Hulser But can you tell us the total number of loans, do they go up or down over time?

A Over time, they go up

Q And the total dollar amount of loans that are listed

Does that go up or down overtime?

A It goes up

Q And during that time frame, are both Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell shown -- Ms McDonnell the sister shown loaning money to MoBo?

A Yes, they are

Q And looking at their two dollar amounts in 2012, can you tell us what the gap is between the amount that the two of them are contributing each to MoBo in that time frame?

A The gap, as of the end of 2012, is less than $4,000

Q Now, do you also see the line there where it says John McDonnell?

A I do

Q And do you recall Mr Uncapher's testimony about a loan from Mr McDonnell's father?

A I do

Q Now, does that dollar amount change at all over the course of the four years?

A No

Q Does any principal get added to it?

A No

Q Are any payments made on it in those four years?

A No

Q Do you also see there where it says Dr Paul Davis?

A I do

Q And have you actually reviewed the checks for the loan that was written by Dr Paul Davis to the McDonnells?

A Yes, I have

Q I'd like to show you what's been admitted as Exhibit 55 Now, is this the first of those three checks from Dr Davis?

A Yes

Q Now, zooming in on the bottom of these three checks, could you tell us who or what entity this check was made out to?

A MoBo Real Estate Partners, LLC

Q And to your knowledge, was this then deposited into the MoBo Real Estate Partners, LLC bank account?

A It was

Q I'd like to show you what's been admitted as Exhibit 59 Is this the next check in the series from Dr Davis?

A Yes

Q And was this check also written out to MoBo Real Estate Partnership, LLC?

A It was

Q And was this check also deposited into the MoBo bank account?

A Yes, it was

Q Also, I'd like to show you what's been admitted as

Exhibit 61 Is this the third in the checks from Dr Davis?

A Yes

Q And like the others, is this written out to MoBo Real Estate Partners?

A It is

Q And was it deposited into that bank account?

A Yes, it was

Q Now, I'd like to show you Exhibit 60, which has been previously admitted Is this the promissory note for the Dr Davis loan?

A Yes, it is

Q Agent Hulser, could you show us where on this promissory note it says MoBo Partners, LLC?

A No, I can't

Q Did you recover any documents in this case showing this loan being to MoBo, LLC?

A No

Q And in all the subpoenaed materials that you got, did you get any documents showing a loan from Mr Williams to MoBo, LLC?

A No

Q All right So we've talked about the payments through May of 2012 Are you also aware of the trip to Chatham Bars Inn in Cape Cod, Massachusetts, in September of 2012?

A I am

Q And have you reviewed the records produced by Chatham Bars Inn for the expenses charged at that establishment during that trip?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 605 Is this a chart showing the expenses as you reviewed them for that trip?

A Yes, sir, it is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 605 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, Agent Hulser, could you walk us through what each column on this chart shows?

A Sure The first column is the Date Second, the Room Charged The third column is the Charge Type The fourth is the Amount of the charge, and the last column is Paid By

Q And what's the total that was charged to Mr Williams' credit card during this trip?

A $36,618 07

Q And what's the total that was spent on food and beverage during this trip?

A $9,276 39

Q Now, I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 407 Is this a series of pages that shows the room charges for the Chatham Bars Inn?

A Yes

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 407 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Now, on the first page, whose room bill is this page?

A Mr Jonnie Williams

Q All right And then going a little ways down, a little past halfway, where it says, "McDonnell Bob & Maureen #393" there in the middle, is that the room charge for the McDonnells?

A Yes, it is

Q Now, when you go a little bit lower below that, do you see there where it says "Stars Charge, Check #2968, "1309 02"?

A I do

Q Did you obtain, from Chatham Bars Inn, a receipt for that charge?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 409 Is this that receipt?

A Yes, it is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 409 into evidence.

THE COURT: It will be admitted

MR FAULCONER: All right Now, if we could just zoom in on sort of the top third maybe, and then scroll down a little bit

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Is this what looks like a meal charge for that evening, August 31st, 2012?

A Yes, it is.

Q And there at the bottom, whose room is that charged to?

A Williams'

Q And August 31st, 2012, is that the night that Mr McDonnell and Ms McDonnell's room charges start?

A Yes

Q All right Well, now, I'd like to go back to Exhibit 407, briefly, to Page 2 And do you see --

MR FAULCONER: Is this Page 1 or 2? Oh, it's Page 2 Okay

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Do you see there, a little ways down in that portion, the catering charge that says $5,823 79?

A I do

Q Do you have the receipt for that charge?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 413 Is this that receipt?

A It is

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 413 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right Now, how many drinks there of Rémy Louix XIII does it show there?

A Sixteen

Q And what's the total cost?

A $2,400

Q Now, do you see there at the bottom it says "Payment Made," and then it says "393/McDonnell"?

MR FAULCONER: If we could go back to 407, Page 2

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q Regardless of what it says on the receipt, does that charge show up on Mr Williams' room?

A Yes, it does

Q All right Now, going to Page 7 of room -- of -- room -- of Exhibit 407 Is that the room bill for Phil Cox?

A Yes, it is

Q Now, it shows that the charges are on Phil Cox's room To be clear, the credit card at the bottom there, whose credit card is that? The one ending in 5005

A Mr Williams'.

Q And then finally, flipping back one page to Page 6, whose room bill is that?

A Bob and Maureen McDonnell

Q Now, to make sure that we're totally up-front with the jury, Agent Hulser, did you also review the McDonnells' credit card bills for charges that they made during the time frame of this trip?

A I did

Q And can you tell us whether you found any charges that appeared to be when they were at Chatham Bars?

A Yes

Q And can you tell us what those were?

A Two charges that totaled up to just over $1,100

Q And what was the total amount of food that was on the Chatham Bars Inn bill?

A Somewhere over $9,000

Q All right So let's shift gears a little bit, unless Your Honor wants to take a break?

THE COURT: No Let's try to make it until 11:30

MR FAULCONER: Got it

BY MR ASBILL:

Q All right. So let's go forward a little bit until December of 2012 Have you reviewed the Davenport & Company documents produced by John Piscitelli in this case?

A I have

Q And have you also reviewed the text messages that Mr McDonnell sent to Mr Williams referencing Star Scientific stock?

A Yes

Q I'd like to show you what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 606 Is this a three-page chart, Agent Hulser?

A Yes, it is

Q And the first page, does that just list out the stock transactions?

A Correct

Q And the second two pages, what are those?

A Those are basically a tracking of the stock price during that period; June 1, 2011, through December 31, 2012

Q And do those also include certain text messages from Mr McDonnell to Mr Williams in that time frame?

A They do

MR FAULCONER: Your Honor, we'd offer Exhibit 606 into evidence

THE COURT: It will be admitted

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q All right So looking at this first page, are those the -- the first four lines, are those the stock transactions that Mr Piscitelli testified about earlier in the trial?

A They are

Q And when is the last of those four transactions?

A December 20, 2011

Q And to be clear, based on your review of the records, are there any gifts of stock to Cailin McDonnell in that time frame?

A No.

Q All right Well, then looking at the three transactions in 2012, can you tell us when, in 2012, the Star stock goes down to 1,672?

A December 31st, 2012

Q All right

MR FAULCONER: So if we can turn to Page 2 of this exhibit, we'll zoom in on this in a second

BY MR FAULCONER:

Q But can you tell us what the time frame is that's shown here?

A June 1, 2011, through December 31, 2012

Q And the -- the graph, can you tell us what that's a graph showing?

A It's a graph showing the fluctuations in the stock price for Star

Q All right Now, if we could go to the second page of this document Is this showing some of these text messages from Mr McDonnell to Mr Williams in that same time frame?

A That's correct Text and e-mail

Q Now, could you walk us through what the share prices are as these text messages and e-mails are sent over the course of the summer of 2012?
